THE DIVINE MESSAGE

The Transcripts and Writings of
Her Supreme Holiness Shri Mataji Nirmalā Devi
July 1, 2016

Caveats and Points

1. Many transcripts are incomplete, essentially all transcripts require further revision.

2. All additions (comments, explanations, grammar adjustments, etc.) are listed in brackets. Unclear parts are marked [UNCLEAR] or [UNCLEAR text] or in case of multiple possibilities [UNCLEAR text1/text2/text3]. Some unclear parts in older transcripts are in brackets without having UNCLEAR; once transcripts get up-dated, UNCLEAR will be added to these parts.

3. Includes 40 full, 3 halves and 3 variants of a half SYNOPSIS of talks for which no English audios or videos have been identified so far. They begin with [SYNOPSIS!] and their paragraphs are included in brackets. Also included are an interview published in French, a German transcript of a Public Program in Germany and a Romanian translation of a talk of Sir C.P. in India.

4. Please send corrections, suggestions for improvement, and/or new transcripts to SahajaYoga.compilations@gmail.com

Sanskrit Words: Spellings and word searches

Sanskrit words are transliterated with notation eg. Mūlādhāra, Gaṇeśha, Kṛiṣhṇa, etc.

One will have to use these spellings to find a word. Below is an alphabetical list of Sanskrit words so that the name may be copied and pasted into the word search.

Words without notation such as Chakra are listed with (nn) after.

Names of living persons and Hindi words have not been notated.

Shri Mataji's name has been kept without notation except where it appears in mantras.

Om. There is some discussion in Sahaja Yoga about whether Om should be written Aum. In this edition Om has been retained on the grounds that it is the correct Sanskrit transliteration and is the way Shri Mataji wrote it Herself.

A Guide to Sanskrit Pronunciation can be downloaded free from the symb-ol.org website (Home page)

Sanskrit and other foreign words are given a capital letter, eg. Karma, Chakra.

Some Biographical Background to Shri Mataji's Life

Contents: 0000-0000 Additional Family History in Chronological Order until 2000 based on the Words of Shri Mataji, the book My Memoirs by Baba Mama and other Sources

xx-0000 Babruvahan was one of the descendants who defeated Vikramaditya and who started the calendar known as Shālivāhan shaka [Gregorian -78] as opposed to the calendar of Vikramaditya known as Vikramaditya Samvat or Vikramaditya Kala [Gregorian +56:7].

xx-0000 Babruvahan had a son called Shaliwah in the first century who migrated from North India to Paithan [ancient Prathishthan] near Aurangabad. They ruled Prathishthan until about 230 A.D.

16xx-0000 Father of Shivaji's mother Malojirao was persecuted by Aurangzeb.

So he and his son Jadhav came for help to Shālivāhanas.

Somehow Aurangzeb very much feared Shālivāhanas who were Devī's devotees so he never entered into the kingdom of Maloji. They came under the protection of descendants of Shālivāhanas who called themselves Salves and were given the village Nandgoan.

16xx-0000 A great flood had destroyed the palace of Paithan.

So Śhrī Shivaji Mahārāj had not only given protection to king Shālivāhan but, in recognition of his valour and intelligence, had presented this ancestor with a territory adjoining Rahuri. Śhrī Shivaji Mahārāj also gave them a special category of high caste called Shahanouw kuli. Śhrī Sītā Nahani is part of the territory adjoining Rahuri.

16xx-0000 Construction of a castle in Shrigoan [Shingve] in Rajput style Architecture, now known as Naiakanche Shingune [Shingune belonging to Naik].

1700-0000 Construction of a temple of Śhrī Rāma and Śhrī Sītā in the premises of the castle in Shrigoan (about).

1xxx-0000 This Naik was mottabbar [manager of the court] of the kingdom, who after the departure of `Salves' from Shrigoan had taken over.

1800-0000 Great-great-grandfather belonged to a Maratha Royal family that was ruling over a territory near Rahuri, including Shrigoan and extending till Hyderabad in the South of India [where there is the statue of the king Shālivāhan]. They were the descendants of the famous SataVāhana dynasty which was an off-shoot of Chandragupta Maurya dynasty. Shālivāhan came from Chittorgarh.

18xx-0000 The sister of the grandfather Keshavrao Salve [sister of a great ancestor in another account] becomes a widow at the age of 20. Being ill-treated and even stoned by relatives until she fainted and not allowed to enter the Shrigoan castle, her brother takes her to another big house which was outside the castle and is known even today as `Salwe Wada'. Upon this the Salves embrace Christianity but continue to remain teetotallers. The sister gets married to the boy of a brahmin who was already converted to Christianity by an English priest.

18xx-0000 Other relatives also managed to take over the land of Keshavrao Salve which is written in the land records by the Englishman.

1883-06-15 Death of grandfather Keshavrao Salve due to pneumonia which he contacted in an accident related to bad weather and falling from a horse while crossing the river between Rahuri and Shrigoan (on return from the Railway Station in Rahuri where he was supposed to receive his cousin Renukabai).

1883-07-00 Most of the distant in-laws ganged up against Sakhubai. Relatives tried to poison the milk of the fatherless family but by chance Sakhubai discovered this, as a cat that drank the milk had died.

This made Sakhubai to decide to leave the Shrigoan castle [wada] at the earliest possible opportunity.

1883-07-00 Night crossing of the river and walk on the rain to the Rahuri Railway Station of Sakhubai and her five children Solomon, Shantvanrao, David, girl and Santabai. Building a fire, they sat huddled together and awaited the train. Early morning the train arrives and takes them all to Manmad. After a short stay at Keshavrao's friend Mr. Chatre, they all reach UjJain at stay with Sakhubai's brother.

1883-07-15 Birth of father Prasadrao K. Salve (posthumously born to Sakhubai and Keshavrao Salve) in UjJain. In the morning of a rainy day, a normal delivery takes place: the child has radiant and handsome looks, very fair complexion and dark sparkling eyes.

1884-0000 Sakhubai is introduced to Mr. Wilkey, an English missionary and through him gets free one room tenement accommodation in the church compound of the Christian Mission in Indore, the neighbouring city of UjJain and commission from selling copies of bibles (one quarter of a rupee per copy sold). From time to time Sakhubai sells her family ornaments. With the other children in school and Sakhubai going around to nearby villages to sell copies of Bibles, the infant Prasadrao is left with either Renukabai or with Sakhubai's bother. (around) 1886-0000 Solomon, the eldest child of Sakhubai, takes the job of tolling the church bell every Sunday at a handsome salary of 5 Rupees per month. (around) 1887-0000 At the age of four, Prasadrao starts doing small household chores. He insists of also going out with Sakhubai. Initially, Sakhubai does not object but after some time she started keeping him at home on the pretext of making him responsible for some small odd jobs.

1889-0000 At a family picnic, Sakhubai asks Prasadrao to join his brothers and uncles for swimming and eventually he has his first swimming experience. Swimming becomes an addiction with him. Even for bathing he would go to the river.

188x-0000 Teachings of Sakhubai to her children. Uncompromising honesty is an absolute term and not a relative term. The biggest sin one could commit was to be dishonest. Astuteness, sense of honesty, dedication towards work, ever-willingness to fight injustice and respect for human dignity.

1889-0000 Prasadrao joins the Mission School. Well ahead, he topped the class and helped class and senior mates. Voracious reader with a photographic memory and a stickler for minute details. Nothing could escape his attention. After dinner, the family lights would turn off.

So after 9:00 p.m. he would study under a street lamp or at some friends' places. He used to study even during holidays, in order to give full justice to the sacrifices made by Sakhubai and Solomon.

18xx-0000 Reverend C.D. Zadhav marries Shantabai. He looks after the Chhindwara Lutheran Church and has a lot of influence with the missionaries in Chhindwara. He was a poet of greta repute and composed hymns and bhajans in Hindi which are even today sung in Hindi churches. He writes to Solomon about the vacant teacher post in the school in Chhindwara.

1892-12-20 Corneliabai Jadhav is born in Nandgoan [near Rahuri].

189x-0000 Prasadrao continues to top the class year after year. David and Shantvanrao continues their studies.

Solomon discontinues his studies after his matriculation. After initial odd jobs, Solomon is offered the post of a teacher in the Danielson Middle School, Chhindwara; eventually he becomes Headmaster of the school.

189x-0000 After a few years even Shantvanrao passes his matriculation exams and accepts a position at the same school.

189x-0000 Family shifts to Indore for the higher education of David and Prasadrao. Frequent visits to Chhindwara to meet Solomon and Shantvanrao.

1906-0000 Prasadrao marries Karunabai, daughter of his maternal uncle Śhrī Gaikwad.

1908-0000 First daughter Urmila born to Karunabai.

191x-0000 Cornelia has the initial education in Ahemadnagar, where she stays with her father who works as a librarian.

19xx-0000 All brothers were keen sportsmen: cricket, hockey, soccer, tennis, billiards and other games. The Superintendent of Indoor Police, an Englishmen, is so impressed with how David plays hockey and later on with his fluent reading of the police diary that he offers David the job of a police offcer.

David has a great sense of humour (similar to the one of Baba Mama).

19xx-0000 Solomon is assigned the job of teaching theology in the Chhindwara Seminary. Shantvanrao becomes later on the Headmaster of Danielson Middle School, Chhindwara.

19xx-0000 Shoe story: from tuition and scholarship money, Prasadrao buys a pair of shoes with 8 Rupees but he returns it at the request of Sakhubai who explained him that this would be unfair to his I brothers who were wearing chapels and slippers.

19xx-0000 Prasadrao's very good friend: Jal, Zoroastrian by faith, used to bring lunch for two telling his mother than his appetite had increased while at dinner he eats less as it is easier to study with a light stomach. Prasad would teach Jal.

19xx-0000 Other friends of Prasadrao from the college days in Indore. Mr. W.R. Puranik who later becomes Justice of the Supreme Court, Mr. Kaore and Mr. Garus who eventually goes to Nagpur and is in charge of Seva Sahan High School from where Shri Mataji will do her matriculation may years later.

19xx-0000 Dr. Wilkey, the principal, recognizes Prasadrao's brilliance and always encouraged him to do better.

19xx-0000 Prasadrao was studying for graduation but due to sickness he could not attend the mathematics exam and thus failed. As he new math very well, next year he replaced mathematics with Sanskrit.

[He ends up knowing 26 languages and mastering 14 of them.]

19xx-0000 Prasadrao graduates from Christian College, Indore which was affliated to the Calcutta University.

19xx-0000 Prasadrao has various jobs including teacher in the high school of Indore. He also works for some time in Maṇipūri Farookhabad and Jhansi, Uttar Pradesh. He eventually becomes a teacher in the St. John's High School, Agra. He chose Agra as it had a Law College. As he taught, he also studied law.

191x-0000 He passes the law exams from the Law College, Agra affliated to the University of Allahabad but he continues to work as a teacher.

191x-0000 Daughters Vimala, Ashwini and Kamala born to Karunabai.

1914-0000 Prasadrao and his family move to Chhindwara to practice law.

1914-08-00 Prasadrao accepts the post of Recruiting Offcer which he occupies until 1918-12-31.

191x-0000 Karunabai wins the first prize for making a basket at an exhibition of needlework in Chhindwara. She and Mrs. Lemmon, the daughter of Mr. Danielson, run adult education classes for ladies (especially to learn English).

191x-0000 Cornelia Jadhav graduates with honours from the Ferguson College, Pune, Maharashtra. She was the only she-student of Wrangler Paranjpe in those days. Authority in Indian mathematics, Sanskrit and ancient Indian Culture. Once she challenged Jagat Guru Shañkarāchārya [one of the authors of Indian Mathematics] and convinced him of an error in his theory.

1916-0000 Sushil is born to Karunabai. He is epileptic from birth and his mental growth is stunted.

1919-0000 Corneliabai comes from Nandgoan [on the other side of the Devnadi of Shrigoan] to Nagpur with her father as the principal of the Saint Ursula School. Fabulous salary: 125 Rupees per month, fully furnished bungalow and a servant. When she receives the first salary, she goes to the management and surrenders a hundred Rupees from her salary.

1919-0000 Prasadrao is honoured with the title of Rao Sahib for his excellent work as a Recruiting Officer. Also introduced to King George V when he visited India. Resumes his practice as a criminal lawyer and initially works as a junior with Rai Bahadur Mathura Prasad.

1919-0000 In a very short time, Prasadrao establishes himself as a noted criminal lawyer. He purchases a car. He also constructs a house on the main Nagpur road, where Shri Mataji will be born.

1919-08-27 Karunabai, who fell seriously ill earlier in the year, calls all the relatives, friends and acquaintances. More than 150 people came and bid her goodbye. She pleads to Rai Bahadur Mathura Prasad to take care of her husband and children.

1919-08-29 Karunabai tells her relations that she would the world today. She pleads to them not to cry or weep. She then raises her right arm an pointed three fingers to the sky. This was later interpreted as being that she saw three of God's messengers who had come to take her. Her last words [in Marathi]: Deva mala ghe [Oh God, please receive me.] Then she breathes last.

1919-09-00 Relatives persuade Prasadrao to marry again so that the children are looked after.

1920-0000 A proposal is send to Mr. Jadhav to have Corneliabai married to Prasadrao. Corneliabai refuses to meet Prasadrao in seclusion.

1920-06-21 Marriage of Corneliabai and Prasadrao takes place after many negotiations in the E.L. Church, Chhindwara.

1920-0000 Corneliabai moves to Chhindwara.

1921-03-18 Narendra (N.K.P.) is born to Corneliabai and Prasadrao.

1921-0000 Prasadrao recites an Urdu couplet in praise of Saronji Naidu, titled the Nightingale of India by Mahatma Gandhi, during her visit of Chhindwara.

192x-0000 Sir C.P. loses his father at a very tender age and is brought up by his uncles in a joint family system in Unnao, a small town near Lucknow. They belong to Kayastha caste of the Hindus. Always came first in both school and university. Gold Medalist. In his law exam he obtained 92% a record which seem to be still in place even today.

192x-0000 Prasadrao starts his own practice and becomes the main criminal lawyer in Chhindwara.

192x-0000 Prasadrao and his brothers become members of the alcohol-free sport club `The Plateau Club' [Chhindwara is on plateau of Satpuda mountain ranges]. Open piece of land converted into a cricket ground. Prasadrao infuses active participation in sports for all his children during school and college years.

192x-0000 Due to a tent-related colour discrimination between Britishers and Brown Sahibs on one side and the non-Britishers on the other side, Prasadrao boycotts a cricket game with the team from the coal mines. Once the tents were re-pitched close to each other and they were promised that never colour discrimination will be ever involved in matches, Prasadrao and his club team accept to play the game.

192x-0000 Corneliabai joins the law college of Nagpur.

192x-0000 Prasadrao elected member of the Chhindwara Municipal Committee and is also Vice President of it, Rai Bahadur Mathura Prasad being the President. As such, he forms a committee which ends up building a hospital for women, the first Medical Superintendent of it being Dr. Miss Macleam, a Scottish lady.

192x-0000 Prasadrao refuses to get information from the Ali brothers regarding the future plans of the anti-British movement [Khilafat movement].

19xx-0000 Realizing the sin, a descendant of Naik offered some rooms in the castle to Shri Mataji.

1921-0000 Prasadrao becomes very good friend with Mahārāja of Khilcipur who undergoes a one year training as a judicial officer in Chhindwara. Together they hunt tigers on holidays.

192x-0000 Friendship with Justice Pollack during his training as a judicial officer in Chhindwara.

1922-0000 Wooden jewelry box forgotten in a tonga and lost.

1923-03-00 Shikar in the nearby jungle to see a tiger. When Corneliabai notices that it is a pregnant tigress, she asks Prasadrao not to kill the tigress. Prasadrao jokes that Corneliabai might deliver Śhrī Durgā, the Goddess that rides the tiger.

1923-05-00 Fire breaks out in the right wing of the house where Vimala spilled some kerosene out of the lantern which was near the fireplace.

1924-0000 Family visit of Mahārāja of Khilcipur, a small state near Bhopal. They stay as state guests for seven to ten days.

1924-05-06 Shantasheela is born to Corneliabai. Corneliabai gives up on the law degree.

1925-0000 Death of Sakhubai.

1925-0000 Prasadrao meet Mahatma Gandhi for the first time at a gathering in Kathurchand Park, Nagpur.

1925-0000 Prasadrao and Cornelia decide to both meet Gandhiji at his ashram in Sevangram, 80 kms from Nagpur. On return, Prasadrao burns all his foreign-made suits publicly, in an open square. Both Prasadrao and Corneliabai wear kadhis till death.

1926-06-10 Vinaykumar (BalaSahib) is born to Corneliabai.

1927-0000 The bungalow in Chhindwara is sold to Rai Bahadur Malak, who was the spiritual head of the Boahara community. The monkey, dog and parrot are left behind as Salves move permanently to Nagpur at the request of Mahatma Gandhi.

1928-08-25 Indubala is born to Corneliabai.

1930-06-28 Shashkikala is born to Corneliabai.

1931-0000 Prasadrao jailed and Shri Mataji and Shantasheela are rusticated from the missionary school. Church also throws the Salves out.

1931-11-01 Death of Vimala.

1932-0000 Urmila marries Neelkant Nagkar who is working for police.

1933-04-00 Similar desire of Corneliabai of seeing an uncaged tiger is not fulfilled as Prasadrao is too busy with political activities. They end up seeing a caged tiger at the zoo in Nagpur.

1933-05-02 Baba Mama (H.P.) is born to Corneliabai in the house of Ratnam Babu Mudliar in Mohan Nagar, Nagpur (12th child of Prasadrao and the 7th child of Corneliabai).

1934-0000 Stay in a big house [Kanch bungala, meaning bungalow of glass] belonging to Mr. Chitnavis located on the Ghat Road.

1936-0000 Shift of premises to stay in the bungalow of Mr. Baig in New Colony, Nagpur.

1937-0000 Prasadrao becomes the President of the Nagpur Municipality [Mayor]. He holds this post until 1939.

193x-0000 Corneliabai is jailed five times.

1939-0000 Annual meeting of the Congress takes place in Tripuri on the banks of river Narmade near Jabalpur. Prasadrao is the President of Tripuri Congress Committee. This is the time when visits of Prasadrao, Corneliabai and Shri Mataji to Wardha become regular.

1939-0000 Prasadrao is appointed public prosecutor.

1940-0000 Shift premises to Mount Road bungalow. Salves have a car, a tonga, several servants and a driver.

Baba Mama learns everything about mechanics of the car. Shri Mataji often says that there is no originality in repairing machines. Shri Mataji suggests Civil Engineer so that he could use his originality by constructing cheap and innovative house and thus help build rural India.

1942-0000 As part of the `Quit India' movement, Prasadrao resigns the post of public prosecutor. On a Sunday he climbs to the roof of the high court and tears down the union Jack. While he is hoisting the tricolour flag to fly freely, sing the `Vande Mataram' and salute the ag, he is shot on his temple and bleeds profusely. Prasadrao arrested the same day.

1952-0000 Baba Mama joins the Commerce College in Nagpur.

1952-0000 When denied a ticket to the Central Assembly, Prasadrao dedicates himself to write a book translated the commentary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad on Koran. Hand made translation in 40 registers, each of 200 pages.

1953-09-00 Sushil dies in Nagpur.

(about) 1954-0000 Prasadrao and his family shift premises to Asha Villa, New Colony, Nagpur.

1954-12-30 Baba Mama leaves from Calcutta to join the Merchant Navy but quits after three days and returns to Commerce College in Nagpur.

1955-01-00 Prasadrao falls ill at the end of the defense of twelve people accused of gang murder.

1955-02-17 Corneliabai's hair becomes absolutely grey overnight on the death of her husband Prasadrao.

1955-0000 Baba Mama becomes the captain of the Commerce College cricket team. Shri Mataji, who often used to come to Nagpur, is proud of him.

1955-02-18 The judgement of the gang murder case is released and all twelve people accused are set free.

They come to the house of Prasadrao to thank him just to find out that he was buried the evening before.

They say that a man who tried to save their lives which were not so precious, lost his own life which was not only precious for him, his family and nation, but also for the entire human race.

1956-0000 Shift of premises. BalaSahib starts his practice as a lawyer and takes the responsibility of running the household.

[p.23:] How can I make you hungry? I have cooked for you a very nice meal but if you are not hungry you will not eat it and fuss about it. Those who are hungry will demand it.

[p.36:] When the waters of the lake of the mind are still, it reflects the beauty of its surroundings and the undisturbed joy of the Creator.

[p.37:]... your Kuṇḍalinī is patiently waiting for the time of Her manifestation. As your own mother she will never hurt you. With loving care she will first gently cure your physical body and repair the Chakras.

[p.37:] Everything that is very important is effortless; for example breathing, has to be very simple and effortless. That is why your Self-realisation takes place effortlessly.

[p.38:] Sahaja Yoga can start your motor car; if it needs repair, Sahaja is also a repair shop...

But without starting the car, how will you move? The starting is effortless.

[p.51:]... the Kuṇḍalinī, the residual Divine Power, resides in the triangular bone at the base of the spine. It is the germinating power of the seed of your being. This seed sprouts through Sahaja Yoga. I am like the gardener who pours some water on the seeds which he has planted in his garden. At first, only a few flowers come up, but at the time of the blossoming the phenomenon of en masse Self-realisation is manifested. This Divine Love that I pour is your own right for this is the culminating point of the human evolution which has been promised by the Scriptures.

[p.52:] Everything that is important has to be very simple. Suppose you had to make an effort or read books in order to learn the techniques of breathing... you could not have existed.

[p.52:]... the evolution from the human stage onward will take place in a human style, that is with awareness. You will be conscious of the happening and manifestation of the evolutionary process.

An egg does not know how it becomes a bird but human beings have to know and feel their evolution as Sahaja Yogis.

[p.56:] When the One starts manifesting its many aspects, the creation takes place.

[p.63:] Can you conceive of an Energy which thinks, organizes, feels and love?

[p.73:] What an achievement it is when we realise that human minds cannot be taken to reality but that reality has to engulf the human minds in its loving ocean.

[p.111:]... can we enjoy the fragrance of others by reading or learning?

[p.113:] If there is satisfaction, why should the mind shift from one person to another?

[p.119:] What foolish human ideas of destruction can bring forth the destruction of the Creation or its Creator who resides within us?

[p.120:]... ego's job is to keep you out of Reality.

[p.120:] If love cannot blossom in the optimum conditions of marriage how can it blossom out of it? How can the whole world know love?

[p.122:] The Goddess Lakṣhmī who is the power of our protector father Śhrī Viṣhṇu is the one who manifests the beauty of the housewife in this Universe [Śhrī Gṛuhalakṣhmī]. The family, the vital unit of every society, is looked after by the mother. She is the mother-goddess of the family. The daughters are the beautiful goddesses and the granddaughters the angel-goddesses.

[p.123:] They [husband and wife] are not similar but both are equal, no doubt! One is the right and the other the left wheel of the chariot. If one wheel is bigger than the other, the chariot cannot move properly. Both must be respected. The husband-wife relationship has to be absolutely informal; all artificiality must be dropped. They must love and also sometimes quarrel to show their concern. This is the sign of a healthy relationship. But a woman has to be have like a woman and man has to be like a man. Spontaneous fidelity, love and mutual sharing are the only way one can give and receive the joy of married life. The slightest deviation from conjugal fidelity must be absolutely avoided and if committed, openly confessed. A person who does not believe in a one-woman one-man relationship should not marry at all; why make another person unhappy? The effects of secret infidelity are of the worst kind and can ruin the whole society?

[p.124:] Man and women are the counterpart of each other and can make their live so very beautiful and joy giving.

[p.124:] When will man learn to enjoy his own things and his own wife instead of coveting those who belong to others?

[p.124:]... it [things established by fear and coercion] falls off like plumes of a peacock attached to a crow.

[p.124:] Democracy is not to become a demon-ocracy.

[p.130:] You can clean se your clothes if you can separate your clothes from you. You clean them without feeling guilty about it because you know you are not your clothes.

[p.141:] The car that is not yet started, what's the use of driving it?

[p.154:] Someone has worked at the root of the Creation, My children, to prepare the stage for your ascent and to lead you through your ascent. Why become worried or frantic? Just receive the Grace with an open heart.

[p.158:] There has to be a great juggler to do the trick.

[p.166:] People who accepted Christ were simple and uneducated fishermen, but priests and administrators rejected Him. Even today will the people of the helm of affairs, bureaucrats, scientists, `intellectuals', accept Sahaja Yoga?

[p.168:] The children will be playing with the toy of Creation that God has created for them.

[p.180:] One has the channa [chick peas meaning seeking] but does not have the teeth [innocence].

The other one has the teeth but no channa.

[p.182:] Unless and until there is light in the room how will you know what is wrong in it? Without light how can you cleanse that place or put it in a proper shape? So first is Self-realisation.

[p.183:] Animals can lie in a stinky mud without being in the least disturbed. But human awareness would not bear it: it is a fact that bad smells are repulsive to human beings; we need not rationalise to understand this. But evil is not repulsive to human beings for they do not have the awareness of the realised state. After realisation you become aware of evil and the body shows the repulsion.

[p.190:] Shraddhā is not blind faith but faith with enlightenment and verification; you must have faith!

[p.193:] God's telecommunication department is very dynamic.

[p.204 footnote:]... only stupid and blind people can be fooled and have interest in them [future tellers]. Why not ask a simple question: What is the interest of God in telling you the number of the winner in the next horse race? What interest does He have in these material things? If He has to give, He will give something of supreme importance, our Self-realisation.

[p.210:] Whatever is unknown needs not be Divine and whatever is written needs not be Scriptures.

[p.210:] The seed has to sprout in its own delicate, spontaneous way. You should not touch its germinating power before it has sprouted.

[p.225:] Will the Satanic forces speak against themselves? Will the thieves say that one should lock the house? They will always say that everything is fine. Keep all open for them to enter and loot you.

[p.226:] First let us begin by reaching those who have not badly overloaded themselves.

[p.226:] What sin can you commit that I cannot devour. You know, the Devī's love is like the bottom of the Ocean; no matter how big the Ocean is, its bottom is always bigger.

[p.233 footnote:] Imagine someone who is born at the tenth story of a building and all the other people are born on the ground floor. How can they understand each other and communicate? My father told Me: “Nirmalā, unless and until you give them en masse realisation, they will not believe there is a second story to this building."

[Related to the seekers that come to, Public Programs and then they puzzle out due to the escapism that Shri Mataji is too pure and too great:] The ocean of sin cannot be greater than the heart of your Lord who loves you. He can drink all the poison. Come back.

[p.235:] [To Dr. G. Adler, President of the Assoc. of Jungian Psychologists:] I have come to give a mouth to the Unconscious.

[p.241:] Now I can see that Tandava is averted by the creation of so many Sahaja Yogis. If the wind blows and one sarī is firmly tied to the tree of truth, then all the sarīs tied together to the first one will not be blown away.

[p.241:] I have never achieved that much before.

[p.250:] You are like a computer assembled, organized and fitted through your evolution, reaching at last the stage in which you are ready to be plugged into the mains. When the Kuṇḍalinī gets connected with the Universal Unconscious, you can have a direct communication with [the] Reality.

[p.251 footnote:] After His assumption, Christ descended on this earth in a hidden place while the Holy Spirit [Śhrī Mary Mahālakṣhmī] stayed back to inspire the faith of the early Christians. After Her assumption She joined Her Son and they lived together for many years in Kashmir. They are buried there.

[p.256:] Nothing is easier than turning on the light in a room. You must press the switch button.

But there is a big mechanism that works it out wires, power houses and the whole process of scientific discovery which mastered the use of electricity, there is a long history behind the discovery of electricity.

In the same way there is a great dynamic organization that works out Self-realisation, let us first switch on your lamps and in their light we can understand the mechanism much better.

[p.264:] If you are dirty, you are not the dirt. The Divine can and will cleanse you.

[p.264:]... hate the sin but not the sinner.

[p.265:] [Husband-wife told Shri Mataji that they are unhappy together. Shri Mataji spoke first to the wife:]

Shri Mataji [to the wife:]... the wife has to be there because she is `Dhara', the one who bears.

The Husband: That is true, I tell my wife to bear whatever I am.

Shri Mataji [to the husband:]... Why do you want to be renowned as an oppressive man? [Smiling] Would you not like to be a lover to your wife? I think your childhood must have ben very harsh, that is why you do not know the art of love.

[p.267:] If they would only take your money I would not mind that much, but they spoil your Kuṇḍalinī and rob you of your right to be reborn. The fulfilment of creation, God's realisation of His will is challenged by these fools. They do not know what they will have to pay.

[p.267:] This time the drama is going to be different. Why are you afraid? Have you not seen how evil people shake before Me?

[p.269:] Why should be proud of our qualities? Are we proud of having a nose in the middle of our face?

[p.269:] Christ said, “I am the Path, I am the Truth, I am the Life." And human beings crucified him for it. This time they will have to find for themselves.

[p.277:] [After a program at Caxton Hall, to a hippie lost in visions:] Don't look at all these forms.

See Me now, as I am in the present!

[p.279:] To grant you salvation, My children, I have come with all My powers.

[p.280:] What can they take away from Me? They are to be saved.

So, I really have to mother them.

[p.281:] You have to ask for it. I can cook for you. But can I eat and enjoy for you?

[p.281:] [One day a boy started vehemently arguing as soon as Shri Mataji asked:] please extend your hands towards Me.

[He went on misbehaving although he saw an American gentleman being cured and his own friend declared feeling the Cool Breeze. Shri Mataji last remarked:] I am at least happy that you felt free t talk to Me because this shows that Sahaja Yoga respects your freedom.

[p.281:] [To an acupuncturist follower of Lao Tze who became aggressive when Shri Mataji moved Her hand around His aura:] How can you telephone with a disconnected line? You cannot follow Tao. You have to become Tao. You have to be realised otherwise all spiritual practices and gestures are tomfooleries.

All your acupuncture will just activate the sympathetic nervous system. If you try to handle your machinery without establishing the connection with the source of its power, the parasympathetic system, you will spoil it. When Lao Tze was alive, how many believed in Him and how many opposed Him? Why do you believe in Lao Tze? Because He is no more and you can handle Him instead of Him handling you. Once He is dead you are using Him and following dead rituals. Today, Lao Tze is dead and Mātājī is living.

So many people feel the Divine Breeze in their fingers. My child, how long are you going to cheat yourself? Why not know your own powers?

[p.373:] You do not have to fight others but yourself, your own misidentifications.

Agni is the best purifier. It also enlightens, glows and destroys the evil. It is the best of all earth elements and the worst also.

It can burn you as well.

Is it possible that this unique happening is accessible to many, that they may see their own creative world revolving in the great universe of All-pervading Power? My only answer is `Yes.' My only question is `Why not?'

This is the era of Enlightenment. One can see and feel the bubbling of new idioms in our creative world of Art, Music and all that is beautiful and joy giving. Integration is the key note of this new regeneration of universal tones. These tones are ripples of the harmonic, dynamic undercurrent music of the Universal Divine Love.

Is there a possibility of this love expressed in the unity of human beings with God Almighty giving a new vision to the apparent diversities?

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote on Spirit from The Life Eternal, 1980 Issue, p.55

There have been several incarnations on this Earth who have always said to know your Spirit because without finding his Spirit a human being cannot find God. Just as without eyes we cannot identify colours, similarly without knowing the Spirit, through arguments, we cannot obtain God. Through brains we cannot know God. It is through the Spirit only we can know God. Till now everybody has said that you rise in your Dharma and find your Spirit; know the Spirit which is within you.

Today, Sahaja Yoga has reached the state of Mahā Yoga, which is en masse evolution manifested through it. It is this day's Yuga Dharma. It is the way the last judgement is taking place. Announce it to all the seekers of truth, to all the nations of the world, so that nobody misses the blessings of the Divine to achieve their meaning, their absolute, their spirit.

The New revolution in your awareness has to take place otherwise all human achievements have no meaning.

It would be like arranging all the electrical decorations for the marriage without the electrical current But when the light be on, you will seethe Bridegroom and the Bride. [Prologue of Part Two of The Advent (2002 Edition) by Gregoire de Kalbermatten.] My children, you must know I am beyond insults and Pain. Do you know that when Christ was crucified He was a witness to his pain? He can never be humiliated. But these people are under the pressure of the Satanic forces. We have to save them. Do you want them to go to hell?

The third world war is not an element in the plan of God to bring about Satya Yuga. It would only create meaningless destruction and sufferings. Yet men's madness is presently creating the conditions which [could] make this dreadful calamity very likely. In any case the Sahaja Yogis will be protected but they should clearly understand their responsibility. If all the Sahaja Yogis do not put all their energy and avoid this by actively spreading Sahaja Yoga, it may well happen and soon.

All should clean their inner beings. You should think `Why have we come to Sahaja Yoga? What benefits have we got and what can we get? Where do we go wrong? What should we do further? Where are our pitfalls? What have we left and taken for our growth?' I find, even after coming to Sahaja Yoga, in most of our wakeful time, we think of external things. We must see how much loving and devoted to God, we are.

Magnanimity of mind is very pleasing and it attracts others. This magnanimity lies within human being and is awakened by Kuṇḍalinī. But how can those people have this joy of spontaneity who are living in artificial atmosphere? Although Kuṇḍalinī has been awakened and She has pierced Brahmarandhra yet heart must be pierced. But some Sahaja Yogis have hearts like stones, absolutely devoid of love; they use sarcastic words while talking to others and want to show that they are great. On many occasions I have seen, people push others or shout at others even in My presence. Particularly, when you shout at the children, I feel pain in My heart. At least Sahaja Yogis should have deep love for each other. When you know that you are the children of the same Mother, why do you look down upon some people? Are you perfect? Are there no faults in you? We only talk of universal love. If you have no love for each other amongst you, then in which mankind will it be seen? All I want to tell you is to clean your minds of venomous thoughts that you have for other Sahaja Yogis.

If a Sahaja Yogi visits your town, invite him, look after him, as if he is your brother. His happiness will purify your homes. I cannot understand how there can be groups among the Sahaja Yogis, because every moment your condition is improving or going down.

Know that making such groups is disastrous. Look at the good qualities of others and enjoy their love.

Don't worry about their bad qualities. Leave them for Me. You will realise in meditation that this is the only way of opening the fountains of bliss.

Sahaja Yogi parents have great responsibility towards their realised children. They have to be protected, disciplined and brought up in proper atmosphere of love. Realised children cannot tolerate negativity.

They fight with it.

I do everything in collective consciousness. If I cure one person, many such cases become alright automatically.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote from Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 21 (May-Jun 1984), p.39

Sometimes when we are shallow, we don't act from the heart.

Sometimes when you say a mantra, you are just saying it outwardly, you are clearing out outwardly, you are meditating outwardly. But when you say that, you are just using your right side or your left side, but not your heart.

So, what you have to do is to balance it. When you say something, say it with devotion, with dedication, with understanding and try to put it in your heart that whatever I am saying is a mantra given to me by Ādi Shakti Herself and is a mantra, very powerful. We must establish our `Īshwara Pranidhan'.

Bhaga: Bhaga means six things together. They are the six attributes of God. And Bhagavati is the power of God, that's why She is called like that; six basic attributes of God.

First is Innocence. Second is Creativity. Third is Palanhar, is the one which nourishes. See, if you put the gardener and the Mother Earth together then that quality is nourishment, growth and looking after, called as Palanhar. The sustenance is also there, the kindness, the control, the looking after, the weeding out and the enjoyment of seeing your creation. The one who makes our growth possible. Then He is Almighty. Nobody is more powerful than Him, He is the Most Powerful. And He is Unencompassable.

He is All-pervading and He knows everything, `Sarvagya'. He knows everything: Omniscient. This is Bhaga; and Bhagavati is the Power of God, without Bhagavati God has no meaning. It's like moon and moonlight, it's like sun and sunlight. You cannot differentiate. They are one and the same.

Ādi Shakti is the same as Bhagavati. She is called by many names. One of them is Nirmalā also.

Question: Is truth beyond sense perception?

Shri Mataji: It is Absolutely. Because if what we perceive through our senses, whatever we perceive through our senses, is the truth, then we don't have to seek anymore! Whatever we perceive though our senses is what is very apparent, gross, not the subtle. What is `behind' the gross, we cannot perceive.

For example, we cannot say how to make an atom. We cannot say how an amoeba is made into a human being. We cannot make one monkey into an human being, can we?, through our perception of the senses. Through our perception of the senses we cannot do the subtle thing that is behind the gross.

So we cannot perceive through the senses. But once you have perceived it you can feel it, through your senses.

This is the second point.

It was then I realised that there was no harm in starting the work. The confusion was over. At last the time has come. This ultimately had to be done. There was nothing to fear. I had come to this world for this purpose only, to awaken the collective consciousness in human beings. I though, until people receive their Self-realisation or understand their own Self, this task will be impossible. Whatever else one would have tried to do in this world would be of no use at all.

Quote 2: During a Public Program a concerned listener asked

Shri Mataji: Mother, how will other people understand your message? Shri Mataji [smiles]: Everyone understands love, don't they? Quote 3: Remember who you are. This is your true Self.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quotes on the Beginnings of Sahaja Yoga from the booklet H. H. Shri Mataji Nirmalā Devi, a life dedicated to humanity

I worked it out on an old lady who knew Me well. When she received her Realisation I was then satisfied.

I felt many others could also get their Realisation. It was easy to give Realisation to one person. It was very easy to make one person aware, but to work it out on a collective level on the masses, some more work was needed.

No one ever knew about the powers that I had within. No one knew Me nor had any idea about Me.

But when Kuṇḍalinī was awakened in that lady, I felt that some kind of a subtle power had entered into her. Then twelve more got their Realisation. They were astonished as their eyes started shining.

They started realizing and seeing everything clearly by the power of a unique sensitivity that entered into them, by which they could feel everything.

I realised one thing for certain, that these twelve people had twelve different natures and somehow by sitting with them, they should be told how the power of light that the spirit possesses should be integrated.

It is like when we thread flowers into a single garland with the help of a needle.

When they received their Realisation, then I noticed that within them, within everyone, it was getting integrated into a single string one after the other.

I started with one lady. Then gradually, many others started getting Realisation. Gradually the work improved and people found that this is the way we can transform ourselves. It was established that Sahaja Yoga is something very important.

So that is what it is. Sahaja Yoga is something one has to experience.

In Her Love, there are no expectations. There is only a tender glow that takes us to Her presence.

Then attention moves from inside to outside. Gradually you become a witness.

Human love means possession and determination. Divine love soothes you, it raises you to a new awareness.

It is something that's just flowing. Not rationality, nothing. It is to feel, feeling for the pain of others.

Feeling for their longing and feeling for their aspirations. Just feel within. With Yoga [Self-realisation] we become collectively conscious. We can feel our centers and that of others on the fingertips. As Mohammed Sahib had said, “At the time of resurrection, your fingers will speak." The Namaz has the real ritual to know the Spirit. The Pūjās and worship all pour joy on our central nervous system. We feel the Cool Breeze of the Holy Ghost the Chaitanya Lahari in living experience. We become one with the Divine and the rapport is established. The Divine vibrations indicate and the coding if we know them, we know their meanings. Love has its own bondage, very sweet and beautiful. We have to know the waves of the Divine Ocean of grace and enjoy them.

If a child comes and spoils our house then we should enjoy the fun of spoiling. If our freedom is challenged by a little child's crying, we are not a wise person. It's abandonment, it's loneliness, it's cutting off from the primordial one that we are not being able to tolerate other people's freedom. We have to be truly free. When a little child cannot cry in its own home, what kind of freedom is that? If a child cannot eat what he wants in his own home what kind of freedom is that? Of course, this freedom is to be pruned, nourished and developed in the correct way of love.

This does not imply that you have one dress all your life, but that not too much attention should be on such things. You are neither to renounce anything nor to indulge into anything. Through Kshema you get the well being physically, mentally, emotionally, materially, spiritually, socially, in every way. Spontaneously. You don't have to desire or ask for it.

Whatever I might say would be of no use to you and would only irritate you. I do not want to be crucified as Christ was for having revealed his identity.

But, thank Heavens, today this cannot happen either to Me or to the realised people. The time for martyrdom is over! There is no reason for you to be jealous of Me. There are so many things that you can do and that I cannot. I do not know how to drive a car or how to type and so many other things. I am a traditional housewife. But I am a good cook and whether I like it or not, whether you like it or not, I have perfectly mastered the art of the Kuṇḍalinī. It is My nature and there is nothing I can do to change this. This All-pervading Divine Power is reflected within us as a sleeping coiled energy called as Kuṇḍalinī in our sacrum which is a triangular bone at the base of spinal cord.

Perhaps the Greeks knew the sacredness of this power and that may be the reason they called it a sacrum bone. The word Kuṇḍalinī comes from `Kundal' meaning coils. When Kuṇḍalinī is awakened, it passes through six higher centers and pierces through the Fontanelle bone area and connects our central nervous system to this All-pervading power giving us a new dimension of Self-realisation. This is the first time we feel the Brahma-Chaitanya on our finger tips as vibrations [spanda]. That means we can feel this silent power on our central nervous system. The unique discovery of modern times [Kali Yuga] is that the awakening of Kuṇḍalinī can be done en masse through `Sahaja Yoga'. The word `Sahaja' [Saha+Ja] means born with you [in-born]. Whatever is in-born or innate manifests without any effort. Hence `Sahaja Yoga' is the name given to this system, which is effortless, easy and spontaneous. It is natural to nature, you may call it life's source, vitality or Divine, to be spontaneous [Sahaja].

From time to time, one by one, Incarnations came on on this Earth and gave Their Divine messages.

But this Incarnation, which is Shri Mataji, is the integration of all Incarnations, has taken incarnation and is doing the Divine work. That is why we feel vibrations, even if they are beyond the feeling of human beings.

Question: How is Sahaja Yoga different from the Yoga sutras of Patanjali? Patanjali is such a great writer that he says in one sentence what others says in the whole book, “To stop the process of mind the Chitta is Yoga." How do you define Sahaja Yoga?

Shri Mataji: It is not different from Patanjali. It's the same. But people don't read Patanjali. They read only one-sixteenth part. Actually you should read the whole Ashtanga. Later on he conies to the fact that you should become thoughtlessly aware, which is called as Nirvichar Samādhi, Nirvikalpa Samādhi.

That's what is Sahaja Yoga.

To use the word `Yoga' is only appropriate once the union has taken place by Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

Any machinery, if it is not put to the mains, does not work. In the same way, human beings, who are not connected to the mains, if they start working out, they either go to the left or to the right.

References to Kuṇḍalinī awakening, also called as Self-realisation, are seen in many ancient scriptures of all the religions. But the way in which many great prophets wrote made it hard to understand exactly what they were writing about. Nothing is blatantly stated and the truth can often be ingeniously hidden.

Unless one has Self-realisation, this knowledge of the Divine could be misinterpreted. It is only with Self-realisation that one can receive the total joy of a great soul's prediction of Sahaja Yoga.

All the foregoing verses speak of rebirth or the true baptism which is actually possible only after Kuṇḍalinī awakening and not by just putting a hand on somebody's head and saying you are baptized.

In one of the Suras of Holy Koran it is written “the only religion with Allah is Islam and there is no other religion to be accepted." Allah is one of the names of Lord Almighty and it means that for Him Islam is necessary. What is `Islam'? It is surrender and from the same root comes the word Salam or peace.

When Kuṇḍalinī awakening and Self-realisation has occurred, a flow of energy in the form of cool vibrations starts flowing from the hands; this is what is signified in the above passage. Here Prophet Mohammed is talking of the coming time, the time of resurrection, which is, in fact, the present age of Aquarius or Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

In all the above verses, Prophet Mohammed has talked about rebirth [baptism], the day of Resurrection and has also said that hatred and enmity in the name of religion will last till the day of Resurrection. True Baptism is only after the Kuṇḍalinī awakening, which is happening now. The Muslim way of offering prayers, Namaz as taught by the Prophet, was in fact a way of Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

References to Kuṇḍalinī awakening abound in many of the Indian Scriptures.

Some of these are Vasistha Yoga, Rig Veda, Puruṣha Sookta, Upanishads of Atharvaveda, Yogopanishad, Yogashikhopanishad, Kathopanishad and Yoga Kuṇḍalinī Upanishad. In the Purānas are Devī Bhagavatpurāna, Makandeyapur āna, Śhrī Bhagavatpārana etc. In Sanhitas: Hath Yoga Sanhita, Laya Yoga Sanhita, Rāj Yoga Sanhita, Shiv Sanhita. In the Yoga tests: Haṭha Yoga Pradrepita, Saundarya Lahari, Subhodayam, Lalitha Sahasr ānam and by Saints such as Bhakt Kabīr, Nanak, Gyāneshwar etc.

Lord Kṛiṣhṇa is the embodiment of Divine Diplomacy. In one of the verses it is said, “Leave the fruits of thy action on my Lotus feet." This has also been misinterpreted by many, unless one is connected to Divine [by Yoga, Kuṇḍalinī awakening], this is not possible. Similarly, at another point, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa has used the word `Ananya' which means `when you are not the other' which state is also possible only after Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

Another important point which Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa made is that, “roots of the tree of human awareness are in the brain." As such, if awareness descends or grows downwards towards the lower energy centers like Mūlādhāra, the persons get involved in too much sex.

So instead of evolution of awareness there is descent.

So for nourishing the tree of human awareness, its roots in the brain have to be nourished which is only possible after Kuṇḍalinī awakening and piercing the anterior Fontanelle area. Only then ascent can take place.

Once the Divine connection, Yoga, is established only then the welfare (Kshema) follows.

Śhrī Ādi Shañkarāchārya lived in 6th century A.D. He wrote many texts: Soundarya Lahari, Upadesha Sahasri, Viveka Chūḍāmaṇi, ātmābodh etc. In most of these texts, there are various references to Kuṇḍalinī awakening, as some of the following stanzas [Saundarya Lahari, p.60] will illustrate: [Having filled in the pathway of the Nāḍīs with the streaming shower of nectar flowing from Thy Lotus Feet, having resumed Thine own position from out of resplendent lunar regions and Thyself assuming the form of a serpent of three and a half coils, sleepeth Thou, in the hollow of the Kulakunda.] [Kulakunda=the hollow of the Mūlādhāra, sacrum bone.]

There is a strange tree, which stands without roots bears fruit without blossoming It has no branches and no leaves, it is Lotus all over. Two birds sing there: one is the Guru and the other disciple. The disciple chooses the manifold fruits of life and tastes them, And the Guru beholds him in joy.] In the first stanza Bhakt Kabīr has talked about the Sahasrāra [limbic area in brain] and the infinite beauty and joy felt when Kuṇḍalinī reaches there.

In the second stanza `Tree' symbolizes the Kuṇḍalinī and various Chakras. Kabīr referred to Kuṇḍalinī as `Surati' in many of the verses. His followers call this as `Surati Yoga'.

Śhrī Gyāneshwar was another famous saint of Maharashtra region. He wrote a commentary on Gītā called `Gyāneshwari'. The sixth chapter of this epic is devoted to Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

Guru Nanak Dev has made lot of references to Kuṇḍalinī awakening in the sacred book, Śhrī Guru Granth Saheb. Kuṇḍalinī has been referred to as `Surati' and `Dasham Dwar' means Brahmaigalra or opening up of anterior Fontanelle area on Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

These brief reviews [stanzas from Śhrī Guru Granth Sahib] illustrate that the theme of Kuṇḍalinī awakening referred to variously as rebirth, resurrection, baptism, union with Divine, Tao [of Lao Tze], is common throughout mankind's history in all the religions of the world. In fact, this is the essence of all the religions, though because of time and place constraints, it was kept a hidden science in the past.

Quote 1: Nature herself responds to music.

Quote 2: The music and the art, the creativity, is all within us. We all have the ability within us, but we need to establish the technique. With poetry, drawing or music, we must have the technique or we cannot express it properly. The creativity is there, but it cannot be expressed properly without the knowledge of the technique. It is such a great gift to be able to paint or sculpt and create works of art that please the spirit and bring joy to all who see them; to be able to express the joy of life and the vision of our ascent through poetry. Such gifts we have been given. Let us use them to their fullest potential.

Like our bodies, as temples for the spirit, are looked after and decorated with beautiful things, our lives are enriched by the beauty of the arts and music. If we have the ability and the knowledge within us, then let's learn how to share it with the world. If the words are there but we cannot speak and share them, what is the point of it? We can learn how to express and share these gifts we have been given.

Music is Divine and you feel you are in paradise the way it was rendered. The Adivajays played before you, I have no words to describe My joy. I am only sorry that people have no sense of understanding this great music that is in our country. If they listen to this music they'll have no diseases, no heart attacks, nothing. That is absolutely Divine and people should take to it in such a way that it's a blessing of God that we have such great artists in our country existing. My heart aches to see such artists not being properly recognized, appreciated and worshipped. I am sure one day will come when they will go all over the world and play this beautiful praise of Saraswatī. We must know that the only way we can keep healthy is through our music, our talas, our dancing.

Your attention went to things which dominated you as if they were in charge of you. But after Self-realisation, you have power over your attention and it becomes active.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote on Śhrī Lakṣhmī from The Light of the Koran (1998) by Flore Descieux, pp.254,255

Śhrī Lakṣhmī is the Goddess of well-being and wealth. She is the wife of Śhrī Viṣhṇu and the mother of Kama, the God of love.

She is also called Myriam, because she was born from the ocean, which is the very source of wealth.

Even if human beings impoverish more and more the Mother Earth, taking from her all her raw materials, she still gives infinitely more resources.

Śhrī Lakṣhmī is standing on a lotus. Her right hand protects and Her left hand gives blessings. She incarnates the wealth but also the glory of wealth. It is the first opening to our spiritual search. We first look for material wealth, but soon we understand that we need something else to reach the complete bliss.

At this point, Śhrī Lakṣhmī becomes Śhrī Mahālakṣhmī and the search moves towards a deeper and inner richness: the enjoyment from your own generosity. You discover the joy of giving.

Avarice is the sign of the biggest poverty. If you are not able to give, you are a beggar. In spite of your money, you still have the desire to possess more material goods.

Śhrī Lakṣhmī's symbol is to give with the left hand and to protect with the right hand. Any kind of richness should be able to give protection. The richer people must protect the poorer. Many rich people still remain unbalanced and still have wrong ideas.

After realisation, your personality becomes Divine. But it is difficult to discern this and to accept it: to accept assuming really Divine qualities like being generous without caring about it, without calculating, without asking ourselves what is going to happen. If vibrations are really flowing inside us, we are directly connected to the source and we become rich with well-being, with bliss and we are also satisfied in our material needs. The abundance is such that we can only give spontaneously.

So, allow the richness inside you to flow and don't worry any more. The vibrations, the cosmos, look after you. Many Sahaja Yogis have experienced it already. If they surrender to vibrations, help will come spontaneously. But if they try to solve their problems themselves, this doesn't work anymore...

Men have to respect the women in the presence of the children. In the presence of children you should behave. The men should put the authority on the mother...

... For the couple, be aware of your pure and chaste behaviour in front of the children. Don't show or expose your romantic and sexual life to the children. Keep it for when you are alone. By your example, teach them a genuine sense of shame...

... When you want to say something to children, don't show anger but determination...

... Don't correct the child when they misbehave. They get dishonoured. Have a conference. Tell them to be honourable...

[`Bad eye' treatment to remove strong negativity: 1. First take a bandhan and then give the baby a bandhan.

2. Take a vibrated lemon and cut it slightly at the place where it was attached to the tree.

3. Take some salt in the right hand.

4. Put the lemon on top the cut end facing the baby.

5. Give a bandhan to the baby.

6. After that, throw the salt and the lemon away.

7. Wash your hands.

Or take one of the following elements and place them on a little fired coal:

1. Salt and mustard seed (miit mohari in Hindi) or

2. Dried red chillies and salt or

3. Rice

4. Salt

Move your hand along your child's Suṣhumnā Nāḍī up and down and ask whoever or whatever negativity is disturbing or harming my child should be removed. Do the same for all three channels and give a bandhan to the child.] [During the first three months of pregnancy, avoid sitting directly on the floor or on the earth.]... When breastfeeding, the mother should not take milk directly but it has to be taken with porridge or crispier or something like that...

[For the mother, some good and advisable food to eat is: semolina (sujii in Hindi), almonds (sugared or plain) and an Indian sweet called `rasgulla' (sweet balls in sugar syrup).]... It is good to start immediately with the bottle so that babies don't have problem to accept it later...

... When babies have constipation, first is that the mother shouldn't have constipation herself. She can take black raisins or prunes with orange juice or boiled milk in the night...

... One should stop breastfeeding after ten months...

... You can start giving cow milk after three months but you have to give a little bit [like one feed a day].

Give fully boiled milk mixed with water together in an iron pot, otherwise the child can get diarrhea or constipation or cold and runny nose...

... When you give cow milk to the babies [after ten months], the milk should be a little fat and boiled in an iron pot...

[Feeding bottles should be preferably made of glass (not plastic).

Add salt to the food in a proper way. A bit of butter also. It has to be tasty. If you can, use a silver spoon rather than a plastic one.]

[Give bath in the morning (in the evening when it is cold).]

[Put the child in the morning sun after the massage (but not the face or the head directly).]

[You can put some cotton in them to absorb. It should be breathing and with no stitching. Use disposable only if you are going somewhere.]

[The best is if the child sleeps in his bed, but in the same room as the parents.

So keep the child in the parent's room but not in the parent's bed (in the crib).]

[The child should sleep in the room of the parents until 5 year old.]

[After two years, if they live in an ashram, they can sleep in a room separate from the parents, collectively, with other children and an adult.]

[Parents should sleep with clothes to be protected from negativity. The bed for the child must have good vibrations (not an old one).]

[Wash the head with soft shampoo, like baby shampoo.]

[Test the child's eyes and put Kajal. For home made Kajal, burn camphor and collect soot on a silver plate. Add ghee, mix and put it in water. Then strain it and put it in a box and apply every day.]

[Keep the nails of the baby clean.]

[Wash the face of the baby with bread soaked in milk.]... The parents should not argue in the presence of the children, be peaceful...

... If children do wrong things, tell them it is wrong. Don't allow them to have their own way...

... They must know they will lose your love if they misbehave...

... Children should call others by `uncle' or `auntie'...

... Mothers in ashrams should work and not just stay with their children, just like if they were in their own house. Nothing great of producing a child...

... they have to behave better, they are special. You should put the idea into them that: `You are Sahaja Yogis and that's why we all respect you.'...

... We must talk to them and say that there is a great work to do, you have to go off to countries and know many things...

... If you don't channelize them they might go in an other direction...

... Teach them not to put their back and their feet to the photo...

... For three months after the birth, you should look after them very carefully. People other than parents should not touch the child, for three months.

No kissing, you should not touch the skin as such. After three months you can give the baby to others, carefully...

... They must sit with other people, open their heart to others...

... Keep the child clean and also the clothes. Massage them. Give proper [them] food. If the child becomes everybody's property, then his Mūlādhāra improves...

[Anything put in the mouth must be washed. Throw away things fallen on the ground and wash your hands.]

[Make sure the child gets enough calcium (see for products available in your country; it can be homeopathic).]

[The most important is to give regular massage. Massaging the child is important until the age of 5 years. Massage babies twice a day: once at night and once during the day. Two times a day until six months and once a day until 5 years.]... Also put oil on the fontanelle bone area and on the sides. Every day. It makes the children quiet...

[For the teeth pain of children you can use e.g. Stevemen's Powder or ivory rings.]

[Pacifiers: To give the dummy a little bit is alright but try to keep it away as soon as possible (it's bad for the teeth). A Viśhuddhi treatment is better.]

[Another point which Shri Mataji has mentioned on several occasions is the way in India that the whole society trains the attention of the child by continually pointing the attention to the correct things.]

Contents: 1900-0000 Quotes from Sahaja Yoga the Divine Path by Dr. Hari Shankar Sharma, Part I, pp.62,64

As in the nucleus of every particle or atom its soul resides, if you also become soul [if you compare yourself with a atom or particle] then it will be same as the brain of the atom in nucleus and the control of this brain, is done by the soul residing in the nucleus. In the same way you have your Chitta, i.e. body [full body of the atom], the nucleus and inside this nucleus is the `soul'.

The Instrument of our enlightenment is framed on a structure of three main channels or Nāḍīs. These subtle channels are placed within the spine and find their expression in the automatic nervous system which comprises the left and right sympathetic nervous systems and central Parasympathetic Nervous System.

The central nervous system represents the consciousness we have achieved in our evolution up to human awareness.

The human nervous system is divided into a central and an autonomic nervous system. The autonomic is divided into parasympathetic and sympathetic systems. The parasympathetic nervous system is divided by a gap between the vagus nerve and the Kuṇḍalinī. This division is symbolized in the instrument as the void.

The left and right sympathetic nervous systems we use for our day to day physical, mental and emotional activity. Within the subtle instrument, Iḍā Nāḍī manifests the left SNS [Sympathetic Nervous System] and Piñgalā Nāḍī the right. By-products of Iḍā Nāḍī activity create the balloon of superego in the head, beginning on the left at throat level and mostly covering the back and right side of the head. Piñgalā Nāḍī activity creates another balloon, of ego on the other side covering the front and left side of the head.

The central channel of Suṣhumnā Nāḍī manifests the parasympathetic nervous system. This system is self-governing. The Self or Spirit witnesses the action of the parasympathetic system which controls our involuntary activities such as heartbeat, breathing and reflex, i.e. unconscious as opposed to conscious activity. Although we can to a degree control our sympathetic action, for instance we can make our hearts beat faster, we cannot consciously slow the heart down, which is parasympathetic action. The Self existing at this level means that we cannot achieve Self-realisation through our own effort, but, only through God's desire. Spirit is spontaneous; as natural and vital to us as our heartbeat. How long would we last if it were only our will that kept our hearts beating, or if we were to learn breathing from a book? The Spirit is infinite, while our rationality is finite, hence our efforts are also finite. Only Kuṇḍalinī can bridge that great divide between illusion and reality.

The left side channel begins at the Mūlādhāra Chakra and crosses at the Āgñyā Chakra into the superego in the right side of the brain. It expresses the passive mood of the Virāta and the power of desire (Icchā Shakti). Desire is our prime mover, the power by which we exist and the first cause of our creating or seeking. Emotion is born out of desire which is not yet materialised. Therefore the left is our emotional side.

The right side channel begins at the Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra, crossing at the Āgñyā Chakra into the balloon of the ego. It expresses the active mood (rajo Guṇa) of the Virāta and the power of action (Kriya Shakti).

Piñgalā Nāḍī is the side which creates, by which we think and act, work and plan for the future. When the demand for energy on this side is too great, the left side is neglected, the desire to know the Spirit evaporates. Heart failure can be the ultimate result as the ego develops to the detriment of the Spirit, which, in such circumstances may depart from its home in the heart. When natural desires are suppressed, the ego becomes even stronger in the personality.

The central channel begins at theMūlādhāra and passes straight up into the highest Chakra of Sahasrāra.

Only partly active up to the human stage, it expresses the evolutionary power of the Virāta (Sattva Guṇa), virtue and righteousness (dharma) and the power of awareness (Jnana Shakti).

On first awakening, Kuṇḍalinī ascends Suṣhumnā Nāḍī up to Āgñyā Chakra. It covers the lower plate of the main (mūrdha) then descends like melting clouds on the Iḍā and Piñgalā Nāḍīs to the void. It fills this area and then the three combined powers of Mahākālī, Mahāsaraswatī and Mahālakṣhmī re-ascend the Suṣhumnā to open the lotus petals of the Sahasrāra. The Spirit, residing in the heart, has its seat at the top of the head in the center. All the Chakras have their seats in the Sahasrāra. This is the Fontanelle area that is pierced by the Kuṇḍalinī, the point of Yoga at which the attention is united to the Spirit, the Brahmarandhra, the hole into the Brahman.

The Suṣhumnā is the central channel for our evolution. It is through this channel that we become collectively conscious and all the disparate factors of our being are integrated in one whole. It makes the connection between our conscious mind and the `auto' of the autonomic nervous system, the Spirit, which is the reflection of God. Suṣhumnā is the way of Dharma, the straight and narrow path by which we pass through the gate of the Āgñyā Chakra to enter into the Kingdom of God in the Sahasrāra.

So with the Sahasrāra open and the connection with Suṣhumnā established, we are open to the source of all awareness where all knowledge dwells and is sustained by the primordial source of all power (Ādi Shakti). Meditation in thoughtless awareness is the key to the development of a strong Suṣhumnā. Another basic requirement is to enjoy a virtuous and Dharmic life. After realisation, try to keep in thoughtless awareness as much as possible, with attention centered in Suṣhumnā Nāḍī, the channel of the eternal present, where the only time is `now'. In this way, with Kuṇḍalinī awakening, we transcend time and space.

The respective powers of Iḍā and Piñgalā Nāḍīs, Mahākālī and Mahāsaraswatī, create ripples in the two channels. The Chakras are created at the points where these ripples meet. Each Chakra has a certain number of petals which express its qualities. Just as each Chakra has a plexus as its gross correspondent in the nervous system, so each petal corresponds to a sub-plexus. For example, the Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra having six petals, the aortic plexus has six sub-plexuses. The Chakras lie on the horizontal plane looking from above like overlapping circles and when in action, rotate in a clockwise direction.

Each of these subtle centers is a store house of energy for the gross plexuses; supplying the physical, mental and emotional demands of the sympathetic nervous system. For instance, if the Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra looks after the abdominal organs, it also supplies energy to creative action and thought and depth to the aesthetic sensibility. Before Kuṇḍalinī awakening, the energy in the Chakras is limited and exhaustible, as in a battery. After realisation, they are connected by Kuṇḍalinī passing through Suṣhumnā to the infinite current of the universal super-conscious, to the All-pervading Power of Divine Love.

The Chakras are all milestones in the path of evolution, each evolving and developing at particular stages in our history. The Viśhuddhi center for instance, in the throat developed fully at the time when man first raised his head. Then, when the Chakra was established, the deity for that center was created and placed there.

When Kuṇḍalinī reaches Sahasrāra, the lotus petals open and enlightenment [Samādhi] takes place. You may feel a powerful pulsation in the crown of the head, followed by a melting sensation and a flow of cool vibrations from the fontanelle area. This is the baptism by which you know you are truly born again.

Vibratory awareness begins now. As Kuṇḍalinī unites our individual consciousness to the universal, the Ātmā and the Param'ātmā, we are suddenly tuned into the universal wavelength of vibrations. These vibrations pervade the cosmos, but before realisation, while we are still in the egg, we know nothing of them. When Kuṇḍalinī breaks the shell, we emerge into God's kingdom, the Collective Unconscious and we are singing the song of the unconscious, the vibrations are playing through [the] instrument we have become.

As human awareness is united to the Divine, we move into the subtlest level of communication, into collective consciousness. In becoming vessels for that universal power we become one with all the other vessels. We learn to appreciate the real depth and beauty of another person in vibrations. The beauty of art and nature now manifests itself as vibrations. We no longer judge on opinions, but on vibrations, just ask the question and a positive answer comes as a flow of cool vibrations. Sit as for meditation and ask the vibrations. It is conversation at its most sublime.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quotes from Sahaja Yoga the Divine Path by Dr. Hari Shankar Sharma, Part II, p.10

A pulsation is sometimes seen at this during Kuṇḍalinī awakening. Kuṇḍalinī is normally in a potential state. When it is awakened it ascends through the Suṣhumnā, across the void to the top of the Suṣhumnā.

When the Kuṇḍalinī emerges at this point, Yoga is said to have taken place. Yoga is impossible without Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

This happening of Kuṇḍalinī awakening and ultimate union with a higher consciousness are described by a Sanskrit word `Sahaja'. This means literally born with or spontaneous. The implication is that the entire mechanism is inborn and is activated in a spontaneous and natural way without undue or extreme efforts. One analogy often used is the germination of a seed. This happens automatically when the seed is placed in the Mother Earth.

Life has first evolved as amoeba and then evolved to the human being.

To attain the highest plane of life is the further step of evolution of mankind in the play of the Divine.

Contents: 1900-0000 Four Quotes from Sahaja Yoga the Divine Path by Dr. Hari Shankar Sharma, Part III: Evolution, Yoga and Salvation, p.33

Attention is the way to know reality.

Attention is pure canvas.

It is your attention which is important and not the attention of others.

For growth control the Chitta.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote on Creation from Sahaja Yoga the Divine Path by Dr. Hari Shankar Sharma, Part III: Evolution, Yoga and Salvation, p.57

Whole creation has emerged out of God and will end in God. Creation is the manifestation of the desire of God by the will of God. Life is the playground of Gods, seen as manifestation of the Divine desire through Divine will. Yoga helps in knowing and witnessing this truth and ultimately becoming one with the eternal.

This is the essence of origin, evolution and Yoga.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote from Sahaja Yoga the Divine Path by Dr. Hari Shankar Sharma, Part III: Evolution, Yoga and Salvation, p.74

Silence is the best expression of it as she understands subtlest things from [the] heart of the hearts.

When your attention is drenched in the bliss of Self, [then] you enjoy.

For growth you should keep in the middle, control your Chitta.

A Chakra also has its [own] body.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote on Ātmā from Sahaja Yoga the Divine Path by Dr. Hari Shankar Sharma, Part III: Evolution, Yoga and Salvation, p.128

Ātmā is a reflection of Param'ātmā... Like on a mirror you can see a full image of the Sun, in the same way a human being acts like a mirror to reflect Param'ātmā.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote on Attention from Sahaja Yoga the Divine Path by Dr. Hari Shankar Sharma, Part III: Evolution, Yoga and Salvation, p.128

Man should actualise his potential by focussing his attention inside and should attain the highest Plane of Life.

Sanskrit is the language of the Soul... When mother Kuṇḍalinī rises on Her path, then the Vibrations [Param-Chaitanya Lahari] produce a special type of Sound, which reverberates in different Chakras in the form of Devanagiri [Hindi] language.

Contents: 1900-0000 Six quotes from the booklet Sahaja Yoga,

A tribute of love to our beloved Mother H. H. Shri Mataji Nirmalā Devi on Her visit to Calcutta to celebrate Easter Pūjā 1996

My desire is that with your purity you can recognize and respect your own purity. If you wear clean cloths you become very careful and aware of respecting your cloths.

The happiness which you feel now comes from the ego or conditionings, but it is transient. The permanent joy comes from the Spirit.

The responsibility lies with you. You have to take Sahaja Yoga to the home of each one. You have to give that joy to all, you have to distribute the light which you have got, with full confidence, to everyone.

You have now entered the Kingdom of God, have faith that you are capable of transforming this world.

Reality is the Self itself, the Universal Spirit, immersed in the ocean of nectar, Pure Love, which is primordial power.

In Sahaja Yoga penance means meditation, for dedication you must know when to get up, that must be the most important thing for a Sahaja Yogi. The rest of the things work out automatically. To grow in depth you have to meditate.

Shri Mataji: See the way you felt happy to see Me in your dream. Everyone must feel happy the same way and I have to visit everyone.

So do not call Me often in your dream, as I have to meet everybody. I met you today and you feel happy.

So do not call Me every time.

[Shri Mataji would explain how we have to remain in the collectivity and behave as Sahaja Yogis. She always gave and is giving importance to meditation. She made all of us meditate and one by one put attention on all the Chakras. This Mūlādhāra and then you go upwards and so on.] This is Nirmal Vidyā and nobody has taught Me all this, nor have I read any book.

I have meditated on each Chakra and discovered the secrets of each one, like Mūlādhāra, what it looks like, what are the qualities and so on. Every night I would meditate for eight hours. I have worked hard for all of you and now you have to work hard and meditate in the morning. I work eight hours on every Chakra.

I would request you people to work for one hour on every Chakra for eight days and then move on. Like every morning, meditate for one hour on Mūlādhāra for eight days and then move on to Swādhiṣhṭhāna and so on. Then you all will learn the secrets and the Shakti of all the Chakras.

My father used to ask Me, “What do you dream?" I said, “I want to meet all the seekers of the world." That's what I want, all over the world, all of the nations.

Contents: 1900-0000 Three Quotes from The Tenth Incarnation by Yogi Mahajan, p.19

[To Her father:] It is My desire like the stars in the sky; many people on earth should also shine and spread the light of God.

Prasadrao Salve [to Shri Mataji]: It is possible you find a method of en masse awakening of people. But don't talk about any reality till you find out the method first. Most incarnations thought whichever way they received their realisation the same should be followed for giving others realisation. But that was not correct. For instance, Buddha got his realisation by penance, so He propagated the path of penance. You should not make the same mistake. First, study human beings, find out the permutations and combinations of their mistakes and understand why they are like that. Previous incarnations did not know much about the intricacies of the human mind. They simply preached the gospel of truth but did not understand the mind barriers to practice them, thus the essence of their message was lost. I don't want the same to happen to you.

So before you have found a method of mass awakening just don't say a word, don't give lectures, don't write anything or else you will have created another Koran or Bible! And that will be a thing to fight about.

In the beginning, all the religions came to bring people up to a point of balance. Then some people took charge of it and tried to enforce morality. But they failed because by forcing they could not bring morality. Religions became superficial; they merely talked about God but had no connection with Him.

Without the connection, people began following the labels of religion and left its spirit behind. They did not know how to come out of their fixed ideas and started fighting in the name of God. Thus religions derailed and became power or money oriented. They formed a kind of puddles.....

So you really needed this river of life to fill up all these puddles and make them one.

system which terminates in the superego and ego respectively. Hence, it is necessary to find a method to give them realisation first

He [Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri] succeeded in creating beautiful relationships between people of different places, religion and ideologies. His style was so collective and he worked diligently to improve the country. Whatever he could do he tried. He was so full of love and patriotism.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote from The Tenth Incarnation by Yogi Mahajan, p.30

Whatever was discovered for one person had to be for the masses. Otherwise, just one person knowing it would not be accepted by them. That's why they crucified and poisoned the previous incarnations. After their death they built temples in their names but during their lifetime no one accepted them. The religions that formed after the death of the incarnations, failed because their followers did not get their realisation and become the spirit. Without Self-realisation it was not possible to absorb spirituality.

But who is going to cleanse you? Who is going to care for you? Who knows the art of Divine Love? You must take to your task and responsibility. Remember, this is the time of collective consciousness where all your channels must be put together, flowing God's Grace as vibrations.

Contents: 1900-0000 Two Quotes from The Tenth Incarnation by Yogi Mahajan, p.52

The dos and don'ts of Sahaja Yoga are very simple. Firstly, if one is not connected, one should get connected. And if one has not got connected, one should not behave as if one is connected. If you are not connected with the mains and are trying to dial someone on a dead phone, it won't work.

[To Sahaja Yogis who started new mantras and methods.] Do not try to create new things in Sahaja Yoga. `Something new must be started,' is in the modern mind. Sahaja Yoga is traditional. Now you have got the fruit, what is new to be done about the fruit? I have told you exactly what to do and how to do.

[Possibly from 1979-03-00 in New Delhi.] It was really My desire that there should be some keenness in the people, just a little bit. If they gave Me a little chance, this Divine love is so subtle, it will just penetrate into their hearts, but they would not. They were just like stones, you couldn't talk to them. You couldn't tell them anything. And they thought no end of themselves, that's the worst part of it.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote from The Tenth Incarnation by Yogi Mahajan, Back Cover

Before the play of the flute there was silence. But it did not mean that music was absent. In the same way the Divine was throughout conscious of its awareness. It had a face but it could not see itself, as there was no reflector. As it was alone in solitude, it could not know itself. There had to be another, through which it could be known. Thus the Brahma Chaitanya manifested as the Ādi Shakti.

The All pervading had to take a form. The All-pervading Ocean had to limit itself by the shores. The clouds of the All Pervading Brahma Chaitanya drizzled the Chaitanya to give awakening to the universe.

[Shri Mataji told us never to keep half an onion in the fridge or elsewhere for later use, because once one has cut an onion, it should be either used or thrown away. A cut onion absorbs negativity. The same applies to lemons.]

[If a baby is born with a good head of hair it means he/she has less ego. Also that a child should be able to sit in meditation with its parents for a few minutes by the time it is two years old.]

[Shri Mataji said the violent political troubles in Northern Ireland in the 1980's, that were causing a lot of deaths, were another aspect of the evil of the Rākshasa Narakasura creating dissension between people.]

[Someone was saying how horrible it was where, in the Devī Māhātmyam Śhrī Mahākālī drinks the blood of Raktabīja, to stop it falling on the ground and turning into more Asuras like him. Shri Mataji replied:] How many of you would drink the blood of an Asura to save your children? [Shri Mataji explained that She had three places in the solar system: the moon as Śhrī Mahākālī, Venus as Śhrī Pārvatī and Pluto as Śhrī Kalki.]

[She explained why She felt the cold rather a lot: `The temperature of the Spirit is absolute zero, cold within and cold without,' or words to that effect.]

[In 1980 Shri Mataji asked us to learn Her 108 names by heart and also the meanings.]

[I asked Shri Mataji what would be the languages of the future, because I did not want my children to be bothered with learning languages that they would never use. She told me that English and Hindi were the most important.]

[Shri Mataji looks similar in every incarnation. This is why the description of Her in the Saundarya Lahari is so accurate.]

[As Sahaja Yogis we help our relations for seven generations in either direction. Young children should generally be put to bed about eight thirty. It is alright once in a while to keep them up late, like when She was there, or arriving or leaving. Also She was strict with my two that they should be clean, quiet and sit still in Her presence.]

[One of the main causes of cancer is alcohol. She told us that when people understand the relationship between alcohol and cancer they will stop drinking very fast. She also told us one should not have a hot shower and then go straight out into the cold air in London as this could also cause cancer of the lungs.]

[There was something Shri Mataji used to say to us in the early days:] Don't try to penetrate the Māyā.

[She also often said:]Be in your fortress of thoughtless awareness.

[Lord Jesus said He was the light, the truth and the way, but He never said He was the goal, for that we have to come to the Sahasrāra, to Mother, through the gate of the Āgñyā.]

[In the future anything that we have close to us, like clothing, furniture etc, will be hand made out of natural products, with love and care so it has good vibrations. Nevertheless we will live in a very high tech world when it comes to computers, transport etc.]

[Someone asked Shri Mataji if we take another birth after we have received our realisation. She said we didn't have to but we would like to because it is going to be so beautiful.]

[The standard treatment for Viśhuddhi was initially ajwain dhuni (smoke). Shri Mataji gave this treatment right back in the seventies. Allah hu Akbar was given later.]

[Mother often used to ask for a lemon which She would vibrate, then give it to the new person or possessed person to hold and the negativity or bhoot would go into the lemon. It would often change colour, then Mother would ask us to chop it up and put it down the toilet and sometimes to also burn it in a candle.]

[The ancient Romans were a whole race of Rākshasas. However in 2001, She said about the Italians:] Where did we find this beautiful country with all these wonderful people in it? [There is a name in the Aparājitā hymn: chaya. The line is “ya Devī sarva bhooteshu, chaya rupena samsthitha." One time someone who was not a Sahaja Yogi was quite unpleasant to a Sahaja Yogi for no apparent reason and Shri Mataji explained it thus: She said that the word chaya does not only mean shadow, but also reflection and what happens is that the person sees his or her own defects in the Sahaja Yogi, who is like a mirror and then the caught up person starts criticising the Sahaja Yogi, but actually it is their own faults or problems they are seeing.

So forgive them, or don't worry about it!]

[The reason people in the West often wear soft and gloomy colours is that they have such big egos the bright colours would overshadow them, so they wear dull colours. Peasants wear bright colours and they tend to have less ego.]

[On many occasions Shri Mataji asked us ladies to wear clothes which covered our knees and shoulders, to protect those Chakras, the Śhrī Chakra and Śhrī Lalitā Chakra on the shoulders and the Nābhī for the knees.]

[At Shudy Camps when asked about divorce:] Divorce is very inauspicious and only to be contemplated as a last resort, when all efforts towards reconciliation have failed or when people are fighting badly all the time, then it needs to be allowed.

[To a Sahaja Yogini who is very upset that her husband does not want to join her for Sahaja Yoga functions:] Instead of wanting to punish your husband, why not forgive him instead of divorcing him? You must feel sorry for this man poor man and he has done nothing wrong.

[To a Sahaja Yogi who is complaining that his wife is refusing to practice Sahaja Yoga:] I remember you

So Anthony keeps the letter in his pocket and then unexpectedly the plane is delayed for an hour or so. All sit with Shri Mataji waiting for the plane to leave but Anthony is too shy to give the letter to Her. All of a sudden Shri Mataji starts talking about the problem of obesity in women, for no rhyme or reason.]

Shri Mataji: [the problem of obesity in women comes when they are overactive as children, especially around the age of twelve or so. They become tomboyish and become right-sided. Then when they grow up, their metabolism is overactive and this can lead to obesity when they slow down.

So it is important that girls don't do sports that are men's kind of sports and should not be too right-sided. She said that these women should take an ayurvedic medicine called ashokeri.]

[Shri Mataji repeats at least six or seven times that this was the medicine to take. I never gave the letter to Shri Mataji, but she gave the answer there and then. The Italian Sahaja Yogini experienced the benefits from the medicine a few weeks later when Anthony gave it to her.]

You know, King Janaka was called as `Videha'-'without a body'. The great sage Nārada asked him one day, “Revered Sir, how are you called as Videha? You live in this world. How can you be a Videha?" Rājā Janaka said, “This is very simple. I will tell you about it in the evening. Now, please do this little job for Me. There is milk in this bowl. You take this bowl and come along with Me. Please see that not a single drop of milk is spilled on the earth. Then only will I tell you why I am called Videha." Nārada took the bowl and followed Janaka everywhere. He had to be very careful because the bowl was such that by the slightest movement the milk might have spilled. He got quite tired. When they retired for the evening Nārada asked, “Please tell me now. I am getting quite fed up with carrying this bowl of milk and following you everywhere at the same time." Rājā Janaka said, “First of all, tell Me what you have seen?" Nārada replied, “Nothing except this bowl of milk so that it won't spill." Rājā Janaka said, “Didn't you see that there was a big procession in My honour? Then there was a court wherein there was a program of dancing? Didn't you see anything?" Nārada answered, “No, Sir. I have not seen anything." Rājā Janaka said, “My child, likewise with Me. I also see nothing. All the time I just watch My attention, where it is going, making sure it won't spill away like the milk."

Let us think for a moment. And we can see that thought is limited.

How big is the universe? Who has created it? How small are atoms? Who has created them? Who makes life happen? And who has the answer? How can we understand Him who is managing us all? Can a drop understand the Ocean? Our consciousness is a bottomless sea. When the thoughts cease is the beginning of the answers. Our thoughts are like the wind which causes ripples on the surface of the sea. Only when the thoughts dry up can we, in the silence, recognize our own depth, just as the sea exposes its real depth when the wind subsides. Stop thinking.

See how our heart pulsates. Pulsates without doing anything about it.

Look at our eyes, they are beautiful cameras and the brain is a beautiful computer. Who has made this? Then we have evolved from amoeba to human stage. Who has done that? We do not even think.

We take it for granted everything that has come to us. We take it for granted the power of Nature which has evolved us to the human level.

But the Nature knows and we can get in touch with that power through true meditation.

The power of Nature, the Kuṇḍalinī within, knows how to balance and nourish us.

Contents: 1900-0000 Twenty-one Quotes from the e-mail booklet Come the Mother Calls!

The central message of Sahaja Yoga is `Come, let us change the world with love, compassion and Self-realisation.' Christ, Mohammed Sahib and others are all a Part and Parcel of the whole, which is Brahma Chaitanya.

Sahaja Yoga unites the essence of all religions.

You are yourself and you must see yourself as your Self, as your Spirit. And Spirit is a Universal Being, is the innocence, is the virgin within you. This body is a palace and it is the House of God. Within it God kept the infinite flame.

The sap of the tree rises, goes to every part and comes back. It is not attached. If you are attached to one part or one flower because it is more beautiful then the tree will die and the flower will also die.

Likewise love that is entangled or attached also dies.

The idea of spirituality is love. Spirituality is not dry like a bean stock. If the soap cannot clean what use it is? If everyone is afraid to come near such a dry spiritual person what use is he? You can be both alert and relaxed because you are Sahaja Yogis.

When you try to seek the Truth, you have to become the Truth.

In Sahaja Yoga we have to be extra brilliant, extra sacrificing, extra dynamic and extra compassionate people.

Sahaja Yoga works within you effortlessly.

In Self-realisation Mind, Body and Intellect become one.

You see in art, you can see in all that is beautiful, the reflection of God's creative power and the joy He wanted to emit for your happiness. God is forgiveness, God is love.

Meditation, where you are connected to the All-pervading Divinity, is the starting point in Sahaja Yoga.

When you try to seek the Knowledge you have to become the Knowledge. The light of Love is so sweet, so beautiful, so enamouring, so abounding. You can feel that light within you which is of pure love, pure relationship and pure understanding.

Kuṇḍalinī is our Mother, we are Her only children and she has been with us through all our lives just waiting for the moment of fulfilment.

Some are rich, some are poor, these are transitory things. Look into the heart within and enjoy that love. With that love you elevate and once more rise to greatness.

It is very important to understand that without transformation you have no meaning. Whatever you are, do not identify yourselves with that, but whatever you want to be, try to be that.

When you become one with the Spirit, all your problems will be solved.

Sahaja Yoga is different from the other Yogas because it begins with Self-realisation instead of this being the unobtainable dream of a distant goal.

Without Dharma you cannot have the ascent. And the cleanliness of your being depends on how much Dharma you follow religiously.

The object of Sahaja Yoga is basically to become and experience the Spiritual Self which is the true Self.

Father made us study Sanskrit language and shifted us into a local Indian School from the missionary school. At the age of seven I went with My father to Mahatma Gandhiji who was living seventy miles away. But from the very first time Gandhiji liked Me very much and said “Leave this child here." He was very fond of Me and called Me “Nepali." I used to go back to attend My school but with slightest opportunity used to come again back to Gandhiji. Ashram life was very disciplined.

[On 7th and 9th nights of the moon do special prayers during meditation. Before commencing give bandhan to the mind, fifth and sixth Chakra. Desire that no thoughts should come.] God was a supposition but your advent is its verification.

God does not destroy his creation, we destroy ourselves.

Faith is very joy giving.

The missing point is that your attention is not on your spirit.

Without going through the brain you become aware.

Anything that spoils your awareness is against your ascent.

On one side is emotion, the other side is rational. Both have to be balanced.

There is a difference between innocence and ignorance. Innocence understands and responds to love without expectations or sense of gaining something out of love. He has no sense of gaining anything out of love. Without innocence you cannot be Dharmic. Unless innocence is embedded in Dharma it has no meaning.

It is difficult to talk about innocence in today's world. In Sahaja Yoga there is a way to regain innocence.

You go into thoughtless awareness. You do not react. Then the innocence rises in a beautiful way. Then you stay young and joyful.

Try to reduce reaction. Start looking at things without reaction. Develop your sense organs so you do not react to outside excitement. The spirit has the power to act, it does not react.

Children find anything and make a play of it. For them life is a play.

Innocence matures a person that gives him discretion and wisdom. It is innocence that is going to save the world and give you the understanding.

Our negative feelings are exposed by innocence. We love our parents out of innocence, we them for love's sake. If you love for gain then it is cunning. Innocence does not understand cunningness. Innocent person maybe attacked by the cunning. But innocence is innate it cannot be destroyed. Cunning always understands the cunning of others.

We have to dissolve our carnal desires in innocence.

You become powerful after you forgive, because then that person does not sit on you.

Compassion does not mean you pity somebody but you share with others. In Sahaja Yoga sharing is the compassion, detachment leading to compassion. These are wheels of your chariot.

Easter 1983: Sympathy that does not get involved is compassion. It is heartfelt, it works, it flows.

Easter 1983: When I am not there, then I do not want you to take up sword in your hand, or even be angry.

When you know the principle of all the five elements, it gives you the power that evolves.

The more you are dealing with matter the more you lose your spontaneity because matter is dead. Only after realisation you enjoy it. Matter cannot give joy; it is the spirit that gives joy. Spirit is dominated by matter and therefore spirit has to overcome matter. We cannot feel the spontaneity of the spirit.

When you say a mantra it awakens the deity within you and it starts bestowing vibrations. The deity also awakens the deity in Shri Mataji.

Mantra is the part which expresses the spirit.

Consciousness is regulated by the super conscious.

The love of the spirit is not conditioned, not inhibited.

All these powers are nothing but powers of God's love. The desire to love is very different from love of human beings because their love has expectations and so we suffer from frustrations. This love becomes sacrifice then it becomes a privilege to love.

Ego gives tension.

As you feel tension rising up, similarly when the Kuṇḍalinī rises you feel the coolness descend down.

Ego makes us feel small at the slightest. The ego dictates and dominates. The ego give you an unauthorized right to criticise.

Tell your ego to sit down, you know nothing. Individuality is different from ego.

Reaction to that formed the ego. if there is no reaction there is no ego.

What is created by the spirit is beautiful.

How do you know that art is beautiful, from the spirit; because the spirit is beautiful.

Its eternal value immortalises art. All that was dedicated becomes eternal. It was not done for pleasing the mind but pleasing the spirit.

Like there is ether, it is subtler than ether [1989].

You feel the grace flowing in your hands as Cool Breeze.

People become nervous when they do not know what their mother is doing, sister is doing etc. they keep twitching as they become nervous.

It [mind] is a convex, it does not receive anything.

If you have conditioning of psychology, then you cannot understand.

The movement of the Kuṇḍalinī depends on the temperament of a person. if he is doubting then it does not establish. There should be honesty/ innocence to accept, only then it works out. Then you develop that faith, it is no blind faith.

You cannot go inside till your Kuṇḍalinī is awakened. Nature of Kuṇḍalinī is collective.

Science is always changing. One theory is replaced by another. But science of Sahaja Yoga is absolute.

It cannot be challenged.

New awareness will create new human beings.

Life is not service, life is enjoyment. Service is enjoyment.

Intellect thinks, plans and then cancels.

Ignorance does not exist, like darkness goes when there is light.

Knowledge is in the heart, not in the brain.

If you don't use your powers then it does not work. You have to use your powers to face the Rākshasas.

Conscience is the voice of the ever vigilant spirit within us which tells us right from wrong.

Our ego stands as barrier between conscience and consciousness. Hence conscience has to be kept alive and active because in confrontation with trials and temptations, traumas and tragedies, consciousness becomes a defence mechanism to justify unjustifiable acts.

The light of spirit in Haṁsa gives you wisdom and you see the point. After discretion there is no Māyā.

One who is equipped enjoys the ocean, but the one who does not know how to swim is afraid of the ocean.

Similarly we are secure in our Holy Mother's love and enjoy everything. People suddenly meet you and you are helped.

Growth is only possible when Haṁsa is open. Then you get the wisdom of handling people, the wisdom of handling jai; the wisdom of handling a situation. Haṁsa is the key to all the Pīṭhas, to all the Chakras in our head. But if it is infected with ego and conditioning then it does not function.

If you have discretion you can glorify that discretion into righteousness. The understanding of good and bad comes from discretion of Haṁsa. Ego used properly is discretion.

Śhrī Gaṇeśha is also at the Haṁsa.

Viṣhṇumāyā makes the Māyā and breaks it. Guilt is the by-product of ego.

We see one part of the moon and don't see the other part.

A mother has patience, love and compassion.

I do nothing. Whatever she witnesses works as a reflex action in the Param-Chaitanya. Every cell in the body is aware. Every cell in the body is a reflector. It works through remote control.

You may be adharmic but after Kuṇḍalinī awakening you become Dharmic.

If you use your mental power then this power [of Kuṇḍalinī] subsides. If you stop reflecting you become thoughtless, you become creative. It means you leave everything to Divine, you are not in charge.

Reflecting mind identifies with others. When you reflect on something you absorb it, you absorb the defects of others. Better to have admiration of others.

After the refraction of energy takes place, part of the energy is sucked in by the sympathetic. The remaining energy starts reflecting. Reflection sets in waves of thoughts. Try to suck all the reflecting energy in the sympathetic.

I laugh when people speak of God realisation. Just go on slipping into the compassion that's all.

One has to go beyond Self-knowledge.

Modern Sahaja Yoga is collective consciousness that is compassion.

In Sahaja Yoga the technique has killed spontaneity. There has to be balance. Simple thing is to feel vibrations.

People become nervous when they do not know what their mother is doing. She brings peace and smoothes the angularities that creates friction. She overcomes hate.

Anorexia; disturbed relationship between father and daughter. Father may have died in her absence causing insecurity.

Skin problems come from the liver.

Those with severe left side catch, should keep awake till midnight, keep a weekly vigil. Negativity attacks left side at night and right side in [the] day.

Cancer comes in emotionally disturbed people, shocks, deaths, emotional traumas, emotional insecurity, false Gurus put you in the left and you get vulnerable to possession, mesmerized etc. and you enter a realm where you are not in control, the possession controls you. According to scientist it is triggered by a protein P52, P58 which comes from a realm that was built in since our creation. This is the collective sub conscious, it is the area where all that is dead is stored. When a person enters this area he gets possessed by any of the dead spirits that trigger cancer.

When you are possessed you are the other and you don't know what is happening to you.

If by chance you can bring the aggressive malignant cells back cancer can be cured. The job is done by our Kuṇḍalinī.

According to it [program in the cell] all the development has taken place; like chip in a computer. It is the will of God which is doing all the work very harmoniously.

Such persons [involved in sex] create a problem for the society. Homosexuality is unnatural. AIDS can be cured if your nourish the three lower centers.

Attachments come from ego and possessiveness.

Human beings are the only instrument of God's power.

Everything that is created is saying thanks to its creator. Thankfulness not for returning anything but just to feel joy.

The spirit is the peace within us. Basically you are peace, but because you are not inside you don't feel it.

Woman is respected not because she is an actress or a prostitute but because she is a mother [Public Program, Melbourne].

The river does not forget the drop that separates from her. Mother Earth does not forget a tree that is uprooted from her.

We have become like calculating machines. If you get the spiritual you automatically get the material.

Any money making proposition is fanatical. It is converting dead into dead.

When a pauper is made king, people bow to him, but if he still remains a beggar in the mind then he remains miserable.

When Shri Mataji was born the negativity took a new turn and exploited the confusion in the Western morality.

Tilak supported it [the Shālivāhana calendar] and is followed in Maharashtra. Sahaja Yogis should follow it as it is more subtle and detailed and describes the transition from Kali Yuga to Satya Yuga as Krita Yuga which the Vikramaditya calendar followed in the North [India] does not. Shālivāhanas defeated Vikramaditya from UjJain and introduced their calendar.

When Shri Mataji speaks it creates sound waves inside us and we assimilate them. She tries to open up those dimensions that God wants to open in us. Hence we should not reflect but keep accepting them even if our rational does not agree.

You have to develop the childhood state. Like a child absorbs his mother's milk, absorb like children.

A child does not question.

We get our realisation because Shri Mataji is that. Similarly, you can give realisation by putting your attention because you are that.

When you put effort, it means it is artificial. Negation of effort is not lethargy.

A person who is discrete, others become discrete in his presence.

Not known by the brain but known by the central nervous system.

When something did not happen I was not bothered because I had no mental conception about it.

Mentally when we calculate and it does not happen, then it kills our joy.

Evolution has not stopped; we still think in a relative way.

It destroys something that could have been saved.

Matter leads to materialism. Matter always tries to overcome the spirit. Spirit is permanent. Matter forms dead habits. Matter has one great value that you can express your love through it. when matter is given thought then it becomes important. Things become important when you put value into it. little things move the whole ocean of My love. It moves Me to the highest point of joy.

We get so tired because we think so much.

When something is wrong in the Chakras we go into problems and become destructive.

It is not age of Kali. Age of Kalki is the age of construction. At the same time it is an age of destroying the evil forces. It is a very secure age. In the Biblical sense it is the last judgment.

Animals are not tense. Why are human beings tense? Because we think too much, we become speedy and have created artificial boundaries.

When we relax we can see the problem and can deal with it.

The essence of creation is joy. When we reach the essence of creation that is joy. It pours down your head completely and you relax. You become a witness. It is a dream you are not involved in.

Contents: 1900-0000 Prayer to the Spirit from Yuvadrishti, Vol. 8, Issue 2 (Jun 2007), p.13

We pray to Lord Shiva to look after our union. I surrender to You. Now Gaurī Kuṇḍalinī surrenders to the Spirit. We pray to Lord Shiva to look after this. I forget everything else. I leave it in Your holy hands. You raise me up. I forget all that was in me before, just lift me up. You raise me up. Everything I have dropped out, no other desire but just lift me higher. Make me Your servant. The rest of it is not important. All the other manifestations of this desire are over. Now I am absolutely surrendered to You, my Spirit. Lift me higher and higher and higher. Away from all the thoughts and things that were not the spirit. Make me complete Spirit.

Forget all that was there. That elevation, that ascent becomes fast quick trip. A very fast thing. If you just try this every moment, anything that goes against the Spirit must be given up. And that Spirit is what? The pure desire.

We have to be one with the Spirit and all the rest is not important. You are in the beautiful Kingdom of God where all ugliness drops out like when the lotus opens out; all the mud drops out from it.

In the same beautiful way, let My children become fragrant beautiful offering to Lord Sadāśhiva.

May God bless you.

Contents: 1900-0000 Quote from `The Times of India' published on 2002-03-26

En-masse inner transformation of human beings by Self-realisation is the reality now. Everyone can now become aware of the absolute truth and reality through Sahaja Yoga. Sahaja Yoga is the spontaneous union of individual consciousness with the All-pervading Power through the awakening of the residual power of the Kuṇḍalinī which lies dormant within all human beings in the triangular bone at the base of the spine, called the sacrum, the sacred bone.

Contents: 1901-0000 Letter (Marathi) I (perhaps London, 1975)

My dear Modi and other Sahaja Yogis, Many blessings. Received your letter. I am very glad to know that your Iḍā Nāḍī has become clean and I hope, Iḍā Nāḍīs of all have become clean at least to some extent. Here I had told all, that I would work, while under anaesthesia, to clean the Iḍā channels of all. I worked for three days cleaning it by vomiting nearly fifty times every day and it is nice that the cleaning has become possible. This physical being has to be used for the mission for which it has been taken and therefore I am not bothered by the illness and other troubles. On the contrary all such and different experiments with this incarnation will have to be performed. Why are you so anxious about it? What else is the use of this body? I never have any pains.

All I want is that, in the laboratory of this body, some work or the other must go on. Time is short while the work to be done is very big.

You cannot do the cleaning of Iḍā channel only on the strength of your realisation. I knew that it had to be cleaned from within. In ancient days all seekers had to do this action (Kriya) constantly right from their childhood at the residences of their Gurus at isolated places. The seekers had to do it individually in many lives. Because, now you have attained the state of collectivity I have done it in collective consciousness.

Although you say I have done it, the distinction of you and I should not be there in collective consciousness.

Mantras `Twam Bhavani', `Twam Durgā', `Twam Ambikā' etc. are good for Iḍā channel, but when you are established in Sahaja Yoga, you will have to say `Aham Bhavānī'. However this Mantra can be said only when your purity becomes one with that of `Aham Bhavānī' and I tell you now itself that this will happen.

After cleaning the Iḍā channel I am awakening Piñgalā Nāḍī. Sahaja Yogis had become rather lethargic due to the conditioning of Iḍā channel. Laziness and a tendency of avoiding the work was dominating in them. Their attention was being frittered away on avoiding the work. But I have now started the work of awakening Piñgalā channel. All of you should raise your right hand from right side over your head and leave it on the left side but while doing it, you must apply your will power so that your desires will materialise. With the awakening of collectivity, you will have many people to share your work which you are doing alone.

The sphere of Sahasrāra envelops your heart. When conditioning of heart is reduced, as if the glass of a lamp becomes clean, rays of ever resplendent Spirit awaken Sahasrāra sheath and the light of bliss spreads, which is felt in Sahasrāra. This light enlightens all sides of colourful heart and decorates it with the qualities which can be described as pleasing, blissful etc. Gradually this state will grow and become stable within you. Most of the Sahaja Yogis should try this method, but there should not be merely the mechanical movement of hands. Whatever you do, it should be done with the faith that you have in worshipping, zeal of a warrior and sensitivity of an artist. There should be complete purity in the recitation of Mantras to awaken the deities and your heart must be involved in it. Only then the awakening will take place. You should understand a simple principle. How can a big fire be lit with a small match stick? Will a wick hold the flame if water is mixed in the oil? How can those Sahaja Yogis have enlightenment who are using Sahaja Yoga to solve only their own petty problems? And why should God give them the enlightenment? Lighthouses do not show light to themselves even for a moment. Therefore, they are considered so important and are looked after.

Please circulate this letter among all Sahaja Yogis.

Your Mother, NIRMALA

Contents: 1901-0000 Letter (Marathi) II from Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 14 (Mar-Apr 1983), p.11

I have received letters from all of you but have not been able to write because now in London Sahaja Yoga work has started with great drive.

Delhi Sahaja Yogis write very few letters but most of them are happy. Sahaja Yogis of Bombay [Mumbai] are alright, Sahaja Yogis of Rahuri are enjoying. Sahaja Yogis of Bombay [Mumbai] have great responsibility and therefore had to face many attacks. The first attack came when I was in U.S.A. At that time many Sahaja Yogis were affected and many fell away. Later on when an attack was on all London Sahaja Yogis collectively followed wrong path which was full of dangers and harms. Many wicked people from that part are, still hiding themselves in some Sahaja Yogis in the form of `badhas'. You have to vigorously use Sahaja Yoga methods against them. These wickeds attack you from Āgñyā and Heart.

From Āgñyā they send anti-Sahaja Yoga ideas in your mind and from Heart they make complaints. If you identify them they will become ineffective. There is one remedy for it which can be applied only after the realisation. Because if your car does not start, your brakes and accelerators are of no use. But if you do not use the accelerator even after it starts, how will your car move? You can attain any destination that you fix. All your auto suggestions will materialise. The remedy that is to be used is: your attention should be on Me and you should make the following conditioning of thoughts on your Āgñyā “How fortunate we are to have been realised! We are Sahaja Yogis. God has chosen us. How can we work if we remain weak? Ādi Shakti has given us the Power to redeem the whole mankind. We can do it and we will do it." On heart you should criticise with these thoughts “How deep is God's love for us! He has given us the realisation. He is the ocean of mercy. Ignoring all our mistakes, He is working hard day and night for our welfare and, instead of praying for His forgiveness of our mistakes, we are making complaints against Him and blaming Him!" The following thoughts will please your Hearts, “O God, please give us the power of Your love. May I be the drop in the ocean of Your love that is enveloping the whole universe, so that its loving pulsation is vibrated through My life and I remain engrossed in that bliss." May your life be flooded by the waves of Divine Love. Always loving you, much more than Myself.

Your Mother, NIRMALA

Contents: 1901-07-00 Letter (Marathi) III on Guru Pūrnimā from Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 15 (May-Jun 1983), pp.12,13

Man wants peace, wealth, power, etc., but God is the origin of all these. Then why should there not be the desire for God? Why should there be no aspiration and ambition to meet God? We should pray to God for peace and keep the desire to meet God who is peace itself. This should be the difference in satisfaction of a common man and that of a Sahaja Yogi. One should be ready to surrender the very desire to meet God at God's holy feet. All attention must be on Him. For that one must have dedication, determination and concentration (tapasvita), in that all material attachments should be destroyed. What is there in this world to cling to? You must realise the glory of those feet in which all fades and becomes peaceful. Only then, will you have your glory! Why should one brag of one's achievements? You must understand that whatever is being done by you, is all God's power, that is, the working of the Ādi Shakti and you are only the witnesses to see these miracles. For achieving that stage, you should pray: “May our `I consciousness' fade away. May the truth that all of us are a small part of your being be assimilated within us, so that your Divine bliss would resonate every particle of our bodies and this life would be filled with beautiful melodies enchanting the whole of mankind and showing the light to the rest of the world." Let love flow from your hearts. Love is unlimited. Your love is unlimited. Your attention is on material things and you are talking about eternity.

Your attention should merge in eternity, so that you will have eternal life.

You are officials of God's kingdom then why are you sulking? All deities are your elder brothers in this kingdom. They are present in many forms along the path of Kuṇḍalinī. You should recognize them and attain them. Kuṇḍalinī is your Mother. Learn to always remain under Her care. Be Her child and She will take you to the Ultimate, once you accomplish that, from where everything is born, you will have the rest very easily! But you are not consistent in the practice of meditation, love and a peaceful life. You are talking casually even to Me. But how eager you are in worldly matters! How adamant you become on having what you want! Why are you not casual in that respect instead? Do not run away from the reality because I am Mahāmāyā! Attain Me; I am yours! I am for you. I have given you that which has been beyond the reach of very great sages and saints. How will you make use of it? You have been given a very big asset.

Thousands of stars and planets were created with just its one wave! There is great significance to your rebirth. But you, yourselves, have to achieve that you, yourselves have to find the meaning of `Swa' [Self]! Sahaja Yogis can do it. It is a big contrivance. I have told you the secret, but what have you achieved? Nobody sulks, having been benefited. `You are unhappy' means you have not been benefited! If you achieve the trick, you will open the gate of Joy and forget yourself, while enjoying the bliss! Nobody becomes happy from worldly matters. I have given you the key to the treasure, which others haven't got. But you must work to open the Door! You have taken everything casually. You want Mātājī to feed you, to wake you up in the morning, to make you sit in meditation and to clean you of anger, hatred etc...

Today is the day of Guru Pūjā. What `Guru Dakshina' [Gift to the Guru] have you given Me? Understand that your money is not worth the dust on the feet of your Mother Guru! You should give your hearts only clean and holy hearts. You must clean your physical beings. Do not be lazy in that. Make a vow! You must get up early in the morning and spend at least one hour on meditation and worshipping.

Perform `Ār.ti' and meditation in the evening.

Satan's disciples work hard at a funeral place [a dead place]. I cannot understand why you are taking everything so casually! Stop all gossiping! Leave all jealousies and quarrels! Time never waits for anyone.

Do you want to go empty handed, despite having the Key to the Treasure? If you do not accept God's kingdom, Satan's kingdom will come and you will have yourself to blame for it! Remember, because you Sahaja Yogis are dear people, that you have been selected as officials. If you ignore it, on the one hand you will be deprived of a great source of joy and on the other hand, you will lose your authority, due to the incomplete knowledge of Sahaja Yoga. Hence, be wise and stand firm! Every movement has thousands of directions. Let your ray spread in different directions. You will do the welfare to the whole world. Get over your `inaction to act' ! You are to be captains! Let God's melodies be sounded from your flutes.

Transcend in your feelings above those who have not been realised and blessed and God's kingdom will be yours. May you get that auspiciousness! All My efforts are for that! You have been made like temples. Keep it clean.

Some of you are enjoying yourselves in the ocean of bliss! My blessings are that all of you should be happy. Your worldly life and satisfaction should be of the same level. A Sahaja Yogi's satisfaction and the circumstances he is in, are balanced. Both of our legs grow together! If one leg is shorter than the other, you will become lame! I do not want to tell you to lower the level of your circumstances, if the contentment is less. But a Sahaja Yogi's satisfaction does not depend on circumstances. He is happy in the circumstances that are prevailing. If he is not, then his satisfaction is superficial and not from within! May God grant you an eternal place at His feet! Your Mother, Nirmalā

Contents: 1901-0000 Letter (Marathi) IV, Meaning of Pūjā from Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 12 (Nov-Dec 1982), p.4

My dear Nirmalā,

Many Blessings Received your loving letter. I have also very much enjoyed Navarātri Pūjā.

But Pūjā is also an external offering. Even your heart has said so. But you should understand how you get the reward or blessings of the Pūjā and its Prasad.

A Pūjā or a prayer grows from your heart. Mantras are the words of your Kuṇḍalinī. But if Pūjā is not performed from heart or if Kuṇḍalinī is not associated with recitation of Mantras then that Pūjā becomes a ritual.

If you become thoughtless in Pūjā, know that your heart is also involved in it. Collect the Pūjā material and offer it sincerely. There should be no formality or bindings in the offerings. It is correct to wash hands, but is your heart washed? When attention is on heart it does not go to others. Although you remain quiet from outside, you are speaking from within. Hence you should not, be silent for long time. If man's heart is not clean, then the silence becomes very harmful. At the same time loose talks can bring catastrophes.

You should say the Mantras in Pūjā but with great faith (Shraddhā). There is no alternative to Shraddhā. You should perform the Pūjā when Shraddhā grows deep, so that heart itself gets all Pūjā performed. At that time waves of bliss start flowing because it is the Spirit that is saying, how can any thought come at that time? People pour their wine in the glass. Your Pūjā is like that. In that, wine is your faith and the glass is the recitation of Mantras and the worshipping.

When you are drinking that wine forgetting everything, how can a thought come! Then only bathing in the ocean of bliss! How can that joy be expressed in thoughts? Who will pour that wine, back in the glass, which is to be drunk and that too in the inferior glass of thoughts? However, the joy that you get after drinking the wine is eternal and ever-present. It becomes your asset.

Many such Pūjās have been performed in My presence. Every time a big wave comes and take you to a new land. Experiences of many such lands become your own. They give vastness to personality and open new gates of joy. Best is worshipping in the heart. If, the photo by looking at it, can be placed in heart or, after the Pūjā, its view goes to heart, then the joy which you get only at that time, can become everlasting and ever-present.

Show this letter, to all Sahaja Yogis and send its copies.

Contents: 1901-0000 Letter to Doctor Raul I from Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 8 (Mar-Apr 1982), p.24

My dear Dr. Raul, I received a very detailed letter from Damle. It was a very wise step on your part to have met Śhrī Gagan Gadh Maharaj. What he says about the miracle of Sahaja Yoga is absolutely true. The reason why this great sanctuary never manifested in reality was that whenever Ādi Shakti descended as incarnation (She) did not have all the Chakras integrated through Sahasrāra. The complete harmony and unison merged into an integrated instrument of her personality is bringing forth these fantastic results.

So much so that I am surprised at Myself.

I think he (Gagan Gadh Maharaj) also cannot imagine the dynamics of this Discovery and hence he feels that `Avdhuts' have to be away in the forests and that. Cancer can give you reaction. You have cured the Cancer of Phadke's father. Did it give you any reaction? When you are at a giving end how can you receive anything? You are reborn as Lotus which does not take anything bad from muddy surroundings but transforms its surroundings with its beauty and fills it with fragrance. This is the magic of a realised soul. Do you think doctors will accept that there exists the Kingdom of God and that it creates us and that the Lord of our autonomous nervous system is our spirit which is the reflection of God? You can quote the names of people like Mr. Bose and Mr. Daftary and Mr. Sharma who are miraculously cured of his colour blindness through Sahaja Yoga. In any case I am going to America next year. One of my dear Sons Dr. Lanjewar has now become the president of the Medical Practitioners Association of New York and is very anxious to have a conference next year in New York. Due to our slavery for so many years, doctors in India have lost the capacity to know that we are the people born on the Yoga Bhumi. Their thinking is so slavish that they think all our ideas about medicine are stupid while western knowledge is very sensible.

I bless you with all my heart that Dr. Ramlingam has good vibrations. Śhrī Rama in him would have wisdom to understand the ways of God Almighty. I send you my love and protection so that you can break the barriers of ignorance of our medical men. Let them know that the time has come for them to accept that science is not everything. It only discovers whatever exists and appears before the gross being.

Once we become subtle rising in the fourth dimension, we see the subtle being, the spirit and contentment and DIVINE working of this love, cannot be done by argument. One has to be realised. One has to evolve through Sahaja Yoga spontaneously as this is a living process. For cancer best treatment is of water i.e. putting feet in the river, sea or in the water at home with the photograph. Water has the religion (Dharma) of cleansing and hence Śhrī VISHNU and DATTATREYA responsible for the religion (Dharma) of human beings are to be worshipped. They help you to cure and also the local Deity of the Chakra that is attacked. Put the patient before the photograph with the candle and his feet being in the water, bring down your hands across the sympathetic nervous system towards the water. The patient will cool down gradually. If he gets realisation, then he is cured. More in the next.

Contents: 1901-0000 Letter to Doctor Raul II, London, UK from The Life Eternal, 1980 Issue, pp. 17,18

My dear Doctor Raul, I have already written to you one letter. In this, I will explain to you, why you do not get electromagnetic vibrations in the machine. The explanation is more to make the scientist understand.

Chaitanya is the integrated force of your physical, mental, emotional and religious (sustenance) selves.

Science is the analysis of that synthesis. If we have to record the electro-magnetic vibrations of any matter, we have to reduce it or analyze it in such a manner that electro-magnetic vibrations are liberated from the bondage of synthesis. A human body has electro-magnetic vibrations but they cannot be recorded because they are synthesized in a living body. But by any method if you can liberate or separate the electromagnetic vibrations from a human being, you can record them. Where we can find a machine that could record synthesized living vibrations of Chaitanya and even a machine that could record the aesthetics of Matters? Science can only record the dry side of Matter.

Till the human stage for working of the sympathetic nervous system expresses the synthesis of our three Dimensions but the fourth one (Religion) though existent is not understood or felt within. Religion sustains the human being. It acts through Nabhi Chakra. Everything in the creation has sustenance (Dharma). Therefore, human beings have to know law of Dharma.

The Ten Commandments in the Bible, is the description of the human Dharma, in a nutshell. But Indian Philosophy has dealt with it in much more details and clarity. The opposite of Dharma is sin. The greatest sin is to sin against your mother (sex perversions). In all the Scientifically advanced countries this sin has been capturing the minds of human beings in the holy name of liberation of sex. In the underdeveloped countries the sin that has prospered is the sin against God (Almighty). That is to say, to forget that there is God who is our father who is looking after us and we should not worry about our well being. The developed countries started their fall by committing the second sin to begin with. They worked on their Sun line to improve their condition but they got completely exhausted. Now they have reached a state that they have no interest in money. But now they have fallen on to the other side of their being (Ida Nadi or Chandra Nadi) by which they are in a terrible mess. The confusion of Gaṇeśha with Mooladhara (Mother's Abode) has reached its climax. These people if they do not take the Sahaja Yoga will be following the line of Rakshasas. Therefore with all the advancement there is no sanity in their lives; contentment has no existence in their hearts. If Indians of the Great Yoga Bhumi could understand its heritage and give up the nonsense of money hankerings by cheating and cutthroat foxy methods, they can short-circuit their progress to Divinity. Otherwise, gradually they are going to lose their Dharma, the part which others have already lost.

The reason why I have written so much about Dharma is to explain why the human being, who is the synthesis of the most evolved physical (electromagnetic vibrations), mental, emotional being must have the fourth being of Dharma established through Temperance and Piety. He receives the Blessings of the Mother through Chaitanya. Chaitanya (Praṇava), which is the power of Adi Shakti. It is the force which is the integrated completely synthesized one power which vibrates.

So, it is impossible to record them on the machine. The existence and working of Chaitanya Lahari can be only verified by the curing of people through working of parasympathetic nervous system which is expressed as awareness and is felt through central nervous system. The integration is like the assembling of lamp, wick and the oil. The Sahaja Yoga is the igniter that enlightens the lamp. This light is felt through central nervous system. The Sahaja Yogis reach a state of higher synthesis when all four human selves synthesize or integrate through the fifth force which is the source of all the four. Thus, he becomes the recording machine of the parasympathetic and the sympathetic nervous system. Instead of a dead machine, a living machine is created which records, corrects the problems and fulfils the patient with medicines, the source of all the medicines the greatest i.e., Divine Love.

For the psychologist there is a great discovery of the universal unconscious made so easy. They are still plodding to create the stage for Sahaja Yogis but the people who made the stage never stop on to it. Therefore I have not got much hopes about them. Their thinking has definitely exposed to the human understanding the existence of universal unconscious. You, Sahaja Yogis, have already entered the realm of universal unconscious. But how can the psychologists who have built the stage can step on to it because the stage builders can never get on to the stage. In the same way scientists have created a stage which they cannot enter. They just say that further than this we cannot explain or understand. For example in the human beings the mode of action of Acetylcholine and Adrenaline cannot be explained. A Sahaja Yogi can explain because he knows the know-how of Kundalini. You know from factual experience that the deities are looking after it and managing the show.

Please convey my blessings to all the Sahaja Yogis, all my blessings and all my love to all of you.

Yours forever Your Mother NIRMALA

Contents: 1901-0000 Letter (likely Hindi or Marathi) from The Life Eternal, 1979 Issue, pp.6,7

My dear Sahaj yogi,

The human mind is beset with many a distractions.

When relieved of them, knowledge enables us to attain immense joy. Due to awakening of Kundalini, your mind is free from many distractions: () You have to become aware that KUNDALINI in man is a `living-power'. It is indeed a reality.

() Every human being is endowed with this power and it is easily awakened in innocent and simple minded persons.

() This awakening of Kundalini is not achieved as a result of any `Karma'. Still however, if the `Sādhak' is crooked, it will not be awakened. The reason is, even when Kundalini is not active, it is aware of the past deeds of such a Sādhak. Kundalini discriminates; and being the mother, fountain of the `Sādhaks', she is `witness' to their good and bad deeds. Further, by the grace of Kundalini, the deceased mind and body of the Sādhak get cured.

() The Kundalini Power is the embodiment of the `will-power' of Bhagwati, the Divine Mother. She is awakened effortlessly by Bhagwati's willpower or volition. Even an extremely highly placed human being has to struggle hard in a roundabout way for that achievement, But that is not his fault.

() The Brahman, the conscious vibrations which pervade your body, purifies all the three phases, namely, the body, the mind and the EGO in you. When these phases get contaminated, the vibrations in you make you aware of these.

() If you, indeed, attain a calm psyche, pure mind and are devoid of the EGO, you do attain the state of Spiritual Bliss. The reason is, the Light of the soul spreads unobstructed.

() How did the cosmos spring up? Why? Is there Go? Such fundamental questions remained unsolved even by the Gods. However, please know that what I have conveyed to you is the truth; this you can feel and know only by constant vibrations. But to be aware of this, your own vibrations must be in perfect order.

The experience will teach you that the `Love' and `Truth' are one and the same. This experience will help you solve many an intricate and deep seated principles of the Brahman. At this stage, your mind will have the Revelation that Brahman is devoid of passions The concept of god, the Brahman, will blossom like petals of the blooming lotus, spreading its fragrance, when the physical, spiritual and the cosmic states will be shorn of the deep seated dirt in the mind. Your mind will be in tune with Brahman, the Eternal Lotus. At this juncture, distractions of the mind carried by the egoistic vain glory, will fade away.

() The Brahman is like the ever-powerful SUN. Still, however, the human mind, wavering as it is, its unsteady thoughts vanish in the waters of distractions. Once your mind attains the `Sun-power', it will cease to waver. The distractions of the mind will disappear by practice of Meditation. Meditation is nothing but the state of remaining in the constant company of the ever-loving Bhagwati.

() When you become broadly conscious, that is to say, when you attain collective consciousness, that itself is the Brahman Power. It pervades in innumerable forms in the Universe, in the atoms and molecules.

To the dull mind it is inanimate, to the restive mind it is many splendored [splendored] power. To the revealed mind it is the joy. In the mind of the Sahajyogi, it is the Eternal Bliss. To the realised Yogi, it is ecstatic bliss. You have known all these phases. Experience them. Test them. Keep the mind quiet and steady. Have total surrender and make your mind devoid of doubts.

These are My blessings.

Ever Yours Your Mother NIRMALA

According to me, Hazrat Muhammed was one of the greatest incarnations because he was even greater than a prophet. He announced some prophecies which none of the incarnations, such as Jesus, had described. The first thing he said was that we must have Meerraj, meaning the ascent through different levels. And at the third level he described how he met with all the previous prophets such as Ibrahim and he described the ascent on the white horse which is actually the power of Kundalini. Secondly, he said that when you receive your realisation you have to filly surrender, meaning “Islam" and then your hands will speak. He did not condemn any previous religion or incarnation. For example, the Kabe Makeshwara is also described in the Indian Koran. And thirdly, he described the next advent that is going to come.

He never said that he was the last one. What shows that he never said he was the last is that he said that I am the seal, meaning that he was the stamp of the prophets. He described the work of the advent of Mandi. The word of Mandi actually means the incarnation of the great primordial Mother, Ma + Adi.

No one has prophesised so clearly about Sahaja Yoga except for Hazrat Muhammed who has described Sahaja Yoga in his great book of Koran.

Contents: 1902-0000 Handwritten Notes, Jesus was Eeshanath

Jesus was Eeshanath When Jesus was thirteen years old, his relations started the preparations for his marriage. However he wanted to remain a bachelor. Hence he left his house and along with a caravan of merchants he reached Indi at the bank of river Indus. Thereafter in a group of Jain Sadhus he travelled to Jagannath Puri (a holy place on the east coast of India). At [UNCLEAR that] place, while absorbing strict austerities of the bachelor life he studied the Vedas under the tutelage of Brahmin Scholars. He also learnt the Smritis (code of conduct). He attained the age twenty year till the time he completed his education. Subsequently, in order to live in the company of Sadhus and Saints he undertook pilgrimage of a number of holy places such as Rayagriha, Benares, Prayag etc. This was followed by six years training in the Buddhism in a monasteries of Nepal and Tibet. Thus studying in Indian Subcontinent (Arya Varta) up to the age of thirty years and becoming a Buddhist ascetic he returned to his country via Iran. There he started the propagation of Indian philosophy (Based on a book on the Unknown life Jesus by Dr Notovich) When Jesus was fourteen year old and practicing the devotion to Śhrī Shiva his name was Eesha Nath.

He propagated the same knowledge of Shaiva Vidyā in his country, after completion of his studies in India. This was not liked by the heretics from his country who were worst crooks. They got him crucified.

However his Guru from the Nāth discipline took him off and brought to life. Then, the Guru and Eesha Nāth established an Ashram at foothills of the Himālayas where Eesha Nāth offered three years rigorous penance. He dies at the age 49 years. His grave is still shown in the Kashmir as the grave of Issa Saheb.

His name Eesha got changes into the name Yeshu (Jesus).

A picture of Jesus in the Vatican palace shows him having shaven off head except for few hair locks at the back side of head, wearing a Dhoti and shoulder cloth, which resembles to a Shaiva ascetic in India.

This picture is not accepted by the Christians as they do not like the history related to the period of seventeen years that Jesus spent in India.

Bhavishya Purāna, Chapter three verses 21-23 says that grandson of Vikramaditya King Shālivāhan (who introduced Shalivahan almanac), while on the conquest of the Himālayas saw a glorious a man engaged in penances. Both had discussions on religious principles.

He said “I worship God with pure mind, speech established in truth and in complete union of attention with the Sun. Hence the people call me Isha Pasi". It shows that Jesus and King ShaliVāhana were contemporaries.

Dr Notovich, a well-known Russian scholar struggled for years to unravel the mystery of Jesus's life from the age thirteen to thirty years. The study of literature in libraries at Egypt, Turkey, Arabia, etc revealed to him that a sect called Essenes existed two thousand years ago, somewhere in the East, to which Jesus belonged.

Dr Notovich therefore extensively travelled in the East, to collect information known through legends. His quest brought him to India. A Tibetan Lama at village Himmis (in Tibet) showed him a book on the biography of Jesus, which contained manuscript written by Jesus. Dr Notovich made three photocopies of the book and returned the original book to Lama. Reaching back to his country, Dr Notovich sent one copy together with translation to the Pope. After six months he received a reply “Your papers have been burnt. The Pope has ordered you not to publish these papers". Dr Notovich, albeit disregarded the order and published his book “The unknown life of Jesus".

Contents: 1902-0000 Handwritten Notes (Translation from a Marathi book), MADONNA

The Christian religion originated from the ancient Jew religion. The Jews regarded Holy Trinity as a Goddess. Hence even after the advent of Christianity an emphasis was given on Divine powers.

Some Gods and Goddesses were taken in the new religion. To resolve the controversy on superiority of Jesus vis-a-vis other Gods & Goddesses, Jesus was recognised as the son of “Madonna". This is seen from available pictures of Madonna. A picture of Madonna which belongs to the year A.D. 1437, depicts Madonna as Goddess of compassion, conferring her blessings on the devotees around her (human picture 178). Another picture of 17th century from “Creet Inland" shows Madonna at the center of a number of icons (human picture 174). In yet another picture she is seen to be seated on a lion shaped throne having a child on her lap. There are also various other pictures and statues. All these artistic works lead to a conclusion that Madonna was “Mother Mary" (James page 154).

Anno Domini is considered to have begun from birth of Jesus which however is not correct. A Christian Missionary introduced this almanac in the 6th century. Till that time Roman or Egyptian calendars were being followed. However the missionary made a mistake in his reverse calculation of time. Therefore the Christian Priests had to accept that the birth of Jesus was six years before the commencement of A.D. In this support of this contention it is stated that when Jesus was born, king Herod was ruling. He dies four years before A.D. Similar record is available in Egyptian Census.

It is therefore interesting to see as to how the 25th December has been accepted as the Birth date of Jesus. It is stated in the Bible that Jesus was born in a Manger. There is no mention in the Bible about the birth-date of Jesus or any celebrations. Moreover the Jesus tradition do not celebrate birth or deaths of saints.

Even 300 years after the birth of Jesus the Romans were still worshipping the sun and other Gods. The Christianity was prohibited. In the 4th century Emperor Constantine of Rome got converted to Christianity and allowed its propagation. In a short time thousands of people were converted.

The Roman astrologers considered the day 25th December as the day of transition of the sun (Makar Sankranti) [Saturnalia, the pagan Roman winter solstice festival]. On this day great celebrations were held in Rome to celebrate birth of the sun [`dies natalis solis invicti', birthday of the unconquered sun]. A lady with a child in hand was taken around in procession. The people exchanged sweets & gifts. This festival continued even after the conversions to Christianity & the priests of the time adopted it as the Birthday festivities to celebrate the birth of Christ. Thus 25th December was adopted as the birthday of Christ.

In the modern times when everything is moving very fast, it is very difficult for a single person to achieve anything without compromising with the trend of the world. Hence, it is absolutely essential that those artists who seek freedom and who believe that they have to play a vital role to further the cause of art, should give up their petty differences and jealousies and unite together. If such a group of artists decides to accept good in their personal, economic and social life and pledge not to deviate from the right path, then no power, however destructive, can lay hands on them. Unity of purpose can only grant them all the security needed for the creation of their art.....

In guiding the creation of an atom into this complex universe and in planning the evolution of a single cell into this wonderful human being, there is a hidden hand of a very great artist because through His creation He expresses Himself. He sings, He dances, He paints, He acts and, above all, He compels the spectators to reflect. Yes, He created this world because He wanted to reflect Himself, His truths, His beauty, His grace, His compassion, His sweetness, His righteousness and all that can be termed as culture.

Contents: 1903-0000 Message of H. E. Ayatollah M. Rouhani, Respected Leader of the Muslim Faith

To Her Holiness Shri Mataji Nirmalā Devī, From His Excellence the Ayatollah Mehdi Rouhani The message you gave for the world peace is very encouraging for the future of Humanity. Please find here the expression of my highest gratitude. In this message, you expressed the desire of an era of peace and reconciliation. The whole Humanity is longing for the realm of peace in the world.

From my side, I can assure you that the Muslim world in his totality agrees with this noble human aspiration that you preach. For this aspiration not to remain a wishful thinking, it should be accompanied with a detailed, realistic and efficient plan.

Our sacred scripture, the Koran, says: “O people of the book, you who got the Scripture, let us take to a good formula, common to you and us: let us adore one Single God, without associating anything to Him." (Verse 3-63), thus revealing the Prophets' mission and mystery and the raison d’être of all the religions, teaching the Humanity to fill this Universe with bliss and to remove, by a sincere love for one another, all hypocrisy and discord, so that everyone's mind being at peace and everyone's quest for perfection keeping growing, the following axiom become true: “The man will reach such a level (of perfection) that he will only see God (everywhere), despite the undeniable reality." Looking back to history, we notice that all the conflicts that had dreadful consequences for humanity, took birth in differences of rites, beliefs and fanaticism and were nourished by them. That is pitiable reality, when all the initiators or monotheist religions were only longing for peace and security worldwide. Their predicators were only aiming at the raising of the Spirit, the purification of Man, the noble spirituality and the brotherhood of all souls.

Members of this congress are convinced, more than anybody else, that monotheist religions are part of a single chain, every link of which is complementary to the other, brings it up to strength and together with it forms an indissoluble unity.

The Divine Message is, in the heart of hearts, unique and if some differences might appear in its form, this is due to incidents of time, places and evolution of Man. God never compelled his creatures to follow two different paths and never asked them to resort to war.

The Koran, our sacred book, considers that a mere doubt about the genuineness of other Holy Scriptures is a deviation from the Islamic belief.

The Verse 136 of Surah 2 of the Koran explicitly says: “Believing in God for the Muslims induces believing in Moses' Holy Scriptures, Abraham's (Friend of Allah) and Jesus's (Spirit of Allah) and in other revealed books." This verse considers the Divine Revelation as the trunk of a same tree, the branches of which are the different religions, whether ancient or new and the source of which is unique. According to the Koran, the Man, emanating from Reality, will come back to his Source: God.

This is a certitude, which has to lead to friendship and mutual tolerance between human beings.

In messianic messages, provided my references are correct, one can find more or less the same commandments.

In my opinion and I hope you will agree with it, if monotheists disagree about the Divine Message, the reason is that they misinterpreted it, because of their incompetence or ignorance of what the real Revelation is. If these misunderstandings and false interpretations disappeared, there would be no seed left for the coming back of religious conflicts and aggressive fanaticism.

What one can assert, is that Universal Peace cannot be achieved through strength nor anybody can pay for it and that the only path to this peace is bringing hearts together.

If it is not possible to guide every human idea to the same way, let it be possible at least to find meeting points and a link between the spirits.

May I humbly express that according to me all revealed religions have got similar or common commandments and precepts, the knowledge of which is the best way to bring people together.

Almost all monotheists do not know at all, or very little about the identity or the likeness of these precepts. Thus, they not only miss this community of thought but in many historical occasions, they face each other and fight as real enemies.

For all these reasons, I would like the organizers of this conference [of Shri Mataji in Paris] to pay attention to few questions that matter in relations between monotheists.

By this doing, my only aim is to contribute to the improvement of these relations. I suggest the following: 1. The meeting of a special commission, composed by specialists in monotheist matters, in order to point out the convergences of revealed religious scriptures. Should such an interconfessional organization be founded, made out of representatives of these religions, chosen among theologians, its purpose would be the printing of a multilingual opuscule which would contain these commandments and precepts with their comments.

This book would, we are convinced, enormously contribute to provide the followers of these religions with a clear idea of what our common wealths are. This brochure would constitute a kind of `key for peace and security' aiming at their unity.

2. The convocation of a world congress gathering monotheists aiming at the elaboration of a chart for peace, reconciliation and mutual understanding.

3. Taking the initiative to celebrate every year the religious days of the other community. This would be an opportunity to bring the communities together.

Should the congress agree with these suggestions, I might have a few more to submit. I am convinced of the complexity of such an issue which can't be solved in one day. However in order to complete it, one should first start.

Ever since we have lived together constantly, Nirmalā has been a dedicated wife, standing rock-like in periods of difficulties and crisis which always occur in everyone's life. Her attributes are numerous, but I would mention only a few of them. First and foremost is Her straightforwardness and Her innocence. She cannot sometimes understand the tortuous ways of others. Her heart is full of genuine compassion for the poor, the needy, the afflicted.

She cannot bear the sight of hungry children, tears flow out of Her eyes. She is generous to the extreme and gives away Her belongings to others with sincere pleasure. She is not attached at all to any material possessions. Her personal requirements are minimal and Her personal expenditure almost nil.

In Her personal habits also She is most remarkable. She can live in any surroundings and feel no discomfort or hardship. She eats with equal relish whatever is cooked for Her meals, whether it is cooked badly or well.

The feeling of guilt which you have is the result of conditionings which have accumulated in the ego and superego. Tell yourself, `I am not guilty.' It does not matter whatever you may have done or which Chakra may be blocked. You simply have to correct them. Do not condemn yourselves. Be the Self. And to do this, the best method is to forgive. This will open your Āgñyā. Ask God humbly for forgiveness; this will bring your attention back into the heart..... Dignity and serenity will take place within you when you realise that your nature is that of the Spirit.

Human beings have various sources through which he constructs the picture of God Almighty. His ideas about truth are also based on these different sources. Before realisation it is not possible to know what is the real source and which is the imaginary plight. When people construct on their own and write books it gets confirmed by the masses as the authentic version.

For a real seeker it is necessary to open the mind to receive the light of Self-realisation. He should not discard or accept anything before the Self-realisation. Because none of the knowledge whether real or fake has granted Self-realisation. About Kuṇḍalinī and spiritual happening also there are many books.

Some of them are correct, some of them confused and some of them are absolutely false.

When one gets realisation the being acts like a computer as if the inner subtle mechanism has been connected with the mains. Through vibrations of Chaitanya which appeal like Cool Breeze one can detect for oneself as to what is reality. The Being realises that it becomes the carrier of the dynamic force of Divine Love. He understands and records its working. Then only one realises the meaning of human personality which has evolved from an amoeba to this stage. The totality of man is felt through the spiritual synthesis of physical, emotional and mental beings.

And, if it works like child's play why should you worry how it's done? If you are hungry you should start eating. I leave it to your wisdom and to your freedom to feel the longing from inside.

Sahaja Yoga is the fantastic gift of Nature that has revealed truths for the emancipation and evolution of the human race.

So far our evolution has taken place without our knowledge, but the ascent of man now is going to be in his full awareness. In thousands of years man could not reach the moon, but today it is possible. The ignorant do not believe of the human landing on the moon. In the same way those who learnt about God through books and not through Sahaja meditation, are equally ignorant. They have always denied incarnations, real prophets and real Gurus.

On the tree of life there might have been very few flowers, but now the blossom time has come. Their fragrance of longing has collectively materialised the manifestation of Sahaja Yoga. Many are going to jump into the realm of Thoughtless Awareness where you get introduced to yourself and start identifying with your Universal Nature. Let us open our hearts and receive the blessings of God Almighty. Through Sahaja Yoga only can the Satya Yuga be felt in the human heart.

[UNCLEAR because] anything that is reality doesn't start with a bang. We can create thousands of plastic flowers but to create one real flower it takes time and you have to have that patience. Because Sahaja Yoga is a living process of your evolution. You have evolved into this human state, there is a little breakthrough that is to be achieved.

When I came here, this was the first country I've visited, and, that time, I was amazed how people were seeking ardently. But how they were misled by advertising, by false promises and also by using all kinds of devious methods. There was no honesty about it, there is no simplicity about it. And they [UNCLEAR weren't]. At that time [in 1972] when I was talking, I remember I was in Los Angeles and San Francisco, the gentleman who had organized My program told Me that “Mother, You better take a sort of a copyright." I said, “For what?" “For your lectures. Because they will use your lectures and they'll put up big organizations." I said, “Let them. It's a very good idea. It will go to people. It's a very good idea that they should know that's a new age coming, they should also know this Aquarius Age. They should know all about it. There is no harm.".....

Yesterday I told you that we have within us two very important powers. The first power is the power of desire by which we desire, called as Icchā Shakti in Sanskrit language. And the another power which is called as the Kriya Shakti or we can say the power of action. These two are really gross powers which are expressed outside as sympathetic nervous system; left and right sympathetic nervous system.

The central path is called the Suṣhumnā Nāḍī, the channel of our ascent. This channel represents our evolution through ages. We can say that this channel is responsible for giving us our evolution from amoeba to this stage as a human being.

And all the centers that you see there, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, all of them are the milestones in our progress, in our evolution. These are all placed within us, the subtle centers are there, they are all there. And we are made up of this beautiful instrument. We are not aware of it, of course, we are not aware. Also, we can't see them because they are subtle centers and we cannot see with our naked eye. We can only see the manifestation of these centers outside as gross plexuses.

Now today as I told you yesterday, I will be dealing with each center one by one and I'll tell you what these centers represent within us.

Now the very first center is the center of our innocence. Before creating us, before creating this Universe, Innocence was created. Innocence is the most powerful power on this earth. Innocence is Love, Innocence is God and Innocence is the only thing that really keeps us going in this horrible world in which we are born. This Innocence.....

(armchair covered with yellow sari, microphone with red flower, NSS)... both the feet away from each other. Now, please take out your spectacles.

[Aside:] [UNCLEAR].

Put your right hand on your heart.

[Aside:] Now is better. You need to put it on now. Much better this [a Sahaja Yogi brought a fan close to the right foot of Shri Mataji]. It's terrible. Such heat I am absorbing from all of them. Terrible heat they have. Alright, doesn't matter.

Please put your right hand on the heart. Here you have to ask Me a very fundamental question, three times: `Mother, am I the spirit?' You can call Me Mother or Shri Mataji.

[Aside:] It's better now, better [UNCLEAR] [referring to the fan which is getting better arranged].

I already told you that if you become the Spirit, you become your own master.

So now, please take your hand.....

..... but if you get the Cool Breeze, which is only possible when this union takes place, this Yoga takes place with this All-pervading power. Your all these centers are enlightened and you can make out whether this is alright or that is alright.

So we are fantastic, you don't know. You are very fantastic people.

See this instrument, unless and until is connected to the mains it has no meaning. If you take a television in a remote village of India and say that this box will show you lots of films, they will say this is just a box. We also think we are just the box. You are not. Once you are connected, then you will know how fantastic you are.

What Debu Chaudhuri is true, so many artists have become really so creative and have such a big name, who came to Sahaja Yoga. Not only you become creative, you become extremely dynamic. At the same time you are extremely wise and compassionate. Is not just talking big but actually this compassion works and you go on working and never feel tired, always feel young. Now I am seventy years of age and travelling every day. Every day I am travelling, I am alright.

It's such a thing, once you get it you want to give it to others. Not for money, not for fame, not for anything. But just for Love's sake.

I have a very good family, My children are there, grandchildren are there, everything is, they also understand the importance of this. But I can't live without giving it to others because I can't enjoy.

So first I can say that I have all the powers so I am the capitalist and I cannot leave without giving it to others so that I am the greatest communist [soft laughter and smile]. That's how this proves that all our theories are artificial. What is the capital of these rubber and plastic? The real capital is of your Spirit.....

Beware, dear aspirants.

There is a Judas within us. Be careful. He walks with us, works with us. Sings the praises of the Divine Mother, but he is an ugly serpent, the representative of the Satan, who is in disguise. He helped to crucify Christ in a sly manner. He may be a woman like Pūtana, who came to poison the child Kṛiṣhṇa.

Let us all know the oneness in our Mother's Love. And take guidance in the burning flame of Her Divinity. Guard against such ship sinkers in the ship of Sahaja Yoga.

May God give you knowledge to know the evil genius, the negativity personified.

Contents: 1905-0000 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, on Meditation

In the morning you get up, have your bath, sit down, take some tea; don't talk. Don't talk in the morning.

Sit down, meditate. Because, at that time, the Divine rays come in. The sun comes afterwards. That's how the birds get up. That's how the flowers get up. They're all awakened by that and, if you are sensitive, you will feel that, by getting up in the morning, you will look at least ten years younger. Really, it's such a good thing to get up in the morning and then, automatically you sleep early. This is for getting up, for sleeping I need not tell because that you'll manage yourself! Then, in the morning time, you should just meditate.

In meditation try to stop your thoughts. Watch My photograph with open eyes and see that you stop your thoughts. You should stop your thoughts, then you go into meditation. The simple thing to stop your thoughts is the Lord's Prayer, because that's the Āgñyā state.

So in the morning you remember Lord's Prayer or Gaṇeśha's mantra. It's just the same. Or you even say, `I forgive'.

So you can start with Gaṇeśha’s mantra, say Lord's Prayer and then say `I forgive'. It works out.

Then you are in thoughtless awareness. Now you meditate. Before that there's no meditation. When the thoughts are coming or `I have to take tea,' `What shall I do?', `Now what have I to do?', `Who's this?' and `Who's that?' All this will be there.

So first you become thoughtlessly aware, then the growth of spirituality starts after thoughtless awareness, not before.

One should know that, on rational plane you cannot grow in Sahaja Yoga.

So first thing is to establish your thoughtless awareness. Still you might feel little Chakra blockages here and there, forget it! just forget about it.

Now start your surrendering. Now if a Chakra is catching, you should say, `Mother, I surrender this to You.' Instead of doing any of these things you can just say that. But, that surrendering should not be rationalised. If you're still rationalizing and worrying, why should I say this, it will never work out. If there's pure love and purity in your heart that's the best thing. To do so, is to surrender.

Leave all the worries to Your Mother. Everything to your Mother. But surrendering is one point that is very difficult in ego-oriented societies. Even talking about that, I feel a little bit worried. But if there's any thought coming in to you or any Chakra catching, just surrender. And you'll see that the Chakras are cleared up. In the morning time you do not go on putting this way, that way, nothing; don't move your hands too much in the morning. You'll find most of your Chakras will clear out in the meditation.

Only try put love in your heart.

Contents: 1905-0000 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Sahaja Culture, Pratishthan, Pune, Maharashtra, India (around Feb or Mar)

Now you see the Western culture is coming so fast on our heads And also another thing is that today low-levels creations are coming. Do you understand that part? Like drama, like cinemas, like books so many also newspapers, very low level they are. Now what should we do about it? One way is to criticise them, but we don't want to take that position [UNCLEAR risk]. Then what should be our attitude? What can we do? [In Marathi asking the people to come and sit in the front.] So now tell Me what should we do? You also come and sit in the front. [Marathi.] Sahaja Yogi [in Marathi]: The good dramas which are now closed due to lack of the audience. The dramas which are our cultural heritage, few of them are showing Sahaja Culture that day You were also saying this, we should show such dramas, convince the people, we should buy the tickets and then force the people sit and watch them.

Shri Mataji [in Marathi]: so what happened the day before yesterday we went to see a drama.

[In English:] I went to see a very wonderful drama which is of an international level such a great drama it was, `Rāma wani pathwila.' And there were hardly 20-30 people to watch that. And to all kinds of useless third rate [UNCLEAR] speech, it is so boring even if it may not be very vulgar but there are so many people.

So for the Sahaja Yogis it is there responsibility whether it is Marathi, Hindi or English.

What we have to do is to now find out a committee who should prescribe or say that you see a drama be of a very good level. Now I have asked them to have this drama in Bombay on the first of April, so all the people who are Sahaja Yogis should take all their families everything to such program, let the children see good dramas. Because it is not only that but it is the heritage of Maharashtra, now in Bengal you will not find such cheap things going on. The Bengalis are [UNCLEAR] their character is best.

Anything cheapish they will through away. I have seen dramas in Bengali also and in Bangla language.

They cannot stand; they cannot bring down their level.

So the dramas which are, of course there can be humorous dramas, they can be with the music without music. But mostly with the music we have very very good dramas in Marathi.

So these must be seen out. Our background, I mean I am such a lonely woman, at that time we were very young, not a single drama we missed, not a single drama, all dramas we saw. But every drama was a [UNCLEAR] that time. Such dramas won't work out, I mean I don't know there might be some Tamashas [typical Marathi Folks drama] or somewhere might be there, but not in the proper hall or proper addresses. And the music, the people were so particular, they knew all the songs.

So now our language may be yours also may have come from these high-class dramas. Any language which does not have a high-class drama cannot have a very powerful language. I have felt about Hindi the same.

So I started a very good organization in Bombay called as Audio-video center for Hindi pieces. But Hindi people will be very, I don't know Hindi people in Bombay, they were quite up-to-date type and they couldn't take to that. They prefer to see a cinema or so. Then in the same way, the cinemas which are good, we should find out which are the good cinemas, which have some meaning towards life and prescribe it, gradually you will find the trend of cinemas will change. Secondly, it will have a very good effect on your children. All kinds of useless cinemas, if our children see, they will be all finished.

So we have to be selective about it. With guiding our children, we have to be ourselves first disciplined about it, that we should not accept anything that is not good, which doesn't convey anything sensible, something constructive.

So once you are disciplined you can discipline your children also. I remember My parents used to see every film, which we were supposed to see and if they found it was alright they would send. I mean today I thank them, of course I could never have, but you see all My generation, you see we developed a kind of a class understanding, this is one thing.

[In Marathi:] So you write now, your handwriting is very nice, write and first thing write.

[In English:] Now the second point is, in drama if there is music people don't follow that is the matter. I mean in Maharashtra, our Sangeet [Music] is Natyasangeet [Musical drama]. Our Sangeet is Natyasangeet and if we cannot appreciate Natyasangeet then what are we going to appreciate I cannot understand. It is not being traditional or anything, but it is just being sensible. Now this music, I know that to all of you should try to understand classical music, it is very important, because as I have told you, this music has come from Omkāra. Look at the foreigners, you see them, how they appreciate our music. They can't stand any other music. If you, even by chance they happen to switch on to something, they will put their hands on the ears like this and they will say no we don't want it.

So these things once become part and parcel of your understanding then you won't like such music, like this all kind of this rap music, sickening absolutely sickening. They have sickened those countries.

So we have to develop our music through dramas. I wouldn't say that you should sit down, Sa Re Ga Ma and learn music and all that.

I have not learnt music Myself but you must listen. Because through vibrations as I have seen you will appreciate music better and you will get much more joy after listening to that music. Because through the music vibrations flow. Very surprising, but it is not so much because this music comes from Om That is why you have seen all the foreigners they like only Indian classical music our [UNCLEAR] for example that drama if they have seen, they don't mind if they don't understand as long as the music is alright.

They have seen all kinds of musical things. They have seen also this Swayamwar. This time we could not get anything musical, they said they do not want any drama.

So they organized another Sanshaya Kallol.

Just a musical drama if they can appreciate so much why can't we appreciate we being Indians. Why can't we have liking for that.

So for our children from now on only you must try to let them hear classical music and let them sing classical music and most of the Indian music which is based on some sort of classical tunes because it is a pure music. There is purity in it.

Now I was really shocked that for such a high-standard drama, there were hardly 20-30 people in the hall. Really it was shocking. I don't know how they are paying for it. Poor they, artists all of them came all the way from Bombay, reserved this hall, had this drama, they did it on their own only, now who paid for them.

So we should form a committee, which will decide which drama is good or which drama is bad.

Now there are so many people, but I think later on they will sit down and discuss the language. Then secondly, we have to find out what are the good films, means who is producing good films, we should support these people, the films which give you good ideas, constructive ideas.

So we can form another committee who will decide which are the good films, like I said [UNCLEAR] you can call it. Every film is not good, especially Hindi films bapre [oh My God]. I was Myself on the censor board; I think I would not have passed even one of them. Killing, beating, your children will learn that. We have come here to get realisation, to create peace and joy and if the children become so turbulent and violent, how to expect them to create peace and joy. But I have seen in any film which is good which is giving some sort of a very beautiful ideas about life is not liked by the people. They like something [UNCLEAR frippled] something cheapish because they have not developed the taste you see. Why do I like it because I have developed the taste only for that, so the main point is we have to develop the taste. In Sahaja Yoga, as it is there is no compulsion. But I can direct, I can tell you try. Once you try, you will tell Me Mother, you will thank Me for that, because all these things are very soothing, good for Adhyātmic life for your spiritual life.

Now the third attack comes to us from the media, certain newspapers are just falsehood.

So we should also certify which newspapers we should read, Sahaja Yogis. [UNCLEAR] journalism there are all kinds of people gone. Let us not mention for us and for our children. And we should collect good cuttings and things from every newspaper. I do that all the time. Anything that you find that is good, anything that is statistical and anything that is going to help us to explain Sahaja Yoga; you all should try to cut small cuttings and big cuttings. The other day I did speak on that and trying to write a [UNCLEAR] in the west. They are writing a book about on the problems of the west. And imagine one of the cuttings I found in which they have given all the statistic about England. But England is the safest country, it is the best. The violence is least among all the other democratic countries. I was so surprised the whole statistic was there. England, I would say is one of the best democratic countries others have good quality in democracy. Their judiciary is so good everything. Despite that, despite they have a very good police department, wonderful police people; still such a lot of criminality is still there. But why, because in their culture, it is not built to talk about Dharma; not Hindu, Christian, Muslim not that; but what is your Dharma, so what is your country. In India we have all kinds of Dharma's. We are a country, so we have a Desha [country] Dharma, then towards a friend, towards a wife, towards a husband, towards everything we have a Dharma, means how the human being should behave. Dharma means human valency, how a human valency should act towards the surroundings, towards the relationship, so what you find that these children or who are now in Sahaja Yoga are mostly born realised Souls. And if you feed them with proper nourishing ideas I am sure one day we will have a race of people who will be very sensible and can lead the whole world. For example, in the Western life there is no idea of Puṇyas no ideas of Puṇyas. And I was amazed when I went abroad that they will say what's wrong so what's wrong. And in democracy at the cities there is no attention at all on your morals. They are not bothered. Is there a science and no science then is amoral. It has nothing to do with morality.

So who is going to do this part of morality? Who is going to work out this part of morality? This is what you Sahaja Yogis have to do it. Jointly understandingly you all have to do it and this moral standard has to be set. This moral standard you have to settle so that the people should see that as a group we are really morally very strong. We know who [UNCLEAR]. Normally you don't once you have got a realisation of course you don't drink, you don't smoke, you don't tell lies. I know people are very honest in Sahaja Yoga, individually. But when it comes to prove, then there are problems. Another thing which I have to tell you is to find out all the good books, written by different people. Marathi language itself you see, what books we have read, I have not even seen them very surprising. There was one Hari Narayan Apte. [UNCLEAR] so many people we had and I have read all these books, because in those days we did not have cinemas so much, I mean not allowed also.

So what we did was to read [UNCLEAR].

[In Marathi:] Did you read this book did you read that book this I used to ask them. Now women have only the question of sari and that will not be possible [UNCLEAR] which book did you read, you yourself should read.

[In English:] Mother's have to read those books see for themselves if these books are good and should ask the children to read. Because of this, what we call in Marathi vhyasang. You see I have never studied English, never studied Hindi, nothing. Marathi also I did it till My school age. But because of Hindi only you can learn so many things.

So we should have a library in Sahaja Yoga and this library should try to procure all the good books in every language. There are many are translated also, this will definitely change your attitude. Now Mr. Khote is sitting here and you know he is a great poet. We have another one recently who has come to us Mr. [UNCLEAR] he is another great poet today I met him I was very happy.

So with Sahaja Yoga you will get more poetry than [UNCLEAR] in your heads.

So we have to put our mind towards poetry. Poetry is very little for Sahaja Yogis. But you have to little bit become more of a subtler personality. There are so many subjects in which you have to write. We talk of this problem that problem, now bhrashtachar [corruption] problem and then they say another problem, children education and this and that. All these things can be written with poetry. And if you write it in poetry it is easy to digest, [UNCLEAR] can be boring. In a very humorous way also you can bring in, in a very deep understanding also bring it.

So you should encourage people to make beautiful poetry, listen to them and that you should know, I mean when we do poetry by heart. In those days, it was craze. The craze was very different. Nobody used to go to the disco or anything in those days.

So supposing I know some poetry or I made some poetry then I would tell My friends and the friends will tell us. Or My father would recite some good poems. It was sort of a like a as if he has found out something nice and he is showing us this is it. Then we will find out something.

So the whole atmosphere the ambience was above such a beautiful, soothing higher level that one would not look at all low things. Human beings are not born to live in hell. They are born to be very happy.

So all such heavenly poems are to be brought into the attention of all the Sahaja Yogis especially Me. You see I have not read many modern, Kusumagraj of course I have read. In Marathi, there is a modern poet there is one Kavi [Poet], in the south so many. But also there is a trend to produce some sort of a very absurd poetries which I have read recently some girl writing about our old style of sari, against it and comparing with men why if they can go to prostitutes why can't we go, sort of nonsense. Such poetry can also come, I mean it is regarded as very modern, it is regarded as something very different something very new.

So the modern poetry the trend is towards real vulgarity. I think because there is no poetry so they have taken to vulgarity. Even in art, art also same thing. They will paint you some vulgar nonsense. Because they do not have real art. Now see people like [UNCLEAR] now his paintings are in Hermitage in Russia and thousands and thousands of people come there just to see these paintings. But we can't [UNCLEAR] now because we haven't got like that [UNCLEAR] what we are doing is to roll on a sheet of a paper some sort of a colour and say this is an art, something new. This nonsense has to go away. Everything new is not good in the same way everything old may not be good.

So we have to choose. Like I met once an ambassador of Mexico and we were eating together and he said why don't you like Freud, [UNCLEAR] I said like you, I said I like you. He said I don't like him because he does not give much new things to us, but Freud has given us something new.

So I said alright we have eaten all these fruits before, we have not eaten this table should we have it because we have never eaten it, it is a new thing why not taste it.

So everything new need not be good. We have to think of nourishment of our society [UNCLEAR] so all these self-destructive things should be find out, I mean we should be very particular at what do we choose in poetry, in art where we have to express our inner beauty. Because you won't be able to digest, you are Sahaja Yogis now, you are now saints. You won't be able to digest.

So I am just thinking about having a big library in Washi to begin with, but here also thank god now we are getting a nice at in Pūne where I am going to build, I hope so with the help of all of you, we will build a nice library plus other places where we can have meditation and this that. Also videos with audios of some good films and poetry.

So on the cultural side we have to work out, the culture is very important. Because the government is not bothered about your morality, science is not bothered about your morality who is bothered about your morality then, is the culture. I don't believe in Hindu culture and Muslim culture or anything but Sahaja Culture as it is, that we have to take to. Without that you can never be happy. Now the trend is so much [UNCLEAR] the people to dress up the way they want, they expose their body and try to attract men, I mean it is going on nonsensical, men attracting women, what I mean is a fruitless pursuit and joyless pursuit.

So we should try to discourage our children and ask them to [UNCLEAR] it is very important. This trend is crawling up crawling. But once they get it Sahaja in them they will just not do it. Example is [UNCLEAR] once My husband was in London and there was one gentleman who said that why don't you come for a ball room dance. He said no I don't dance because my wife doesn't dance. He said bring her to London, she will start dancing. He said you take her even to moon she will not do this.

So the same gentleman told Me that Your husband was so confident that you would not do such a thing.

So one should not get upset when we talk that we should be descent because Sahaja Yogis must respect themselves must respect. You are saints again and again I will say you are saints and you have to respect yourselves. You should not get into some sort of a mad fashion that comes in, what is fashion nothing but entrepreneurs they are making fool of everyone. Today they will say alright you may have a dress like this, tomorrow they will say wear a dress like that, because they have to make their machinery run and their business run.

So you will have a pile of dresses and by the time you have to go out, you will have no dress to wear.

So once you decide, this is the kind of the clothes I am going to wear, I am not going to pay too much attention to this. Alright there is something artistic something ethnic, the young people should wear because they should also support the art and even sari is very artistic thing I think because we support our villagers. 80% of villagers depend on what they make out of their spare time. Because you know the rain is so hardly for 3-4 months, 5 months at the most, the rest of the time, they have so much of empty time that they can do something with handy work and all.

So for this also we should try, I don't know how but we can try to make some sort of a model, I don't want you to be regimental or wearing everybody the same type of dress or anything. You must wear variety, because variety makes you look beautiful. And there is so much of a beauty. But in that one thing should be there that we should be decently dressed. There should not be any indecency about it. It is very important. Because you are a saint now and imagine a saint going with small short skirt and say I am a saint, is that alright? Actually these false Gurus, they might be thieves or anything in India, they wear big-big jogas you see and went abroad and became so popular only with this dress. And if the Sahaja Yogi starts wearing dresses which are indecent who will believe that you are saints. I mean I am not saying that we should try to befool but it is a fact, you are saints. And you should not behave in a manner that shows that you are indecent or you are trying to attract the attention of others. You must stand on your self-respect.

So how to, that you respect yourself. Respect your body, once you start respecting you will know how to behave. Discipline comes to you from self. Immediately you will know I should not have done this wrong or I should not have done this. This is not proper.

So respecting yourself is one of the most important things in Sahaja Yoga and in public when you go, now there are people who are going all over the Maharashtra to talk about Sahaja Yoga to spread Sahaja Yoga but in their own language in their own behaviour, are they descent are they sensible? [UNCLEAR] I have seen ladies and men also talking to Me like this like that. A Sahaja Yogi should talk like this. It is like a lady on a some sort of a political things talking, sometimes I feel they are sometimes worse than that, because you have to be humble. You have to be compassionate and humble. There should be no arrogance.

So this kind of behaviour all this I was wanting that we should find out people who should be able to talk on these things and tell people.

What sort of dress we should wear? what sort of clothes we should wear, especially for our children? It should not be by any chance indecent, exposing your body. Now this is a new trend that has started. For this also you people will have to put your [UNCLEAR] what can we do to stop this act? Supposing there some Sahaja Yogini or some Sahaja Yogi who wears funny dresses like a clown for example you have to correct him. You should be normal people, no doubt. But not abnormally funny because it is a fashionable everybody is wearing like that so we are also wearing like that. We are Sahaja Yogis we stand on our own faith and on our own understanding. We are not going to bow to these entrepreneurs [UNCLEAR] some new things just to befool us. Our Indian dresses are beautiful very beautiful. We should take to Indian dresses there is no harm in it.

So for this also, for consideration of this we should have some committee. We should see that there are no people who are doing like this, because this brings bad name to Sahaja Yoga.

I mean you should see the foreigners again and again nice, they have come from hell. They themselves tell Me, what they have been doing, taking drugs, alcoholism, this that womanizing everything they have done and suddenly they have become like lotuses. And we who are in heaven, I must say Maharashtra is a heaven as far as Adhyātma is concerned. But now you can see, we have no faith in our sanscrity [Culture] we have no faith in our Sahaja Culture. This is the side of our culture but it cannot be completed unless and until you know how to talk to people. How to behave with ourselves? Now there is one thing about Maharashtrians that they must fight, next to Muslims are Maharashtrians. They must pull each other’s legs, I am sorry to say but now in Delhi I am working, I am working in Noida everywhere Sahaja Yoga is working and you do not find even once I have got anybody fighting, but here I don't know why pulling each other’s legs all the time fighting fighting fighting and complaining to Me. I don't know if Sahaja Yogis fight then what is left I mean I am thinking of the whole world being one and if the Sahaja Yogis fight means what. I can understand false Gurus people fight, of course this is false but you are standing on truth and truth is the same then why should we fight. I do not like a person who talks ill of others or tells Me something against, I know everyone.

So they will say Mother he told you this, nobody can tell Me anything, I know everything. And nobody can spoil My Mind against anyone I know that.

So this is it, this is it and morning till evening you know some of them are so horribly against each other. Then the only thing I am pleased to say is that fellow was praising you why are you not praising that person. Last but not the least is money-wise. Maharashtrians have a special sense of saving money at wrong places, like the other day somebody says that why are you charging for this tape. I mean you know that, most of the things that we have in Sahaja Yoga are organized by Me. Otherwise you don't pay anything anywhere whatsoever. But Rs. 55 for a tape is justifiable. Because Rs. 30 it costs and Rs. 5 for the institution and Rs. 10 they think they should give it to Mother. I don't want it, [UNCLEAR] I told it a hundred times that I don't want. But he says we must give you. Because I am making so many things, doing so many things so Rs. 10 they wanted to give Me. Now, even if I say don't give Me because it is My own will, but still it is not proper. If you give Rs. 10 do you think it is going to make any difference to Me, by any chance? The amount of money we are spending even My husband compared to that what is Rs. 10. But even to give Rs. 10 that fellow had objection absolutely. Now I said alright. Then he says, what about poor people, if you are so much convinced about poor people then you buy two tapes give him one take yourself one and help Sahaja Yoga and help the poor. Because this money goes for Sahaja Yoga,

I don't need your money. It is so important. I mean if you are so much worried about poor you can do this way. But in any case God is free, vibrations are free everything is free. But if you have to publish a book you have to spend money. Then Mātājī should do it can you get it. Now My husband is retired unluckily. By God's grace I never have troubles with money but this is the attitude. Now they go for food, Maharashtrians especially [in Marathi:] if I tell in Marathi is better, not to tell in front of others. They will take a plate to eat and four people should eat in it. Wow very nice. How much money did you save in that? This type of intelligence is a lot here in Maharashtra. And the other way they will spend it, I do not have to say anything to it because God doesn't understand money, God does not want your money. But at least spend your money for your own food. In Ganapatipule is also the same, everyone come to Ganapatipule saying that we are coming for the Pūjā and they will watch the whole program. Do you know how much money we give to the musicians in hundred thousands for you? Who will pay them then they say Mātājī will give. Now this has become a trend. What I want to say is if you give or you don't there will never be less but you become intelligent. What does our Saheb [Sir C.P.] say, it is the work of Puṇya so you put money, like an investment by the God, this kind of intelligence we do not have, the north Indians have this but the Maharashtrians absolutely don't have it, north Indians do have this. And you will save your money in that, I said you don't give Me anything just give Me one [UNCLEAR] there they will give the money, Mātājī is coming we must give, but not to Sahaja Yoga. They have love for Me but not for Sahaja Yoga [UNCLEAR]. What is the use of loving just Me, does it anyway help the people. You should love Sahaja Yoga, what did we do for Sahaja Yoga? Whatever you have received is not because of Me, you have received because of Sahaja Yoga, remember this.

So you have to love Sahaja Yoga.

[In Marathi:] They will try to save money in that also. They will get sari for Me, why do I need sari, I have so many saris that I am bored of this, I don't know what I have to do with it. But here they will refuse to give Rs. 10. I think like this that they have such a thought in head that the Sahaja Yogis are eating this money. Nobody is eating your money in Sahaja Yoga. All are working nobody takes a cent. Especially I must say this, My brother is charted accountant, he says he has never seen such kind of trustees and have never seen such kind of a trust and not seen such kind of people, not taking any money even a cent in Sahaja Yoga. Whatever you give, it is of use for Sahaja Yoga. Now I should not say anything about money, because I don't have the knowledge for that but it is the Lakṣhmī Tattwa of yours. If you do miserliness then your Lakṣhmī Tattwa will never come up. This Sahaja Yoga has given you everything, I am Anādi [ancient] and then what should I give you? Did you understand, be thankful to Sahaja Yoga and not to Me. If today, Sahaja Yoga would not have been here, you would not have been here and would not have had your Self-realisation, is a straight thing. There are plenty of Devī temples, they are Swayambhū and especially I am telling this for the Maharashtrians. Even If you go for the Kula-devatā, [UNCLEAR] what has the Kula-devatā given you, your father and father of your father? Sahaja Yoga has given you, tell Me the truth hasn't Sahaja Yoga given you or not? If Sahaja Yoga would not have come in this world, would you have received anything? Leave about Me. That means Sahaja Yoga should receive your love. What have I done for Sahaja Yoga? Do nothing for Mātājī, everything is useless, I don't have knowledge of it, but for Sahaja Yoga you should do it. Everyone has to write every day, what have I done today for Sahaja Yoga? If you fell ill only Sahaja Yoga can heal you. All the benefits that you have achieved till today are completely due to Sahaja Yoga. Therefore you should love Sahaja Yoga. And for that put [UNCLEAR] for God.

[In English:] You have to understand that there is a very big revolution, spiritual revolution that is going on. There are 55 nations who are doing Sahaja Yoga. There are some people in some places like Togliatti I will tell you 22,000 Sahaja Yogis are there. I meet them only once a year, [UNCLEAR] after they have learnt from Me also. But for Sahaja Yoga also up to Siberia they have gone up to Siberia. Can you believe it? They have taken it up to Siberia. People came all the way from Siberia.

So one has to learn that I have to do something for Sahaja Yoga. Maybe you may not like some of these dramas for the time being. But once you start seeing them you will like it. I will say that you all Indians have to know Hindi language must know. Minimum that I tell you this is our national language.

You must know Hindi language. All the Sahaja Yogis must know Hindi language. And those of you who live here should know Marathi. It is very important, very important. See people come and do business here; we had a problem like that. One Gujarati gentleman had a big strike in his factory for one year.

Sahaja Yogi, a very good Sahaja Yogi, he said Mother I don't know what to do? I said see, you are living in Maharashtra, you don't know what Maharashtrians are? You don't know what they want? What do they respect? You don't know Marathi. You want to just make money and go away. He said that no I don't make so much money, but even if you give them money, they do not feel nearness to you, they do not feel that you are the part and parcel of this family.

So you have to establish. Marathi is tremendous I tell you and a very difficult also I mean even if you speak it you may not speak that correctly. But whatever you say in Marathi, they will appreciate every bit of it.

So you learn Marathi. I said now you make a big temple of Gaṇeśha, because for Maharashtrians Śhrī Gaṇeśha is the [UNCLEAR].

So he made a temple of Gaṇeśha and he said that we are going to have the inauguration. I mean they said we are going to have the inauguration. The whole strike was finished. They all came for the Gaṇeśha Pūjā.

[In Marathi:] Now they are coming for Gaṇapati, their wives brought them; the men had been drinking alcohol.

[In English:] So I am going to make a request to all the non-Marathi people who are here, try to learn Marathi try to understand. And I must say the quality of the Marathi literature is very high. That is how I know all kind of literature. It is not Bengali style where it is very emotional side, no; it is very balanced, very deep and very good for Sahaja Yoga. Because Sahaja Yoga was practiced since ancient times by [UNCLEAR] who lived in Maharashtra.

So Sahaja Yoga is actually still very much easy to understand if you know certain words of Marathi. English language the less is the better. For example spirit, I find it so impossible, I mean difficult. Spirit means Ātmā, spirit means alcohol, spirit means dead spirit, now which spirit am I talking about? You couldn't know which spirit I am talking about.

So there is no harm in learning these three languages in any case.

So many Sahaja Yogis abroad are learning Marathi or Hindi and I tell you they are progressing very well. We have many beautiful books in all these languages, translated also. But for spiritual, you can say spiritual thought, you see Dyāneshwara, I have not seen anyone higher than that, not because I was born in Maharashtra. But nobody, Amṛut'ānubhav if you can read, I mean it is like bible, so beautiful.

So under these circumstances, we should not stick on to one side but we should progress and we should expand. Very easy, you just mix up with other people with other Sahaja Yogis, we at first had a center and we had Marathi, so all the Hindi people said Mother we don't understand Marathi, they speak in Marathi this thing and that thing. I said alright you start other center in Hindi, but they started another centre here, but I said once a month you should meet all of you.

So now we have a nice place in Pune you are lucky people. You can meet in a place called Shere, all of you can go and have a nice picnic there and talk to each other. A Maharashtrian must talk to the Hindi people with whatever type of Hindi, I am going to [UNCLEAR]. A Marathi Hindi is another quite a shocking thing it doesn't matter, same way and the Hindi people should talk in Marathi. Highly important see now if you can talk, you can talk.

So a [UNCLEAR] will start. It is very interesting you know and I think it is more congenial more helpful. If you can speak in whatever way you know own broken language, doesn't matter people will like that. They will tell you ten times, see he said this in Marathi. Though you make a mess out of it, doesn't matter. But same with the Maharashtrians you see you must make sure you learn, while Hindi is also not easy to take out after Marathi. Like that you establish a bond with this language it is very important for Sahaja Yoga. These three languages at least you should try to know because we are international people. Not only that at least Hindi, Marathi and English, these three languages are to be used in our literature. I am not saying if you take to some sort of a course or something but at least talking. In Sahaja Yoga, everything will [UNCLEAR] otherwise you talk to somebody else then people will laugh at you but in Sahaja Yoga nobody will laugh at you.

So all the people whether you are Maharashtrian or you are from north or anywhere should start talk to each other in somebody else's language. Very easy to learn.

Now another language that we know is our Sahaja language. In Sahaja language, we talk on Chakras, we don't talk that person who is good looking who is bad looking who is dressed up like, not superficial.

We talk about Chakras, this is the Chakra is not alright that is the Chakra not alright. But we say is that this Chakra within me is not alright. But for others we need not talk.

[In Marathi:] this is a lot stupidness, you have a bhoot they will say like that, the one who has a bhoot will say that is he has bhoot. This is very [UNCLEAR], you have a badha, you have a bhoot, you have this and will say like this.

[In English:] It is very easy for the Sahaja Yogis to go on telling everything. All the newcomers will come first of all they are to have bhoots for some people, according to Sahaja Yogis. That is what the people have told Me. Anybody who come to Me they will say you have got this bhoot you have got that bhoot.

So now let us have one committee which will have people who would sell these books means methods how to learn other languages. I learnt good Hindi through [UNCLEAR] he is the greatest greatest novelist in the whole world, much better than Tolstoy or anyone. For Indian life, he is so delicate, of course he will take out your eyes wash them and put them back then you will cry no doubt, after all you are [UNCLEAR] but you will learn Hindi very very quickly if you can read Sharadchandra. There are twenty-six books that are written. All translated in Hindi, I don't know.

[In Marathi:] I don't know if in Marathi, do we have in Marathi.

Sahaja Yogi or

Sahaja Yogini: Yes, we have in Marathi.

Shri Mataji: Also in Hindi.

[In English:] It is a translation, it is not the originally Bengali [in Marathi:] what I want to say [In English:] but it is so interesting; [in Marathi:] that man is very deep. [In English:] So you will pick up that language so fast so fast. Like Hindi I learnt from him only, his translated books. I never studied Hindi in My life. Sharadchandra you all must read it is very important. He is a realised Soul. There are so many realised Souls we have had.

So we come to this point that those who are realised Souls, had been realised Souls, who have written books and things even novels, poetry, everything we should note it down, find them out, abroad and here, read their literature.

So we have to be literary people. I am not saying that everybody will be, but those who are here supposed to be class people at least you all should be literary.

The whole atmosphere has become so materialistic so materialistic that we cannot talk about literature.

Sahaja Yoga is not only for your individual growth, it is for the masses, it is for the whole world. Now how will you transfer it unless and until you have that medium of very very balanced thoughts? Especially Maharashtrians must know that Marathi language has got words from Farsi, from Arabic, from everywhere [UNCLEAR] everybody says Iḍā Nāḍī, every person can say Iḍā Nāḍī, do you know [UNCLEAR] Nāḍī means what, immediately [in Marathi:] all these are Arabic and Farsi words. Urdu words also I have read the other day Guftagu I mean guftagu is an Urdu word I mean I don't knew that it was not Marathi.

[In Hindi:] I mean in Marathi we have many Urdu words. Guftagu le aye, one thing is very good in Maharashtra that they take every word from other language not like in Hindi [UNCLEAR] is not like this. They will use their lips and they will say āggadi [steam engine] means they will take the thing as it is. [UNCLEAR] let it be anything. In the same way, in Sahaja we should also mix everything.

[In English:] So we can have some people who will encourage this kind of writings and things. You know there are so many Sahaja Yogis who are having beautiful poetry. Say in English may be in Marathi, maybe in Hindi also many beautiful things about Sahaja Yoga, we have to get them combine them, they are not put together, many people don't know even, so it should be all brought together and you should all read it out to your children, read it out on yourselves and enjoy them.

So we have to be [UNCLEAR] we have to be peaceful and enjoy the beautiful thoughts of other people. It is very important, once you start doing it even the masses will do it. Even they will take it because it is just the matter of taste. Once we develop taste for these things we will all come. But these days people don't read anything, I don't know where they spend their time and what they do! But now for Sahaja Yogis, it is very important.

The personality that comes is much better, in everything.

So now for this for growing people into literary atmosphere, we have of course a libraries no doubt at all but then our Indian conditions are such that you borrow a book, never give it back.

[In Marathi:] Many complaints I have checked, one of them, did you bring back the book? They will hide it. It is like this. If something from other comes in, they will keep it and not return. This should not be in Sahaja Yoga. This is not in Sahaja Yoga. Give a bit more money.

[In English:] Never try to take the advantage of another person don't try to exploit another person. In Sahaja Yoga, if you start exploiting, you will be exploited because now you are in the kingdom of God.

So this is something very much characteristic in us. That if we can some or other manage, we are very clever people we are very cunning, very clever. Only people who can beat us are Italians. But you see what has happened to them most of them are in jail. And if you start practicing these habits of cheating others, not cheating you see, [in Marathi:] we just got it, took it and will keep it.

[In English:] Again [UNCLEAR]. It was not so before I will tell you even one little spoon was left of somebody in house everyone will ask have you returned that spoon or not, have you returned that spoon or not. We have [UNCLEAR] that should be Sahaja Yogis. Now for this kind of thing I do not want to have a competition and present to somebody who has done all such good deeds that we don't want to have.

We don't want to have any competition. But we can tell each other about it, how generous another person is.

Instead of talking ill of others we can say now how generous this person was imagine. The another day I must say [UNCLEAR] something about Me which I forgot to talk with him. He said when he wanted to sell Me this land I said that I will not buy it from you because you have [UNCLEAR] so I do not want to.

So he said, “Alright give me” [UNCLEAR] he said “alright for one acre give me 75,000." I said no I will not I will fight and I brought My price to one lakh. I said you have to take one lakh nothing doing.

[UNCLEAR] but it comes automatically.

[In Marathi:] But here it is different thing, I will again tell in Marathi only. Now everyone of them has come that is why I am telling. They have stolen the peddas also; laddus also, if you want to run away with them then do it. What foolishness is it? The women came to do luggage and what they did they did the luggage of the laddus and took with them. Then they took also the stainless steel utensils. Our [UNCLEAR] is very particular, he said now you pay money for that. The Puneites must pay the money, I said why just leave it. What is gone is gone. [UNCLEAR] Mātājī do not anything in the hall, they will again steal something from here. I said My things they will not but of Sahaja Yoga they will. Not Mine but of Sahaja Yoga they will. What is our ability, who we are, we are saints says Shri Mataji, but these are not saints they are beyond. Who gave you Self-realisation till today that you can give. Like the radio plays beautiful music but doesn't understand music, such is the case in Sahaja Yoga.

[In Hindi:] From the radio is coming good music but the radio doesn't understand the music such is the case of Sahaja Yogis. That here we are doing Self-realisation; everyone is getting beyond, this and that and then they run away with the laddus [Indian Sweets]. I was saying bring the laddus there were so many laddus and where are they now. And they ran away with them.

[In Marathi:] [UNCLEAR] we can't have any competition that this woman is more [UNCLEAR].

[In Hindi:] We don't want to have any competition in Sahaja Yoga that you will get a medal for that, that you have done a work of generosity so you get the medal of generosity. This will not happen in Sahaja Yoga. In Sahaja Yoga, there should be faith, ours in you and yours on yourself. Here we should not do any kind of stealing. We don't take from others but the other we whatever we manage we give to others.

All these character that I have described earlier, others should be able to see them within us. These must be enlightened. If tomorrow these are not enlightened, then what is the use of doing Sahaja Yoga? In this the disparity is this that we love Shri Mataji a lot.

[SYNOPSIS!] [Ten or twenty billion years ago an event happened that began our universe, the Big Bang. The entire universe, all matter and energy and the space they fill, occupied a very small volume concentrated at one point, a kind of cosmic egg. Then the Big Bang: a titanic cosmic explosion of the cosmic egg into a dense primeval fireball.]

[The universe began an expansion which has never ceased. From the cosmic egg the Universe filled with elementary particles in the form of immense gas clouds. Gravity caused the clouds to spin, condensing matter and later on forming the primordial galaxies.]

[The epic of cosmic evolution had begun, a hierarchy, starting in the condensation of matter from the gas clouds of the Big Bang into millions of galaxies, each containing millions of stars. Within one of these galaxies a star was horn, the Sun and around this Sun the Divine caused the planets to come into existence.]

[In this system the planet Mars was created, the red planet which after Venus appears as the brightest star in the skies of the earth. To astrologers Mars represented the God of war and anger.]

Contents: 1905-0000 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Evolution in Śhrī Gaṇeśha's Land from The Wind, Vol. 1, Issue 6 (Mar 1987), p.8

[SYNOPSIS!] [At that time Australia and India were joined as one continent. Even today they are still joined; Australia and India rest on the same continental plate, separated by water alone.]

[When Uluru rose from the ocean the earth was covered in deep rain forest. The insects and plants had dominion over the land, the crustaceans and jelly fish ruled the oceans. Evolution had taken 600 million years to bring creation to this stage. Then a giant leap forward occurred: within the seas the `Proto-fish' was created, the first fish.]

[With this fish came a breakthrough, the first true backbone, the first establishment of the Mūlādhāra Chakra in this physical plane. Within its fins were five tiny bones, which over the ages would one day evolve into the five fingers on each of our hands.]

[After this jump the evolutionary process accelerated. From the fish the amphibians developed. They would leave the water and venture into the land to start the progression of evolution towards the advent of mankind, guided by the different forms of Śhrī Viṣhṇu's incarnations.]

[When Uluru rose from the earth the Mūlādhāra was awakened and Śhrī Gaṇeśha bathed the world with His vibrations. The support of the root, founded on the essence of the Mother Earth, was created.

As if the rock was the vital ingredient, evolution took a surge forward. Within the remains of the inland sea from which Uluru rose, the first living creature to have a backbone appeared.]

[At the base of Uluru have been found fossils of these creatures, some 450 million years old. Geologists have proposed that Uluru rose from the ocean about 450 million years ago. The advent of Uluru from the earth resulted in the subtle energy of the Mūlādhāra being born within a physical creature. The quality that would one day, millions of years in the future, come to exist in the conscious minds of realised Souls.]

Contents: 1905-0000 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Spirit, from Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 16 (Jul-Aug 1983), pp.10,12

Spirit is the most precious thing that we have within ourselves. The preciousness of your Spirit is immeasurable and that is why it is called the thing of eternal value. Because it is infinite, we cannot measure [it].

Now, God the Almighty we say is `Sat-chit-ānand'. Sat [UNCLEAR] means the `Truth', The Truth, we understand, in human terminology is relative. But the `Truth' I am telling you is the absolute, from where all the relations start. Example, I will tell you, how to understand. This Earth has got oceans and rivers and all kinds of waters you can say. But the earth is enveloping all of them. If the mother Earth was not there, there could not have been any of these existing.

So we can say, that the mother Earth is the support, of all the things that exist on earth. She is enveloping us. In the atoms, she exists, in the big mountains, she exists, because the elements are part of that Earth.

In the same way is God Almighty. The `Sat' part of Him, the `Truth' is the support of all the things that are created or not created. Another example; you try to understand. How, the `Sat' is the `Purush', is the God who does not take actual part in the creation itself, but is a catalyst. The example can be like this. That, I am doing all the work I am creating everything, but I have a light in my hand. Without the light, I cannot do anything. Light is the support of my work. But the light does not in any way do anything about what I do. In the same way, God Almighty is just the witness like a light.

But His another quality is the `Chit', it is `Attention'. When it is excited or when it is pulsated His attention or when it pulsates, then through His attention He starts creating.

And He has third quality which we call `Ānand', Ānand is the feeling of `Joy' that He gets by His perception, by His creation, the joy that He gets. All these three things `Sat Chit Ānand' when they are at a zero point where they meet, then they become principle of `Brahma'. When these three things are one, where there is complete silence nothing is created and nothing is manifested but the `Joy' is one with the `Attention' because the `Attention' has reached to merge into `Joy' and `Joy' has become one with the `Truth'. This combination of three qualities separate and create three types of phenomena. `Ānand' the joy inwards merged with His creation and with the `Truth'. When `Joy' starts moving with the creation, the creation starts, moving down from first, the `Sat' or `Truth' stage to `Asat' i.e. `untruth' to `Māyā' i.e. `Illusion'. And that time, the creation starts on working out and when it starts working out, the `Joy' which is on the left hand side the emotional side of God also starts becoming grosser and grosser, till they reach a stage where there is, we can say, a complete darkness of Tamo Guṇa, the complete cessation of the creativity and the complete, sleeping of the joy.

Is it clearer? You will understand now Mahālakṣhmī, Mahākālī and Mahāsaraswatī. That is why Christ said, “I am the light." Because He represents the `Sat' the light of God. And when the light of God becomes absolutely gross, dormant or dead, then it reaches the second stage of creation. All these things go deeper and deeper and become grosser. That is one part of the paraboli.

Now the another part of the paraboli starts when you are attaining back to God Almighty. That process now gradually starts becoming higher and higher, subtler and subtler and finer and finer. In that refinement ultimately the light works for the evolutionary process. Gradually the grosser parts start becoming enlightened.

You find the lower animal is not much enlightened as the higher animal. Gradually even the `Joy' starts becoming subtler and subtler. We can call it beautiful. Human joys are much more beautiful than that of animals.

So the Joy also start changing their manifestation. In the sense, you start more and more and wider range of `Joy' comes into your hands. For example, to a dog beauty has no meaning; decency has no meaning.

So at a stage when you reach, when you are a human being, to that extent you develop your Sat' which is awareness; to that extent you also develop your `Joy' and to that extent you also develop creative action. Now you see how the, creativity' of God passes into the hands of Man, when he turns out; how the `Joy of God' passes into the hands of Man and how His `Light' comes into the heart of Man as `Spirit'.

It is beautiful. I have just touched, when you have become a human being, people say human beings have a soul, not that others do not have, but light starts burning in a human being only.

Because of that `light' we talk of religion, we talk of God and we talk of eternal things. But it is really a precarious stage, that is, to be human being. Because at this stage, you have to jump only a little bit that side, while you start jumping this side and that side. Because this jumping is not possible unless and until the awareness reaches that stage, where you become independent and in that independence, you find your own course. This is the position. Because your `Self' cannot be yours until and unless you are independent. As long as you are slave or under bondage or something that is gross, how can you enjoy that eternal joy that is within you? So it is for you to expose yourself more to that joy by opening out your `Self' more and more and getting subtler and cleaner; so that you feel that `Divine'.

Once you know this point that, after getting Self-realisation, unless and until these three things start merging together, you cannot feel that you have established yourself. The Joy within you, must be felt through your awareness, otherwise you cannot see it. Suppose you have no eyes, then how can you see? If you were not aware to see Me, how will you see Me? If you are not aware to hear Me how will you understand Me? And once that awareness comes to You, then only the `Joy' awakens within you. Because only through these subtle feeling of the awareness, you are going to absorb the Joy.

Just now you felt, you said “what a beautiful thing it is!" You felt very happy. You are feeling the joy of creation at this stage and Man is the summit of creation. But only the `crown' part is such a little thing. Very little it is. Very little distance it crosses in no time, but only thing is that, three things have to be combined. And that is why you find even if you get Self-realisation, you do not feel the silence.

Because you have not become the `Light'. You do not feel the `Joy' because you have not become the `Ānand'. That is the left side of you. In everything, there is `Joy' as a human being, you start seeing `Joy' in patterns. You see a key box, you open it out. You see the patterns. You call it the veneer. You call the roughness and things, the smoothness and the harmony of it. You start feeling the matter, the Joy of His creation. But after realisation, you start feeling the `Joy' of creation. The summit of creation is the human being and that is why for a Sahaja Yogi he must realise, if he tries to be friendly or interested or involved in a person who is at a lower level, he can never get the Joy' from that person. Only thing what he can do is, to raise that person higher to his own level and make him also feel the same `Joy' as you are getting.

Supposing a man who is an artist marries a blind girl. What is the use? She cannot enjoy the Arts created by this man. In the same way, if you are interested in your family people, in your relations, in your friends, the first thing and the finest and greatest thing you can do is to give them Self-realisation which means the `Joy' of your Spirit. Expose them to the joy of their Spirit, which is the most precious thing. And this is the reason, why people flicker and they fiddle and they feel uneasy and they lose their joy very easily at small things that has parts of it and finished.

It is like the ocean before you, where I am there and I want you all to come into it and enjoy. It is all for you. Whole thing was created for your enjoyment. You have to become subtler and subtler. You are wasting lot of time here on very gross things, you have noticed.

Contents: 1905-0000 Talk to Sahaja Yogis on the Essences of Elements

Sahaja Yogi: So `Bhūr' is the [UNCLEAR Mother Land]?

Shri Mataji: `Bhūr', Bhūr is the Mūlādhāra, means the Mother Earth, made from Mother Earth, the basal. Then the `Bhuvah' is the whole `Antariksha', means the whole universe, the creation of material basis, material, like all the planets and things.

Then the third one, I said, was `Swāhā', the Nābhī, is the consumption. `Swadhā'... is the, that is the fire thing, fire, fire principle is the consumption part. Swadhā is the sustenance, Swadhā. There are two things in the Nābhī Chakra. Swadhā is the one by which you sustain the Dharma.

So, that's the two essences, one is Swāhā, by which you consume everything, like the Agni Tattwa means like the fire principle and Swadhā, is the principle of the water, which is sustenance.

Then, `Mana'. Mana is the emotions, the Center Heart is Mana. Emotions.

Then, `Jana', means the people, is the collectivity.

So I said all to [UNCLEAR `Saumin'], `samuhik' means collectivity. `Jana', that you contact people, Jana means people.

Then, `Tapasa'. Tapasa means, or `Tapasya', means penance. That is Christ. Word for the penance.

And made out of the principle of, oh, I'm sorry I have forgot to say that Jana is made from the principle of Vāyu, ether. Alright? Then comes the, this is mainly the `Vāyu', means the air, the Mana is [UNCLEAR made with/may be] the air. Vāyu.

And then, comes the Tapasa, is with the light, light. And then `Sat' is the Truth [UNCLEAR] at the Sahasrāra.

So I've given essences, I mean the nature, essential nature of the Chakras and also how it is created, from what essence is created.

Contents: 1906-0000 Conversation with Gregoire de Kalbermatten

[The words are not absolutely exact!] Gregoire:... but Mother, this is really an ugly Kali Yuga. Were there other Kali Yugas like this before?

Shri Mataji: There were many other Kali Yugas before but this is [one of] the worst.

Gregoire: But then, there were also other golden ages before?

Shri Mataji: Of course. The successions of Yugas form a Kalpa, which is your universe.

Gregoire: When will our universe finish?

Shri Mataji: If Sadāśhiva interrupts it in dancing Tandava. People of God will go back to God and everything else will be destroyed. I do not think it will happen now because of Sahaja Yoga.

Gregoire: If our universe comes and goes like this, it means there were other universes before?

Shri Mataji: Yes, many.

Gregoire: But, Shri Mataji, where do all these universes go when they are finished?

Shri Mataji: They become a Chakra in My Body.

[After this answer, there were no more questions. The silence was very galactic.]

Heidi Zogorski: Shri Mataji, why are the children in America so sick?

Shri Mataji: The mothers in America have weak hearts.

Heidi Zogorski [in surprise]: Shri Mataji, what do we do?
Shri Mataji [looking at her heart]: But I'm right there.

10. The Trustees of the Ashram reserve the right to restrict admission of any child or expel anyone to a safe place without assigning any reason.

11. The governing council has the right to waver any of above conditions.

Contents: 1907-0000 Advice for Conducting Sahaja Yoga Programs

1907-0000 Advice for Conducting Sahaja Yoga Programs A Sahaja Yogi represents the Collective Sahaja Yoga when he speaks from a public platform to introduce Sahaja Yoga. The novice audience tends to form their initial opinion from the impression the speaker leaves. They not only listen to him but also observe his manners, dress, poise and whether his speech bears the conviction of his faith.

Rhetoric or pompous speeches, void of vibrations fail to arouse the spirit of the audience. One should speak from the heart and feel what one says. There should be a genuine concern for the upliftment of the Spirit. The face may express that concern but without the hands flying in all directions.

One should refrain from making long speeches. Too often the speaker gets lost in his own oratory.

Remember to speak to the point, as a mental approach only arouses the ego. The speaker should exude joy, bear a happy countenance without being overly serious. He should conduct himself with dignity, grace, poise, be formally dressed with well groomed hair.

Centre leaders should avoid preaching long sermons to Sahaja Yogis at collective meetings. They should minimize lecturing and play Shri Mataji's tapes instead. Centre leaders are not a medium between Shri Mataji and a Sahaja Yogi. We should not forget that Shri Mataji's audio and video tapes have her vibrations and spontaneously clear out all negativity, allowing each Sahaja Yogi to experience the joy of his own Spirit. Surprisingly, several centers have not so far acquired tapes and are not showing the videos of Shri Mataji. Audio and Video information was sent in the last issue.

Shri Mataji has strictly prohibited any individual or centre to make copies of any video, audio or publish any literature or booklet without permission.

Contents: 1907-0000 List of Advices given to Hamid, Austria

[If somebody has problems to sleep at night, the following can be done: massage Āgñyā with the finger clockwise; bandhan three times, deep breathing and take the mantra `Nidrarūpa'.]

[With all left-side diseases (also cancer): three-candle treatment; don't move to the right side.]

[As a cause of cancer, it is also possible that these are affected: right side problem; centre heart; right Āgñyā; Mūlādhāra. Use also three-candle treatment.]

[With liver problems you can also put left hand on liver and say the mantra, `Mother you are my Guru.']

[Those who have to go outside very early should take their bath in the evening, especially during the winter months.]

[Those who think a lot or have to do mental jobs should eat more carbohydrates and only a little meat.

Through carbohydrates the body produces more oxygen, which is very important for brain activity.]

[In Sahaja Yoga there is no death as s h, but from time to time also realised Souls need a new body. Sahaja Yogis should not be cremated but buried.]

[After 6 p.m. we should not drink black tea or coffee.]

[We should not tend to any extremes with food. Neither too sweet not too sour supports our vibrations.

The food should be juicy, many left Āgñyā problems come up through dry food.]

[Children should be given milk with low fat but with sugar.]

[If we have problems of being tired or overactive (Āgñyā catch) when learning then we say the mantra, `Mother I am not learning' or `Mother I learn nothing.']

[If we have red spots or pimples on our face, we should rub it with herb tea or, better still, wash it with rose water.]

[If we are catching on right Swādhiṣhṭhān and right Āgñyā, we should also work on left Heart and left Viśhuddhi, because these Chakras are automatically also affected.]

[The best time for meditation is between 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning because the left side becomes passive and the right side becomes active, so there is a quiet and balanced time in between. To cool down the right side it is good to meditate after sunset and generally we should meditate before sleeping.]

[If possible we should sleep after coming home from work to compensate for less sleep in the night.

Also, it would be good to rest before programs.]

[There is a new liver treatment: red paprika with blueberries plus sugar and the mantra `Mother, You are my Guru.']

[In the evening we should not eat sour food because of the Viśhuddhi; if any, then take with sugar or sweets.]

[Treatment for back Āgñyā: Moov.]

[If you have a swelled Viśhuddhi, then take butter with warm water to wet Viśhuddhi but avoid swallowing too much of it, because if you have Viśhuddhi problem, you have a liver problem too and butter is bad for liver.]

[After the birth of a child, the mother should use the Ajwain treatment to clear the Mūlādhāra.]

[Important for preparing a Public Program: on the left-side of Shri Mataji there has to be a table with water and a burning candle on it.]

[As we all know the element of the Viśhuddhi is ether. Hamid asked Shri Mataji about the occurrence of ether.]

Shri Mataji: Ether originates from Āgñyā and is in Āgñyā, our thoughts are out of ether and therefore the thoughts can penetrate everything.

[With vein problems, massage with white tiger-balm and several times a day, lie on the back and `ride a bicycle' (of course, without the bicycle).]

[With menstruation problems Shri Mataji recommends the following: ‘Drink vibrated water with salt.

‘Gas in stomach or stomach pain, mother should chew ajwain and put that on baby's naval with warm towel.

‘Coconut oil/jabakusum oil mixture for hair, brush backwards.

‘Keep window open during three candle treatment so negativity can leave.

‘Open the matka for seven nights, on 8th morning dispose of it. Do not use on New Moon night.

‘Pray that a catch leaves whether it comes from you or collective, so just make a simple prayer.

‘Catches are not always yours! Subtle system is capable of catching anything wrong that may happen.

‘`Mother whatever negativity is attacking please destroy it' pray to the Devī.

Ham Ksham.

‘Thigh is Swādhiṣhṭhāna, sits on the knee which Nābhī, can cause knee pain.

‘Swādhiṣhṭhāna and Nābhī interlinked.

‘Prayers with the Heart: Shri Mataji you are the Doer and you are the Enjoyer.

‘Sinusitis: constant cold, heated onion on sinuses, near the nose, peel one by one layer to take it off.

Slow heat to the sinuses.

‘Heart palpitations: one hand on right Heart, pray to Mother `Shri Mataji, all my ancestors who have left, if they are attached to me, wherever they are, please have no attachment to me. I have protection from Shri Mataji.'

Comes from some attachment from ancestors, pinches the heart.

‘If you stop feeling Kuṇḍalinī, entered into collective consciousness. Chakras are weak, so the vibrations flow there and lower the Kuṇḍalinī. Keep meditating. Keep raising Kuṇḍalinī. (Story of river flowing through village, houses taking water so less flow in the main channel).

‘Unable to feel vibrations: massage Viśhuddhi Chakra with olive oil, with your hands, before meditation.

Do hand soak, one by one. One hand to Shri Mataji, other in water. Śhrī Gaṇeśha Atharva Sheersha, Allah hu Akbar.

‘Poor eyesight: looking through candle flame on Mother's hands photograph, Devī Kavach: Śhrī Shankini mantra. Mahāgaṇeśha, Mahābhairava, Hiranyagarbha. Viśhuddhi and back Āgñyā treatment.

Massage wrists/Viśhuddhi with ghee camphor. Cover Viśhuddhi. Ghee camphor in nose.

‘Pregnancy: read good books, not too right sided, afternoon nap, put up legs in afternoon, can do normal work, don't work on new person or give realisation, work on yourself only. Don't sit in front at the Havan, be behind. No heating foods like papaya. Take light walks. Don't fear. Right hand on center Heart, read Śhrī Gaṇeśha Atharva Sheersha, Hanumān Chalisa, Devī Kavach, Durgā Kavach.

‘Stress: foot-soak tub every day, wife making for husband (no excuses).

‘Souls cling to feet while walking.

‘Medical Science Enlightened book, Rais plans to write and revise book. Ambition since 2003. Shri Mataji said “It is very deep work. Doctors should do that." ‘Autism: badha. Left and right side. Matka treatment. Treat as symptoms show. Test for the parents.

Take help from social workers as well, not alone. Foot-soak very helpful.

to be strong for antibodies. See that right Swādhiṣhṭhāna is cool.

‘Weakness, loss of energy, loss of memory, pain in chest, old age: devote life to do for others, own problems disappear. Help others.

Social work. Shift attention to others.

Simple prayer `Give sweetness of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa in my voice.' See positive in others. Do not compare, do not criticise. Never criticise yogis. Leave it to Shri Mataji.

‘Binge eating: pray for satisfaction. Center Nābhī.

Śhrī Viṣhṇu helps our ascent. Work on affected area.

Eyes become weak. Āgñyā is surrounded by Swādhiṣhṭhāna on back Āgñyā.

‘Checking vibrations: sometimes misleading. Could be warm because you are meant to be there and clear it.

‘Cancer: skin tumour. Shri Mataji has said that initial stages, Sahaj will help. In advanced stage you need medical help. Remove tumour and continue Sahaj methods. Don't worry, surrender to Mother. Speak to photograph. Be innocent and surrender.

Contents: 1907-0000 Diet on Weight Lose, Notes from taken by a Sahaja Yogini during a Conversation

[This is taken from notes of a discussion with a Sahaja Yogini to whom Shri Mataji has given detailed instructions. The diet is for weight loss especially in the mid section. Shri Mataji has said that the weight will just melt off.]

[Boil enough water for a tea and add the juice of two lemons. Take this after every meal. Prepare drink before eating and drink immediately after eating.]

[Types of food are specifically indicated for each meal. One may eat as much as one wants of these foods. Vegetables may be eaten freely, avoid over-spicing, don't take chillies, do not use excess oil but a small amount of ghee or mustard oil is acceptable. You will be eating meat but avoid large quantities of beef, a little is OK. Vegetables recommended are more in the green leafy category such as spinach or okra.

Root vegetables such as potatoes and carrots are to be avoided. Carbohydrates are not to be taken except for the flour specified which is available in Indian shops. Stay away from sweet fruits except oranges, which were recommended, especially before lunch.]

[1. Breakfast: Take a protein such as whites of two or three eggs or cold cuts (e.g. chicken).]

[3. Dinner: This is when you can have the carbohydrate which can be anything you might like to make with Jowar flour. The flour is thick. The dough can be shaped on a cloth so you can flip it onto a pan at low heat. Spread a few drops of water on the top before you flip it over to help it cook nicely.]

[The diet is to be observed for an entire year. Shri Mataji says that ladies who rode bicycles before puberty may have gained excess weight.]

[This diet seems to be especially good for ladies. The lemon juice in hot water has proven effective for many people and may also have benefits for clearing left side. Also many Sahaja Yogis have emphasized that the combination of proteins and carbohydrates and especially the combination of fat with carbohydrates cause weight gain.]

Mahatma Gandhi [to Shri Mataji when She was about 11]: Why don't You write a poem? [Shri Mataji wrote:] Early in the morning I pray to the essence of My Spirit Which is, The Truth, the Attention and the Joy; So that I can go to the highest state of My ascent.

Artists have to raise the public eye to their standards of taste; and not to stoop down to the cheap demands of the public, thus surrendering their freedom. This can be done by contacting of educational and social institutions, by the enlightened artists. Through articles in magazines and newspapers, the ideas of such artists can be propagated. Through dramas, films and radio talks, people can be educated for the understanding of real art. Thus the dignity of art can be maintained.

By coming into contact with the public at large through these societies, the social self of an artist will develop into a keener and more sensitive being. It will react to the slightest unrest in the nation; to the slightest imbalance in the society. If he sees a leper on the street, his heart will go out with such sympathy that, through his art, he can create an atmosphere by which social workers, doctors, scientists and the people in charge of the state will be forced to think of some solution to the problems of leprosy. If an artist finds his countrymen being unpatriotic or cowardly, he can, through others, create a deep respect in their minds. Such is the motivating power of an artist. They are the loveliest flowers of the creation, the sweetest dreams of the Creator and the dearest parts of the human society. Perhaps they do not know how they are loved, worshipped and followed by their spectators...

Mataji [opens the door]: Are you looking for Me? [Shri Mataji holds Raolbai by hand and takes her inside very politely and asks her to sit down:] Where are you coming from? Raolbai: I am from Dhulia and I have heard Your name and came looking for You.

Shri Mataji: Whom have you been worshipping so far, that your vibrations are so nice?

Raolbai: Ambaji.

Shri Mataji: So today Ambaji has come to you. Here I am in front of you.

I am about to start this work and right now I am waiting for My daughter, Kalpana, to have her baby.

Once I am through with that, I will call you. Please leave your name and address before you leave and within a month I shall call you.

[Later in Bordi, Raolbai receives Self-realisation.]

Contents: 1970-07-00 Visiting Gagan Gadh Mahārāj, Day 1, Ashram Gagan Boara (near Khopoli), Maharashtra, India

(month not sure; before 1973-12-09) [Gagan Ghad (Gagangiri) Mahārāj was a great realised ascetic who stayed near a place called `Khopoli' in Maharashtra which is on the way between Mumbai and Pune. His ashram is located on a small hill top where he use to stay with his disciples. Shri Mataji expresses the desire to meet him and She along with few Sahaja Yogis goes to meet him.] Gagan Gadh Mahārāj: Mother, I knew that you would come this particular day to give me Self-realisation.

I have been waiting for this time since thousands of years. By severe penances and austere life I have been able to clean every Chakra from Mūlādhāra to Āgñyā. But, I knew that finally you would help me to jump from Āgñyā to Sahasrāra to obtain beatitude and bliss. When you were climbing the hill, I could see you in your original form of Ādi Shakti accompanied by all deities dancing in the procession.

[Then he offers Shri Mataji a sarī. He then looked at all the Sahaja Yogis who were there with Her.] Gagan Gadh Mahārāj: Mother, why are you giving so much to all these people. Do they understand the real worth of it? Do they understand what they have achieved so easily? It took me thousands of years to get my realisation. I had to go through severe penances and austere life.

Shri Mataji: You are a Guru and cannot be a Mother. I am the Mother and cannot be a Guru like you. A mother always gives everything to her children selflessly. A Guru will expect that his disciple go through all the hardships before he gets the blessings but a mother cannot do that.

So, now you have achieved such a state, then why don't you help Me in My work? Gagan Gadh Mahārāj: As you say Mother, I was not lucky enough to have a mother like you, before.

[To all Sahaja Yogis]: You all are very lucky to get so much from Mother herself.

So understand the worth of it and grow.

Contents: 1972-01-2x Train Trip to and 4 Days Seminar (including to 01-27), Bordi, Maharashtra, India

[First Seminar. Self-realisation bestowed on twelve disciples: the ten seekers travelling with Shri Mataji, Chandu Bhai Jhaveri and Mr. Modi.]

[Ten seekers travel from Bombay to Bordi in a train with Shri Mataji. Shri Mataji talks to all of them.

They follow Her wherever She went. Raolbai never leaves Shri Mataji, as she wants to see everything She is doing. Raolbai follows Her and does as She directed her, without any question. They all stay in some school for the night and after dinner they all went to their rooms. Shri Mataji says:] Look at Raolbai from Dhulia. She always has her attention on what I am doing.

[Shri Mataji calls Raolbai as `Rajkunwar'. After dinners Shri Mataji starts giving Realisation to people.

Shri Mataji asks Raolbai to keep her hands under Her Lotus Feet. Shri Mataji says Raolbai is realised now. She worked on Raolbai's back like this, raising of the Kuṇḍalinī.]

[Later Shri Mataji said:] I worked on her by touching each center one by one and then opening her limbic area.

[Then Shri Mataji looks very lovingly and sings a beautiful song, `Par Brahma Parameshwar'. She sings it so beautifully. Her face is so joyous, so loving, happy and, like this, She gives Realisation to four or five people till midnight.]

[Next day, Shri Mataji sits alone and calls each one individually for Self-realisation.]

[While returning in the train, She asks us whether we had thoughts or not. Raolbai says politely that she doesn't know what is happening. Then Shri Mataji asks then to put their hands in front of Her and asks whether they feel cool vibrations. Again, Raolbai replies innocently that she does not feel anything.]

Shri Mataji: Raolbai, you are from Dhulia and I want you to come to My house tomorrow. All of you who felt vibrations must meditate every morning and evening, so as to go deep and feel the vibrations.

[Raolbai stayed in Mumbai with her daughter in a one room apartment and at around 4 a.m. she was awakened naturally and was shocked to see Shri Mataji in front of her in the same position as when She gave her Self-realisation in Bordi.] Shri Mataji [next day when Raolbai meets Her:] Do you get thoughts by putting attention on Me? Raolbai: No.

Shri Mataji: [Tells Raolbai that she had attained thoughtless state.] What did you see in the morning? Raolbai: Mother, I saw you in a meditating pose.

Shri Mataji: For all people whom I gave Self-realisation yesterday, I was meditating in the morning for them. As you all are new and do not understand, you are fortunate that you saw Me.

[The first programs used to be in Bordi and once, while returning, we saw all the stars following Mother.

When She was sleeping, all the stars covered Her and the whole, whole room was filled with scintillating, sparkling stars. Next day, when I told Mother about what I had seen the previous night, She said:] That's what I am and, in fact, I am everything. Now I have told you.

Contents: 1972-02-00 Conversation with Chandu Bhai Jhaveri, Bordi or Mumbai, India (could be also end of January)

Shri Mataji: One had one kind of problem, another has a different problem and a third had a third kind of problem.

If one has to do collective work then only by one session of realisation everyone should benefit." Chandu Bhai Jhaveri: The permutation and combination of our Chakras are different because perhaps there are different reflections of God.

Shri Mataji: No. The spirit is the reflection of one God, Sadāśhiva and naturally all the reflections have to be the same.

So the effect of Self-realisation is the same on every person. That is how first he starts feeling this Cool Breeze in his hands, then out of his Fontanelle bone area. All of them feel the collective consciousness in the same way because everybody is the spirit. Whatever you have got in your evolution is expressed on your central nervous system.

So you can feel their body, their mind.

Chandu Bhai Jhaveri: When did this knowledge come to you?

Shri Mataji: I knew about it since I was born. I knew about Myself. If I have done anything it is to understand human beings. What's their problem? They follow Christ, they follow Mohammad Saheb, they follow Rāma, they follow Kṛiṣhṇa and they follow everything but nothing inside. What is the matter? Nothing penetrates... that was the thing. I thought they were not connected. They are to be connected to all this. Only what I have done is to work out the permutation and combination of human beings.

That's not difficult because there are mainly seven Chakras one has to work out and how you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī to break the Sahasrāra.

Contents: 1972-02-00 Meeting with a Boy or, Public Program, Aurangabad, Maharashtra, India (month not sure)

Boy: This Param-Chaitanya is beyond feeling. How can we feel it nowadays?

Shri Mataji: It is true, but you should forget about what you have read and just try to feel it. They spoke about the Kuṇḍalinī in metaphors or poetry but nobody wrote about it clearly. Perhaps they felt the time was not yet ripe. For instance, the Nath Panthis diligently guarded their knowledge and only passed it in the lineage of a master to a disciple. Gñyānadeva could not give realisation to anybody. Same with other saints like Kabīra, Tulsidas, Rāman Maharishi, Sufis and others. They were undoubtedly very great saints. Whatever poetry they gave, people were singing, but that's all, they did not know thyself.

It was a very difficult situation because in modern times, like you, people only accept what is written in a book.

Boy: Can you give me a book by which I can know the self?

Shri Mataji: I cannot just give you a book by which you sit and read and say, `Yes, I know the self.

I have got it, I have become!' To know Thyself does not come from rituals or reading books; it has to be experienced on your central nervous system. It's a real becoming, ripening, maturing and living process.

No doubt the books give a description of a person with Self-knowledge, how he behaves, how his style is, but none of them explain how you become that. Perhaps most of them didn't know about Kuṇḍalinī.

So it came to My lot!

Contents: 1972-03-08 Annexure I of The Life Eternal Trust deed, Charity Commissioner, Mumbai, India

[Drafted and signed by Shri Mataji and formalised by Sahaja Yogi lawyer Mr. B.G. Pradhan:] Annexure I OBJECTS of Life Eternal Trust, Bombay [Mumbai] as laid down by H H Shri Mataji To facilitate the work of Mātājī as follows: 1. To expedite the process of spiritual evolution by exciting the residual consciousness i.e. Kuṇḍalinī, to rise ultimately leading to Self-realisation (Second Birth as defined in the Bible, the Koran, the Indian Scriptures and the great ancient prophets and sages all over the world).

2. To achieve the evolution described in the foregoing para through the method of “Sahaja Yoga" which means effortless, easy, relaxed method of meditation evolved by Mātājī. To organize meditation centers for this purpose. This completely precludes all the external human efforts like rituals, worships, prayers, recitations, reading, renunciation (i.e. Sannyāsa), worship of the preceptor (Guru) or any other physical expressions.

3. By the process, to reach a Zero point where one becomes effortless and starts feeling the play of the supreme. Ultimately to reach the stage where one loses the Ego (T) and one becomes one with the Creator and His creation.

4. To open the minds of people through meetings introducing “thoughtless awareness" which discovers the subtle which at present is lost in gross words, books and dogmas.

5. To introduce the only one internal living religion lying dead and camouflaged under external practices and precepts of religion in all the human beings and for this to organize tours and hold spiritual meetings as per wishes of Mātājī.

6. To spread the news of the descent of the Divine Grace, with the help of Self-realised disciples of Mātājī.

7. To cure people of their physical and mental ailments by blessing them with Divine healing touch of Mātājī and other disciples who have developed their collective consciousness Self-realisation.

8. To give the taste of real joy that is within the self. To practice different methods of meditation evolved by Mātājī and to hold meditation camps.

9. To create a new generation of Self-realised people and to render motherly protection to all such children against evil intentions and to look after their well-being.

10. To build and run Ashramas of Sādhakas for their use during Sadhana and to promote all activities expressing the new dimensions of creativity.

11. To introduce this work in School, Colleges and other institutions and groups and to run schools for younger people.

12. To improve the aesthetics of behaviour and beauty by holding exhibitions of art, culture and music and through all activities which speak the universal language of love and beauty by developing the inner sense known as “Ati-Indriya", that enlightens the subtle sensitivities.

13. To employ the energy of love to overcome hatred that is the cause of wars, disintegration and destruction by publishing and relating the spiritual experiences of Sādhakas which prove the universal laws of love.

14. To overcome the void between the material saturation and the unknown which is causing fear, restlessness, sleeplessness and tension leading to escapism from reality and false renunciation.

15. To print, edit and publish journals, books and literature written by Mātājī and her disciples with her approval for conveying the knowledge of truth so that the human beings who are the highest in evolution, rise in their glory, dignity and freedom, as also for publicizing the activities of the institutions run by the Trust.

16. To distribute to patients simple meditative and oils with Mātājī's vibrations and of any disciples on instructions from Mātājī.

17. To hold press conferences to give a correct picture of the activities of cosmic powers by demonstration or by discussion, as well as of the Life Eternal institutions.

18. To collect books under the guidance of Mātājī for libraries.

19. To build sanatoria, hospitals, nursing homes for the sick and invalid.

20. To counteract through mass spiritual power the destructive forces against spiritualism such as evil spirits, the cult of hypnotism, siddhis and the use of “religion" for the exploitation of the innocent.

21. To unite all genuine seekers of truth divided by dogmas and ignorance so that Satya Yuga (the Age of Truth) is born out of the present Kali Yuga (the Age of Darkness) rather than complete annihilation.

To harness all the human resources to achieve this great task for which mass evolution will be needed.

22. To open, organize and run local centers of the Life Eternal Institution in various parts of India and in foreign countries, the centers being opened on the distinct understanding that meditation is the path of the entire human destiny and that all barriers of states, nations and races are artificial and irrelevant to Life Eternal.

Shri Mataji: This is what has to be witnessed. It is your good fortune that you have witnessed all this. You see, in this big family, no one is bothered about Me and, without you, who would have taken care of Me? [Raolbai would prepare tea and food for Shri Mataji, as the family we were living with were Jain and they had plenty of food restrictions. Shri Mataji would again and again say that the Divine has sent you.] Raolbai: Yes, Mother, You are Divine and You have called me.

[Shri Mataji and Raolbai would talk for hours together, even have tea and food together. Since Raolbai come from a family of Devī bhaktas, we did all that we would do to worship the Devī, like the washing of feet, etc. Shri Mataji would tell others that just follow what Raolbai does, as she has been a Devī bhakta and she knows all about the worship of Devī.]

My Dear Children, What are you searching? Why are you aimlessly and listlessly running about? The joy that you have searched in material gains, the joy that you are looking for in power, the joy that disappeared in the words of books, the so-called knowledge, is all lost in yourself and you are still searching and seeking! You can pay attention to everything outside yourself! You are lost in your thoughts, like babes in the wood! But there is great hope that you can rise into the Heaven of “thoughtless" awareness, which we call Self-realisation.

I invite you to this feast of Divine Bliss, which is pouring around you, even in this Kali Yuga, in these God-forsaken modern times. I hope you will come and enjoy the spiritual experience of the Life Eternal.

With all My love and blessings.

YOU are angry with Life Like small children Whose Mother is lost in Darkness You sulk expressing despair At the fruitless end of your journey You wear ugliness to discover Beauty You name everything false in the name of Truth You drain out emotions to fill the cup of Love My sweet children, my darlings, How can you get peace by waging war With yourself, with your being, with Joy itself? Enough are your efforts of renunciation, The artificial mask of consolation.

Now rest in the petals of the lotus flower In the lap of your gracious Mother I will adorn your life with beautiful blossoms AND fill your moments with joyful fragrance.

I will anoint your head with Divine Love For I cannot bear your torture any more.

Let me engulf you in the ocean of Joy, So you lose your being in the Greater One Who is smiling in your calyx of Self, Secretly hidden to tease you all the while.

Be aware and you will find him Vibrating your every fibre with blissful Joy Covering the whole Universe with light!, Mother NIRMALA

[Shri Mataji came back to India from the U.S.A. in late 1972. We again had a program in Dhulia. When She used to come to Dhulia, we would treat Her like a guest. There used to be no Ār.ti, no Pūjā, only warm hospitality. When Shri Mataji's car arrived some children sent showers of flowers all around.]

Shri Mataji: How can I walk on such beautiful flowers? [She climbed the stairs to enter a room.] Raolbai: Mother, I am sorry that you had to climb so many stairs.

Shri Mataji: Oh, it's nothing. My labour has borne fruits, as I see so many of you Self-realised.

[Shri Mataji stayed there for four days and during that period Raolbai would humbly prepare all things for Her personal use and meditation. For the Self-realisation, Shri Mataji would ask the seeker to hold Her Feet and requested us to work on the back of the seeker. In this fashion, She would give Self-realisation to each and every one. People in Dhule would be surprised to feel the vibrations all over and Mother would answer all the doubts and questions of every seeker. By the evening time, there was such a large crowd to have Self-realisation that we did not know what to do. But Shri Mataji effortlessly and with a most loving manner, gave Realisation to all those who desired. Later, when She left for the house in the car, many seekers followed Her for the blessings of the Devī.]

[Before She left, we all desired for the Pūjā of Shri Mataji. Mother agreed to it and the first Pūjā was performed in the most humble and simple manner. During the Pūjā Raolbai's sari caught fire, but nothing happened to her. Shri Mataji said in a very sweet manner that it had to get burnt, so it got burnt. During that time, we would worship Shri Mataji as Shri Mataji only. She would say:] Do not use photographs, do not use mantras, otherwise you will be lost like before. Here you people have to just use and feel vibrations and that's it.

[Soon word spread that Shri Mataji was staying with Raulbai. In the early hours of one morning, there was a knock at the door. Raulbai answered.] Gentleman [a young one]: Is the Ādi Shakti staying here? Raolbai: Yes.

Gentleman: Is it true She awakens the Kuṇḍalinī? Raolbai: Of course! Gentleman: My Guru would like to invite Her to his ashram in Amarnath.

Raolbai: I don't know. I will ask Shri Mataji.

[A week later the Guru came to Shri Mataji's program in Mumbai but was disillusioned to see a simple housewife. He thought this cannot be that Guru. However, when Shri

Mataji gave realisation, he saw that everybody's Kuṇḍalinī was awakened and he prostrated before Her.]

[One of his disciples prays to Shri Mataji to cure his Āgñyā. Shri Mataji asks the saint why he had not cured his Āgñyā.] Saint: Who cured my Āgñyā? I worked on myself! Let him work on himself otherwise he will be a spoilt man. You do it because you are a Mother. You are nothing but love and that's why you are doing all this for others. But not me! No Guru will open the Āgñyā of his disciple.

Shri Mataji: Then why are you a Guru? Saint: Because I have to guide them. I am a Guru; I can only give them the ladder to climb up. It is they who should work very hard to climb up. If you give them everything so easily, they will never value their Self-realisation.

Shri Mataji: It's not so. You have to give them a chance. You have to allow them to rise and become something like Mother Earth. What she does? She sprouts the seed and then the tree comes up.

Saint: But they are not trees. You see, they are human beings and they have freedom to become devils also.

Shri Mataji: Alright, if they are devils, you just see how I can manage them.

[Within a few days of meditation, colours were seen by Mr. V. N. Phadke in the Sahasrāra Chakra. It was rather surprising. Time would simply dissolve away while meditating. Two to three hours of meditation felt like 10-15 minutes only. It was again surprising when one thought over it. Regarding colours, this was confirmed by referring to the Śhrī Gyāeshwari. This was told to Shri Mataji one day at Bharati Vidyā Bhavan.] Shri Mataji [annoyed]: Mr. Phadke, Chakras and then colours don't mean everything. You have to go further ahead than that. These colours mean only a particle of the sea or sand. We have to reach to the complete sand as a whole. These colours are like the scenes we pass while travelling by train. We don't remember the scenes and get involved in them. We just have a destination to reach. We forget all that we pass on the way, in between. In the same way attention should not go to the colours you pass on the way to Sahasrāra. How the thoughtless awareness comes. How it should be established for long time. This should be observed. Only looking at the colours will reduce the attention at Sahasrāra and it will be spoiled.

Contents: 1973-0000 Two Quotes about Deaf and Dumb Boys, Mumbai, India

Quote 1: [Mr. V. N. Phadke was a teacher at a school for deaf and dumb boys.

So, what will be the advantage of Sahaja Yoga to these deaf and dumb boys? One day, I mentioned this to Shri Mataji and questioned Her about it.] Boys will also get advantage of this, because ear is also one of the five organs. These organs convey messages to the brain. The main power is different. If any disturbance occurs in the working of conveying the message, we can work it out through Sahasrāra, but a lot of effort needs to be applied for that because the Sahasrāra should be completely open. The Viśhuddhi and Sahasrāra Chakras of the deaf and dumb boys are already spoiled by their previous births. They should be purified and cleared, only then can they hear through Sahasrāra instead of their ears. As our auditory centre is in the brain, this centre receives the hearing vibrations through the ears. If this message is received through the Sahasrāra, then the work is done. The message, which is received by the auditory centre, is cleared to the speech centre, by the way of answer. From there, it reaches the speech centre. Then only can we answer properly. This happens in no time.

Quote 2: [Mr. V. N. Phadke brought 7 or 8 boys home and gave them realisation. He sat with them in the chain style with closed eyes. After fifteen to twenty minutes of meditation the boys didn't feel anything, but when he left the chain he asked them how they felt. From their answers it was known that some of them felt numbness in their legs, some had a tickling sensation in their backbone, all had got special, Divine Vibrations, which were flowing from one hand to another. In some way, all boys could see Śhrī Rādhā and Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, but Mr. V. N. Phadke could not see them. He wondered if his progress was less.] Mr. V. N. Phadke: Shri Mataji when I sit with the deaf boys for meditation, they could see Śhrī Rādhā and Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa on the Sahasrāra Chakra and why couldn't I? I could not see God.

Shri Mataji [smiled]: Their Sahasrāra Chakra is spoiled so they see God. It is good that you cannot see anything as such because I have closed your Sahasrāra Chakra and taken you to Sahasrāra.

So why do you come to Sahasrāra? This type of vision is not required. Everything should be felt by the media of Divine Vibrations.

Contents: 1973-07-15*, Public Program on Guru Pūrnimā (Hindi), Sahaja Yoga a New Discovery, Mumbai, India

(other possible dates 1974-07-04, 1975-07-23, or 1976-07-11-) Dear People, Sahaja Yoga is a New Discovery. In reality how does the discovery take place for that which is placed, that which is? Just as Columbus had started a journey to find India, then was India not there? If it was not there then what would he be finding? Sahaja has been there from before. It has been found out only now.

Sahaja Yoga is the own way of the Supreme Essence. This is the way of the natures own method.

This is the only way where mankind can through evolution be taken to that dimension, by which mankind can be acquainted with that consciousness, can be absorbed with that consciousness, by the support of which this entire creation and the heart of man is moving. Much has been written about this. From ancient times the seeking for it has been going on. Man is seeking something all the time; whether he is seeking after money, or whether he is seeking after power, or he seeks after love; he is running after one or another seeking. But what is the thirst behind that seeking, he perhaps does not know. Behind this is only the seeking after Bliss. In his search after happiness he thinks that if he collects a lot of wealth he can be happy. But there are many countries that have attained and gained a lot of wealth and are extremely unhappy. Thousands are killing themselves. Behind all this seeking is the thirst for Joy which is dragging you towards this unknown. When man after seeking everywhere can find no happiness then he turns towards Dharma. And even when he turns towards Dharma he is seeking outside. The reason for this is that what he himself is he has lost. He is ignorant and that is why man runs from himself. Each moment he is running from himself. He cannot sit with himself for even two minutes. If he is told to sit with himself for two minutes he says `O God what punishment is this for me.' What we call boredom nowadays. Why is man so fed up of himself? Why is man running away so fast from himself? Because he is ignorant about his own self. He is ignorant about his own beauty, his own knowledge, his own glory, his own love and is running outwards in the search of happiness. Joy is not outside. It is within. It is within you. People say you are in the form of God. Just by talking about it, it is not going to happen. In Marathi they say, `Bolachach bhat bolachich kadhi' [Only making promises but not fulfilling them]. Whether I say that you seek the Formless or Formed, but these are only words. Thousands of discussions have been done, crores of books have been written, how many lives were destroyed, but there is no end to a man's thinking.

Whatever man thinks with his mind, he does so in the limitations of the mind. That which is beyond the mind and cannot be understood by the mind... Even this lecture of Mine is only a talk and by this talk you cannot know that Divine. Whatever I go on talking it will all become like a weight on your mind.

If I say that keep a weight then that too will become a weight. God has created such an arrangement that whatever we do with our mind will become heavy like a weight. And being trapped under that weight we cannot fly where we have to go. That is why seeking has always remained incomplete.

But now I am going to tell you about the New Creation. Not only a talk, but also its discovery which has been found out. In the path of revolution such has been happening, that any person who goes into the expertise of anything he sinks and finishes off. In the same way it is happening to humans. There is so much competition and opposition going on, that man has made his brain so specialist that his brain is bursting. Now a new type of man is needed that can know this Power beyond the mind. This power which moves this mind also makes the heart beat. To know that Power you can talk all you want, or try all you want, you cannot reach there. This is without any doubt. It is not written anywhere about which I am talking. I am not saying anything very special. You can read Nanaka, Kabīrdas, you read Vaishista, read about the Guru of Gurus Janak. Not only in our country but also in the foreign countries they have been writing like this for thousands of years. They have all been writing about which I am talking. “What you have to get is unexpectedly within." But those poor things just kept saying. Maybe because they could not search it. If they were not able to find out about it, it does not mean that they were any less. If Columbus was not able to find India it does not mean that he was any less. And later those people who found it, they did not do it to belittle the ones who could not. This is not a collective search. You all think separately, so the thought comes to many that Mātājī is talking something different. No. I am telling you about all the searching of all the searches. Until now man has born tremendous hardships to put their attention on this. Take the psychologists, biologists and the big scientists. Many of them and even the realised Souls got it to a certain extent but were not able to give.

The reason is time. For God, time is timeless. We are the ones who think that some are left behind and some have moved forward. The ones who have died are great. Who has died, I want to ask? Nobody dies. All those who die sit in the other world and then come back here and then go back to the other world and come back again. From the animals some become humans, but mostly people go to the other world and back again to this world. It is only a coming and going. No one dies.

So it can happen that from some of you who are sitting here, are also because of your seeking from many life times and you can get it. If you can get it then why should there be such a discussion about it. It is such an ordinary thing and I find it really odd. It is really odd that people make an issue about everything. A mother is giving you food to eat but by making an argument about it how will it happen? It is not an argument. This is the Truth. This is the Truth. It is a very great seeking. The ones who are realised who are sitting here, understand it.

In the search for Dharma man has only been able to reach the other world. Till now he has not reached the Supreme. And the ones who did reach the Eternal were unable to bring down the Supreme. This is very important for others. Because just as you have had many rebirths so do I have many births. And I too have had a very close relationship with all these great seekers. And these are so near to Me and Mine.

Perhaps they are not so near to you. All those who carry big ags, that we are Muslims or Hindus or this or that, only carry a false certificate and have no guarantee that in their past lives the one who was a Hindu was a Muslim and the one who was a Muslim might have been a Christian. Now if it is a question of births and rebirths, a question of joy, then one should think on that level.

That level is such that whatever is Eternal is not gross. Whatever is the Eternal Essence is not gross.

That which is sucking is not growth. That which is subtle is not gross. Please understand this properly.

It can be enlightened in the gross but the Eternal is not interested in the gross.

Like many people tell Me that many Sādhus and saints ask God for something and God gives it to them. But God has not given it, this much I can say. God is not interested that how many children you have, that you get lands, houses and the world's pleasures and leisure. God is not interested in this at all.

We have made a big mistake in understanding God. The Eternal Essence is only interested in giving the Eternal, please remember and write this down. And people talk also that this Eternal or Supreme Essence is only got through the Kuṇḍalinī Yoga. Many wrote about this too. But with Kuṇḍalinī Yoga you get only Siddhis [Spiritual Powers], has never been written anywhere. Yes, but those who have got the powers have never written that the powers should come through the Kuṇḍalinī. Kuṇḍalinī is your mother. She is sitting inside you to give you your second birth. She is only going to give you your second birth. She is not the foolish mother who will give you powers and throw you into the other world. The amount of understanding you have, She is many times more wise and more loving. She is not going to push you into a wrong place. She is not the evil mother who will push you into Untruth. Till such time as with the Union of the Kuṇḍalinī one does not get the recognition, till then the Kuṇḍalinī is not a union Yoga and that is what Sahaja Yoga is.

And God has made such a beautiful arrangement of this within us, is a point to understand. When a child comes into the body of the mother then with the gross elements his mind, brain, attention, ego is all made. But when the light comes in, it descends from the fontanelle bone area in our brain which is shaped like a prism, through this very area the energy (Shakti) gets divided into three parts. God has done this so cleverly. If someone is a doctor here he can understand. We call this the sympathetic and parasympathetic nervous system. In our bodies are there two energies (Shaktis) present about which we know very little and about which we find it very difficult to find out specially about the parasympathetic nervous system.

In our Hindu Yoga Science these are called as Iḍā, Piñgalā and Suṣhumnā. Iḍā and Piñgalā are the subtle of the sympathetic nervous systems in our body, means that the gross (jad) of these two is the sympathetic nervous system. Think about it like this that God fills the petrol from the top of our head in us and when filling the petrol a descent happens that the rays which pass through the prism and then deflect and then it goes down and makes two Nāḍīs called as Iḍā and Piñgalā. And the one which is at the top of the head descends down the center and becomes your Kuṇḍalinī and goes into the triangular bone at the base of the spine and settles in there.

One thing is proved that our Kuṇḍalinī is sitting in such a place which has no connection with sex.

If you read books they say that by awakening the Kuṇḍalinī such and such happens. But the ones who raise the Kuṇḍalinī, who I have met and known, they all take you into the sympathetic and do not raise it through the Suṣhumnā. If anyone is a doctor here will understand that parasympathetic nervous is the Suṣhumnā which is in the center and recognition of it is that when the Kuṇḍalinī rises then the eyes dilate. This is an outward recognition. Ask any doctor that when the parasympathetic nervous system is activated, then the eyes dilate. And we can show you outwardly if your eyes are open to see, because one has to give a proof about each and everything otherwise you can't understand. There is a proof of this that which you can see the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī at full strength at the base of the spine. You know that there is no pulsation at the base of the spine. We can show you that there is a pulsation at the base of the spine and slowly this pulsation rises upwards and with this at some places it pulsates more.

These are our centers. You can be shown this and you can see its movement. When the Kuṇḍalinī will rise through the Suṣhumnā only then can you get realisation. But for this, one does not know why a very strong condition has been put by God. There is a very great stoppage here which you will have to give. It is this that when the Kuṇḍalinī will come on Suṣhumnā only then God's Infinite Love will come into that man. Till that Love does not come down into man the Kuṇḍalinī will not rise, no matter what you do.

She can be annoyed or angry, but she will never rise till the Infinite Love will come into Suṣhumnā where a special place has been made. This place is made between our Nābhī Chakra and Anāhata Chakra. Till this Love does not come down till then the flow from the Suṣhumnā will not rise.

For example there are two ladders and in the middle is another ladder and there is a gap between us and that ladder and you are not able to cross this gap in any way. There is no bridge by which you can cross it. The two stairs Iḍā and Piñgalā are down at the level of the ground, which is the left and right of the sympathetic nervous systems. The central stair is hanging in the middle which will take you to the Supreme. If there is any psychologist he can understand about the two stairs of the sympathetic systems.

The one on the left side takes you to your ego. And the one that is on the right hand side takes you to the superego. These two together spread onto our forehead, like a balloon and then they join together at the top of the head.

Sometimes they come and spread onto the whole head.

Sometimes the superego is very strong and sometimes the ego. The one that is stronger is spread on our brain. They then close the path of the middle ladder. Now the petrol which had been made by the parasympathetic system and filled with the Kuṇḍalinī, its path and flow has stopped. Now we are separate. Now we have become the Self and we feel that we are an individual. Now the ego started, that We Are. Now this is the reason for running away from ourselves, because we do not know ourselves who we are. You are listening to Me by putting your attention towards Me but I cannot put My attention on you. If I say put your attention on yourself then you cannot do that because you have been cut off from that source which you are. One which is the superego, a lot of weight keeps accumulating. Every type of weight; a weight in which we are taught, do this, don't do that, don't go here, don't eat this or that. Or we give big lectures to people that you must be an Indian, or Japanese. Or you must hate so and so, or we are Hindus, Muslims or Christians, by all these, what we call, conditionings or weight the superego gets weighed down. And that which is the ego says we are so and so, we should do this. The one that says Don't Do is the super ego and the one that says Do is the ego. In reality neither do we not do or do. The Doer is someone else. It is a useless thinking.

The One who is Doer does what has to be done and will do. But this grossness is within us that we use that petrol, by our Iḍā and Piñgalā and we condition ourselves with that and put it under a weight. In the center is the Suṣhumnā Nāḍī.

Now many people have said to Me that Mātājī you talk against this one or that one. I am not talking against anyone. But you have climbed the wrong ladder; I will have to make you come down that. Because I have to make you climb the middle ladder.

So whom am I opposing I don't understand? What am I going to gain by opposing anyone? I am just telling you that you have climbed the wrong ladder and all will come down. I go to meet the big and great Gurus and talk to them that what are you doing? By doing all this you cannot get God. You must understand by doing all this you will not get God. What I am saying? Read Vaishista, or Ādi Shañkarāchārya, because it is a historical thing.

They have said the same thing that you get to God you cannot do anything. But there is a slight difference between them and Me that they had said that are very few who have the authority to get to God.

Some should remain in Bhakti and others should do some Yogas so that they can keep their discipline. But they also said that a disciplined mind or a mind that is running after indulgences, both minds are useless for ascent. One has to have a mind like a small child which is without sin and is innocent. Such a one has the right to attain God. This is what they have clearly said. But who reads them? The question is that we read a lot and we read about those who know nothing about Dharma. And even if they know it is just a little bit. The ones who think they are very great Hindus they must first read Ādi Shañkarāchārya. Ādi Shañkarāchārya had established the Hindu Dharma. Then why not read Ādi Shañkarāchārya? You read all the books of the world, but why don't you read him and know him? The difference between what he said and I say is that he said that in crores there are just one or two and I say in crores there are lakhs. This is not of a question of being hopeful but a question of time. The time will come. The time of Kali Yuga is a time of a very terrific battle. It is a time of total darkness. You don't know this as you are seeing Me. Besides yourself you are not being able to see anything else, but those who are realised know that what a pledge has been tied. Negativity and positive forces are both tying their force. There is the full force of Sympathetic and Parasympathetic. The Sympathetic is sucking away the Parasympathetic. But no matter how much the Sympathetic sucks it out; if that Parasympathetic becomes one with that Ānanda then this will go on filling it up. You can go on using up the petrol but if that petrol is connected to the petrol pump and what is there to be afraid of. This is all due to the Sympathetic. The active consciousness side of the Sympathetic, from where you do all your work, from where you spend your energy if that is over spent then a disease like cancer sets in. And if the Superego is over used then madness comes in. I do not cure people's diseases. To say that I cure people's diseases is a wrong concept. Because the parasympathetic system cools down the sympathetic system by which a person gets cured. If there is some madness then that too will get cured. And if within you a disease like cancer sets in, due to over activity that too will get cured. The cure for cancer is only Sahaja Yoga and there is no other cure in the world for it. This point will be proved. I know that this will be proved with time that many have been cured of cancer. The people who are sitting here can also tell you.

One point I have been making from the beginning is that where is our attention? Is our attention on that cancer which is destroying our body which is gross or is our attention on the Consciousness (Chaitanya)? Then we should think about Consciousness. Till we do not keep our attention on Consciousness then the gross [material] will also trouble us. The whole work is by Consciousness; Grossness [material] has no work in this. We have got so used to the gross and material that man gets stuck on to little, little gross topics.

One person used to come who got realisation and started giving it to others quite well. But realisation doesn't mean that you got busy. You are reborn and you have become like a child again. Now you have to grow further. But the attention is on `My son should get alright, my children should become alright, my husband should get alright.' Then after some time `My money problems should become alright.' Where is the Attention? You have become realised but the attention is exactly where you left it. The one who has kept his Attention on Consciousness (Chaitanya) such a person has risen very high. Sitting among you, are people who are very high. They are like the Gods and worthy of reverence. These people should be called Gods who have been reborn. There is no need to fight with people who talk useless things. Those who want to come should come and those who don't want to come should not come. There is no time left to argue and have discussions with them, because such people will go on discussing and arguing. As Ādi Shañkarāchārya has said that low level people should keep their minds disciplined and somehow live properly and protect themselves from becoming thieves etc. They should live like good citizens. But the ones who have their Attention on the Supreme, will not be satisfied with such things.

Till you have not attained the Supreme you should not have any belief in Me too. There is no need of pretense. Whatever anyone tells you, you should not believe it, but first get it within yourself, then only have belief in Me. I am not here to open a shop or earn money or make a name for Myself. I am here only to transform human beings. If not in this birth then I will see in the next life. I am used to living in the Eternal. But one should now think that the ones who have died, have died. Don't take their topics and repeat them. Put your attention on yourself. Maybe it might be that one of them is you who had written about it in your past lives. Can be that you are the very great people who had written and have been reborn and come here today to take get your right. What has happened is gone.

In Sahaja a seeker has to do nothing. The one who is drowning in the water, if he does nothing it is better. But he saves the others who are drowning. This is an easy way to explain Sahaja Yoga. Those who are in their source, those who have got their realisation, those who have become one with their Shakti [Power], they will do everything. The rest who have not realisation should sit peacefully. They will come onto your source (sutra) and give you love. They will come onto your source (sutra) and heal your Chakras because you do not know your Chakras as yet. When you get your realisation then you will understand what I am saying, that yes, here is this Chakra, it is moving, that Chakra is moving like that in another.

Then only will you understand what is the collective consciousness. The ones who keep no, no right from the beginning, this is not the place for them and neither is there any arrangement for them. But such people no matter how conditioned they are, but who want that a transformation should come within them, such are dear to Me and I have full faith that they will get it in this lifetime, despite what the conditioning is and despite how their Kuṇḍalinī has been played around with. If I say that someone's life is getting destroyed then people are opposing Me is really madness. If a mother sees that there is something wrong with a child and she corrects that then... In your simplicity and innocence something has been spoiled within and I am here to correct it. But to think such things from beforehand only, what is so sensible about this? What kind of demand is this? Today is Guru Pūrnimā and I have to explain Sahaja Yoga fully to you. It is not possible in such a short time. I wanted to talk on many things but this subject is very comprehensive. And in many of the meditation classes I have told people that those who are realised have reached such a stage that they can understand it. Because from their hands the vibrations of Joy are flowing; those vibrations of Love are flowing by which they can understand what collective consciousness is. One must understand that what is this? There maybe many people among you who feel your hands are shaking or getting hot when you put your hands towards Me. You might feel so.

So people may say we are getting vibrations. These are not vibrations. That is because you are opposing Me.

Something within you is opposing Me. The love that I am giving you your hands are shaking because of your opposition. I believe the vibrations come when your Sahasrāra starts moving. Kabīrdas has said, “On the Top of the head the Anāhata [the unheard sound] beats." It means that just like the beating of heart the same happens at the top of the head. When the noise of this breaks and pierces then you become one with God, then no noise comes nor do you see anything, nor is anything visible. Many people tell Me that they have Divine Visions, Divine this or that.

What are you going to get with visions? If you were to get all, by having visions, then why this seeking? It is beyond vision or hearing with the ear. It has to be known from within. The one who has known it from within, can only understand it. With vision many see many big, big miracles. Many people see pictures and many people tell Me that he has miracles. I say, my son, God is beyond this. It is an experience.

Leave all this. By leaving all this and when you will come into Nirākāra [formless] then you will get the Oneness with God and then you will find the meaning of things that are Sakara [in form].

Many have been cured by these Joy giving vibrations. Diseases have got cured. But the greatest thing that has happened and that which has given Me the greatest pleasure is that ten people have got their realisation collectively. Now you will ask Me how they got their realisation so fast. Many don't get their realisation so fast. They have been coming since four years to Me. Many ministers, governors, others, they don't get their realisation then what can I do? I don't have to take money from them that you give Me 2,000 rupees and I will give you a certificate that you are realised. If it has not happened then it has not happened and if it has so it has. I had gone to America and there is one gentleman who is a big king, who was with Me. He said, “Mātājī, whoever comes, you give them realisation but you don't give me. What have I done?" I said, “Son, I won’t say anything to you because you will be upset. You have heard so many lectures on Dharma, but have you yourself ever established Dharma within you? Day and night you are killing yourself is for what? Just think, leave all this to God." Four days passed and he said, “I believe you. I went to India and all the people told me that you are realised.

So do our work and give me money and they gave me certificates." I said, “All this does not work on here, what can I do?" Because what is going to happen will happen; no amount of recommendation or cleverness of anyone will work. It is so ultra modern that nothing will happen. What will be, will be and what will not be, will not be. Now if it doesn't happen such people get upset and start talking against Me. What can I do if it does not happen.

I want that you all should get it. Night and day I am working so hard so that you all get it. But if you do not get it then what can I do? It is your blockage.

To cure diseases is not the work of Sahaja Yoga. You must know this, because many people say that so and so has cured them. What? What have they cured? Sahaja Yoga is the science of awakening the Kuṇḍalinī and to get to God and nothing. And don't associate all this with the gross; because there are thousands of diseases. You must have heard of Doctor Lang a very big doctor in London who suddenly died. His dead spirit got inside the superego of a soldier in Vietnam and started telling him to come with him to his son's house in London. When they arrived he told him to tell his son that I have come inside your body. The son did not believe him. Then this soldier told him all the secret talks the father had with him.

So the son started believing him. Then he told the son to help him to start his practice again. He said that in the other world there are many doctors who want to manifest. They have a very big international organization. Are they true people? It is an untruth. They do not give the name of God they say it is this way. And if you write to them they say that at 10 o'clock a man will come and do something and you just relax. And right at that time you feel that something or someone has come within you and you have got alright. But they have cured only the body and have not got the Param Tattwa [Supreme Essence]. This body will get left behind here and then one will go there and come back again. And on whom such practices are being done, they do not know, they are also innocent, that the very spirits they are using for their work will one day come onto them. Doctor Lang must have known this otherwise why did he not enter his son? He can go into a soldier. And the body of spirits is not gross like ours that is why he can see much more than us. This is what is called ESP or psychology or what you call the Pentecostals, blessings of the Ātmā, where a person jumps, screams, yells, mesmerism. This is all the work of spirits. From these many are good spirits and many are extremely evil. Just as we are so, are the spirits.

Some are Rākshasas and devils. Today you are not seeing them but I might show them to you later, just as today you can see the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī. They are there. You can see their reality their behaviour. In every religion they have been written about. In the Hindus the Sura and Asuras have been written about. What is, is. When you will talk of the positive and the negative will have to be shown to you. Just to talk of Dharma and Adharma is just a talk. Just to talk only of Dharma, then how can it be? There is Dharma and adharma. What is Dharma cannot be adharma and what is adharma cannot be Dharma. This confusion has been made somewhere but this is not true. What is negative is negative and what is positive is positive. One should understand the negative. Negative means that which is dead, which is sitting in the sympathetic. And the effect of that negative is more where it is very gross like the city of Bombay [Mumbai]. We are very gross in this city of Bombay [Mumbai]. Day and night there is the sound of money, the flags of elections. Night and day the attention is stuck in all these things. Man's attention does not go beyond this. There is no enquiry, no seeking. Is this why we are living? Is it to read all this that the gundas, gangsters, hit so and so, they criticised and talked against another, they did this to someone. Have we come into this world to do all this? Man's thinking is all wrong. Be very careful of this jad Tattwa [gross level essence]. This gross level is your own surroundings. Besides this there is also the collective subconscious, which can be called heaven and because of this the damage is being done is the most in Sahaja Yoga. And if such a thing has happened with someone it becomes very difficult for him to get God in Sahaja Yoga. In this it is neither My fault nor yours. It is partly the fault of your Karmas [deeds]. Otherwise why did you go to such a place by which you got so damaged? Sahaja Yoga is life's progress in full alertness taking place spontaneously. You cannot get the Param from bhoots, pretas, spirits or even saints. These are dead people. Param can come only when one is alive.

If it was among the dead then why would these dead people come here? Why are they sitting on us? To be alive is necessary. Till a man is not alive, aware and his awareness is not fully awakened till then Sahaja Yoga does not descend down into him. Whatever you get in the fully awakened state, that is Param [Supreme]. People think that in Samādhi we have put our eyes upwards and got lost, are sitting for two, two hours. This will not happen through Sahaja Yoga. This is your entire subconscious which I call as region (loka) of death. This is where you are going. From all this there is going to be no benefit to you whatsoever. The one who wants the Param [Supreme] must think that that is what I must get is with full awareness and with full freedom. You have the full freedom. In fact there should be no type of devotion feelings towards Me. I am just like an ordinary, mild woman, an ordinary housewife. You have not to think that I am something special. With such a thought you must have this type of freedom, only then you will get. You might be ten or one it is enough for Me. It does not happen with numbers though we will have to increase the numbers. Because if the work gets done in full force. Actually the Param is flowing from above for a new creation, a new awareness, for a new type of human. It has done the arrangement for it.

A full of love, full of knowledge and a beautiful creation of humans will have to be done and will be done.

You people have listened to My lecture for such a long time. On the day of Guru Pūrnimā, that in this life I have become a Guru. I had not done this type of work in any other lifetime. It is the first time that I have done the work of the Guru. Maybe it is because the Mother has to be the Guru. This is a matter of the Kali Yuga. That is why the tremendous Shakti of the Divine which must flow from the heart of a mother and by Her grace and compassion the Kuṇḍalinī should be treasured and it should be taken to that top where She in Her glory, Her Joy and Her splendor be seated and perhaps that is in My destiny.

That is why in this birth this position of the Guru has been created. If the Mother becomes the Guru, it is a very difficult, as a mother is very tender. A male Guru will beat up, hit or even scold but for a mother when she utters even one harsh word her heart bleeds and pains a lot. When she sees that her children have come through such difficulties and how she has to gather them with love and care and take them across, that her responsibility grows so much that her entire character changes. But from ancient times it has been known that no one is greater than the mother as a Guru. Only make such a one your Guru who is greater than you, the one who is greater than you is God. It was said about Guru Rāmdās Swāmī that make only such a person your Guru who himself is paras [touchstone] and who just by touching others does not make them into gold but makes them elixir [touchstone]. He makes others like himself. That is how the form of the mother is. A mother lives for her children. Lives in the glory of her children. That is why perhaps in this lifetime the Divine wanted this that this love and this knowledge should come through a mother.

Now we will go into meditation and after this, so all of you sit with full attention. Leave your thoughts and assumptions aside because you have to get your welfare and well-being. Be good to yourself. Don't take out your faults. If you are catching onto something then just leave it for the time being. I have nothing to take from you and I don't want to take away your freedom. In any way I don't want to snatch away your freedom. Like people will run after someone like mad, will spend lakhs of rupees on them, give them things. Why do they take things? If he is a Guru then he cannot take anything from you. What will you give the Guru? What will you give Me? You can give Me nothing. You cannot even give Me vibrations. You will be surprised that you cannot give Me vibrations. One day I hurt My foot and a lady doctor said that, “Mother I will give you vibrations." I said, “OK give." When she tried to give vibrations they flew so strongly that she went into meditation. She said, “Mātājī, such tremendous vibrations are coming." And My injury became so light. Guru should be one who can take nothing from you. The one who is sitting at the top, he will flow downwards; nothing from below can flow upwards towards him. It is impossible. If I say, My son, please do not give Me as this is just eyewash. You can give Me nothing, in fact just the opposite. You ask Me. Your whole personality just boils over and all the forceful and spectacular Shaktis [energies] start racing within with such a force that with what kind of love should I look after this child, anyone has to ask for just a bit. Ask for the Param [Supreme].

On this Guru Pūrnimā I bless all of you and all those who are realised, are very special people and I would say to them that just as you have got, give to others. You too have to bring them around. Might be that they may get annoyed with you, hit you, beat you, they may not remain, but this is nothing. I have borne much more than this. That is why with joy and not arguments; they may not believe in you, doesn't matter. Leave them. They may argue, just leave them. The ones who believe in you give them.

This is what you have to give and this is all you can give that My love may reach each corner of the world and each house may be lit with it.

May God bless you.

... by the Divine. For example, if I know only my head, that is not sufficient. If I know only my neck, that is not sufficient. If I know only my leg, that is not sufficient. But, the more I know about myself the more dynamic I become: The more expansive I become. And all the great, that existed, or all the people who were called as great, are great because they lived in many human beings. I feel that warmth in the atmosphere, as you are feeling because you know they are not foreigners, they are your brothers and sisters. There are so many stories in Purānas like this that... I will not name it, but once two brothers met in a jungle. But they thought that they were enemies and they wanted to fight with each other and when they came too close they couldn't hit each other. Then they took out their arrows, the arrows wouldn't work. They were quite surprised at this and when they asked each other, “Who is your mother?", they found out, mother was the same. And then they realised that they were not foreigners neither enemies but they were made of the same fibre.

What sweetness, what beauty that knowledge has given them and what security of understanding that everywhere in the whole world we have brothers and sisters who are on their inner being, on their Divine and how we are bound together with that love. When I talk of love, people think that I am trying to make you weak people, because people think those who love are weak. But the most dynamic power in this world is that of love. Is the most aggressive power, is that of love. Even when we suffer in love, it is out of our strength that we suffer and not out of our weakness.

For example, there was a teacher in China who used to teach the cocks how to fight. And the king of that place took his cocks to that teacher and told him that “You please teach them how to fight." After one month, when the king went to take those cocks with him, he was surprised that the cocks where just silent doing nothing. And he told the teacher that, “What have you done to my cocks? They are not at all aggressive. They are not doing anything. How are they going to fight it out? There's going to be a race. There's going to be an exhibition of their strength and what are we going to do about it?" He said, “You just take them." He took those two cocks with him and put them in the arena where there were other cocks who had come to fight. These two cocks were very nicely standing. All the other cocks started coaxing and torturing. They were just standing and looking at them. All the other cocks were surprised at their behaviour and thought that they were very powerful. And they all fled away.

The love that I am talking about, the Divine Love, makes you not only strong but dynamic. It is the greatest luminous power that we can think of. Only when love is surrounded by gross and is lost in the gross, it looks as if it is weak and under chains. The time it is released, the dynamic power of love can transcend all the evil powers of the world.

When people get their realisation, automatically the ego drops out, to a great extent I should say.

Because, you say that the vibrations are passing; you don't say that you are giving them. Because the dropping of the ego sometimes it happens that you feel that whatever you wanted to have you have got it and you better not talk about it. When there is any opposition from anywhere, you shun it and sit away from it. You don't want to face the opposition of any negative opposition, whether it is by speech or by... even by evil methods. We run away from that thinking, `Oh god! How are we going to face it?' On the contrary a person who is negative, who has got hatred becomes tiresomely [UNCLEAR schizoid] they call it means a person who talks big. Such a person talks... starts talking big. He thinks he is above everybody else, he can befool all the world; he takes a responsibility on himself; he starts a big ashram or some big place where he sits down with all his ignorance and starts spreading his knowledge, the so-called, to people. By his methods people get impressed and they all go and fall at his feet.

While the realised sits at home quietly wondering, `What are these fools doing?' But, it is not now for the realised to sit down and to wonder and laugh at the foolishness of the people who are not yet realised.

Not even to take pity on them, but to come out, come out with the sword of love to win the whole world.

It is very, very essential. If the creation has to be saved, then you are not to keep mum about it. All the ten wrong ideas about love, all the falsehood about love, has to be given up. One must know that it is the dynamic power. And it won't allow you to sit comfortably with yourself, enjoying the peace and the bliss, when the rest of the world is not enjoying that and is playing into the hands of the evil geniuses who have come in this world to destroy and to bring the Satanic realm on this earth.

Now the days are gone when the people had to suffer. Christ suffered for us. Of course, Christ never suffered, because He never suffered. He never wept. He was like those cocks, a very powerful personality.

But today is the day to brighten up your understanding about your own strength that is within you.

Those who are gross should worry about their insecurities and their problems and their organizations, but not for the people who are realised. I have told you many a times and today he also remarked that you should know you are never alone when you are realised. There have been many people who have been realised, before even you were born, who exist, who are anxious to help you at every moment. In our Shāstras [Scriptures] we call them Chiran-jīvas [eternal beings], you know them. They are people who are Niranjanas, as he said about Bhairava and Hanumāna. All these people exist and they are waiting just for a call from you.

Once we went to the market and there was a problem about something and I had somebody with Me, a disciple, who was also with Me. I just wanted to see what will be his reaction. He tried to argue out with a person to tell him about something.

So he told Me, “Mātājī let us go now." When we came out the shop, I said, “What are you going to about it?" He said, “I have already told Hanumān to look after that part." And the work was done. It is gross, but it happens. When they fail, you can leave it to anyone of them and they will have to jolly well do it. Because, it is you who are on the stage and not they. They are the background people. They are the play back. But you must open your mouth otherwise if they start thinking, what will people say? They are going to help you in every way, but how far are you standing on your security? How far you are standing on your property, on your understanding of yourself? It's a great war going on. You are not aware of it.

Some of you are.

Some of you are definitely aware of it because they have had the experience of fighting it out. It's a big war on. Now especially when ten Rākshasas [demons] have taken their Avatāras [incarnations]. And for you to be so feeble, you are still small children, no doubt, because you got your realisation only a few days back. But if you want, you can grow very fast.

You can grow into big big giants. All of you can grow. Only thing, you have to decide that you have to grow within. There are so many things, that you only have discovered, by which a person grows. I can give you food, but you have to grow yourself. Wherever you see the negativity, you have to stand up and say, `This is negativity and nothing else. Whether you like it or not.' In that, you love that person, you don't hate. Only talking sweetly, is not the idea of love. No, a mother sometimes even scolds the child. Doesn't mean that she doesn't love. If it is necessary, you have to tell the person that it is negativity. Of course, if there is a realised person he won't mind any correction because he wants the correction, he knows that it has to be corrected. The instrument has to be corrected. But a person who doesn't understand, you have to force your love on that person. You can force that love, you know that, sitting down here. Many people have tried putting love around certain people who were trying to be mischievous and they have been able to achieve great results. Those people have turned back and come back. Only by putting your hand and putting your attention on that person and moving this hand like this, the love encircles, then the person comes back. There is no doubt that there is negativity and positivity, nothing in between these, you must remember. There is no compromise between the two. Either it is light and darkness, or it is positive and negative, definitely there are two things that are fighting. Only thing your will, that's the trouble with the whole joke. That your will is respected, your will is throughout respected. If you have the will to be a giant that loves, you can be.

The other day I met a psychiatrist and he was catching his superego very much. I said, “What's wrong with you?" He said, “My childhood. My childhood I couldn't get much love." I said, “Now I am there. You come in my lap. Take the love." He said, “I want to flow my love, Mother. I want to open out myself, completely, without any fear." I said, “You just start it. Don't worry what people are going to misunderstand. What people are going to say. It's nothing important what people are going to say or anything. For love, the satisfaction is only love, that you love another person." “You just flow your love” I said, “and you will feel it will work out. Just decide that I am going to love people. And once you decide that, the whole heaven, the whole power of the heaven will fall at your feet. You believe Me in this." If you see otherwise, I am a ordinary housewife.

Some people always say, “Mātājī, how can we be like this?" Why not? I am just like you. I have the same problems as you have. But only thing I know, that I am nothing but embodiment of that love that is Divine and I can't exist without it. Every moment of My life let the love flow, let the love flow. Every wave of My mind convey the love. And that makes you completely powerful.

If you read... I was reading Devī Māhātmyam. In that they talk about a Rākshasa who faced primordial Mother, the Divine Mother and he laughed at Her, “You woman! What can you do to me? You are a woman, what can you do to me?" And She smiled at him and said, “All right, come along, let us see." And with one stroke, She cut his throat. Very clearly that shows, that positivity can cut the throat of negativity. There is no hinsa [violence] in that. You must remember the difference between the two. If negativity is cut and positive brought out, that is the greatest ahinsa [nonviolence] you can do to someone.

You have seen what negativity does to people; you have now known what is negativity. You have seen how people suffer with [these] spirits on them. And here, they are also anxious to be loved your way, you will be surprised to know that, if you really love them. They themselves come to Me and say, “Give me salvation Mother." They come to Me only for that, sometimes with you, that I should give them salvation.

And if I promise that they take the birth again. But, there are Rākshasas, there are Rākshasas. As I told you the other day, the Kali Yuga has laid a beautiful stage and a very wonderful drama is to be played, in which Rāvaṇa has to love Sītā, as a mother; the Kansa has to fall at the feet of Rādhā. Perhaps you do not know that Kṛiṣhṇa wanted to kill Kansa. At that time, he was His uncle.

So you see the feeling came in Him, of His mother, that after all he is my brother.

So He asked Rādhā and Rādhā killed him, the Rādhā who loved the whole world at that time. She is the embodiment of love and She killed Kansa because it was to be.

When you are playing in the hands of God then if He wants to kill somebody, it has to be [played].

But first of all you have to be in the hands of God completely. It is his love only, which kills this body.

And when the songs of their strength and victory is sung, you have seen it, all My Chakras how they start working and vibrating because the strength of those victorious days is still lingering on and it is going to work through you. But what about your poor instrument which is moving little slowly. The time when love has to rule, the Satya Yuga, if it has to come it is going to be through your efforts, now. Before Sahaja Yoga, no efforts. But now, all your efforts are Divine. Whatever you do, whatever sympathetic you activate, you are getting it through parasympathetic, you don't do anything at all. But you can see yourself what sticks and [watch]. You are the chosen ones, otherwise why is it that you are the only people who got this realisation and so much you have come forward? Some of you got it only few days back and have gone very far. Why? You are the chosen ones and you have to take it upon yourself to be the channels of that Divine Love, that dynamic power, which is going to transform the whole conception of hatred on which all these nations and all these differences are created. It looks sometimes, how? How can it be? But now the days are gone, of Gokul. I was thinking of it. Of the time when Kṛiṣhṇa used to play His flute and He tried His Sahaja Yoga on the Gopis and the Gopas.

Oh! We tried and tried and tried, in different lives. Nothing worked. And now it is going to click like a spark. The chain reaction will start. But we have to have strong machines to carry that. Otherwise the fuse will be off. Only the strength that is in you is to be felt by your attention. That's the only thing you have to do. Is to feel your attention and give up all that is falsehood all that is falsehood. You see within yourself and you'll know what is falsehood and you just drop it. Accept only the truth and the truth will give you that power to be the real instrument, to carry this channel, that force of love. It should not mean that you have to be egoistic, you cannot be even if you try to. You cannot harm anyone even if you want to trouble.

So many of you have expressed that, “Mātājī you are giving it to every Dick, Tom and Harry." I can't give it to Dick, Tom and Harry, it has to be a man who has been searching, it has to be a woman who has been searching in their previous lives. You should know that whatever you have got it, you have got it in your own right.

So, a person may look like a Dick, Tom and Harry, but he is not. He is a great saint. They are all saints sitting here. It's a center and nucleus of saintliness where the complete Divine is flowing. Only thing is, let it flow out from you.

This power is that of God and it is not your responsibility to worry as to whether it will do good or bad. Even if you think that it may do some bad things according to the moral sciences of this world, ultimately it is going to be all right. Why that Jarasandha was to be killed? Why that Kansa was to be killed? Why Rāvaṇa was to be killed? Of course, killing doesn't help much that I have realised. Because all those who were killed are back again in their saddles. But still, you don't fight those horrible people.

You just fight your self out. You just watch yourself. Where are you? What are you doing? Are you on the Divine or on the gross? Just think about it every moment, every moment you are in meditation just think of the moment and the dynamism of that moment. The complete power that is [feeding] every moment just to go inside you. It will flow through your Sahasrār inside your being and completely revolve around your whole being and transform the inside [into a] complete Chaitanya Shakti, a complete Divine Power.

Allow it to come in, accept it. Accept it without any fear. Let it get in. Every moment, every moment keep awake. It's a very precarious time that we are up to. I have only two hands you can see that very clearly. And though Mister [UNCLEAR] says that I can do everything, I can do everything but not to make you do something. Your will will be respected throughout. Every other thing can be looked after except for one that you should be a perfect machine, a perfect channel, a perfect flute for My lord to play that tune of love. It is for you to clear out all your seven holes. It is for you to clear out your hollowness and to be complete within yourself and He knows his job. He is the artist. But you are the instruments.

And the harmonious music from so many souls can fill the ears of these evil people and can penetrate into their heart and put love into them and may be that they themselves will give up their evil ways and fall at the feet of love.

Kṛiṣhṇa is to be born within you today. A five year old boy went to kill Kaliya. That Kṛiṣhṇa is to born within you. Went and sat on the Kaliya's Sahasrār and was pressing with His feet and all the people were seeing this great drama of Kṛiṣhṇa's dancing on the Kaliya's Sahasrāra.

Kṛiṣhṇa is to be born within your being. When you are Kṛiṣhṇa, you are not going to see Me. Let us now go to the state, which is beyond words, beyond thoughts, into the realm of thoughtless awareness where the Divine is pouring its blessings.

These people have decided today to have a Pūjā and you know what happens to Me when you do My Pūjā.

So with all those problems that will be facing later, I would like all of you to be attentive about the Pūjā and to take full advantage of that. With this Pūjā you get the Mother's protection, to begin with.

And My Chakras, when they start moving, they give you special powers of love and bless all your Chakras and fill them up completely.

So I would like you, though some two people are coming to do this, all of you to feel that you all are doing it and you can feel it that way with oneness. And the blessings of My being will flow to you automatically.

..... But after the Realisation these problems do not exist. After the Realisation it is here where I have pierced, every things goes out from here. Today if you release, forsake your attachment from a thing, it goes out here. By itself, automatically it goes out from here, as you release it. In this process it is not going to enter anywhere else. As it is pierced here at this place [fontanelle bone area], it has this benefit.

Whatever is there as habit or conditioning (adat), just pick it up on the thought process (vichar) in the mind (mana), placing it here and then throw it out. Wherever is the conditioning, it will give you a heavy sensation. Maybe on the Nābhī. Now, someone has a habit of eating a lot, a lot; it does not look nice to see some one eating so much. You must focus your attention on the Nābhī, on the Nābhī. Now, the Nābhī is here. Now, from the Nābhī, one must lift it and push it up and then slowly, slowly, slowly drive it out.

All filth will be driven out from here. Now, it is in the opposite direction. The wind is blowing from the opposite direction... from the opposite direction.

Just now Bewde Sāb told Me that “I can breath from here." It is true! Breathing, sight [seeing], hearing, smelling, tastes... everything is from here. After all everything happens due to the awareness only. As the consciousness itself comes up at this place, everything will also happen from here. The heart beats (Spandan)... Every activity of the body emanates out from here. From here... anything that you desire to take it out, from within; you must press it and then take it out from here. It will be driven out of you. All habits and conditioning of yours will vanish as it is goes out from here.....

Those issues which are not at all there in animals are there in human beings. For an animal there is no question of any issue, he just exists. He is not even concerned about the power which is behind his existence that, `which is the power behind my existence.' The reason for that is the Chaitanya Shakti [vibratory power], which creates the whole universe, sustains it and organizes it. It flows through living creatures and passes through them. Because of a particular reason in a human being and because concerning of his particular way of life, there occur some developments by which he gets disconnected with that power.

In simple words you can understand that the ego which human beings have, animals don't have. The condition of brain of human beings is one of different kind. His brain is triangular. When a foetus is of three months in his mother's womb, at that time, this power enters through this triangular brain and then it is divided into three parts because of the retraction involved in this process. One part has gone down directly through the middle of forehead and remaining two parts go down through the two angles of the brain and take a turn and go down. It is because of these three type of powers only a man is different from an animal. This power which passes in the brain through triangle and it passes through one angle of triangle, then it also develops another angle. And because of that particular angle its powers changes in two forms. If you people are from physics then you will understand that power always passes in a straight way. But when it comes to this side passing through like this then it has to go like that, so its changing form divides it in two powers which are called as components. One goes outside like this and other goes down like that. It is only because of the force that goes outside; man is compelled to get a feeling of going outside. For example there is an animal, if he sits on a stool then he will think of sitting on a stool. But if a man sits on a stool then he will think how I would maintain this stool, where did it come from, who has made this stool? Whatever he sees he gets involved into it. If he sees any human being then he gets involved in him. This is not a case in an animal. He just lives. If his master comes then he becomes happy.

If any stranger comes then he starts barking. If any thief comes then he starts barking. He does not think of having it or this mike I should take. I would get this table. It is called possession. It start covering his mind. He has no sense of aesthetics. He does not even think that there is something beautiful or ugly, its colour is good or bad. He is just not bothered. But man gets involved in any particular thing. He goes further to start thinking that `I am something, I have my identity, power and I am something special.' For example, we are born and we start thinking that, I am Nirmalā; I am Hindustani [Indian]. We are Hindu, Muslim, Christian. That is how we get entangled with whatever type of outside identification we have. This type of tendency of going outside is there because of brain of a human being is triangular in shape. If man does not go outside then, there would be no further problem. For example cats and dogs have no question of any kind. The entire consciousness passes through them and goes downwards. There is no question before them. There is no reaction in them. But such is not case with us. Whenever we look at anything we have our reaction to it. Therefore it is just a reaction produced by a force which originates one from front and other from back within us and two institutions, named as ego and super ego are formed and gathered here. Due to assembling of these, we are separated from everywhere completely.

We all are separated from the power which is present there, you are separated, you are separated and we all are standing separately. Actually we all are product to only one power. It is like somebody has filled petrol in us and has removed from this side.

Out of this power, the power which go through middle, goes down and is settled in three and half circle in coils in the triangular bone in our backbone after getting twisted. That's why it is called as Kuṇḍalinī.

This power is not seen, that's why many people may ask that whatever you are telling how can we believe this. But it will be seen by you after reaching a certain extent. Like if we would say that you can see many things with the microscope, which can not be seen by these eyes. For this you should have microscope. If you don't get microscope you just can not see that thing.

So a state comes where you can see this Shaktis [powers], where it is sitting, how it is sitting, what is the shape? But this Shakti [power] is settled down in a formless state. When Kuṇḍalinī is awakened those people who have come here and those who are now realised and the people who knows this work quite well can tell you that when your Kuṇḍalinī gets awakened and if anybody bows down before Me then throbbing in the spinal cord of backbone is seen. You never breath from this area but you can see her getting up and down here whether you are realised or not.

It is seen in many people but not in all. But in those who have obstacles, it is seen very clearly. You can see throbbing for a long time. This Shakti is hidden there and seated down there. But the same Kuṇḍalinī, which is there within you, since all your previous lives, is nurtured in you. She records all things like a tape, what problems he has, this is my son, what are his problems he has in his body, which thing he needs. She knows each and everything about you. Your mother may have many children but you are the only child of this mother [Kuṇḍalinī]. You are the only child. Ever since I was born, I was observing that the Kuṇḍalinī in each person is frozen just there. She just does not rise. What is the reason? The rising path of Kuṇḍalinī is fixed and she knows that I have to rise through this path. There is a big space in between; here those who are doctors can understand that in this void, which is in between vagus nerve and aortic plexus, there is vacuum. In the same way there is also a space in our Suṣhumnā Nāḍī. Because of this space created in all the human beings that Kuṇḍalinī Shakti is inherent. I was just not able to understand that this Kuṇḍalinī Shakti will rise, but how. The found out remedy to fill this gap is what Sahaja Yoga is. When this Kuṇḍalinī Shakti rises, then it goes upside and again it goes up through this path and intermingles you with power which fills our vibrations. You see, it's just like petrol. First it was filled within us then we used it. We have consumed it because of our outgoing tendency. Now to fill new petrol again, this cap has once again been opened up. And for that person it is Kuṇḍalinī which opens it.

From above, the Shakti [power] flows through you for whole time in the form of grace. When this takes place, at that time, you will feel like there is some power flowing through your hands. Now it is surprising that from the beginning, ever since the power of Chaitanya [vibrations] has been working, the gross power and Chaitanya [vibratory] power have been together. Like there is a tree, inside tree is it's vibratory power, there is a light that is why it is being nourished. But you don't see that. You are watching only the growth of tree means you are watching the work of just gross power. It is the Chaitanya Shakti [vibratory power] which always runs the gross power, it regulates it and it does its work. But time it is seen for the first time when you are realised. Then there is manifestation of this. For the first time, it starts flowing through you when flow is opened from above and it start coming from inside. Cool, cool vibration comes in hands.

But you, yourself reach that state where thoughtless awareness gets established. There is antarmoh [inner attachment]. If there is any psychologist here, he can understand this, it is called universal unconscious.

Any man or any person who has the cancer disease and from which he is very upset and has come today may be to get Sahaja Yoga, so that this disease can be cured.

Those persons who are realised they can never get the disease of cancer because they know how to cure cancer. Many people say that there were great people like Maharishi Rāman, who had cancer, Rāma Kṛiṣhṇa got cancer. He got cancer, but there was nobody to tell them that how to cure it. Very few people have written about these vibrations. And the biggest wonder is that only Shañkarāchārya has written about it. But those who claim themselves to be biggest Hindus do not know Shañkarāchārya. Ādi Shañkarāchārya has talked of nothing but Sahaja Yoga. He had just said, “na sankhen, na yogen" God is not achieved either by sankhya or Yoga, he is achieved in a Sahaja way, spontaneously. The growth is spontaneous and he had not made any caste. He had said that there were three kind of people in the world, the one who of lower level, those who do not have much intelligence. Those who have not yet developed fully as a human being. For example, this mike is not yet fully prepared as a machine, then there is no need to connect it to the mains either and there is no use also. It is better that these types of people are remained in `Bhakti rasa', the essence of devotion.

They are of no use. Second type of people, are those whose minds run here and there. That is why they indulge in wrong things or they are stuck to such work which make their energy exhausted. These types of people should get into Yoga so that they should be able to save themselves by Yoga. But the third type of people who are such mild and are of such a pure form that this unique phenomenon takes place in them.

Now the only difference between him [Ādi Shañkarāchārya] and Me is that he used to say there that there is one in millions and I say that there are thousands in millions. This is the only difference between both of us. It may be possible that there used to be such people in sixth century but as of today I see there are thousands of them who are getting this thing.

You must have read a lot about the Kuṇḍalinī awakening. If you have read those books you would have not come here. Because there are such things said about Kuṇḍalinī awakening that when it is awakened there are lots of burning wounds arises in the body or there is heat.

Some people say that person becomes mad in it and lots of other things. But here there is no happening like this. But actually these people who call it as Kuṇḍalinī awakening is not awakening of Kuṇḍalinī but it is displeasing Kuṇḍalinī. Since Kuṇḍalinī is only awakened through the middle path from its place and if we try to awaken it somehow from other place, then it will be a wrong act. It can only be awakened from the middle path if there is such a person who shares the love, in the form of vibrations of the whole God. Only that person can only fill the space, which goes in middle of a human being. In reality there are a few people like this, there were few, now we will say that there are many who have become like this. Only these people can be called realised, through which the Chaitanya power flows. When these people who are realised, give realisation to you then you will not see any manifestation of kind people tell about Kuṇḍalinī. It is only so-called phenomena that this type of thing happens. Now thousands of people have got their awakening in front of us. In Bombay [Mumbai] at least 10,000 people have got their awakening and three to four thousand have been realised. But we have never seen any man enduring this kind of difficulty. Yes of course somewhat resistance, as described by them, may occur because as we are loving you some one might be hating you and might be residing in you. That surely may shake your body a little bit, may give you some trouble but that also get destroyed soon and run away. Because when it sees that love is coming here then it also [UNCLEAR]. Like how the darkness run away after seeing the light. That also run away. But so far now we have not seen any man getting pimples or abscess in him or he has gone mad. It is true. Just a few days back we went somewhere. There was a gentleman who was sitting pointing his legs towards Me. He was told not to sit like this. Then he replied that kindly allow me to sit like this otherwise I will jump like a frog.

Somebody asked him, “Why?" then he said, “My Guru has told me that when your Kuṇḍalinī rises then you start jumping like a frog." Then we told him that you have not yet got your awakening and job of your awakening is very difficult. Because in the middle Nāḍī of Suṣhumnā, there is a space and apart from that there are two other Nāḍīs built within us which are called sympathetic nervous system. We call them Iḍā and Piñgalā. Because of exhaustion of these Nāḍīs only all things do happen. And whatever work you do in the name of God, that time that heat comes in you. In other words to say if you put on heater without filling it with water then what will be the condition of it [heater]. First let there be flow of water of love. Unless and until there is addition of water of love in it, no work can be done. In the same way when we try to do anything or act in the name of God without achieving him and his power, that time our sympathetic nervous system starts running either Iḍā or Pi fingalā. By movement of either Nāḍī, by increasing your acting power, your power are finished. If your Iḍā Nāḍī runs excessively then you may get terrible disease like cancer. What you call as over activity. And if your Piñgalā runs excessively then your conditioning will increase. All the things what you call as bhoot, badhas, etc. will enter in to you. Both of these activities are considered to be prohibitory. But when you become just that then you just do not act. Like a mike, what it is doing except for it is enabling My voice reach up to you. In the same way you become a hollow thing. You become a hollow personality through which this power flows on its own. Because of this hollowness, Kuṇḍalinī residing in you gets established. Kuṇḍalinī is your mother. Mother is already sitting in you. It means that you are already sublimated. Many people say that we have to sublime sex, it is a very absurd thing. You are already sublimated. You have no question of sublimation. You are already placed somewhat higher and those people who have this kind perception they are themselves insulting their own mother. And this is why in these people Kuṇḍalinī do not rise but surely her anger, the anger of Kuṇḍalinī start running on your sympathetic and suffering from excessive heat people get mad.

You must have heard of Kriya, Yoga, etc. there are similar things which people do. Now there are people who do jap-tap. Jap-tap is also a thing of outside. You cannot do anything in the name of God. To the extent you can say that you cannot do any living work. Man in his illusion thinks that `I do something'.

Cats and dogs do not think that way. We can only do what is a dead work. For example, when a tree falls you make pillar out of it and even it. All the dead things not a single thing is living. Electricity and light, etc all these powers that you know are gross power. None of these is a living Shakti. You just cannot do any single work means that you cannot make a fruit out of a flower. You cannot make a tree out of a seed.

But man remains in illusion and thinks that `I do everything'. But you cannot say that you do not do anything in front of the one who does millions of work. If you wonder that there is a heavy magnet which is very powerful and in front of that you are just a small magnet. What can you do to pull that towards your side, except that to finish the magnet in you? Just this is the job.

A human being just cannot do anything and he does not. He is in illusion to think that he does.

Because there is manifestation of ego and super ego. This manifestation creates an illusion in human being that he has to do something. In reality God has made you for his own. We are image of God. For example the power which is flowing in us that is being worked out through these fingers. All these fingers are seen to us in a form of body. Means gross we are in his gross form which want to work out through us. That is in the form of Shakti. He knows all the things. He does all the thing. He does all the planning. He know minute to minute things. But he is formless. He is working out within ourselves in form. There is no fight between form and formless. When you come to Kuṇḍalinī then you will be surprised to find that no religion has any fight against any religion. Yes, if there is Adharma then there will be. Jesus has once said that “those who are not against Me are with Me." How great thing He has said that those who are not against Him, are not against Chaitanya, are all with Me only. This you can see in your Kuṇḍalinī that your Kuṇḍalinī revalues in God knows how many rounds. You might be in your previous life be a Muslim, at least it should be acceptable to those Hindus who believe in previous birth. It is possible that you might have been a Chinese. The thing that you hate might be what were in your previous life. Because that time you used to hate, so it is possible that you have now got what were hating, this is not to be [the] case.

Even if you are theistic or believer, God is there. By believing him or not, he is not going to get erased and after all who are we to erase him. If this finger believe or not, there is powers in it. It does not matter to him and to believe him or not it does not mean anything. All it needs is that the power must keep running through it, the one who is connected to brain. Whatever it is telling, whatever it is creating to do through it, it should keep doing that only. In this case there is a beautiful example of Rādhāji. There are many worshipper of Rādhāji that is why I am willing to talk of Rādhāji. Once, Rādhāji got jealous of flute. She asked Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa what is so special about this flute that you always keep this flute near your mouth. Then he replied that you better ask this question to flute itself. She went to ask flute that what is your speciality that you are always attached to his mouth. Then the flute replied, “Oh, madam, you do not even know that I have nothing special, that's what is My speciality. I have become totally hollow. That is why he made me play. If ever I stand then his whole melody will go in waste. I have become completely hollow." Then Rādhāji asked Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa that “You make Me your flute in My next birth." In the same way we have become hollow. But by becoming hollow does not mean that you would miss doing your job. Many people say that they have no responsibility. In reality there is no responsibility of yours. But people say that we do not have any responsibility. Because they are sitting in misunderstanding [are all confused]. Like we are sitting under this roof and these pillars are supporting this roof. But if any senseless person is there, he will unnecessarily hold it by touching the pillar. But the one who is sensible [knowledgeable] he knows that there are pillars to support the roof. Then who are we? In the same way till there is ignorance man thinks that he is going to do all things and such work to be done [not understood clearly]. And if I get into this trouble then I will become Sādhu, Sannyāsī, saint, etc. and I would not be able to do any work. In reality you cannot do otherwise also unless and until you are beyond thoughts and because the power inside you is so unique, so deep and so powerful that as soon as that start flowing in you, there is addition of glory to you, in your conversation, in everything you show skill [excellence] within you. People will be amazed to see how did it happen. Now here is Miss. Maniklal. I am telling her example. That since she is realised after her awakening, from her writing such things are coming that she herself says that I think, I am just not writing, what is happening. Those people who could not even write a simple poem, after this [realisation] they start doing such and such poems. There was a girl, simple artist absolutely simple. She used to play with colours sitting in her home. After that when she became realised, there began the exhibitions of her work and she earned millions more.

You imagine if there is a politician, the time when he become a witness, then he could see whole thing and apart from that when you are there in his refuge, when you believe in him completely, his thousand hands are there around you. Angles start hovering you. You do not understand how the things are being worked out, how people come, how things are being done, how things come around end [how the entire work has been done]. Such wonderful things start happening that a man gets surprised that how things have worked out, how that thing has worked out.

But the vision of man must not be on that, what we will gain out of it. Many people say that kindly awaken our Kuṇḍalinī so that power will come in us. In reality you become completely powerless because your Kuṇḍalinī becomes powerful. The power of God gets flowed through you because you are surrendered to him becoming completely powerless. The essence of whatever has been described in all the religion is only one and is to know thyself and to know this there is only one way that is Sahaja Yoga which may be called as spontaneous growth what happen spontaneously.

Buddha only got it from Sahaja Yoga. He was wandering thousands of places here and there and one day while he was laying, getting tired his Kuṇḍalinī said that my son is too much tired, somehow to give him realisation. That very moment the rays came down to his head and stopped and from below the Kuṇḍalinī strike down his Sahasrāra and got his realisation. Nobody has ever got realisation [UNCLEAR] Sahaja Yoga. The only thing is that for example to come to 4 Dupley lane we had to go to Hazrat Ganj, then we left that place in Delhi.

Then we left here Lucknow to shift to Delhi. The all had roaming in Delhi, went here to there, then somehow from that place people told us that Gentleman, this the same thing. He is sitting in you, where are you going to? So we [UNCLEAR] us going here and there then went to Japan and then to China then after travelling there met here. There was a mess in that travelling that [UNCLEAR ap...] caught hold of. But the one who has got it he is mostly established in a Samādhi. The best example of this is Śhrī Gñyāneśhwara when his Kuṇḍalinī was awakened he wrote the sixth chapter then he got his awakening and when he was realised by that time his Gyāneshwari was completed. That time he took to Samādhi.

Because when you got it then your entire quest is [UNCLEAR w|less]. This is what [UNCLEAR] so better take Samādhi. The entire quest is lost but nothing is lost. As soon as a man starts seeking he reaches to a condition in which he has to get, receive Kuṇḍalinī along with firm standing [UNCLEAR re,everything]. A man first seeks in money; seek in possession, after that he says that there is nothing in this junk like what is in America. Then his Kuṇḍalinī says [UNCLEAR] and he gets his birth. Then he seeks power, he wastes it then says what is there in it. Then he seeks in religion [dharma is also outside].

All our religious [UNCLEAR m|gone] out, nobody knows the religion of inside. The entire thing is that of inside. But the methods are of outside. That is why he seeks outside; in religion also he makes Guru, makes friendship, goes to temple asks for God. But the essence of all the religion is to get it. Those who are realised, all such Gurus like Guru Nanak; he says that, “Sahaja Samādhi lago, Sahaja Samādhi lago." He says, “why to go to forest when all is residing he is within us." Just like that God is also, seek within seek within. [UNCLEAR].

Now, we are singing, we cramming, `Ghat hi khojo bhai' [seek within, seek within]. It is just like if a doctor has prescribed Anakin for your headache and you are cramming, `take Anacin, take Anacin,' but when will you take it? If the patient will not take it, then how his headache will go. By seeking within means that to get established inside, to get lost in it.

It happens spontaneously when your time comes [arrives] and time of thousands of people has come.

All those of who are sitting here you know your previous birth; it is the seeking of thousands of years which has brought you here. Because of that you got your own right. We are just not doing anything. For example you go to a bank and you get your money by giving your cheque. They have to give you money, otherwise where will they go? If we do not give you your Self-realisation where will we go? We have to give, because it is your fundamental right. Whatever you do, you do it in your authority. If you don't have desire, unless and until you have that authority, no work will be done without your desire. But one thing we must understand that are we coming from the real or unreal. Your Kuṇḍalinī knows you. She knows all of you, everything about you. But she respects your freedom that when in your freedom the day when you decide that we want absolute that very day your Kuṇḍalinī will rise, your Sahasrāra will open, we do not want anything else. We have to ask only the absolute thing. We do not want anything of body and nothing else. We know ourselves in the refuge of the same Almighty Father, Param'ātmā (God), Parameshwar. The one, who have decided it, has become realised. If you have any question about your Kuṇḍalinī you may ask Me. The subject of Kuṇḍalinī is very large. There are two to four people who have come with us and are such realised that they have reached a state where they give realisation to others.

Once you are realised the Kuṇḍalinī dances through your glances, through your glances. You yourself will realise it you will raise the Kuṇḍalinī of thousand people just like this.

These are very simple type of people, normal people. You will not come to know about their power that how powerful they are. But just by their one glance their Kuṇḍalinī will rise and these people will become realised. A very big task can be achieved when thousands of such people are ready. And a new lane will be ready, a new type of people, a new type of institution, those who have achieved it from within, not from the great hypocrisy, not by money. Those who have got it only from inner distress

(ārtata) and their dedication towards God, their age will not be less than 90. The one who in witnessed state, whatsoever is lane be, however power he has, but he never gets his ego. He will not have ego because whenever he gives he says that it is going through me, this is happening, they are not being worked out, they are worked out. Even if it is your son, you cannot say that he has become realised. When he gets it, then it is known that it has been done. Such vibrations start coming from inside. You also get vibrations. And if you say forcefully, kindly give realisation to such a fellow then it is just not possible. No recommendation can be considered. No politics can be considered, no pressure can be considered, no relation, no money can make it happen. Whatever falsehood which can be called as myth cannot hold it. Truth is what it is and it works out. Any work, any program, any method cannot change it. It works out automatically. But still you should keep an eye on your mind that an ego in human being is so gig, so subtle, as soon as I say that there is nothing to be done he gets shocked [dazzled]. If I say that you stand on your head then he does it. But the thing, which is free to get and which is achieved without any effort, human being just don't believe. Because he has a great faith in his ego and he does not know ego of God that if he moves his finger he can change the vision of the whole creation and if he wants that he can lit the lamp in the small, small particles of this creation. If you have any genuine questions then ask otherwise we will experiment by going in slight meditation because unless and until there is experience till that time all the conversation remains a mere conversation and what is there in conversation.

Contents: 1973-12-07*, Public Program (Hindi), Day 1, Sahajyog ki Utapatti, Birla Kreeda Kendra, Mumbai, India

Love does not have any language, so there are no words to describe love. When our mother loves us, how can she describe her love. Similarly, when God Almighty loves us and created this universe, He had no words to describe His love. When a human being has prepared their instrument, that's when they can begin to praise God.

I have not been given a particular subject for discussion today by the organizers of the program as we have three days to fully understand everything. Today I will talk about evolution. What I say will be hypothetical. All science experiment[s] begin with a hypothesis. Hypothesis means whatever is the discovery of science, that assumption should be presented to the audiences. And the truth within that hypothesis is researched. The day that hypothesis is proven, that's when it is considered a law of science.

Similarly, what I say is hypothesis to you that can be proven and shown to you all. Also all that has been documented and observed in the historic documents that can prove this hypothesis. But the proof should not be in accepting what is being said in documents or by certain someone. It should be experienced.

Today I will talk about evolution. It is the day of `Pratham' and we will state the relationship of this day with Sahaj. It is said about Brahma that it is beyond evolution. What we consider awareness, Brahma is separate from that. Vibrations are a form of Brahma. Whatever there is, is a form of Brahma.

Just like a seed manifests itself into a tree and all parts of a tree and then that tree ends up being a seed again. Similarly, Brahma manifests itself in a number of forms and then again transforms into a seed and unlimited number of Universes evolve with that seed. Just like a plant seed, you can consider seed of Brahma too, we can call it Seed of Brahma (Brahma bīj). Every seed has a certain power of evolution.

Every seed is comparable. Similarly, the power of evolution of Brahma is known as Brahma and power of Brahma.

Why did God Almighty have to create this universe when He is complete in Himself? How much ever a human being may be rich or accomplished, he is not satisfied until he produces an offspring. They think who is all this wealth for? There are a number of very rich people in the world but are childless. They try very hard to have at least one child to whom they can pass on their gathered wealth and reveal it to their child. In the same manner, when feeling of love took birth within God Almighty, the powers flowing in Him gathered and got founded as Brahma or Ādi Shakti.

So, what remains in the middle out of this process, is God. These scientists tell me that they do not believe in God. You may not believe in God, but you trust your heart. What is it that resides in your hearts? What resides in your heart is God. The one who is God Almighty is a reflection of spirit and resides in our heart and is our continuous witness.

He is a witness to every deed of ours and is watching everything. He is the soul, also described by words such as spirit, spiritual and as human spirit when he takes birth. The one who resides as a witness in our heart is God Almighty, His power, in the beginning as Āgñyā power, is equipped to begin the creation of the universe. At that time, three forms of transformation come in that power or it transforms itself into three forms. First, it gets the desire that I should have an offspring, a creation. Due to this desire, she embeds `tamo Guṇa' within Herself. I have described this to you before as to how it takes place and what direction does it goes into. There is no blackboard available right now to explain this flow in a diagram to you at the moment. This desire is critical to the set up of Valaya of Tamo gun.

All of Valaya moves with the bindu matra power of Āgñyā. You will be surprised to know that a bindu when revolves to its original position, its Valaya is parabolic. Einstein says every moment is parabolic.

You must have noticed in Temples of Shiva, that the power of shiva is parabolic in shape. Per Einstein anything that moves, it moves in parabolic direction. Similarly, one cay say that love also moves in parabolic direction. And Valaya also moves in parabolic direction i.e. where it starts from, it returns to the same position. That's what parabolic movement is. In that sense, we can say that first Valaya shape created Tamo Guṇa in the universe. Like a fan has three blades. Same way if you can imagine, first parabolic movement was started. Second, when you desire something then an event has to take place for that.

Some work had to be done. Without some work it could not happen. Thus some activating forces took birth that founded Rajo Guṇa. Due to second parabolic movement, Rajo Guṇa were founded. Along with that the event that took place, was that of desire that all love should be showered over the creation. Showering love on your creation, offspring, is revelation and this is what creates Sattva Guṇa.

So you can see that one thing only creates these three Guṇas. Such permutations and combinations is what creates this universe and within that earth gets created. Creation of earth also took place out of parabolic movement. Now if you study under Sciences, then theory of explosion is well founded in people's mind. A decade ago, I also used to say that an explosion had taken place. Without explosion, this evolution of ours could not have taken place. This state of evolution has been brought by multiple explosions. But people now have started saying that a certain mass exploded in an unexpected manner and resulted in different systems like Solar system etc. Today Science is saying the same thing. Upon creation of earth, another explosion took place that brought life on earth. As you know, the very first living beings were small one celled. After that, slowly we reached the state of being a human being. We don't have to go into details of evolution. But if you think more deep into that topic, one well known biologist named Udua has written that if human being was formed out of root, then how is it possible that it took such a short time for living beings to take human form. This was not by chance. This type of creation does not take place just like that. There was a force behind it, someone was doing this work.

Someone was giving pace to this evolution and taking care of it and was leading it. Without which leave alone human being even amoeba could not have taken birth in this universe. This is called law of chance in Science. These biologists do not say God but they say we do not know of a human but must be a force that has created this universe. Even saying this much by them is good enough. Now that human being Is standing up and is looking at the universe they find themselves different from all animals. It is hard for us to imagine that how different we are from animals.

It is surprising to believe that we have evolved from animal stage to human. But it is not hard to believe this if you think we can never reach moon via airplane. About 25-30 years back we could not even think of going towards moon. Even if anyone used to think like that, people used to laugh at them. It used to be considered impossible. Today if man has reached the step of moon, it is also a step towards evolution.

You may have noticed, the spacecrafts launched in space have four types of explosions set in them. First explosion takes them to a certain distance, suppose their speed is 10,000 kms. Second explosion increases their speed about ten times. Third explosion increases the speed to another ten times. Fourth explosion increases the speed to yet another ten times. If these explosions would not take place, then with the same initial speed the spacecrafts can never reach the moon. Same thing has happened in the evolution of man kind, to reach a progressive state of evolution a forceful explosion took place. That's how human being has reached a state in a very small period of time, in a surprisingly short period, where he can learn a lot and understand a lot. But he still has to learn a lot more. As I had said before, the beat (spandan) in our hearts that's taking place, what is causing it. If you ask this question of doctors, of any well educated reputed doctors, they will all have one response that it is caused by a system which we call autonomous nervous system. Mankind is not able to go beyond this. They have been only able to name this phenomenon. If we ask how is our state functioning, then they will say there is an organization called Government of India which is doing the work. This is not a very scientific response because this answer does not explain what this organization is, how it functions and how it executes. Just giving it a name has not answered the question. But science has not evolved to give a name to a phenomenon but to explain how this evolution, this universe, this genesis, all this took place. Weather science reaches that goal or not, you all can reach there. Viewpoint of science is very analytical. As you know, there is one doctor for one hand and there is a different doctor for the other hand. It is very hard to get all comprehensive knowledge from science.

Like we see a tree and all the flowers on the tree.

Some people say this flower colour should be yellow, some say this flower colour should be blue. Only if one reaches the source of it all, they can explain the behaviour of the tree, why are the flowers different colour, why are leaves different from each other, because you have got the root of the subject.

Here in Mumbai, when we talk to people, they say Mother people do not have food here, there is no sugar available, what are you talking about God. This is right for people to say. People say, what are you after during such periods. But if you think for a moment, why is this all happening that in your country there is not enough ration to feed public. In America, people are committing suicide, running away from their homes, going mad. Where is there is no human crisis. If you talk to anyone in the world, it will seem like everyone is in grave difficulties. Whether people have food or not, children or not, there is not one single happy person in the world. If food makes people happy, then I don't see people with full stomach happy either. What is the reason that they are breaking down, disintegrating slowly. The reason is that if the tree becomes too big and expands a lot in outward direction, but does not catch on and gets in touch with its own source and roots then it starts to disintegrate. It is important that we know where we get all the energies from and research the source from which we take the energy. Until we reach the source of that energy, each and every human being, every country, it will all disintegrate. This world will have to come to an end. The one that gives origin, vitality, one that is Chaitanya itself, until we discover it we will all become devoid of awareness (Chaitanya), we will be as good as dead. The world will come to an end.

So you can understand how important it is to find that power that is going on in our hearts as heart beats. And it is an onus on us, our responsibility to know what it is. This heartbeat with all of you is working our digestion, our respiration.

So go and find out what is this power. Otherwise the whole universe, this creation of God will come to a standstill and this responsibility lies with the mankind. It is only the human today who is is standing at the edge of the universe. Today humans have this power within themselves that they can learn about. Animals like dogs and cats cannot understand that. Shall I have to go to the forest to the dogs and cats and suggest them to learn about their power? It is you all that I have to tell again and again that the power that is responsible for our life, you must get to know it. And you see the result of not being familiar about this power. There is no peace for humans. They go to forest, leaves homes, leave this world, but there is no peace for them, there is no joy. Their power is going weak, they are struggling. Simply it can be explained that the fuel that has been filled in you, the fuel of the power that has been filled in you that power is going to guide you. Using one's execution ability one should work this power. if the fuel filled within you is not utilized then that instrument is wasted. It is important. But to refill the fuel process is not available. When a child turns three years of age, then the opening to fill the fuel is closed. And the way that fuel is being filled within him is broken down. This power is called the energy of Kuṇḍalinī. You must have read and heard thousand of things about the energy of Kuṇḍalinī. But I believe that very few people have knowledge of this energy. Reading whatever has been written, writing by copying what has been written, is no real writing. If you come join our meditation program, we will show you the movement of Kuṇḍalinī within you. Below the spine, in a triangular bone resides the Kuṇḍalinī. You can see it, we are not talking in air baselessly. Its movement, its rise and coming down, you can witness it with your hands. A number of doctors in our country and a number of psychologists have got their realisation i.e. they have been able to feel this energy. They accept this fact. But who listens to them, who even listens to me. May be in another ten years, if this concept comes from America then we will pay attention to it. Because it is hard for us to believe that anyone can do something like this. How can a simple housewife do a work like this? In reality, since childhood I could see Kuṇḍalinī and knew everything about it. But I used to not understand why is human the way he is. Why does he think as if he is Shivaji Mahārāj while watching theater. Why does he forget that he is playing a theater. Little children create their games and they play them and then throw all that away. No one gets attached with those games. But here we are who think any game is our own game.

Little children make homes in their games and break them. But we play this game and consider ourselves attached to this game. Little children make a play house and then leave it, create something else to play with then leave that too. Children come to our meditation program and ask Mātājī why are you playing doctor game. They think this whole world is a game. Why is it that when we grow up we do not take this as a game. What is there to get so serious about it. I will tell you an interesting event.

Some people were travelling by plane. They carried some weight on their heads.

So someone asked them why are you doing that. They replied very seriously that they are trying to reduce the burden of the plane. This is what we are doing. In reality, we have no work. We don't have to do anything, just like work of this microphone is to take my voice to you. but if the microphone starts thinking that it is its own job to speak, then I have a problem with that.

So if microphone starts speaking, then my voice will come to an end. We don't specifically do anything, like if these fingers think and one finger thinks that I am special and I have to do something special. This finger is associated with the body and is running on the same energy as the body is. It is a part and parcel of the body, just a body part. To think of this finger as separate, we are all running on the same energy. It is possible that this finger has been exchanged, same way we have been exchanged or have moved away from this power. All these lights here are being lighted by the same energy.

It is possible, that one light bulb is taken out and is attached to a battery separately. But the battery is also charged by the same electricity. May be it is possible, that you all have separated yourselves taking your own energy. There are two types of energies flowing in a human being, with one he fills it and with the other he expends it. And two organizations called ego and superego develop and cover his whole being.

And that is why he gets separate from this all pervading energy. This is what I need to open within you.

AS soon as it gets open, you get to know this energy and you are experience peace within. Not just that you get peace, but also get patience, you are completely relaxed.

It is very important. And what is important, that does take place, it has to take place. For example, when we see an object falling, we tend to prevent it. Similarly, to stop collapse of this world, God almighty has invented Sahaj Yoga. Sahaj Yoga is not produced by me. No finding is ever done by us anyways. Just like the finding of gravity, it is not produced by us, the gravity was always there. We only discovered it.

What is within you and what is your birth right, I have identified it. You can have it. And to find it, I have spent a lot of time. And now it has been found. This knowledge will need to be spread all over.

Spreading this knowledge will take away all your problems away. Especially today's youth, seeing them you all are perplexed that what has happened to them. As if there is no control on them, something has to be done for them. There is no other way to fix them other than Sahaj Yoga. In children, Sahaj Yoga works very fast. Children get it unusually fast. Whenever I have made this arrangement in schools, I have seen that 80 percent of children get it right away. Same small children, when they go to high school, it takes them longer then. This percentage comes to 60-70 in that age group. But college going kids in India, who knows what are they made of. It is very difficult for them.

Some universities invited me and the Vice Chancellors of those places come and tell me Mātājī, please do something or we will be shamed.

These children are like monkeys and you have to fix them. I say why leave on me, they go no we cannot do anything now. They say no we won’t do anything. These children have really reduced themselves to low level. Hippyism has entered America but it is to come here too and you have to be careful about that.

To ignore that problem is not going to solve the issue. If you think about the progress of your country and that of other countries too, then remember that the whole responsibility lies on the youth. They will have to be corrected via Sahaj Yoga. Sahaj Yoga means God Almighty's love. And only a realised person can do it. The one who is laden by this love and within who this energy is flowing can do this work. Those in Sahaj Yoga will get realisation, they are the ones in the end to achieve this. But there are very few people. You will be surprised that after working hard for five years in Mumbai, in reality there are about 1,000 realised people only. With a lot of difficulty and that too have not reached there. And out of those there are eleven people who are able to give realisation to others. People get their self realisation very quickly in America but there style is different/unique, they change Gurus on a daily basis. One need to measure its depth, we do not know how critical it is, how urgently it is needed we do not understand that.

The moment we understand it will be a fortunate moment not just for us but for the whole universe. I will continue to appeal, I will continue to say as a Mother will continuously remind her children, but the children should feel the hunger themselves. If they do not have an appetite then, Mother can run around them and plead them as much as she can.

Those who get their self realisation and are equipped with this power, they never have to face any disease. And even if it comes they can cure it, because they are given the knowledge as to how to cure which disease and how. This energy, spiritual awareness flowing in your hands, as these has been called even by Ādi Shañkarāchārya in his books. But no one is reading those books any more these days. With these vibrations, you can do good for others too while doing good for yourselves. These people become disease free and they make other disease free and get longevity. And not just longevity, but they achieve joy and happiness. And on top of that they achieve collective consciousness, which has not been felt and learnt about by anyone thus far. People do not know what collective consciousness is. Lots of people have talked about Collective Consciousness but nothing specific or clear. When you go into meditation, that's when you will understand what we mean by Collective Consciousness. What it means is that we can understand other people vibrations, we can understand the movement of others Kuṇḍalinī, when we raise someone's Kuṇḍalinī with our love we also understand the blockages in its way and remove them.

Sitting here you can see Nixon's Kuṇḍalinī. It sounds surprising but yes you can see it. That way you can understand what trouble he is in, what his blockage is and where the vibrations are stopping. It is not a biased assessment, that you don't like someone or hate someone, when you are removing someone's Kundalini blockages and remove their obstacles, they will only get well being. It will be only for their good.

There is no better voluntary service or social service out there. Because while doing this the person does not think that this hand is doing something good for the other hand. It is an automatic phenomenon that if one hand gets hurt, the other hand raises to make it feel better.

What is Sahaj Yoga, what is its meaning, how to progress with it and how to get into it. I will be explaining all that tomorrow. The preface given to you today is that there is no salvation in the world without Sahaj Yoga. All the other Yoga methods out there, whatever they could achieve but they cannot help you attain salvation. If the world has to get its salvation, then one has to embrace Sahaj Yoga. That is the path to God Almighty, He is the one who is doing this work all you have to do is to know it. Only thing is Sahaj Yoga works with your freedom. If you do not embrace it completely, from within, it will not work. There was a gentleman who asked me to give him realisation. He came and stayed with me for four days. But he did not get it. He was perplexed that regular, simple housewives can get it then why not him. He said why am I not getting realisation.

So I said to him that the reason you are not getting realisation is not me, but it is you. I am making efforts to give you realisation but it is not because of me that you are not getting it.

So he asked me then what is the reason for it.

So I said the reason is that you have to develop that love from within. You have to have that feeling towards yourself too. The day you develop that love you will yourself get the realisation. Then he took his bath at 4:00 a.m. and sat for meditation and got his realisation. It seems like a wonderful and unique thing because it is a wonderful thing. It’s not that wonderful things do not happen in the world. It should be adopted. One should not doubt about it or be suspicious about it.

Today we have talked from Evolution to human being. Now where does human have to go forward from here. But despite our saying and indicating to direction, the work is not proceeding forward. Weather you have this need within you or not, you have this desire in you or not or are you still lost in something nonliving. A lot depends on that.

Tomorrow we will discuss what is in Sahaj Yoga, what do you achieve in Sahaj Yoga, these topics in detail. People were of opinion about today's program that without meditation there is no value of Shri Mataji's program, which is true also. Meditation should take place. Those who would want to meditate and achieve this, can stay back. Shortly, we will have meditation. After meditation, we will also see how many people can actually achieve it. Tomorrow a meditation program has been scheduled for 9:30 a.m.

You all should attend that. Both those who get realisation today and also those who do not get it today, should attend that program because we should devote some time to the God. We do not give any time to God. We go to Cinema and sit there for three hours but how many hours do we go towards God. Time we give to God is when we are doing something, when we are performing a Pūjā, or remembering him. There is no value of those things. First let your connection get established with God, without any connection who are you inviting and who are you remembering.

Whoever wants to stay for meditation, please stay back for a little while. Those who do not wish to meditation, please leave now as it is not a good idea to disturb others during meditation because these people are seeking God. We should respect them.

So you should not get up and go during meditation.

Meditation will take about 20-25 minutes. Those who have got their realisation, can sit towards the back.

Contents: 1973-12-09*, Public Program (Hindi), Day 3, Śhrī Dattātreya Jayanti, Birla Kreeda Kendra, Mumbai, India

Today is Śhrī Datta Jayanti [birthday]. Today is a very great day. I think this day has come only because of His blessings that Sahaja Yoga has been blossomed in you people. The Guru of all the Gurus, Ādi Guru Śhrī Datta Mahārāja. I bow to him, He is My Guru also. He has taught Me quite enough on Sahaja Yoga all through My many births. And because of that only I have been able to do some work in this birth also, continuing to do.

“Gurur Brahmā Gurur Viṣhṇu Gurur devo Maheśhwara, Guruh sākṣhāt Parabrahma tasmai Śhrī Guru dev namaḥ." The Guru is Brahmā [creator], Viṣhṇu [sustainer] and Maheśh [destroyer] and the Guru who is himself God, I offer My obeisance to him.

By the time Ādi Shakti created the universe, after creating the entire universe, like how a King spread out his kingdom and comes to see the world thereafter in a disguise, in the same way Ādi Shakti has also incarnated on this earth many a times. But no matter how supreme is Ādi Shakti she still needs a human Guru. The place of man is still superior to that power.

If Shakti has to take form of a human being then she is required to come on this earth only after having achieved Her father sometimes Her brother sometimes and Her son sometimes. First of all try to understand that entire universe was created by Brahmā, Viṣhṇu and Maheśha. At that time a thought came in Ādi Shakti's mind to lift people out of the world, who were stuck in it and that if these three principles [Brahmā, Viṣhṇu, Maheśha] were to be combined together somehow and the childlikeness and innocence of Śhrī Gaṇeśha could be absorbed by it then it is possible to form a Guru from them who has to do a great task.

She [Śhrī Ādi Shakti] was incarnated in the form of sati Anasūyā. This is the only such a sati [a chaste woman faithful to husband] in the whole world who has thought of emancipation of the human beings.

This is a very great thing. These three children came to Anasūyā. The meaning of Anasūyā is the one who is void of envy; she does not envy anyone, who is the universal love. In such a person there is no place for insignificant, petty thoughts such as jealousy, anger etc. The one who does not have any asūya –'envy' she is Anasūyā.

It is said that these three went to her door to examine her. And that moment she used her tejbal [powerful radiance], what was this tejbal; this was the love of mother, very much Divine, love of a powerful mother. This tejbal fell on them and they became small children. Their complete unified form is Śhrī Datta Mahārāj. He is a strange majesty, whatsoever description is made of him but will fall short.

And even if this is made to be explained, it will be beyond explanation. This is Śhrī Datta Mahārāj who is full of triguṇa [three attributes].

He came in the world in form of Ādi Guru many times to teach how to cross the Bhava-sāgara [void].

Yesterday I have told you that we fight in the world by forming many religions. The same Śhrī Datta incarnated many a times on the earth. As I told you yesterday, King Janaka was one of them. King Janaka was the father of Janakī [Śhrī Sītā]. He was none other than the incarnation of Śhrī Dattātreya.

Thereafter, Macchindranāth, most have you must have heard his name, was also His incarnation. After that Zoroaster who came three times on the earth, he was also His incarnation. After that Mohammad Sāhab, who was His incarnation. And when he was asked that, “Bhai [Brother] there must have been others also before you” then he replied, “Yes, there a Mohammad." Then again he was asked who was before him. He replied, “There was one Mohammad." Mohammad means Praise, the one who is praised, the one who deserves to be praised and is the one who is redeemer of the world. They were all Mohammads, they were all Dattātreyas, who came on earth regularly.

After that Nanaka, Guru Nanaka. If you ever read his teachings, if you read his talks then you will be surprised that he has always talked in a Sahaja. He has said “Sahaja Samādhi lago." He has said, “kahe re ban khojan jayi, sada niwasi sada alepa tohe sang samai, Pushpa madhya jo was basat hai mukur mahi jas chhayee, taise hi hari base nirantar ghat hi khojo bhai", why to go to forest to find Him, He is always there with you just like there is a fragrance in a flower and just as the reflection is there in a mirror, in the same way God is residing in you eternally seek Him within. He is just inside, achieve him just inside.

We are just singing poem, singing songs, we are just cramming his prescription.

The talk of seeking this absolute principle, residing just inside the heart, has been made since ancient times by these Ādi Gurus, who are incarnated on this earth again and again. After the birth of the daughter of Mohammad Sāhab, as I talked yesterday also, there was beginning of the caste `Shia' in Islam.

Shia word has been derived from Sia. The word which come from Sia became Shia, Sia means Sītājī. If you go to UP [Uttar Pradesh, India] then nobody says Sītājī, they say Siaji, `Siavar Ramchandra Ki Jai'.

Everyone takes the name Sia. She was Sītājī, Ādi Shakti herself and her two sons, who were Hassan and Hussain, destroyed many evils. When they ultimately died after getting tried, then in the next birth they thought of establishment of non-violence, violence led them nowhere.

They were born as Mahāvīra and Buddha to make a new experiment. Experiments do happen. After Nanak Sāhab, around 50-60 years ago in our Maharashtra Dattātreya incarnated as Sāi Baba of Shirdi. If you want proof of it, then you get your realisation and after that if you put your hand on anyone, then you will get vibration of same kind, from just vibration only you can know about all. As you must have eyes to see any shape, its colour, in the same way you are required to feel vibrations so that you may know all the Gurus of the world and will be able to know as who is a true Guru and who is a liar, who is equal to that incarnation of Ādi Guru Dattātreya, for mere saying there are thousands of Guru in modern times.

No one become Guru just by saying of another. And by believing in him also, he does not become a Guru.

The meaning of Guru Word is very large. This must be understood. Today I want to talk on this issue, who is a Guru and who is not.

The obvious meaning of Guru means the one who is bigger than us, the one who is sitting at a place higher than us. As the water collected at a height spontaneously flows down, it is also eager to find a surface for itself and to bring everyone to its surface. You keep water to a certain height; it will be willing to [UNCLEAR] everyone. This is the very meaning of Guru. The one who is not that kind is not a Guru.

He is above us in every matter, not just in one matter. That is why we people who are wandering in street to street believing in Guru should remember that the number of Gurus is in thousands. The Guru who talks of the absolute principle is a real Guru. Those who talk of God and of God and who uplift you are real Gurus. Those who make money from you are not Gurus. Those who charge money for their speech, they can never be Gurus. Because the speech which has come from God is a precious thing, the value of which you just cannot give. The day when you give value of it then that thing cannot be of God. You cannot go and purchase God from market. Remember, today we are confronting thousands of such people who are making money in the name of God. Nothing can be bigger injustice and meanness than this. If there is any article, substance or a thing in this world which is equal to the kick of the feet of the God, then we can say that we are watching God. You see, just now there was someone who came to our house, making himself to be greatest Guru, started telling Me that, “Shri Mataji you have all kind of things in your house and you are working like a normal housewife, then how can you talk of God. I have given up this, I have given up that."

I told him that, “If you genuinely know what is renouncing, then you should also know that, from all this things whatever you think is equal to dust of feet of My lord, is even equal to the particles, then you pick up that thing, but weigh equally." He started watching here and there, saw this saw that. After that, he became embarrassed. I asked him, “Did you discover anything?" “No, no. Nothing was found equal to what was asked for". Then, I said, “Son, what actually have you given up? What have you given up whose flag you are flowing from morning to evening, wearing saffron clothes and getting head bald, you are roaming in the whole world, crying. What have you given up? Only, this stones, this soil?" In reality Sahaja Yoga is getting nurtured in normal people who are leading a household life.

Sahaja Yoga can never nurture in those who dig their flags.

Those people who live with simple spontaneous emotions, who live in majesty given by God, in his happiness and joy, live with love, only such people of middle path reach to God. You should know what is the meaning of Guru. Now those who collect money wearing saffron clothes, they can never be Gurus.

Those who had once broken bicycles are now moving in Impala [car] can never be Gurus. The one who has found God, if he wishes he can sleep on the ground and if he wishes he can sleep in a palace comfortably. For this reason I will give an example of King Janaka. Once a very great arch called Nachiketa went to the King Janaka. He was first suspicious and eager. He asked his Guru, “Why do you pay visit to him since he is a householder and also a king and then why do you bow down before him and touch his feet? He is a householder person!" Then he replied, “OK, you should go to the place of King Janaka and stay there. You know that he is called as a Videhi [beyond body], he was a dehati [a country person]." When Nachiketa lived with him then he saw that there was so much wealth, people were eating and living comfortably. The King enjoyed all type of meals; he roams and has children, such a man and how it is possible that this man should know God? Next day he told that, “I am leaving just now, I'm just leaving now. I do not have to live here." Then king said, “OK, let's go for a bath first." They went to bath in a river. He took him to Sharayu River for bath. While bathing in a river, suddenly somebody informed that, “O Lord, your palace is on fire." King Janaka said, “Let it be, just now I'm in meditation” he replied with a smile. This poor Nachiketa got little worried. After a while people told that, “All of your family member have to run away and fire is fast approaching you." Then he said, “To hell with it, now I'm in meditation." Afterwards they said that, “Fire has reached up to here and all your ornaments and clothes will get burnt." All the bodyguards also ran away. This Nachiketa whose one or two clothes were lying outside, he thought that if these too were burnt then what will happen him.

So he also ran outside. He picked up all his clothes. Even then He [Janaka] was in meditation. When he came back, Nachiketa was very much surprised. He asked, “King, do you have not any worry that had your clothes been burnt then would you have moved just in this way." Then he replied, “What is myth is going to be perished, there is no need to save it, till it is there keep it there or if it is not there then leave it." This is a true fact. Those Gurus who do not consider myth as myth then what are you going to find in them.

There is one occurrence in My in-laws family. Once there came a Barat [wedding procession of bridegroom's party] to our house. There was a demand of Dahi Wada [a fried dish dipped in sweetened curd] from them. The Baratis usually have some coquetry and during the days of winter people told them, “look in these days of winter it is very difficult to curdle because during winter evening curdling of milk is not done." But they were adamant on having Dahi Wada, get it just now. In those times there used to live a Baba [a wanderer]. He was called for and was requested to arrange dish somehow. He replied that he would do it but then would not live here anymore. It was agreed and then he closed one window then another. After some time he said “look here it is your Dahi Wada now enjoy it." People began to eat Dahi Wadas, they were all happy. But Babaji ran away. He ran saving his life just in night. People could not understand why Babaji had to run away. Next day morning people from low caste came to take remaining of food. They came and when they saw all the utensils, they began saying that who brought our pots here; these are our pots, who carried them here? The marriage was accomplished somehow that is why the girl went to her in-laws house otherwise nobody could have sent her there. The reason was that all the people had got annoyed. They started telling who brought the pots here? Our ancestors and also those of My grandfather's, did not believe in all these things, these were called Bhanamatis in Maharashtra, nobody used to believe in all these things before, that something came from above [heaven] and they ate all the Dahi Wadas.

You people should also think that does He have only one business to serve you people Dahi Wadas.

When you make anybody a big Guru that he gives Rs.200 to you then I would say if such are the donors then why not solve the economic problem? Give them all. They get you watches made in Switzerland. We will believe only if they get one made by God. This must be considered that we want to get that supreme.

But your seeking is also in these gross things, in these stones, money and wealth, that is why you consider these people as Gurus. Money is lost so is wealth. When all of your money is lost then you come to Me.

Yesterday a woman came, you saw her how she was dancing and jumping. I asked her, “Why have you come now?" She replied, “What to do, I have become like this only!" I said, “OK, people make you fool and have I opened a mental hospital? You went there to find what?" Can God be achieved by dancing and jumping? All the rules and regulations of our human beings, those people who made this laws had no idea that how disgust human beings can be? All those who have made these laws were very dignified and very auspicious people. They could just not recognize the disgust and evilness that how much a human being is entangled in filthy jobs from within. If those people come to know then new laws have to be made to catch these people, all the people. Jesus Christ was crucified by these people. That was easy. But nobody can catch these people who are plundering money from you day and night and are bent on destroying you.

And they are ready to send your kids to mental hospitals tomorrow. You should at once try to take notice of it and think what is happening. To distribute gross material in the name of God is what kind of generosity? Do you not ever think about it? In this Kali Yuga [modern times], I think the man has such a penetrative intelligence and has such a wisdom. Does he sell all his wisdom that he just could not understand, that we are running like a mad after this kind of mesmerism and enlightenment! And false assumptions and absolute myth within us, which make us, believe that we are in complete peace. We are cheating with ourselves and with others also. When you are realised then you do not have to go too far, do not have to read too much. You can understand that you are realised, there will be a sudden peace in you. I see that there are Gurus of so many people and after reaching age of 30-40 they are dying getting heart attack. It is impossible for you to get even an accident; no question of heart attack, once a little bit of realisation has awakened in you. There are many incidents like this with us. Just a day before yesterday they were telling that there was a boy who was coming in a train and the train was completely overturned, not a single person was injured in the compartment in which the boy was present and they all crossed over it. Deities should wander above you. If Divine cannot come down to you then what is the use of this realisation. Now you know our people, that how many are realised, even cancer was treated; there is nothing special about it. The only thing is that these people are not interested in curing. They are just interested in realisation. Because the joy you have got, the same joy you want others to enjoy, spontaneously.

If you have money, wealth then you wants to spend money to feed people. In the same way a realised Soul wishes to awaken others and realise them and he can do it. If there is a light entered in you then there is a no need to swear in for that. If there is fragrance of musk then there is no need for you to take a vow that there is fragrance of musk. But who is seeking musk? This should be considered first, otherwise what is the use of wandering in such pursuits? On one hand there are these people who are playing with our subconscious, with our gross awareness, with our past. I know these kinds of people. In this seeking I have seen many Guru ghantals [fraud Gurus] and I know all their tricks that what kind of condition they create and how they destroy your Kuṇḍalinī for generations. I know many such people who would tell you about your previous lives and you are mesmerized by that.

Somebody just says that I'm your husband. A woman came to Me and told Me that, “Now I have given up all of me to him." I asked her, “What! Why did you give in?" She replied, “He told Me that I'm your husband." I asked, “Your husband! You are really a big chaste woman! If you are such a chaste that you are so much blind about your dead husband then what about your living husband? Do you have no chastity towards him? And the one who is a money cheater, to whom you have given all of your jewelry because he told you that he, is your husband." Somebody was telling that, “This fellow was telling us that I am the incarnation of God, I am God Almighty." What is getting lost in saying anything in this country? It does not cost anything. We are perfect in saying lie, whatever lie can be said. It is called sigmoid personality in psychology. If you have read psychology then you can understand that psychologist have also found it about these people. And if you think that they have not found then it is no true. They are big thieves.

They just stand up and start telling any nonsense and people start believing in them. This has been said in the Bible that these kinds of people will come in the world, be careful. They claim that they are God. If they are God then there must be some powers in them also.

There was a gentleman who was telling Me. I asked him, “Why you have such an assemblage of so many women around you? What are you doing inside the room while keeping the doors closed? What kind of such things are you doing in the name of God?" Because he has tortured a woman, she was telling Me in private. I told her to go to the court and pray for the arrest of this man. Then she said, “How we can talk in the court, there will be a plague on us, we have our respect and we have family." Then I told her, “If you would not tell it in the court then how can this man be exposed?" Then I went to this gentleman and asked him, “What are you doing? Why are you committing such a sin? What will you get out of it in the name of God?" Then he told Me, “You do not know that I'm Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa?" I said, “What a thing! Your face is that of a bhoot and you are claiming to be Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. How come you are Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa?" I asked him, “How much you about Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa? The one who had destroyed the Kaliya [serpent devil] in just five years of his age, charging on his head, where is he now?" I told him in humour that if I just scratch your beard here you won't be able to get up. After that I have heard that someone got caught of his beard for half an hour and he was kept on shaking like this. I just said it in a light way.

Second gentleman started telling Me that I make woman nude because Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa also used to do the same. Just tell Me what kind of nonsense is this? Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa was a child of five years old! It was his childlike activities. How can a five year old child make women nude? He was very deep and used to do the activities of Sahaja Yoga. For a five year old boy who is elder and who is younger. Could he understand all this things at that age? He was not even five years old, less than that. Then I asked him, “If this was the case then while living in Dwarika why did he run on occasion of Draupadi cheer haran [tearing of clothes] taking with him Śhankha, Chakra, Gada, Padam and Garud. Why did he run? If he had no sense of chastity of a woman then why did he run?" On this issue that Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa [referred person] became silent.

On one hand, there is Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa who is holding a mountain on one finger and on other hand these [fraud krishnas] are just being formed in every street and market, get them where you want, whether Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa or Shivjī. Where is The Lord Shiva? Have you saved any amount of your intelligence or not, I'm surprised sometimes and very much surprised because man has reached to such a level of penetrability in his intelligence, to whom God has opened all the shell of intelligence, then why there is curtain on the issue of religion? Not only in this country but it is very sad to say that such darkness prevailing in foreign countries also.

There was another yogiji; his disciple came to meet us. He came before Me, what we saw that his Āgñyā and Nābhī Chakra both were rotated. And he was singing his bhajans. To rotate opposite means the person who is mad, when you are realised then you will also see that when a man becomes mad then his Āgñyā and Nābhī Chakra get oppositely turned.

This ill practice of Preta Vidyā [knowledge of possessing a bhoot] and Shmashāna Vidyā [knowledge of cremation ground] have been continuously running since long in our country. This is not the case where nobody knows about it, but it is sure that in view of modern education, attention could not go that side.

It is also called as Karani in Marathi. These possessed women who are often called as Devī, can come in anyone's body and we go to apply kumkum to them. Bhūts do enter them, why we cannot understand it? These all are nothing but Preta Vidyā [knowledge of possessing a bhoot] and Shmashāna Vidyā [cemetery knowledge].

There is a big science of this field, I will tell you about it sometime later if you wish, but today I'm speaking at the feet of Datta Mahārāj. This should be clearly understood that these are symptoms of great fall that we sell ourselves in the hands of others. At least try to put your intelligence alright, just jerk it. Whenever you go listen a lecture, then you just think that what this person is speaking about and what he is doing? Try to distinguish between what he is saying and what he is doing. He just cannot be a Guru. You should understand it.

If we say just now that we are this and that and tomorrow we start getting after mundane things, then we cannot be like that. I mean to say that this world is not a useless but a state of witness should at least come in Gurus. There are many Gurus who have appeared for Kuṇḍalinī. You tell Me about them.

Yesterday also I told you that God has no watch to tell you that at 4 o'clock I will raise your Kuṇḍalinī.

These are all arrangements of bhoots.

I will give you a very good example on this. There was a big doctor called Dr. Lane, who lived in London. He had done quite research and he wanted that people get cured through him but suddenly he died in an accident therefore he could not take his research to people.

So when he died, when we die, we do not die in full way, a small portion is fallen, remaining subtle body leaves slowly-slowly.

So he thought why not try, what it is like entering in some body.

So there was a Vietnamese soldier who was fighting, he entered in him and asked him to go to his son and tell him about such and such things. Now just think if Dr. Lane had to do it somehow then why he did not enter in to his son? Because he knew that there are consequences of doing this.

So he said, “Look, you narrate the whole story to my son and he will agree to it." When this soldier went to meet his son then his son was convinced. He said, “These things were known only to my father and no other person know about it and so let's open a clinic." They formed a very big organization through which they used to cure people. Other doctors also got associated with Doctor Lane. They also do these kinds of things that are being done still now.

They tell you that if you have any problem then write a letter to us. They tell that at 5 o'clock evening something will happen inside you, someone will come in you, in your psych which we call as superego. He will enter through it and work it out. They take out a bhoot and replace it with another. If there is a drunkard then his drinking will go away but he will start getting angry. This is their work. But they are simple poor fellows. Because at least they tell you that they do the work of spirit and they do not say that we do the work of God.

But in our country people just not do the work of solid bhoots but of devils and give the name of God to it. If such types of people cure anybody to some extent, then you can imagine what will be his state whose Kuṇḍalinī is damaged, where there is an injury to our mother. There is no need to go to any of these places. If not today, all of you become realised tomorrow for sure but do not go to wrong path. Once your Kuṇḍalinī is damaged then I just cannot do anything. The whole job will be finished. Those whose Kuṇḍalinī has been wronged you know about them. Amongst you many have got realisation, they know how much difficulties we have beard upon ourselves. While we put our hand on them some of them got big-big blisters on them, very big blisters have come out. And when they put hands towards Me then they get small bit of blisters and many people feel burning sensation in their hands. From Me there are Cool, Cool Breezes flowing out but their hands are burning. I'm willing to get them established in their powers but there is different kind of power which sitting in them.

Try to save yourself from these Gurus because there is no law to prevent it. If anyhow it has to be prevented then think from your intelligence that who is a true Guru, the one who give you absolute. One woman asked Me a question; it was a very on spot question. She asked Me if you have seen any realised Souls in this world, who are realised without coming to you.

There have been many and they are still now. That is why I took many of My disciples to a very great Guru, who used to live in Kolhapur, in a forest mountain. It is Gagan Gadh, seven miles away. I took them there. Today is an auspicious day, is a very great occasion there. I asked them just open your hands like this, cool-cool vibrations were coming. “Mother, who is this person here? Why he had gone to a forest?" This is also a question to think that all those great people why they live in Jungles. You have mentioned about Nityānanda, he was a great person in reality. He was such a person that when anybody used to come near him then he used to throw stones at him saying “get lost from here." The same can be said of Baba Tabbudin in our Nagpur. He was a poor guy who lived in jungle, which is now a populated area. Why these people run away to jungles? There are few reasons. You have just seen here, there were some children sitting, there hands were burning and they were doing something like this.

In the same way their body starts burning. Many poor Sādhus just have to live in water, because in your psyche, in super ego, bhoots are sitting to burn and to torture these Bhaktas. Therefore, they decide to run away to jungles. Because you don't know what are you doing? You don't understand vibrations that is why these poor people are staying in jungles to save themselves. How could they redeem themselves? Now just look at Gagan Gadh Mahārāj, it is true that he cured many people, but the problem is that his fingers moved inside like a telescope and those of feet also. The poor man lives on a tree or moves on a lion. Apart from this he cannot move anywhere. But when I reached to him, these people were with Me, he quickly recognized Me. There is no doubt about it. He has not yet seen Me in this lifetime. But from many years he knew about Me. He is elder to Me. He began to say, “Mother, I have been waiting for you for many years. Today I am so fortunate that you have come here." He is a Nagpanthi, so he is just like Macchindranāth and a very great person.

Once I went to Himālaya, there also I found a few; the same were in Haridwar, they live in many parts.

I told them the blossom time will come. I will tell you how to save your powers and how to return back the punch of these people. I am sitting, you at least come, I will cure everybody, I can tackle them easily.

Many of them have said, “Mother, we will come, we will come, surely." But poor chaps don't have courage.

Their hands and legs have been broken; they [negative people] have put blisters in them, they have burnt them, all this are work of devils.

Up till now I have counted ten demons and six demonesses who have come in this Kali Yuga. Nowadays, suppose Rāvaṇ comes here, then also he will never say that he is Rāvaṇ, he will claim himself to be God. If he will claim to be Rāvaṇ then he will be put in prison. The identity of Rāvaṇ is also that of the demons.

That too, I am going to tell you about, you will be benefited.

The man who has eyes like a cat, if you see the eyes of cat then you will understand. Many people just don't see many things. The eyes of cat, which has an eyeball inside, pupil of eye, as soon as you see it, it becomes small and in no time it disappears, it is just similar to the eyes of demons. I know them quite well. I have seen them in each and every birth. You can know them through their eyes that they are demons. Their pupil of eye just become small and disappears. This is their identification. Whether you can call them God or anything else, but they are demons. And these people have achieved many Siddhis [achievements]. This is work of our bhole Shañkarjī, what to do? They [demons] have achieved many Siddhis. As He gave one Siddhi to Rāvaṇ that when he used to speak and give lectures then something used to happen on Nābhī Chakra [of a listener] that a bhoot would sit there. Thousands of people were overwhelmed listening to his speeches. Even to this extent that nobody was ready to fight against Rāma [but] he convinced all of them.

Similarly Mahishāsura had also Siddhis. All demons have their own Siddhis. And because of their Siddhis these people always kept on suppressing goodness and light and kept on pouring darkness.

Today in Kali Yuga, the situation is quite similar and you are thinking that I have only two hands.

It is your work and it will happen through you people only. You will be surprised because deities are also sitting at one side and demons on other. Fierce battle is going on. Today when I see this scene, what are these troubles? Is this because of your thinking? No, not at all!

This devil and demons work through the Pret yoni [dead spirits] and satiate you people so that you come running in their feet. All this is the work of these people. And if you have to defeat these people, then you have to lit the light in you. If you want to enlighten it, then all have to lit a light within themselves. You yourself will become a light.

And what is surprising is, at this time God also wants that man should come on the stage, man himself should work. A man should become Param'ātmā swarūp [form of God] and becomes a superman, there be establishment of superman. A new dimension is going to come in you. But the only thing is that you should learn to take it, should learn to absorb it. It cannot be compared with the standard of intelligence as of now, because if you try to understand through the intelligence, then you can only see My hand but not unmanifested streams which are flowing from them.

Those people who are very big pandits, if they want they should read Kabīr Das, Nanakji and if possible also read Shañkarāchārya, he is the best. If you read Ādi Shañkarāchārya then you can understand what is this Chaitanya Lahari [Vibrations], I am talking about. I have not yet met anyone who has systematically said or explained about Kuṇḍalinī. You know that little knowledge is a dangerous thing. The same can be said about Kuṇḍalinī, otherwise how they could have written this kind of strange things, I do not know on what basis.

But still the witness state of human being is so high, so high that if you read Devī Bhagavat, Saptashati of Mārkandeya Swāmī then you will be surprised how deeply, in small detail they have understood this thing. The truth is unless and until you are realised anything you do is a waste. Kṛiṣhṇa has said the same thing. Kṛiṣhṇa has also said the same thing that first get him within. But those who were supposed to understand it could not understand it. He was saying to get him inside and you are saying go outside to fight. He meant that you should be a witness. It is happening in akarma [inaction] it is being done through you. You just do not do. Ego is finished and superego is finished. The one, who is a doer, is abolished. It was this, what he was talking about, but he was not listened to. He was a diplomat. Kṛiṣhṇa has his own Guru Tattwa. His Guru Tattwa is also very interesting. He was a very big politician. I used to call him an absolute, pure politician.

He was such a big politician and he knew that this is the only way to get these fools alright. When a child tries to drive a cart by attaching his horses at back then his father comes and says, “Keep whipping it, carry on, you will reach." But after getting tired when a child thinks that the horse is just not moving, then he comes to know that first put the horse in front of the cart then whip it. Therefore he said to do Karma Yoga [Yoga of action]. Now here you should notice the diplomacy of Kṛiṣhṇa. It is difficult to find a Guru like Kṛiṣhṇa. He is such a Guru that requires a lot of intensity and depth of intelligence. What I am going to tell you now, no one would have told you this so far, you listen to it. He said that you do the action and leave the fruitfulness of action to God. It is just not possible, an absolute absurd condition.

When you are doing something and you know it, then how can you leave it to someone else? You are keeping horse at back and whipping it. Secondly, He said that, “You do Bhakti ." See in it, it is very beautiful. You do the Ananya Bhakti [absolute devotion], when there is no one else then how there can be devotion? Means that when union has taken place then whom to devote? He said, “Pushpam, Falam, Toyam" whatever fruits, flowers, water you offer I will accept it. But He has said that you should do “Ananya Bhakti " [absolute devotion] while giving it.

This is absurd, because on absurdity, the mind of man will be confused then he will come to terms.

Perhaps he just did not think that man is going to learn easily. But I am a mother and if a mother has to say something she will just say it, so far as possible she will tear her throat to say what she has to say to her son. It is very different kind of heart of a mother, she could not tolerate diplomacy, `it is too late, it is high time, much has been lost, there is disturbance, there is a pile of suffering.' Now it the time has come to do this work and it is being done. You people are also achieving this thing.

Those who have found it and those who have known it, there is a program tomorrow; they should come tomorrow for the program. Those who have not yet achieved it, they should also come. We have also other places, we are trying to get permanently Bharatiya Vidyā Bhavan so that people can come there. There are many people here who are realised. You too can give realisation just after getting it. There are people who know about Chakras and have become knowledgeable and there are some who can give realisation.

The glory of India is that it is a Yoga Bhūmi [Land of Union]. Our country is the highest of all the countries of the world. The vibrations our country are highest. There is no doubt about it. And our country is the spinal cord of the entire world and the place of Kuṇḍalinī is also here, she can put the world alright one day.

But as of now, all our Chakras are caught up. The movement of Kuṇḍalinī is getting difficult. If you can get rid of your Chakras then it is possible that from this country itself this message could be sent out so that the whole world can be changed and it can stand to another, another path where there is call for Satya Yuga and Satya Yuga is going to come. This is the arrival of Satya Yuga. But now it is left on your freedom and authority whether you accept it or go for your destruction.

As diseases like cancer and things like war, all these can destroy our world. If you want you should take it with you and put the world in light and if not then darkness will arrive, if God wishes he can create thousands of conditions thinking that an experiment has failed, such he will think.

Now it is a last jump. It has to be seen that how many people dedicate themselves to it. Many-many thanks to you. Three days seminar was completed with lots of love.

So many people accept this love that is why being a mother I thank you very much. Our many children have already worked hard day and night and they have worked hard to redeem others and they should keep doing this. I bless you all for this purpose, I take My leave by giving you blessing of My love.

Contents: 1973-12-22*, Public Program (Hindi), Nagpur, Maharashtra, India

Long time ago, there came many occasions spontaneously when I had to give lectures in front of very great audience, to say before thousands of people and there was an incident in 1930 when Gandhiji did fast. My father was also a good orator, you must knowing about him, but he had to leave to home because of some important work. Everybody started telling that, “Salve Sir, if you will not give the lecture then all the people will run. How things will work?" He said, “Brother, I am simply going. Here is My daughter and I am leaving her as a bailment, I am going and I will come back then I will give a speech." But it was very late and he did not return. Everybody told that, “He has not yet come and has left his daughter as a bailment. Now what will happen? Who will give speech? And there are the people from Chitnis Park; if they become angry then they will start pelting stones." There was a gentleman sitting there, he told, “Why not ask her to give a speech?" I was asked, “Would you give a speech?" I replied, “OK, I will give." That time I was just seven years old. If there are some people of that period, they must be remembering that I gave a speech for about 15-20 minutes and I narrated the story of marriage of dolls (gudda-guddi). Now I think after so many years, I have come with new topic amongst My own people, My own brothers and sisters. Quite a bit of old memories are also coming.

From the childhood itself, the thing that I had known very well, to talk about that I never got a chance.

The reason behind it was that a person who is born on tenth floor, the one who knows about the things of tenth floor: what can he talk with those who belongs to first floor? Even if he says anything then nobody will believe. From early childhood I used to talk about it with My parents, especially with My father and used to discuss much about the religion but I saw that He too thought that these things will not be understood by anyone. For example, Mister [UNCLEAR Barin], who is a local advocate, he used to teach Me in My childhood, he too knows Me very well and My brothers and sisters and many people from here with whom My father was acquainted; I used to consider about all these people that they would not be able to understand My point. Therefore this was not the proper time to discuss these things. At least these people should reach to first floor, fifth floor then some of My talks will go in their heads. To say such a thing suddenly that make people think what a mad person is speaking, then what is the gain out of it? I was too in the same search to find out that what the problem of human being is and how it is going to be solved? You will be surprised to know that I had a great habit of meditation since My childhood.

And when we used to live at Mount Road then also, I have heard that now a very nice garden has been made, there is a temple of Mount Mary here, I used to go there and think for hours on this subject, I used to think that there is a confusion in human being, there is a problem; there is only one problem, very normal, that problem is such that the God has made this entire Universe, created entire Leelā [Drama].

Why? Just like a play is going on and a man has conceded that he has to play this play very seriously.

And I am the only one. For example, there is a man and he is told to become Shivaji and play the role of Shivaji. Now he starts thinking that I am Shivaji, myself! So, how to remove this madness? It is really a problem because all the people think that we are what we are, we are the only one! Apart from that they just cannot think that they can be different from what they are. And when he just cannot think about it then who will want to know about it? Everybody has this thinking that the play which is going on is the ultimate truth. If you ask children then children consider the whole world as a play. There was one child who used to come in our house. One day he asked Me, “Aunty, why are you playing this doctor-doctor?" They think that this also is a play: there is a speech, people come and sit and then it is all over. In reality, this is the truth.

Children know each and everything. But we people have taken untruth for truth. For example, we think that since we are born in Nagpur then we start belonging to Nagpur. Then we are born in Hindustan, India so we start belonging to Hindustan. Then we are born in Christian religion so we start belonging to Christian religion. But if you ever ask a little child, `Son, who are you? Are you a Japanese or American?' Then he will be astonished. He will be more astonished, if you ask him, `Are you a Hindu or a Muslim?' If you ask a little child, `Son, who are you?' To maximum he may say, `Mother, I am your child and who else? Have you forgotten me?' In fact we are human beings in reality; this truth we forget and we believe in what is untruth.

When the British ruled here then they were in a very great untruth that we are British and these are Indians. They had forgotten they were too human beings and these were also human beings and this is a very big truth. This truth is like that this is one finger and in the same way this is another finger, then third, fourth, fifth, all fingers of just one hand. But this hand is also a part of one body. We all are entangled in one thing, this is a great truth and this is the true fact. But if this finger thinks that I am separate and this finger tries to press other and if it tries to bite it, if my teeth start biting my legs; such things I used to see in this world. I just could not understand that how to convince these people `Look you are all one.' Therefore, it was necessary that everybody should feel that their pain can be felt by them and vice versa.

So what to do then? Because I used to feel it and I knew it.

Just now what Barin Sir [UNCLEAR] told is true. When he came to Bombay [Mumbai] he had told Me, but he did not give Me the reference. He said that, “You have such guts in giving speeches and if you are such dynamic and everything then you should come in political field. People like you should come in the political field." I told him, “Brother, please forgive me, this is not my cup of tea." When he continued to insist then I replied to him, “A circle of light is what just revolves in my mind." Because the reason was that it has been actually revolving since long, but how to convince to people that what it is that I'm seeing.

This was the big question in My mind. Therefore, I studied little bit of medical science to understand what a human being is. What is the name of this fuss? I am going to talk to you on this tomorrow.

But while seeking it I went to lots of Sādhus [sages].

Someone said you become My disciple, someone said become this, I said, “OK." There is a Sādhuji in Haridwar, I stayed with him for many days and then with many more Sādhus. Slowly-slowly I came to know that they were all frauds. They did not know anything about God. They did not know anything about themselves. They did not know about Kuṇḍalinī.

All they were looking was either money or women. They were all useless, they had no purity. They were all liars. I find it very-very rare to get a real Sādhu. Even if there is one or two, they were all staying in Jungles. Therefore, I was disappointed to know that the lie people do in the name of religion; I think they do not do more in any other thing or in any business. But the way religion is made a business, the business to make money, there can be no bigger abhorrent thing other than this.

That is why you must have heard about Jesus Christ, the one who was a big priest of peace, once took a hunter in his hand started to hit those who were having their shops near temples. In our country, those people who run their shops near temples, nobody hit them. But those who have made temples as their shops, those who are selling God in streets and those who have collected millions of rupees, earned millions of foreign exchange, by making all foul and making them mad by bhoot Vidyā, Shmashān Vidyā, Preta Vidyā [knowledge of cremation grounds and possessing dead spirit] and are looting them, there can no bigger adharma [non-religion] and pap [sin] than this. This bundle of sins just cannot be brought down from their heads. Because they just not only scratch your money, if they had to scratch your money, just take it, if you have to pick pocket; have it, there is no harm in it. Because all these things are perishable. They are going to be remained in this world, but the source of your power which is your own, which is Kuṇḍalinī, when they just spoil it, when they damage its path and debauch you by Pret and bhoot Vidyā. Then they should know that no one has taken with himself this bundle of money and nor any one will. But what will happen to them while they carry the bundle of sin? But many of them are incarnation of devils. Big-big devils, these people who have come on this earth, these devils take name of God. I have seen these people very closely and I came to know how conjurers are they, their tricks are simply tremendous. Like Sītājī; how Rāvaṇa took her away, poor Sītājī, who was Ādi Shakti incarnate, could not come to sense that this Rāvaṇa has taken her away.

The same types of great devils have come and are doing this evil work in the world. Due to this Pret and Shmashān Vidyā so much troubles and evils have come in our world. Because these evil souls are able to convert even a good man in to a unholy man. They destroy their wisdom. It is wrong to play in their hands. When we do anything with over, enthusiasm then we think we are doing right thing but when the act is over then we feel so bad and suffer: how we have become so fool to have done such a thing.

In reality, it is all Pret Vidyā, it is mass hypnotism. We are running amongst them and we do not have any idea that for small-small things we are murdering and doing mischief. These people have collected 3-3, 4-4 crores of rupees, if you go and see in their houses then you will be surprised to see that they live in big-big mansions, lives just like a great king.

Another kind of people has also come out of the world, who teaches to give up and take self-renunciation, take this and take that. In reality, they want to befool you. Has God made self-renunciation? No, the one which is not made by God cannot be spiritual. God has neither made renunciation nor has made such a strange thing to believe. Self-renunciation is a matter of inside, it does not belong to outside. There are few men who are recluses from inside whether they are sitting in a royal palace or anywhere, they are recluses, their feeling is that of a recluse.

I can say this for My father that he was absolutely a recluse by nature, extremely recluse by nature; it was just narrated by advocate Sāhab. But we have seen very closely that his generosity was to that extent that if he had anything and if anyone reaches to him and says, `Salve Sāhab, I am in big trouble and this is happening and that is happening,' then immediately he will take out his ring and give him.

One day someone told him, “Salve Sāhab, whenever we see, you start giving, at least see if he deserves it or not. This must be considered that you too have children." He replied, “Who are my children; whoever's children are they, he will take care of them" and this is the reality, the one whose children are, he has taken care of them. You know that he has not left any money for us nor he had made any will for anyone.

Such type of man also lives in this world, makes his name and leaves becoming a big man. And there is also other who collects the dirt and filth of the world in the name of religion, collects money. If by getting money a man can become happy then why I hear of movements in the countries where there is a lot of money and so much to eat.

Now I have come here for benevolence of you people: these people have got us down and told us do not go there, people will pelt stones. I said, “is this is the way, we are not giving them more or less of cereals." But see the illusion of intellect that they have left to throw stones at us. The reason is that we give so much importance to khana-peena [eat-drink]. In reality, eating drinking is not such important. Nothing is such important; here nobody is dying of hunger. If there was anyone to die, then you see in Cinema, there are thousands of people standing out to get a ticket, buying tickets in black. All the rickshaw wallas [tricycle pullers] and tange wallas [horse cart pullers] keep standing there. There is no such a case for which you are throwing stones. But all this is bhoot Vidyā. You do not know, it is just a bhoot Vidyā. All this are the symptoms of Pret Vidyā and nothing else. Otherwise a human being is not such a fool to do this kind of foolish acts.

So in this way, in whichever country there is so much affluence, where people are very rich like America.

In America, there is so much money that a simple maid servant arrives in Cadillac car.

So I used to think if there is so much of money here then why people are sad? Today she arrives in Cadillac car and tomorrow she commits suicide. I said, “Why are you committing suicide? After all, what is the matter?" In spite of so much of affluence in America the largest suicides are taking place in America. This is surprising. One evident meaning must be clearly understood that it is not just money which is everything in the world.

There is a much bigger thing than money; which we are seeking in money. What a human being is seeking? He is seeking peace and joy. He is not seeking money. He is seeking money just to get peace and joy. Peace and joy are obtained on the support of Dharma.

And the Dharma is not one of outside but one of inside, the one upon which we conceptualise. The day a human being comes to know that, what is the power behind his sustenance, the very day he becomes peaceful.

I used to tell in a humor, if we go by an airplane and we find some rustic people also travelling for the first time in an airplane, they were advised to carry less baggage. As soon as they got down to their seat, they took their baggage on their head. People told them, “What are you doing?" They replied, “We are simply trying to reduce the burden of airplane." In reality we are also reducing the burden of God, of that Divine Power, of that eternal power which has made us, formed us and the one who is going to nurture and care for us like a newborn. In the same way we are carrying his burden on us. The day when we will come to know that the one who has made us, who has nurtured us, who has raised us is our only protagonist, the very day the burden which is there on our head will instantly fall off and man will come to know that it is just a play.

As you are watching here that lots of lights are on, bulbs are on, you see here that the fans are also running; all this is happening with a power. But if any bulb thinks that I am the only one who is lighting separately and it is me who has to lighten and if I will not lit then there will be darkness all over. Then we will say to him that you are the greatest fool. But if we look at ourselves, we find ourselves to be in the same position. The day when we will come to know that there is one power which is running from inside and we are enlightened only because of the support of that power. Now the modern people say that, “Mātājī, how we should believe that there is such power, so and so." I say, “To which extent the man has gone so far? To which extent science has reached towards?" The straight issue is that if anybody ask you then you should ask him, `does your heart beats?' if there is any doctor, he will say, `Yes, so what?' Then he will say, `Yes, it beats automatically.' `There must be someone who has to do it. Who is he?' Then he replied, “Nobody does it. There is a system which we call as Autonomous Nervous System, that autonomous nervous system runs it." Then you ask him, `Then who is that auto?' There has to be someone who is putting it in motion. Whether you call it auto or God or call it his power, whatever you name it, there is some power which makes it run. We are having our digestion, automatically, how it is happening? We are breathing automatically, how it is happening? Now you have given it a name that it is autonomous. But it is just a name that you have given; by just giving it a name you have not said anything scientific. By scientific means that you have to give full detail about it, you have to tell what thing it is. You just do not know anything about it. He started telling, “that is automatic." But imagine if anyone says that you can get command over it by your own and achieve it, then people from science will stand up and say that she is merely a housewife and moreover she is from Nagpur and we know what she can do. By science things cannot be understood.

This thing lies within ourselves and whatever of the world is known, whatsoever knowledge which you are finding in books, these are all known within. Nothing is known through outside. Very great scientist like Einstein has also said that I have been seeking quite a lot, I had become tired of seeking and I could not understand what this theory of relativity is? After getting tired he said, to hell with it and left laboratory and moved to a garden and started playing with the surf of soap bubbles. He has written in English that while playing with the surf of soap bubbles suddenly, “Somewhere from some unknown; theory of relativity dawned upon me. From somewhere unknown this light came to me." What is that unknown place? If anyone comes across it, if we happen to know the same so that the invisible becomes visible then any man with scientific bent of mind should keep his eyes open. For what thing the science is about? Science is for the redemption of human beings, to enhance it, for its well being, not for his destruction. And if science is made for this cause then what can be a bigger thing than this, which introduces you to yourselves.

You think, that you all are listening Me and if I tell you a small thing that you pay your attention to yourself then nobody can pay attention to himself. There are many big pandits, they will give lectures to others, there will be many lectures. But if I say that, `Brother, just look at yourself where are you sitting?' then you will say, `How is it possible? How to look at ourselves? Nobody can look at himself.' You can look at others but not at yourself and to carry that glance to yourself is, what Sahaja Yoga is! As soon as we know ourselves then we know that source through which the entire universe has been created. Just like there are small-small gems in a necklace; in the same way you people are small-small gems. Since your attention is different on the gems that is, why you think that you are different. When your attention will go to that source which is flowing in everyone, you will be able to know the source of others too.

This is what happens in Sahaja Yoga. Sahaja, the meaning of `Sah' is `along with' and `ja' means `born', the Yoga which is born with you. In other words the instrument by which one is going to be united with that power, that is born with you, is spontaneously kept within you, for that you do not have to do anything. What is to be done for that? What do you do for anything which is a living thing? Suppose there is a seed and you want a tree to come out of it then do you stand on your head or take Sannyās [renunciation] or get the seed Sannyās or do anything of human beings which makes seed sprout? You just do not do anything. What a human being can actually do? He does all dead work. If a tree dies than he make a table out of it. He takes a big pride in doing so. If at all a human being can do anything which is a living work then we will be convinced that he can do something.

We do this! We do that! Now there was soil here and they have made a hall out of it. What a great accomplishment! This is all a dead work. Where is living thing in it? The work done by a man is automatically get closed, but the work of God is the work of nature. The work of nature gets automatically done, the seed gets automatically sprouted, to do anything about it is not going to yield anything. That is why we just cannot do anything. This is done automatically within. But the biggest work for a human being is when he is supposed to do nothing! Therefore putting him in a prison becomes greatest teaching for him. Ultimately it is a blessing for me if I am to be put in prison and if you are to be imprisoned then it will be a jail to you because what is to be done there while for me it will be a joy without having to do anything. We are running away from ourselves, we are not able to sit with ourselves even for a minute. If we are happened to sit for ten minutes with ourselves then we become bore, let's go for cinema and let us meet him! If a human being is asked to sit for five minutes with himself then he just cannot sit.

But whatever we are inside, are so beautiful and are so noble, our innermost is so much dignified and so effective that once it is seen, a man instantly forgets everything. But since it has not been known; as if musk is hidden within and musk deer is searching it out in this world. Same can be applied to the religion.

Like, Nanak Sāhab has said, “kahe re ban khojan jayi, sada niwasi sada alepa tohe sang samai, Pushpa madhya jo was basat hai mukur mahi jas chhayee, taise hi hari base nirantar ghat hi khojo bhai", why to go to forest to find Him, He is always there with you just like there is a fragrance in a flower and just as there is reflection in a mirror, in the same way God is residing in you eternally, seek Him within. They will repeatedly say “ghat hi khojo' [seek Him within] “ghat hi khojo." It was just the prescription that they gave to take the medicine and we are just cramming that prescription.

Religion is also a prescription which we are cramming; nobody knows how to do it? And what is to be done. In matter of religion whatever is to be done, then it would be like I keep on speaking without establishing a connection. Will you be able to hear it? There is no telephone connection and I keep on dialing; telephone will go out of order and nobody will be able to hear. First of all you should have your connection.

Sahaja Yoga is method of God's nature which connects you to the Ananya [Unique] Power, He has made this and the same is to be achieved by human beings. The day when a human being will realise that this is what is to be achieved, that is the reason why God has created us. He has made you a human being so that you make your own instrument, in a full way.

A special system has been created within you, because of which two institutions namely ego and super ego are formed in your brain, which separate you from that power. You make your own battery. Now when you have your own battery then you what you do with your instrument is that you go here and there, `I have to do this, I have to do that.' You seek, first you seek in money, then in power. If in this birth any person has abundant money, then in next birth he will say, `I do not want money, make me a minister somewhere.' Then he will seek in power. If he has not found it in power then he will seek in religion. But all of his seeking is done from outside. The moment he is tired of all his seeking like Buddha also; who was tired from all corners and he laid down getting exhausted [and thought], `No, I am not going to find it in this way, I did not get it in it what I was seeking.' The moment he got tired, the very moment he was blessed and he ultimately found it. He too got it from Sahaja Yoga itself and all the big Gurus of this world too have got it from Sahaja Yoga, everyone had achieved it through Sahaja Yoga.

You cannot seek God through any other Yoga. I bow to Ādi Shañkarāchārya, who is the eldest son of our country; he is very big man of our country. Although, Hindu religion is very much degraded and we just could not understood what Hindu religion is all about. Ādi Shañkarāchārya has clearly said, “na sankhen, na yogen", God can't be achieved by anything. And he also has said that there are three types of people.

First types of persons are those who seek God in devotion, they do not have intelligence; they do not understand they have not yet established a connection, then how they can talk to God. They cram like mad, shouts like mad and die after getting mad. But I would have no objection if it would have stopped just here, sometimes in this madness a man gets connected to parlok [dead world] and bhoot Vidyā etc.

enters in him. It may happen.

Second type of person is a person with very sharp intelligence, very intelligent, but he has very unstable mind. He runs here and there, run this way and that way.

So such a person thinks of Yoga practice, so that one can control mind. This is also very wrong attitude. You cannot reach there by controlling mind.

So that person controls the mind, thinks that by controlling he will reach [there]. Such disciplined mind, such mind cannot take you to God, the car in which brakes are applied cannot take you there. But from this it should not be understood that the one who is indulgent or is very voluptuous, he can reach God.

He can never reach to God. But the person who leaves all these things to thinks that I have to seek that and he disciplines himself too much in the name of religion, he also does not reach. Actually, we have to become, we have to just become.

Like, recently these `Hare Rāma' people came to Me and said, “Mātājī, you have all the luxuries in your house." “Yes, it is there, My husband is in good position so I have everything in My house. Such is the arrangement of God that's why we are living there." “Then how can you say that God has situations like so and so?" So I asked, “Brother, do you mean to say by this, does all this things make any difference in me?" I said, “When you have not caught anything then how can you leave it?" “I have given up this, I have given up that, I have taken renunciation", I said “You are advertising it!" To leave and to hold is possible only when a man knows that you can hold something and you can leave something. But if any human being who just knows it that nothing is caught and nothing is left then what is the meaning of renunciation? You don't even need renunciation. Now see this tree: it is just standing, is it an ascetic or a householder? You also just exist.

The day when you will just become, you will just become a witness then the all outward things will mean to be just a play going on; keep on watching. If people are throwing stones even then you are watching, people are garlanding you even then you are watching, people are coming to your feet then also you are watching, people are beating you with shoes then also you are watching, both the things are to be seen: Everything is a play.

Like when Jesus Christ was crucified, everybody cried watching it: “He is crucified, He is crucified"; for Him it was just a play. What does it matter to Him, crucifixion has no meaning for Him. The man who stopped a storm, could He not have stopped this people? You just think, such a powerful person who could stop a storm, could he not have stopped these donkeys? If He had wished he would have thrown the cross and could have destroyed everything. But he was saying, “Let us make these fools a little fool!" Therefore, He went on to fool and we think that He was crucified. How could He be crucified? Indestructible being cannot be crucified; they come regularly in this world and benefit the world. Neither can anyone kill them, nor can anybody take away their life.

They live in the state of joy. Sahaja Yoga makes human being in the same state. In fact, till now nobody came to know about it so strongly, as I did, but it is surprising that I came to know about it.

In My previous lives also, many a times I tried it. When I was born, I was born in your Nagpur; there is something special about it. I was born in Chhindwara near Nagpur and the parents that I chose must be special and also My brothers and sisters and you people who are also residents of My Nagpur, there must be something special in it. And all of you people who have reached here today, there must be something special in it also.

It may be possible that you have come here because of your good deeds in previous lives and you may get it. Now many people also say that, “Mātājī, it is very difficult." People say that Kuṇḍalinī awakening takes time and it is not achieved so easily, it happens to one in million. I say that, “Yes, may be it happens to one in million but this is not today's situation." Now we have reached moon. If we tell our grandmother that we have reached moon she will say, `It is just not possible.' Even if she is shown the photograph then also she will say, `No you have falsely made this photo and showing it for no reason, it is just not possible.

How one can go to moon?' We believe we have reached moon, but the world which has reached moon, the one which has explored outside, it will surely search it inside one day. Otherwise if the tree which grows too much outside, if it does not search its source, if it does not find out its power, then it is possible that tomorrow it may get destroyed. And this is what is going to happen. If you have not known your powers and the collective consciousness within; by knowing I don't mean understanding it, this is not a subject to be understood by intelligence; it just enters in you.

Now, some people who have come with us from Bombay [Mumbai], those who are realised, by the indication of fingers they will tell you what problem you have? They can feel it through vibrations. Each and every person emits from within different types of vibrations. With this they can tell accurately what problem this person has, which may be physical, mental, intellectual, every type of defect it may be; it may be from your previous birth, may be traditional. You can understand all types of such problems by the indication of your fingers. And Kuṇḍalinī which resides in us and about which I will tell you tomorrow, when Kuṇḍalinī starts raising upwards then she enables a man to see what a spectacle he is! And only by the indication of fingers these people understands what it is? If this is true and if it is happening then what is there to worry about? What is there to doubt in it? If tomorrow I say that I have got a diamond, it is kept here, whoever wants it, take it, it is free. What do you think, does anybody will doubt? Is there anyone amongst you who will doubt? Everybody will run and say that `It is a diamond whether it is of glass or anything else, take it, it is just free.' If I say that this thing is free, which is joy giving: people in America were surprised to hear that. They said that, “That Maheśh yogi came here, he takes 277 dollars, such a fellow came he takes 377 dollars and you should also take somewhat for your work!" I was surprised. I said, “See, as far as I am concerned, I don't understand this. You better decide its value.

You only decide its price, whatever price you can give for this, you give. Anything which is indestructible in this world, tell Me if you can purchase it. If there is something which is equal to the dust of feet of indestructible thing in this world then there is point where a man can say whether he want to leave it or take it. You cannot purchase it." If you could purchase God from market then how He would have been God? Here all these Sādhus are selling God in market, at that time we should apply our mind that what are they doing? One person came to Me and said one Babaji [wanderer] has given me a ring.

So I asked, why did you take it, you have already millions of rings and if he is such a big donor then he should solve the economic problem of our country, he should give everybody food, rings, watches; there will be celebration everywhere. But he gives it to only rich people, he doesn't give it to any poor, what is it? And then one should also think for two minutes that after all what interest does God has in giving you a ring? Does he have no other concerns but to give you ring and bangles? If he wants to give you something then he will give something of Param [Ultimate] only. The one who gives you the ultimate is the Guru and others are all thieves, you must understand this.

I have seen many brainsick things about Sahaja Yoga that I feel like laughing on the stupidity of man, whether I should take money for this or I should do `Dravidi Prāṇāyām' [exercise] or people should make me dance or I should put them in any trouble otherwise how it is possible? If it is possible then why not take it.

Sometimes I tell people in a very normal way that I am your Mother and I have cooked food for you, however I have made it is not your business. If you are hungry then taste it.

Recently I went to Singapore [end of April 1972]. There is a very famous international doctor of Malaysia whose name is Doctor Lang. He is a great man. When he came to know that I have come, he came running; he came home straight from airport. That time I was dining. After coming there he said, “Mother, I am hungry, please give me some food." I said, “OK, so you have come!" I washed My hands so our hostess got upset that, “At least have food." I said, “No, now my son is hungry, I should go." Though, he is 15-20 years elder than Me. But today he is settled down in it and within one minute he was realised, within a minute he got it. After getting it he has worked very hard and he says that this is the only way to achieve God. But he was eager so he settled down. Otherwise others have to be said, `this is the thing, that is the thing,' and they need to be convinced.

The one who desires gets it in no time. You should achieve the reality. But the thing should be real.

That's why I say that just now there is no need to come to My feet. Considering his or her self esteem in mind no one should go at anybody's feet. Therefore, Mohammad Sāhab prevented to go to anybody's feet, nobody needs to go. Yes but when you get your realisation, when you achieve quite enough, then you will come to know that these vibrations flows tremendously through these feet only. And without coming to feet this thing cannot be completed. This is true, then it is OK, otherwise there is no need to come to My feet. You will get Darshan [act of seeing], it is a kind of disease in our country to take Darshan; that we will take Darshan of Shri Mataji. Now what is there in having just a Darshan? Try to get something genuine, I am here to give genuine. There are not people to receive anything genuine, at least in this city where I have lived for many years and in 42's movement [Freedom Struggle] also I have worked very hard here. I was very young at that time even though I never got afraid. You must be knowing that police troubled Me a lot; My brothers etc. will tell you. I was given electric shocks also and kept Me on ice, but I never was afraid. My whole family was frightened, but I never felt it. I said, “Let it go on, everything is a play." But for a long time it has been My desire to introduce this thing for once in My birth place. But there is one saying in Marathi that, “Jithe pikte tithe vikat nahi" means that where there is abundance of something then it is not much appreciated. That's why I thought let some time pass; perhaps people of Nagpur will realise that a very big task is going to take place from here.

The place of Nagpur is very high, in My point of view Nagpur is Nābhī of the whole world.

So you understand it that how much carefully and how properly Nagpurians have to live and should behave and how wisely they should think! Whereas whole world is afraid of Nagpurians! Once I went to Lata Mangeshkar and asked her to come to a program. She replied, “No question of me, I will not allow even anybody else to go there. Once I went there, they threw shoes at me." Another person also had same experience. I said, “I am going to My parent's place." They got Me down half way in Badnera, where Rukmani haran took place and they brought Me here stealthily in the same way (Rukmani haran) saying that, “Don't go there otherwise people will throw stones at you." The one which is Nābhī of the whole world, where there is power of sustaining this universe, where there is a place of Śhrī Viṣhṇu on our Nābhī; who is `Palan karta' [sustainer], where He resides; if so much stupidity is prevailing there then what to say? But it is going to continue until you reach your place. Like there is a son of a beggar, he is wandering, he is begging. But the day he comes to know that he is a son of a King then will he beg? This applies to the people of Nagpur that they have a special fortune.

First of all our country is a Yoga Bhūmi [Land of Yoga], rest are bhog bhūmīs [lands of indulgence].

We are running after bhog bhūmī like fools. This Land of Yoga, this land of Yoga Bhūmi, there are lots of vibrations, in each particle. The people, who were with us, began telling even before footing in Nagpur, “Shri Mataji, what fantastic are the vibrations of Nagpur!" Everyone is saying that what fantastic are the vibrations of Nagpur and here are you people, uninfluenced.

You are just not aware of the air which is spreading here. And in this place which is the Nābhī of whole nation. First India is the body of the whole creation. The human body is what India is and inside it is the Nābhī Chakra, which was established first of all in the form of a sustainer and which is Nagpur then you should know that how high the place of Nagpur. And is your place is so high. If it is possible today then you must get it and the biggest thing is first to get it. Do not just come to feet, get something of it today.

It will take some time, I am ready for the session and you should also be ready to sit. Sit comfortably and get it. After getting it you cannot have the disease of cancer. The disease of cancer can only be cured through Sahaja Yoga. I am saying it today and after ten years when this fact will come from America then you will think that, “Oh, she was saying it!" Get the disease of Sahaja Yoga and you will get rid of all your diseases. Through Sahaja Yoga all the diseases will be cured. Disease of Heart Chakra, Viśhuddhi Chakra which is called cervical plexus like cough, cold etc., diseases of brain, madness, of Bhūt Vidyā, Shmashān Vidyā, of stomach; all these diseases will be cured. Except for two or four diseases which affect having come from outside, there is no cure or something which is dead. Now in cancer, doctors say that take out the brain. They have just brought a big patient, they told Me to see him, he was unconscious, he got a big relief. But how I can bring his brain, they have removed it. I told them that it is a repairing shop, if you have just removed the very thing then what we can do? So except this kind of things, all the 43 diseases are cured.

Peace and thoughtless awareness will be established in you: you are in Antarmaun [inner silence] but aware of all outside things. Your vision will have a state of witness. Your intelligence will become dynamic, it becomes unique. Such go up your measurement that you yourself become knowledge.

By knowledge, for example we had once a very normal artist; poor one who used to come to Me. Now she is having her big-big paintings are on display. One very simple musician got his realisation, nowadays he is singing in Canada and everywhere. When people say what is material benefit of it then I say what you get is a total material gain, what else! From where this materialism has come? And from where all these powers have come? Whatever we think, consider: from where this has come? The source of all above, in the Ganga [river] of which you are to be bathed but if your pitcher is already filled, then what I can do? Empty a little bit of your pitcher.

As far as the devotion is concerned, Mr. Lal has just spoken on this subject; there is a fear of some misunderstanding. Therefore I want to say that there is no need to have any devotion to Me. Only thing is that you should be devoted to yourself. The issue is not having devotion to Me, but only towards yourself.

Don't fight with yourself; don't abuse yourself as to why I have done this and that. For some time leave all pāp-puṇya [sins-good virtues] outside. You have to have faith in yourself, it will work out. It is like rays of sun, in this way the love is flowing. For that there is no need of any faith or something: it will be worked out on its own. But you should have faith in yourself, that yes we can get it. After all it is something special when it has happened to thousands of people in the sinful place like Mumbai then it must happen in this spiritual place also.

Tomorrow also, there is a program of meditation, etc. I don't know, My time does not belong to Me, you ask these people. Today also there was a mess that everybody told Me that the speech is scheduled at 5:30 but actually it was at 5:00.

So tomorrow also you take a note about this later. And now you go in meditation, do as I say, what happens in it I will tell you in advance so that you are able to understand it.

You just put your both hands like this towards Me. Kindly leave some space around you for the reason that you people don't know how to swim. Imagine that you are sinking and then swimmers are going to save you. You don't have to do anything. If you will move your hands or legs then there work will go in vain. You sit normally and if there is anything tight in your body then just loose it little bit. Sit comfortably as you do while eating. If there is any Tabiz [amulet] etc. in your neck then kindly remove it. There should be nothing like amulets in your body; take it out and sit comfortably. And after some time when I will ask you to close your eyes then kindly pay your attention to your fontanelle bone and don't rotate your eyes upwards. As you think about your household just sitting here, in the same way you should think what is happening here. Just watch and see your thoughts and say to your mind with love, with love, `Hello mind, just tell me what are you thinking?' Say it with love to your mind. You will see that suddenly you have reached to such a place where you find that you have become thoughtless. After getting thoughtlessness you will feel that some kinds of waves are slowly-slowly coming on your hands.

Just as it comes from a cooler; cool-cool.

Some people will feel warm in the beginning, doesn't matter and if hot are coming then jerk it.

But some people's hands will shiver, somebody's heart will beat. It may be possible that somebody starts swinging or something is happening inside him then such person should kindly go out. Before it starts, you go out. People will look after them outside. They should not disturb others sitting inside. If somebody's hands are burning simply then take it out yourself, if they are burning extremely then look at Me with open eyes. If somebody is feeling giddiness then they should also look at Me. Those who have major diseases like serious type of diabetes, serious type of heart trouble then those people should go outside.

Those people will look after them. But if somebody is sick normally then they need not worry like if there is stomach illness or other it does not matter. I do not see any serious heart patient here.

If you try to be a little wise then everything will work out. Don't scream, don't shout and don't make noises. Lots of people have problem of arrival of devis [possession]. We have seen in our meditation that no devis come in anybody. Does Devī has no other business? These are all bhoots [dead spirits] which comes in your body. Therefore nobody should talk about the arrival of Devī. And the one in whom Devī comes he should go out. Kindly go out and tell them that you have this trouble, they will look after you.

They were cleaning a wall and painting it. About half way through the night they suddenly get this terrific headache and feel really strange, but they carry on with the work.] Shri Mataji [on return]: [asks them how are they].

Douglas Fry: I got this really terrible headache halfway through. I didn't know what was happening.

Shri Mataji: Oh, what happened was that we were at this reception and somebody, by mistake, gave Me a glass of wine and I drank it.

Contents: 1975-0000 Letter to Bombay (Mumbai) Sahaja Yogis (likely Marathi), 2, Parklands, Ice House Wood, Hurst Green, Oxted, Surrey, UK

from Anant Jeevan, Issue 4 (Jan-Feb 1980), p.2 My dear Sahaja Yogis, I left you with a heavy heart and the silent sorrow in your expression made Me feel helpless. How rich you are in your feelings! As if the sea of Love was rising and its every crest wept in your hearts. I could feel the tempest of My Kuṇḍalinī. How can words express the sorrow which was witnessed by us in silence.

The three months passed away so fast. The only record of all the eventful moments is the deep feeling of gratitude for all of you who did so much to acquire a place for Sahaja Yoga. How much you worked day and night and in such a short time achieved your target. This is the miracle of Sahaja Yoga working through you My beautiful dearest children.

You are not like other people who have gone away from the field of kuruskshetra.

Some are not even yet born to take the load of the future building of Sahaja Yoga. Your task is tremendous and worthy of great glory. May God bless you all.

All such adventures are to be treated like sports (leelā). Your metal will be judged and your power of love will be tested. Do not get entangled in the webs of Māyā that reduces your I. Please calm down and humble down yourself before the Lord. Sharpness of language does not, behove a Sahaja Yogi. First develop a sweet tongue and then try to clean your hearts.

Some people have a very clean heart but an excitable nature. Now with Sahaja Yoga try to calm down your excitability. Bhajan singing will help you a lot. Bhakti will calm your hearts. After realisation you all had lots of knowledge (Gñyān) about Kuṇḍalinī and Sahaja Yoga but without Bhakti you cannot achieve the balance. You have to get lost in Bhakti .

Bhakti enriches your feelings. Try to feel the other Sahaja Yogis without criticising them. I am enjoying your beings, the beamy and glory that you are. I wish you all could do that and feel like a drop in the ocean of love thus becoming the ocean itself. Bhakti will dissolve your angularities and impediments in the collective oneness. I do not know how to thank you individually.

I will be writing to you later.

With all My blessings to you.

Your Mother, Nirmalā.

Contents: 1975-01-20 Talk to Sahaja Yogis (Hindi), Ksham Ki Shakti Ka Mahatav (Power of Forgiveness), Mumbai, India

In Kali Yuga there is no greater method than Forgiveness. The larger the Power of Forgiveness the more powerful you will be. Forgive everyone. Only the one who is Big can forgive. What can a small minded person forgive? I had said this morning to know the Dharma. Know the Dharma that is within you. You are standing in Dharma.

The one who is standing in Dharma has such tremendous powers within. Know this Dharma.

Aah! It is so beautiful, those who are standing in Dharma. The one who is standing on Adharma we do not have a competition with him. We are standing in Dharma. Our ways are different. The one who is standing in Dharma his method is different from the one who is standing in Adharma. The one who is standing in Dharma cannot have any accord with one who is standing in Adharma. We are having problems, discomforts but we are standing in our Dharma. It is the greatest thing. Know your Powers within which is only based on Dharma. And Dharma is nothing but Love. And if Love is everything then Forgiveness becomes its part. How much can a person commit atrocities by seeing our Love? How much evil can a person do, how much can another trouble you, upset you, let them. Everything will be washed away with Love. This is the only way in Kali Yuga that works out. I can't understand any other way. If you think that there should be some old methods to use then it is not possible. There is only one reason which I have told you before and I am telling you again that there are no complete saints or Sādhus in this world. In each Sādhu they have sent one, one Rākshasa. They must gone into your attention. Have you understood? If it is some Sādhu then it's alright. Paritraya Sādhunam vinashaya cha duskritām [for the redemption of the saints and the destruction of the devils]. But if with the Sādhu there is the devil sitting inside then he will have to be removed with a lot of love, isn't it? What a difficult work this is.

You are standing in the saintly position and there is also the devil within. But if you are standing as a saint and there is a devil within you can remove it. But tell Me how many pure souls are there in this world? It's a difference of degrees. And those who are going towards sainthood should collect saintliness.

They should have nothing to do with those who are not saintly. They are unsaintly, thieves and bilanders! What comparison with them. They are thieves and we cannot be them, they cannot be us. It just cannot be. They are moving on another line and we moving on another line.

To rise in Dharma is the aim of Sahaja Yoga. There is no other aim. It is a straight calculation. Sahaja Yoga has nothing to do with any of these things. You have to be awakened in your own Dharma, you have you get your own light and to know yourself.

Someone says, “Mātājī, what to do, my Chakra is caught this way, this or that has happened." To move them this way or that are all primordial movements, which I am telling you. Ādigati, Primordial Movements, Primordial. These have been made. But to make it flow in a pure manner... if there are mixed things within then when you move your hands then it is moving mixed.

Without forgiveness Purity cannot come within. When Purity will come then the Light of Dharma will be spread... Pure and Nirmal. Means the one who has Dharma will have to come into the Light. Will have to talk about it, speak about it. But he should note in his own behaviour whether he is seeing Dharma or Adharma. If I had given you a lecture before realisation it would have been very wrong because it is a conditioning and that is the reason that all psychologists have finished the Dharma. They teach that whatever Dharma they teach don't do this, don't do that.

So the mind gets conditioned. But now this will not happen. Now whatever you want from the mind you can do. There will be no conditioning at all. Because I have taken your Chitta and put it between ego and super, ego. Dharma is rising by itself and you have done that. You have found its way. And whatever worldly things you have known... that it is like this or that in the world, with that you cannot measure the Divine. You cannot join the value of Divine with that. I am talking about Divine and you are joined to the worldly. The three dimensions of worldliness have finished. Those who want to move to the fourth dimension with seriousness and depth 50... I am talking about the fourth dimension... You cannot know the value of the Divine through worldly things.

What or how have we been troubled? Not at all troubled... I say that we are very comfortable. The way I have seen difficulties and seen people in terrible difficulties and you will not find their descriptions also. These are such super rascals and such descriptions I can't explain. But the state of society is much better now. And even your state is very good. But you must not deceive and cheat yourself. It is a straight calculation. Whatever you are doing with Sahaja Yoga you are doing with yourself.

Now this question arises many times in administration. Such a question arises that what should we do? Is this correct or not. But this is so easy, so easy that before taking any decision go into Thoughtlessness.

Whatever decision comes in front do that. That can never be wrong. But the decision will be spontaneous in thoughtlessness. And if you took that decision in thought then it will be biased because your ego and super ego both will work in that. Whatever are your samskaras, or worldly things you have earned will be standing behind you. But if you do it in thoughtlessness then it will be an abhinav, Divine, a miracle.

A miracle...

So when I am talking about Divinity then whatever worldly created ideas... Pre-conceived ideas of human beings cannot guide God. You must know that. He has His own standing and His own Being. If you desire that God becomes like you then it is similar to the one who sells God for four rupees and says I will place him there. You will reach that level. He will as He is give Light and you keep seeking your path.

You must know your Dharma within. To know your Dharma is very necessary, as to what a beautiful thing has been placed in you. In this destructible body what an indestructible thing is flowing. Just like a conuence of the three rivers, Ganga, Saraswatī and Yamuna. Its stream is flowing. You cannot know this thing with the destructible within, or that which is worldly. For a second go into thoughtlessness and when you take decisions... you will take such decisions which is not in the likes of many... Dynamic! Absolutely Dynamic! Then worry, fear, anger, servility, slavishness, inferiority and all complexes will all fall away. He will speak in his grandeur. He has his own humility. Because he is so gentle...

So gentle and delicate, that it is impossible to know how he came in. Just like the moonlight came in.

So now that you have been chosen then your importance is very great. Now you maybe thinking that I am such an ordinary person, how come I have been chosen? The choosing will be among ordinary people only. And these very, very great people whom you see in this world who are highly awarded, they will all become missing links. It has always happened. In every stage of evolution this has happened you have seen. All those who were great mammoths, became over developed physically, they are all finished. They were missing links. Only the elephant got saved. In the same way those who were over-developed mentally they are now coming like the fox. And from those also there are much more developed. But from them the dog got saved. In the same way it is in the humans who will rise from the ordinary. This has always happened that it has risen from the ordinary. And the so-called extraordinary who are the third dimension, they are not going to do anything. They will become the missing links in the evolution stage. People will not know them as they don't know that the chimpanzee was a missing link. In evolution only ordinary people will be chosen.

One has to be normal. All these big Sannyāsīs who are roaming are not going to reach anywhere, you will see. They will all go into the missing link. And these highly awarded... I have given realisation to all these kings, secretaries, but to what avail? They are all sitting on their positions. Do they feel that why the light should be lit within us? They write to Me that I am feeling great joy...

Do they think of doing something about this? That we have got it and should share it? When you have a special place then you have to be special too. From this ordinary only will the extraordinary come out. Only that will blossom.

Slowly you yourself will understand that they all are extremely foolish; who can talk to them? They might be big doctors, so what? They are just sitting. They have done nothing of value.

Our position is very high. For this you cannot be educated. There can be no education that I am going to teach you ABCD. This is to be experienced with your daily experience. This morning I had told you something very great that in Sahaja Yoga you are a part of the whole, not of the individual, but the whole. Know this point. Gagangiri Mahārāj is very great. At a much higher position than you people, let us assume. But for 21,000 years he was just going around in circles, poor man. Where did it happen spontaneously. He took rebirths 21,000 times, kept falling at the feet of God and lived in jungles then only did he get these vibrations. And now how come you are getting it so easily? Because this is a new world.

It is a new thing. You are the parts of this body of the Virāt. He was made a symbolic man. But you are all in the Collective. The one who wants to get out of the collective he must know that he will become cancer and be destroyed. None of you is good or bad. One finger pains and the other finger will press it.

If this hand pains the other will press it. You are all joined together. You know that. When you can share your badhas, then why can't you share your wealth? You catch badhas immediately, but why not wealth? The entire reason is this that at the moment we are just walking. You are still very little children. We are going to burn ourselves, fall down a bit. One day when you grow up you will take the hands of thousands and make them walk. If you get cheated, doesn't matter. You are little. Come into innocence. But those who are cheating and thinking that they are very clever must know that they will be removed like cancer.

There is another way too, where the one who goes never returns. But there is also a way to hell. Lot of people walk on that way. They think that to come in front of Mātājī, touch Her feet, wash Her feet means they are great Sahaja Yogis. This way is also moving alongside. When the flower blossoms then anything that has to fall off the bud falls out and breaks and the fragrance comes out of that. That which has to grow, grows; and that which has to fall, falls. They both move together. Life is like that. That which has to grow, life will make it and the one that has to die, life will finish it. But there is a time for its storing and they go too. And some go in such a way and they never return. From the animal state you become humans and what is the use that you become insects after the human birth. Your competition should be on Dharma. Are we in Dharma or not? Think like this for yourselves and about others think that how deep are they in Dharma. And if they are in Adharma then why are they so? What Chakra of theirs is catching? Look at it without expectations. It's only a Chakra catching? Then you can remove it by just sitting here by your desire. If he is a gone case then let it be. He has got cancer. Leave it. But the one whom you feel sympathies with and one whom you feel will become alright, can be improved, you have the ways. These are primordial movements and you can put them right with those. Share with each other. Increase each others Chakras. You should not feel bad at all. The one who feels bad he will be as wrong as the one who is troubling others. To feel bad and to trouble are the same; are the two parts of the same movement.

So one should not feel bad at all. If someone says your Chakra is catching you should be grateful to him that he could recognize it and you could not. If someone points out to you that a snake is biting, you are grateful to that person, so the one's whose Chakra has been caught up should feel grateful that person that he has pointed it out and you can clean it. Never feel bad. You are so different from others because you have felt the vibrations. How many have felt it? You are greater than the big people.

But as yet you are children. You are children in Sahaja Yoga. Pope doesn't have any vibrations. All these so-called Great people, these Shañkarāchāryas and all, no one knows what kind of vibrations they have.

You people can give realisation and take them beyond. And you are twirling the Kuṇḍalinīs of people.

What a great thing you are doing. Besides Gaṇeśha no one else could do this before. That is why the snake which is in Śhrī Gaṇeśha's hand is symbolic. With that he would twirl the Kuṇḍalinīs of people.

At least you have got one of the powers that you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī of all. And still you are looking at the worldly. It is Divine, timeless. It has no location. It puts everything right. Just as much as it is delicate and loving that much it is destructive. It will move according to its way. You just move the way you have to.

First of all put your Heart Chakra right. Clean your heart. Is our heart clean or not? Do we have anger towards anyone? Do we have suspicion for another in our hearts? Check your heart. Heart is the greatest thing because the heart controls the brain and it is from the heart that we do all work. Yours and My connection is with the heart only.

So clean you Heart Chakra completely. On our part we think that a thing is like this Why the Heart Chakra? How much love have we given? How much did we trouble another? Mr. Desai wrote to Me that, “You have helped my wife so much." I was very Happy. Then Mr. Desai wrote a very helpless letter about his wife. I said to so many people I have given so much and how has did she die? I sent her vibrations from London. You must help each other in every way. Love each other. We will all become one in this bandhan. We are one body of the Virāta. And you people are sitting there on the Sahasrāra of the Virāt. I have made you sit on the Sahasrāra of the Virāt. And what madness are you doing! I have to make one thousand humans sit on the Sahasrāra of the Virāt Puruṣha.

It looks like a big thing. By My saying this how many of you are feeling vibrations in your hand? You understand about the Kuṇḍalinī, there is no doubt among any of you? What of Me, I have ploughed the land and will wait and watch.

I know everything. Whatever you do anywhere I know it. Nothing is hidden from Me. Within you all there is a lot of mess. You should live in your Dharma, Peaceful and balanced. You have got a very big thing. Be satisfied. What is this making plans? What is this, like a stupid person. Other people may do this but you all? For little things... this is not done... that is not done. What is this? This is not done... that is not done... In which direction are you going and thinking? You have to go to Delhi from here and you think what is the price of our there? But you have to go where no our or anything works.

Dharma works there so know the value of Dharma. What is the need for Dharmic people to know the price of lentils and our? Or what politics is cooking there? You know it. If you did not feel vibrations then it is a different thing. This flowing of vibrations is very little. As yet you are babies. I am not ready to even celebrate one year of your birth so at this stage a Rām Rām [taking God's name] has been done forcefully. Look at yourselves. I am not going to tell you. `Has any change come into me or not? Has peace come within me or not? Has any change come or not?' I have pulled you out from the very subtle Nāḍī within the Suṣhumnā. I have pulled you on a very line which is as fine as a strand of hair. The Suṣhumnā itself is as wide as a strand of hair and there are four layers on top of it. But it is through these vibrations that people are getting better. One lady came whose face looked different. She said her asthma got cured. What is so great that asthma got cured, cancer got cured! This is bound to happen. What's so great about it? If you got electricity in your house then everything will become visible. If the electricity came in it brought light. What is so important about that? But by the light coming in what knowledge did you get? What new dimension did you see? What new thing did you do? What I am saying, is it going through your head or your heart? If it goes through your head then there will be arguments. A dogma will be made of it. Let it go through the heart, there will be light.

If you want to enjoy love then bring it to the heart. The Heart Chakra is what the Christians call the Sacred Heart. Within it is the place of Bhavāṇī, Durgā which is a very great place. It is not within you to understand Durgā. That all the Rākshasas are also Her children. The whole world is Hers. A mother's Shakti destroyed them for the sake of Her love for Her children. To pull one's own hands is very difficult.

To give an injection to oneself with one's own hands is very difficult.

So to kill one's own children to protect other children is even more difficult. But to kill is a very great act of the Shakti; a very great act of Forgiveness. That is Her power of Forgiveness but in Kali Yuga there is no need for you people to become Bhavāṇī. Just become peaceful. Very peaceful... very peaceful. Your peacefulness will take forward the work of Sahaja. You will see that people will say that in Sahaja Yoga we have seen such people who were so full of anger, who were statues of servility and completely suppressed, have become miraculously changed. You are your own advertisements. What other advertisement do you want? People should say what a man he is. He has such a large heart and is so wide in all aspects. It is happening. There is a lot of change from before. But it can be done with full force. It is now all up to you. Just as you understand, feel, listen to others, hear others peacefully. Feel others. You have got it en masse with others. Like this hand knows from the other hand; and from the same hand the brain also knows; the heart also knows and all these are moving together integrated. In the same way you will have to integrate. Then only will the thousand hands be ready, which in human form will be used. The same thousands hands which have come out from the Sahasrāra of the Virāt will come out from human beings. And these humans will be very ordinary. No great rishis or munis are needed for this to make them sit on the Chakras. All these big people are sitting on the Chakras. Only the ordinary will come out from the Sahasrāra.

I am saying that start bathing each other every morning in your own homes with vibrations. First check your Chakras between yourselves and then go out after bathing. Keep on cleaning. Everything becomes pure.

There is such turmoil in the world. You have no idea as to what is going on. A criminality is about to come. There is such a rule of the Rākshasas which you are not aware of. And the Rākshasas speak in such a way that they have a great fraternity. They stick to each other like glue. And among us, the way they work that they fall in an instant. Another falls there! That too in freedom. The Rākshasas have a great unity. What fun they are having by killing one and throttling another. When the group of saints will be made, then just think what can be! Saints have never had a group. This is the first time. But if the saints give up their sainthood then what is the use of such a group. All the qualities of a saint should shine through from you.

Now tell all your worldly and gross problems before. Then we will do the Pūjā at leisure. Take all this questions' cow dung and throw it out. If someone has more faults then you can get together and put him right. But keep it without expectations. You are not you and the same with the other.

So have no expectations and be awakened to another in that state. If someone has a lot of problems then put him right. But you should not feel bad. If someone feels bad then do it subtly. Treat him like who is sick.

When you are coming to My feet then you can always tell by signaling. Each one will point out the same thing.

So clear out the problem. We should all clear out each other together. There is no difference but it actually happens that one moves five steps ahead and then six steps behind.

So the question is after how many years will they reach? Or will they ever reach? When you are in awareness then all will move in unison. Like the ocean is huge but its waves move together. The movement should move together.

Gentleman: Please don't feel bad, may I say that I am neither here or there. In a small group this happens that they think that he is big, or he is small, his Chakras are new, he has this badha and this or that. I listen to both...

Shri Mataji: Now it is like this, you have one stick. Either you hit yourself or hit another. Better that you hit yourself. There is no big or small. There is no seniority in this. There is a reason for this that you have come from the worldly. Where you see that one is big, one is small, one is officer, one is below, one is this or that, one is king. Then one is Sādhu, one is sannyāsi. This is nothing but a churning. One is up then down, up and then down. I am just churning and nothing else. But we have to see who steals the butter. This churning is going on.

Sometimes the cold will come sometimes the heat will come. The butter will come on top. The butter will float as it has become light. There is no high or low in this. Look at Modi, where he is. I purposely pushed the Kuṇḍalinī there. Did you see that? No one is big or small.

The one who thinks that I am big, or small, then remember then there is the Mahāmāyā sitting there. I will catch hold of the Kuṇḍalinī in a such that I will see who is superior or inferior. The ones who think they are very great will be out.

I will deliberately make the Kuṇḍalinī go down a few times. Because if I don't make it go down then raise it and again I make it go down and again raise it then it will not work out. I will deliberately make it go down.

[The man who is talking to Shri Mataji is an old man.] Old people will also have to be a little wiser.

This is for all the old people. I too am included in this! All the elderly people should know that in the worldly life you people are the leaders. You are the elders in the worldly way.

So you all should be especially better. All of you become one. You should tell the children in this worldly way. Like Mr. Modi, he is a very great man no doubt. But he also goes down. But one thing I have noticed that in every letter he makes a confession. His attention is on himself all the time. That is why I am fond of him as he confesses as to his faults, that Ma you are right. Such a person will be able to climb the first ladder.

He wants to go higher he will climb again and again. But the one who thinks I am on a very high ladder... We should look within and think within and see that we are climbing and falling, climbing and falling.

It happens to everyone, because a churning is going on. In the churning (manthan) there is no special position for anyone. The way of Sahaja Yoga is like a drama and is something that is new and never been tried before. No one has ever done it or such a churning has taken place. One Gagangiri Mahārāj sat for years in the forests doing tapasya. His churning did not take place. He made himself on his own power all alone. His matter is different. Yes he got the guidance as Gaṇeśha's guidance to you all. But who shakes his head many times. How to make him understand. You are Gaṇeśhas. In fact you are babies. They are stuck in My churning, poor things. One thing is true, that whether he is Shañkarāchārya or someone else, but no one knew so much about vibrations, the technicalities, the primordial, the movements. Read Shañkarāchārya or others, where is it written? It is not written anywhere.

[Shri Mataji greets a little girl who just came and related a story about Her granddaughter, Aradhana.] These highly realised Souls have come on this earth, who are amazing! They are all getting ready within the age of ten or twelve years. But till then you people don't break My platform by wrestling among yourselves! If this is done then [what] will My children do then? They have come to play a big game.

Now a little bit is alright but no dance of destruction! The organization will become harmonious when this movement becomes one. If one man is speaking more then just cool down. Cool down! Cool down! You feel cool so become cool also. Not hot, just cool. Coolness... Seriousness... I am cool, on absolute zero. Earlier one went to the Himālayas. Now there is no need for the Himālayas. You can all start your air conditioners here. Be alert towards yourselves. Look at your own faults. Look at your own Chakras and help the Chakras of others secretly. There is no need to tell. You can move your hands secretly. When realisation is happening while walking on the road then what! The more secretly you do the more pure it will be. The more love-filled it will be. It feels very good when something gets done secretly. It is happening with the land. They are saying it is being done, it will be done in whatever way. For that one person should get after the land. Ring up Swāmī Sahib and phone him and find out about the land. They will do it. [The Sahaja Yogis discuss with Shri Mataji whom they have to meet for the land.] I want a program in April and I wanted to talk about the incarnation of the Ādi Shakti. But at this stage perhaps it is too early as yet people do not understand what the Ādi Shakti is. This Dilip Kumar the cinema person has also got his realisation as he knows My brother very well. My brother told Me that he can ask Dilip and get the cinema people to help as well.

So please tell Me. If you want then the poetry on the Ādi Shakti, different types, then we can quote them but I don't know how much people will have interest in this...

Sahaja Yogi: [suggests quoting Meerabai as she is very well known.]

Shri Mataji: If some lady comes who is made ready on this subject. Like Gopi Kṛiṣhṇa [the dancer] who has many small children, or give it to some organization.

The

Sahaja Yogi: [says that for that one will have to prepare the song, then a list. It can't be done so fast.]

Shri Mataji: So I think, let's have a variety entertainment. Because the subject of Meerabai is of `separation'. We are talking of `union' [with Divine].

So better than that is to have a variety entertainment.

On the subject of the Ādi Shakti every religion will come in.

So for the variety entertainment there should be the subject of the Ādi Shakti.

We should make three teams. One team to collect money, second team should see to it that the program is done properly and the third team should see to the expenses. There should be coordination. There should also see to the printing of a souvenir where the printing etc can be seen to. For the program arrangement get the musical minded Sahaja Yogis to see to it.....

Hoga (Must Listen Every Day and Imbibe Sahaja Yoga), Mumbai, India

Sahaja has been created for you only. But for mankind to understand Sahaja Yoga is not so easy. Because if some very great thing is obtained effortlessly, a lacking remains for its importance, its measure, faith and devotion for that Shakti, to absorb it with complete attention within through hard work. That's why you see that mostly Sahaja Yogis are very casual. But those other swāmīs, as you know, how they put people into meditation and how they take advantage of them. Those who take money from you, make you work hard and make you stand on your heads, make you exercise, etc.

So your ego gets satisfied with it and you get stuck to it. You must have seen such people who have given their all, their money, etc and then sweep the floors for these Sādhus. The getting of Sahaja Yoga is done so effortlessly (Sahaja) that people remain casual towards it. Like we got our eye so effortlessly, so we are so casual about it. We have no value that this eye is so precious. But the day we get a slight pain in the eye then we realise `Oh God!' That is why it is so necessary to get Badhas. If there are no Badhas then Sahaja Yogis will never bother.

[A person in the audience asks about Badhas. Shri Mataji answers.] Badha is dependent on you. Till you catch, there is badha. What to do. There are some people who have got realisation and they have gone beyond. Badha doesn't catch them. They never get caught up. Because there are a lot of merits (puṇyas) from their past lives. But they should also be alert. They should not forget that we do not catch so we are something special. Doesn't matter.

To be casual towards Sahaja Yoga will cost us dearly. If you are casual towards your eye then it does not matter because there is someone ready to look after your eyes, hands, feet, body. You don't have to look after that. But you have to look after your Sahaja Yoga. There is a lot of difference between the two.

Someone will look after your body and all that is three dimensional will be looked after. But you yourself have to see to Sahaja Yoga. We have to grow in it, but we are so casual that even if a person is sitting in our neighbourhood we will not talk about it. Whoever you meet, talk about it. You will have to give this dedication about Sahaja Yoga. There are many people who... their bodies are separate... Like yesterday, one girl had a badha and when her brother came he got his realisation. In this world there are many parts of you all over, whom you have to gather. This is also a very big Sahaja Yoga. Even in your own house how can someone live without Sahaja Yoga. “If you live in my house then you all will have to come to Sahaja Yoga. You will have to get realisation and keep no badha." There should be an insistence but there is no need to get angry. You must tell them “This casualness will not do." Sahaja Yoga will have to be established with eating, waking, with every breath being taken. Because if you think of yourself as something special, if you think that your body is a temple and there is something special about it then the voice of the Temple bells must keep ringing. Otherwise it will go to waste. Sahaja Yoga can also go to waste. Please understand this. Also the second thing I better tell you that without Sahaja Yoga you now have no personality. Without it you have no blossoming. Without that you have no place. Because when you have come to the kingdom of God you will have to take its citizenship.

Yesterday one family member came and he said that yesterday I went to Gajanan Mahārāj. Who is this Gajanan Mahārāj? I saw that Āgñyā Chakra, Viśhuddhi Chakra, three Chakras were catching. He said that he catches with the photo of Gajanan Mahārāj. I said here I am your sister sitting in your own house and why did you go to Gajanan Mahārāj? First he said, “No, he is a saint." I said: “At least check the vibrations that he is a saint or not!" They just went casually. They should also see. Is this Sahaja Yoga? After becoming a King then wanting to become a beggar, such people should be thrown out! But they said they did not become beggars deliberately. It was in casualness that they went off there. What to do, our wife is like this, what could we do? What could we do our father is like that. Our daughter said “let's go" so we went.

So then they came and said: “Mātājī, my Āgñyā Chakra got caught. My stomach Chakra got caught." Three Chakras of theirs got caught yesterday. I am your real sister sitting here then what was the need for you to go to Gajanan Mahārāj? Then they said, “Our state has gone really bad so now we will go to Sāi Baba." So I told them that you better come here and then go to Sāi Baba otherwise the same will happen there. What wisdom will you gain there? Thousands go there, so what is it you want there? You want material things from Sāi Baba? Will these desires of human beings get fulfilled? You have got all materially. Now what is it you are wanting? You have got kingdoms, palaces now what do you want? The one who has come to give and what you have to get, is of great importance for humanity. God has made you with great care. All this filth which you have collected in your brain, just throw it all away! You have collected all these useless things, all this junk in this temple of yourself. Establish this temple.

In every heart you have to light lamps. Purify your house, purify your family and purify your society. You are very concerned about your relatives. Your mother-in-law has come I have to do for her; I have to give her... What will your mother-in-law give you?... She will beat you with shoes... You must know that your relatives are the Sahaja Yogis. There are no other relatives besides Sahaja Yogis. Sahaja Yogis are the relatives of Sahaja Yogis, because they speak another language, their ways are different; their manner is different. For this you will have to burn your life force (Prāna). For this you will have to share Love.

Love will flow on the edge of your Attention (Chitta). First make your Attention alright. Make it light.

If you keep everything else on your attention how will Sahaja Yoga come? It is coming down through your Attention (Chitta), only. God is waiting to pour this into you, but where is your attention? In two minutes your attention runs here and there. Just put your attention at God's feet. He does not want your money, wealth or anything else. Keep this all with you. This is the stupidity of humans and which you have gathered. What is the importance of all this? Give importance to your attention because it is on this attention that God will come. He has made you young like twenty year olds. Your bodies have healed; He has made your hearts Pure. Collective Consciousness has come into you. Now what? You are still running after this or the other. You consider all those things more important. In your past lives you had earned all this rubbish and left it all behind. Now again you will collect all this wealth and you will again leave it all behind. To live casually for a Sahaja Yogi is a very dangerous thing. What we call as carelessness.

There is a great war going on. You know how other ways and methods have got started for destruction.

Sahaja Yoga is like a lotus standing in these murky waters. Delicate, Fragrant, Beautiful and you are the petals of that lotus. Any filth which falls on you will just slide off when you get to know that you are lotuses.

So if any Chakra is catching then get rid of the filth. You are lotuses; you have been made into lotuses so if any filth falls onto the lotus then the lotus should just throw it off. Each one of you will have to be awakened towards Sahaja Yoga if you have to take the boat of Sahaja Yoga across. Don't sit with your tiny and petty problems of your relatives, homes and your small petty questions. Till when are you going to keep hanging on to this filth. None of these lot is going to side with you. Will my son or daughter get married? Etc... If it happens fine and if it doesn't then fine also. You will spend money there, try and get a name there... And for Sahaja Yoga?... You have no time for Sahaja Yoga. The big thing is that people in India do not have too much money. Their own monetary condition is not too good. But we must know that in this India there are vibrations which control everything. Any other country would have collapsed by now. You are living because of the support of vibrations. What a great country this is. What a country you are born in. You know this. I don't know how to tell the foreigners about the Importance of the Devī. They don't know what is the Devī, what is the Mother. They are such dirty people who don't understand the relationship of the mother, I feel like crying. And you people have become so casual like you shave your beard you meditate in the same way. How is this going to happen? My brothers tell Me, “Why are you killing yourself from morning to evening.

Something might go wrong with your health and then what will your husband tell us? You sleep at 4-5 a.m., day long you are working so hard, why are you doing this, what are you going to get by this?" I can fight alone but what benefits are you all going to get by it? To be casual, to live casually, it is a dismal attitude towards yourself. It is your own insult. It is like a king who has got all the wealth and he is living casually. Arre, rule, ascend the throne! Are you going to finish off Sahaja Yoga by taking up petty little things? Clean your insides; clean your heart. Leave this cunningness and clean your heart and see if we are sitting in innocence. You are doing Me no favour. What you were seeking from lifetimes you are getting that only.

Now that you have come to the last stage, then what is this crazy behaviour? You may not have seen the one who has come to the last stage, but I have seen many like that. First I have to get them stuck to it.

Stick! Stick! Stick! Sometimes you have such thoughts, `That what can we do, our country is so bad and we are so poor here and what good can we do to our country?' Good that you don't have money. I have given realisation to so many people who are rich. Where are they? Just two or three! And they too are such misers. There is no one here with too much money. I have given Realisation to people with lakhs and crores. What are they doing! Good there is not so much money and its nuisance! Good that this money is not stuck to you.

You have less money which is really good. I have seen these rich, so-called, these ministers, they have no joy like you people have. They got their realisation and then just sat down very nicely! There they will sit with money! Big ministers, secretaries have got realisation! What have they done? God protect us from their Egos! Who is a secretary or a king with God! Answer this. Is Shri Mataji right? It is such an important day. Who am I before you? Go where you go for your Pūjās to these temples! Are they going to come on this earth? Get your own temple ready. These little children who just came in are more lucky and blessed than you people. They are beyond money, positions and all this foolishness.

They just want Mātājī. Yesterday some of these children had come and they pleaded with their mothers to let them be at My program for a longer time. I was not giving them any chocolate or anything like that but they wanted to sit more with Mātājī. They understand more than you people. Leave your past and become like children. You have become like children. What a beautiful form! You too were like this My children. You all were like this. Where have you got lost and become disfigured? Be afraid of your ugliness. Look at the beauty of others. When I will go away... when the mother leaves then it is the duty of the children to look after the house. When I come back I see that My children have been spreading Sahaja Yoga. But here when I come I see that 8-10 people have their Āgñyās caught up, some others have their Nābhī caught up and yet others have Viśhuddhi caught up.

Someone went to someone else [Guru], while others have fallen sick, someone is in bad shape, someone's wife is in hospital and another has gone to the lunatic asylum. Oh, what happened! And don't think you are small people. You are very Great people. All these big people are of no use. They don't get their realisation. Know your greatness and then talk. Open yourself and talk. One who speaks even one word in Sahaja Yoga, then sākṣhāt Saraswatī Herself will come and sit there. I am telling you. Just speak and then see. Just start talking about Sahaja Yoga and you will see Saraswatī coming into your Voice. Start writing about it and She will come into your writings. Take up any work in Sahaja and sākṣhāt Hanumān is standing and he tells Me, “Mother, with whom should I stand?" Hanumānjī is doing all your work. Take up any work in the name of your Mother, even of work of the world. For Sahaja Yoga the five Immortals (Chiran-jīvas) are standing there for you. All these deities are ready with their Shaktis standing in the background for you. And what do they see that the actor who has come is in very bad shape. He is looking here and there. How will the drama go on? This half baked attitude won't do.

“Mātājī, I don't get time to sit for meditation." What do you mean that you get no time? What is time meant for? Who has given you this time? If you have no time for yourself then how will you get time for God? How do you get no time! You should wake up at 4 a.m. You have seen your Mother. How many hours does She sleep? Wake up at 4 in the morning. Tell yourself. You have to go into meditation from 4 to 5 a.m. Throw away your sleep! Give up keeping awake in the night. Stop talking with useless people. Stop these useless associations, these relatives, all these useless people. All these are bhoots. Have we come here to waste our time on these people? I don't spend even one moment on telling you about Sahaja Yoga. Not even one moment. I have to meet thousands of people from My husband's office with whom I have to shake hands at receptions; I use it for giving realisation. They shake hands and I give them realisation. I see that he has got realisation and I feel like laughing. Whichever country I go to I keep giving realisation. Whoever I speak to I keep giving realisation. He keeps talking and I keep on giving realisation. He goes on talking about his own things. Where I get a chance I keep giving realisation.

On Victoria station a Pakistani Muslim was collecting tickets. The line was very long and I was giving realisation to him standing in the line and also to the people standing in the line in front of Me. Just as he gave Me the ticket and looked at Me he got his realisation. He gave all their tickets and came and sat in My compartment, where I sitting alone. He asked: “Who are you? How do you have such an attraction?" I asked who he was. He said he is Hussain.

So I told him to sit down and put his hands towards Me. He says, “What is this happening? Cool? Who are You?" I said, “See and recognize." I went to Rome [in 1974], where many artists were sitting and painting something. I gave one realisation, then he got up and said something to the one next to him and then came and caught hold of My feet and started crying bitterly, saying “Mother, when did You come?" I had gone there as the wife of a big officer with three or four official people standing beside Me. They all got embarrassed wondering what he is doing. He started saying, “Mother, I have found You. In the night You had come in My dreams and said that I will wear such and such sarī and You have come in the same sarī." Even a moment I think of nothing but Sahaja Yoga. I have forgotten all the past. I have had big births, big people. I have forgotten all the past and future. In this moment I remember only Sahaja Yoga and nothing else. In the same way you people should think of Sahaja Yoga only at each moment. Wherever you sit there should be Sahaja Yoga. Throw away your watches! Throw away this servitude to watches! Sahaja Yoga is your watch. If it is 12:30 it does not matter. It is 3 a.m. You are sitting in Sahaja Yoga. Is Sahaja Yoga the servant of a watch or time! We are not servants of any laws or rituals. We are standing only in Sahaja Yoga. We keep sitting even if it takes time. Are we some servants of our stomachs! We are servants of no one. Everything keeps happening. It has to happen. Throw away this servitude to all your old bindings! Throw away your watches! There is no system made for anything. In Sahaja Yoga there can never be a system. It makes its own system. Let it be made. If you try and make systems then it will be destroyed. Don't make disciplines. Let the discipline of Sahaja Yoga keep moving within you. Yes for those who have not got their realisation for them the discipline is important. You do that.

But those who have got realisation such people have to get their own discipline inside. The discipline will come by itself within. Sahaja Yogis have an inbuilt discipline. There is no forgiveness for this. The one who is not a Sahaja Yogi should be forgiven because he does not understand what discipline is. He only knows the worldly discipline of the stick. Let the discipline come from within and awaken from within for Sahaja Yogis. See how much you are moving in the discipline of Sahaja. You are moving with its hand and feet and rising with its waves. How much is the discipline tied with the waves of an ocean? You can tell sitting here at what time low tide or high tide will come in London. Who has tied its discipline that you have started tying other's discipline! Learn to step into the discipline of the within. Learn to move in the directions and methods of within. Its methods are moving. Don't make your own. Make your own this that, `Let's get more into Sahaja, spend time for Sahaja.' If you have to wear watches then wear it for Sahaja Yoga. If you have to put alarm then let it be for Sahaja Yoga.

[Aside to a person who just entered:] Come and sit. You are all within My heart. Are you far away? You must understand this.

Even one leaf in this world cannot move without His discipline. Blend yourself in His discipline and merge in with His harmony. Harmonize yourself totally. When it rises you rise when it falls you fall. When we try to do our own thing then we are left behind. Keep moulding yourself with it. This can happen only through Sahaja Yoga and not through any worldly things.

There is only one way which I have said a thousand times and I am saying again that your fortress is Thoughtlessness (Nirvicharitā)! Know in Thoughtless Awareness and you will know everything. Anything you have to do, go into Thoughtlessness. Once you do all worldly works in thoughtless awareness then you will know that how dynamic it has become. Who has seen flowers bloom or become fruits? Who has seen the living work of this world? It is being done. You are moving in the dynamism and in this living thing.

It is coming from thoughtlessness. When you sit there the whole world becomes pale. Try to make a habit of remaining in Thoughtlessness. Every work is done through thoughtlessness and so will yours. Your movement within has to be done by you. There is no age limit for this, that we have become old. You are not old. You have been reborn hardly 3-4 years ago. You are just small little children. It is not a question of age. One should remain in Thoughtlessness. This is your place, your wealth, your strength (Shakti).

This is your form. This is your beauty. This is your life. Thoughtless! As soon as you are thoughtless the outside methods, the whole of it starts moving in your hands. Live in thoughtlessness. Over there, there is no Time, no Direction, nor can anyone touch it. There is only a vision of the Living. There is only a vision of Life and how it blooms. There is vision of its Beauty, its Capability, its Prosperity and its Truth.

Watch it from where the stream of life is flowing.

But when you become brainless, or extremely stupid, then how will It show you? Or to be heartless, without love, selfish, self centred, to be ugly, to do atrocities, to keep on thinking about yourself, to think that you are something very great, then how will It show you the way. In the movement of Sahaja Yoga there should be such beauty. While doing it there should be tremendous faith. When raising the Kuṇḍalinī there should be so much Devotion that it is like you are praying to the Kuṇḍalinī or Mother of another.

There should be great respect for that state, so much thought about it. In everything, in your behaviour, your talk, the way you talk, in your touch, your laughter and your tears. In everything there should be such a vision of your heart. It is massive. This massiveness should show from within you. There should be a Vision of the Skies within you. The Purity of Water should reflect from within you. The Brilliance of the Sun should show from your face, the Coolness of the Moon should flow from within you. Flowing everywhere, you should be like the Wind. Your breath is beating in everyone at this time. Know this! Don't play with your life. By being extremely reverent and humble just accept it, the new life the Divine is putting within us. May you accept his Grace, His Love. You don't need to bathe or wash your hands for it, you need to do nothing but clean your heart. Clean your heart. “O God, please clean our hearts and make us leave our cunning and deceitful ways." Clean your hearts as He is going to descend in the lotus of your hearts. Clean your hearts. Are our hearts clean? Who are you deceiving? To whom are you telling lies? You are all one. I can never say to one person only. I am speaking to each one of you that you are all in one body; and that too in My body. You are My projection. I am telling Myself. To whom else shall I say? Who is the other? When you are sick I feel pain within just like I Myself have got sick.

And when you are happy then I feel tremendous joy just like I have Myself become happy. When you are unhappy then I too don't enjoy any joy. I keep awake night and day for you.

Whatever or whichever way you can do, one must give time, give full time. Now we are going to make an ashram, so the ones who have money can give money. You will have to give. You spend money here and there. Of what use has it been your spending money here and there. I don't need your money. I need nothing. I don't need to spend anywhere. This ashram is being made for you, your brothers and sisters, who are going to live there. Now these realised children are being born, they need a school and someone who can look after them. Give money for that. How will the money come? Any money that comes from you is very important. Such people come here who do not want to spend even one rupee. There are not such poor people here. If that is the case then it is alright. But those who cannot give even one rupee, can such people be Sahaja Yogis? I get really amazed that they trouble for giving one rupee or five rupees! You will have to give in thousands. Who has given you this money? I don't want it. What can you give Me! At least give for yourself, for your children, for your benefit. Tomorrow you yourself will come and live in those ashrams, I know it. There is no need to be such misers or be freeloaders. Live like Kings.

Just like I don't eat for free you should also not eat for free. Whoever can do, do. One who has time, give time. One who can work, then work. One who has to give realisation, then give realisation, one has to take out the bhoots then take out the bhoots. Do for Sahaja Yoga. You will have to. Without doing so your ego will not die and neither will your super ego die unless and until you do not do something for Sahaja Yoga. Again your Āgñyā will catch. “Mātājī, my head is caught." “Mātājī my daughter ran away." “Mātājī, such and such happened to my father." It will happen. I don't do anything. The Gaṇas don't do anything. Wherever you have a weakness, there only the Bhūts will catch you. They don't catch Me.

Why don't they catch Me? What has Mātājī given us! She has given so much to someone else. Arre! He had to get so he got it.

What you have got is no less. You have no value for what you have got. There should be a satisfaction within. Catch hold of that Satisfaction. Stand in that Satisfaction. How can I tell you? There are also computers and points about this. Press the Satisfaction key and Satisfaction gets awakened within. Press another key and your Innocence will awaken. Press another and Truth will awaken. This is all within you. By pressing the fingers the whole program can get set. But first at least there should be innocence.

There should be some satisfaction otherwise when you press the finger what will come out? Vacuum? One who has pressed Satisfaction has arrived at Satisfaction. They have arrived at wealth. They are sitting in wealth.

Some have collected your wealth from years by burning your bodies for years and are now standing before you. In the same way you must collect things one by one. Satisfaction. Come into Innocence, Come into Wealth, Come into Beauty. Come into Truth. Come into Love. All the buttons are there.

How are we going to do it, how will we do it? There is no word like `how will we' in Sahaja Yoga.

Whatever you want to earn you can within yourself. You can earn satisfaction within yourself; you can earn everything within yourself. Press the button and whatever you want will keep on coming to you. You will become a machine within. I can't understand how to get that attainment within you and join you.

Let us now go into Meditation.

Contents: 1975-02-09 Pūjā, Prayer to the Almighty, Mumbai, India

You must pray, to God and ask, what you want.

Ask for `Complete satisfaction in my heart, joy in my heart, bliss in my heart, so that the whole world becomes blissful. Give me love, love that I could love the whole world and that the whole world becomes one in love. Give salvation to the entire humanity which is suffering. Take me to Your feet. Cleanse me with Thy love.' Now see if there is God or not. You can feel it within yourself. He hears you. He understands you.

He's the glory of all the glory. He loves you. He protects you. He guides you. He created you to reveal His love, but accept it.

Any time any thought is coming you pray and you will be moving in the waves of that ocean which is unconscious mind, which starts with thoughtless awareness. [Long pause.] If you cannot become thoughtless, you pray to Him: `Forgive me for what I have done and forgive those who have done harm to me.' [Blowing in the microphone.]

When we say `spontaneous salvation', it implies that salvation has to click by itself. The translation of word spontaneous is `Sahaj'. Sahaj means: `saha' means with, `ja' means born. It is born within you.

That means the right of getting salvation is born within you; the mechanism by which you are going to get salvation is also born with you and the opportunity of getting salvation is also born with you.

But when I say it is born with you, it is spontaneous, it is within yourself, one starts wondering that many books have written like that, so many people have said that salvation has to be spontaneous, Sahaj.

All the great Gurus, the real people, all the great incarnations have described that salvation is going to come to you spontaneously. Even rationally, if you understand that if salvation means an evolutionary process it has to be spontaneous. Till you have become a human being, the evolution from amoeba to this stage has taken place spontaneously, not with your effort, effortlessly. You cannot do anything about living process.

So far man has not been able to do anything whatsoever. What he has done is just to transform the forms of dead matter into something else. But all the living processes have worked spontaneously, have clicked spontaneously. Even your salvation has to be spontaneous.

The only difference between the evolving of human being from animal stage and the evolution of human being to the superhuman into the fourth dimension, as I told you this morning, is that so far all the your evolution took place without your awareness. You were not aware of it. A dog does not know how he become a dog from a fish. Human beings do not know how he became, or was not aware, how he become from a chimpanzee, a regular human being. He was not aware even when he was a prehistoric man. He is not aware, how he has evolved his ego, how he had evolved his frontal brain from pre-historic stage to this modern stage.

But now the ascent of man is going to happen in his own awareness. We can say āpki chetna mein he āp apne kalyan ko janeyega, chetansya ke tarah janeyega. In your awareness you will know, i.e. your awareness is the most important thing. Anything that takes away your awareness like trans or switching off the mind is against evolution, is against your ascent. It is something that will deaden you. Now the life force is going to act in your awareness and you will know that you have evolved. It may happen so quickly that you may feel that how you have achieved. For example, suddenly if you jump on to the moon you will be quite surprised how you are there. But if you start feeling the moon, when you start feeling the atmosphere and when you start feeling that you are in a different planet and a different understanding then you will definitely evolved. You have become a different personality.

So many Gurus and avatāras, ṛishi munis, have talked about ascent of man. Christ, Mohammed Sahib, Guru Nanak, all these people have talked about this that you have to go beyond this Māyā [illusions], this Bhava-sāgara [ocean of illusions], this misidentification. Just see how we are misidentified. We are born in this country. We could be born in England. We could be born anywhere. We are born as Hindus. We could be born as Muslims. We could have been born as Christians. We could have been anything. For a Hindu there is nothing like caste and community. If he believes in the previous birth, he must know that he must have been a Muslim, he must have been a Chinese, he must have been anything. He could be anything. If you believe in the previous birth, you cannot be fanatic about this. That is why Hindu religion is the most tolerant of all. It is extremely tolerant because all the findings of this philosophy are done by people in the actual field of spiritual life. It is not based on one personality. But all those religions who are even based on one personality are nothing but flowers on the same tree. They follow us even as Hindus.

Hindus are the most fanatic, extremely fanatic. They are so foolishly fanatic that it is impossible to tell them a small thing like `brahmin' means that you must know Brahma and you are to be born again, is the first thing written down in your books. If you are born a Brahmin you are not a brahmin. I do not know how people have manipulated this terms that if you are born a Brahmin, you are a brahmin.

You are brahmin means the one who knows Brahma, the one where Sahasrāra is broken, the one who has become one with All-pervading Power, is the only brahmin.

I am not telling you something of Mine. It is truth. How many are there such brahmins in the world.

Even `Sikh' means that, even `Mussulman' means that, Mussulman, born again, twice... `Christian' means that, they baptize. What is baptize: where `Brahmarandhra' is broken.

In Nepal, you might have heard that when the king dies they break his Brahmarandhra, keep it open artificially and then the king has to die. That is all artificially done. But unless and until you are a realised Soul, you are not a brahmin. For example Śhrī Shañkarāchārya. Think of Ādi Shañkarāchārya. He is the man. He is the person. You have to believe him and not all his interpreters. Read him what he says that you are to be born a brahmin and that this will not happen through Yoga or [UNCLEAR]-na yoge na [UNCLEAR]. It will happen spontaneously with Mothers's grace, is clearly written down by that great son of this country. How many are there who are following that implicitly? These who believe in the reality of Hinduism, in the reality of their religion, must go to the essences of religion. Now there are many Sikhs. I can talk about Guru Nanak. Guru Nanak has clearly said, I would say nobody has said so clearly as He, so clearly has said it, Kahe re van khojan jahe.

Sada niwasi sada alepa tohe sangh samahi.

Pushpa madhaye jo was basat hai makar mahi jas jhahi.

Taise he Hari base nirantar ghat he khoje bhai.

(you are just singing these songs from morning till evening in your Darbar Sahib. These are the descriptions your great Guru has given you to search within your ghat. When are you going to do that? Stop all that. I am not against your bhajan. But now entertainment is not the way. Let it be over now.)

Let us search it within ourselves. Find out that center which he has said. What are we singing about? Have we done any justice to our Guru. Have we done any justice to our Ādi Shañkarāchārya? Have we done any justice to Christ or to Mohammad Sahib? We have not; we are doing just the opposite of what they have told us.

Muslims are very fanatic people. I would say Mohammad Sahib was the least fanatic personality. He suffered so much. I think, in that incarnation, no Guru has suffered as much as He has. He suffered too much beyond description. Ultimately he was given poison. He was killed.

Ask these Muslims, how many of you are real Mussulmans. The time has come for all of you to take to the principle of religion, the power of religion, the awareness on which all these flowers have bloomed. We have taken them away from their sources and we are building them according to our way of dead thinking.

We have made them dead. They have lost their fragrance. They have got their angularity. They are dying.

But the truth cannot die. These great people cannot die. You may die, your dogmas will die. All misidentifications will die. They will live, for ever and ever.

Today for us. All religions people who believe in religion are real and not for the prevalence. This is what Sahaja Yoga is.

Some say that I am the author of Sahaja Yoga. Now how am I to tell you what is My aim. I have lived for thousand of years doing Sahaj Yoga. In all My lives I have been doing Sahaj Yoga with all these great people. Sahaj Yoga, we have tried in all lives, in all nations and countries and people. Today is the day, now is the time to achieve results of all the work and the effort and the prayers of all the speakers.

Today is the day to receive the blessings of the Divine which is represented by these great incarnations, these great Guru on this earth. It is. This going to happen to many of you. But there are very few who come to this.

Today again somebody told Me I do not charge any money. They think how can it be without any money. Just see the falsehood of life. How can you purchase God? How much money do you have to purchase your mother? A journalist told Me, “Mātājī, you do not charge any money that is why people do not come to you.

You may advertise any amount, but you must put up some ticket on that to satisfy their ego and they come here that they are doing something in the name of God." When I say you do not have to do anything, is Sahaj, it is effortless, your ego is immediately hurt and you say how can that be. But just think of it. If a seed has to sprout, it will sprout spontaneously. Suppose you stand on your head, say any mantra or anything, whatever you may try, nothing is going to work out. It is going to work out by itself. Can you sprout a seed? Even one single seed? Can you? You cannot.

I say one who is doing thousands and thousands of such miraculous things in a second, in a split of a second, you are challenging and trying to buy that personality! See the myth of man. See the misidentification! Who wants reality? That is why Sahaj Yoga prospers slowly, but gradually and steadily.

Of course, as I told you this morning that there is a mechanism, there is a method, there is an engineering behind all these lines charged by switching off and on of one switch. There is a light which works automatically when you push a button. But that does not mean there is no engineering, there is no mechanism. There is a mechanism, a complicated mechanism of God which works on the Power of Love. Can you think of Power of Love that thinks, which is wisdom? You cannot imagine such a power that thinks, which is wisdom itself. Can you think of electricity that can think, which can control its light automatically according to the need I want to have, which can think. This is the power which is within ourselves which thinks, regulates our being, growth, evolution. That is the power we are going to harvest.

That is the power we are going to be one with. That is the power which is going to get us that integration of the vibration which has created all this universe which exists even in the molecules and atoms, with our awareness. This is the power which I call as Kuṇḍalinī which is kept in your being absolutely waiting for the day when you can receive the blessings of the personality who knows the job, who is love Herself.

That is the day it is going to rise automatically, it is going to work out. This is written in our books.

Even if you read Bible you find it is said: “I will appear before you like tons of flames." That is nothing but the centers, the Chakras. They really look like tons of flames. Specially the Sahasrāra looks like tons [tongues] of flames. There are so many sentences, in the Bible, Granth Sahib or any book you read. You will find that what I am saying is absolutely the same thing that you find in them. There is no difference whatsoever but the only thing is I will show you the practical aspect.

Sahaj Yoga, which is now in modern times, I have revived and channelized that is how you can call it, whatever you may call it, it has got a new shape, is the practical religion which will explain all the religions and all the great leaders of Kali Yug. It will give you the basis, the practical basis, the actual basis, the factual basis to prove the existence of the Truth. That is described in all these great books. It is absolutely scientific, even a child can understand.

May God bless you.

Contents: 1975-03-15 Quote from the article `Spiritual Leadership', Column WORLD OF EVE, Eve’s Weekly, New Delhi, India

Sahaja Yoga it is a unique system, effortless, easy and spontaneous; it is also natural to nature and can be described as he life's source, vitality, or the Divine.

Contents: 1975-03-29 Quote (Hindi), Mumbai, India

Today I am standing in front of you because of your prayers. If you see in temples and in mosques or anywhere disciples are doing prayers for Mother then Mother's heart starts bouncing. You must have noticed that whenever you people are singing My whole body starts giving countless vibrations. If I hear some song or record or in a picture someone is singing for their mother, My whole body starts giving vibrations, like millions of strands. All this you understand and you know that how a Mother is? Today that time has come when your prayers, your desires your wishes are manifesting within Me, I haven't come on My own. I have come on your request, since ages you have been appealing and entreating, for that reason I have come in [a] human body.

Contents: 1975-03-29, Public Program (Hindi), Day 1, VuGñyān Manushya Ki Rachana Nahi Khoj Hai (Science is Human's Discovery, not Creation), Mumbai, India

To you people I have told you many times by explaining adequately, displaying and by practically doing it. Prior to this I have said also that what Sahaja Yoga is, what happens in this, how it happens. I have given scientific explanations and scientific definitions sufficiently.

However that which we call `science'. `Science' has not been created by man but they have searched and found it. They call it `science' but they have not created anything of the universe. No laws of the universe have been made by them. No Shāstra [science] had been made by them. Its laws and methods all that had been made by God.

For example you see a circle and its diameter. There is a ratio or proportion between the circumference and its diameter that has not been made by you. Its law has been made by God only that it is neither more or less. It will always be the same. That ratio has been fixed. All the laws and the regulations that have been made are by God only. Many of you have asked Me, “Shri Mataji, why do you say 3½ coil? Why 3½ coils of Kuṇḍalinī is said to be?" It is absolutely scientific thing. Those who might have seen the circle of a clock can understand this.

In the clock, the diameter D [Vyas 2R] of a circle and the circumference C [Paridhi $2\pi R = \pi D$ where R = radius of a circle], if diameter is 7 then circumference has to be 22. Neither less nor more.

Their relationship is always 22/7 and it has been made as coefficient and its name is given as `pi' [π] which means $C=\pi D = 2\pi R=2R \times 22/7$.

If 7 become 8 then in the same proportion the circumference will be.

When this goes through the midpoint [of 3½ coils] then it has to become 7. In the same way within us Suṣhumnā Nāḍī has gone through. In that also 7 come. In that also 7 Chakras [energy centers] are made.

And in it also becomes 3½ when you divide diameter [7] by 2.

If you make 3½ coils, in that ratio of `pi' [π], one over the other like Kuṇḍalinī and draw a line through its central point then it well be divided into 7 parts. But is actually 3½ coils only.

Is there any scientist or mathematician here? When you make coil one over the other and when you make hole through its center point then it will cut at 7 places, therefore we have 7 Chakras within us.

But in case of circumference it is different. When you divide 22 by 2 then it is 11 and make half of 7 then it is 3.5 or 3½. But you see how much mathematics are there in it. You can see it.

That which goes through middle is as per seven. And that goes through the light is as per eleven. That is why when in our place we give money then we give 11 rupees. Now you might have understood the importance of 11. Whatever is written in our ancient Shāstras [sciences] are endless (anādi). It cannot be understood by great mathematician also. Because whatever those sages found had written that Kuṇḍalinī is a coil consisting of three and half [3½] coils. But they had not been able to tell why it is so.

But scientists may be able to say why it is so. When you wrap three and half like this then the whole circumference is covered. Without that it cannot happen at all. And when you make seven holes from top to bottom the seven Chakras are made. Now scientists are searching this side [in modern times] and they [ancient sages] found in the past.

So whatever has happened between these two is due to Sahaja Yoga. Where science has no way to go ahead, reach at dead end, where science has bowed down and defeated, there Sahaja Yoga can give them hope and tell them that whatever have been told by them [ancient sages]. The same things are written in your books of science also. Only there is difference of definitions and what are the reasons for that.

Sahaja Yoga is adequately beyond those sages also. It also takes us beyond those Rishis and Munis [Pure Personalities] who have found the truth. But we have seen here many great sages and yogis who do not collect money. They are very great people. They are out of worldly affairs and serve the world with their vibrations.

But we have not yet seen anybody like those who can raise Kuṇḍalinī of people like you by a visual signal, except Śhrī Gaṇeśha. In the hand of Śhrī Gaṇeśha there is a small snake that is the symbol of your Kuṇḍalinī. Except Gaṇeśha and you who are My sons and daughters and are born out of My Sahasrāra, I have not seen anybody who can raise Kuṇḍalinī just by a signal. It is really true. By this many people will say that, “How can these people have done so much effort and have done so much?" Let Me tell you a special thing that a king has his minister who knows everything about how to run the government and he looks after all the management of the kingdom. But the Gṛuhalakṣhmī [the queen] gives the keys of the palace to Her children and not to the minister. Maybe there will be big scholars of high status.

Those who are not born out of My Sahasrāra, as long as they do not accept this fact that they are My children, they have no authority and the same is not granted to them.

Therefore My own disciples also put many questions and answers to Me. They say that they had gone to those big people but they do not know the way what we know.

We know which Chakra is caught and where it is caught. We can so easily clear it. And with our invitation Kuṇḍalinī of thousands rises and we get them realised. How is it? The reason is that you are born out of My Sahasrāra. One more person is there like this Jesus Christ who was born out Mother's heart. He also has the authority. But at that time was not proper that such work could be done.

Now the time has come that you people are prepared for it. Now it may happen because we are the normal people. We are absolutely normal and how we can do this work even we do not know. But we are doing it, no doubt about it. You people can see and raise Kuṇḍalinī of all and correct it, etc. You can drive out and throw thousands of bhoot, badhas and diseases and all the worldly problems.

And now you see these people. I have seen big Mahantas [Priests of Mathas]. When we went to them we too had been caught by epilepsy. He had taken somebody's epilepsy in him but do not get paralyzed.

And nothing can hurt you and your health becomes all right when you are realised. If anybody's health is bad then it will be cured easily. You have these experiences.

In Rahuri also I was asked the same questions. There I did not tell this thing that you are born out of My Sahasrāra. I had created you out of My head that's why you have got special privilege. You are specially authorized people. I accept that there are people who are also realised from Sahaja Yoga. Great sages are realised through Sahaja Yoga with many practices and penances of thousands of years but within them even now there is no acceptance for Me.

Today I am openly telling you. As long as you do not accept Me [as your Mother], this work will not be done. This thing I did not say earlier. Like Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa said, “Sarva Dharmanam paritajya mamekam sharanam vraja" [means forget all Dharmas and surrender to Me], the same is My saying. As Christ had said, “I am the Light, I am the Path” same is My statement, “I am the Destination, not only the Path." I did not say this to you because I had very bad experiences. This is the only reason. You people have to come to My refuge (sharana-gata). You have to accept Me as Mother and live like My sons. Without that your work will not be done.

With this small reason, the great sages and souls have reached a state of tiredness but they will not achieve. They have not recognized Me. And the other thing is that their mind is still hardened with this kind ego of being something special because they have got realisation without knowing and they do not know who is the Mother. But you people have recognized Me then you have got realisation.

Now keep it in that if a little bit you go stray then your vibration is lost then you say, “Mātājī is All Pervading, then how vibrations have left you?" In All-pervading too from where the vibrations come? One has to think. Wherever you will be at any place, when you will utter a single word against Sahaja Yoga, your vibrations will be lost and after that whatever you do or remain engaged in whatever work in that bhoots will accompany you but Mother will not be there.

I have seen such people who come to My place and take vibrations for few days and when bhoot-badhas settle in them, then they do work of bhoot-badhas only. That becomes their style and method of working.

Their way of telling becomes different. Then they do not see Kuṇḍalinī. They tell what is the number of the horse, what has happened to your father, what will happen to your mother. They do not come to the reality.

Many such people came to our Sahaja Yoga and got lost. For few days they remained and did this and that work. They worked as if they were great saint and great soul and after sometime it was found that great badhas are settled in them and they were in great troubles.

Therefore try to understand one thing that if you commit sin against Sahaja Yoga, I may forgive but God Almighty will never forgive you. In our own house, My own daughter, I will tell you, one she became a little angry. Immediately from her ears hot air started blowing out. Then I told her to rub her ears and say, “Please forgive me doing such thing is wrong." Although you are My own daughter but if you say anything against Sahaja Yoga, it is not authorized, it is unauthorized effort.

Today I am standing before you, is because of your call and it was My duty. It is not like this that devotees here and there call Mother in temples and mosques, then the Mother's heart starts pulsating.

You might have seen whenever you call Me with the depth of your heart, then countless vibrations start flowing. If I hear such a song or listen a record or in cinema it is seen where Mother is being called then from My body crowds of waves of vibrations generate.

This you might have also experienced and seen also. You also understand that such is the quality [Love] of the Mother.

Today the time has come where your asking, your wanting and your calling become manifested within Me. I have not come of My own, I have come on account of your calling Me.

From the time immemorial whatever your callings and screamings were heard by Me and that is why I have taken up My body.

Now also you are common [normal] people who will recognize Me first. And those who have become great Sādhus and saints and Babaji and sitting, they will not recognize Me. They had not recognized Christ nor Rādhā and have not recognized Me. And now also they will not recognize Me. Even now they are sitting as Babaji with their ego.

The person who does not know their Mother, how can they recognize the Father? One should think Sahaja Yoga as an ordinary thing. Sahaja Yoga is not an ordinary thing. This is absolutely incomparable, unique thing, extraordinarily unique thing I have brought. You will not find in any book written like this that which of your Chakra is caught. This is Viśhuddhi Chakra. Did you know anywhere that this is Nābhī Chakra and this is Sahasrāra Chakra? Has anybody anytime told you these things? Has anybody so much openly told you about Kuṇḍalinī and shown? Nobody till today and earlier done this work in the world like today [we are doing].

But your people's incompleteness or halfway work done will destroy it. That you have come here to take with you is very great thing, very very great thing. You might not have imagined that a day will come, maybe before My eyes or later when it will spread in the world, that we people have attained a new dimension. But by you people's half-heartedness, it may happen that the process of destruction will come immediate. The wheel of Dharma is moving anticlockwise, that you know and also it is seen. The work of moving it in the right way can be done only by Sahaja Yoga.

But those people who are coming to Sahaja Yoga have to be extremely Dharmic, truthful and generous.

They must learn complete explanation of Dharma. Only vibrations will not work. Many people come before Me and vibrations go into them vigorously and when they go away then nothing happens.

In fact you must get vibrations from everywhere. Is there any place where I am not present? At every place you must feel vibrations and it must come so much that whatever you do, vibrations flow over you because you are living being. Recently we sat at the place of Gaṇapati of [UNCLEAR Ranjangaon]. There we saw the Gaṇapati and found that less vibrations were coming. Those who were with Me were surprised to know why less vibrations are coming when it is an awakened place.

I told them, “First you try to know that who has recognized this awakening." Is it found by a human being that it is an awakened place? He must have been a highly realised saint who might have seen the vibrations and said that it was a holy place. Then a vibrated stone might have been brought there. Maybe somebody might have moved around his hand to give a shape. It might be so and also might not be because a man's mind runs according to his own, isn't it? There was no necessity to touch it. After that in the temple its Pūjāri [person in charge of worship], all his Chakras were badly caught. Chakras of all Pūjāris who were there were caught. On it Sindoor [vermilion], donations, all those which had been offered were caught. One thing is naturally there in a man that it was an awakened and holy place but does not have that much sense that the vibrations coming from there is half of full. Three Chakras of his [of the Pūjāri] were also caught. Even now I did not understand when I went inside the temple then Pundit told Me that, “You cannot sit inside, you sit outside and you cannot touch it [statue of Gaṇapati]." Then I thought that if I could not touch it then the statue will remain like as before. Then I went from behind and saw the statue and went near it and put My Sahasrāra on it. Then vibrations gushed out strongly. Therefore it must be understood that you are the living instrument of Divine. If we say within you, more vibrations can come out compared to these temples. But first of all you must be living instrument of Divine.

Those who like to have dead things, talk about dead things, they die. They become living dead. To run after dead objects (jaḍa vastu) is a kind of hobby.

To run after that or to run away from it is the same thing. To take to Sannyāsa [leave family life and go to Himālaya] and to run away from Sannyāsa, there is no difference between these two.

You have to be firm on your position. First thing is you have to make your position. Second is you have to make your Dharma. Dharma means you have to allow the flow of these vibrations out continuously.

Sometimes you desire to go somewhere, you see somebody has fallen down. Then run and take hold of him and give vibrations and save him. Let the world say anything. Vibrations are flowing from you and that is your Dharma.

I have told you that the quality of gold is not that it is yellow. Its Dharma is also not that ornaments can be made from it. Its Dharma is only one and that it is never get spoiled by anything. Similarly diamond has its own Dharma that it can cut everything. It is the hardest thing. In the same way the man has also his Dharma to achieve God and know Him and those people who have achieved has their Dharma to assimilate it completely and spread it all over the world.

But when you talk this and that then you will not get either of them. Your vibrations will vanish and all My efforts will become of no use. There is no religion in the world where Divine vibrations have been told.

It means nobody has said so that vibrations are Dharma. They call it `Ruh', `Water of Life'. They say anything but we say vibrations are real Dharmas [religion].

You have plainly known about it, how much it has been enunciated. Ādi Shañkarāchārya has also praised it. It cannot be taught, written and explained. It has to happen.

It does not happen to many intellectuals who think that they are well read and know more. To such great persons [egoists] nothing happens. What can I do? It is an automatic happening. It happens to many, happens to thousands. But if you stick to false and useless things and then you also talk about false things and you continue to catch and remain with false things which make you inert [immobile] then with that inertia (jaḍatā) you will become stuck to that.

The Chaitanya [living power] which is flowing from your person, you have to know how to spread it and for that you have to give some time, I have told you earlier. It is true.

But the `priority' is also a thing. You have to change your priority. Within few days you will be established in your priority then you will enjoy it. You will get all the joy of the whole world.

Whatever are the attractions and beauty of the world, all the wealth and Lakṣhmī, whatever is there which you call knowledge, it is the source of all these things. It also knows, also loves and is the beauty too. It is the same Divine Power (Divya Shakti) about which we have read and known about it thousands times.

And by this Divine Power the whole creation is created. You are created and by this only you will know it that it is the Shakti. This is a great thing. Slowly and slowly it will shine.

Any living process takes time and it grows slowly. It does not bear any quick process. But I see that its roots have gone very deep.

Now I have come from Rahuri. I was very happy to know that the scientists there have proved it scientifically. They have done experiments on their plants and crops and made it a scientific thing. They were telling that they will go and tell the people about it [vibrations] that this is the only Truth. Rest it is untruth. We will tell everybody about its name [Kuṇḍalinī] that his only is the Shakti which is your own.

Your own Shakti is becoming useless by the one which is sitting within you.

For example in Yamuna river there were many pitchers filled with water but when in those pitcher holes are made then the waters of pitchers mix with waters of Yamuna and become one with it.

In the same way you should also become [like pitchers]. But I want that you should know it fully and get it like Gopis and Gopas were searching in the times of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. That thing today you have got within yourself. I have told you many times that its depth [subtlety] is beyond microscopes.

I have come to tell you the thing of that depth but become authorized.

Those who have no authority, I cannot tell them. Therefore the thing I have told you today, I did not say earlier anytime.

If anybody from you wants to ask any question then one or two persons may ask Me. Please ask Me a question if anybody wants because I do not know what are your questions.

Contents: 1975-03-30*, Public Program (Hindi), Day 2, Trigunātmika, Mumbai, India

Yesterday I told.....

Is it heard behind, no? Ask them to come forward.

I have told you that the human body, his mind, his wisdom, etc, all his personality whatever he has is made up of three kinds of powers.

One power or energy which gives us our existence in this world, it resides in the human being as Prāna [Vital power] and its place is in our hearts. The other power which is in our stomach by which we have evolved up to the level of human being is `Dharma' and the third power which is full of awareness by which we have achieved the support of our consciousness in many ways.

But all these three powers are found in The All Pervading Divine Love of God Almighty. This All-pervading Power of Divine Love of God Almighty activates all these three powers and integrates them.

For example in the inert object (jaḍa vastu) in that also you see vibrations which you call `Electromagnetic Vibrations'. Even that also is the form of Prāna [vitality] but it is in the state of sleep. But when it is awakened then it becomes Prāna [mobile].

That which is in a very tiny amoeba, is in the stomach and cause starvation in human being is awakened in the form of `Dharma'. Dharma is in everything. As I have said that the Dharma of gold is not that because it is yellow in colour. Its Dharma is even not that you can make ornaments from it. But its Dharma [quality] is that in no circumstances it gets tarnished. It does not get spoiled.

Now the third thing is the Awareness or Consciousness which is much more developed in the minds of the human being.

Man has now become completely mature in all these three powers. He has developed and become prepared with all these three powers to know the one power which is the Love of God and know the Love of God. This one power of God has been divided into these three powers and let it become one with it.

Within us resides a great part of that Absolute Power of God in the form of Kuṇḍalinī sleeping in the triangular bone.

When any such person who has achieved within himself this power of Love of God and in whom this power is completely integrated and flowing means he has become a `realised Soul' then he can awaken the Kuṇḍalinī of a Sādhaka [child].

So Kuṇḍalinī being your mother is awakened in you.

But a seeker `Kuṇḍalinī' then it is same as somebody not knowing driving bullock cart is driving the motor car.

So if someone who does not know to drive motor car drives motor car then the car will smash and break it into pieces. In the same way those people who want to awaken their own Kuṇḍalinī, they will completely destroy the instrument of their own Kuṇḍalinī. If anybody who has no knowledge wants to awaken Kuṇḍalinī then also the same thing happens. If an impure person comes towards your mother Kuṇḍalinī and wants to awaken Her then also the same thing happens. And anybody for the sake of money and to loot you by making fool of puts his hand on your Kuṇḍalinī then it also results into the same thing.

So the person who is filled with the Love of God and in whom the collective consciousness is flowing completely is empowered to do this work to send invitation to Kuṇḍalinī to be awakened. Invitations to Kuṇḍalinī cannot be sent by such a person who is engaged in obscure practices and they become great sinners. Those who spoil or destroy others Kuṇḍalinī, then their own Kuṇḍalinī is destroyed for ages and they take births in the form of all kinds of insects.

Therefore one should never dare to play with Kuṇḍalinī. In other things it is all right. You can do smuggling, stealing and take all things of the world, that does not matter. But you must please keep yourself away in the matters of Kuṇḍalinī. Nobody can give authority to awaken Kuṇḍalinī except God Almighty.

As long as the Shakti of God Herself does not give you the authority, till then you do not have any authority that you can go to any college and get a degree and say that you can awaken Kuṇḍalinī. This kind of false people are seen in large numbers in the world nowadays and they are not knowing that they are committing extremely grave and fearful sins.

The work of Kuṇḍalinī has to be done with great aptitude and care, only this, but with absolutely pure love. The purity is the power permeated completely with Dharma. The person who is not pure and whose attention is full of obscene thoughts and engaged in grabbing others money or wives and are always in looting spree, such person should spend his time in some other activities but never try to lay hands on Kuṇḍalinī. Kuṇḍalinī is as much innocence and soft, compassionate, bestower of the best and Her heart flows with motherly love but Her Sustainer and protector Deities are extremely powerful and equipped. If any kind of immoral acts are committed against Kuṇḍalinī then they are always ready to protect Her and they destroy those people who do such sins against Her.

The greatest sin in the world is to awaken Kuṇḍalinī of any seeker (sādhaka) without any authority.

There is no greater sin in the world than this. It is even greater than the murder of one's own mother that you are laying hands on somebody's Kuṇḍalinī without any authority.

God has created the whole creation with His Divine Love and has filled it with purity. The whole creation is absolutely pure. In that whatever is impure, low quality and bad has been made by man only.

Because man is such a living being who has been created with freedom. Rest of the creation dance and act according to the desire of God. Not a single leaf of a tree move without His dictates.

In the whole creation that which is meaner than the meanest, is hell and the greatest hell and sin and the greatest sin all that have been created by man. It is created by man only. And such mean people when they reach the meanest state then they move in the form of Satan.

God has not created Satan. Man has made Satan and they worship Satan because they have created him. As long as we do not call a Satan as `Satan', say adharma as `adharma', say badness as `badness', till then goodness will not be awakened.

You might have heard that when people go to Mecca, there they see on the way a statue of a `Satan' and all the people from their house take their old shoes (chappal) and first they beat the `Satan' means they curse him. Without cursing him God will not accept you and without His acceptance, you will not get anything. Whatever you may do you must have His blessings. You must have His mercy. His love must be poured on you. He is extremely merciful, compassionate, omnipotent, Lord God Almighty.

But if you are committing gravest crimes and worshipping Satan who moved the wheel of adharma in world and many many of his followers are born in this world and doing his work and as long as you do not curse that Satan completely, you will not be blessed by God.

In this matter if you have half-heartedness then you are deceiving yourself. You have to completely discredit, disregard and curse Satan. You have to discord him and throw him otherwise that which is myth will continue to be seated within you and that which is truth in you will not get manifested. Then how can the truth spread in the world? For example if the Sun is covered by clouds then darkness spread and when the clouds move away then again the Sun shines.

In the same way man has made Satan by doing meanest crimes and the clouds of that Satan is badly overcasting the whole world even today.

Then it may happen in case Sahaja Yoga is not fully grown and those days are not far that we may all be completely destroyed and fall into the abyss of darkness. But those souls who have worked hard in Sahaja Yoga absolutely will shine like stars. They will be glorified like stars. That is a very high position of yours.

Today you are not able to understand this but it will be discussed in the history of spirituality and how many Sahaja Yogis have stood firmly into the truth. Leave the idea of halfway done. There is no need to get entangled in small things. You have firmly occupied a very big position.

Such people who have occupied big positions should not divert their attention towards small small things. The power within you flows only depending on your own preparedness. If you are less prepared then the power will also show less intensity. If you are fully prepared and also you have the initiative to reject Satan then from within you only great saints and masters will emerge.

And now one great generation is going to take birth. Starting from a five year old child many newly born children and many souls have taken birth in the world as if their whole family has descended down here.

I see many children born realised but you only are the milestones.

I have already told you people many times that today all those who have raised false fights of Dharmas and look at each other with hatred and in that they use the name of Dharma they all are the children of Satan. They are not sent by God. God had never allowed hatred and jealousy. But He has opposed them and also destroyed them.

Those who have bound themselves into small groups and say that they are such and such special ones cannot go to the lap of the Infinity and to those who are sitting in the limitless state. You have to break your boundaries which are made out of stupidity. No religion binds you into a boundary. But those people who have made stupid religions cannot be corrected.

In fact in the world there are only two religions; one is Dharma and the other is adharma. All great masters who have come here have fought for Dharma and at that time those who were in adharma, with them they had fought. You can call them Muslim, Hindu or Christians. But all their followers were not true like them. They made their various small groups and started fighting among them as two adharmas or false religions. One false religion was fighting with another false religion.

In fact there is no fighting between true religions. There are no skirmishes in religions. All Dharmas are one and the same within all. Only one is present in all. There is no argument in them.

When you all will put your hands towards them and tell, `Mother, we are feeling burning from this man here at Āgñyā Chakra,' you all will say the same thing. Same thing will be told and no difference will be there. Whosoever will tell, will not say wrong.

Everybody feel the same way. When you laugh, you laugh in the same way and when you will cry then tears will fall from your eyes in the same way.

Even beyond that how many forms are the Dharmas which are pervading in all and are similar within all. In that Dharma there cannot be any possibility of fighting.

If there comes any kind of mutual jealousy and enmity then you can understand that one adharma is fighting with other adharma. Dharma never fights with Dharma.

The person says himself a Dharmik and also says another person that you are also Dharmik but let us fight together then he does not understand what is Dharma.

In Sahaja Yoga how the integration comes and awakening of Kuṇḍalinī takes place, etc. I have already told you all that and again tell you sometime. But it is joyful to see that you yourself get this power.

Whereas the first power which is in your heart by which the Prāna [vitality] becomes love and that Dharma which is in your stomach becomes manifested in this whole world and the Chaitanya [buddhi] which is in your head becomes the knowledge of the whole world, at that time you can know that how awakening of Kuṇḍalinī takes place by movement of your hand. You know how Kuṇḍalinī rises by movement of your hand and with your bandhan [making auras], how this Dharma grows and dies by boundary lines drawn by you. You can see yourself if few arrows shot by you fall on, this adharma leaves its path and goes away. And Kuṇḍalinī comes to Her path cleanly.

The hidden negativity in this way is totally destroyed and Kuṇḍalinī rises up in the front and goes on like the Ganges brought by the king Bhagirath. To bring The Ganges Bhagirath had done tremendous efforts and for bring Kuṇḍalinī [into your awareness] I have also done many many efforts in My earlier incarnations and also in this incarnation.

Now you see its result that This Ganges is flowing at your doorsteps. Kuṇḍalinī will move with your signals and you can give realisation to people while going on your way. By your hands many diseases like cancer are cured and this is true and we must accept this too.

How all this happen? The reason is that you have become the weapons of the All-pervading Power of Divine Love of God Almighty. He is using you. The same power is flowing within you and you are doing the work of the same power.

Now where is the question of fighting arise? Does My this hand fights with My other hand? The day this fight begins then we will say that this hand has separated with the other one. They are not our hands at all.

In the same way when we achieve this All-pervading Power within us then we become all powerful.

Many people have already got it but they were still very few people.

I must say that when I read about Zen... Zen was started in the 6th century in Japan and at that time Vidhitama had done the work of Kuṇḍalinī awakening and about twenty-six people of them got realisation.

And by now from three to four centuries nobody has got realisation.

So you can understand here thousands of people are getting their realisation and many have got it. It may not happen to someone but ultimately it happens. Up till now those who come and do not get it, whosoever have come and sat here and tried to get, all have got it. It is not known so far that anybody has not got it. But one thing is that one should come prepared, that you have to shoe-beat Satan. You have to recognize Satan. You have to expel Satan from your heart. And who is Satan and who is God is recognized with these `Divine vibrations' only.

If you do not have it with you then listen to those who have it and know it. You listen to them who have tried and tested it. By this you will be able to know that who is Satan and who is God. Who is real Guru and who is false.

In this world, there are natural flowers in the same way plastic flowers are also there. But their recognition is done by your eyes, nose and mouth or by all means that those are plastic [artificial] and those are real flowers.

But to know the Dharma you require vibrations only. Without it you will not be able to know whether this person is crafty or false or adharmic or a devil or a religious one. He is Dharmik or an incarnation or is very powerful, you will not know unless and until you have Divine vibrations on your hands.

Therefore you must first get this thing and real cool vibrations are coming from your hands.

Apart from this your thoughts come under your control and you become thoughtless and when you see your thoughts, then immediately you become thoughtless. No any thought is coming whenever you watch your thoughts.

Thoughtlessness, it is a reality, it is the truth that is why I do not give you false promise. I have no false recommendation to you. In this I cannot give you false statement.

As long as you are not realised, you will not become. You are not My relation anyway. May anybody offer Me any amount of money but I cannot give realisation. You might be a well read, intelligent person, you sit at your home, I cannot. You all may be anybody I am helpless. I cannot give you such a false certificate. In this no falsehood can do. Any kind of falsehood cannot do anything here. This kind of truth must be in you and you must have your own experience. It should be seen by you and the flow from your hand must awaken others then only you are realised.

Yes, I will cleanse you by washing and shining. With love I will cleanse you. I will advise your Kuṇḍalinī and do all things but this has to happen to you.

To whom it does not happen, say things related to mundane affairs. They create false shows but I have nothing to bother about them. You people too do not bother about them and look after your own welfare and well-being. With your own manpower you go ahead. Let there may two to four people maybe less or thousand maybe more will make no difference.

Now we will go into meditation. Let us all put your hands like this. In the beginning do not close your eyes.

Contents: 1975-05-05 Letter (Marathi), On Mithya, London, UK

My dear Damle,

Many blessings, Received your letter.

It is a very good sign to feel a pull on Sahasrār, because only through Sahasrār endless rays are poured in man's heart and new doors of inner being are opened. But before this grace descends in, there should be a pull in Sahasrār. We understand the pull of heart which is also silent, but fop-sided, that is emotional. But pull of Sahasrār becomes all-round. There, man is in integrated state, in that Dharma [righteousness] and awareness implore for Chaitanya [Divine Consciousness] that is God's love. This happens spontaneously. Although it is the skill of your Kuṇḍalinī, your personality should strengthen the Kuṇḍalinī You earned that quality in previous lives and hence this life is great that gems of persons are available for My work.

If you understand that although My physical being is here I am all over, it should also be realised that even this body is an unreal (Mithya) appearance. It is difficult to come to this stage but if gradually unreal is discerned, the truth will be established effortlessly and waves of great bliss will envelop your being. I am explaining, in this letter, what is unreal (Mithya). It should be read out to all and assimilated by all.

Unreal starts soon after the birth in this world. Your name, village, country, horoscope, forecasts, many such things get attached to you or others attach them to you. Once Brahmarandhra is closed, many types of illusory ideas become a part of your mind. False thoughts like `it is mine or they are mine,' identify with outside objects! Besides, man-made bindings such as `My body should be healthy and beautiful' are inculcated. Then unreal relationships like, `he is my father, he is my brother, she is my mother,' are on your head. As ego develops, foolish ideas, such as, `I am rich, I am poor, I am helpless, or I belong to high family etc.' come in your head. Many officials and politicians become egoists (Donkeys).

Then, there are anger, hatred forbearance, separation, sorrow, attachment under the cover of love and temptations in the guise of social status. Man with great affection keeps clinging to this unreal way of life.

If you think of getting rid of all these and make efforts, what you get is illusory knowledge, because the attention (Chitta) moves along Piñgalā channel and then you are involved in Siddhis [Powers] and other temptations. A vision of Kuṇḍalinī and Chakras is also illusory because there is no gain from it, on the contrary it is harmful. Whatever self-controls and mortifications you insist on practicing effectively, all of them add to the limitations on your attention (Chitta). As such there is no way for liberation.

But all unreal does not fall off with the Self-realisation. It can be broken off gradually. If, with firm conviction, you deny from Your heart all that is unreal (Mithya), you will have the realisation of the Self (Ātman) in its pure form. Thereafter it is established within you. Albeit, the same mortal human Chitta is drenched in that which is of the nature of love, truth, having no beginning and end, verify the Shiva.

Human Chitta is meant for realizing that reality. This Chitta must become one with that Ātman. Only that attention (Chitta) which progresses, renouncing all unreal (Mithya), breaks all known and unknown bindings and becomes verify the Self.

Ātmā is never disturbed or destroyed. Only human attention (Chitta), in pursuit of desires, leaves its inner path. This is Māyā [illusion]. She has been intentionally created. Without her the attention (Chitta) would not have developed. You should not be afraid of Māyā and should recognize her so that She will illuminate your path. Cloud hides the sun as also makes it seen. In the same way once the Māyā is identified she moves aside and the sun is seen. The sun is always there but what is the purpose of the cloud? Because of cloud you have an urge to see the sun which shines for a moment and again hides somewhere. It gives strength and courage to your sight to see the sun. Man has been created with such great efforts. Only one step on his feet and all is successful. But, still it is not becoming possible. Hence, I have come as your Mother.

Write your problems to Me in letters. Sit down in meditation. It is best to discuss only Sahaja Yoga even amongst each other. Attention (Chitta) should always be kept going deeper and deeper within. Forget outside as much as possible. Have confidence that everything about it is taken care of. There are many instances to prove it. Then, in whatever you do, your attention (Chitta) remains in oneness with the Self. All bindings of sin (pāpa) and merit (puṇya) are snapped. Distinctions like worldly and non-worldly vanish, because that wicked darkness, which has created all the discriminations, ends. Everything becomes auspicious in the light of True Knowledge, whether it is the destruction done by Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa or the cross of Śhrī Jesus.

All this will not be understood by explaining. Just showing the path will not help. The path will be known only after walking on it.

When I get your letters I fix the targets. After some time even that will not be necessary. But, for the present all should write their own experiences and progress. When I come, we will see how many of Virāta's channels (Nāḍīs) you have awakened. It appears, this work will come up in the case of holy land of India and when fully developed, it will spread in all countries and directions.

When Sahasrāra day was celebrated in London today [5th May], I invited only about 20-25 people and decided further course of action.

Many blessings and infinite love to all.

Ever yours, Your Mother, Nirmalā [Version 2, of part of the Letter:] For human beings, Māyā [illusion] starts soon after birth in this world. Your name, village, country, horoscope, forecasts, many things get attached to you or others attach them to you. Many kinds of illusory ideas become a part of your mind. False thoughts like `it is mine or they are mine' identify with outside objects. Besides, man-made bindings such as `my body should be healthy and beautiful' are inculcated.

Then unreal relationships like `he is my father brother etc.' are in your head. As ego develops, foolish ideas such as, `I am rich, I am poor, I am helpless or I belong to the upper class' enter your head. Many officials, journalists and politicians become egoists. Then, there are anger, hatred, forbearance, separation, sorrow, attachment under the cover of love and temptations in the guise of social status. Man with great affection keeps clinging to this unreal way of life.

If you think of getting rid of all these and make efforts, what you get is illusory knowledge because the attention moves along the Piñgalā channel and then you are involved in Siddhis [powers] and other temptations.

A vision of Kuṇḍalinī and Chakras occur. It is also illusory because there is no gain from it, on the contrary it is harmful. But you see all that when you are outside the Chakras. When you are inside you don't see anything, you become. Becoming is the criterion and not what you are. Not to see the light, but how to become the light.

Whatever self-suppression and mortifications you insist on practicing effectively, all of them add to the limitations on your attention. However, the illusion can be broken off gradually if, with firm conviction you deny from your heart all that is unreal. Then you will have the realisation of the self in its pure form. Thereafter it is established within you. Albeit, the same mortal human attention is drenched in that which is of the nature of love, truth, having no beginning and end, verily the Truth. Human attention is meant for realizing that reality. This attention must become one with the self. Only that attention which progresses renouncing all unreal, breaks all known and unknown bindings and becomes verily the Self.

The Self is never disturbed or destroyed. Only human attention, in pursuit of desires, leaves its inner path. This is Māyā [illusion]. She has been intentionally created to sharpen your attention and discriminatory power. Without her the attention would not have developed. You should not be afraid of Māyā and should recognize her so that she illuminates your path. After realisation one becomes like a little bird out of the shell. The mother bird hides herself (Māyā) and calls the baby bird. Thus the baby makes an effort, takes courage, tries to fly to reach the mother. Like hide and seek. It is a play `leelā' for a realised Soul.

Now the time has come to tell you that Sahaja Yoga cannot work unless and until you completely surrender to “Me" without any more questioning. This “Me" means Mātājī Nirmalā Devi who resides on the “Sahasrāra" of the VIRATA; This is the absolute truth whether you like it or not, whether your ego and super ego accept it or not. I am sorry I have to confess it.

Gregoire! You perhaps do not realise that all the Deities who reside in you and who are controlled in your Sahasrāra are not at all interested in people who are not completely surrendered to me. I do not know how to convince them. They only look after those who take my name and accept that I am the Adi Shakti. This is the only way you can progress. What can I do? Even the people who are cured by me have to keep the protocol otherwise the Deities sleep and they go back to their previous position.

So far I have not said this to anyone because I thought there was no need. Those who were wise realised it and those who are foolish have lost their chance in Sahaja Yoga.

[Letter came with a photograph of Shri Mataji on which was also written:] This is Sahasrāra, on top of the Virāta, whether you like it or not, whether you can accept it or not.

We celebrated Diwali with yagñya of Vishnu's 1000 names [around Nov 2]. I have done it first time in all my lives. I was very good at Sanskrit difficult words to my great surprise. This will do lot of good to this country and the world at large. It will expedite the evolutionary process by blasting many age old adharmas of western life.

I wish I could meet your mother. You may write to her that the source of joy is from within and not from without. No one can give you that so why worry about your surroundings? If you awaken and arise, you may illumine the darkness around you and give others the joy of your Being.

You can come to India next year when I go. You can come with Me and meet all the Sahaja Yogis there.

Contents: 1975-12-21 Talk to Sahaja Yogis (Hindi), Keep the Attention on your Self, Bharatiya Vidyā Bhavan, Mumbai, India

The love of Sahaj Yogis is so overwhelming that I can't find words what to talk...

You might be knowing that today in whole world the Sahaj Yogis are heading towards their evolution.

Many Sahaj Yogis have reached a very high state, the source of joy flows in them.

Some of them became subtle and are active in a special way. But in every country I see that they have their own style or conditionings... human being is everywhere same... and Sahaj Yoga is an innate state of being which has no relation from outside. Still, the `attention' which is a form of the nature, which we know as Kuṇḍalinī... has the tape record of all the countries you have been through, all the births you have taken, the ways through which you passed and whatever states you have experienced... this is the reason I see that every country's human being is little different. It's very surprising that human being catches so strongly to whatever is `illusion'... and to catch the truth how much he is arrogant. He is so lethargic... with such difficulty he accepts it... but very badly he keeps sticking to the untruth. That's why it is so surprising for Me.

In the beginning I used to think that human being considers his name, village, position and all these degrees as important, but it is amazing to see that how deeply it affects. As soon as it all gets vanished...

As soon as all this illusion gets erased... we make our attention lighter and lighter. In Sahaj Yoga this `attention' goes and unites with the God. This `attention' gets dissolved in the omnipresent enlightened Param-Chaitanya. This same human attention which we consider as form of nature, this flower which is the part of nature gets dipped in the ocean of Divine Love! But sometimes it is amazing to see that this human attention is so heavy...

So scattered...

There is only one way to recognize Sahaja Yoga is that how much joy you are in, how much peace you are in and how much love you are into... The people who are living in illusion cannot get Sahaj Yoga.

What can be done through My hard work? Is that I can take your Kuṇḍalinī on Mine and leave you there but you always drop it... You cannot even enjoy where I take you to.

In every country there are different type of problems. We must first understand what is the problem of our country, because first of all we should know our own problem. And what is the problem of other country also should be understood. Like, recently in UK I have started My work, very slowly, I have taken very few people in My hands. I didn't want to take many people, I thought first at least to establish twenty five people who should be established in Sahaj Yoga. You will be surprised to know that those people are very great souls! They have eternal faith in Sahaj Yoga, they understand that there is no other cure except Sahaj Yoga. After reaching the final stage, Sahaj Yoga is extremely `dynamic' thing. And if there is any program of Sahaj Yoga, then there is nothing else greater and important for them. And for hours they will be involved in it...

As if don't know what is this thing which came from God which is to be given to this world... And the truth is that, `It Is!' No doubt about it. But even after knowing this truth, I won’t call it their fault but the reason for their shortcoming is that they did not get birth in Yoga Bhūmi [Land of Yoga] of India.

Don't know why God gave birth to such great people on that Bhoga Bhūmī [land of materialism] and you people have got birth on this Yoga Bhūmi. That Bhoga Bhūmī where they have no culture. They don't even know if they have to wear sindoor [kumkum] on the forehead or on the nose. They don't know the protocols of Pūjā, they don't know the protocol of praying... they have no knowledge about God. They don't know even how to sit on the ground. They don't know anything, they don't even know how to give claps while performing the `Ār.ti'. And such great souls...

So innate they are...

So loving... they love Me so much... such respect they have towards Me that I am surprised. Whenever they walk in front of Me, in fact they don't, but whenever they pass they bow and pass with their head bent down. They love Me so much that anything in this whole world has no meaning for them in front of Me. They have such deep feeling for Me that they don't know how should they respect Me, in what way. I am surprised that how they have so much understanding of all this about Me.

But for themselves they are so much upset, they are behind themselves with a stick. I told them that, “You can shoe-beat yourself 108 times" but they do it thrice 108 times... wherever they get chance they start shoe beating themselves. They say that we want to scold ourselves. I did not hear from them anything else about others individually, no complaints about anyone, nothing, but only about themselves they think and speak and for other person they say, “He is such a nice person that I feel shame on myself in front of him." They don't look at the other person in wrong way. They just look at themselves as wrong.

You will be really surprised that all the time they are behind themselves with a stick. Here [in India] I see that all the vision is outside, just opposite.

Such dedication they have that when I was coming, there were tears flowing from their eyes, I tried, but their tears didn't stop.

So much Sahaj and simple is their feeling... Till now I could only get around twenty-one people like them. But, they are deep, what we call as genuine. They themselves come and say that we are not genuine... as if somebody is coming and telling Me that I am not genuine. “Mother, I have this fault, I have that mistake and untruth within me... I am carrying untruth within me..." they say it with completely opened heart. And they don't feel shy for it... to call themselves bad, they don't feel shy... but they don't judge others. And they also tell Me about the reasons why they are like this.

They will come and say, “I am like this because My Father was like this, this thing happened and so...

psychologically it is like this so I am doing like this." They tell the reason why they did something wrong, because it happened so at that time, that's why I am doing like this. One or two people also come who have lot of badhas. They work hard and are quiet. They don't speak anything but say that, “Please let all the untruth get out of me, may be something is still hiding within me?" They are so much deep in silence within. But they have this problem that they don't know how to do Pūjā, how to worship, poor people don't even understand how to do it... I told them that I don't even send any money to you still how you manage? Once I told them that I like this bread very much.

So every time they came they brought same bread for Me. I told them: “Who will eat so many breads?" I just said, but they don't understand how to surrender, how to give. They are very well educated and intellectuals, they have read all your scriptures and literature.

So it's not difficult to make them understand Sahaj Yoga. They say that, Sahaj Yoga is the process of getting to subtle from gross state. They have written an introductory book about Me. You won’t believe it, they brought all the philosophers of the world and put them on Mother's feet... They say, “They are nothing... these philosophers raised only questions, but Mother has answered all questions!" They praise their fate and say that we are so fortunate to have Mother... One day Sahaj

Yoga is going to reach a very great height and recognition. You are My foundations. Imagine how strong the foundation stones have to be. First thing bring in your attention `Are we genuine?' look at yourself, not on others...

Look at yourself! `Am I genuine?' Look, they even don't know how to pronounce the mantras, they can't even say `Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa' with lot of difficulty they are able to pronounce `Rādhā Kṛiṣhṇa'. For you it is so easy... that you can cleanse your Viśhuddhi. You just say `Rādhā Kṛiṣhṇa' and it's cured... Now, they can't pronounce clearly `Rādhā Kṛiṣhṇa', so Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa gets little angry on it. Their pronunciation is also not all right, but, with you it's easy and you can awaken him easily. They don't know how to put kumkum. They don't know what is kumkum for. They don't know how to offer flowers, they don't know how to make Śhrī Gaṇeśha, they don't know how to make swastika, every time they make it reverse. They never knew all these things.

But even being so much surrendered and devoted, they are unable to achieve what you people have achieved. You have received a lot, but its value, still very few have understood deep within. Not that I have not given them Sahaj, not that I have not given them free of cost... I have given them same as you people have got from Me. But, the Love they have for Me is so unlimited. It seems that they have understood My relation with them since many births but you people have not yet been able to understand it.

Why are you so limited to yourself? Being cells of same body, being part and parcel of same body, still you feel each other as separate and different. And there, no question of teamwork raises, they solve it among themselves. One boy there started smoking. All of them just got behind him. They made him all right in such a way that he left smoking. They corrected all his arguments, helped him in every way, as soon as they saw him smoking, they used to call him, sit with him. Went to their home and took all the packets out where ever they found and hid them. It wasn't cigarette smoking, it was something else, what you call it... drug. And they said that if you continue then we will inform in Police. And, that boy did not feel bad about it, he said that please you do something about it. That boy himself said and used to run to them and say, “Please save me, that desire is approaching me, please save me, anyhow." So much hard work they are doing to correct themselves.

Here [in India] your society itself is corrected one! You don't know in what heavenly land you are living in. There they don't know about mother or sister... Such a filth and dirty is there... every house there is liquor... drinking... such bad relations they have... Nothing like family, don't know about mother, don't know about father. You ask someone, “What about your mother?" He will say, “Don't know, she has married someone else and gone." Characterless... everyone with damaged Mūlādhāra. Even being born in such country they came with Śhrī Gaṇeśha to Me... “Mother please give us innocence" they broke the head in front of Śhrī Gaṇeśha, catching ears... asking for forgiveness... and a bravery in it. They are so much aware of themselves and also about others. They told about so many miracles and experiences of Sahaj Yoga.

You have got one letter which I sent. It was all of them who found that thing out about Me.

About Me they found out the fact. Still, you people could not understand it and haven't seen it, but they could. They understood that yes it is like this, this is it... to say it is Mahāmāyā but within us it is truth.

They have not achieved what you have. But they have put everything for it, all their efforts, they have understood that the time of evolution has come and Sat Yuga is standing on the door. They know that if this door won’t open then destruction could not be stopped. And they feel responsible for it, they feel that everyone has to be responsible that we have to do it. They are responsible for Sahaj Yoga. No one can dare to speak against Sahaj Yoga. They don't speak against Sahaj among themselves, but if someone else speaks then they just take him to task and make him understand what it is. If I tell them that 24 hours you sit without food, they will...! But, it does not mean that you people are less than that.

Some of you have achieved the heights and state, it's extraordinary. But that feeling of achieving is the problem about self.

There is a meaning in keeping the attention steady. It doesn't mean that you look here or there. The attention is steady only when all the dirt over it gets cleansed. When it becomes light. There is a very big curse on our country, India. It's a very deeply located within us and that I call as `Sin against the Father'. We have committed sin against our Father in heaven. What is it? It is all the time thinking that `We are poor, we have poverty. We don't have money, how will it go like this... what about my stomach?'... all these beggar like thinking. `How will we pull on with money, what will happen to my children?' If you have faith in God then at least leave this to him that he will give you food, otherwise what is there to have faith in God that even he cannot give you food and look after your needs. This is very great sin we are doing. If we leave this food and all arrangements on God, then Indians can achieve very great height.

There are two kinds of sin. One is to doubt on the fatherhood of the father and second I call as `Sin against the Mother' that is there in [the] West in which there is immorality, indulgences, materialism, comfort and to get totally free... out of control, this is the problem there. Both the ways lead you straight to hell. Doing anything for Money, whatever wrong you have to do to make money... it's all right. This is the sin of Indians. I am not talking about government. I am talking about God about the kingdom of God.

When you are in the Kingdom of God then, he will give if he desires or he will not if he doesn't...

What's the problem in at least having this attitude within? He will do if he will and he will not if he won't... `As you keep me, I shall be!' If a Sahaj Yogi just has this feeling within that `As you will keep me, I shall live! Let me see how you will keep me,' you can just enjoy everything. You just start enjoying it...

You say, `Let me see how you will keep me, you will keep me hungry? OK let me see how many days you will keep me starving! As you will let me live, I shall live! You make me walk, I will..., make me sit on horse, I will...', you will get into this bliss and joy...! You people are lucky to have been born in this great country that rest everything is all right, your parents are all right, your wife and children are all right, you are moral... most of you.

Some of you are... But not so bad... it can be corrected.

There is so much sin, the other one, that everybody's eyes just keep moving... like this... this... all the time, of every man and woman... it's such a negativity in them. Transmitting the negativity to each other through eyes. One woman goes, she looks on men, then the men look on women, then other,... it just goes on there like this... I said: “What is this?" They said, “Mother what to do here everyone gets this negativity in eyes... what to do?" I said, “Keep your eyes to the ground." How was Śhrī Lakshmaṇa, he only used to see the feet of Śhrī Sītā. Keep the eyes low. Gradually all these badhas will go away spontaneously. If you will not do all this then what will that negativity do living in you? That bhoot which is playing through you and doing all this and using you, will run away by itself. If you don't move your eyes here and there then that bhoot will just run away from you. And, till you will keep moving your eyes, the bhoots will keep sitting there in you. They accepted it... and now when they walk on the street they walk with eyes like this on the Mother Earth... low... this is obedience... Mother said and it is accepted and agreed! These are the sign of true children. It is for your benevolence, for your well-being.

You must understand this, that whatever you have got in Sahaja Yoga, you have to achieve it in this life itself. I have to achieve it, not the other... I have to... not others, leave of others, don't worry about others, look within, how much I have achieved the state till now, how profound and deep I have gone in Sahaj Yoga? How am I behaving with myself, why am I acting with myself? Why am I cheating myself? Why am I lying to myself? Why am I torturing myself? What have I got? Look... all the treasure is opened for you... just come in... no matter how you are, just come in, get inside. I will give you bath and make you sit cleansed. Then what to think? How deep have we got inside the cool wave of Ganga? It is just flowing completely... “take whatever you want... take it my child..." How much pitcher we have filled? Our attention is just scattered and running here and there... the moment you will have look within, you will understand that it is you who has cheated yourself, no one else. This is a very big gap. It is harmful for Sahaj Yoga. Not to keep attention toward self is the most harmful thing in Sahaj Yoga. And this introspection is only in that person's nature who had been seeking since many lives... And knows that because of my mistakes I could not get it till now, so I won't commit mistakes anymore.

It's like you are closed in a dark house and can't see the way to get out of it. The one who has broken his head by striking against the walls in darkness knows and thinks... No, look towards the door... keep the attention towards the door... to the way to the door. He doesn't know anything else but knows and says... yes, I know, I have got it, the vibrations are flowing from within... My Sahasrāra is pierced and I have known the truth! And his face is towards the door... he is catching that door and then if Mother says anything then it is not that “I don't believe or I don't agree” “whatever Mother is saying, every word is truth!" And the moment they say this, all the wisdom starts flowing through them. Your baithak [sitting] should be perfect. It should be strong. I can't even tell them about baithak. They don't even know this word. English language is useless... They don't have any culture of that sort, no talks like this.

So unfortunate they are... Here you have sages and saints. You people are so fortunate. I took birth in your country. On this Yoga Bhūmi I was born. But you have to see what you have got, not what others have got or did not get, what others say, where others are... nothing to do with this. What have you achieved and got. The moment you will get it, you will become surrendered to God. What are you? You are just a little part within Him, isn't it? I have told you hundred times that I need 1,000 people who can sit on this Sahasrāra. I need 1,000 people to sit on horse who never get caught. Is it difficult. Those who are detached... If you are doing something for Sahaj Yoga, you are doing for yourself. If there is someone who says that I went to the market and purchased so much gold for myself, so many things and did shopping. I worked so hard.

Whatever you worked hard, whatever you did, it is for yourself, isn't it? Not for anyone else. You have seen, that whatever you have done till now, you are enjoying the benefits of it.

There were so many people till now in this world who could achieve. One or two were there in every Yuga [Era] you have met, seen and known, so many people in this world, how many are realised? Very few you will find. And today it is great nāda [sound] of Kali Yuga... There are so many animals today... The animals without tails. But in this Kali Yuga itself, in this dirty mud a great work has to be accomplished, you know it is happening... in this time, you must take as much as you can. Otherwise you will be thrown out of this evolutionary process. That time is not far away, I told about it in 1979. That till 1979 this work has to be done and by the year 1999 Satya Yuga [Era of Truth] will get fully matured. Now it depends on your wisdom, otherwise Kali Yuga will also flourish because of you only.

If you people won’t like to work it out then the responsibility of destruction will be on your head...

use your wisdom in such a way, bring your intellect to wisdom and think that “What have I taken from Ganga? What did I achieved and what have I to yet get?" You have got so much joy and still you have to get much more. You must keep remembering that moment of what you have got. And you must tell your mind that “I have to be always in that moment [of realisation]." You will get sticked to it. And rest all useless thoughts which are coming, just stop them. It is not prohibited to anyone of any age. It is not restricted to the person of any colour or complexion, it is not restricted for the person of any state or caste.

But most of the people are cutting their own feet with their own hands. Making groups. I don't understand what should I say for all this... how are you separate and different from each other? If I move My finger here, everyone's Sahasrāra gets activated. If I shake My feet a little... it just can be felt on everyone's Sahasrāra. How are you different and other that you keep talking as separate individuals? Don't you understand it? You cannot be separate. It is just like you break one hand and take it away and that hand says that Oh! I am doing such a great job! I am very sad to be united with this body, so I must get away... it is something about instinct. When the human being desires its own death then he starts doing all this. But, that person who could understand that you are part and parcel of one `collective personality'. On that very moment everything gets solved. You know that you are... you are aware of it.

All Sahaja Yogis know this. Anyone who comes from England, from America or from India, he will talk same... that Āgñyā is catching or heart or anything else... others cannot know about it. They even don't know this language of ours. It's a new language! Have you ever thought of it? Immediately you come to know, what is the problem, what is catching... what is the depth of the person... whatever is happening.

The only difference is that because our attention is not on self, so we can't see what's problem within us but can see what is problem in other very clearly. It is same like this hand is getting rotten and the other hand is not bothered about it, then that hand will get senseless and what will this hand get out of it. No one has to fall down and also not the other should fall down, but first thing is that you should not fall down.

It is working and is activated all the time all around enveloping... what we call as unconscious! What is called as Praṇava [Divine breath] to what I call as `Divine Love' is all around... for helping you, circling around you. Bhairava-nāth is sitting here, Hanumānaji is sitting here...

there are thousands of them with you, working hard on you, for you. This experience and Realisation which you have got, how many could get it till today? Tell Me... Might have been great sages and great saints, could anyone know so clearly about `Collective Consciousness' how much you people know? No matter how many books you read. And those great Sādhus [sages] and saints ask Me that, “for what have you given them this, what for?" It's a very great thing... I have given you birth on My Sahasrāra! I have not given them this... I came on them but to you people I gave you place in My heart but have given you birth through My Sahasrāra.

Such great state you are in! I have not even given birth to Śhrī Gaṇeśha like this as I have given to you! It's something special... with immense love I have nourished and given to you. Love thyself, when you will love yourself then you will shed away your faults and weaknesses. As you like this sarī... you see there is something wrong... you take it out and make it all right... whatever you love anything you try to make it all right... to keep it perfectly all right. And whatever you don't love... you abandon it. I have loved you so much, how much have you loved yourself? Be loving towards yourself! I am looking forward to that day when this wave will become synchronized as one thread! Now you people have no doubts on it, because you have felt vibrations. No one is doubtful about it. Whatever Mother is saying is truth we know because we can feel it through vibrations, so no doubts should be there.

Some of you have reached there to that state. Look at them who have raised to those heights, that level... and head towards that direction. You will be just pulled up! Like the fishes are pulled on one single net... same way you will be pulled... but first keep strangled in that net of Love! You should not come out of the net of Mother's Love.

Don't use your brains into it... I know how much intellect and brain you have. Did you know where is Kuṇḍalinī and all this... you knew nothing, isn't it? Some of you are even elder to Me are aged than Me in age, but I am million years old. How can you be elder than Me? You are My son, My child... I wish that you all should get into this ocean of joy and work it out for whole world. Just a little you need a push, a little effort and the boat will get across! It is just moving little left and right, going forward and backward... Still I don't say that the boat of Sahaj has gone across, you people keep pulling it, pulling it here and some are pulling it there...

The boat has to be brought across to the shore. But the `Groupism' is not to be done. “This man is not good, that man is not good, he did this, he did that..." No one will tell Me all these complaints. I know each and everyone inside out! I am not going to listen to anyone's complaints.

You just keep watching where you were and where you have reached and where you have to reach further. That's all. When you are walking on your way, do you keep saying all this? You just keep saying: “When will I reach there, when will I reach there, when will I reach?" First throw that out which is torturing you within... leave everything behind and move... leave every second behind you... leave every past moment behind you and stand on this very second... it is the question of getting inside! I am sitting here to push you all there. But all of you don't fall on My head...

two or four will fall, it's all right...

What argument can be in Sahaj Yoga? If your heart is caught, it is caught, if your Āgñyā is caught, it is caught... nothing to argue... you have to accept. What is there to feel bad about it? If it is caught, it is caught... If you have to get rid of it, you have to get rid... that's all.

If you get cancer and go to the doctor and he says “You got cancer"... will you beat the doctor? You will say: “All right if it is so, I have cancer so please cure me now... make me all right." Same way if your Āgñyā is catching, then how can you say, “No Mother, how can it be, it's not caught..." If it is caught then you have to get rid of it. Whatever is negative within has to be taken out... that's all, finished...! Can’t you understand such simple straight thing?... What is there to argue and what to say? If by saying or arguing someone's Āgñyā Chakra gets all right then try it.

It is not going to work out with talks... it is subtlest of the subtle Love which works out. Those who have got realisation... have they got by your arguments? By your speeches or by the books they have or written or you have read? How did it happen then? It was like a miracle and spontaneously... in second you got realisation...

Gagan Gadh Mahārāj [Shri Mataji mentions about him in the incident with happened when he tried to stop rain when She went to meet him and She did not let him to] used to say that, “What is this Mother? That's You just came and everyone's Kuṇḍalinī got awakened!" Not even single person Gagan Gadh Mahārāj gave realisation and thousands of his disciples are ready to give life for him. How many of you are ready to give life for Me? I don't want it... you have to just take out what's negative in you...

just this... that's all.

Here our children will also get spoilt like this because we are ourselves half baked. There are so many nice children in India... but even they have got jealousy and hatred in their mind through parents... they get spoilt by listening to the talks of parents all the time. But there it is not so... they are such strong children that they even stand against their parents who are wrong. All those children are getting ready and prepared. In next ten years those children will get ready. And in your house also such children will come. There are... many. Those who are standing on their feet, firm. As soon as they will grow they will stand on their feet. No need to teach them Sahaja Yoga, they are all already learnt, they are My own.

But I would again say that you people from Bombay [Mumbai] are the foundation stones. Everyone says that people grow very slowly in Sahaj Yoga. It is spreading very slowly. The reason for it is that they see you people and say, “May God save me, are they Sahaja Yogis?" We don't want such Sahaj Yoga. By seeing you people Sahaj Yoga is going to spread...

Many people told Me that we must add the organization to name... like Sahaja Yogi Amte, Sahaja Yogi Tamte, I said, “No" otherwise it will get stick... we can't add this to anyone's name. They said: Why? I told them that this is like today you are graduate and tomorrow you will be a donkey totally.

Today you are on sky and tomorrow below ground. We are not to give any degree to anyone, if you give a degree then it will be just difficult.

So now I have come and now you think and tell Me what all you have to work out further. Go home and think about it. Taken a month’s leave, now there are going to be programs in coming two three days, let Me see what talents you show in it. Sit in meditation... sit in meditation for three days. Go in meditation and say that, who all will come for meditation, what all will they do in meditation, in collectivity... put your attention on them. Put attention on them whom you know personally. You attention has all that power. Take that attention, use it... that “he can come, they must come, they should come..." put your attention, give bandhan for them to bring them to program. Also give bandhan to yourself after reaching home. The blessing of God will come on you! Don't identify yourself with anyone else... that he is My this relation and he lives there... etc.... they are mine and this thing wrong happened with him... Not this. But, “What can I do for Sahaj Yoga, this person should come, from there they should come, those people should come..." put your attention...

On your attention is the Shakti... Shakti is sitting on your attention. If you will put it on wrong things or mundane things then it will just sleep. If you will put it in Sahaj Yoga then it will awaken and shine. I met him, I talked to him, I cured him... sit down today in meditation and take your attention on all of them.

You are not going to talk to Me anything other than Sahaj Yoga, I am not going to listen to anything else. It's enough... my wife ran away, my husband ran away... my child got this... etc... I am not going to listen to this from Sahaj Yogis. He told me this, he scolded me, he troubles me... all this... I am not going to listen to. And those who have to talk all this or tell Me all this should leave Sahaj Yoga.

The one who has to enjoy the bliss... should come here, the one who has to enjoy love should come here, the one who has to enjoy the whole world should come here. All the property of joy which God has made for you is flowing on you, if you have to take it, then come here.

And you all are the leaders. You are the leaders of that Sat Yuga [Era of Truth] which is going to come. Go to the history... If you are not going to be important for this, then please don't come here.

I am saying this for the first time to you. The one who has to achieve, the one who has to get should individually come, not as a group. Individually. And when individually you will get inside it then you will become like a drop when becomes Ocean. Otherwise you will carry the dirt of everyone along with you.

You must decide that except Sahaj Yoga I will not talk anything else with anyone... no discussions, arguments, etc. You are so many... I never got so many people in any incarnation as many as you all are.

So many! And with their help the boat will go across.

So, it's My prayer and request to you... that if really I have loved you and have given love to you, then when the fruit is to come then you won’t have to do any stupidity. Of any kind. You must get maturity...

don't act childish. And those who talk childish, you must say “Keep quiet" and don't listen to them. Talk like matured elders... You have become matured fruits. Be silent within... and enjoy! Break all illusions and differences... and the blood of life will start flowing within you... and will fill you with joy, peace and bliss!

Contents: 1975-12-22*, Public Program (Hindi), Prabhu ke Prem ka Anubhav (The Experience of God's Love), Bharatiya Vidyā Bhavan, Mumbai, India [Reply to the Civic Reception.]

Our respected Justice Vaidya is My son and a mother feels proud to see her son at such a high position.

Among you, the residents of Bombay [Mumbai], there are many who are blessed by Sahaja Yoga and there are those who have come here for the first time to accept God's love. I welcome all of them.

Whatever Justice Vaidya has said he is an extremely learned man. I have not read anything in the form of books in My life. Despite reading everything and searching through all books, his vision has a devotion like that of Hanumān that, “It is not there in this too” “It is not there in these words” “This has only signs” “I have not got that thing yet" and as soon as he got it, he recognized it. This is a special kind of devotion.

Most educated people never accepted God. You will be surprised to know that it was a judge who sentenced Jesus to crucifixion. Look at the greatness of this Kali Yuga that a judge has not only accepted that God but also has described Him beautifully. He has been a great personage through many of his previous births but he does not know so much about himself as of now. This was the reason that the seeking was present within him and this is the reason the seeking is present within many people.

If you read all the philosophers from the beginning, I haven't read but My disciples tell Me. Recently, a great, learned Frenchman arrived in London and he too got what I call Realisation. In a letter, he wrote to Me that since the beginning of time, every philosopher had indicated towards one fact that we are material and how can our mind which is also material and finite enter into that which is subtle. How can it enter into this Infinite? The question is simple. We are made of matter and are finite and if God is infinite, then how can it [mind] enter into that and how can it know that? If we use our mind to know God, then we will read and write, books will be opened in front of us, but how can we jump into that which is our source? The whole question stops here. The whole problem is just this one that how can we enter into that Consciousness from this material body. How will that Consciousness be known through this materiality? That is why, till today, if anyone talks about God at any time, people laugh at him. Many say, “Alright, he has said something, that's why God definitely exists." If some other things are said like, “Look how the world works, how the earth is moving and despite such a great speed of the earth, none of us are falling off" and using many such arguments even if we believe intellectually that there is a great power behind all this which is running this world, still how can that power be known and understood through the human intellect? Bhajans [devotional songs] were sung in temples, people stood on their heads, necks were broken, Yogas were done, people lived in jungles and God was thought of. But, there was always a wall.

Something has to take place for this by which man drowns in that Infinite. Indian scientists have not yet reached those shores which Western scientists have reached. This is unfortunate. They have reached that shore, that point from which they are telling, like there are psychologists and they are now saying that psycho-synthesis should take place by some means. That is, this mind, which is divided into so many parts, should become integrated. In fact, they have started talking about Higher Self because they get many patients who say, “We have seen some higher self, we have had a strange experience." They call them `patients'. Everywhere, people are intent upon finding out about this. But they say repeatedly that we cannot enter into that Infinite from this materiality.

Due to this reason, we should not make any efforts in this direction. The reason is that as soon as we start making efforts, all the dormant material forces within us start working. Now, in Russia they did a lot of experiments, in America they did a lot of experiments. As a result of these experiments they saw that wheat and rice started flowing through them.

Some saw that objects started rising, a table rose from here and went there. But their brains got extremely afraid. People have done such experiments especially in Russia and their books have been published which if you read sometime, you can also understand. They say that they did not get peace through this. They got some strange experiences. What are these forces that are coming into us? They don't know this fact that these are the forces of our subconscious which is placed within us in a collective form.

Whatever is dead is also placed within us. That those dead people are helping us is not known by them [scientists].

Some scientists had come to Me and they were great scientists from a great country, some of whom had reached the moon. They came and told Me, “Mother, we want to know how to fly in the sky." They have done experiments on this. You will be surprised that an Indian scientist has not reached that limit where he can think of such a thing. It is good that we are a bit behind in science. I said, “Son, why do you want to y? You have already reached the moon, now what do you want?" They said, “We want to fly in the sky without anybody's help." I said, “If I say that bhoots [dead spirits] help you with this, then will you do it?" They said, “Yes, we will do it because some other country is also doing the same thing." I said, “If they are being helped by bhoots then why do you wish to fall into the hands of these bhoots, My son? Stand up on your own power." It was not so necessary to go to the moon.

Today, the world has developed a lot. There are a few problems with our country too, but they will be solved. Problems of food have been solved in those countries. Many such problems in these countries have been solved. But the people of those nations are sadder than you. Every home is being torn apart.

Fathers are torturing children, children are torturing fathers, there is no news about mothers and sisters, a terrifying Kali Yuga has developed there. Their experiences are so saddening that let alone God, they don't even believe in happiness, that there is something called happiness in the world. They are troubled by such internal pain.

Science cannot discover that thing because science separates everything into parts, that is, it analyzes.

The power that integrates them is the Kuṇḍalinī. You will be surprised that those who have read a lot about Kuṇḍalinī, I don't have to explain about Kuṇḍalinī to them. In our country, educated people don't know about Kuṇḍalinī, except you people. Now they accept that without Kuṇḍalinī's awakening, a person cannot reach that Infinite. But there are thousands of discussions in this world that the person who raises the Kuṇḍalinī [whose Kuṇḍalinī is raised], experiences this and that. I have read descriptions that people start to shout, jump and scream. It is strange to think that the awakening of Kuṇḍalinī, who is your mother, can lead to such things. It should be understood that instead of being Kuṇḍalinī awakening, it is an awakening of an evil nature.

Now, about Me. If everyone has accepted that Kuṇḍalinī is the only means to enter into this Infinite, you people have not accepted because the scientists here don't read about it at all, what can I do? Then one has to think that what arrangements God has made for the awakening of Kuṇḍalinī.

Today's topic is `The experience of God's Love'. The experience of God's love has been described in many books of ours but nobody believes in them. For example, when Prahlad, in whose presence Narasimha incarnated, was asked, “What do you want?" he replied, “Tawa charana arvinde prīti [The love of your lotus feet]" that is “O God, give me the love of your lotus feet." Such a Prahlad is not there in the world nowadays nor is there any chance of a Narasimha incarnation. That is why all that feels like a lie.

It feels that all that is a lie and has no meaning, the concept of incarnations and other things is false and have been said simply to fool people.

Alright, it is good in a way that man has considered himself to be so intelligent. But when you say that Kali Yuga has come and that a great and terrible Kali Yuga has come, when every person is suffering from its sting, diseases like cancer are consuming the body, mountains of suffering are crashing on men, nobody can be trusted, nobody is a brother, nobody is a sister and no relationship in the world remains firm, at such a time who can accept a talk about God's love? But it is not about talking. During these times, the love of God is raining down from all directions in a way that never happened before in this world.

I accept that you cannot see it and you cannot know it. That is because you were made in a way that the Unconscious which psychologists are talking about today, which has been described totally that there is an Unconscious mind, is helping us in certain ways but we are not connected to it. It has its connections and its protective grace but we are not able to achieve it. It is helping you out in many ways.

For the first time, He is helping you in such a manner that in the whole of mankind there is a thought, “We must save time, we must save time, we must save time, time is being wasted, time is being wasted." But at this point, man's foolishness also comes into play in that he saves his time to waste it elsewhere.

If he thinks even for an instant, “This time that I am saving, where have I to use it?" he comes into balance. To obtain that torrential rain of God falling on the people of this Kali Yuga, only a little balance is required. He [Justice Vaidya] just told that Kuṇḍalinī is described in Yoga. It is written in Patañjali's Yoga Shāstra that this can be achieved only after practicing six techniques, living in forests and serving a Guru with complete dedication.

Now, there was a great saint of Gagan Gadh who said, “Mātājī, after a penance of 21,000 years, the vibrations started flowing in My hands and you are giving it simply to these people?" If you have read Shañkarāchārya, then he too has written a lot of verses on Chaitanya Lahari [the waves of Chaitanya].

Either he was a liar or if he was not then where did those waves go about which he had described? God, who is in the Unconscious form in the whole world, actually, nothing is more conscious than Him but we are not conscious of Him. It is another thing that we were not able to know Him and feel Him.

We have to achieve Him. This has to manifest in this Kali Yug irrespective of which religion, organization, race or country you may belong to. Kali Yug should end from 1979 and this has begun [applause] and it is a fact that Sat Yug will begin in 1999. [Applause.] But this should not remain simply as a fact. This can remain simply as a fact if you people do not accept the truth.

There are a thousand ways by which you can accept untruth. Man can adhere to any untruth with an immeasurable force but does not stay with truth for long. One can ask that why man had to take up so much suffering and pain. Such things tear a mother's heart apart. But what to do, without them man won't accept that [the Truth], he won't think about that. Man is very stubborn. He is very proud and egoistic. Also, he is always surrendered to untruth. If he sees some magic tricks, he runs towards it. If someone gives him two rupees, he runs towards that. Whatever untruth exists, like if there is hatred towards someone in your mind, for example if I say, “You are all Indians and you should hate the whole world" all the Indians would unite. If I say that you are citizens of a Yoga Bhūmi [Land of Yoga] and you should love the whole world, then people start lecturing Me saying, “Mātājī, you are teaching us about love but they do not love us." Man is holding onto untruth so much that truth is moving out but he does not accept it. He is so stubborn that he is holding onto untruth, does not leave it and believes that to be everything.

Man was given a special freedom by God, the Unconscious and by God's Love which we call as Praṇav which is the light of God. Purposely, it gave you freedom. If you have listened to My earlier lectures then you would know how it was worked out in our brain to separate us from that Unconscious power that exists in all directions.

We were separated from that Infinite and bound into the finite and each person became different. Why was it done this way? It was done because you want to become an instrument in God's hands and the responsibility to put that instrument into balance was left to you. Man is such a great thing. Among all the creations in the whole world and the whole universe till today, among people living on this earth today, the common man who is a householder is the highest. Nothing else in the world can achieve as much as he can. There was a need for a great balance.

In our brain, there are two packets, two curtains called the superego and the ego. They were created purposely. One increases from one side and the other increases from the other side. The one who is in the center, the one who comes into balance, the one who comes into temperance and the one who does not go to extremes can get Realisation. Within such a one only, the Kuṇḍalinī rises through the center and nourishes him. His attention is placed on the Kuṇḍalinī within him and takes him into the Unconscious.

As soon as this takes place, this Unconscious starts flowing into you from above. You become one with that ocean like a drop becomes the ocean when it falls into it. It rises and falls with the ocean's waves. If someone asks it, “What are you doing?" it replies, “What am I doing? This is going and coming." The waves start flowing through him. His inner being becomes absolutely silent. The waves of silence start gently flowing from above. This is the truth. This is not a cock-and-bull story. It is the truth, a great truth and you can experience it. It has to be made stable after getting it. But some people do not need it [stability]. For example, he [Justice Vaidya] does not need it because he has reached that height as soon as he achieved it. But in some people that stability has to be brought about. No problem. You have obtained that thing, you recognized it, you reached there and there is a complete arrangement for bringing stability. As soon as that stability is achieved, in absolute peace and joy, you achieve that witness state described by Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, by Jesus, by all the scriptures whether by Zoroaster, Socrates, Confucius or any of Dattātreya's incarnations.

Till today, these people who were of a higher state, who would take birth in a higher state, would talk in a manner that others were unable to understand. They could see matters of the tenth floor and others would remain on the first floor and they would just not understand what was being talked about. Sahaja Yoga has always been there. You have become humans from animals through Sahaja Yoga only. But you enter from the finite and become one with the Infinite through the Sahaja Yoga of this Kali Yug. The respect that you have shown Me in inviting Me here is representative of the respect that you should show to God who is standing at your door. This thing takes place in a moment and then joy is obtained.

But many people have this misunderstanding that by doing things of this sort, one will leave all worldly matters and it won't be practical. People talk a lot about practical things. “Mātājī will say, keep telling the truth always but how will our business work then?" Many people also ask Me this, “Mātājī, I go to work and how will by job go on?" Such questions arise as long as you are not realised. As soon as you get Realisation, when you enter into God's kingdom, then you understand, “Oh, He is anyways doing everything!" For example, in Sahaja Yoga, if a person is realised, he cannot die before the age of 70 years.

Those people, about whom it was said that their lives would end after so many years, they would die in twenty years, also came to Me. After Sahaja Yoga, they are still alive and kicking. Recently it so happened that we got some news by mistake that a Sahaja Yogi who was around 40-45 years of age had died. Those people wrote a letter to Me and I said, “Impossible. This cannot happen." Then I checked the vibrations and found out that he was alive. Then I wrote a letter and asked My disciples in London about him.

They said, “No Mother, he is alive." That's because, when a person dies, vibrations of a different sort start flowing in your hands. When these people got the letter, they immediately sent a telegram saying, “He is hale and hearty." So, it is impossible. What greater experience can I tell you about? You know that we have cured many cases of cancer. But I must tell you beforehand that this is not our job. That's because as soon as I tell this, everyone brings cancer patients to Me. The same thing happened with Christ. He cured only twenty-one people but My disciples have cured 500 people each. Now, a gentleman has come from Rahuri, he is from a university in Rahuri and he cured a patient of brain cancer. Yes, cancer cannot be cured by anything apart from Sahaja Yoga. I have told this before and I am telling it now as well. Also, we will be going to the Health Ministry. But the problem is this that as soon as we tell that we can cure cancer, we won't be able to make any doctors by the time we cure all cases of cancer. We have to give Realisation to people and when they get their Realisation, their cancer has to get cured. Every kind of disease can be cured. You will look younger by at least twenty years because the responsibilities which you have taken on your head that “I have to do this and that" and which you are searching all come to an end while everything works out. Everything keeps working out. It does not mean that things will work out the way we want them to. What He [God] desires works out and what He desires is the best for us. I will give you an example from My life itself. You know that My husband was formerly the chairman of the Shipping Corporation and he was offered a big job in England. But, due to some reasons, some political things, he was not appointed there and he got some lower kind of job.

So, he thought it better to not go there. But I was in My own enjoyment and he asked, “Does it not bother you?" and I said, “Wherever I am, I am. I am not bothered by this, why do you bother? I have lots of joy." Also, whatever happens, happens for our good. We should think like this only. In everything, there is some sign or the other from God. I said, “If you consider a job to be so important then that too must have some sign from God." The next year, there was a big election and 176 nations chose him to such a high position which was higher than the previous position he had wanted. He was very surprised at that. But I said, “Even if they had not given that position, I would have thought that it is alright." So, when we left India and went to foreign countries, people said, “Mātājī, you say that your field of work is in India which is a Yoga Bhūmi." I said, “It is a Yoga Bhūmi but what can I do if all the yogis are born here [in the other countries]?" This is a fact. You will be surprised to know that all the yogis of India are taking their birth in those countries nowadays, not here. I feel that this place is like a bog. Forgive Me, but it is. If you see those people, you will be surprised to see how each one is such a great personality, how great a thing God is for them and how much truth and depth is present in their seeking. They wish to sacrifice everything and remain in this [union with the Divine] every moment. Now, a gentleman had come here who is a big officer in the United Nations who met our people. They were surprised because he said, “Teach me the Pūjā of Gaṇapati." People asked him, “You will do the Pūjā of Gaṇapati? But you are a Christian." He said, “No, I am not a Christian nor do I belong to any religion. I am a Sahaja Yogi." Nothing can work out without Gaṇapati.

What is Pūjā? Pūjā is also a means to enter into that Infinite. What is Namaz? It is a mantra to enter that Infinite. What is prayer? It is a rendition to enter into that Infinite. But, without permission, without connection there is no meaning to these. You can do as much Pūjā as you wish, it is worthless.

Only today a lady came to Me saying, “Mātājī, I have a lot of heart problems." I said, “What mantra do you take?" She said, “I say, `Om namaḥ Shivāya.' " Now, see, the name of Shiva who resides in the heart, it is impossible for a person's heart to be troubled if he has attained Shiva. Now she is chanting `Oṁ namaḥ Shivāya' and her heart is having problems. How is this possible? I just thought of Him once and her heart became alright. Shivajī was awakened over there. What is the difference? The only difference between her and Me is that I am connected to Shivajī. I have taken permission from Him. If you have to go to someone's house then you have to take permission from them. Now, if you have to go to Justice Vaidya's place and if you go and bang at his door then he will get you arrested. But if you go to him with protocol, then he will welcome you saying, “Come, have a seat." Without connection whatever Pūjā and worship takes place, that too when it goes into extremes and out of balance, becomes harmful.

He talked about Haṭha Yoga also. It is very surprising that till today My experience with Haṭha Yogis, there are many Haṭha Yogis in America also, has been that all of them have heart troubles. It is very surprising. Haṭha Yogis are especially great worshippers of Shivajī. The reason is that Haṭha Yoga is not for people leading a worldly life but for those living in the jungles, like Parashurām. It is another thing to do a little within balance but Haṭha Yoga is not meant for you people. If you do it in extreme then your heart will suffer from problems.

Now, you are seeing that in this world there are people chanting `Hare Rāma, hare Kṛiṣhṇa'. In London, so many of their disciples come to Me and they have cancer here. This is a fact that I am sharing with you.

I am your Mother and I have to tell you what is false. They have cancer here. You will be surprised that in this throat resides Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. When anyone faces a problem in the throat or in the cervical plexus then the name of Rādhā Kṛiṣhṇa has to be taken in the science of Kuṇḍalinī. Now look at their Kuṇḍalinīs which are not awakened and Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa is sitting angrily at this point. He has disappeared from there.

What is the reason? We think, “Oh they are spreading our culture!" though they don't spread any culture.

I have seen their ponytails falling off, their dhotis [lower garment worn traditionally in India] falling off and it looks so ugly. But forget that. How did cancer come in the Viśhuddhi Chakra, the residence of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, of these people who are jumping and shouting in the name of God? The reason is the same. But otherwise also, it is enough to think of Him just once. What is the need of thinking of Him so much? Those who wish to go to Him just need to say, `Kṛiṣhṇa' once. Then, with the Sudarshan Chakra [discus] “Śhankha Chakra Gadā Padma, Garuḍa laisidhāri" [He took off on the eagle bearing with Him the conch, discus, mace and lotus]. Why do you need to torment yourself so much for Him? What is the need to cause so much trouble? What is the need to make such an exhibition? He is in reality present within you every moment. But you are so stubborn. If you really believe in God then be surrendered to Him. In silence, know Him and it will definitely actualise within you. Think of it, the God who has made this universe, who has made this Creation, will He destroy this Creation? God's Love has come into action especially in Kali Yuga.

With regards to diseases you know that many have been cured by the disciples themselves, many mental diseases of people have also been cured. This is not something special. This has to happen. The temple of God is being cleaned by everyone from Bhairava to Hanumānaji. Whether they exist or not is to be seen by coming into this kingdom. If you stand outside and say that I should show you then how can I do it? How can a blind man who wishes to understand colour be told about it? If an ant wants to learn about our politics and political institutions, how can we explain such things to it? Come into the Kingdom of God and it is completely free of cost. You don't need to do anything. It is man who thinks that he can purchase God, it is man's intellect that makes him think that he can own God. No, you have to become one with Him, you have to surrender to Him. Come into this Kingdom. By being surrendered in the Kingdom of God's Love, now there are many Sahaja Yogis here and if I wish to write their experiences down then I don't know how many books will be written.

But a Sahaja Yogi is made gradually. Now, the population of bhoots is great. If someone gives a speech then thousands will become his disciples because he will put a Mohinī mantra [enchantment spell] on you and you will listen to him in that enchantment and you won't know when the speech ended. You will go insane and will start doing strange acts seeing which your family will ask, “Now what kind of a Sādhu is he a disciple of?" The whole day he hits the wife and then will sit next to that `Sādhu' [saint]. He will ask money from you and you will keep giving it to him. What can I do about this intellect of man? Gradually, a Sahaja Yogi is made. Truth always evolves gradually. If I have to make plastic flowers then I can make thousands of them in one hour using a machine. But if I have to blossom real roses then some time has to be spent.

Despite all this, the specialty of this Kali Yug is that God's Love is bubbling so much, His compassion is flowing so much that I have tried these things in many births but only in this birth, in this Kali Yuga's special courtyard, many people get their Realisation in a moment. The most ordinary people, even Kṛiṣhṇa and in His time I too, worked very hard to give Realisation to the cowherds, but it didn't work so well. None of Christ's disciples could get Realisation though He worked so hard and tried so much. In that era, he [Justice Vaidya] was also there and some among you people were also there. Today, those same people are sitting amongst you. You are not of today but you are seekers of many births together.

You used to roam in the jungles in the early ages and you used to run after Gurus. If you have come today to achieve the fruition of all those thousands of years of seeking in a moment then why do you doubt it? This was promised a long time ago that in the Kali Yug only such a time would come and it is being fulfilled now. Why are you so surprised at this? Why is there so much doubt, so much argument and so much delay in this? In coming to Sahaja Yoga, you know that it is a play of seven Chakras. Especially, you people are worried about Lakṣhmījī [She represents wealth] here in India. This is not the case in other countries. In other countries, people roam around dressed like beggars. They are fed up with the grace of Lakṣhmījī and don't want any more. Recently I had been to Mombasa and they said, “Mātājī, Lakṣhmījī's grace is there but now give us peace because our wives have gone crazy, our homes are disturbed, all the children have gone crazy, there is mental derangement and the most number of suicides are taking place here." The situation in America is the same. Wherever you go, wherever there is money in excess, there the people are more insane. But in Sahaja Yoga, Lakṣhmījī's grace also rains down upon you. Even that balance comes in. You go into that Kingdom and enter into that special blessing which makes everything such that your path becomes easy and Sahaja. We have many people who can bear witness to this. You see, the Mother has to give the temptation of everything to Her children that, "My child, eat this now. If not then I will give you this thing and then you eat it. I will give you two paisa [Indian currency] but you eat it please." If he doesn't accept that then She says, "Alright, I will build you a palace but you eat it." This is My condition. I am trying to please you in every way and I am giving everything. I am giving you a lot of love also. But I ask for only one thing that My child, know yourself, establish yourself in that power which is within you and ask for that. Ask for that which is Reality and don't go after what is artificial.

Despite the wealth, property, prosperity, power or position you have, you might kings and queens but you won't get joy unless you stand in the kingdom of joy. When you stand in the kingdom of joy then in any case you become kings and queens. No one can purchase you or conquer you. You conquer everything.

You become kings. Such great kings have come and gone in this country. In this Maharashtra, a great personage took birth who lived in a small village in Shirdi. People never understood his kingship, in what enjoyment he used to live. In this India, there was another king in Guru Nanak. Another was Kabīr. Did they enjoy any royal comforts? Today, the whole world lies at their feet. I am present before you today only to bring fulfilment to all their teachings and their work. Nothing they said was false. What Jesus said, what Kṛiṣhṇa said, what is written in the Gītā, what is written in the Bible, what is written in the Quran will be proved by Me. In looks, I am just an ordinary lady. Alright, the power flowing through Me will prove how the Unconscious is working.

When you get your Realisation, then that power tells you through the Chakras on the fingertips about the problems of a person. It does not tell you in words but it tells you by burning, by cooling. Like, if it is flowing as a Cool Breeze then it is a blessing that is flowing as if from the Himālayas. This is a subjective knowledge which means that the doer knows it. You become the doer, you get the knowledge of the doer, that is you become what you really are. There is no need to read about it outside. There is no need to look into books, the whole library is here. If some learned people come to Me, they say, “Mātājī, what you are talking about is written in Gheranda Samhita." Let alone this Samhita, I have never read the Upanishads, never read the Gītā. Then how did I know about this? The source of knowledge is inside, in My brain. If there is a library inside you, you can read whatever book you want. You become replete with knowledge.

Then what you say is the truth, you become replete with truth. Whatever you say, you can manifest.

The Kuṇḍalinī will rise just by the movement of your hands. Leave My case alone. There are many people present here, who look just like you but the Kuṇḍalinī rises just by their gestures, sometimes they can raise the Kuṇḍalinīs of thousands. Don't believe Me blindly but experience it. In London, I was surprised, a gentleman gave Realisation to six people only using My photograph. They just sat with their hands towards the photograph and the six of them transformed completely. I was quite surprised and when I saw that I said, “Ahahaha, what great personalities of time immemorial have come in this world! I don't know whether to touch their feet or embrace them with all My heart. Where should I keep them? What more can be said about you who got Realisation just by looking at the photograph?" Another great blessing that is taking effect in this world, perhaps this is not known to you, many children below the age of 8, I have seen some twelve year olds also; they are there in America, there are many in London and they are here too; they are great personalities who have taken their birth and are expert in the science of Kuṇḍalinī. Today, there was a five year old boy who was hitting his father's Nābhī and Āgñyā Chakras and he knew what was catching in his father. Nothing was told to the boy but he continued to hit his father until the Chakras cleared out. Such people are Knowledge in reality. Every gesture, every movement, every word they speak is full of knowledge. I too have a granddaughter, both My granddaughters are quite great and they were born this way. We went to the airport and they started moving their hands this way and I asked, “What are you doing?" They said, “Grandmother, I am tying everyone up.

So many dark people are here." For them, `dark' means `negative'. When she was three years old, she used to tell Sahaja Yogis, “See, our mind is a horse. Sit on the horse and don't let the horse sit on you. Always sit on the white horse." Now see, it is said that in the Kali Yug the rider will sit on a white horse. A three year old child said this. I have seen many children like this; in your India, I have seen at least 300 children.

No matter how terrible the Kali Yug is, these people will take birth. They have come. Apart from this, demons are also taking their birth. Otherwise, how will the Kali Yug show its colours? Also, many animals are taking birth. Ordinary people hesitate a bit to take birth because they know that the conditions are bad.

So many animals are taking birth that the population is also increasing rapidly. The day Sat Yug arrives, this number will reduce by itself. Ordinary man will take birth. If a person sees this terrifying state of affairs, why will he take birth? Why should he come into this menace where fathers are no longer fathers, sisters are no longer sisters? Who will wish to trap himself in this menace? Many such great personages are anyways taking birth but other powers are also taking birth along with them.

In your India, sixteen Rākshasas have taken birth. If there was one, he could have been given Realisation.

Now, there is no point in killing them because one of them died and as a bhoot he has become more potent.

How will you people understand from where have such evil characters come into this world and what is their source? How will you people solve this problem? Let the scientists tell how this is happening. Can you tell through science? Now the state of the scientists is this. In America, many people have started smoking marijuana and other drugs.

So, a committee of five scientists was formed to find out what are the effects of taking these drugs. When they went to find out, they got possessed by bhoots. As a result, the scientists themselves started smoking drugs and resigned from their jobs. If they were such great scientists then why did they start smoking marijuana? Why do they drink so much alcohol? Mohammed Sahib told that alcohol should be avoided and Nanak Sahib told that alcohol should be avoided. But if they can do the same through science then I will accept that science is great.

Are these people happy? At least you people have some happiness. But those people who have advanced so much with science are in great unhappiness. Do you know that there is a great problem facing the United Nations? The problem is in deciding whether to trap the developing countries in the mess that the developed countries are trapped in. People reported that especially in Nepal, people are poor but they are very happy and satisfied. They are enjoying their lives so why do you want to spoil it all? Looking at you people too, many say that Indians are quite well-balanced and alright. “They are yet to fall in the trap of unhappiness so why do you want to develop them and put them into the mess that we are in?" Now, we have to think whether we can short-circuit the whole thing and reduce this advancement. You can surely do it.

Only you have the right to attain that Infinite that is doing everything, that is the collection of all sciences and that is everything. You have to attain that and reach the central point. Sahaja Yoga is the invention of God's Love. Until today, you people were not aware of God's Love because you were not connected. Once the connection is established, things will work out. Now, only those who are sitting in this hall can listen to My speech. In the same way, only those who enter the Kingdom of God can see the principle of His all-pervading form being present in every particle. There will be no doubt. What a great thing it is! What a miracle it is! Now in London, anyways, churches are being sold. What can be done, sell the churches. Just as they were bought, they are being sold. Ashrams are being sold in India. Unless a living thing is seen in this world, God's name itself cannot be there, isn't it? But God is Living and the only thing you have to do is to attain Him. Now, you people are on the stage. Only through you, only because of you this is going to work out because all of you people are on the stage. It all depends on your ability to do the work and show the world. If the world is destroyed, then the responsibility is yours and not anybody else's. It sounds fantastic. Today's humans cannot believe how this can happen. They say, “All this cannot be believed, Mātājī is just cooking up some story." Just think of this that you are going to get an invaluable diamond in a moment and you have to take it. Please put your hands towards Me for some time.

Please don't look at the watch for some time. This [Realisation] is important, is the most important thing.

[Sahaja Yogis take the mantra of Śhrī Kalki Swarūpinī repeatedly.] Close your eyes and see if there is thoughtless awareness.

Some people might be getting some coolness on their hands but thoughtless awareness comes first. Please don't get up in between for some time, please sit down for five minutes. Keep both your feet straight. If you are unable to close your eyes and your eyelids are flickering then keep your eyes open.

Many people among you have become thoughtlessly aware. I know this. It means that upon closing your eyes if you look at your mind then there is no thought. If there is only thoughtless awareness then you should know that the Kuṇḍalinī has crossed the Āgñyā Chakra and has spread in the Sahasrāra Chakra but has not pierced through here. But if someone is getting a Cool Breeze in their hands then they should know that the Brahmarandhra has been opened.

In any case, our program will once again be in Bal Mohan and you will get photos outside which you can take. You should also try out experiments on the photo. First sit with your hands towards the photo and if you get the Cool Breeze then you should know that it is alright. If there is any disease, then you can use the photo but take care that the photo is respected. Don't throw the photo here and there because many things come along with it.

If a Cool Breeze starts flowing from it, then there is no problem, everything is alright. But if you get a hot breeze it means that your health is not alright. There is some problem or discomfort within you.

Especially if this hand gets the heat then keep that hand towards the photo and keep the other hands pointed outwards. But if there is some trembling in your hands or if your eyes are flickering then it shows that there is a very bad nervous tension upon you.

So, you should point both hands towards the photo and light a candle or lamp in front of it and keep both your feet in water. As soon as you do that, the vibrations from the photo will come and go through you into the water. It is a great thing that in the photo itself the vibrations are flowing. See what a great thing God has done! The vibrations flow from the photo and in great force but not as great as from Me. But that is enough. You should take the photo from outside and take the vibrations from it. Any disease or problem you have, you will see that it will go away. If you have problems of sleep, if there is a lot of discomfort in your body, if there is some mental problem or if someone in your house is insane, any problem you have, you can try it out on the photo. But if the Cool Breeze is flowing through you, you can cure any disease yourself. Keep one hand towards the photo and the other towards that person. The vibrations will flow through you because you have become hollow from within. You should try it out and do come to Bal Mohan where I will be able to tell you more in detail about how to proceed further with this. If within seven days, the Cool Breeze does not flow through you, then you should keep both hands towards the photo and keep your feet in water and light a lamp. It might be that you have a serious disease that you don't know about. It might also be that you are possessed. You should keep both hands towards the photo and both your feet in a basin of water with some salt. Try it out and see how much it benefits you. When you come to Bal Mohan then I shall tell you more about it. It is true that this science is very difficult, the engineering is very complex but its working is very simple and Sahaj. It's like if you wish to have light, you just have to switch it on. It's very simple and you should see that with the photo, you will benefit from it.

All I want to say is that, believe Me, God exists in reality. He exists everywhere. Also, if you have tremendous love, this love of Mine that you are seeing is His love only. He loves you so much that today it is you who have been made the king and only through you, this great play of His is going to manifest in this world. Many thanks to you and I hope to meet you again.

Contents: 1975-12-23*, Public Program (Hindi), Day 2, Parmatma Ka Prem (God's Love), Bal Mohan Mandir, Mumbai, India

I bow to you all who are seekers of truth. Yesterday, you were present in large numbers at Bharatiya Vidyā Bhavan. Today, I am going to talk about things that follow from yesterday's lecture.

The topic was, “Experiences of Divine Love". In today's age of science, it seems almost comical to talk about God and then to talk about His love seems even more comical. Especially in India, as I told yesterday, scientists here have not yet reached that limit where they can think about God. This is a sad thing. But in other countries, scientists have reached that point where they concede that they don't know what is beyond. They also say, “What we have known comes through science, that is true, but this is nothing. The source of all these things is a strange thing which we are unable to understand." For example, great scientists of chemistry say that they are not able to understand how these periodic laws [of elements] have been made. Such a unique and beautiful creation has been made where every atom contains a universe that the scientists are unable to understand how it has come about. They say that this work of creation cannot be done by them. Not only that but also we cannot tell how this has been created. This earth is rotating so fast and how is it able to do so and how this gravity works on it. We can say that `this is working' but science cannot tell us how exactly it is working. A great scientist like Einstein said repeatedly that there is some unknown land from where we are getting this knowledge.

Those countries that have reached the frontiers of science have every possible amenity. Food shortage is not a problem there. People say that the country has affluence and that affluence has given them a lot of money.

So, their children have left their houses and are roaming around like ascetics.

Some are coming to India, some are running to Nepal. They are saying, “Leave all this. Our parents have collected all stones and bricks and we are not going to follow them." But after leaving all that, they have become hippies and are smoking drugs.

But all these things cannot prove the existence of God. Only after arguing, debating and rationalizing, a person reaches a position where he says that there is definitely something beyond all this. But I am not going to tell you this. I am going to tell you about the actualisation of the experience. For many years, forget our scriptures, but in other countries too, great psychologists and philosophers have enquired about how to enter that subtle state from this gross one. Mind and thoughts are gross so how to enter that thoughtless state with the help of these thoughts, how to enter the Infinite with this finitude and how to enter the Boundless using these bondages has been a great problem for mankind since the beginning.

And I have now brought the solution to this problem. The solution is not only in words but also in action and it can happen to you also. This is because the time has come for it to happen. Its chance has come and it has to take place in this Kali Yug. Until the Kali Yug had not developed completely, man had not reached that balance which he had to reach. God's work would not have come into action until man had not developed completely like this mike was not put to the mains until it was developed completely.

Only in the fire of this Kali Yug that seems to be extremely terrifying, painful and frightening will you become what you had to become. But there is only one question, one request to you that what do you accept, what do you wish for, whether you wish for the truth or the untruth.

Man is uneasy, more so in those countries where there is a surplus of food and water. People are going mad. There is a great crisis going on and you don't know how unhappy those people are who have much more food than you. There are so many suicides in those places. You still feel that you have to earn money. Those people don't want to do anything of the sort.

So what will they do next? They have gone mad trying to understand why they have come on this earth. They are like people in a closed, dark room and are crashing into various things. You people are also walking the path of so-called development and you are taking that road which they have already taken. The only difference is that those things that are important for them are not important for you. But do you also want to take that road or do you want to take a shortcut if you get one? You should know that this land of India is a land of Yoga. Most of the incarnations came on this land. You have taken birth on a great land and this choice of yours is a great thing. However, there is some problem of food and water and some people are great cheats. Despite that, your choice to enter the courtyard of the vibrations of this country is a great one and you don't know how God has blessed you.

Today, your children are sitting with you and your parents are standing by you. This why Sahaja Yoga has sprouted in India first. Only through this India is going to rule the world.

Now it is not a topic of debate whether God's love exists or not or whether God exists or not. Firstly some great people have taken birth in this country. Take Ādi Shañkarāchārya for example who has given us a prior understanding of Chaitanya Lahari [waves of vibrations] and other things. We have so many scriptures in which the form and manifestation of God has been discussed a lot. But why should we believe them? Why should we accept it just because Shañkarāchārya has said it? One gentleman was asking Me yesterday that what madness possessed a pundit like Gyāneshwar to sing the praise of Śhrī Gaṇeśha? It is surprising that you consider Gyāneshwar as a great pundit. Do you consider him a pundit because he has made skilful use of words? These scriptures have been written by people who were born on a very high level. Their consciousness was much higher than ours and their vision was directed at something else altogether. Think of a personality born on the tenth floor and the ordinary society was born at the lowest level. There was nothing to connect them both except the fact that society below tortured such personalities while they were alive and made money by means of temples and other institutions in their name after their death. This is quite clear. They were quite active in trying to explain such things to the people but were unable to reach anywhere with it. Until the people below are not lifted a little higher, until their human awareness is not lifted higher, they won't be able to understand that there is something above this level also.

So, you cannot blame such people also. If they don't believe this, then too there is no need to blame them. If they don't believe in God then too there is no need to blame them. This is because man has been made in this manner itself.

Man was created in this way that for some time, he was separated from and deprived of God's love.

He was separated from the All-pervading Love of God which he can know and in which he can live. Man was separated like a drop from the ocean. This was done in a special manner. I have talked about this many times how the Kuṇḍalinī enters a person and how the ego and superego come together and make a cage in his head because of which he asserts his own identity by getting separated from this All-pervading light of God. `I am different, you are different and you are different.' In this way, this special creation is placed in man because of his triangular head.

Three powers enter him which, according to the scriptures, are known as Mahālakṣhmī, Mahāsaraswatī and Mahākālī. Of these three powers, Mahāsaraswatī is that power which creates, Mahākālī is that power by which we exist and because of Mahālakṣhmī power we have become men from stones, we have evolved.

Gold has its own Dharma that it does not get tarnished. Its yellow colour is not its Dharma but its Dharma is that it does not tarnish. In the same way, man has a Dharma. It is Mahālakṣhmī's job to change the Dharmas. It is also Śhrī Viṣhṇu's job who finally becomes Virāta.

Now, you will be surprised at how beautifully God has made arrangements within man. You are unaware of it.

Some doctors know about it but they simply say, “We cannot explain the mode of action." God has made a beautiful arrangement within man. You can say that He has made an office from man's brain to the bottom of the spinal cord. Now you will ask, “Who is Śhrī Gaṇeśha? How do we believe whether Śhrī Gaṇeśha exists or not?" It is a pertinent question. You have not seen Śhrī Gaṇeśha, you have not known Him so you should not believe in Him. But it is a strange thing that unless you come inside you cannot see and as long as you are standing outside you will not believe. For example, you are standing outside and you are saying, “We have not seen Mātājī so how should we believe that She is there?" Then I would say, “Come inside and have a look." But you would say, “Show us outside itself." When His governance is inside, then you have to come inside isn't it? Unless you go inside you won't be able to see it.

So, before creating this Creation, before creating the Ādi Kuṇḍalinī, before creating this universe, Śhrī Gaṇeśha was established. Today, being Tuesday, is an auspicious day. He is in reality the incarnation of purity. He resides within us but you don't have the eyes to see Him. In the center called Mūlādhāra which is surrounded by the prostate gland [in men] and which is called as pelvic plexus, He is reflected within every person. He might be asleep but He resides there. This deity is such that He never falls asleep completely. When a person becomes a complete devil, then He disappears from there but He is present within everyone. This is the first center within us which is called as Mūlādhāra Chakra.

You are Sanskrit pundits so you know that `Mūl' means `root' and `ādhāra' means `support'.

So it is the support of the root, root of this creation. He sits at the support of the root of this creation and that's why He was created before anything else. This was done so that the whole universe is filled with purity and remains immersed in purity and innocence. Many people say, “Mātājī, is not right to be so innocent, you have no practical sense. You should have practical sense." Nothing is more practical than God. He is the source of all the intelligence that you have. The only difference is that He is source of wisdom, not foolishness. What you call `practical' is actually a great foolishness. In the end you are proved to be a big fool but the real mark of foolishness is when you don't return from there. You live in the world while considering yourself to be very intelligent but just one movement of Śhrī Gaṇeśha's trunk, all your schemes turn upon yourself in such a way that you end up straight in hell. You cannot be clever with God.

I am a Mother, so I forgive even if you tell many lies but Śhrī Gaṇeśha is very clever though He is the symbol of eternal childhood. The meaning of this is that when you think of your ascent, when you think of God, He becomes like a small child. The meaning of His being present in the pelvic plexus itself means that there is no connection between God and sex. There is no need to fall into the trap of those who are teaching you all sorts of such wrong things. They are all demons incarnate. sixteen Rākshasas have taken their birth in this world and are roaming around in the garb of MahāGurus. They are all doing a business of making money. Each one has his own traps and they have fallen into those traps but they want to make one final swipe at all those fools who are enticed by them. There is absolutely no relation, no relation, no relation between God and sex.

To prove this point, Śhrī Gaṇeśha is sitting there to protect His mother who is sitting in Her house which is the triangular bone at the bottom of the spine present within every person. He is guarding that house, which is the house of your Mother whose name is Kuṇḍalinī who is of the form of Gaurī. The person who prays to Śhrī Gaṇeśha understands this fact that the position of the Mother is very high and has absolutely no relation with sex. An Indian understands this very well. The person who does such a thing is punished so badly by Śhrī Gaṇeśha when their Kuṇḍalinī is about to rise that they get burnt.

Their Kuṇḍalinī does not rise, She is not mad enough to do that but the heat generated by Śhrī Gaṇeśha at that time burns them off completely. A person starts hopping like a frog, starts screaming, removes his clothes and these are signs of those who are condemned. They are goblins who are spreading sin in this world. What is sin is sin and what is Dharma is Dharma. The two cannot be mixed. These people are turning Dharma to adharma and merits into sin.

These people are so successful because you people justify your weaknesses in such actions. If there is sex in God's name then there is nothing better. They smoke marijuana in the name of God. What can be said now? Confusion is the name of Kali Yuga. There was a small mistake done in the past that some people understood the trunk of Śhrī Gaṇeśha in the Mūlādhāra Chakra to be the Kuṇḍalinī. This was a mistake but this mistake was extrapolated to new heights. Because the pelvic plexus governs sex they related sex to Kuṇḍalinī. Thus they became Tantriks and Māntriks and are nothing else but demons. They are devils in the garb of men and protect yourselves and your children from them. There are many such people in Dadar also, I know. I have worked a lot in Dadar. These people take money and use their Tantra Vidyā and mantra Vidyā on others. In reality, unless a person is extremely pure, he cannot reach even the feet of Śhrī Gaṇeśha.

These people keep Śhrī Gaṇeśha in front and worship Him, you will be surprised and call dead spirits (bhoots). How does this work? When there is anadhikar cheshta [unauthorized attempt], when an impure person repeatedly calls on God, then Śhrī Gaṇeśha sleeps off over there. All these deities are very sensitive.

As soon as He sleeps off, the demons arrive over there and start making the sound `hoo-hoo' and show some magic tricks by conjuring some stone or a ring. There Śhrī Gaṇeśha has slept off. First, Śhrī Gaṇeśha is made to sleep with the help of their ungodliness and dirty behaviour. After putting Him in a state of absolute sleep, they call the demons over there and do their work. Tāntriks and Māntriks of this kind should know that you will earn money in this country but along with it you are purchasing a ticket to hell and you will remain in hell permanently and won't return from there. Be careful of this money.

In reality, even if man falls to this depth, God is so compassionate. I had gone to Pune and there was a big Māntriks over there. He came to Me and I was staying at the DIG's [Deputy Inspector General's] place. The DIG told Me that this Māntrik had helped them a lot by catching many thieves and asked Me to help him out. This Māntrik came to My feet and started crying desperately saying, “Mother release me from their grip, they are eating me up. You understand all these things." I asked, “Why did you take the help of these bhoots? Why did you wreak such devilry with the help of these demons?" He said, “I did not do any evil, I have always used them for good." I said, “Whether it is good or bad, why did you do something that was unauthorized?" He said, “Alright forgive me. I just ask for one thing that give me the Supreme." I said, “Say three times that I want the Supreme." Then I prayed to God and immediately he got his Realisation. How boundless He is and His love cannot be expressed in words. Although he had worshipped only gross things throughout his life when he finally asked Me, God rained down upon him. As he was leaving he told the DIG, “I have been practicing this for twenty-five years in the cemeteries and how Mātājī can say that all my powers have gone away?" So the DIG said, “Alright, say your mantras let's see whether someone comes or not." He went on saying the mantras for half an hour but nothing happened. Then he came and fell at My feet saying, “Mother, all that has finished." I said, “Those who were responsible for those powers within you, they have disappeared, so how can those powers work? Now those are awakened within you who will bring about your powers." As soon as they are awakened within a person, all his bad qualities fall off. “All the demons sitting in your head who were using you, all of them were destroyed." When these deities are awakened within you, you become Divine. That is why it is said, “Nar jaise karni kare, nar ka Narayan ho" [If a man does the right thing, he can become Divine]. The `right thing' means that the person should take his realisation, the deities within him should get awakened.

Śhrī Gaṇeśha always brings balance within us. Now I will tell you the psychology because people of science always go towards psychology. What science calls the Id is Śhrī Gaṇeśha. They say that the Unconscious is built in such a way that through the symbols in our dreams we can know that there is some effort to bring us into balance and to correct us.

Something is being taught to us. There are many such things. Even Freud, although he too was a rākshas and many of his students and the extent to which psychology has reached today has concluded this thing saying that the Unconscious is some great thing with intelligence. It keeps us on the right track. It is Śhrī Gaṇeśha. Psychologists have not yet been able to reach Śhrī Gaṇeśha because they don't know that to reach Śhrī Gaṇeśha, our life has to be pure. How can people who drink alcohol day and night, reach Śhrī Gaṇeśha? One who has not made his life pure, one whose life is not in balance, one who runs behind other women leaving his wife cannot reach Śhrī Gaṇeśha who is in reality the incarnation of purity.

But the miracles of purity are so many that recently I had gone to an agricultural university in Rahuri.

Some professors there are My disciples and they said, “Give us some vibrated water by which our yield will increase." I said, “Alright take it." I moved My hand like this and gave them some water. They came yesterday and they were telling their stories. They said that they put that water in a well and the yield of crops irrigated with that water was hundred times the normal yield. They said, “Mother, we knew already that this would happen with the vibrations because this has happened earlier." But the greatest surprise was this that earlier rats would spoil around 250 sacks of grain and it would rot. But this time, in the godown in which this grain was kept rats did not even touch the grain though there were holes in the sacks.

Also, beside these sacks there was some other grain which is called `pen' and rats never eat this but this time around the rats ate that and spared the vibrated grain." Now you will ask, “How is this possible?" Scientists will say that they cannot believe this but this is in front of you. Now see, he is a scientist, a professor at that university, Mister Chavan and he said, “Mother we were amazed at what we saw." But when we tell this in the university, other scientists say, “No, no it must be a coincidence." They said, “But how can it be such a big coincidence that no rat even touched it?" When it is about God, it is coincidence and when it is about science then it is sure-shot.

This is because to accept God is very difficult for man's ego. Ego has covered his head so much. If the ego is pulled a little on this side, a place is created in the middle for Sahaja Yoga. Because of this ego, they do not want to know how it happened. You know that cancer has been treated in many people through Sahaja Yoga. In Delhi too, many people were cured of cancer.

So much so, the Delhi government said that they wanted to know how cancer was cured with Sahaja Yoga.

So, I sent a disciple of Mine who is a doctor to explain to them. The secretary there wrote to Me saying that this was beyond his understanding. When I was in London, I got someone's letter who was suffering from colour blindness. The next day, I went in meditation and the same day his colour blindness was cured. He was government servant, a director and he had lost his job. But no one was willing to believe that his colour blindness had gone away. Then I wrote a letter to a secretary asking him to at least conduct a test for this person. When the examination was done then they were surprised at how his colour blindness had been cured. Here too, many people are sitting who have got their second birth. Ask them and they will give you their testimony. Then they said that send some doctor and we will test it out in a medical college. That doctor then wrote to Me saying, “Initially, I got tired of fighting with these scientists." In that time, Emergency was declared and the discussion has been suspended.

But they say that this won't happen here. I said that Sahaja Yoga is a gift of India and if I have found a way to cure cancer, why can't you take a look at this? No doctor is ready to take a look. There is a disciple of Mine in America called Doctor Langewar who is a good doctor and he asked Me, “Mother give me a blessing such that I can spread Sahaja Yoga to the whole world." Just before arriving here from London, I got a letter from him saying that he has become the chairman of the association of all the doctors of New York. Now he has asked Me to come there and we will present to them in a conference that we have now been able to control the parasympathetic nervous system. Now I am telling the doctors here that if they don't want to accept this then let it come from America, what can be done? When we borrow all things from America, then what can I do about it? In this manner, many diseases can be cured through Sahaja Yoga. The seven centers within you, the beautiful arrangement made within you by God get enlightened with the light of Kuṇḍalinī through Sahaja Yoga and these deities put it into balance after getting awakened. They organize the working of the whole body and give energy to the whole body which flows within us from above. To understand this, think of a car whose petrol is being consumed and if the petrol decreases below a level, there is a tension created within us. But if there is an arrangement that you have petrol all the time with you then there is no question of tiring, of spending. The same thing happens within us. This is called as parasympathetic nervous system. Now, you will be surprised to know that all this is being said by doctors that parasympathetic nervous system cannot be controlled. They are also saying that if psycho-synthesis has to take place that is if all the parts of the mind and body have to be integrated then that is possible only through the parasympathetic. This stage has been constructed for us by them. What they are saying is the same thing as what we are doing but if I say that you jump up on the stage then no scholar is ready to do that.

Stop dominating people, stop behaving revengeful, otherwise Kalki is ready to destroy everything, that time he will judge everybody and I will not be able to save you, only you can save yourself, by the knowledge of vibrations. The time of `Bhranti' is very near.

If you will not meditate then you will lose your power of discretion.

Contents: 1976-01-23*, Public Program, Description of Kuṇḍalinī, New Delhi, India (other date 1975-11-30)

Sahaja Yogi or Sahaja Yogini: If any one of you wants to put any question and get some ideas clarified, Shri Mataji is prepared to reply.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji:... your attention has to be free at the time of realisation when the Kuṇḍalinī is awakened all your attention is extracted within and the Kuṇḍalinī while rising takes it on its head or on her head and brings the attention outside the Sahasrāra.

So at that time, best thing is to let [UNCLEAR loose] yourself, just sit down, watch it, what is happening instead of putting any effort. It is an effortless [UNCLEAR] That helps you the best.

So, no mantra is to be chanted. After realisation you must know what mantra is to be chanted where. There is a big science about it.

So the complete Tantra, what you called `Kuṇḍalinī' is there. But, so you must know how to handle it, what mantra is to be said, what is to be said and which Chakra lacks a [UNCLEAR] thing. It is, you have to master it. And there are many here in Delhi also who have mastered it.

So it is not difficult. Anybody can master it. It is not difficult.

Even a little girl like Pradnya has mastered the Kuṇḍalinī. She can do it! Why not you people can do it.

So, you have to just find out what are the Chakras which are defective and you can treat it also.

Just now those who got realisation, you got your realisation no doubt so you would go and meet those people D2, 88 Pandara Road and there you go and they will guide you, what is to done in future. And go deep into it and make yourself established and be a master of Kuṇḍalinī. All that is [UNCLEAR guhya guhya taram] I have told them. And you will get all the knowledge about it.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That's a very good apt question. He asks universal consciousness... it is all deliberate... why it is kept in human being... now in the growth of evolution, from a small amoeba, you come to a human stage. At the human stage, articulation takes place. Means the shell of the egg is developed.

For the egg to develop, the shell is developed. You are made limited. Through the growth of your ego and superego within yourself, your Brahmarandhra is closed down, your `Tālu' is closed down and you're left to yourself. I will tell you in an analogy by which you will understand. For example, if I have to use this microphone, it is developed somewhere, away from the mains, then again it is brought and put to the mains. In the same way human being is cut from the mains. He is given `I'-ness' from him to develop his instrument, his awareness; in such a manner that when he receives the mains, he can communicate, he could understand and for that development, articulation was done. Just like an egg is made in a shell for protection and for its growth and then when the cheek is ready in that shell, it is broken by the mother; here just like I break the Brahmarandhra, is the same, it's that.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Now the idea of [UNCLEAR ĀtmāDhyān/ ĀtmāGñyān/ Ātmādnyan] if it is read in the books, it is rather difficult. But, what happens with the rise of Kuṇḍalinī, first of all when we enter into that infinite thing, some people rise like a steep very strong jet like speed they get. But some of them rise very slowly and then we can see the stages into which they rise. The first thing that happens is that you become thoughtless. But you are aware. First stage that happens is thoughtless awareness.

Thoughtless awareness means that you start watching the thoughts. That means you are separated from yourself. Like you were in water and now you jumped on to the boat and you see the water now so that you are separated. This is what happens those who have gradual ascent. You become thoughtlessly aware, which we call in the Haṭha Yoga as `Asampragyat Samādhi'. Of course according to them it's a very higher stage. But, you become thoughtlessly aware and the vibrations start flowing from your hand by which you know something is flowing. You start getting Cool Breeze from Me and you start getting Cool Breeze from other Sahaja Yogis and when you give it to others you find it is flowing. This we can say is the first thing that happens. That means you become collectively conscious of another personality. This is the first thing that happens. The second stage in which you jump is `Nirvikalpa', means in that stage you become doctor. Then you don't ask Me questions. There are some people who are like that here.

So they have no questions, they have felt it, they known it. I say in a different way. Supposing I give you a thousand rupees. Now if you do not spend it how would you know what is the value of that. You will say what you have given thousand, what is there you have given just given us vibrations. But once you start using it, then you will see tremendous powers you have got. And the powers of so-called, I mean what you call ordinary vibrations, some people think like that. It is so easily available, it happens to you so Sahaja, that you do not understand the value of it. But once you start using them and then you see the tremendous thing that you have got it. It gives the bliss and the joy that flows into you. You come into the stage of doubtless awareness. The third one I would say is the complete Self-realisation is established. Now, in the thoughtless awareness, as you can say that, supposing now as you have got justice sitting here.

So then he is a justice, he has certain powers. In the same way when you rise to the thoughtless awareness you have certain powers by which you can give awakening to people. Just move hand and the Kuṇḍalinī of the people will move, Is surprise. But it does. You can move the hand and you can feel the Kuṇḍalinī, you can feel the Kuṇḍalinī of other persons, you can feel the Chakras of other persons; only with thoughtless awareness. But with doubtless awareness you start giving them realisation. Absolutely, just like that.

And with higher Self-realisation what happens? That you just become a Sākshī. No problem. You never catch anything. You see, normally what happens when a person come to you, you place your hand for that person and you feel it, ohhh disgusting, this fellow is burning. You don't like it because you see the Chakras of that person is burning on your fingers. Then you can catch the catch also. Then you get involved into it. But later on when you are completely Self-realised you become a completely `Nirlepa'. You do not catch any such things and you rise into the realm where you are into complete `Vaigragya', you are just flowing, you are into Sākshī sate. But after this three stages is the stage of God's realisation in which you start controlling the nature completely.

Some people, of course through Haṭha Yoga try to control nature, but that is just upside down. We start it from top and go down. First of all let us go to the Divine stage and then come down. Then establish into the, if we control the nature, see if you can control the say rain, you can control the sun. All this can be done. But, that is you see you lose interest in doing it.

But automatically you can do it. For example when I was going to see one Mahārāj like that and he was very evolved soul and he has got it through you see thousands of years of Tapas-chārya –'performing penances'. Say he was sitting down there and the rain was pouring down and he didn't want Me to get drenched and so he was trying to control rain. I know he can control rain. But the rain was pouring. And he didn't know what to do and was upset with himself. When I went up he said, “Did you want to kill my ego that you didn't allow the rain to stop?" I said, it was not so. You see, I am the mother.

So told him very sweetly that I know that you have bought a sarī for Me and if I were not drenched then you will not give Me the sarī.

So I just wanted the rain to.

So you see that's how the little ego that was there that I am controlling the rain [UNCLEAR].

So it is the thing that happen automatically. You do not want to do it but it just happens.

You just don't want to bother about these things but it just happens. Wherever you are it just happens.

It is that state where you start rising into the God's realisation. When you are in God's realisation, you are sitting here or any where you can see things, you can influence people, you can help them, you can do lot of things Sitting down anywhere. You may sit in Himālayas. There are people like that who are sitting in the Himālayas are helping you [UNCLEAR].

So they can do it and they are one. For example, this gentlemen about whom I am telling you, who is a very great saint, he saw at My time, at the time of My birth, everything that happened. He knows about My past lives for thousands of years. He recognizes Me. There is another one who came to see Me from Amarnath who is three hundred years old. He is also of the same type and he also said all those things. But you see, their [UNCLEAR style/side] is different and your [UNCLEAR style/side] is different. You are people made like Gaṇeśha, they are not. They still catch. You don't know. That why that three hundred year old man, had some patches on his body.

I said what have you done Nagnath Baba. How you got it? He said, “I got it from one horrible fellow he touched me." I said: “Alright I will take it out for you." Then he said, “What about you?" I said: “Not Me. I [am] a mother, mother do not get it. Mother never catches because of children." In the same way you people also don't catch. There are some people here who have cured cancer. They have never caught anything from anybody.

So you see, you have much more power because you are people who are simple [UNCLEAR], you are like Śhrī Gaṇeśha. Because Śhrī Gaṇeśha has much more power than any one of the deities there are. Because you are so simple, so dedicated to Mother.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: We are living in this world because we have to become instrument in the hands of God.

He wants to use us. You see we have to be a good instrument in his hand. For example, an artist has a brush. Why is the brush there? For the artist to use the brush. Now, I will tell you a very sweet story about it. Once Rādhājī was very jealous of Mur.lī, that Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa was carrying on his lips.

So she asks Mur.lī, what is your speciality that you are all the time near the lips of my lord.

So, she said, my speciality is that I am no special. I have become a hollow person. The melody is going through me. He is using me just as an instrument and I laugh at the people when they say you have been slave. I say I am just watching like a Sākshī, like a witness. And if I stand anywhere in between then his melody will be spoilt.

This is the concept. And if you don't achieve this concept, then all this recklessness comes to... problems comes, goes this way that way, then your parasympathetic is taxed. When your parasympathetic is taxed, then you start thinking what are we to do, where are we to jump now, whole petrol is being exhausted in this body. But, once you open out to the mains, it starts pouring into you. And you are absolutely relaxed.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: It just takes a second if you are ready. For every ordinary person it really takes a second.

Then it rises in a second it rises. But what happens is Kuṇḍalinī is your mother.

So now supposing your mother is coming to see you and you are sick.

So first of all what she will do is that your sickness is removed. Then she sees that you are mentally upset.

So she looks after your mental problems. Then she sees that you are wrongly placed in [UNCLEAR] Chakra.

So she corrects you and ultimately she blesses you. If somebody is in [UNCLEAR] who has got a good health, of normal health, he is living a normal married life, he is the best seeker. And there are some who have got it like just that. But some people are [UNCLEAR], some trouble, because they have gone through various ordeals of life.

They have been tortured, they have got some mental problem the mother has to cure them. You see, you cannot say that when this tree is going to sprout, [UNCLEAR]. Can you say that at this day the flowers will appear.

Can you say that at this day all fruits will be coming. No, you cannot. There is no time for living process.

It works itself. It works for the organism, that is yourself and then it clicks itself. That is what is Sahaja.

Question: [asks for realisation].

Question [long one]: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Right for anybody who is not realised... that should be the question. You see around be the question. You see around such a lot of [UNCLEAR]. Now he has asked two questions. He has confusion two questions. The first one of misery, the second one about over population.

So first I will answer the first question of misery. You say that there is misery. I accept it that there are misery.

And miseries are there because of human beings themselves. Because they haven't got the Divine within themselves. If they have Divine they will not dominate, they will not bear domination, they will be different people. But, we can say one thing, How will reduce the miseries of people when you are not realised. See, I have told you that there are seven Chakras in the human being. When they are awakened what happens? Let us see. First of all you physical problems are solved, your health improves, you lead a very healthy life. You will be amazed and in Sahaja Yoga, nobody dies before he is seventy 70 years of age. He lives a very very healthy life to begin with. First misery of physical life is over. Not only that physically live good life, but he makes others physically alright. He makes them physically fit without taking a single pai [paisa] from them. The vibrations that flow from him, he cures them and the other person gets alright.

Now as I have told you that there are people here who have treated so many people, have cured so many people without taking a single pai. Because this love is flowing and that's yourselves [UNCLEAR].

So the physical problem is solved.

Then the second problem is your emotional problem. The person suffers emotionally. They become emotionally disturbed, sometimes there are possessions. They come into it from their subconscious mind and there are problems from with the emotional side. Now, after realisation people become Sākshī in the sense that emotionally they do not get involved with the things that they do not feel disturbed about it but they see the things [UNCLEAR]. I will give you a very concrete example. I had a grandchild, first grandchild born in My family. This child was born with a heart which was all time pulmonary [UNCLEAR]; which cannot be cured. Because it's a basic problem and I knew about it the day she was born. But I was silent and on the 5th day I said to the doctor and said you must take her under the X-ray. I see what is the thing. Doctor was surprise he said why you think so. Such a little child should not be taken to a[n] X-ray. I said you take. I took her secretly and showed her. They found that the enlargement of the heart. Now, when I came home I didn't tell My daughter, I didn't tell My husband who was to come from Delhi. When he came back, with very great introduction I told him. Immediately he fainted. He is a very healthy man and, I mean that way emotionally he is supposed to be a very sensitive person, very balanced, but, he fainted. We told this to the father of the child he fainted. My daughter fainted. They couldn't bear. I took the child to the hospital. I admitted him in the hospital because the doctor said they had to do other tests. Then we had to take the child to America and I knew that the child was going to die. But I feel alright. If they feel that the child has to be taken, I take. None of them could take. They couldn't take the child. I took there. The so-called miserable people are actually are over-doing things. By which they are spoiling every body's life and making themselves miserable also. The way they talk of misery actually are so exaggerating. I do not know if they are really that miserable the way they talk about [UNCLEAR] and they cannot do anything about it because until and unless you are separated from the problem, how are you going to solve it? You see, you have to be separated. Unless and until you are a doctor, you are not going to operate. Supposing you are a patient, how are you going to operate yourself? So the doctor in you must be separated. This is what the Sahaja Yoga does. Because you are the patient and you are the doctor that's why the whole thing is more exaggerated. If you find any doctor being sick, he will be the worst patient. I have seen, that in practice it is so. That's why who are miserable are much more miserable than they are really because they themselves do not know how to cure it.

So the emotional problem is solved. Now, then there is another problem which we face all the time is of our `dharma' of our dignity. How to be dignified, how to be ourselves? The simple problem. And that is solved. No doubt. Because there you find the Divine flowing through you. You really become a dynamic personality apart from that. I have to tell you another thing which happened to another people who are Sahaja Yogis. That is the your Lakṣhmī awaken. Now you know what is Lakṣhmī. Such a person cannot become a beggar. Cannot! A Sahaja Yogi cannot become a beggar because his Lakṣhmī is awaken.

He is looked after. See there is God almighty looking after you! This is the sin against God that all the time you are so insecure. The one who has created you, the one who is looking after you is going to look after you everywhere. But you want to run after other things. You want to do smuggling, you want to do all kind of things, you want to cut each other's throat and then you want to see that you are happy and all. And then you have to depend on him [UNCLEAR]. And the person who is realised, he is like a Bādshah, he is the king. He is always the king. He doesn't bother. I can tell you about Myself. I feel no dearth of money or dearth of anything. Never! If you ask Me I can sleep on the ground. Perhaps I was born in very rich family and My husband is quiet rich, but if you ask Me I can live anywhere. I can do without food for days together. It isn't matter of all the time people talk about eating eating. How much do you eat. There is no need to eat such a lot. That's why some people are poor.

Some people will such a lot that there are some people who are poor. But automatically your attention on food and all drops out. You just get it. If you get it well and good you don't get it well and good. This morning I had no breakfast and all that [UNCLEAR]. Because if your body is filled with energy you don't need. Actually this is the first time the energy is filling you all. Then you give vibrations. In Rahuri [Maharashtra] there called university there they have experimented. In the University for first time they have experimented in agriculture university. With these vibrations the grapes, wheat is ten times more. They have found that the fruits that came out of it were beautiful and, they are so tasty and so [UNCLEAR]-ful. They found that the cow was given vibrated water, Indian cow, started giving milk like an Australian cow. But I cannot write a guarantee check for you. That is one thing.

So, all the miseries so-called will drop out.

Now the over-population problem. That's very interesting. I tell you what it is. Why there is such a over-population. You see, the congenial atmosphere for the Rākshashas and for the bhoots, giving chance for the bhoots to come as human beings. Once this congenial atmosphere will disappear, only the saintly will come and they are not so many. And they will not need so many. I think [UNCLEAR] will not need much. With very little he will be satisfied. He is a Bādshah. It's only the mental attitude that makes him Bhikari –'beggar'. Otherwise we are not. We are very rich people.

Question: [asks for realisation].

Contents: 1976-02-29 Shivaratri Pūjā (Hindi), Utpatti, Ādi Shakti aur Shiva ka Swarūp, Mumbai, India

[Version 1] I have told you about the origin before. Because on the day of Mahāshiva-rātri, when there is a talk about Shivajī then it has to begin with origin. How much He is primordial, means when there is a first manifestation of form of God almighty.

He is called as Sadāśhiva when He is enlightened from Brahma. That is why the one who is Shivajī is called as Ādi [primordial].

You see, before the complete manifestation of any tree its seed has to be seen first and that is why it has to be called `Beej Swarūpa', form of the seed. That is why the glory of Shiva is very important. After that, after his manifestation, the power within him gets her form and is called as Ādi Shakti.

The same Ādi Shakti enlightens the three forms of the God differently which you know as Brahmā, Viṣhṇu and Maheśh i.e. Shiva Shañkar. It means that Ādi Shakti holds the three aspects of a diamond.

And when in the dooms day the whole created universe, whole manifested world gets dissolved and the same is incarnated in the form of Brahma, then also Sadāśhiva remains there. And his connection to the part of God is always maintained which is never manifested and which is a non-being.

The powers of the God which are manifested come from being and those which are non-manifested are always remained in non-being. In that the place of Sadāśhiva is that of a diamond. Even if a diamond is broken, scattered, however much is erased, even it is broken into many pieces then also it keeps on shining.

Its shining is never destroyed.

In the same way there is a place of Sadāśhiva. Existence comes from Sadāśhiva and unless and until there develops a condition for the creation of the world no creativity will take place. First the condition is made. Existence of anything has to be brought up. Existence comes from the power of Sadāśhiva.

Therefore, his role in creation is just like a foundation of a very big building or mansion. It is not seen, a foundation is never seen but without that no building can stand.

In the same way Sadāśhiva being Ātmā-swarūpa, in the form of spirit, resides in our heart. Our existence in this world continues till he is there in our heart in the form of spirit.

The day he closes his eyes, we are finished, very same day. We move out of this world and we start continuing in Paraloka [next world].

Shivajī you know resides in our Chandra Nāḍī and while sitting on Chandra Nāḍī he continues to do all work of the existence but he also continues to run our life. Without Shivajī we cannot continue to exist.

Now these are very lengthy talks which I have described quite openly in My book.

The form of Shivajī, he is an absolute Sannyāsī [ascetic]. As there is a form of God which is ascetic within, he does not create out of any reason, there is no reason. He does it on his own; it is his whim, his pleasure. If he wants then he creates otherwise he destroys it. He is a symbol of all those people who are ascetic in the world. You all know that by asceticism I do not mean to be what it is considered in the world. The one who has become a witness after reaching a state of being Self-realised is to be called a Sannyāstha [ascetic]. He is ascetic from inside. Even when living outside in the whole world he is greatest Sannyāsī. In this case, he does not need to tell anybody that I am a Sannyāsī, I have taken Sannyāsa. But the mind who takes Sannyāsa [asceticism] from within, which becomes Sannyāstha [ascetic] from within, that form is of Śhrī Shiva. And while we reside in this world and do the worldly work and whatever we enjoy, is a bhokta [enjoyer] form of God, is his form as Viṣhṇu. That is why in the form of Viṣhṇu he is the enjoyer, he is ascetic in the form of Shiva and is creator in the form of Brahmā, The Creator. While looking at this ascetic (Sannyāsī) a strange thing is seen, his body of blue pigment, because he is residing in the line of moon, snakes are entangled around his throat and on hands, all his ornamentation is arranged from snakes. Snakes are cool, are peaceful and drink combustion and he is sustaining the snakes on him.

Means whatever the evil of the world, whatever is anti, whatever is the sting, whatever are the tremendous things that are destroying the world, he is containing them all in his body.

While drinking the poison of the whole world, you all know this that he drank the whole poison in the beginning and whatever is the poison of the world drinking that he keeps this world cool and give happiness to the world. Whatever thing that becomes dead, finished, all that is resided in his kingdom and those who are greatest evil, there prison get closed from the dust of his feet. By the blessing of Shivajī they are imprisoned. There is a kingdom of moon on his forehead. Moon is spontaneous brother of Lakṣhmī and that's why it is called that he has kept his brother-in-law on his forehead. The poets have made a very strange kind of his description and he has taken the burden of Ganga on his head very beautifully.

As if he is the remover of the ego of all the beings. He has contained in his Jatas [tress], egoist as Ganga, so much tremendous are his Jatas. He also drinks ego which is there in human beings and that is how he protects this world from egoist people.

He is incomparable; he cannot be described in words. But he has a very big; a very extraordinary power which is not there in any deity and that is the power of forgiveness. He can also forgive greatest of evils, to whom Gaṇeśhjī cannot forgive, to whom Jesus cannot forgive, even these can be forgiven by Sadāśhiva. That is why always whenever there is forgiveness to be asked,...

[Aside in Marathi to somebody:] Don't talk during meditation.

... then it has to be asked from him. Because of there are some things that Gaṇeśha cannot forgive, which we call as sin against the mother. Whatsoever are sex sins, Gaṇeśha never forgive them, cannot forgive. It is very difficult to convince him, also Jesus Christ cannot forgive, just cannot.

For them there is only Mahādeva, Śhrī Shañkar is capable. His order cannot be disobeyed by them.

That is why he is to be worshipped.

It is very surprising why people fast on the Mahāshiva-rātri day. I am not able to understand on which basis this ritual has been made. Either it has been written by some mischievous people in the Shāstra [Scriptures]. Today he drank the poison, so you are also permitted to eat anything! And you have made out; you are also permitted to eat anything that we may take poison and do fast today.

Today there is a heavy pressure getting in My heart, the Sahaja Yogi who has taken fast today is pulling My heart. Sahaja Yogis should not follow anything blind fondly. They should think that the day when he achieved victory by drinking poison is the day of celebration. In the world who has told to die fasting when there is so big festival of the same Shivajī? Human beings eat a little more on day when they are happy. Today is the day of eating two more rotis. Today everyone is on fast and that is why Shivajī is very angry with all. And this is the thing even Shivajī cannot forgive. Now how will you get your well-being.

That is why so many Shiva Bhaktas gets heart attack early.

Today is the day of celebrating happiness because he drank all the poison of the world, whatever was non-benevolent, whatever was sin, whatever was evil spread in the world he consumed all of them. We should not do this kind of inauspicious job on this great celebrating day of such Shivajī. If we fast on someone's birthday then, what will we do on his death? All the opposite business continues here, when someone is dead then the Brahmins eat sitting together, when someone is born then all the people of family fast sitting together! How to convince, on which Shāstras [Scriptures] there is basis of this? And also in Shāstras [sciences] greatest of fools have filled this kind of things. Whomever you see, he has filled in his Shāstra all the atrocities. This thought should be kept in mind that what is the meaning of fasting on this day. All should eat sweets because all the people in the temple want to eat sweet.

So sweets should be offered.

Now they will have Bhang [Indian intoxicating leafy drug] and Charas [Indian intoxicant like tobacco] all the night and would say that Shivajī also used to take it so we will also have it. Shivajī takes Charas and Bhang for the reason of going to subconscious. He may eat anything he want, what does it matter to him.

For example to understand that you have to go somewhere on aeroplane, then you should be pilot first.

Then they cannot be Shivajī by eating Charas and Bhang. It is the Shivajī who draw the poison and he is the one who is exploiting all the type of Bhang by drinking all the Bhang of the entire world.

So, that where this bhang is to be dumped? That is why it is dumped within him requesting to him, that you are Shivajī please drink it. Kindly drink poison, kindly drink bhang.

All the people have gone to drink bhang today to become Shivajī! How many of you are equal to the dust of feet of Shivajī? He drinks bhang because the store of bhang is kept within him. There is bhang in the world, there are devils also and evils are also there, where to put them all? In your house if there is such a thing to keep it, then there has to be some arrangement. Shivajī told “let Me drink the poison of the whole world." That is why these things are stored in him that please you keep it with you.

Therefore, all of you who drink bhang and charas in his name, there is no other greatest fool in the whole world than you. There is a thought for Sahaja Yogis that you have never felt vibrations, you have not yet known that what a thing is this, what is that flowing through you, what is that happening inside you? Something new, something very great, something is of a special form. Then your own thoughts should be changed, your habits also need to be changed. Why we always do adversarial things I just cannot understand.

And every adversarial thing turn out to be such adversarial that Shivajī has got up from this world and it is very difficult to make him sit again and if he stands for long time then he start dancing Tandava, he has no limits.

Therefore everyone should behave in a thoughtful way. Today is his very, very great day. Promise today that by next Mahāshiva-rātri there will be a big celebration, he will be praised. May be he does not like ornaments like those of Viṣhṇujī; his ornaments are of different kind. For him you may apply babhoot, ashes of incense stick, you may offer the whole of ashes to him, he is agreed to all, but has he ever talked of fast? I just do not know this fact.

Fasting word has been changed. Fasting has become the meaning of determination. Fasting should be done on the time when Śhrī Rām went for exile then you should fast. When there is a matter of repentance, occasion of fasting is understandable. Now are you repenting that he has drunk poison? This is an issue of consideration.

Calamity of the whole world, troubles of the whole world, the poison of the whole world he drank on this great day. Therefore today is called as Mahāshiva-rātri. He has taken the whole of night, the whole of darkness, he consumed within himself. I do not force on you, but try to do it. You should determine now that you will not do fast at all on Mahāshiva-rātri and see how tremendously vibrations come and ask for forgiveness.

[Version 2] I told you about creation first because on the day of Shivaratri when we have to talk about Shivajī, then it begins with creation therefore He is the beginning. When the first form of God Almighty manifests when He become resplendent with Brahma, He is called Sadāśhiva. That's why Shiva is considered to be the beginning. One can understand that before a tree take its complete form, one has to look at it in its form as a seed. Therefore Shivajī has great importance. After His manifestation, His own Shakti assumes its form and is then known as Ādi Shakti. Then this Ādi Shakti enlightens the three forms of the God Almighty (Parmatma) separately, that you know of. They are Brahmā, Viṣhṇu and Maheśh meaning Shiva Shañkar... that is the three aspects of the same diamond. Ādi Shakti knows this. During the time of ultimate destruction, when all the created creation, all the manufactured world dissolves and incarnates as the Brahma, even then Sadāśhiva remains unaffected. He is related to that part of God Almighty that never incarnates, that who is a non-being. All the powers of God that incarnate are from His being, the ones that don't, are from the non-being that stay with Him. In all this, the position of Sada Shiva is the same as that of a diamond that even when broken into many small pieces, remains resplendent, whose sheen never diminishes. This is what Sadāśhiva's state is.

Sadāśhiva gives the `thiti' [preservation or state]. And in the world, if there is no preservation, there can be no creation. First the sustenance has to be developed. Existence has to be strengthened. Everything exists because of the Shakti of Sadāśhiva. Due to this, in the creation His contribution is the same as that of a foundation in a huge palace or house, which can't be seen. The foundation doesn't show but without it, no building can stand. In the same way, Sadāśhiva resides in our heart in the form of our spirit. Till He resides in our hearts as spirit, only till then our lives continue in this world. The day He closes his eyes, that day we cease to exist. We leave this world and our state passes on to the other world (Paraloka).

Shivajī, as you know resides in our Chandra Nāḍī [moon channel] and whilst sitting in our Chandra Nāḍī, He performs the task of our preservation within us. He also maintains the state of our `Prāna' (life).

Our lives can't continue without Shivajī. These are all detailed conversations. I have clarified in My book in a detailed way. By nature, Shivajī is a great ascetic (Sannyāsī). Like it's an aspect of the God Almighty, that from within He is an ascetic. He doesn't create for a reason. There is a no reason. He does it from His whim, for His joy. If He wants, He creates, otherwise He destroys.

He is symbolic of an ascetic man who lives in the world. I don't mean asceticism to be the way it's considered in the world. You all know asceticism should be where a man has reached a state where he is in a witness state (Sākshī). He is an ascetic from within. From outside, he lives in the world, but from within he can be a great ascetic. He doesn't have to say that I am an ascetic, `Sannyāsī', I have taken `Sannyās' but he has taken `Sannyās' from within. The one who takes `Sannyās' from within, is a manifestation of Shiva. The world we live in and work in, the world that we enjoy, that enjoyment comes from the Viṣhṇu form of the God Almighty, that's why in the form of Viṣhṇu, He is the enjoyer; in the form of Shiva, He is the ascetic and in the form of Brahmā, He is the creator that creates.

Looking at this ascetic, one sees this strange thing that His body is blue in colour. That’s because He is sitting on the line of `Chandramā', the moon. There are snakes around His neck and arms. His whole decoration is with snakes. Snakes are cooling and peaceful. They drink away any heat. He keeps all these snakes on his body symbolizing that all the wicked, horrible, poisonous and powerful things that are trying to destroy this world, He is holding them all on His being. He has drunk all the poison of the world. You know he has already drunk the poison in the beginning. He drinks all the poison that is in the world to keep the world cool and give joy to the creation. All that dies, gets destroyed, goes and settles down in His kingdom. By the dust of His feet, the prisons of all the useless people, evil people get shut down. By Shivaji’s grace, they become prisoners. On His head, resides `Chandramā', the moon. Chandramā Himself is the brother is Lakṣhmī, that's why it's said that He is got his brother-in-law on His head. The poets have described Him in a weird way and some time very beautifully. He has got the load of Ganga on His head as if He removes the pride of all beings. He has tied even the proud Ganga in His dreadlocks. His high dreadlocks are tremendous. He sucks away all the ego from human beings and this way He protects the people from egoistical people. He is incomparable, He can't be described in words, but He has a very remarkable, extraordinary power which no other God has, is the power of forgiveness. He can forgive even the most evil. Those who can't be forgiven even by Śhrī Gaṇeśh or Yeshu, Sadāśhiva can forgive even them. That's why, when one has to ask for forgiveness, one has to ask Him because there are some things that Śhrī Gaṇeśh cannot forgive at all such as sin against the Mother. Śhrī Gaṇeśh can never forgive all sex related sins. It's very difficult to pacify Him. Jesus Christ also can't forgive... ever. Only Mahādeva is capable of forgiving. Even these two can't understand him, therefore He must be worshipped.

It's a strange thing that people fast on this day. I don't understand on what basis this custom was made. May be some crooked people have written this in the `Shāstras' [Scriptures]. On this day, he drank the poison. Today you are allowed to eat anything... even if you drink poison. You have started fasting on this day. I can feel such a strain on My Heart Chakra today. Any Sahaj Yogi who has fasted today, is straining My Heart Chakra today. Sahaj Yogis should not act blindly. One should understand that this is a day of celebration when Shivajī drank all the poison to become victorious in this world. It is a such a grand occasion today... Who said one has to starve to death on this day? When a person is happy, he eats more on such a day. Today is a day to eat two extra chapattis and everyone's fasting! That's why Shivajī is cross with everyone as He can also not forgive such a thing.

So now you people will be emancipated? That's why all these big devotees of Shiva, get heart attacks. Today is a day of rejoicing. He drank all the poison of the world. All that was not benevolent, all the sins, all the evil that was spread in the world, he sucked it all. On this day of this great festival, we should not do something so inauspicious. If we fast on the day of someone's birthday, so will we eat on the day he dies? All this reverse business happens here. When someone dies, all the brahmins sit down and eat. When someone is born, all the family sit down and fast.

How can this be explained? Which Shāstra [Scripture] says so? And even in the Shāstras [sciences], the idiotic people have filled in such things. Wherever you see, they have filled all the religious texts with all sorts of wrong stuff. One must keep some sense. What is the sense in fasting today? Everyone should eat sweets because in the temples all the people want to eat sweets, so sweets should be offered. Now throughout the night, they will consume `bhang' [an intoxicating drink] and `charas' and then they will say Shivajī used to have it, so we are having `charas' and `bhang'.

Shivajī used to have `charas' and `bhang', because if one has to go into the subconscious, one has to eat it. He can eat anything, it doesn't mean anything to Him. You can understand if there is an aeroplane and you have to go somewhere, then you have to be a pilot first. Lips that have drunk `bhang', eaten `charas', can't become Shivajī. It is only Shivajī, who has drunk the bhang from all over the world and is consuming it, otherwise, how else can it be finished? All these things were filled inside Him because He is the state (sthiti) Himself. Now everyone is trying to copy Him by drinking `bhang'. You think you are becoming Shivajī by drinking bhang? How many of you here are even worth the dust of Shivaji's feet? He drinks it because all the store is inside Him. There is bhang in this world. There are Rākshasas and evil people. Where can they be kept? Inside the house? If you have something like this, then you also have to make arrangements to store it. Shivajī said, "OK bring Me, I will drink the poison of the world." That's why these things are stored in Him. You people, who are consuming charas and bhang in His name are the greatest morons.

Sahaj Yogis should think that we haven't felt vibrations yet. You don't know what this `Kumbha' –'water-pot' is? What is this flowing from inside you? What is thing inside you that is so new, tremendous and remarkable? Then the thoughts should change, habits should change. I don't understand why we make everything the opposite of what it should be and with every such thing, Shivajī will leave this world and then it will be very difficult to make him settle down and if he stays standing for too long, he will start his `Tāndav' [dance of destruction]. He is unpredictable.

So you should be thoughtful of this.

Today is His very great day. You must promise Me today that the next Shivaratri will be a huge celebration. He will be praised. He doesn't like ornaments like Viṣhṇujī. He has different decorations. Get `babhoot' for him. You can offer him ashes from across the world. He is ready for all this. But if you try to fast for Him, then I am not sure. The word `Vrat' –'religious observance' has changed. It now has become fasting. You should fast when, for example, Śhrī Rām Chandrajī went into exile in the forests. When there is a repentance, then it's understandable. What are you repenting for? Because He has drunk poison? One must think. All the hardships of the world, all bad habits, all the poison of the world, He drank on this great day, that's why it's called Mahāshiva-rātri. He took the whole dark night into Himself. He has absorbed all the darkness of the world inside Him. I can't force you, but you should try it out. You should decide that at the next Mahāshiva-rātri, we will not fast and see how strongly the vibrations flow. And ask for forgiveness.

In this world, the greatest illusion is that of learned fools. Learned fools are those whom Kabīrdās has described as "Padhi padhi pandit murakh bhaye" [As they went on reading, the pundits turned into fools].

This is why I was afraid to write a book and now that I have thought of writing one, it should not fall into the hands of such great fools. These people are like a person who has not been to some country and tells all false things about that country to the whole world. He says, "I had been there and I saw that thing and this was here and that was there and someone said this and someone said that." He does not have an experience of his own.

But you who are Sahaja Yogis, have got this experience. The vibrations have spurted from within you and this means that this Chaitanya is flowing. You have felt the experience of what Chaitanya is. You are sitting in a great position. Those people can give great speeches, can describe this Chaitanya, can read great Śhlokas [Sanskrit verses] but they don't have even a wee bit of experience and are quite far from God's Kingdom while you have entered it already.

There is a special reason for it. You would have read that Śhrī Gaṇeśha was born only through His Mother. Before creating this Creation itself, She had given birth to a Son. The Mother did all this by Herself so that later, He can know the Father. Also, She made Him especially powerful so that even Brahmā, Viṣhṇu and Maheśh could not raise their eyes to look at Him. He was that powerful. He was a special form of a Child. This same happening has taken place now in this Kali Yug. I have given birth to you too through My Sahasrāra, in a special way. That's why the vibrations are flowing through you. But how many of you respect yourselves, understand that we have got some special thing, that we should live in that special kind of way and that we should make our lives in a similar manner? Your place is above even that of Devalok [Realm of the Gods]. Your place is such that the Gods might even be jealous of you.

Apart from Śhrī Gaṇeśha, no other deity has raised the Kuṇḍalinī under their fingers. None of the sages and saints could do it despite penances of thousands of years. Not only are you Self-realised but you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī with a gesture and you know where and how is the Kuṇḍalinī of any person.

Despite getting such a great thing, you have not respected yourselves. Maybe My fortune is bad that I got only fake coins which can never work. There is so much half-heartedness that sometimes I feel that I should discontinue this Sahaja Yoga.

Sometimes I scold, sometimes I explain and sometimes I talk lovingly that “Steady yourself, steady yourself, where is your attention wandering?" You know that by your hands, thousands are getting alright and can get better. Your diseases have run away. God's power of Love, which is all-pervading, is moving with you all the time, is supporting you, is watching your mistakes and is also watching when you tell lies. It also knows when you criticise Mother and it also knows if you are living a frivolous and superficial life. This power also knows if your commitment towards Sahaja Yoga is extremely poor. Despite all this, it supports you and guides you at every place and every moment. Even then you are misguided. You are stooping so low for all the world's money and power. [Shri Mataji expresses disgust at this point.] You are in a position worthy of worship. Your position is such that Pūjā can be done to each and every one of you. If such people, who never were and never will be in such a high position, start doing such things then what will the world say? What kind of a name will go into history? You know that many among you have even given Self-realisation and then have fallen. It is very easy to fall from such a high position as yours.

You are not to see Sahaja Yoga in worldly things. You have come here to know the expression and manifestation (swarūp) of God. It does not behove a Sahaja Yogi to give importance to lowly, worldly matters like “How much money I made and how much profit I made." You have come to Me to ask for God and not for worldly things. You have also not come here to gain some false knowledge by simply listening to some of My speeches. No. You should gain the real knowledge. The knowledge will flow from within when you ask for it, you can see for yourself. Everything will be seen clearly and you will know that this is the knowledge. Enough worrying about your children and household! You have been given a special position and only those people who are special will be instrumental in working out special things.

You have transformed from humans to super-humans. Two Yagñyas [havans] were done previously for you and you know that I am trying My level best that all your body parts are, in the very least, surrendered to God. We have to surrender ourselves to Him. In order to attain that necessary purity, just like a mother bathes and cleans the children, before the father comes home, to give a clean presentation, we are doing this yagñya with great love. I can nourish you with the powers that flow out of all My Chakras but sometimes it seems to Me like I am talking to a wall and I am banging My head against a rock. It seems like, `These devils are not going to listen to what I say.' It should not be so. You must go deeper in Sahaja Yoga.

All the pleasures of the whole world cannot be compared to the bliss of the lotus feet of God. Once a person attains that greatest joy, he does not turn towards any of these worldly pleasures. It is like a person who drinks ambrosia [the Sanskrit word is Amṛut, literally `not dead'] doesn't drink any `dead' liquid. His powers are infinite and are flowing through your hands. You can't understand how they are working and in what place. I have told you repeatedly [UNCLEAR].

Today, the yagñya of Śhrī Prajapati [Brahmadeva] is to be done. You know that man is made of five elements. To do the Pūjā of these five elements is to do the Pūjā of Śhrī Brahma because these are His weapons. These too have been given to Śhrī Prajapati by the Mother. Light was created when She saw [opened Her eyes]. That's why the Tanmātra[Δ] [essence of the element] of Tej [light] was created. When the Mother inhaled Fragrance [She smelled with Her nose], this earth was created out of that fragrance. In this way, the element of earth was created. The element of Sound [Sound is the causal of the ether element] was created when the Mother spoke. You can call it Nād. In this way, the Tanmātras were created and the elements were created from these Tanmātras. All this is the work of Śhrī Prajapati, of Śhrī Brahmadeva.

Now, Pūjā is not done to Śhrī Brahmadeva. The reason is that He is doing all the work of this universe.

He is doing the work of your bodies and of your elements. There is no need to worship Him for this as He is doing His work from His place. You should do Pūjā to only two entities, one is Śhrī Shiva by whom your existence and your life are maintained and the other is Śhrī Viṣhṇu by whom your evolution takes place.

But it is important to do the yagñya of Śhrī Prajapati. This is so that the Tanmātra of the five elements within you are awakened and bestow you with their glory. Earlier, the yagñya of only Śhrī Prajapati was done. Later, they were done to Śhrī Viṣhṇu also. People feel that yagñya of Śhrī Shiva should also take place but yagñya is not done to Him. Rudra is done to Him. There are reasons for this also. Whatever rituals are described in the scriptures have very deep reasons. That's why if you follow whatever is written, there is no blindness in it. When you have the vibrations with you, you can investigate with the vibrations whether what is written in the books is correct or not. In many places some wrong additions have been made and this has been done in every book [Scripture]. You can judge these too by the vibrations.

Who has such means of knowing? Whose Kuṇḍalinī is awakened, whose is not, who is realised, who is not, who is God-realised, who is ordinarily realised and who is Jīvanmukta [liberated while alive] can be known through these vibrations. Everything that is in the Unconscious which man has never known can be known by you. You can understand the intricacies of the vibrations. They [vibrations] have different types, different methods and different rhythms.

But now, the basis itself is not made, so how can I teach you about higher things? You are just sitting in the first grade and in there you are scratching, pulling at and fighting with one another like fools.

Correct your basis and then using the permutations and combinations of these vibrations you can know anything that you wish to know. Not only that but you are ascending too. As man keeps ascending, he knows more. It is like when you stand at the bottom, you are not able to see much. Then you go up and can see more. When you go way up then you see something different altogether. If you go to the moon, the earth appears different to you. You can see it rotating completely from there but on the ground it appears to be rectangular.

There is only one way to ascend, keep getting rid of your weights. Throw away your weights and as you throw them away, you rise automatically. Worthless weights like, `my father is like this,' `my mother is like that,' `my brother is like that,' `he needs it,' `she needs it,' `this is my power' [political] and `this is my money' are all foolishness and misidentifications. If you want to achieve [Self-realisation], then achieve it and if you don't want to, then leave Me alone. Both these things can't be done together. You have come here to dissolve in the Supreme Principle (Param Tattwa) and not to earn money.

Neither have you come here to float any kind of enterprise. There is no bargaining done here. The only thing is that I will introduce the Supreme Principle to you. In order to do that, sometimes I have to scold you, get angry at you, teach you and love you. If you are eager to achieve this and have come here to ask for it, then it is alright. If not, how am I concerned? I am an Auliya [saint] and I can close My book anytime.

You have come for your concerns, not for Mine. I am concerned because a mother is always concerned for her children. But this mother is strange because She is also detached. She is extremely detached. She can bring things to halt immediately, if She wants. At the same time, She is also extremely loving and affectionate.

Today's yagñya has to be done with complete attention and complete surrender. As this yagñya is done especially for the five elements, you will understand it better. This is on the Jaḍa Tattwa [inanimate or material principle]. But the Jaḍa Tattwa is also necessary because if the Jaḍa Tattwa is not pure then the rest cannot be established and your Jaḍa Tattwas themselves have problems. When your Jaḍa Tattwas are purified, then My work will be done very elegantly.

Maybe, only one or two programs will be done without you. As you know that on 19th, 20th and 21st My program will be held in Cowasji Jahangir Hall. In the morning, there will be meditation and in the evenings there will be lectures and other things. In the morning we will have meditation and curative sessions. For these three days, with full dedication, wherever you are living, however you are, don't make any excuses. You are fooling only yourself. It is like attending a great marriage yagñya for three days.

Attend with your full heart. Bring others along with you like your friends. Spread the news around and go to every house. I was thinking of printing hand-bills but if these sheets get printed instead of the hand-bills, then mail it to those people whom you think might be interested. Do it anyway possible, the people will come.

But only those people who come truthfully will get it. If they have even a little falsehood, God is not going to give them anything. No one is sitting here as your servant. This is not some kind of politics.

You don't have to vote for Me but I have to vote for you. It's the other way around. I have to give you the certificate. If I am displeased with you then God is displeased with you and Sahaja Yoga is displeased with you. That's why you have to make Me happy and pleased. I have to give you the vote. The thing is the other way around. It is impossible for Me to collect disciples with money.

So, remember this thing, if you have to come anywhere, to any program then come with complete simplicity and innocence. You have to come there with the attitude that we have to achieve it [Self-realisation] in this. Also, nobody should come with their household problems. It is a very wrong thing to do. It's alright that I cure the diseases but Sahaja Yoga is not meant for those people who are involved in their household day and night. Come with the dedication to achieve and understand the Supreme and tell everyone that it is very important to achieve that.

I have told many things in the past and also today but God alone knows how much has gone inside the head and how much has stayed outside. Think on this. Mother says again and again, in every possible way, sometimes by breaking her head and if it does not work then She opens Her heart completely. She tries whatever is possible to keep your Kuṇḍalinī completely awakened and completely cleansed through Sahasrāra and very elegantly showers petals on the Kuṇḍalinī. But if your nose itself is shut, if your eyes themselves are shut, if your ears themselves are shut and if all the instruments of knowing are shut, then what can I give through Sahaja Yoga? That is why in today's yagñya, I am going to open these five instruments [probably means the five senses and the five elements associated with them]. I will try.

So you too surrender yourselves and say, `O God, open these instruments.' Pray to Śhrī Prajapati, `Open these instruments of ours.' I don't need anything else and keep all your worthless things outside with your shoes. Keep all worthless things outside and sit here and then receive the Love of the Infinite.

First a pattern of the path is created by the first seeker, is to be made with greatest care and love and once all the map is ready you know which is the shortest way. This knowledge then becomes the part of the unconscious, which helps much faster... The unconscious plays the role of registration of all the findings of the conscious being and enacts according to the findings of Sahaja Yogis as well as Adi Shakti.

Contents: 1976-03-30 Gudi Padwa Pūjā, Meditation in Thoughtless Awareness, New Delhi, India

We cannot meditate. We only can be in meditation. When we say we are going to meditate, it has no meaning. We have to be in meditation. Either you are inside the house or outside the house. You cannot be inside the house and then say that, “Now I'm outside the house." Or when you are outside the house, you cannot say, “I'm inside the house." In the same way, you are moving in three dimensions of your life, of emotional and physical and mental being. You are not inside yourself. But when you are inside, that you are in thoughtless awareness, then not only that you are there, but you are everywhere, because that is the place, that is the point where you are really in universal... From there you are in contact with the principle, with the Shakti, with the power that permeates into every particle that is matter, into every thought that is emotion, into every planning and thinking of the whole world. You permeate into all the elements that have created this beautiful earth. You permeate into earth; you permeate into Ākāsha [ether], into Teja [light], into sound, but your movement is very slow.

Then you say, “I'm meditating", that means you are moving in permeation with the Universal Being.

But you are not moving yourself. You are just unloading yourself, to be free from the weight of things that do not allow you to move.

When you are in meditation, you must allow yourself to be in thoughtless awareness. There, the unconscious itself, the Achetanā itself will take charge of you. You will start moving with the force of Achetanā.

The unconscious is going to work it out. It is going to take you there, where it wants you to go. You keep to thoughtless awareness all the time. Try to keep to thoughtless awareness as much as you can.

When you are in thoughtless awareness, you must know that you are in the kingdom of God and His people, His arrangements, His consciousness, is going to look after you.

Even when you are giving vibrations to other people, I have noticed that you are not in thoughtless awareness. If you give vibrations in thoughtless awareness, you will not catch anything because, all these entities that enter into you, all these material problems that come into you, come when you are in those three dimensions.

Through Sahaja Yoga, you have opened your gates of your own being. You have entered into your own kingdom. But you do not keep there, you come out of it and again you go back and settle down, doesn't matter. You should not feel so disappointed about it, so frustrated. You know people have worked for thousands of years and they could not separate themselves from themselves. Only you people, the Sahaja Yogis, whom are made after the pattern of Śhrī Gaṇeśh himself, are so powerful, that they can give awakening and realisation to other people. Even if you are caught up, you have seen you have powers.

Even if you feel that the vibrations are not coming, you know you have powers. You can give realisations to others. In your presence people get realisation. But you have to be that power completely.

Supposing there's something wrong with your car but as long as it is moving, it's all right. You have to repair it. You have to repair all the time all our moods, which we have caused ourselves by our foolishness, by our lust, by our greed, by so many false identifications we carried with ourselves. We must have a complete attention towards our weaknesses and not towards our achievements. If we know what are our weaknesses, it's better, that we can really swim across better. Supposing, on a ship there is a hole and the water is coming in through that hole, the attention of all the crew, of all the staff and the captain itself will be on that hole from where the water is coming in and nowhere else. In the same way, you must be on the watch-out. There are so many pitfalls for a Sahaja Yogi, I have seen it. Of course, even the past is over... even the past can be overcome. In the present also they have many shadows of the past working. For example, when you are sitting in a group, you are involved with each other. Those who are involved with each other, by any relationship whatsoever, must know that this kind of involvement is not going to help them to attain their individual ascent. Everybody is ascending individually though you are collectively contacted with each other and in communication, but the ascendance is individual, absolutely individual.

So whether he is your son, brother, sister, wife, friend, you must remember that you are not responsible for their ascendance. You cannot help them for their ascendance. Only Mother's Grace and their own desire, their own effort to give up all that is three dimensional, will help them.

So whenever a thought comes like that, you must know that you have not attained the thoughtless awareness in its full extent and that's how you have problems, which are three dimensional.

Sometimes, a Sahaja Yogi will find, an emotion will come into his mind, it will be an emotion of dejection or frustration and he will be disgusted with himself or with others. Both things are just the same. I have seen some Sahaja Yogis get very disgusted with others. There should be no disgust that is lasting. Of course for a short time you might feel a disgust, it's all right, it's a passing phase. Or you might feel disgusted with yourself, may be a passing phase. But if you go on hankering on to it, or if you go on clinging to it, that means you are conditioning yourself, that means you are not in thoughtless awareness, that means that you are in your past, you are making your past a solid mass on your head.

In the present everything is fleeting. Everything is fleeting that is not eternal. In the present the eternal stays, the rest all drops out. It's like a moving river which doesn't stop anywhere, but the moving river is eternal, the rest of the things are all changing. If you are on the eternal principle, all that is not eternal changes and drops out, dissolves and becomes nonexistent.

We have to understand our own dignity, our own essence. The first and foremost is that all the Sahaja Yogis are the chosen ones. They are the people whom God has chosen. In this city of Delhi there are thousands and thousands of people. All over the world there are so many people that we are suffering from overpopulation, but in Sahaja Yoga there are very very few people. And when you are chosen the first, you must also realise that you are the foundations. You are the stones that are to be laid down and have to be strong, have to be forbearing and that's why it is necessary that all of you who are now few, who are the first lamps that are going to enlighten other lamps in the world, you have to enjoy the strength of eternity, the strength of Divine Love, the strength of this universal being that you are. This is what meditation is.

So when Sahaja Yogis ask Me, “What should we do for meditation?", you be in thoughtless awareness, that's all! Don't do anything! At that time, not [only] that you are moving towards the goal, or that the unconscious is taking charge of you, not only that, but also that you are emitting, for the first time, the Divine into the nature, into your surroundings, into other people who are universally connected to you.

Only thing is that we are used to one thing, that is we must do something about it and so that's why we start doing something. Meditation is the most Sahaja method.

Then we have prayers and we have also Pūjā. Prayers are also, if said in your heart, with the feeling of complete surrendering and asking for the eternal, it will be granted. Just ask for that and the rest will take [you]...

Step-by-step, all the Sahaja Yogis have a problem. And they have problems because of their past, because of their future aspirations. Now when you have problems, in Sahaja Yoga you have learnt how to overcome them. There are so many methods other than meditation, you know them very well; that you must know what is the Chakra, where the Kuṇḍalinī is. Now, if the Kuṇḍalinī has been stopped by a certain Chakra which is not working, you shouldn't get frustrated about it. Supposing your instrument or your car has stopped on the way, what's the use of getting frustrated with it? You have to learn the mechanism. You have to be a good technician and then you can manage it very well.

So all the techniques of Sahaja Yoga must be learned and mastered. This you can only do by giving it to others and learning from correcting them and correcting yourself. There is nothing to be frustrated, that's the worst thing.

If you get frustrated and unhappy with yourself, then there is going to be a problem. You have to laugh at yourself and laugh at your mechanism that is out of gear.

When you start identifying yourself even with the instrument, then you are not there. You are not the Chakra, you are not the different channels, you are the awareness. You are the power. You are the Kuṇḍalinī.

So you don't have to worry about all these things being not in their proper conditions. If they are not, you can solve it. Just now the lights went off. If the lights have went off because of the electricity failure, it's a serious thing. But if the lights have gone out because there is a fused bulb, oh, you can replace it, you can do all that.

So there is no need to worry if your Chakras are spoilt. Worrying itself, or frustrating yourself, itself is a wrong attitude towards Sahaja Yoga. `Sahaja' in other terminology also means... means is a simple thing. Sahaja means... to be Sahaja means in... I can say how Tulsidas has said, “Jaise rakha hu taise hi rahu" [You keep me as You like]. That kind of an attitude takes your attention inside, because outside it is let alone, to the dogs, let alone. We are not bothered about the outside part. “As you keep me, I will be, in that manner." And you will be surprised everything clicks out very well.

Even, sometimes, you might feel: `I should reach a certain place, I must have this Bhajan done, I must get these things done' and it's not done sometimes.

Sometimes by mistake something as you want is not done. You must accept it as the will of God. That is what He desires, it's all right. That is the desire of God and now you are one with His desire. You are here to communicate the desire of God to the whole world and, at this stage, if you start having your own desires and ideas about yourself, then when will you become the desire of God? This `I'-ness has to go away. That is what meditation is, where you are no more `I' but it is `You'.

Kabīrdasjī has written a beautiful poem about it that, when the goat is living and [UNCLEAR kicking], she says “Mein, mein", that is “I, I." But then she dies and her intestines are drawn out into wires and some saint fixes them on the `Tutari', that instrument that they have, `Ektari' as they call it and he goes on pulling it with his fingers, then it says “Tu hi, Tu hi, Tu hi", that is “You are, You are, You are." That is how we have to die and we have to be resurrected. You have been already, but Sahaja Yoga as I have told you, is a `Kheer' or what you call, the sweet dish cooked in a raw pot, Kachche ghade ki kheer hai.

So the soil of the raw pot also is mixed up. But your attention can be with the `Kheer', with the milk and can drop out all that is the mud of the raw pot.

That discrimination is spontaneous, it is there, you have got it, Self-actualisation. You can feel yourself. You know you are not that. You have started talking about your Chakras in the same manner.

But the only thing, the only problem, or the only defect that is with the Sahaja Yogi is, that still, though he is there, his attention is involved with outside. That's the only defect. If the attention is removed...

How to remove? That's the point, that is the first thing. Once you say `how to remove' means you have created the three dimensional involvement. You are not to remove, it is there! If your attention is outside, then I would have said, “No, your attention has to go inside. It has not got yet." But it is there. You are sitting there. I am sitting here. But My attention is outside. I have to just feel Myself where I am, that's all.

Some have felt it, some have achieved it. You know among yourselves there are some who have gone very high up.

The other method we employ is of Pūjā. I've found that works very well with human beings: Pūjā, because it satisfies lots of demands of the past habits, that you feel that you are doing something about it.

Then you start giving whatever you think God has given you, the blessings. And the Ṛishi[s] and muni[s] have found out, they're very clever people, they have found out how to please the Deities, how to please the Mother.

So they have told you, as they have told you even in this lifetime of mine, how to please Her.

They say She is Stuti-priyā, that means `She likes praises'. It's not that, but when you praise someone from the heart that means you are accepting it and that is the time the Chakras start creating a force by which you are thrown, you are triggered, into that realm of God.

So these Pūjā methods and prayer methods and the Mantra methods have been devised and found out by great thinkers of Sahaja Yoga, the great masters of Sahaja Yoga and it is the effort, or you can say the effortless effort, of the Sahaja Yogis that makes My body vibrant, extracts the essence from My body, I should say. They make, it makes, the infinite release itself through this finite being and it works, it clicks, I have seen it, it works out very well.

But you know that, after Pūjā, I get little tired because if you cannot receive it, that force. I want to sleep and get rid of that additional vibrations into Sushupti [dreamless sleep state] by entering into the infinite state.

If you could receive whatever I am emitting, in balance, with your Pūjā, then only it helps better. That means, when you are doing Pūjā, also receive it.

Be in thoughtless awareness when you are doing Pūjā! Completely concentrated in receiving. But while Pūjā people are talking, I've seen that they're moving about. I mean, I don't know how to explain it! That's the time something is oozing out, the nectar and you [should] just receive it at that time with full devotion. It is oozing out. If you feel My vibrations of My Chakras at that time, you will realise that even the minute, small little, wheels in My body are moving at different spaces, at different speed, at different dimension. And I really don't know how to explain! But you see it creates a melody.

You have to receive it and it is a melody individually, suitable for every individual. And when you receive it, it triggers in you that state of infinity.

So at the time of Pūjā you must know that all your attention should be in reception.

Today is a very great day with the New Year. And within two years from today Satya Yuga is going to start. It's a great day for many things that nine days are celebrated after this for the advent of Mother.

It is the date, or I should say, the calendar was started by My forefathers and they perceived that this is the day when the Mother started creating. And this is the day She created Gaṇeśha to begin with. In the `Utpatti' [Genesis] stage, She started her work this day and that's why they put this date as the first date because the time started from this date, long time back. And that's why this date is very important and if you cross this date then you are beyond time.

You have to step on to this date and go beyond. You have to step on your Dharma, on to your religion and go beyond, `Dharma atīt'. You have to be those three Guṇas and to go beyond, `Guṇa atīt'. You are all those three. But the steps on which you are standing have to be all right, or those which are crossed have to be all right too.

So when you are beyond, you have to repair those steps, which you have crossed somehow, which can be done through meditation, Pūjā, prayers. But the most important, the greatest advancement is done by giving the universal through your universal being.

You all must dedicate your life to Sahaja Yoga and give more and more. Among us there are some people who have given a lot and by that they have achieved a lot too. You have to give, talk about it, spread it and bring more people to get this, otherwise they will be left out of evolutionary processes.

There's no time for you to doubt and think; don't waste your time in all these useless activities. If you have still doubts it's better to give up. It's high time that you get into the process! So today I wish you happy New Year for a journey in the spiritual life of this world. You have to think of all the Sahaja Yogis who are far away from us and our thoughts should carry our love for them and they should be blessed as you all are blessed here. I hope these important days that I am here you will fully dedicate yourself for your emancipation on those four lines that I have told you. And whatever program comes in, take it Sahaja. You should not insist on times and timings. Whatever comes Sahaja, accept it.

May God bless you.

Contents: 1976-04-02 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, The Role of Tongue, Sight and Feet in Spiritual Evolution, New Delhi, India

I was telling you about how difficult it is to be a Mother and a Guru, because both are very contradictory functions. And specially for a person who wants to be in charge of your salvation, to be the Moksha Dāyinī, it is extremely difficult. Because the path is so delicate and so treacherous that all of you have to come yourselves, walk across. And if you fall this side or that side there is disaster for you. I am watching your climbing and I see you coming up with a Mother's heart and a Guru's hand. And then I get the glimpses of people falling. I try to tell them, “Come up!" Sometimes I shout.

Sometimes I pull them up.

Sometimes I love them, caress them. You can yourself judge, within yourself, how much I have worked on you, how much I have loved you. But how much do you love yourself is the point. I have told you that for a Sahaja Yogi the whole thing should be decided by the witnessing power. Now the witnessing power is silent, it doesn't talk. If you are a very talkative person, then it's not going to help you much. You have to come in balance. For the first time in this incarnation I have started talking and I get so troubled because I'm not used to this kind of talking.

So for you people, it is necessary that you should not talk unless and until you feel like talking. And very few sentences, conclusive. As I told you before that, tongue is the master of all the organs of distractions. If you could master your tongue, you have mastered all of them, in a way. Because everything has to be palatable. For example, you look at a woman, if she's not palatable then she may be beautiful but you don't want to look at her. She decides, the tongue decides, about a person. If you want to eat some food, if it is not palatable then you don't want to eat that food. It has to be palatable. Then a thought also, a thought has to be palatable. If it is not palatable, you are not going to have it.

So the deciding factor is the tongue, the root of the tongue goes up to the Viśhuddhi Chakra, which controls your ego and superego, or you can say that the tongue is reflected in superego and ego in a way.

Through your tongue, when you speak, one can make out whether you are in the realm of ego or superego. She expresses, she decides. But if you understand her, then you know how to handle her. She is your friend. And Saraswatī, Herself, resides in your tongue. If you know how to handle your tongue, then Sahaja Yoga can rise very high up. Because when others meet you, as Sahaja Yogis, they also see how, the way, you talk, the way you eat, the way that things are palatable to you. It is the tongue that decides. If you are really very much evolved, you'll be amazed that if you eat some food somewhere, immediately the tongue will, immediately, throw it out. It won't have it, if it is something wrong. If some Prasad, so-called, is given to you, which is given by some wrong type of man, immediately your tongue will throw it away. It won't be able to take it in. And even if you take, somehow or other, it's forced down in the stomach, still the tongue will inform the brain that throw it out and the brain will inform the stomach that, throw it out. It will be unpalatable.

So the action of Viṣhṇu in the stomach up to the action of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa, I mean, the same personality, is all judged by your tongue.

So, you must know how pure, holy, your tongue should be. But when you take the name of your Mother with this tongue, you must know it has to be the holiest of holiest. It is very important how you use your tongue. Those who talk very bluntly are just the same as those who talk very sweetly, to get something out of you is the intention.

As I have told you, it controls ego and superego. Even if Sahaja Yogis understand that the witness is also here, at the Viśhuddhi Chakra.

So your witnessing powers will increase and decrease according to your tongue. Of course it controls sixteen sub-plexuses. It also controls the muscles of the eyes, it controls all these muscles, it controls the palate, it controls the teeth. It controls the ears. But ears, you hear something you cannot control it. Tongue you can, because that is the thing which releases, which goes out.

With the ear you cannot give anything to others. That is just one way. This [tongue] is double way thing; you take in something and also can throw out something, it has a double purpose. It is a very important organ. And that's why we have to look after our tongues.

When the Kuṇḍalinī is rising that means one thing is there, that your attention has to become subtle.

From gross to subtle. But it has to become subtler and subtlest and then it has to go beyond that. By becoming subtle only it comes up through the Āgñyā. Because Āgñyā is just like a hole in a needle.

So it penetrates through that to the subtleness. Because of that subtleness, your attention sees everything, but in a subtle form. Now, this is a new experience for you. That's why you do not recognize what is that.

In a group of Sahaja Yogis, you can witness these things very carefully and clearly. There is one person whose eyes are roving still, around. He's a Sahaja Yogi, he's sitting down, he's looking here, looking there, looking that side, who is coming, who is going. Of course, this person is still in the gross state you can say, though he's got his attention up here by Mātājī's pulling it out, you see and hanging onto it! [Laughing.] But still the person himself is still dragging outside into the gross.

So don't bother about that. But even the person who is now, say, attentive, you can say attentive, you see, because words are not so precise.

Even if you notice such a person, you'll find his two forces in a very subtle way are acting: one is his subtle ego, another is the subtle superego. When you become subtle, suddenly you get also powers of the subtle.

Let us see the ego side of it. You start feeling, inside yourself, in a very subtle way, that you do not recognize that it is ego. It is too subtle to be recognized. That you have got powers now to cure. You start feeling that now you have powers to raise the Kuṇḍalinī. See how it goes on segmenting into it. Then you start feeling you have powers to express yourself, because you think that you have learnt Sahaja Yoga and now you know the essence of it and you can talk about it. This subtle ego develops into you and the fourth type of subtle ego develops when you see the other person's superego is developing. That is the most dangerous.

It so happens that some people, who's superego develops now, because they have had previous Gurus, previous problems, previous... you see the way they have been following religion, some mistakes and all that. Because of their mistakes, their superego develops. You see something happening to them, say Mr.

X he finds, that a superego is coming onto him, some negativity is going into him.

So, his ego starts developing against that, a force. In a subtle way. Now he calls it a positive force, it is a positive force, sort of, but he over-crosses it. When he over-crosses that side, he decides to push a superego of another person, he trips over. He thinks he's doing the right thing, of course he is doing in a way, but to a point.

And then he becomes very hot-tempered. He goes on passing remarks about others. He says harsh things.

That's how the subtlest point starts.

To a point is alright, to a point because in this I would say Gaṇeśh and Jesus should be treated as the judging points. Christ did not mind when he was crucified. Not only that but he asked for forgiveness for all those. But if His Mother was even touched by somebody, he would have taken out his Eleven Rudras and killed them. That's the point. When it comes to your Mother, then of course, your ego and superego both have a meaning. But beyond that, if it starts directed at every Sahaja Yogi, then you don't know where to have the balance.

For example then, such people, anything done to them also they identify themselves with Mother and they think, `No, no, he has said it to me then he did it to Mother also.' It is not. You must know where you are criticised and where your Mother is criticised. These are two things. That's why I said judging point is Christ. When he was crucified, he accepted it, though he was so much one with his Mother. But still he could strike that line. When you are crucified, you are not Christ, but if anybody says anything against the Mother then of course.

Now try to understand yourself, now you're watching yourself, whatever I am saying you are watching yourself. It is for your good. That is how you find, somewhere, a person who gets a superego invasion.

First of all superego invasion is very, very deep and subtle. It's extremely deep. It comes into you in such a manner, that you do not understand it. The other person who is very positive, so-called, he'll think that `That person has got a negativity.' But he won't know that he's over-crossing his positivity towards negativity itself! Because once you cross this line you go to this side. Once you cross this line you go to this side.

So immediately you are becoming negative once you cross this point and it's the Sahasrāra, is the Brahmarandhra. Beyond the Brahmarandhra, if you are pushing down, then you are crossing to the other side. You are playing into hands of other people.

Now, you must judge yourself and see, `Now Hello Mr. X, how are you behaving now?' Immediately you become a witness, you see, witness of yourself. Now how the superego and ego, you see sometimes in some people, sometimes the ego presses the superego and the superego presses the ego. I have seen it.

They don't know whether they are egoistical or whether they are dominated. They really do not know, they cannot decide. Because it's such a going on, wobbling all the time. That's why I say, “Baith jao" [Sit down], you must sit down, settle down. See for yourself. “Am I settled?" Watch in yourself. Even you can feel the force, actually you can feel the force moving from this side to this side. You'll feel the force moving from this side to this, try to bring it in the center.

Now, ego and superego, when they go on like that, you can say wobble from one to another, it happens like this: at one moment you start feeling dejected, frustrated, fed up with yourself. “Nonsense! Get out!" The other moment you sit on yourself, sit on other people. You ask other to “Get out! This is bad! I didn't like that man, that fellow came, that fellow caught me, this thing happened, that thing happened." Two extremes you move to. That's not the way to Sahaja Yoga.

Sahaja Yoga. Saha-ja means that you are a witness. Saha-ja. It has double meaning. Sahaja is normally used for a word which is simple. Sahaj. You are in a Sahaj method, means you are a witness, you watch it. Look at these trees, they are just witnessing, they are not saying anything, they are just there. It is to be. It is just to be at this point. Are we that? Every moment, dealing with anything. Then you will not have any organizational problems. You have organizational problems because you are not a witness.

You'll find two types of people. One who will say, “I'm suffering too much” the others who will say, “No, not me!" Then they interchange also. You see, their attitudes interchange, it's absurd. But you can just know where to stop it and become a witness, silent.

After talking for one minute, you just become silent. That's the best way, I think, I can say, a practical way. Is for your tongue, is to be silent. As far as possible to be silent and be watching. But some people are silent and brooding, that's the worst thing that you are doing. No! Silent and watching. Neither brooding, not planning how to hurt others and then suddenly your sentences will come out which would be so filthy, so cutting, so horrid, so full of venom, that you think, `From where it has come? Oh God!' Such silence is absolutely useless. It should be like a river flowing. The river has its own depth and on top it is flowing, it's just one mast. That kind of a silence one should have. Not a forced one but a silence of a witness. Even such a person is talking inside, the flow of the silence, you are one with that silence, it is filling you up all the time. And you can witness that in every leaf, in every movement of the leaf, you see the silence moving. They do not speak, but they manifest it. In the same way you do not speak, you manifest. Of course, human beings are higher than them because they speak, but if speech becomes a burden, a problem, a cutting instrument, it is better not to speak.

[Question: How important are our eyes?] Another thing a Sahaja Yogi must know, that eyes are very important for Sahaja Yoga. When the Kuṇḍalinī rises, then the dilatation of the pupils takes place, because you have seen the children how their eyes are dilated. Gaping at everything, what is happening. Just gaping, silence, complete. Silent seeing goes on through the eyes. And that's why eyes are very important. You must learn to fix your eyes within yourself, in your heart. Humble down, in your heart! Fix your eyes in your heart! I say that way, but I don't know if you can do it. I don't know if you can do it, but if you could do it that's a very good way of doing things.

Looking at everyone, gazing at everyone, seeing this, seeing that, is a very bad exercise for your eyes, it's a very bad habit. Try to keep your eyes low, on the earth, Mother Earth, watching the lower part of the body than the face. Because face, if you are made that way that you can watch the faces, all right but you are not yet made. Best thing is to see to the feet. And your eyes will touch their gross sense, feet, from where the sensation of vibrations go up, upward and the Kuṇḍalinī rises better.

Actually those who suffer from low Kuṇḍalinī rising, if they could rub oil on their feet and wash their feet, it's a very good thing. That's why Christ washed the feet of his disciples. I wish I could do that if you allow Me, in public, because the whole grossness is in the feet and if you touch somebody with your eyes, realised people I am saying, their feet, most of their grossness will disappear. And you won't have that much problem with them. That's why Christ washed the feet of His disciples. You also wash your feet and keep them clean, so that the grossness drops out.

I have explained in brief way, but if you want to ask Me questions, ask, because still I find that the Sahaja Yogis are not rising as fast as they could. Because bringing Kuṇḍalinī up to this and up to this is possible for Me, but taking it back into your gross being, is your own job which you have to do it. In Marathi as they say, “Da adi karatza maga paiya", I have built the top, the dome for you and the dome is now to be supported by you. I have taken you to the dome, but you cannot bring it down, because either you are frustrated with yourself, by being frustrated what are you going to gain? Or else, you are frustrated with others.

Just be silent and be witnesses. As Sāi Baba has said, saburi, patience, it comes in.

Human beings take for granted all the miraculous Divine happenings. This is part of Maya for I do not want all of you to get startled and shocked. The veil has to be lifted in such a smooth movement that you should not loose even a ripple of Joy that is beaming through the drama of your ascent.

Perhaps you were short sighted about yourself. You did not know your capabilities and hence you were struggling. This made the simple thing so complicated and difficult. Just think about it. After all, what sins can overcome the Divine Love? What human foolishness of destruction can bring forth the destruction of the Creation or its Creator that resides within you? So arise and awake yourself to the great advent of Satya Yuga. All your fatigue and impatience would disappear if you feel the morning breeze of blossoming bliss of God Almighty.

yours most loving mother, Nirmalā

Contents: 1976-05-27, Public Program (Hindi), Dhyān Kaise Karein (How to Meditate), Bharatiya Vidyā Bhavan, Mumbai, India

I told you at Dadar, how in Sahaja Yoga, you first go into the state of Tadātmya [oneness with the Divine]. After the Tadātmya one can attain the stage of Samipya [nearness to God] and then Salokya [companionship with God]. But on achieving Tadātmya, a person's interest itself changes.

Immediately on achieving the state of Tadātmya, due to his experiences, a person does not wish to go down into the state of Salokya and Samipya. That means, when vibrations start flowing into your hands and when you feel other's Kuṇḍalinī and can raise their Kuṇḍalinī, then your Chitta [attention] goes towards watching other's Kuṇḍalinī and understanding your own. You want to be alert about your Chakras and understand other's Chakras.

If you look up towards the sky, you may see, even if there are clouds, you will see many types of Kuṇḍalinī. Because, now your attention has gone to Kuṇḍalinī, whatever you want to know about Kuṇḍalinī, whatever you want to see, whatever desires you have, these will be revealed to you. Your interest in Kuṇḍalinī grows and all other interests disappear by themselves.

Try to understand thus: As you enter into adulthood, leaving behind the childhood, you have the interests of your adult life, your job, business, wife, family; you take interest only in these and all other childhood interests drop off, old experiences fade away and your attention goes towards new experiences.

Or try to understand this way: Say, a person is not interested in music and somehow he has become interested in music, in classical music, then he is not going to enjoy any other non-classical music concert.

Your condition in Sahaja Yoga should also be similar.

As regards your other habits and interests, they are acquired gradually and intentionally cultivated and hence those interests are deeply imbibed in you. Sahaja Yoga has brought about a complete transformation in you, you have come into a state of new awareness, you can now feel the vibrations and other's Kuṇḍalinī, you can give realisation to many people, you have cured thousands of people, you have entered into a new power and you are nourished by it.

But in doing all this there is only one shortcoming and that is that you have not made any effort and everything has happened by itself, effortlessly. Perhaps that's the reason why, although many people receive vibrations in Sahaja Yoga and also rise to a very high state, even then their attention never stabilizes on Param'ātmā, Ātmā, or Kuṇḍalinī and it repeatedly goes towards wrong things.

You had asked Me, “What is to be done after getting realisation." After receiving [realisation] you have to give. It is absolutely necessary to give after receiving your realisation, otherwise receiving [it] has no meaning. And while giving, one point, only one small point, must be kept in mind, “That with this body, this mind (manas), this intellect (buddhi), that means the `whole personality' with which you are giving such an incomparable thing, that itself should be very beautiful; your being should be very clean." There should be no disease in it. If you have any sickness, perhaps there may be many Sahaja Yogis having diseases. Before coming to Sahaja Yoga you must be getting worried and wishing that the disease should be somehow cured. But thereafter the attention does not go onto your sickness and you start saying, “It will be alright, does not matter." But it is wrong. Whatever may be your problem, even minor, you can cure yourself by placing your hand on that spot, you can keep your physical side very clean.

There is not much to be done. Just meditate and keep yourself clean, keep your physical side clean.

However, for you I have told you one important thing. As it is said, everyone must go to bathroom and clean oneself after getting up in the morning. Similarly, for Sahaja Yogis, it is extremely important to do foot-soaking for at least five minutes, before going to bed. However highly evolved you may be and even if you may not be getting caught, but it does not matter. You must do foot-soaking for at least five minutes. Even I do foot-soaking sometimes, although it is not necessary for Me, so that My Sahaja Yogis will imbibe this habit. It is a very good habit.

All Sahaja Yogis must do foot-soaking for at least for five minutes, daily. All Sahaja Yogis, should light a deep [lamp] before the photograph, apply sindoor [vermilion], dip their feet in water and sit in this fashion opening out both the palms towards the photograph. If you do this, more than half of your problems would be solved automatically. Whatever happens, it is not difficult to spare five minutes. All should sit like this before going to sleep. That will stop more than half of your catches. We must get up early in the morning. Our Sahaja Yoga is a day time activity, not of night.

So one must sleep early at night. I am not asking you to sleep at 6 p.m. but by 10 p.m. all must go to sleep. You should not stay awake after 10.

You must get up early in the morning. In the morning after getting up early and taking your bath, one must sit for meditation. In the morning one must sit for meditation. Like, in our country, we have been getting up early in the morning and washing up our selves since ages and have been doing it all our lives.

In the same way all Sahaja Yogis must get up early and meditate in the morning. It is a question forming a habit. But I have seen that for many it is very difficult to get up early at 4 a.m. or 5 a.m. There is reason for that. I have done in-depth study about human beings. It is very joyful to study them. It is very interesting to see how human beings runs way from himself and argues against himself. It is quite interesting to see how he gives explanation about himself and makes himself an object of mockery.

Some people tell Me, Mother we cannot get up early in the morning. I say when did you go to sleep last night.

o'clock. But I had decided Mother, that I shall get up at 4 o'clock'. That is impossible. But you must sleep early one day and must get up early next morning. Then you shall fall asleep early that day. You do that for two or three days and your body shall get accustomed to it. When you get up early in the morning, your receptivity is more. Not only that, at that early hour in the world also extremely beautiful..... [speech disturbed due to malfunctioning of the mike] So from the point of view of body I have told you and also that one must meditate in the morning.

Now how to meditate. Think about it, how to meditate early in the morning. First bow down yourself in your heart. Humble down yourself. If someone thinks that he has achieved a lot or I am a very big saint, then take it for granted that he is a gone case. He is about to go out of Sahaja Yoga. One should take permission and sit peacefully before the photograph with palms spread out and with extreme humbleness one must bow towards one's heart. One has to ask for forgiveness repeatedly.

So even at that time one must ask for forgiveness that `Oh God if have committed any mistake against yourself, please forgive us and take us into meditation.' Then we pray, `We forgive all those who have done any harm to us and if we had harmed anyone then please forgive us oh Lord.' At this point bring pure emotions in your heart and then go into meditation. Now meditate with your eyes closed. Now one should not ask for how many minutes. It is very wrong to ask such questions.

Whether you meditate for 5 minutes or ten minutes. For five or ten minutes one must meditate with complete oneness of attention. Humbly bow down yourself and meditate. But before meditation, one must understand it very carefully, before meditating give bandhan to the place where you are going to sit for meditation. Give yourself a bandhan, give your body a bandhan, seven times give your body a bandhan, give that place a bandhan, give bandhan to photograph. This is not be done in a mechanical way like many people do but with humility and Shraddhā one must give bandhan as if one is doing a Pūjā. After that give your `Mana' a bandhan. Now where is `Mana'. You have never asked Me, “Mother where is `mana'?" Mana is here. It starts from here. Meaning you must give forceful bandhan to Viśhuddhi and Āgñyā Chakra. Mana has to be given a bandhan. While giving bandhan one must have this thought that `O Lord, let us remain in your bandhan and nothing untoward may happen to us.' Bow down with extreme humility. At that time, just assume that you are in witness state and detached from everything. Just make yourself detached from everything and meditate. If you try this daily, it will become a habit. With extreme Shraddhā one must meditate early in the morning, may be for ten minutes or half an hour, it does not matter. While meditating do not move your hands. Just watch the photograph and slowly close your eyes while meditating and do not move your hands. At that time whichever Chakra is having imbalance, it can be corrected by just watching that Chakra because as I have said, Divine vibrations are more in the morning. Now after having purified our Chakras, meditate on your Ātmā Tattwa. Take your attention to your Ātmā [Spirit]. Nobody has ever asked Me, “Mother where is Ātmā [Spirit]?" Ātmā is in our heart but its seat is on our Sahasrāra. That is why I had said that bow down to your heart and take your attention to your Sahasrāra and be surrendered to Ātmā. With thought be surrendered towards the spirit. What is the essence of Ātmā Tattwa. Ātmā Tattwa is purity. One should say, complete Nirmal purity. Take your attention towards that. That is completely detached. It is not attached with anything. Due to your identifications [attachments], you are away from your spirit. Meditate on Ātmā Tattwa. And this Ātmā Tattwa is Love. Meditate on this. It is very Great, Ātmā Tattwa is Love. Many religions have established in this world, but nobody has been able to describe Love in any of those religions. Because of this there have been many absurdities in them.

Love cannot be described but Love is that power that is flowing from your hands. This is the `Chetna' awareness that people know as awareness. But they do not know that this is Love. They comprehend awareness as any other power like electricity. But no. Ātmā Tattwa is Love. By saying one word, Love, you are liberated from many bandhans [bondages]. Whatever is false, untruth is against Love. Even if you are scolding someone and telling them about Truth, you are loving him. You yourself have become Love (Prem), that's why by just meditating on Prem Tattwa you can get into Ātmā Tattwa.

While meditating do not get stuck into any one thought. But now you can say that, I am that Prem Tattwa, I am that Ātmā Tattwa. I am that power of God Almighty. You can say like that. This way, by just saying 2-3 times you shall feel blessed. Because you are saying the Truth, vibrations start flowing from your being with great force.

Now what should be done in day to day life. In your daily life, you must know that the power within you is of Prem Tattwa. Whatever you do, are you doing it in love or you are just trying to show off that you are a great Sahaja Yogi. If I say something to anybody or if I get angry with someone then I notice that they he speaks against Me to other Sahaja Yogis and then he asks Me “why have I lost my vibrations?" If you are indulging in such foolishness then it is better that you leave Sahaja Yoga. Only those who are desirous of taking something can stay in Sahaja Yoga. He has no right to give Me anything, he only has to accept it from Me. If he wants to give then when his powers are developed then it would be very good. But you can give only when you are able to absorb. Therefore first learn to absorb. Try to see your shortcomings. For our benevolence we should see what we want to give. We are giving love. Are we standing in Love? We fight with everyone, we argue with everyone, we trouble others and we think we are Sahaja Yogis. We should not live with this falsehood. We should live with ourselves like a mirror meaning we should watch ourselves all the time. Like if something is sticking on to my face and you inform me about that and I can wipe it. In the same way you should watch yourself and wipe off anything that is sticking to you.

In your day to day life, you should live a brighter life. There should be transformation in your face.

Your behaviour has to be beautiful. Love should flow from you. If you are an individual without love then you are not a Sahaja Yogi. You should know this. You have become a Sahaja Yogi without any desire for it and without proving your worth and I am tolerating you and you are sitting here today. If you cannot improve then please forgive Me and stop coming to Sahaja Yoga. Such people will themselves go out of Sahaja Yoga in a few days time. Those who are devoid of love, those who think they are highly evolved, are useless for Sahaja Yoga. Such people should go to other ku-Gurus [fake Gurus] and get kicked by them and feel the heat. Here in Sahaja

Yoga you have come to become instrument of God Almighty.

You should be extremely humble, extremely humble. You should give up ego completely. Others say one has to take Sannyās [renunciation], I say first give up your ego. Give up your anger. By taking out your clothes you have not renounced anything. Renunciation means giving up anger, lust, attachment, pride greed, jealousy etc., giving up these Ṣhad-ripus [the six enemies] is called Sannyās, Sannyāsta. We are not talking about superficial renunciation. You should be extremely loving and peaceful while dealing with others. You should be talking about Sahaja Yoga with your family, children and friends. Change your friends and acquaintances. They [Sahaja Yogis] are your real relations. You should talk to them.

They [Sahaja Yogis] will tell you that we have entered into a new world, we have new vibratory awareness. Whenever you travel anywhere, like someone was telling Me he has come from Rahuri, that just as we carry our personal items while travelling, we also carry `Tīrtha', the water vibrated by My feet is called `Tīrtha' and other vibrated items like kumkum etc. If we find any sick person on the way, we give him `Tīrtha' to drink. If someone talks about religion we show him Mother's photograph and tell him about Mother and that she can give you your Self-realisation. Whoever they meet on the way they talk about Sahaja Yoga. They apply kumkum to some and ask them how do they feel, show them My photo and talk about Me and tell them that they can get their realisation from this photograph. All the time they only talk of Sahaja Yoga and only think how they can manifest Sahaja Yoga. By doing this you shall find your depth. There are also some people who come to Sahaja Yoga like they visit a temple and then they are gone in no time. Due to this they face adverse results.

You will people sitting here, who used to be very sick earlier but ever since they have received their realisation they have never fallen ill. They have never visited a doctor after their realisation. They have never taken any medicine either and there are some old people too, who always used to visit doctors, hospitals and have stopped doing so ever since taking to Sahaja Yoga. There are many such examples.

Not only this but they have also helped others. The reason is that whatever is required to be done as a Sahaja Yogi for one's health they kept on doing that and got cured. You should all meet each other.

Among yourself you are all doctors and all are patients. Just as doctors do not take fees from one another.

In the same way, you also do not take any fees from each other when you help one another. You should treat other and discuss among yourself and you should not mind. If someone tells you that your Sahasrāra is caught up then it is a matter of shame because getting at Sahasrāra means being against Me. Then you ask others to correct yourself and wonder how you got caught. You should never have anything to do with any person who is against Sahaja Yoga. If you do that then your Sahasrāra is caught up. You must tell such a person to stay away and should close your ears. Do not talk to him and advise him not to talk to you. Tell him that you are meeting him due to Mother and that he should keep quite. If you keep talking to such a person then your Sahasrāra is caught up and after a few days you will come to Me and say, “Mother I have got cancer." One or two persons had it but now they are cured. You must know that cancer is a disease of the Sahasrāra. If you have to be free from cancer then keep your Sahasrāra pure. If your Sahasrāra starts getting caught up then know that it is the beginning of cancer. You should always keep your Sahasrāra clean because if you do not do so then after a few years you will come and say that you have developed cancer. Then why not keep yourself clean from now. Not only that why not work for Sahaja Yoga for which we are in the kingdom of God. Tomorrow when such people are chosen from this world who belong to God's kingdom then you shall be the chosen ones. Why not do such acts. We are just wasting our time, meeting friends, having food with relations, criticising others. Let's leave all that and improve our ways. We should lead such a life that we are remembered for that. Let's think like that.

Nobody should think that he is left with very few years in life and it is difficult to achieve it now. You shall not die. When you die you are then reborn and this goes on. The why not come out of this cycle [of births and deaths] in a year's time and if you wish you can do that in a week's time. You only have to decide once, just once. You can be immensely benefitted by Sahaja Yoga just by deciding once like this. You should be surrendered completely. It is not necessary that you touch My feet but should be surrendered to Me from your heart.

Some people touch My feet but are not surrendered in their heart.

One has to be completely surrendered to Me from within. If you are completely surrendered from within then your Kuṇḍalinī remains established on your Ātmā Tattwa, just like the flame of a lamp, without any flickering. But one must remain surrendered for that. In the surrendered state one experiences Joy, Bliss and God realisation.

Sahaja Yoga is a unparalleled, unique and special thing. Please try to understand this and be involved in it. The more you identify yourself with Tadātmya [oneness with the Divine] state, the more your Ātmā Tattwa shines. Nothing is important at all, except that you yourself become the Light. Those who are indulging in nonsense activities all the time are suggested to leave such things. Those things are not for them. I am telling you one last time. Please take note of it and act on it intelligently.

Within us lie many evil tendencies and within us lie many negativities. These influence us to do evil deeds. To act under their influence is like becoming Satan yourself. Now it is up to you to either become a Satan or become God. Now if you wish to become Satan then it is a different thing and I am not your Guru for that. But if you wish to become God then I am your Guru. But you should save yourself from becoming Satan.

First thing to note is that on the night of new moon and full moon, always there are dangers on your left and right sides. Specially on these two days, that is, the nights of new moon and full moon, you should sleep very early at night. After singing bhajans, bow down before the photograph, meditate and keep your attention on Sahasrāra and go to sleep after taking bandhan. That means you go into the unconscious the moment your attention is at your Sahasrāra. There, give yourself a bandhan and you are saved. During these two nights it should be observed particularly.

The night of new moon, you should meditate especially on Śhrī Shiva. You should sleep after meditating on Śhrī Shiva, that is the Spirit and completely surrender yourself to Him. On the night of full moon, you should meditate on Śhrī Rāma and surrender yourself to Him for protection. The meaning of the word Rāmchandra is `creativity'. You should completely dedicate your creative powers to Him. Thus you have to take special care of yourself on these two days.

However on the seventh [Saptamī] and ninth [Navamī] days of Lunar fortnights you have My special blessings. Remember that you are specially blessed by Me on these two days. Make some special arrangements so that you can have proper meditation on these days. You must do collective meditation only at those places which have been purified by My Feet [where I have physically visited]. You should not be doing collective meditation at your home by inviting someone. Even with your relations also you should not be doing collective meditation. You should be doing collective meditation only wherever I have told you to do so. You should also be discussing about Sahaja Yoga for a very long time at such a place where I have not put My Feet. Because at such places, bhoots shall start talking through yourself and you shall start fighting among yourself. I am saying this because even now you are not free from the clutches of bhoots.

You are not able to know when the bhoot enters into your being and takes over. This is how you should protect yourself. And whenever you are going out, leaving your home, give yourself a bandhan; always be in the bandhan.

If you come across someone having a catch on Āgñyā, give him a bandhan, even with your attention it can be done. Never argue with a person who's caught on Āgñyā; it is a foolishness to do so. Can you ever argue with a person who is caught on Āgñyā, who is a bhoot? Do not argue with a person who is caught on Āgñyā. `Never.' Just agree with him for whatever he says. Go on saying yes, yes, you are right. Because whenever we have a mentally challenged person we only say yes, yes whatever you are saying it right.

Never argue with a person who is caught on Āgñyā. You should also not be arguing with a person who is caught on Viśhuddhi. And never go near a person who is caught on Sahasrāra! Have no contact with him. Tell him to improve his Sahasrāra first. You should not be hesitant in telling him, `Your Sahasrāra is caught. Put it right.' Sahasrāra should be kept clean. If anyone has started catching on Sahasrāra, then he should immediately take help from other Sahaja Yogis, `Do something and clear my Sahasrāra.' If someone who is caught on Sahasrāra talks to you, you should tell him, `You are my enemy.' Never talk to him as long as he is caught on Sahasrāra.

As regards a person caught on Heart, you should help that person, as far as possible. Put bandhan on his heart, put your hand on your heart and take him to the photograph of Shri Mataji. You must take care of Heart Chakra. May be, sometimes one may get a problem on the Heart Chakra. You must help others clear the Heart Chakra. But many people have no heart! They are very dry personalities. And you cannot do anything for such dry persons, even if you wish to.

So you should leave them alone. However, if they come to you and ask for your help then advise them to first leave Haṭha Yoga and then ask them to leave other unimportant things in life. They should be asked to learn to love others and if they cannot love human beings then they should at least start loving dogs, cats.

Love everyone. Love children. Never aggress on to children. In fact one should never aggress on anyone.

Never hurt anyone. Nobody should beat the children. No Sahaja Yogi should ever beat your children with your hands. Never beat others with your hands, never. Never get angry with anyone. Particularly, Sahaja Yogis should never get angry. Without getting annoyed, they should improve everything tactfully and intelligently. Never get angry. You must pray for, How should the day to day life of a Sahaja Yogi be.

One should think about it.

I have told you in many ways. Similarly this organization that we have of Anant Jeevan [The Life Eternal Trust], for which eight to ten people should come together and think what is to be done. You must all contribute to it and should give their services for it. All those who still haven't given their names should give them to Mister Pradhān and we are going to start a quarterly publication in which all My letters, messages, lectures will be printed and apart from that if you have any experiences to be shared then do it so that these can also be printed in it. Whatever experiences we get from all over India, some of them would be printed in that. Therefore if you have any experiences keep writing to them. Apart from that if you can write an article on Sahaja Yoga please write and send it for printing. This way there shall be a quarterly in which there will be some articles in Hindi, some in Marathi, some in English and some in Gujarati.

So we shall be starting printing either together in all these languages or one by one. Everything happens slowly in Sahaja Yoga. For that you must contribute, give your subscription and take advantage out of it. If you have any questions on this then raise them and I shall answer all of them together. We are first starting a quarterly which later be a monthly and then weekly and finally daily, but for now it shall be a quarterly publication.

If you have questions, any problems then please send a letter in My name to Mister Pradhān. Please don't write many letters to Me as I do not have time. After that do not say Mother has written to him and not to me. Do not talk in such foolish ways. Sahaja Yoga is not for such people. You know that your Mother loves you all equally. For some reasons I may not write to some people.

Sometimes She writes to you and sometimes not.

Sometimes I write to those whom I know will never mind if I don't write to them.

And now I am not going to care about those who feel bad if I don't write to them. I have cared enough for such people and the result is that those evil people have remained that way and never improved and we have been troubled. All those with whom I have been patient thinking that one they shall improve have not shown any progress and have remained wicked, they have not transformed even wee bit and we have got the pain. Because I had decided that no human being shall be destroyed in this Kali Yuga. I shall not torture any human being. I have given him complete freedom to go either to hell or towards God. I have given you complete freedom. If someone wants to go to hell then I say take faster steps towards it, so that I am free from you. That arrangement also I have done. If you wish to go to hell then I have made arrangements for that also but if you wish to go at the Feet of God, that also is arranged for you.

So I am telling all those who have troubled Me, disturbed Me or tormented Me that I have had enough patience and now if anyone troubles Me or disturbs Me then I have to say very clearly to such persons that now we have no relation with you and that you should leave Sahaja Yoga. Such elements, while going out of Sahaja Yoga show their true colours and disturb us again. Their true nature is exposed. But I have to tell you that you think about your well being. There is no need to follow them and go to hell. Think about your own well being. There is no need to argue with anyone. They shall remain as they were earlier.

They are very difficult to get transformed. Because they are evil. Those who are good, they may initially behave like them but get transformed very easily. Those who are evil are impossible to get transformed and I have understood this. I have tried enough but such people shall remain as they were. You can never transform them. They shall never have wisdom. That's why there is no need to argue with such people.

I have to request you, not to have any kind of relationship with such people. Slowly they shall be out of Sahaja Yoga. They are here because they want to destroy whatever you have accomplished. You should save yourself from such people. Get your vibrations.

..... [MISSING 2 minutes.] So all those who think they are very intelligent, if they want to go to hell I can issue them ticket to hell. It is all under My control. All those desirous of going to hell can have the ticket from Me and I am willing to give it. Those who want to go the kingdom of God their ticket also I can issue. A ticket clerk can issue ticket for any destination but ticket clerk will inform you that if you go this way there will be derailment and immediately on reaching there your... [UNCLEAR]... will break, there is no return from there, you cannot come back from there. Return ticket is not available from there. That's why I am informing you but I do not have to say much about hell, as you know all about it.

I have told you all this so that you can keep your own instrument clean. And always keep your sight on higher level. You should not keep your sight low but on higher level. You have to rise higher. Never look down. You have to rise higher. I am with you at every step, at every place. Everywhere. Wherever You are, at whichever place you are, I am with you, completely, in person, by My spirit and by My word completely. This is My promise to you. But those who wish to go to Hell, they will also be sucked down.

That is also arranged. Therefore be careful. Take to higher life.

Now I am going to London and when I come back I want to see that each one of you should have given realisation to at least ten persons. Call others, talk to them about Sahaja Yoga openly. Don't feel shy.

Tell them about Sahaja Yoga how truthful it is. It is the religion of Truth. It is for real. Gather people, talk to them wherever you find them. Everyone of you should take the photograph and each one should give photo in ten homes. It is a very good way that each person contributes to take ten photographs. Give these photos to ten such homes where there will be respect towards the photo, where it will be worshipped and where Sahaja Yoga can be accepted. By this way only we can spread Sahaja Yoga. We do not want to have much publicity because whenever we do publicity then dirty people are also attracted and the good people do not come. Therefore it is better to serve Sahaja Yoga all the time and make yourself wealthy [spiritually] by it. May God bless you. My complete blessings are with you. My heart, mind, body be always engaged in your service. I am not away from you even for a moment. Whenever you will remember Me anywhere by just closing your eyes, at that moment I shall come to you with all My powers, `Śhankha, Chakra, Gadā, Padma Garuḍa laisi-dhāri' [Just as Lord Kṛiṣhṇa came riding on his Condor from Dwarika, with all his Divine weapons, Śhankha, Chakra, Gadā, Padma when Draupadi called Him, I shall be before you in no time.] Even for a moment I shall not be late but you will have to be Mine.

This is very important. If you are Mine then I shall not be late even for a moment. I shall be before you.

Let God bless you all and give you wisdom.

[One of the early Pūjās believed to be the very first Pūjā in praise of Shri Mataji, we had a Havan outside and we had this book of the thousand Sanskrit names of the Goddess. We were sitting round there putting Sāmagrī on the Havan and Shri Mataji was actually reading the names Herself. Shri Mataji said:] This is very strange because you've got the Goddess reading the praise of the Goddess, which is rather unusual.

The environment plays a big role in the reaction of a person. The sensitivity of the Chakras becomes dull after the first few shocks to them. Then, a human being starts living with all the shocking habits very easily. He exists but in a very superficial manner and does not want to go down into his depth [UNCLEAR as he cannot, because in this movement, he has to first] face the shocks that are stored within. He tries to forget them as that helps him to exist. But mere existence is not accepted by people like you and many others who face themselves. They are brave and courageous children of mine. Sahaja Yoga can help only those.

You have been worried about others. To the extent that you want their emancipation I am willing to agree. But this is only possible if you can see the purpose of emancipation. The purpose is to introduce to their awareness the kingdom of God, His laws and His glory. The responsibility of every individual as an instrument is to accept Him in his full freedom. The object of Sahaja Yoga is complete liberation hence nothing can be done arbitrarily by Adi Shakti. The only thing I can do is to lead you and guide you to awaken your divinity in full freedom.

Those who are real seekers of truth do not give up their seeking by their frustrating finding of untruth.

There are plastic flowers. That does not mean there are no real flowers. The religions manifested as real flowers on the tree of religion but people removed the flowers from the tree and made them dead flowers, as their own property. Once you know the reality, you can know all the incarnations of Divine manifestation and their functions.

To know the reality you have to be born again. You have to know the unconscious. Your attention has to jump in the unconscious. I the human state you cannot know the unconscious, hence it should not be discarded but should be accepted as unknown.

When you jump into your unconscious, as you have seen, you become collectively conscious. You “become" but not that you think or feel but you are endowed with awareness. That knows about the other people's Kuṇḍalinī and Chakras on your fingers, spontaneously. From your heart, like a mild electric current, the Divine power (Shakti) starts flowing. They are the Divine vibrations (Chaitanya Lahari)....

[Shri Mataji blesses everybody after the Pūjā and speaks a few words.] There are thirty five crore of Devas in the body of the Goddess, three hundred and fifty million and that's how through them, all the creation is worked out. When you wash My feet, you must know that they were given to Me by Brahmadeva Himself. And by taking water out of it you clear all the problems of your five elements which are in the control of the creator himself.

So My feet are the more important; they can cure your ailments of the five elements; even mental ailments are cured because that part of you is formed from Ākāsh, the firmament.

Just think of the intricate and delicate things that work out, like in nature a little bird comes and builds its nest: nobody tells it what to do, from where does it get the knowledge? A chestnut tree will bring forth only chestnuts; a bee goes only to one type of flower to collect the honey, who gives this knowledge? Some birds can predict coming dangers of earthquakes. That is the Virāt-āñgana. The screen is there, the light is behind Me. It is the light of God in the abstract form. I give the form to his light.

The energy comes out, they clothe Me and the manifestation takes place.

Mārkandeya discovered all these things through meditation. Now I can tell you these things, it is up to you to verify it. I asked him: “Why do you want to write?" He told Me “I must write otherwise they may not recognize you." Today, all the Gods you may recognize in Me whom you call as Nirmalā. It's a very mild form. But all the powers are inside and may be used. They have become subtler, simpler. This finger may look dainty to you but it has a very powerful weapon which has killed many Rākshasas.

The power has gradually withdrawn inside from one incarnation to the next. It is not harmful to you in any way. It's all hidden inside, beautifully folded; gradually it opens out like a bud in all its modesty, humility, concern. Man in his ego is not going to accept Me easily because he is in ignorance. He can only get knowledge through Self-realisation. The more you surrender yourself the more the light will permeate.

How you sit, how you talk, how you walk before Me are very important for your surrender, so that your Gods are happy with you.

In this chaotic Western atmosphere, you have to really understand, they are all burning with degrading desires, hatred, vanity, arrogance. Every moment they are killing each other. All struggling to come out of the ocean of ignorance. In your knowledge be confident and try to pull them out. There is no valour in diffidence, it is very important work. You must validate all your doubts; but gradually you yourself will start emitting because of your greatness.

It is not possible to give realisation to anyone who is not able to surrender to My being. No matter how eminent a person, they all have to come down, otherwise their realisation will not be recognized. There is no difference between Me and God Almighty. The sun without sunshine has no meaning. He has made Me like this, all his powers are in Me. Forget everything else and surrender. Many a times I have come on this earth and not said this. But now I say surrender. There is nothing like meditation without Me. You become that vast being that is Me. It means dissolving all that is misidentified in you. Even for that you have to pray and you have to ask. I give material things to stupid people who ask for them. But to wise people I give eternal things. Stand in your wisdom and ask for the eternal life.

Contents: 1976-10-12 Letter to Gregoire about Dharma (also Pyramids and Taj Mahal), London, UK

It is very true that some human beings in the prehistoric times were very wise and dynamic. May be they were realised but such people, in ancient civilization, must have been very much accepted as higher people.

Otherwise how can you account for building a pyramid in Egypt, which is, from inside, all vibrated.

The human brain is also a “pyramid like" but not yet perfected. The proportions of Pyramid are Divine.

(This is all supported by a scientist in his book on “the super nature" where he found that dead bodies do not decay). There are many such instances. Specially artists who were of higher awareness (realised Souls) were accepted and that is how the Taj Mahal works (the dome gives resonance and there are lots of vibrations as the dome has a special shape.

So these are no more make believes. They are all beyond the conception of even modern men. The reason for this acceptance comes from the fact that human beings at large, at that time, accepted virtue (the expression of Dharma) for the pattern of their life. They did not get “liberation" from virtue, socially or politically. Dharma was accepted as something to adhere to.

There must be clear-cut ideas as to the formal religions appropriated by people who “talk about God".

They are not realised and those who are realised also are not fully aware of themselves. The talk about God leads to the rationalisation of formal religions. The mythical organized religions have befooled human beings to such an extent that it looks like a joke, which has turned into a cold-blooded murder. I do not know whether to laugh or to be angry or to weep with anguish.

This is how I describe Dharma in short. Dharma is the sustenance of all things that are born or created.

It is super nature that gives valences to atoms in an element. It is Dharma that is expressed as the quality of these elements. For instance, gold has a quality that it is untarnishable. The human beings are like perfected instruments, like computers. Of course, if their Dharma is in balance, they are the best receptors.

You can understand that the Divine awareness is like the main electrical current which starts the computer (Self-realisation). If the Dharma in the instrument is lacking, Self-realisation does not give full results. It becomes like a second hand car. Dharma is the fulcrum and the one who is in Dharma never gets into imbalance.

So the attention has to be on “Dharma", the point where the gravity of sin does not act.

The information of Dharma comes from the Unconscious but the movement from the fulcrum can take the human attention so much in one dimension or so much like a sea saw that ultimately the beam of life tilts towards one side, either towards hell or towards destruction. Because, if the extreme movements are like a sea saw, the delicate flower of human awareness becomes confused and people suffer from all kind of diseases.

So what must we do? The human beings have to come to the state of Gautama who became the Buddha. He searched in all earnestness and honesty. He gave up first all fake worldly preoccupations. This is not required but when he gave up all hopes of searching, (the occupation of the mind), he accepted his defeat. He felt tired and fell at the feet of the Holy Ghost.

Buddha had Dharma. His body was clean, His mind the attention, did not find any joy in the worldly greed or desire. His cup was ready and it emptied when he was tired and surrendered and that was the moment: like torrential rain, the “Shakti" filled His cup and made Him the “Shakta", the Enlightened One.

So, when you are talking of virtue, you are warning them to keep the cup intact and clean.

Sahaja Yoga is the proof of all the scriptures that are challenged. But I had to come to explain, to give realisation and to tell you the “know how".

In science first a hypothesis is propounded and then experimented. If we get the results, it becomes the scientific law. In the same way, so far, religions or ideas of God was a hypothesis but how this hypothesis becomes the law through Sahaja Yoga is to be seen.

Sahaja Yoga is more concerned with the Mahalakṣhmī Power, evolutionary power, which also integrates all the three powers at the point beyond the Brahmarandhra (top of the head). With this integration, the Sahaja Yoga discovery proves that the human being is a perfected instrument, a computer built in various period which, when put to the mains, starts giving information.

It proves that all religions are living flowers on the tree of life and they describe the Truth. All Incarnations are “true". All this can be proven at the time of Kundalini awakening.

It creates a human awareness, which can have a dialogue with the Unconscious.

Contents: 1976-10-21 Letter (Hindi), Diwali

My dear Sahaja Yogis, My dear children, Let this Diwali enlighten you with light of love. You yourself are the lamps which burn high and don't get pressed by the cover. They become much more powerful than the cover. It is their own asset. When they are hit upon, they are disturbed and extinguished.

Why are our lamps disturbed? You should think over it. Is there no transparent sheath around them? Have you forgotten your Mother's love and therefore you are so disturbed? As the glass protects the lamp, in the same way My love will protect you.

But the glass should be kept clean, how can I explain? Have I to say like Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa “Leave all religions and surrender to Me" or as Śhrī Jesus “I am the way, I am the door." I want to tell that I am that destination. But will you people accept it? Will this fact go to your hearts? Although what I say is distorted, the truth will always stand. You cannot change what It is. Only you will remain ignorant and backward. I am unhappy because of that.

Diwali is the day of real aspirations. Invoke the whole universe. Many lamps have to be lit and looked after. Add the oil of love, Kuṇḍalinī is the wick and awaken the Kuṇḍalinī of others with light of the spirit within you. This flame of Kuṇḍalinī will be kindled and one within you will become the torch. Torch is not extinguished. Then there will be spotless sheath of My love. It will neither have any limits nor any end. I will be watching you.

My love for you is showering as many many blessings.

, Yours always loving Mother NIRMALA

Contents: 1976-12-22 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Spirits of the dead, Sweet Home, Mumbai, India

Now the question is for a modern man whether to believe that there are spirits or not. Because it's a very unknown area and the unknown area, unless and until it is fully explored and found out, always creates a hallucination that it is something Divine.

So, we have to know even about spirits, who are they, how they act and how they work out. Now many will say that “We do not believe in spirits." Whether you believe it or not but they are there. Christ was not a liar, He took out spirits and put them in the pig and He is the man who clearly said that “Keep away from the spirits." The spirits are the people. We can be spirits tomorrow if we want to be. When we die, we do not die fully. Only the element of earth which has created us for appearance for which we can say the [UNCLEAR] is a gross form. That portion only dies, the rest of it remains and it goes into an area which we call as Preta-loka -‘land of spirits’ where it starts becoming smaller and smaller. Till it comes to the size of a foetus, or you can say a very small foetus. It waits there. But some of the people when they die, they are dissatisfied souls. In Sanskrit we call them as Apṛuktab, means in life they have been hankering after things too much and they couldn't get to their goals and they died.

For example, a mother dies during labour pains. Her child is born; she sees the child and dies. She is worried about looking after that child. A father dies suddenly in an accident. His children are left behind and he is worried about his children they're looked after. There are some people who are very ambitious in life, very, very ambitious and they die before fulfilling their ambitions. They also become spirits.

There are people who have been tortured and troubled and killed. They also die and they don't want to live in the Preta-loka but they want to trouble the people who have troubled them.

So, there are types and types of people who become spirits. We can divide them into two types. One type is the one which is very aggressive, ambitious, egoistical, oppressive person who dies and becomes a spirit. That area is known as the Supraconscious area.

So many Gurus and Sādhus who renounce the world and go to the Himālayas and break their necks and do all kinds of frantic things, which we call as Ravini Prāṇāyām, when they die without realisation they also are on the Supraconscious side and they remain on the right hand side of the human being.

On the left hand side, human being, because human being is a reflection or we can say is the same microcosm of the macrocosm, which is the Virāta, hence they are reflected on the right hand side of the Virāta and so we should say that they are available on our right hand side.

The other ones we can say that they belong to the category of the people who are suppressed, who are oppressed, who are tortured, who are troubled, who are debased, who are insulted. Such people when they die they want to take their revenge by their sly methods.

So they remain on the left hand side of the Virāta and thus are reflected in us also in the collective subconscious, which is on the left hand side.

Basically these are the two types of people who are becoming spirits. But there can be a mixture, there can be every type of a spirit. There could be good spirits also, good people who are trying to only help their families and things like that.

These spirits try to manifest. For example, the Supraconscious type spirits. There was a doctor in London who died. His name was Doctor Lang. When he died he had discovered lots of things and he wanted to continue with his practice in London and he was a surgeon, but he could not do it because he suddenly died.

So his spirit entered into a soldier who was living in, who was fighting in Vietnam and when the spirit entered into him and told him that “I'm such and such doctor, you must go and meet my son and my brother and tell them that I am within you." The soldier could not believe it but they said that “You come alone with me and I'll guide you to that place." And he took him to that hospital where this doctor was working. The hospital was closed, the surgery was closed, so he went and saw the son and he told him about the spirit entering into his body. The son could not believe it.

So he said that “I will tell you all the secrets of our life that we spent together and which no one knows." And when he started telling him all these things he was amazed, he said, “All right, I'll open the center." So they opened a very big news organization known as Late Doctor Lang's International Curative Center in London. Now this organization started working long time back, about I think eleven or twelve years back. Actually, I came to know about it because somebody who was suffering from the treatment of one of these people, she came to Me and she told Me all about this and she gave Me a pamphlet in which they had written all this story about Doctor Lang. And what they used to say that “You should write to us about your illness whatever it is and when you write to us then we will organize it in such a way that at such a time, at such a point, at such a place, whichever place you suggest, something will happen to you, you'll start shaking in the body and you'll get those spirits into you and you'll be cured." It happened with this lady, the one who came to Me first when she told Me. Then afterwards that I met many of them, even in England I've met some of them.

So, when she came to Me you see what was her trouble was she said that “I had some troubles." I think she had some minor trouble which was cured but was very inconvenient thing for her, sort of a, it was a nonsense, the trouble was. She was definitely cured with that. But after say five, six years or so, she started, you see, shaking her body completely, her nervousness was so much that she couldn't see Me. When she sat before Me she started shaking, her hands started shaking, body started shaking as if a lunatic would do that before Me.

So I told her, “See this gentleman has come from lunatic asylum and he is behaving the same way as you are behaving." She says, “I know because I have a pain here I have a problem here and I know there's something wrong. I am not thinking properly and I cannot remember anything. I am a lost soul and I know what has happened to me. Now what can You do about it?" Of course I then cured her no doubt, because in Sahaja Yoga you can.

Through vibrations of love, this Divine Love which I told you yesterday. You can give a bondage to those spirits. By that bondage, you can make that bondage pass into the Preta-loka and they disappear.

But some of these are controlled by some of these ambitious, so-called Gurus. Now these so-called Gurus that you know of, so-called, they call themselves Gurus, what do they do? They go, you see, if they find some evil genius dies somewhere they know he is evil genius then they follow his body they go to Śhmaśhān –'cemetery' they try to collect part of his body and they keep it with them.

Now the spirit till thirteen days moves around the body and it starts watching what is the body doing.

So, when the spirit, you see, sees that his own part of his body which is to form again his own body later on is missing through these people and they will be doing something so it appears before them and they know how to talk. It's easy to talk. Even ordinary spirit person if he comes here, I can make them talk and they talk quite a lot all kinds of nonsense and they also tell about these people what these people have been doing.

So that spirit then, you know, is captured by these people and they start using these Supraconscious spirits. These people being crooked and very intelligent people, they start acting into their hands. Now these spirits are given some names, like they can call them Rām, Kṛiṣhṇa.

Some people say Aim, some say Hrīm, some say Klīm, all Goddesses names, you see, they can even give the name of Jesus or something like that.

So, what happens that when these, when you go to these Gurus then when you ask them they say, "we'll give you a mantra." Now you think that the mantra giving is a very great thing. You see so many people will come and tell Me in Marathi also Maharashtrians are special ones for this that [Marathi].

After all a mantra can be given [Marathi]. Why do you need a Guru to tell you this? Use your brains.

Now they go on saying Rām and this fellow is already connected them with the Rām whom they have appointed to get into this fellow.

So, the Rām enters into the psyche of this person. Mostly it is through this Āgñyā Chakra, which I told you yesterday I described the whole Kuṇḍalinī and its places and everything.

So it enters through this into the psyche. When it enters into the psyche on the right hand side, you see on the ego side it enters in and it starts making the man very egoistical. He'll beat his wife, he'll beat his children, he'll rage and try to show off.

Sometimes such a man might get a promotion and he'll become so dynamic, he will, people will say, “Oh, what has happened to him?" And sort of his attention which was spent in doing other things will be diverted to very ambitious style of work. Now becomes very ambitious, but he has no Dharma in him, no love in him, no compassion in him but he becomes a very so-called successful man for a short time.

But after, I've met many like them in Delhi also, those who have been initiated like that by paying quite a lot of money to these Swāmīs and Sādhus and before Me they were just rattling like this and they said, “Mātājī, this is such a lot we are rattling before You, but even if we take a, even if we burn an Agarbatti in the name of God Virāt we can't go near a temple, we can't go near a church. If we see anything of God we started rattling like this." And they all have resigned from their jobs and are settled down as useless people. This has happened to them within five, six years time. Young people, very young.

In Singapore I met one fellow. No, not, Kolhapur. You would not believe he is only twenty-two years of age and he is like that. And this is the Supraconscious style, they call it transcendental thought. This is the trance they use.

So just by giving you one name. You must also see, after all you cannot call like that your God the Almighty by just a name. How can you call Him? Is He your servant? `Rāma, come along.' Can you call it like this? `You do my job, You look after my father, You look after my mother.' Who are you? Are you entitled to call like that? And can you just tell Him that `You have to, You better look after everything that I tell You otherwise I'll give You up. I have no faith in You.' The man in his ego starts thinking these nonsensical things. You have to surrender to God. You have to become one with Him. You have to be authorized. Then only you can ask His help.

The another Supraconscious people are another type of, they work out in this way that you see these people are the Haṭha yogis, so-called Haṭha yogis because I call them neo Haṭha yogis. They are not real yogis. The real Haṭha yogis never stay with the human, normal, what you call them, citizens of a city or a village. They stay in the forest with Gurus. In the Patanjali Shāstra who is the original writer of Haṭha Yoga, he has told there are six things a Haṭha yogi has to do. He has to stay in the jungle with a Guru who is a realised Soul and he does not have to lead a married life, he has to be a Brahmacharia, a celibate person. And he has to do six things together in that: meditation is there, Prāṇāyām, pratyahar, yama, niyam. All these things means he has to regulate his life; he has to lead a very chaste and holy life. It is not meant for people who are householders. Here now for fashion sake the Haṭha Yoga has come to all the people and all Haṭha yogis such get heart trouble. Yes, they do. I've met a doctor here, you might be knowing him also very well, he was a well known doctor and he was preaching Haṭha Yoga and he had a heart trouble and he was a heart specialist. And when I met him I told him “Doctor, be careful about your heart. You are catching on your heart." He said, “How can that be? I've taken my cardiograph." I said “Doctor, be careful and don't do this Haṭha Yoga." Because it is an extreme type of a Sādhanā, which is to be done with a person who can balance you, where no other energy is exhausted but only thing it is just done for the Sādhanā and your Guru works it out. It is done by very few people. But nowadays everybody wants to become a cinema actor and a cinema actress. Every girl wants [UNCLEAR] flirty shapes that are described in the beauty contest. I tell you these proportions are absolutely Satanic. I've read those proportions. They are not the proportions of Goddesses or of Gods. These proportions that are described in these beauty contest things are absolutely of dirty women. These proportions if they exist in any human being, only bad vibrations will come out. That's why you must have seen once they win that test than you have seen how they become funny.

These are all human conceptions but all the human conceptions are such foolish things that they do not know that they are playing into the Satanic forces. The idea about cinema actresses you see all [UNCLEAR]. Even in London even ninety-year-old women want to be actresses. Are they mad? They don't want to be mothers. And then they will do all kinds of dieting, torture their husbands and they will, I don't know what they are up to.

You have to be good wives, decent wives. You have to be good mothers first of all. You are married women. You are not actresses. And the husbands also want to be actors or what I don't know that they are at Haṭha Yoga. They want to make their body very perfect in those dimensions that they are described.

Who said that these dimensions are the best? I mean these days when you see men they don't look like men and women don't look like women. Women have started looking like men or like horses and men have started looking like women. It's a vicious system. We have to be women in the full way and men have to be men in the full way.

You have heard about Shivaji Rana Pratap. This is their personality. You see all the descriptions of these personalities going to drop down like anything when you see these actors and actresses, teeny-leeny people, somebody slaps them once on the face, the husband fall down dead and the wife she is running away with another men. All sorts of things going wrong in this ghore Kali Yuga.

This is only you are playing into the Satanic forces. Nothing else. But these, I tell you, these supraconscious people are teaching you all this. Then there are people of extreme nature, women specially, who are pativrata, you see, they are also nonsensical people because you see they think they love their husband, the whole God must fall after them. Of course Pativrata is a powerful personality. But she has to be a realised person, otherwise she is not realised and she is all the time making the husband, you see, a noose around his head, all the time and using God for it. It's absurd! She must allow all the freedom to the man. To man to understand the complete play of life. These women also when they die, you see, they are afraid that their husband might marry somebody else or whatever it is. They sit on the husband's head only.

Then the mothers, some of the mothers who are so much involved and selfish and self-centred, only love their own children. They said, “He is the only son I have. She is the only daughter I have." So what is that mean? Why are you so misidentified? How many times you have been born in this world? How many children you have had before? Why are you so much involved into it, so much misidentified? That does not mean that you kick your children. Either they will kick their children or they will be absolutely downtrodden by the children. This is the extreme type of temperament. Normal people who love their children, love other children also, live in a normal way, normal, pious married life, don't run after other men and don't run after other women.

These normal people when they die they go to Preta-loka and then they are born again as good people and they, if they are born today they get Realisation. There are types and types and types. I don't want to waste your time and My time describing these horrid people. But on the other side on the left hand side, the debased and the sly and the horrid and the murderers and all of there are, these are another type.

What these people try to do? You see sometimes they will do some sly thing. But when these people enter, these debased ones when they enter into your psyche you become lunatic or mad or something happens.

They teach you all kinds of things. They'll teach you how to drink, to take to drugs, to do this thing, or if you are taking drinks they'll enter into you, because they are drunkards so they want to drink more, so they will drink.

You'll be amazed, you won't believe that in Cuba I met a lady. She was a very dainty darling and she told Me that she can take one whisky neat, one full bottle. I mean I can't even look at that bottle the way she showed Me. I said, “How do you manage that?" And her husband said, “Really. It is true.

Sometimes she does it." So she says, “You know, there's a very big, huge negro who enters into my body and then he drinks, not I." She sees him coming inside this body.

So, these type of people are the other side on the left hand side. Now, there are mixture types.

Some of them, you see they are the people who believe in God and they haven't found God and they have worked very hard sort of people.

So, they try to give you little sometimes assurances.

For example, yesterday one lady came and she told Me, “Mātājī, suddenly I found that there were some Chaṇas –‘chickpeas’ lying in my house. I thought they must have been given by Mātājī.

So, I ate them and I got cured." I said, “Am I mad to give you Chaṇas and diamonds and this and that?" And there are some Gurus also who are working out the so-called materialisation. This is nothing, you see sometimes you find in Bombay [Mumbai], now you find that suddenly your something is missing. Most of the missing things you'll find there and these are the things they passing out to people like this, come alone, in Yaduve. It is, it is a spirit, you see, transparent. It is not opaque thing, you cannot see it.

So it comes round, picks up anything it feels like and it goes away and it just disappears and it goes and it can also give it to some people there. And this is all the Vidyā of spirit. Now, how are you to know that this is spirit and not God? Only ask one question: `What is the interest of God in giving us all these nonsensical things which we are going to leave here only?' When we die all our diamonds, all our ornaments, everything is going to lie down here.

So why should God give us these things? Is He mad? You see, if He loves you, He will give you the highest, the eternal, the greatest, the one that is promised in all the scriptures. And you read all the scriptures. Do you find this kind of a nonsense anywhere that Kṛiṣhṇa came and He brought out some rings and gave it to somebody? He did not. I mean, it can be done by Him. If He wants to do it, He can do anything. But He is not going to steal things.

So this kind of supraconscious spirits and [UNCLEAR].

But it's nothing important for us because one exists in the future and another exists in the past.

We have to be conscious of the present, present moment and this is what Sahaja Yoga is. That now at this moment, you must understand the dynamics of this moment, the spontaneity of this moment.

So, now people will say, `Then that means, Mātājī, You don't believe in planning.' I do not. I do not believe in human planning at all. Because when human beings plan you know what is the mess it creates.

Everywhere in the whole world wherever there have been planners, what has been? I'll give you a simple example. You plan a wedding A to Zed. Now, you'll find suddenly when the bridegroom has to come from this place to that place something will happen and he won't move. He may have to go to the bathroom, maybe he wants to meet his mother, he will be emotionally tied up, maybe his mother will come there and she might start crying. If you want to make it a living marriage, then you should not plan in such detail.

You must allow the spontaneity, the blessing of God to work out.

In London, I'll give you one example, you see I do not plan out much and I don't bother so much about this planning out. Today we wanted to come here very early. These people said we must reach there at six thirty. I was just laughing. I knew when I had to reach I would do it because whatever they may try we cannot [UNCLEAR]. And I just could not.

So why then? Because I know that we were not going to reach there. Of course, I mean today supposing I have to go tomorrow, so I have to just buy the ticket for tomorrow. It's all right. There's no planning. That is to be done today. But A to Zed you start planning everything and suddenly you find this is missing and the whole thing goes wrong.

Let the spontaneity, at least in human relationships, because you are such planners you cannot do everything else. But human relationships, at least, try the spontaneity to work out. Now in the Western countries people are understanding the value of spontaneity, but they are stupid people, they don't know how to harness it. I cannot even tell you to what stupidity they go. If I tell you, you won't believe. There are small children, otherwise I would have told you. It is impossible to believe how stupid they are that they believe in the spontaneity and the kind of spontaneity they have got.

All developing countries are now developing to be the developed country but we must also see in what [UNCLEAR] these developing countries are. They are stupid people. They are all right as far as their work is concerned, they are all in time, their things are all clean, spick and span. But if you see their families are broken out. Stupidity to such a limit. A 90 year old woman having a love affair with a 19 year old man and on the front page their love letters are posted so everyone should read it. That is [UNCLEAR] and all the men thinking this great Romeo and Juliet going on. Stupid, absolutely stupid.

When you talk to them you'll find them such stupid people. They don't know where to look and what to say. You have no idea to what extent they have gone in stupidity. Of course they have Cadillacs and they have big cars and they have big houses. But sometimes I feel it is donkeys living inside these beautiful houses. In certain matters they are absolutely stupid. In certain matters, absolutely we are crooked. They are innocent simpletons but they are stupid people. We are crooked. Now that point I'll touch later on.

So, let us see now that how these two types of spirits enter into us, into our psyche. They can enter through this, they turn this. They turn this portion and put inside. Now what happens with that, with the spirit? There are some like Rāvaṇ was there who could only with speech he could make people naked absolutely. We have got one here exactly the same type, if he goes on giving speech people start taking out their clothes. Now just think how stupid we are not to think, `By taking out clothes are we going to go near God?' I mean what sort of a logic is this? When we take our bath, we are all naked, are we nearer God by that? All sorts of absurd things are being taught and people are accepting. Thousands of people.

In your great Bombay [Mumbai] there are so many intellectuals are there doing such silly, stupid things.

Then you'll find lots and lots of people just organize. For what? “Oh, there is some gentleman has come, you know, he speaks very well and this thing and he is very good at this and he is a very great speaker." “What does he speak?" “He speaks about how Rādhā and Kṛiṣhṇa loved each other." Very good idea. You can have free cabaret and you can have free discourses on all the nonsensical things debasing God Himself. All these things are so interesting to human being. Are they really seeking the truth? Are they really asking the reality?

They will never read Shañkarāchārya. Yesterday I told you.

They will never go and find out what Mārkandeya had to say, they have time to find out what Jesus has to say about it. They do not know what Mohamed Sahib has said. Nanak Sahib said so many things, Kabīra has said so many things. They are all fools. These wise have come from somewhere to teach us about all these Satanic methods that they want to employ on us.

So be aware. Be careful. This is the ghore Kali Yuga. All these Satanic forces are acting. Kṛiṣhṇa has said that “Whenever there is need, to re-establish the Dharma and to kill the Dishtas and to save the Sadhus, I am born again and again." [UNCLEAR] find who is the Sadhu and who is the bhoot? It is such a mixture! Satan has entered into all the Sadhus and Sadhus are absolutely in a conflict.

This what Kali Yuga is. It's a very delicate matter.

So in our own being, as I said it, on the right hand side is the supraconscious area and on the left hand side is what we call as the collective subconscious.

Nearer your own being is the subconscious on the left hand side which we call as the psyche part where we store everything that is dead of this life and past life. And on the right hand side is the preconscious mind which we call as Mana by which we, I don't know, Mana is also very confusing thing, but English word is better, is preconscious mind, with which we plan and with which we think and this body is maintained through our right hand side power. In the center we have got the evolutionary power. By this power only we have evolved, which is the conscious mind. This moment, now, at this moment. We can say that the past and future cross like that and in the center is the point.

We can say like this that the past, the future and the past they pass like this in the center and they pass out.

So the thoughts from the past come to the future and the future to the past, but they cannot stay at conscious. For example I say, `Now. At this moment. Stop it!' You cannot. Why? Because of thoughts. The thought rises, goes up and falls down and disappears like that. Again another though rises and again falls on this side. Now you can see the rising of the thoughts, but you cannot see the falling of the thoughts. In between the two thoughts there is a little gap known as Vilamba in the Sanskrit language. That is the point of conscious mind. The thoughts can come from the supraconscious side or can come from the collective subconscious, can even come from the preconscious or can even come from the subconscious. That's how the thoughts waves are.

But if you have to jump into the conscious mind itself, now at this moment, you cannot do it because at that point there is no thought. I am not telling you all these things of My own because this has been already discovered by many psychologists. That one has to jump into thoughtless awareness, not into the so-called trance but into awareness which you are completely aware but inside there is silence. Now this silence has been described by all the scriptures. And while jumping into that even the psychologists so many of them said that you jump into an unconscious mind which, unconscious which is not going to [UNCLEAR], achetanma, which is collectively conscious, which is universal.

For example, we can say Jung, one of the greatest psychologists and I respect him very much. He has done a lot of work on the unconscious and he has taken many years to experiment on thousands and thousands of people to find out how the unconscious works through dreams and symbols. Now he has found out many symbols appear in the dreams. For example a triangle like this appears in a dream of one man, pointing downward. Invariably in all the cases wherever such a dream has appeared, such a man has murdered someone. Or if the triangle is just upside down, means the top is the pointer then invariably all these people who saw this in the dream and reported to him, they were murdered. There are many such things he has found out. He also found out another thing about the Universal Unconscious, that it always gives you a balance, by different experiments. Now the medical science people have found out many things which they cannot answer. I told you already that they have found out that acetylene and adrenalin which act through the parasympathetic and the sympathetic nervous system, they act very funnily in the body and they don't know how they are controlled by whom and why they act. They say the mode of action of these two chemicals is not known. That means one thing is sure, that they cannot explain.

So, we have to think why, why a chemical should react separate, different? Because there is a deity sitting within.

There is a deity, a living deity that handles the chemicals in the way that it likes.

The other day also I asked you a question, a medical person if you go and ask him, `If everything, every foreign body is thrown out the body how is a foetus is accepted, not only that but nurtured in the body?' So we should know that there is a unconscious Universal Being which is being accepted by many people in the West. And that's why they say, `Let the unconscious look after, let us have the spontaneity, let it work out spontaneously.' But they cannot, they are so complicated now.

They have such an analytical mind that they will go on analyzing and they cannot allow the spontaneity to work out. They are trying all their methods to work out the spontaneity, but somebody has to give an impetuous, has to give that triggering as you can say. Because through rationality, if you want to jump into unconscious, you cannot. Rationality is a very limited stuff. If you want to go to something unlimited and universal, which is collectively conscious, then you have to learn to be unlimited yourself. Now how will you do it? Somebody has to trigger it. You see a light, a Dīp –'lamp', which is not yet lighted, it is a limited stuff. But when you light it, it becomes unlimited. But for lightning this light you have to take another light near it. When you bring another light near it, it doesn't do, it's just like a catalytic agent. It just touches this and it starts burning. It gets unlimited light. The light becomes unlimited with a limited Dīp. In the same way somebody has to trigger this.

I give a very, I should say, a contemporary or a very modern example which is very simple for people to understand. You see in our houses we have seen all these Bombay [Mumbai] gas lights, we have seen there's a little flicker going on. Nobody can see that. In the same way in the heart there is the Spirit, the reflection of God that is there and the flow of the gas is stopped, is kept ready. In the same way in you the Kuṇḍalinī is kept there and somebody has to open that and when that is just opened, the Kuṇḍalinī rises and meets that flicker and the light spreads and this is what happens when the light spreads that the vibrations start coming.

That you jump into your unconscious awareness, means you become a different personality. As I told you, you are a computer but you are not a working computer. Once you are connected with the mains, you become a computer which is giving information. Suddenly, you start feeling on your fingers all these things. You start feeling what is, what are the centers on the other person, what are not working. And these centers as I explained to you yesterday have all the physical, mental and emotional sides which they control and you can make out what's wrong with the person. You can cure them also by giving them these vibrations.

So, through this computer now you get information, you give information and also you can correct, you can execute also information. Now our computers that we have they cannot execute.

[Remarks in Hindi.] Please, you see, lecturing about Divine has been done by many. I'm talking about actualisation, you become that. Now always people say that “how can it be possible Mātājī?" I mean I cannot understand this question. Supposing I say there is a diamond lying here. Will you ask such a question? You'll immediately come pick it up. I mean, you don't have to lose anything by this. You're not paying Me anything. It is all free. By doing this you have seen here people have been cured. But once you get it, fifty percent of you will feel very happy, go home and say, `All right, forget it.' One or two will criticise [UNCLEAR]. “We didn't feel anything” as if they are very great people, if they haven't got it then there's something wrong with them. They should get it. And fifty percent will think about it, will come again and again, work it out.

There are now in Bombay [Mumbai] some of them very highly placed Sahaja Yogis who are curing people. They have cured cancer. They are very ordinary people. We have one here a teacher in the school and he has cured people who are suffering from elephantiasis, from cancer. So many things he has cured.

He is a very, very ordinary person in life. There are so many like that who are doing it. You can also do it. But you are great Babus. You are great people. You have no time for all this. When I'll be no more then you will be beating your heads, I know. “I wish we had done something about it." Some of them have definitely learned the art, like I said that “There's a fan here. If I open the fan you'll get Cool Breeze." They say, “All right. Please open the fan immediately, we want to have it." Normally people would say that. Then I would say, “All right, I'll open the fan, cool down, now you feel nice?" “Yes." Then I will tell you how is this fan is made, how the electricity is produced, all the engineering I'll tell you. But I have also told you a little bit about engineering.

All people want to listen to lectures. Aren't you fed up of them? Why don't you have it? This is the blessing of God. You have to jump into the Kingdom of God and you just see how you're protected, how you are looked after. There are seven Chakras and all the seven blessings are bestowed upon you with a stroke. We have here people who have been nothing in life, after Sahaja Yoga, even this one I will give you as a, as a little chocolate over the castor oil, like they say, that they're also very much improved materially because it is Lakṣhmī who is sitting in the Nābhī. This may appeal to many in India, that Lakṣhmī is cured and you improve even materially. People get promotions, they become this, that. One example is our Doctor Nagensi. He got his Realisation and see where he has got. Many people like that.

He is a Sahaja Yogi.

So many people are Sahaja Yogis who have achieved things in life, but they are busy people, some of them are. But if you could devote a little time for Sādhanā -'practice' and if you come here and see for yourself and give more, then you get more.

Because why should God give you all the time vibrations when you are not going to use them? There's a gentleman is sitting here, his son was suffering from too much of drugs. He was a young schoolboy and he was being cheated and poor boy has been tried. He has spent twenty thousand rupees just curing him.

People were just giving him drugs to sleep and drugs to sleep, only tranquilizers. And in one day he's cured and today he's sleeping nicely without anything. He had brought and showed Me a prescription which he says...

[Conversation in Hindi.] Four hundred rupees poor man has to shell out. And for what? Not for curing! To make that boy sleep off. I mean that's also a kind of a drug and that boy is so normal today. But there will be some Satanic here who can create problem for you.

So, you decide for yourself.

[Shri Mataji speaks to someone in the audience in Hindi.] How one gets it, isn't it? All right. Sit down. That's what I've been saying that it just works out. It is a spontaneous happening. And now we'll see one thing, that how does a little seed gets into a tree? It's a living process. We'll just say it just works out. It is already there, that's why it is Sahaja. `Saha' means with, `ja' means born. It is absolutely spontaneous.

I'm enlightened person, is a fact and when I touch you, you get enlightenment yourself. It's a very, very simple thing. All right? Hmm, another question? It was a nice one, because we always say [UNCLEAR].

[Somebody from the audience asks a question.] No, no, is wrong. That has always been banned. You see in the olden days also we had people who were misled. That is the history. There are some people, now for example, if we had Hitler that doesn't mean he's a Pramān –'authority'. If we had somebody like, a Satanic force like Saravan, it doesn't mean that he was Pramān.

For us Pramān is whatever achieves the maximum.

So the Pramān always remains the best. You see all such people, who say that it gives [UNCLEAR] are the people who are Tāntrikas. And they were all thrown out. These are all known as Shubratas. But some of the people who have written books on these things are not themselves realised, have read this book, that book and then they said that their Siddhis are also there. Siddhis are nothing but you move on to your supraconscious side and when you move on to your supraconscious side they'll spread something to you and then what happens you start producing something from your hand.

We had one lady in our Sahaja Yoga, she came to us and you know when I went to America she started showing all kinds of [Hindi]. She started telling people that “Where is your money's lost, you can find there." Like that. And she became very popular and she used to get one thousand people everyday coming to her and ultimately she started telling them even the number of the hall.

So, the supraconscious things can be like that. ESP. You become an extrasensory perception, [UNCLEAR]. And all that is nothing but another spirit.

But human beings, see, you'll be surprised from America two great scientists came just to see Me. For what? They said, “You must teach us how to fly in the air. We want to leave our body." I said, “Are you not flying already on our heads, now what do you want to do?" They said, “No, we want to leave our bodies and fly in the air." So I said, “But if I tell you that this is done through the spirits, will you do it?" “Yes, still we want to do." I said, “Why?" They said, “Because Russians are doing the same so we want to do." [UNCLEAR] and they were not, you see. Then I asked them, “Who told you?" They said `Patanjali." You know Patanjali? He is a newspaper man and Patanjali, I said, “Look at this fellow he came for treatment because he used to get this kind of experience that used to leave his body and came to Me for getting cured and he is telling him, `You go to Mātājī and She'll make you that.' " And these fools, you know, they would not listen to Me.

So, the knowledge that we have we do not have a proper method of discrimination. We do not know what is absolute knowledge, which is not. For that you must have vibrations. With vibrations now you can ask all those who has realised you can ask, `Is there God or not?' See the answer you'll get. [Hindi.] All answers come and you can record it on your hands even to a small thing. You must hear Pharke today he was telling Me about this, that when he, some gentleman was somewhere and he said that “You just find his vibrations." So he put his hands there and he said, “Let me see the vibrations” and nothing was coming and nothing you could feel and nothing of the Chakras.

So he then said, “He cannot be there because I cannot feel anything." So, this man thought of him, `Oh, yes, yes. He must be on the aeroplane, he's not.' To such an extent it goes! In London there's one gentleman he said, “Mātājī, can I feel somebody's vibrations?" I said, “You can." “Can I feel my father's?" I said, “Yes, all right now put your hands and ask a question." Immediately his Viśhuddhi Chakra started burning. He said, “Mother this is burning." I said, “You telephone to him just right now. Ask how he is." His mother said, “He cannot talk to you, his throat is very bad." And the father was very far away. He cannot talk to him, his throat is very bad. His Viśhuddhi Chakra is catching.

All the information you get on your hand on your vibrations and then when you'll see all these books you'll be surprised they'll be burning your hands. [Hindi.] You'll be amazed that how you find out who is a real Guru and non real Guru. It's so correct with this.

We have got here a case of one lady. She told Me that somebody came to see her and I mean somebody came to stay with her, her own brother or someone very near. And she started burning all the time, this and that.

So she said, “Do you go to Satya Sāi Baba?" He said, “No." She said, “No, but how can it be? I am getting terrible burning as I get it from a disciple of Sāi Baba? You must have been somewhere. You must have." He said “I have never been there." So she said “Really?" And she was searching him out and nothing was there.

So she had to open his box and in the box there was Satya Sāi Baba's photograph.

Our Prabhakar is here, you can ask him, why his daughter-in-law was a big problem in London. And they didn't know how to locate why she was behaving like this and she was giving them burning like that. They opened her purse one day and in the purse was that photograph. The day they throw it away everything is all right, otherwise it was going to be a divorce for nothing at all, the poor lady was vomiting, doing all kinds of things.

There are so many cases like that. I mean the proof is there. [Hindi.] He called us there to some place where there was a center of Sat Sāi Baba. He said, “Mātājī, You must save those people." When I sat there so many children just fainted. Then they told us that “These children have been fainting like this.

You have to do something about it." And so many children are lost. They just go away. God knows how they are lost.

I told him, “Baba, his center, let him look after now. I am fed up." What am I to do now? I must first of all to create some doctors, some realised Souls. When I have some more people to work it out, we can work it out. But one thing is there, after getting Realisation you must come and learn it and master it. You can, I tell you each and everything of Kuṇḍalinī you can just master. It's very easy. It is so easy and it helps you, you know. This is the Power of Love, you must know how it is worked out. We know all the power of hatred only.

Supposing somebody is very unkind to you. I'll tell you about My husband's secretary. She got her Realisation and she said, “I have got neighbours, some three, four young boys and they are horrible hippies.

They are making noise and they troublesome and they called me old hen. What I have to do if they just have fun of me?" I said, “All right, what will you do?" She said, “I'm really fed up, I am going to give up the house." I said, “You just don't do like that. You just go and put a bandhan on their house, every day thrice, like this and just think of Me with love." Now she is says that it is quiet like a church yard. “They are very quiet and they very kind. They open the lift for me. When I go, they help me." [Hindi.] [Question from the audience in Hindi.] You are the instrument, you are the medicine, you are the curer, you are the doctor, you are the computer, you are everything. But you should become your Self. You have to become your Self.

[Talk continues in Hindi.]

Contents: 1977-0000 Quote on Ego and Superego, from Nirmalā Yoga, Issue 5 (Sep-Oct 1981), p.4

Man is still in a transitional stage. Little more he has to jump and he becomes that, for which he has been created. Human brain and heart are the most evolved things. Human heart also has to be correlated with the brain. From our stomachs fat rises into our brains passing through all the centers, evolving to be cells of the brain. The fat, to become brain, has to evolve, i.e., to achieve certain amount of charges of human awareness. Human brain has a dimension, which animals do not have, a mental or emotional dimension, with which we understand love. We understand how to receive and reciprocate. We understand beauty and poetry; and we also understand how to create these. Brain is triangular and prismatic in nature.

When the rays of God's Divine Power flow in, they get refracted into different angles and by the principle of parallelogram of forces, a part of the power escapes to left side and a part to right side. Therefore Man can think of past and future but animals cannot. In the transitional period it is necessary to protect the brain carefully and make it independent of God's will and make it used by itself so that it develops another dimension of wisdom. For this purpose the system of ego and superego has been created which is the by product or reaction, of human activities. Every activity has a reaction. If you say no to something, the reaction is ego If you accept something the reaction is super ego. Ego and superego, completely cover fontanelle bone and separate you from All-pervading Power giving you freedom, to act as you like, to use your brain as you like to learn; because if the evolution has to go any further you have to try.

So, whatever God has done is for your good. He has not given you ego and superego to get spoiled and finished. You must have ego and do not have to fight with it. Your ego should become one with that of God. Once you are awakened once your light has come, then you can do it.

Contents: 1977-0000*, Public Program, The Spirit

The most precious thing that we have, within ourselves... the preciousness of your Spirit... is immeasurable and that's why it is called, as a thing of eternal value. Because it is infinite. You cannot measure.

Now, God, The Almighty, we say, is, Sat-chit-ānand. Sat means, the truth. The truth we understand, in human terminology, is relative... but the sat I am telling you, is the absolute, from where all the relations start. Example I will tell you how to understand. This Earth has got, oceans and rivers and all kinds, of, waters you can say. But, Earth is enveloping all of them. If, the Mother Earth was not there, there could not have been, any of these existing.

So, we can say, that Mother Earth is the support, of all the things that exist on Her. She is enveloping us... in the atoms She exists... in the big mountains She exists, because the elements are part, of that Earth. In... in the same way, God Almighty, the Sat part of Him, the truth, is the support, of all the things, that are created, or not created. Another example you try to understand. How, the Sat, is the Purusha –'Supreme Spirit', is the God, who does not, take actual part in the creation itself, but, is a catalyst. The example can be like this, that I am doing all the work, I am creating everything, but I have a light in my hand. Without the light, I cannot do anything. Light is the support of my work. But, the light, does not, in any way, do anything about what I do. In the same way, God Almighty, is just a witness, like a light.

But His another quality is His chit, is His attention. When it is excited, in Sanskrit, there is a very good word, Sphuraṇ, is pulsates, when it pulsates, His attention when it pulsates, then through His attention, He starts creating. And he has third quality, which we call as Ānand. Ānand is the feeling, of joy that He gets by His perception, by His creation. The joy that He gets. All these three things, when they are at a zero point, where they meet, then, they become, the principle of Brahma, where these things are one.

Where there is complete silence. Nothing is created, nothing is manifested, but the joy is one with the attention, because, attention has reached and merged into joy and joy has become one with the truth.

This, combination, of three qualities, separate and create three types of phenomena. The Ānand, the joy, in God, moves with His creation and with the truth. When the joy starts moving with the creation, the creation starts moving down from first, the truth stage, to Asat [untruth]. From sat to untruth, to Māyā, to illusion. And that time, the creation starts, on the right hand side. The creative forces start working out and when it starts working out, the joy in it, which is on the left hand side, is the emotional side of God, also starts becoming, grosser and grosser. The creation starts becoming grosser and the joy in it also starts becoming grosser and the Sat, the light of God, also starts becoming grosser and grosser and grosser, till they reach a stage, where there is, we can say, a complete darkness of Tamo Guṇa, the complete creation of the creativity and the complete sleeping of the joy limit, exists.

Clearer? To understand now Mahākālī, Mahālakṣhmī, Mahāsaraswatī. That's why Christ said, I am the light.

Because, He represents the Sat, the light of God and light of God becomes absolutely, gross, dormant, dead, when it reaches the seventh stage of creation. All these things go deeper and deeper, becoming grosser and grosser. That's one part of the parabolic. Now, the another part of the parabolic starts when you are ascending back to God Almighty. That grossness, now, gradually starts becoming higher and higher, subtler and subtler, and, finer and finer. In that refinement, you find, ultimately the light, works for the evolutionary process. Gradually, the grosser parts start becoming enlightened. You find the lower animal is not that much enlightened as the higher animal is. Gradually, even the joy starts becoming subtler and we can call it, beautiful. Human joys are much more beautiful than that of animals.

So, the joys also start changing their manifestation, in the sense you start seeing more and more and wider range of joy comes into [UNCLEAR]. For example, to a dog, beauty has no meaning, decency has no meaning.

So, at such stage when you reach, when you are a human being, to that extent, you develop, you are sat, which is awareness, to that extent, you also develop, your joy and to that extent, you also develop your creative action. Now you see, how the creativity of God, passes into the hand of man... when it turns down. How the joy of God passes into the hand of man and how His light comes into the heart of man, as Spirit. It's beautiful. And at that stage, when you have become a human being, people say, human beings have a soul. Not that others do not have, but the light starts burning in a human being only. Because of that light, we talk of religion, we talk of God and we talk of eternal things.

But, it's a very precarious stage, that is to be human beings. Because at this stage, you have to jump only a little bit that side, while you start jumping this side and that side, because this jumping is not possible, unless and until, the awareness reaches that stage, where, you become independent, and, in that independence, you find your own glory. This is the position, because your glory cannot be yours, unless and until you are independent. As long as you are slaves, or under bondage, of something that is gross, how can you enjoy, that eternal joy, that is within you.

So, it is for you to expose yourself more to that joy, by opening out yourself more and more, getting subtler and cleaner, so that you feel that joy. Once, you know this point, that, after getting Self-realisation, unless and until these three things, start merging together, you cannot feel, that you have established yourself. The joy within you, must be felt through your awareness, otherwise you cannot feel it. Supposing you had no eyes, how can you see. If you were not aware to see Me, how will you feel Me. If you are not aware to feel Me, how can you see Me. If you are not aware to hear Me, how can you understand

Me. And once that awareness comes to you, then only, the joy awakens within you, because, only through these subtle feelings of awareness, you are going to absorb the joy. As just now you felt it when you said “oh, what a beautiful thing it is” you felt very happy. You are feeling the joy of this creation that is there. And man is the summit of creation.

But, only the crowning part is such a little thing, really little it is, it's a very little distance, it crosses in no time, but only thing is, that these three things, have to be combined. And that's why I find, that, even you get realisation, you do not feel the silence, because you have not become the light. You do not feel the joy, because you have not become the Ānand, that is the left side of yourself. In everything there is joy. As human beings you start seeing joys, in the patterns. You see a tree bark, you open it out, you see the patterns, you call it the [UNCLEAR words], you call it the... the roughness and the smoothness and the harmony of it, you start seeing in the matter, the joy of its creation. But now, after realisation, you start feeling the joy of creation, this summit of creation, is the human being. And that's why for a Sahaja Yogi, he must realise, that if he tries to be, say, friendly, or interested, or involved in a person, who is at a lower level, he can never get joy from that person. Only thing what he can do is to raise that person higher to his own level and make him also feel the same joy as you are getting. Supposing a man, who is an artist, marries a blind girl, what's the use. She cannot enjoy the art created by this man. In the same way, if you, are interested in say, your family people, in your relations, in your friends, the first thing and the highest and the greatest thing that you can give, is to give them Self-realisation, means, the joy of your Spirit. Expose them to the joy of their Spirit, which is the most precious [UNCLEAR].

And this is the reason why people flicker and they... they fiddle and they feel uneasy. They... they lose their joy, very easily, at a small thing, that has passed away, finished. It's like the ocean before you and I am there and I want you all to come into it and enjoy. It is all for you, the whole thing was created, for your enjoyment.

You have to become subtler and subtler. You are wasting lot of time here, on very gross things, you have noticed it.

[Sahaja Yogis flew on a plane round Mount Everest. On return the next day, in the sky there were clouds that looked like ripples in a pool in which a stone was thrown. This was pointed out to Shri Mataji.] Oh, yes. That's because you have been to pay your respects to the mountain and those are waves of joy coming from the mountain.

The best way to strengthen yourself is to be together as Sahaja Yogis. You must attend the programs, when there is a collective Ār.ti or Pūjā or Meditation. When you collect together, something happens to you. If you sit at home and do something, nothing works out much. Anywhere when there are people sitting together in meditation, Sahaja Yoga itself manifests, because it is a collective phenomena.

Contents: 1977-01-26 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Day 1, Advice to realised Souls, Bordi, Maharashtra, India

I'll try to cover most of the points that you have asked but I must say that I was very happy to hear most of the questions because that shows that your enquiry is getting subtler and subtler; that you already know about the gross side of Chakras and now you want to know the subtler forms.

Now the first question, which should be taken up first, is the one, “How the Chakras come into human beings? What time? What stage of life?", because that should be the first question.

This question is something like if we ask, `What time a primule comes into the being of a seed?' is something like that, that, a human being, when he dies, as I have told you before, he does not die fully, only a part of him dies, which is mostly the Earth element and the rest of the elements remain there.

The rest of the body disappears and we can't see it because it is not a complete human form. It goes on decreasing in size and the Kuṇḍalinī leaves the body and stays outside, outside the body. And the Ātmā, what we call the Spirit, also leaves the body and stays outside the body, which is the remaining body.

The constitution of this new body is different from our constitution. A light that is extinguished has all the body except for the light. But the light goes out of that body now. In the same way, in a human being who dies, the Spirit and the Kuṇḍalinī leave the body, but they are around that body. And it's a great procedure that follows which is fantastic. It's unbelievable how the body disappears into different elements also.

But first of all, let us see, when such bodies which remain like that, they go into what you call the Preta-loka [dead spirits' world]. There they become seeds or they become smaller and smaller and smaller till one body forms an ova and what you know as a sperm. In one body it is formed. I don't know if you have seen the division of chromosomes how it takes place? It's a complete division. If the chromosome is like that, it's a complete vertical division and a complete separation takes place. That is why marriages and selection of partners, all these have a great place. For ordinary bodies it does not matter for the Divine; they take place in such a manner that there can be at random connections established. For example an ova of one may combine with the sperm of another. It happens at a very lower stage of evolution; among human beings also it happens like that for some people who are just not very evolved.

But mostly the ova rejects the sperms. It only accepts that sperm which is meant to be accepted. Now it is such a minute work. It is so fantastic that it is unbelievable. We have no idea as to how God works out in those. It's absolutely tremendous that even the ova, rejects, goes on rejecting, the sperm that is not the second part of itself! And that's how so many sperms are wasted and so many ova's are wasted.

So you can imagine that there is a tremendous machinery, which is working out this. Specially people who are realised, when they are reborn, all the forces of the Divine combine to see that these, this ova is placed with a person who is ultimately going to meet the person who has the proper sperm so that there is no problem as far as the meeting is concerned. And the Divine takes all the care of these great souls.

The work of the Divine is very, very fantastic and it is beyond human conception to understand how the awareness of God can look after all the minute small things of the world. You cannot do even a small thing like attaching this to this one, unless and until you pay some human attention.

So you can imagine the attention of God, who embeds so many seeds in this Mother Earth and gives you such huge, big trees! I mean, you have taken them for granted, but if you watch you will see this Fantastic, Dynamic Force behind it also, which thinks it, which does it, so perfectly. But we think that it is all automatic and that's how we can bear it and that's how we can bear Sahaj Yoga also, thinking that it is all automatic.

The second question is, “When did the Chakras that are in the body [get] embedded?" They exist in the body and they go on existing. Of course they get corrected every time the body takes birth and goes into a new seeking. And the Kuṇḍalinī also, every birth you are born, is watching you as to what you are doing, how your Chakras are developing, how it is working out. And through the method of balancing you or [by your] parasympathetic system, or you can call universal unconscious, the Chakras are brought to its proper shape and to its proper condition by evolution.

A man makes mistakes. He makes searches. He searches from one place to another. For example, he may start his search in money, then he starts his search in power, then he starts his search in love, I mean the carnal love, or he may start his search in some emotional expressions, then in art and all those things.

Ultimately he finds that the search has not been alright because he has not been able to achieve any state of joyous existence. And with his search these Chakras go on evolving and understanding.

Now we have to know that these Chakras are absolutely living entities. Because when a person is supposed to be dead, that time, all the Deities are not in the working state. But the living man has the Chakras, which has got the Deities, which work out the different functions of the Chakra. And it's a very, very subtle working and these can be called as the reflecting mirrors, at different levels of our awareness, where the Deities, which are placed in the Primordial Being, the Virāta, are reflected and they, once awakened, start working out the plans of the Divine.

In some of the human beings, when they are searching, these Chakras find that the person or the subject is going to the extremes of things and this comes because a human being has got freedom to choose. And in his freedom he goes to the extremes and by going to the extremes the Chakras get damaged. Going to the extremes is what we call is `sin'. To be in the centre, to lead a moderate, simple, balanced life and stick to the values of our sustenance, is the best life. But if you start going to the extremes then the sin starts. And the sin, in the Bible it is written that, “The wages of sin is death." So the death occurs. Now the death actually doesn't take place but what happens is that the part of the Chakra gets damaged. It can be a physical hankering, it can be mental, it can be emotional, it can be spiritual, it can be anything.

If you go on working out an imbalanced solution then these Chakras get spoilt at different points. That's how your Chakras get spoilt.

The Chakras are, according to our awareness, in different states. For example for a doctor or for all of us, we know that we have plexuses in our body, we know we have different plexuses. Like you can say pelvic plexus, we have got solar plexus, we've got aortic plexus, we have got cardiac plexus, we have got cervical plexus, we have got Optic Chiasma, we've got limbic area to act, or we can say pituitary and pineal bodies at optic Chiasma and then we have got limbic area where we have got certain points which are active. This every doctor knows because they have even tested the limbic area of some monkeys and they found that, if you excite the limbic area of the monkeys, with electricity, they feel very joyous.

So all these Chakras, in the body of a human being, are only felt as gross expressions, which we call as `plexuses' in the parasympathetic and sympathetic channels. They are all connected as I have told you, that, the sympathetic comes from both the sides and creates the central channel and that is the parasympathetic.

So it depends on the balance of both these sympathetics that the parasympathetic works out well. When the balance breaks up, any imbalance can upset both of them and, when it is completely broken, then they become on their own and that is how it is the complete so-called, `liberation' of man from Gods grace.

Once he's completely `liberated' from that thing he starts falling into the state of, as you call them, Rākshasas. He goes to hell, he goes to the other kind of awareness where there is no feeling, no consciousness of conscience. He doesn't think twice. He can kill a hundred people without even feeling bad about it. He loses all his emotional side and also he loses all his wisdom. What remains in him is his own ambitions and his own desires or his [UNCLEAR]. And he goes on without feeling any compunction or any binding from the Divine or his own Dharma.

So these Chakras are very important for us because, first of all, they give us the balance for our everyday existence. They give us [GAP] God and we can think of subtle things and abstract things. This all comes through the help of the Chakras. If you ask Me if the animals have the Chakras, they have. But they don't have all of them separated, sometimes they are confused Chakras and all the Chakras are not separated from each other and they are not all opened out because their evolutionary process is not yet complete.

But some animals I have seen have got an awakened Kuṇḍalinī and they are realised animals I have seen it.

So it is possible, even for animals, to be very [much more] Dharmic than men are. And sometimes it's surprising how they can discriminate better than human beings can. Apart from that animals are kept under the bondage of God and whatever is their sustenance is done by them; they don't have to think about it. For example a dog is a dog, a cat is a cat and a tiger is a tiger. It's only the human beings can be a dog, can be a scorpion, can be a snake and can be a saint.

So it's only a possibility in the human being that you can find all the animals existing side by side and can be any time [that] these animals can come out and you may be surprised at yourself the way they suddenly jump out and start barking at you! So that is what human beings are because whatever has been in our past is within us; whatever animals we have been, is within us.

So all that is there but whatever we are going to be, also is there. And whatever we are going to achieve is also there.

For human beings the future, past, present exists, but for God it does not.

So for Him to plan and to organize and arrange is a very easy stuff because, if you do not have such demarcating things, you just organize things much better. And His methods are because of His own awareness, status, almightiness; or it's just His nature that He's like that, that He can manage things very well. And you cannot explain them with one event after another event, how He has managed and how it has happened. He does it just because He is capable of doing that. He need not do it, all that, with understanding or thinking about it, as human beings do, because he does not have to think either, because He is that. He is the power and He does everything. He is the consciousness, so he does everything without putting any effort into it. And is a very different state, which perhaps you can understand, as Sahaja Yogis that, just you move your hands and you find the Kuṇḍalinī moving the other side! And you may say, `Why is it moving?' after all, you must think about it. You are realised so you can do it, but not a person who is not realised; if he put's hand like that a hundred times nothing is going to work out. Only you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī.

The reason is: your awareness is different and his awareness is different; your powers are different and his powers are different.

So, in the same way, God, who is All Powerful, for Him, even [by] moving His finger He can move the whole Universe, after all He is God. And that's why for human beings it is said that you better have faith in God, because that's the best way you can solve your problem.

If you go on thinking about Him you'll all go crazy! So we have to go to a point where we can understand Him otherwise we will all go crazy understanding Him [laughing] and we all will become mad thinking, `What all these things? It's beyond us, it is too much!' But, because in Sahaja Yoga, now your awareness has come really to such subtler forms, one can understand so many things and can understand the subtler ways of God's doing and also understand what is possible for you through subtle methods. We can talk on subtler things but talking this to anybody who is not a Sahaja Yogi would be something madness! They wouldn't understand a word that I'm saying. It's only meant for the people who are Sahaja Yogis.

So we came to a point where I said that, “In the gross they are expressed as plexuses in the human being." Now this is known as the gross way. Now the subtle form you have seen, the Sūkshma as they call it, the subtle form. The subtle form exists in the human being, which you can see, you have seen it, the subtle form as energy when it starts pulsating, you have seen the pulsation. But this subtle form is in two forms: one is a Sūkshma and [the other is] Ati Sūkshma [very subtle]. Because in the Sūkshma you can see and a person who is a realised Soul, if you are a realised Soul then you see even the Chakras, in the sense you can feel the Chakras on your fingers.

A unrealised Soul can see the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī and the different Chakras with his own eyes.

He can, if he watches it clearly, he can see the different Chakras clearly. And you as Sahaja Yogis can feel them on your fingers and also can feel them within yourself in the collective consciousness. There is, you can say, in the second stage of Sūkshma, there are three stages as you can say: Sūkshma, Sūkshma-tara [subtler] and Sūkshma-tama [very subtle, subtlest]. These three things you can see. The first stage you see is on your fingers is the Sūkshma-tara. But with the eyes [what] you see is a Sūkshma. And if your fingers or on your Chakras when you feel, it is Sūkshma-tama.

So you see them in three forms. If some of the people do not feel it on the fingers [they] can feel it on the Chakras also.

So you can feel it in three ways.

But there's a fourth way where you can say it is in the Kārana, Kārana state. That's a higher state where a realised Soul can feel it, who is born as a realised Soul can feel it. And in that state they just know like a computer. They don't bother as to which is the one and they don't put hands or anything, they just feel it, it is so. As you have seen in My granddaughter's case, she just knows what is what. Just see, you ask her, she'll immediately say, `This is this, this is this', like that. It comes plain to them, absolutely, `This is this.' Now you may say that how do they know? But this procedure becomes such a compact thing, it just happens to you. Like [if] you pin prick Me here and immediately the hand goes back. The whole reflex action is so quick that we can say there's no procedure as such but it's just a reflex action. In the same way it acts as a reflex action, so that you don't have to worry about the purpose of it.

That is the state where we say the Kārana state is reached. And the Mahākārana state. Now this is the third stage is it? And even in the Kārana stage there are three stages into which one feels it. Now that is, I would say that, I need not explain because that's beyond you people. But if you are born realised you will understand that imbalance in a personality of the three Guṇas is immediately perceived by a born realised person, immediately perceived! He can see through. That's the wisdom he has gained in his previous lives and previous births and immediately they can see the imbalance that comes in. And whatever they say is so wise and they understand because they can see the imbalance of these three Guṇas.

And, according to their own Guṇas, whichever are prevalent in them, these three stages exist in them the way they say.

For example, some people are more Tamo Guṇis: means the ones who are very emotional type people, among them some are very emotional.

So they see a person through the emotions, the way they feel in themselves. They call it a feeling. “I had a feeling for such a person. I felt that way." That is the word they use.

But supposing the person is a Rajo Guṇi, he has been working on the Rajo Guṇa, like praying to Sūrya and doing Gāyatrī [mantras] and praying to all the heavenly bodies and also the five elements, like that. If he has been doing Yagñyas and all those things he's a Rajo-guṇi. Such people see them as lights, as electrical forms; so they see them as colours and things.

So one sees it as an emotional thing another sees it as a colour or as any form. They see them as forms, as colours, lights. They see as electrical currents and some them as a different flowers.

Now they are feelings and also they are these rajo-guṇi expressions, which you can see with your eye [like] The Creation itself.

But they are also feelings.

So those who can see feelings more, a person who has been very loving and has dealt in this side of life, who has been a Bhakti man, a dedicated man, who has been praying to God and crying for Him and asking for His help and weeping before Him with all his heart, such a man will feel a person more and a person who is a more dedicated to forms and things, [he] will see them in a different way as forms.

So then they see them in colours because they're also colours. They're also colours and they're also sounds.

So the sound is also one of the elements, so they can see a sound. And they also see them when their Kuṇḍalinī moves, they see the sound moving. Most of the people who have seen this have been the people who have been meditating through the Patanjali style of meditation where they were single people, Parashuāma style [austere]. And they saw these forms and they saw the movement of the Kuṇḍalinī through the Chakras; when it passes, it creates a sound, a word. And so they studied every sound how, which sound was created, what sound was created what colour was there. And so it is the one-sided knowledge of the right hand side, of the people who went to the right hand side that they say that, “This thing was created, that thing was created and then this sound was created." Then they formed the language, it's the original Sanskrit language which was formed. That's why it's called as a Devavāṇi. And that's why these Deities understand Sanskrit the best. When you say Sanskrit mantras they absolutely understand them very fast because this has come originally from there.

They studied that and then it closed off. But other languages in India, most of the languages, were taken from Sanskrit converted into something else, brought to another form and then another Sanskrit came in, Takruta Sanskrit, then these five languages, Magadi, Paishachi, Marathi, all these languages came in.

So it is derivation [of Sanskrit].

Other languages in other countries that came up was also of course the expression of the Kuṇḍalinī, but they learnt it more from say, the words came from the outside; the sound of the air flowing they call it `ssss', so they call it `s' like that. And from the nature, whatever they learnt from outside because the approach has been more objective.

So objective approach is always little less than the subjective because subjective is from inside and objective is from outside.

So when you go from the objective, the deviation into the main sound that are coming from the inside, the purity is little bit deviated. And you know what is objective and subjectivity approach.

So this has happened with some languages.

Some languages are very, very close to Sanskrit but they too took a turn according to their Guṇas.

Now, the Sattva Guṇi, the central path or the Sattva Guṇi as they call it, they are also the people who have Sattva Guṇa more in them; they see Chakras in the right form.

But Sattva Guṇis should not be confused with the people who believe that if you eat this then this is Sattvik [centred], if you eat that that is tamasik [left-sided] or if you say this, this is Sattvik or if you do not kill anybody then it is Sattvik. In this the right perception comes in. For example, you have to explain why Kṛiṣhṇa killed so many Rākṣhasas.

It was absolutely sattwa; is Dharmic, absolutely Dharmic. Why Durgā killed so many Rākshasas? She had to eat the blood of so many Rākshasas.

So whatever is Dharmic, the wisdom, the right path comes through such people who are neither too much this side, neither that side and they know exactly what is the right way of looking at life.

Such born realised people: this is a very, very far-fetched stuff; they are very few. I would say perhaps Buddha and Mahāvīra are the only two human beings who have gone through many lives. From one extreme to another they went and ultimately they found out that going to the extremes is not proper. Still they have not reached the complete height of an incarnation.

So a model was to be created who would all the time be giving a fixed point for a person to rise to that. And these are the different models which are placed within us on our Chakras. And these models are perfect points belonging to those Chakras.

So according to the nature of the person who is watching these Chakras, one sees them and gives them importance also.

Now for a person like say, [Ādi] Shañkarāchārya: Shañkarāchārya is a born realised Soul many a times.

He's not born realised once, but many a times he's born realised and he's in the centre of it you can say.

One of them, you can call him.

So when he talks of his Mūlādhāra Chakra, he has already done the path many a times and now he's going to the subtler and subtler and subtler form.

So when he says that, the Mūlādhāra Chakra [when it] is opened out then you can walk on the water it's correct. Because he is at that subtle stage of ascendence. One has to ascend once, second time, third time, forth time and then you reach a stage where you start ascending. But even then it is not so important to walk on the water.

What is so important to walk on the water? It's nothing so important because it's easy, you can take a boat and walk! It's nothing so important! So walking on the [water], means also on the right hand side; it's a right hand side [power] to walk on the water or to fly in the air, all this is the right hand side things which also can be done with the help of a boat, or what you call an aircraft or even you can use a bhoot! For that you can use a dead entity and we can make him take us to any place we feel like. It can be done! This ESP business is only that.

So it can be done by other methods also.

So it is nothing important.

It's sometimes very confusing when we see that some people can fly in the air! They say [that] in the subtle form they have gone. You don't see the body moving but you see that they can feel it. The difference being that the people who are realised can guide themselves and can see the body moving but those who are not realised they find that their subtle being is being taken out and their consciousness going with them somewhere else and they're sitting on top of the house; from there watching themselves and they're sitting there and they see themselves sitting down like that. These phenomenon take place.

That is absolutely nothing but a soul being ridden by a dead entity.

So there's nothing great about it.

That is also right side stuff.

The left hand side as I told you is the emotional feeling about things. You feel tremendous love for others and sometimes people, I would say Sāi Nāth was one of them who had this left hand side gift with him and he was love personified. And he was so much full of love for people that once there was a woman who was very poor and she couldn't celebrate her Diwali day and he couldn't bear it so he gave her some water and the water became like oil and she burnt lights in that; and it's a fact, you can do that, it's possible. And with this power you can increase food, you increase the food stuff, like Christ did it. That's also [using] one side [left side].

So all these things come in a personality; some people have one more, another has some more and some people have all these qualities.

Some, those who are incarnations have everything. They can do everything that they want to. And they will use whatever they want to do and if they don't want use any powers they will not use.

So it's nothing important. Supposing you see something, alright, there you can see it is a good thing. But that doesn't mean that you should stick on to those things but you must try to do what you don't see. For example, now you see the light coming out of somebody's head, now that's one side of looking at things. Another is that you can feel the another person. Don't you feel the another person? How he is, how he meets you, how you are coming closer to that person. Can you feel that compassion for him that he's not where you are? That also is another balancing stuff. But this should be done [only when you are solid]. This is very dangerous for some people who try to be helpful to others when they are not themselves solidified properly.

So I would again warn you that when you start seeing lights and all that, try to remember that you are going on one side, you are seeing more. Then be more compassionate in your tongues, in your talking, in your behaviour. Try to have more love. Means right hand side is more developing, the left is less; is the heart.

So you have to raise your Kuṇḍalinī from right and left. But this is all mechanical it works out.

It's only thinking about it, `Oh, I have to develop my heart more,' the balance has to be there. This also should be there, the feeling for others.

Now the feeling for others cannot be explained as I feel for others. I just, if somebody is crying anywhere, I get tears into My eyes automatically. Even if you are not crying and if you are feeling hurt about things I get this hurt feeling within Myself. Like that, you should really feel that hurt feeling and that desperate feeling and that cry. Of course it comes to some people too much but they do not have the other side.

So you should have both the sides and both the balancing directors within you.

So those who are seeing things more should not go on bothering about what they are seeing. “It's coming that way, alright" because they have done that kind of Tapasya so they see things. And it helps Sahaja Yoga very much because you can see for yourself who is realised who's not realised, this thing, that thing.

But still the dryness is in you.

So, if it is in you, you should try to develop it.

So whatever you don't have you try to develop that. Whatever you have don't be satisfied with that. That's the best way you can rise. Those people who can see things should try to feel others. Those who can feel others should try to see things and it will work out that way.

So this is what it is.

And in the Mahākārana state where the Mahākārana is, that is a very, very subtlest form of state where the Chakras which have got the Deities are connected with, are a reflection of, the Deities of the Virāta.

Now these Deities in the Virāta are reflected in you, are awakened in you and they start moving and making the whole thing work out as it should be. Up to the Karana state it is very good. But Mahākārana state is the stage where it is the real, what you call the object, object and reflection. When you can come up to the object which is a really deep state of mind where you are with the object and when you are at the object you are very close to an incarnation state.

So as far as you people are concerned, you should try to understand up to Karana state, because beyond that how to jump and how to go is not the question just now. What's the use of telling you about something which is a far-fetched stuff? So we'll talk about it later. But this is how it is the four states of Chakras.

Now, tentza prashna? Ah, te Chakra. Ha. [Now, his question? Ah, about Chakras. Yes.] He says you see it [moving] anticlockwise. You do see, because most of the people who have seen it have seen it on other people and when you see on other people from the backside, you see it on the anticlockwise side.

But, if you see it from the front, it is clockwise, that's why.

Sahaja Yogi: No, what I am saying is, you feel the Chakras moving, you are outside your own body, still the Chakras are moving in an anticlockwise manner.

Shri Mataji: Yes it depends on, you know, what I've just now told you: that the Chakras, say for example, for an ordinary human being the Chakras are nothing but ordinary plexuses; for a realised Soul it is more than that.

So the more you move into a greater wheel of your own awareness that's how the Chakras start manifesting. Now for example My Chakras are working all over. All over. Do you see the difference? So it depends on the awareness of the person. As much as the light now say; that much is the extension of the light, as much [as] is the power.

So that is what it is.

Now is there are any questions left on Chakras?

Sahaja Yogi: About the number of petals.

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes. Number of petals is also gross stuff. Till you go to a certain stage where your petals are being created, because there's a little mathematics about it, little mathematics. And all this mathematics has been worked out in a human being, how it is. But these are the... we can say that now for example, in a person now, a light is there: say 25 watts. Now 25 watts are to be converted to 60 watts or something like that.

So you have to see the dimension into which the person is, [that] that portion is going to grow. It's a big mathematics about you, the dimension to which that can grow and into what sphere it is going to penetrate. For example, the Mūlādhāra Chakra you can take for an example now.

Mūlādhāra Chakra is actually fourth that way, because it covers the four sides of the human personality.

It's in the abstract calculation, it is the fourth side of the personality. And the fifth side, the movement in the fifth dimension, doesn't take in the Mūlādhāra Chakra. It takes above the Mūlādhāra Chakra.

So the fourth dimensions as shown by that. These are the different dimensions of a man. At those levels how many dimensions you touch by these Tattwas [principles], it is calculated like that. In My book I have given most of these in very great details as to what are the dimensions one touches in this state and how far you go.

But the same Mūlādhāra becomes only two later on. But it is such a subtle and sharp two, which penetrates just like this, all over.

So it depends on... you can say in a machine you have different types of bones and different types of screws and with different dents. Now what is the calculation? Is there an engineer who can say why it is so? So it is a very detailed work and it's all worked out because the dimensions into which a human being will be going, all that is worked out and on that Chakra only these is dimensions you achieve.

So it has a meaning. But it's not only four [sub-]Chakras. It's not only four. It has got many petals inside and it's a very interesting one. Actually on Mūlādhāra I have written a big chapter, complete. How many folds are inside and how these things work out and how many folds, what do they suggest and how far they open out, because it's all a dimension which is worked out.

For example, if you take a banyan tree, the seed is so small. A banyan tree has the smallest seed. Now why is it so? And why is it so microscopic? Because it is so dynamic. For you this is all worked out like a capsule. And it's a capsule which is to work this dimension [and] it has to work that dimension.

So it is rather a calculated stuff, which I have described. I have only described Mūlādhāra really in the full [way] because it makes such a big volume of one Mūlādhāra Chakra, that I gave up about others. I have just mentioned [briefly] about them.

But only Mūlādhāra itself, when I started describing, it became such a big, huge thing.

So I gave in I said, “Now better not do other ones [Chakras]." But it's quite a complicated stuff and, God has his own stage or style of planning and we can't question Him. He does it according to His own whim. He has his own style. But [even] His whim has understanding, everything has.

You will find that sometimes, if you try to study, that if you ask Me certain things I try to answer it in a different way. Because there are His ways of doing things and He understands and that's how He does it. But still I have tried to bring out at least Mūlādhāra Chakra, so that human beings must understand that how complicated they are made, how God has been so careful to place their Mūlādhāra so well and how He has put the force there, how it's a living machinery, how it's working out so that people should understand the importance of their Chakras and importance of their being, how important you are. You are not ordinary people.

Even if there's an ordinary tape recorder we are so careful about it. How much we should be careful about our own machinery, which is being created in ages with such great understanding, with such mechanism! Every Chakra if you take up, even if you take up three Yugas [ages], you won't understand one Chakra, it is such a tremendous working inside. I have of course given only the description of it and the reason why is a stage which will make you really mad! But I have tried to explain in that. You have read My [description of] Mūlādhāra did you? It's quite an elaborate stuff.

Gregoire: In Delhi, the question was “What is the purpose of life?" Buddhism said the purpose, I mean, of all these incarnations is to go in Nirvāṇa, which is nothingness, where nothing happens. Then in the Christian tradition, it is also `perfection' which is perceived as a total union with God which is immobility. Now you said it is not like this, you are going to incarnate again and again. Then the question I would like to ask in connection with the Chakra is `What is the purpose of life?' I understood before that the supreme thing is to be united with God, whatever this means and when I am united because there is no movement anymore but...

Shri Mataji: But that stage I never cancelled it, that stage is not today. You see, when I said it that, just now you have to incarnate again and again, you are not at that stage. But when the whole thing...

you see, nothing is wrong in any one of these. When they say, “There is a day of judgement." But before that God is going to give you a chance. He is going to give you full chance to improve yourself [and] go to that position. Like that, we can say that, first the trees are brought into being by sowing the seeds. Then the trees grow up. Then there are flowers, then the flowers are again, they become seeds. Then again the trees and again this thing, until again they reach a certain stage, till they have completely ripened then they remove the whole thing and the whole thing becomes the Brahma itself. And whatever is a waste matter is thrown out.

So ultimately it's the union. But the union of your being means with God. It's a much greater state.

First of all it's the purification point. For your purification you are to be born again. You have not reached that stage where you should become Mahā-nirvāṇa, have you? If you become, might be [that] you might land up in hell so better not try that! See, you must understand that just now, at this stage you have to go further, purifying yourself till you reach a certain stage where, when you reach a certain stage, at that time, God has given you enough chance, enough chance to improve yourself. [But if] still you are Rākshasas then you are not going to be tried any more. But it's quite near, I must say. You cannot now allow it to take to chance it's not, it's quite near. One of the butchery is going to be very close, is very close; I mean I would say can be anytime.

So you be careful! I mean, it's just there.

So many have to be neutralised because they are just very troublesome.

So it can be quite close.

So just be careful about it.

So, if everything fits into everything else but what happens is every religion, part of it is said so this cuts out the other. Supposing I say, `You have to go to this room,' now if I say that, `You have to come two steps that side,' and then I say, `You have to come three steps this side,' these are all connected stuff but because it is said only three steps here so you say, `Then in that religion it is said three steps inside you and what about those two steps?' I have to tell about them also. Because I have to tell about all those two steps [that] you have to take first, I better not tell about these three steps because you'll put your eyes, `oh, very nice!' It's not going to come in a plate [easily]. You have to work it out consciously.

Understand now.

Sahaja Yogi: Where do the Chakras go after death?

Shri Mataji: Chakras exist within you, Chakras is a play. They just only exist within you.

Sahaja Yogi: Within the Earth element?

Shri Mataji: No, no, no. They are in the body only, they are in the body. The body is itself like a seed, you become like a seed. But they are potent [potential]. You can't see them. Chakra is a state.

Sahaja Yogi: I think Chakra and Kuṇḍalinī must be together?

Shri Mataji: No, no. It is something like a light going out and the tube is still there. It is like that the Kuṇḍalinī. But it stays on top of the head of the person. The only difference is, supposing, the light goes out and stays nearby. You see the potential is there in the light. It is like that. The place for the light to pass is there.

Question: And one more thing you have said about sympathetic and parasympathetic, when they separate out then that person goes to the extremities, the extremes and in that case, you know what happens, before our realisation whether they are separated.

Shri Mataji: No, no. They're already separated in the gross they are separated; inside also they're separated but there's a void because yes, that is the only problem. The Kuṇḍalinī gets enlightened when it faces Me and it immediately starts rising. Or when you people [also], because you are also Sahaja Yogis.

It doesn't happen with anybody else you will be amazed you know.

So now what is the other question? Question: How do the Chakras move in the body; is it horizontally?

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes. That is true, they are moving horizontally. They are moving horizontal but when you move them like this, you see; like you have seen the wheel...

Question: Why not you go this way?

Shri Mataji: No it doesn't work out. It works out better this way. Because these are the things that are emitting. If you do it like this it goes down. This way these are moving you can move this. You have seen that in a watch there are some like this parallel and some are like this.

Ata dusra kai prashna ahe? [Now what other question is there?]

Sahaja Yogini: Mātājī, the fake Gurus have damaged the Chakras. How do they do it? And what should be done about it?

Shri Mataji: You see, what Gurus do is they use different Chakras for introducing into the sympathetic nervous system some entities which they have controlled. They do not control many entities as such, but what happens, for example now I would say, during war many people died just like that; killed there. In those countries, those souls, they never had a [normal] human life and they were treated just like animals and they were very much tortured.

So they had that feeling in their minds that, `We should also torture these people.' So when they die they do not die really and they do not get into the Preta-loka. They stay in the atmosphere and that's why wars are very bad things, because wars create such human beings much more, with accidents and people who are very depraved in life, very dissatisfied who are doing all kinds of depraved actions and secretive things and all kinds of horrid things. All such people, all of them, when they die they do not really go to Preta-loka because they don't think of their salvation but they are just thinking of their lust, greed or possessions, those who are grabbing things, thieves and all sorts of people.

We can call `evil' people and Satanic people, when they die they find they become much more subtler and they can be better off if they act in a subtle body.

So they use their subtle body for acting into people and such people are easily available.

So these Gurus, what they do, that they themselves are evil geniuses and they have a way of capturing those people and they use them. And they introduce to you through your different Chakras. For example, Rāvaṇa had a capacity to speak and in his speech he used to introduce Rākshasas into the human beings in Ceylon. Otherwise imagine in Lanka, people should never fight Rāma, because at that time the sensitivity of people was so great that they knew that Rāma was an incarnation. They were not gross as today they are, that one has to tell that, “Oh, here I am the incarnation." That time it was not Kali Yuga so they knew he was an incarnation. And so many of them, I mean some of them did not, but quite a lot of them knew and despite that nobody could oppose it because their mind was captured by these entities put [into them] by Rāvaṇa and they fought Him.

So, it was so, even at the time of Kṛiṣhṇa: people knew who He was at least they had quite an idea, even Kauravas new about it.

But this Kali Yuga is a wretched thing, nobody see anything clearly. But those times were not like that. People knew who was an incarnation and they understood it.

And that time also, these people had to use some sort of a way of putting them off and they used this method of enticement. And when they used this method of enticement, in that use, they learned also subtler ways and subtler ways which they are using in the Kali Yuga very well. They are actually Rākshasas and they know these methods how to entice people. There are so many ways of doing it. And when you bend your head before them that is the best time when they can put it into your ego and they can finish you off for once and for all.

So that's how they do it. And you are no more yourself! First of all they act on your heart: you become a nervous person your hands start shaking your feet start shaking; they act on your Heart Chakra. You lose the power of Raksha [protection] which is the basic point of the Heart Chakra. And then, once you start losing the grip over your nerves you find that [it's] as if somebody is doing for you. And if you take somebody's name you start jumping and you don't know anything, it's an experience. There are so many things they do like that, thousand and one.

But human beings, as a whole in the Kali Yuga, instead of improving has gone down absolutely in his conception of Divinity and in everything, I mean he's a hopeless case otherwise! But by God's grace Sahaja Yoga may save him. They way it is I mean he's very, very blunt, he cannot think, he's very insensitive.

And he carries on all kinds of his malpractices thinking that he's the rarest saint ever born. That's another great quality of Kali Yuga! This is the problem. They have no conscience left now to tell them that this is wrong or that is wrong, they've killed it. Everywhere it is so.

[Aside in Marathi:] Tumhi shalid chi mulad ka? [Your kids are in school?]

Sahaja Yogi: Ho. [Yes.]

Shri Mataji: Accha [OK]. Ata dusra prashna [Now another question].

Sahaja Yogi: How music works on the five Chakras?

Shri Mataji: You see all these five elements are very important in our body and they are the body of the Chakras also as I have told you.

So what happens that, when you sing the music, the vibrations can go through the musical sound and can excite certain Chakras. For example, for the Hṛiday [heart] Chakra it is very good or also for the Viśhuddhi Chakra it is very good. Not for all the Chakras. But certain Chakras it does. But supposing you say a mantra, that's the sound, with beautiful music and a realised Soul then it is very effective. For example, Gaṇeśha you can excite him with a beautiful Shloka if you are a realised Soul and if your Gaṇeśha is correct, you can excite the Gaṇeśha of another person very easily, I mean such a person can do it.

So music, sound, all these things have an effect and we are now using that method very extensively.

But supposing now, we go in a mass meditation and many people are there and some Chakra is caught, say Viśhuddhi is caught, I can correct their Viśhuddhi by just putting My finger on this, like this, because this has the sound, this is in the Chakras, there is a microsound which is carrying the vibrations. Actually the part of the vibrations is the microsound also, microlight, microsound and all the five elements are micro there.

So when I put My finger the micro sound can carry the rest of them and the person can be corrected. We can do it. Specially Viśhuddhi. Very easy to correct Viśhuddhi on that. You can correct most of the things but certain things are very easily corrected. Viśhuddhi, which is responsible for the sound, made from the sound element.

As we have seen that water element is very good for treating people for the lower Chakras, up to the Heart Chakra, because the water and salt can help you for the Nābhī Chakra because salt is the earth element and it is essence of the ocean and the essence of the ocean is in the Bhava-sāgara.

So we can use salt water for clearing the lower Chakras. We can use light for the eyes because, this is made out of the Prakāsh, the light, light element.

Like that different things can be done. And with these different elements if you use them, you can make all the dirt or all the obstructions, which are collected in your particular Chakra by putting them back into the same element and cleansing them out so the element takes it away.

For Mother Earth also, She has so many elements in Her that She can take away so many of your problems which are troubling you, in your being, because of some imbalance of the Mother Earth element.

This is all due to the imbalance of these elements in you, accumulated more beyond than what you want it. That's why I said, “The extreme of it." Bhūh Tattwa [Earth element] is expressed through Śhrī Gaṇeśh and Śhrī Gaṇeśh is the form of the purified principle of the Earth element and is the same. In a flute you have two notes, the first and the last are the same. In the same way in a human being the seven notes, the first one is a Gaṇeśha and the last one is also a Gaṇeśha.

So these seven notes are the same. And these seven notes make the Earth element and not completely Earth element but started with earth element purified. When it loses its Earth element problems completely it is Parabrahma, it becomes all Brahma. Because Earth element is, outside is the Earth element but inside is Dhara, is Dhara, is Dharana, is the power to sustain, is the power to sustain. And that power is the purest form of Earth principle (Tattwa).

So, that you become later on; gradually the whole Earth element drops down and you become that.

So it is the Dharana Shakti as they call it: the power of sustenance. Is the Gaṇeśha.

So, like that, in every Chakra you have a very subtle and subtle-most point. And that subtle-most point is the note that the Divine is playing at that point, because every note has a different frequency, a different intonation, a different sound, which helps in the melody of this Universe.

So, like that, we have seven Chakras and the seven notes. And they are different notes but these notes then create permutations and combinations and that is how a Chakra gets into a Swāra [musical note] and then it becomes a sound and from a sound it becomes a word and from word it becomes a language and like that it goes on and the same subtle form starts becoming something else. For example if I have love for my children: how [do] I express it? I make a house for them, I make a place to live for them, I cook food for them, I make a bed for them. It's a gross expression of that subtle love I have. In the same way whatever is subtle within us is expressed outside with the help of the elements that are outside, to express the subtle through our gross behaviour or gross material things we do.

So, it's the same subtle which is expressing outside. But then we become so gross later on that we forget the inner part of it. A Mother may create something, all these things and then she becomes so possessive of her children, she'll think, `I've done so much for my children,' that she wouldn't even think why she has made it! She forgets the love part of it and she becomes nothing but the gross thing. She just starts scolding the children, even for breaking a small thing here and there. She does this for love and then she forgets it. That's what is an extreme behaviour. Extreme behaviour means, from the subtle, you get to the gross and the gross and the grosser. Once you become grosser you are dead.

Ata kai prashna? [Now what question?]

Sahaja Yogi: [question about badhas.]

Shri Mataji: Those who can see badhas are on the emotional side. They can see the badhas. There also you can see two types of people. Those who already themselves in badha, they can see badhas, very clearly; they can see the dead persons. Those who are already badha can see that another person has got a badha because they are in the collective subconscious themselves, so they can see. And a person can see, the one who is a drunkard, he can see. A person who is drunk can see a badha in another person because he is a subconscious type, he likes it.

But some people can achieve a state in an emotional way that they can see badha clearly. If they are realised Souls, the emotional state, people say, the Bhakti people can see a badha there. But even the supraconscious people can see a light coming before them, they can see somebody standing before them like a light and then say that, “There's a light coming." They might get fragrance or things like that can happen. They are called as Tanmātras [subtle elements] is the causal principle of all the Universe, causal, Tanmātras. Means for Earth the causal principle is fragrance.

So, supposing somebody has done a lot of search in the field of say, Earth element, so such a person can get a lot of fragrance, he can. It is a variety everywhere created because of their different searches and because of their different seeking.

You see badha, just say somebody has a badha or not. If he has Āgñyā and a heart it's definitely a badha. And you just ask the person to put their hands before the photograph and he starts shaking.

Normally he shakes.

Question: [Hindi.]

Shri Mataji: You see I don't know how you should make it out but it's very easy you can make out; they cannot put their eyes towards My photograph. If you ask them to close their eyes their eyes will start flickering, hands will start shaking, eyes will always flicker. slightest [UNCLEAR] will show on the eyelids, like this. Badha, can be of many types.

Some people just have for the time being, some people have permanent residence, some have bags full! So you just can't say what it will be.

Someone: [speaks to Shri Mataji].

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] You just don't worry about these things. [Hindi.] The thing is, people think that there's only one type of badha, is emotional badha. There can be both types. A person who is very egotistical also is dominated by somebody else. Abnormal area, abnormal behaviour, who is not a normal person, can come from anywhere.

[Marathi.] There is no difference between sunlight and sun, moonlight and moon.

So there is no difference at all.

It is only the human beings who think there are two stuffs.

Somebody: [talks to Shri Mataji].

Shri Mataji: Then only they just start thinking. It is an Advaita [non-duality], which one and the same thing. For example, now, this bangle is beautifying My hand.

So what is the difference between this bangle and the beautification? Is the quality of a person. Is the quality. It's like the [UNCLEAR] and [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogi: [makes a comment to Shri Mataji].

Shri Mataji: No depends also, you can say you will take out the rest of it and you will say that this is all useless. It's not that. In everything this is all there, it's one. What is the essence of sunlight and sun? Sun has no meaning without sunlight. Sunlight has no meaning without sun. It is not essence, it is everything but. You can say water and a ice.

Someone: [speaks to Shri Mataji].

Shri Mataji: No, no both have existence both have essence. There is no difference at all. Human beings cannot conceive it, that's the trouble with the human mind, because it is an Advaita. Human beings cannot see it, they think of two [manifold] things always. Through perception it is not possible for you to perceive it, but you can understand by analogies. Many things human beings can't understand. You just cannot, because you have a limited brain, you have a limited awareness, you have limited love.

Contents: 1977-01-27 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Day 2, Attention and Joy, Bordi, Maharashtra, India

... wobbling too much and how to fix the attention. Now the quality of attention changes according to the state of your evolution. For example, in an animal...

So where is the attention placed in the human being? It is not a fixed point. You can say, attention is the surface or the edge of awareness. Wherever we are made aware, the attention gets diverted to that point. If you can find some analogy, all the files [filings] of iron have got a power to be attracted towards the magnet. Where is that power, you cannot locate, it is all over. Wherever the magnet is placed the files are attracted. Our attention is also like that, that wherever we are attracted, our attention goes there.

It is existing in the whole body, in the sense that it can be diverted anywhere, outside the body. Also inside the body, in case if there is any pain or there is any trouble. It floats over the nerves, it floats over the whole nervous system, but there is a controlling center in the brain. If it is hit then we can remain conscious, but without any attention. Also, if somebody is hit on the Viśhuddhi Chakra, it can happen. It can happen even in the lower Chakras if somebody is hit. That portion will lose its attention because you cannot feel, in that part.

The difference is this, that you can pay attention to those points, if you want to, even if they are numbed. For example, if my hand is numb I can pay attention to that, means I can look at it, I can think of it, but there is a point in our being [which], if that is hit then we cannot even think, we are just lying unconscious they say, but eyes are open, hands are moving, legs are moving. That point is at the point of Viśhuddhi Chakra here. And if you can draw a line from here to the point where is the Pīṭha –'seat' of Viśhuddhi Chakra is inside, inside the brain; along that line if you are hit anywhere you become attention-less, you cannot pay attention anywhere. This line passes through, also, Āgñyā Chakra. Because when this point is connected with Viśhuddhi Chakra at the back, in here and at the Pīṭha inside, then a kind of a triangle is formed and all this line or this area can affect your attention. Your heart is moving, your limbs are moving but you are not paying attention anywhere.

So when you pay attention to something, actually you pay attention, normally, when you are not realised, through your brain centers. After realisation, you can pay attention through your other centers also. You do pay. This is a very big difference between a person who is realised and who is not realised.

Or you can say that you can become effective through your other centers by paying attention to them.

You can feel the centers which are obstructed in your body, which you never felt before. Not only that, but you can feel the centers of other people. That means your central nervous system is being blessed by a new awareness by which it can convey to you, communicate to you, the attention paid by your centers and also it can take your attention in a subtler way into the centers of others.

So, first thing that happens to you is that your attention becomes subtler. Attention becoming subtler means you start understanding deeper things. For example, a bird can see a flower but cannot feel the beauty of a flower. And a unrealised person can see the beauty of a flower, but cannot see the vibrations of the flower.

So you become subtler, your attention becomes subtler. You definitely are at a higher evolutionary stage than the other people are.

Now we have to see how we use our attention.

You have seen, even when you were not realised, that, supposing you start developing an art in your hand from your very childhood, then you develop the deftness of that particular art, because a kind of a myelin sheath grows on the nerves. In the same way, when you are realised, I would say when you are a newly born person, if you start respecting your attention then gradually you develop a deftness for Sahaja Yoga. But so many people, when they get realised, they hardly come second time. Even if they come second time, they do not develop the feeling of vibrations more, they still go on being busy with their day-to-day work, wasting their attention on things which do not give you the subtler feeling.

So the subtleness, the deftness of the art of Sahaja does not develop itself.

For example, I would say a person who is over-read, as soon as he gets his realisation he starts tallying it with what he has read, this makes his attention again wasted. As it is, his attention has been fixed by these conventional ideas; some of them are correct, some are incorrect, some are absolutely faulty, some are useless.

Some are only because they wanted to make money, they have published some trash.

As soon as you get realisation, you go back to your own gross awareness and start tallying this subtle with the gross, so you start again losing your vibrations. Actually after getting realisation I have seen, with small children, they sleep for very long hours. They become little inactive for some time. But if an elder gets it he will immediately go to the book store, buy one book on Kuṇḍalinī and start reading about it.

Then some of you, not understanding that you have become somebody else, take it for granted, “Alright, Mātājī has been very kind; She says I am far, but how am I to believe?" As if by believing it they are going to give some money to Me or I don't know what they are going to give. “I can see the vibrations coming, but what's the use of getting the vibrations? Why did She give us vibrations?" Again come back to the gross idea of utility, because that's human nature, has been so far, to make everything into utility.

Everything must be utilized, you see. Man thinks no end of himself.

So he starts putting his realisation into utility. “What utility it has? How many people are going to get it? What is going to happen? What is the ratio? What is the schedule? What is this? What is that?" You have been given this subtleness to enjoy. Like, if we enjoy the beauty of flower, we just enjoy. Do we go to the books and find out: `What we should do about with this enjoyment of ours? How to enjoy this flower?' And then `What to do?' And, `Who has described about the flowers, so let us see if this is fitting into that?' But is done very commonly and I really don't know how to say, because it's such a foolish thing. And I am only afraid that, sometimes, if I say, they will feel hurt, and, as human beings are, they get hurt for nothing at all. That's very foolish.

Children are very sensible that way. Once they get it they start enjoying it. They just enjoy it. They just sleep off! They are not bothered. They think, that it's something that is to be enjoyed, `Let us enjoy it'.

So at the very outset it happens like that.

And the man doesn't know that how he has made himself even much more gross than he was ever in this Kali Yuga, in these modern times: by organizing things according to his own ideas and conceptions.

He has become so unnatural, so foolish that discrimination between joy and ugliness, he does not have.

He's so confused.

So, first of all, it is not only one reason but there are many reasons. And as I described to you, inherently, it is the human, gross activities before realisation. If you understand the disease, from where it has come, sometimes it's easier to correct it. You cannot just correct the disease without understanding the history behind it. If you are a student of history you will know how human beings have behaved. I mean, you just start wondering, what's wrong with these people? God created one world! I mean just think, a person like Me coming on this earth, suddenly you find there are so many countries being created. Alright created, you can have separate countries if you cannot manage the whole world together, but then the fighting going on, killing each other. All kinds of problems for nothing at all, I mean it's such a madhouse! So historically if you see how man has made himself mad, it's not easy [laughing] to compile all that in one lecture, you'll have to write volumes. I think there are already written volumes.

So, there is [a] historical background, which has spoilt your attention.

Physically, those who come for physical handicap or physical trouble or something like that because they are sick, are sometime little better than the people who do not have this, because they definitely get the relief part of the joy. If they get their relief, there is a little shadow of joy that they feel and, then they start understanding that it is to be enjoyed. But I would say, they too once they get the relief they just disappear. Not understanding that there is something greater than this to be tasted and enjoyed. And the physical enjoyment in Sahaja Yoga, itself, is sufficient to keep your attention subtler. You do not have to fix your attention but you have to get subtler and subtler in your attention.

Fixing up of your attention, as you know, is a very wrong method. That was done by some yogis and you know what is the result of that: their Chakras were all broken and finished. When they fixed their attention onto Āgñyā Chakra, you have seen that Āgñyā Chakra is broken. You are not to fix any attention but you have to make your attention subtler and subtler.

As I told you that a magnet, when brought say near the stones nothing happens to the stones, they are just there; you move the magnet any way you like. But when you take it to the iron filings, only, the filings are attracted towards the magnet. In the same way the attention of a Sahaja Yogi should be so subtle that he should feel the vibrations, he should think of vibrations, he should eat vibration, drink vibration and enjoy them.

On the physical side, many people tell Me that, “We went to their house and they offered me Laddoos and I had to eat. What can you do, Mātājī?" Actually, you see, they felt attracted towards the shape of the Laddoos. They ate it, but they didn't see the vibrations of those Laddoos, they just ate it off and then they had a stomach trouble. When they have a stomach trouble, then they said, “Mātājī, we have lost our vibrations, now what to do? We ate the Laddoos." But if you had seen that there are no vibrations in that lad doo, you should have said that, `Today I am not supposed to eat anything,' or something like that and you should not have eaten them! If you see a born-realised child, he will never eat. Even the mother beats the child, he'll say, `Alright, beat me but I'm not going to eat it!' Because they are not going to eat the filth, such children are supposed to be very obstinate, they think they are obstinate. Because they know, `There is no vibration, so why should we eat because we are not going to enjoy.' So on the physical side, there are so many such mistakes you have committed. If you take to now, say habits you have, supposing you have a habit of say, pulling your hair. There was some lady who had a habit of pulling her hair and she used to become bald here, then bald here, then bald here and the hair used to grow this side, then she used to have a bald head here. Then she will pull her hair here. Such a person! So she came to Me for treatment. Imagine! So I told her, “Why do you do like this?" She says, “Now my attention is like that, it always starts pulling my hair." I said, “What to do?

Such an attention you have got!" So, you know her elder sister used to beat her on her hand, any time she put her hand.

She said, “You must beat me, if you don't beat me I'll beat you." But the beating was on and everybody used to look at them, “What are they doing between each other?" And still, you see, she could not stop it! All habits are like this monkey business. All of them are like that, because the matter is trying to sit on top of our attention, all the time and so we form habits. Certain habits are alright, convenient and convenience like that.

I mean some people to break habits, you know, they say “We'll not sit on the ground nor sit on the chair." “So where will you sit?" “We'll sit in a sitting pose and we'll practice that sort of a thing." I mean you need not do such a nonsense. I'm meaning that certain things are alright, don't go to extremes. But certain habits that we acquired, is mostly because of fashions. And we start, because somebody's smoking, he forces you, he says “Alright” and one bad habit we have got, is not to say no to anyone.

“How to say `No,' you see, they were all drinking and they offered us drinks and we said `No,' but they were just forcing us. Then it looked very bad, you know, not to drink and..." And they offered one cup, glass of drink to Me and then I said, “Alright, I'll have very little sip” you know one day and then I had it like that. And then My relations, you see, they came and they invited us for dinner and we had to go and then they started a cabaret dance, you know and we had to see, after all it would look very bad not to see a naked woman." [Laughing.]

“Oh, we are very innocent people!" So we go on explaining, “What to do now, this is the society, this is the fashion, this is the style, this is how it is." But a Sahaja Yogi is a special one, he's a chosen one. Because you haven't got your own value. Tumala kimat nai sataji [Marathi] You have not valued yourself as I have valued you. This is a fact which very few realise really, that to get realisation like this, there must be something tremendous that Mātājī must have done. She must have put in lot of labour, to work this out Herself; She must have done tremendous Tapasyas in all Her lives. And even in this life She must have worked very hard, day in and day out. And here we are when we get it, how common place the whole thing is, how we are about it. I thought by giving realisation you will immediately see your value and you'll think that you are something great and that you have got this realisation and the sākṣhātkār, but it is not so. And you start compromising with gross things in life.

There is a huge populace which is to be led by one of you. One of you can lead all of them. Leaders do not compromise, leaders do not solve the problems of the people whom they lead, but they give them problems to be solved. They stand above them, they are much above them, they do not compromise, they do not bend. Others bend before them.

If the light starts falling and faltering on the roads, what will the person do who is carrying the light in the hand? You all are like the torches and what kind of life you should have and a personality you should have, it is for you to decide. That's the attention, gives the priorities.

When you understand how your physical bringing, presence, this body of yours, has to be clean, has to be beautiful, has to be soft, kind, has to be elegant, dignified.

I have seen people in groups, when you are sitting down, behaving in a manner [that] even an ordinarily educated person won't behave. The reason is, you have not yet realised that you are the leaders and people are watching you. There should be a kind of a Masti –'jollity', should be satisfied with yourself.

So on the physical aspect, what you eat, what you see, what you like, the whole priorities must change.

What should be most important is Sahaja; in every circumstance, in every method, a habit, Sahaja.

Sahaja means is born with you, Sahaja doesn't mean easy. Many people confuse. You have now got your right; that one was born with you.

So for you, it is necessary to know that you are a Sahaja and that you are not going to accept anything that is Asahaja. Sahaja means that! Sahaja means that you take the light of Sahaja above everything else over the darkness and not to accept darkness which is aSahaja.

So how can you have any habits which give you sympathetic bondage? Sahaja means you have a special, subtle awareness. A king doesn't clean the streets.

On the physical side your attention is lost like that, because you indulge into all aSahaja methods that you had before, that others have. You get lost into the aSahaja system of life. You have to change the complete system of the whole world in which people become Sahaja and not aSahaja. Then only the whole thing will become a Sahaja for you.

It is a big misunderstanding about Sahaja Yogis. They think `Oh! When it will come Sahaja, then we will do this work, then we'll go around and talk to people, it should come Sahaja,' nothing doing. This is a very wrong attitude. `Sahaja' means that you have got the light of Sahaja within you and how can you tolerate anything... [GAP]... of your life is concerned, means you must know what to dress up, how to talk, where to go, whom to meet, who are your brothers, who are your sisters, who are your sons and who are your parents. That is how your attention is lost. Then your gross habits: Your old life that was there which has to be just chiselled out, is to be finished. And you cannot go on, because if you go on, you will catch up here and catch up there, then you'll break your neck, you'll come to Me, `Mother, I have broken my back and this has happened, that has happened, it's paining, I'm getting hot, I'm getting headache, I am doing this.' Till you become Sahaja it will go on working on you. But why not become your Self? For example a human being cannot sleep like a dog, for example. If he starts sleeping like a dog because there are all dogs around, then he is going to get the pain. In the same way if you are going to be aSahaja because all are Asahajas, you are going to get into trouble. Because the dog doesn't feel, though he might be getting pain, but he doesn't feel it. But you definitely feel it. The person who is not yet to reborn, doesn't feel it, he gets the problem but he doesn't feel it, you can feel it and you jolly-well have to give it up, sooner the better! If you don't give it up then you are again going back to the same darkness and this new darkness may be hellish, it can be terrible.

It's better to die as human beings then, because then you can go on being born again as animals, this, that. But to be born again and knowing [the Truth], [if] you go on back again to your former habits, it can be very dangerous. That's how I fix your attention, with little fear into your mind, to your subtler being. The subtler being can only enjoy. In the morning you did enjoy the meditation, you had become subtler, I pushed you down there. But you have to keep yourself subtler by remembering, by remembering what has happened, how physically you felt nice.

One of the worst habits that human beings have is to see the watch. It's so painful to Me when I'm talking, people see the watch. I just can't bear it! Because now you are beyond time, beyond space.

What are you going to do by saving time? What have you done so far? That shows your priorities. Our priorities must change and you can change them easily once you start enjoying. Once you have tasted the nectar of Divine Love, the Amṛuta, then you are not going to drink dirty water. But you first of all remember that, the joy that you enjoyed. That is one way of fixing, so-called fixing, your subtleties.

It's the attention which gets covered by gross things of life, even in the emotional side of it, for example, you have relationships. We have seen some Sahaja Yogis being lost like that. They had some very gross relationships with people, even Gurus and some of them were friends and some other dirty relationships, you can say and they couldn't give up and they are lost.

So you have to sit down and find out. `Why am I not enjoying myself? I am the loser. Because those things, if they were joy-giving, I would not have run towards them from one to another. They never satisfied me fully; so why to go back to them again?' The emotional enjoyments, which you regard as something very important, are also to be weighed in the new dimension of your attention and the subtleties. You consider somebody as your very-near-and-dear and you have a business relationship, or some sort of a... I don't know, what sorts of human relations people have. You must know that it is very superficial and you cannot have any joy out of it. Like you drink water from a cup, now the cup itself is superficial, the water is superficial; the most important thing is your tongue which can feel the water. If the tongue cannot feel the water and if the water feels like stones, what's the use of taking water? So the most important thing is the taste in the tongue, in the essence.

In the same way the essence of our enjoyment is the joy and the joy is in feeling the vibrations.

So wherever you get the joy, you should have it. But the new awareness is not so much gone into your being, that's why this is a problem. Otherwise for human beings it is not difficult to tell him that, `This is nice, you drink.' He takes it and he knows it is nice. He won't eat something that is bitter. If you have to give him something horrible tasting, you'll have to give him chocolate first and chocolate later. But human beings, when they become evolved, I have seen that they are more prone towards the horrible things because of their previous attractions.

So, put your attention fully towards Divine, pull it out, completely towards It.

So that there is no attention left towards the gross side.

Even now I find people coming and asking Me, “Mātājī, I have a problem, I want a job, what should I do? Mother, this is to be done, that is to be done?" Of course that is by the way is alright. But if that attracts your attention, means you have lost sense of your understanding that you are a Sahaja Yogi and that your joy is in the subtler form and you can enjoy it.

So these gross things are never going to give you joy, so why not ask for something that is going to give you that subtle joy which you can enjoy; only you can enjoy.

So this is what happens to our attention. We get lost because of our previous ideas and our emotional bindings. And we can also say that our spiritual bindings, so-called, `We are Hindus, Muslims, Christians; we are vegetarians, non-vegetarians; we are', I don't know. `We are Brahmins, non-Brahmins and all kind of things we are,' but we are not what we are.

And, all these things again also come back to you that, `We are Jains, so we are Jains, so we are very great people.' You get Me any Jain from anywhere or anyone from anywhere, does he have the sense of vibrations? Then how is it that person becomes your Guru or that person can teach you about these things. You are now a master. Does the headmaster comes and learns from the boys who are admitted in the schools? I have seen even a newcomer who comes in, if he has a badha, he can entice away at least 5% of Sahaja Yogis, easily. He will talk big, he will show-off and he can bring some Guru inside and five percent will run after that, minimum. How do you explain it? Only thing is that you should not be one of them. Everyone should think for oneself and not for others. You should think that this, you are capable of or not? So in spiritual bindings also your attention is lost like that and all these dimensions are outside.

Now in a description of Gokul, of Vrindavan, you must have read that when Kṛiṣhṇa used to play His flute, all the women who were working, the Gopis in the household, would leave every work, everything.

The milk would be while boiling and they, work was half-done or full-done; they were eating their food or in whatever pose they were sitting, they would just get up and run towards that Mur.lī [flute]. And when they would go there; they would stand just like a picture, chitrawat se thade, just like a picture, no movement in the body, nothing, just standing and listening with full attention. What was so...? He was not even speaking. Just a Mur.lī being played and all of them just listening, like a picture. What was it? The enjoyment that they were feeling; the enjoyment they were enjoying within themselves, the joy that was pouring into them with that Mur.lī, just standing and listening, that's all. What is that? That is the subtleness of that enjoyment. Just like meditation they would stand. In the same way your attention and mind should be on Sahaja, on your being, one with God.

You are one with God; put your centrifugal force towards God, completely. Put yourself in connection, all the time, with God and the rest of the work is done, Yantrawat, just like instruments, the whole thing, will start working.

The human mind is used to do things in a ritual way. That they think that, if you have to raise this house now you have to dig the... first the foundation, then the pile, piling up and then you have those pillars and then you have to have the roof. And, that is how, one after another they plan out things. But in God's own kingdom there is no planning, you just sit down and you just enjoy! If your attention is there, all the work is done. Full attention and then He takes out work. And give full priority to that! Do not compromise your way through. You have to help others also to come up, so [you] must remember, for that also, your attention should be on your Ātmā, on your Spirit, on God, completely one with Him in that joy. The whole heart is there and with your both hands and with your both feet, with all your attention you can pull out people, because your attention is all the time fed, nurtured and looked after. Then you will enjoy also the lifting of the people.

Nothing can be alright, unless and until you develop the subtleties of your attention. And, they develop, by receding your attention from all that is gross. Recede your attention! whenever it goes too much into any thought like that, `Oh, Forget it!' But into vibrations pay full attention. Seeing vibrations, you pay full attention; seeing your own vibrations, pay full attention. Other things you need not worry, they will be all looked after. That is how your attention is subtler in the Kingdom of God. The style is different.

When the lotus is in the mud and it has to come out. It finds its way through many crevices and many holes in that mud, but when it is out, out in the open, absolutely liberated, free, then it does not go on dashing here and there, but just opens out and receives the beautiful dew. And the dew melts the fragrance in the lotus; automatically the fragrance starts flowing. It's a different style altogether, its different method; it's a different way of life, that is being Sahaja. Just whether you are sleeping or you are awake, keep your attention...

The other argument that I gave in My book is about a doctor who thought that the second birth is possible only through sex and I told him that: “you were born because of your parent[s] and not by your own activity.["] To say that, when you love fully you must have sex that means you love someone for sex and that without it your love is not expressed. The absolute value of love is thus challenged. Also, how can you have sex with all the people all the time? It is not possible. Then how can you love the people `fully' all the time?..... it [is] so foolish and absurd that I cannot argue on such empty grounds.

Contents: 1977-02-00, Public Program, Nābhī Chakra, India

The Nābhī Chakra, is placed at the center of gravity, of every human being. If it is not there, that means it is going to be a little problem, for you to get it in its right place. There is a kind of a trouble which most of you suffer from, is maybe due to drugs or maybe nervous problems, due to war, or maybe some sort of a shock to your sustenance. For example, during war, people lost their values, because, they lost faith in God.

Chaste women who believed in chastity, were brutally assaulted. Very religious people, were persecuted, families were broken, many men were killed and children, women and old people, were scattered. A very horrible atmosphere of insecurity, overpowered all these nations. Then came the concentration camps, you see, also, which shattered human beings, because human beings are very delicate instruments. They are the coveted creations, they are the highest and they were dominated by things like bombs, which are matter. Thus, the Spirit in man, died out. People lost faith in righteousness, in love.

Then a new pattern of securities were built up. The industrial revolution followed it, as a result and the artificial sense of joy, of security, of love, was accepted by the society. This is what man did with his freedom, because wars are created by man, this is not God's doing. But along with it, very great seeking souls, took their birth on this Earth. They started seeking beyond these artificial securities, like materialism. The seekers had no proper leaders, to organize them and to lead them to the right path.

So the mistakes committed by them, created a hurdle.

So, apart from the hurdles of human awareness, so many other hurdles were added...

[Aside:] Yes.

...

So many other hurdles were added, which made Sahaja Yoga a difficult process for them.

The countries who took part in the war, only became the developed countries. As a reaction, no it's a reaction, they are the only developed people, who are actually taking part in the war. And those who did not, are underdeveloped.

So, on one side, we have countries, who are trying to seek, because they are over-developed, because they are affluent, but their seekers have lost their moorings, because of anti-feeling.

Alright? While other countries are not yet developed, so the seekers there, are still seeking in money. At this juncture, Sahaja Yoga was found out, this was the stage by which the promised union of human awareness with God is established, through which you feel your unconscious, the Power of God, which is All-pervading, which thinks, organizes and plans. Only through Kuṇḍalinī Yoga of Sahaja, Sahaja Kuṇḍalinī Yoga, only through Sahaja Kuṇḍalinī Yoga, human beings are going to evolve. But those who are going to evolve, have to have their Dharma intact.

Contents: 1977-02-00*, Public Program, Heart and Omkāra, India

Now this left hand side of the heart is concerned with your Mother and with Shiva, the existence. You get your existence through your mother. And Shiva and Pārvatī, they are your parents, both of them are your parents as far as your existence is concerned. And it is such a beautiful center is your, heart center.

You want somebody to do something for your tries, you want that somebody should yield or something, you find somebody very obstinate, well I have told you that you can beat them with shoes, do all those things. But there's a very simple way if you know how to do it. You see, you just think of their Hṛiday, their heart and put a bandhan to that. And you can do it so beautifully, you can melt a person without any difficulties if you know how to handle their heart. You have to appeal to their heart and that's the best attraction I tell you and the best secret method by which you can bring good in them when you are talking to somebody.

Supposing I now, intellectually if I start quarrelling with you, you will give Me up in no time, but I have to use your heart power and I have to enter into your heart and that is how it works.

So always when you want to do something like that, just humble down yourself in your heart, that is first. First of all you must humble down yourself in your heart and from there, work on the heart of others, just put a bandhan and you will see, a person will melt away. We melt our intelligence, our ego, everything, even your superego, in your heart.

So it's a very easy thing if you know how to approach people through their heart.

And that is only possible if you are genuine because genuineness is something that a heart recognizes.

You can befool a person with your cunning methods but the heart will recognize it later on and the person will hate you. Even if you talk to someone: `Oh, very nice, oh, very good, thank you very much, very nice'... and the heart knows: `Oh he's trying to befool me and he's very cunning,' the heart's going to hate such a person. And heart has the attitude to see and feels the person.

So if you could appeal to somebody's heart and put a bandhan on the heart you can melt that person.

And if you love someone and if you want that person should be corrected, supposing such a person is a drunkard or a person who beats you and is torturing you because he's under the spell of some drugs or some sort of a foreign thing, then you just put bandhan to his heart and you will see, they'll be changing.

They will be changing very fast.

And that's why you say `change of heart'. Everywhere you find. In every scripture it is written: change of heart is needed, not the change of clothes.

So it's not an intellectual changing but a rational changing, but it is the change of heart.

And that is brought about by moving the Heart Chakra, on the right hand side, in the clockwise manner.

That is the heart itself in the clockwise manner. If you can do that, you can really do marvels.

And that's how on a collective basis, the heart is sort of the innermost, innermost string of the collective, one string that is passing through all of us.

So if you could strike at the innermost, because in a three and a half circle that's the innermost point, if you touch there, it passes over this. Supposing you touch somewhere else then it might break, but at the beginning if you start striking it, it goes very nicely and passes into complete circumference.

Now the center one I've told you is the heart plexus which we call as cardiac plexus and it has got ten sub-plexuses and the English names for that are, I will again I'm going to give you the complete list. I don't know when we'll have time to go through the medical journal but I'll find out all, all of them and I'm going to tell you what they call it in, in the medical terminology. But they know that there are ten sub-plexuses which are supplying to the muscles of the heart, to the lungs and to the right side lungs and that's how there're divided. But they do not know that it is already three parts and then there are ten petals which are working it out, I'm sorry twelve petals, that are working it out...

[Aside:] Difficult to hear? So three divided into twelve is four each side. But actually it is not so. It is the twelve petals are together in the center and the center one is known as the `sacred heart'. In the Bible [Christianity] it is called as `sacred heart' and this is the sacredness of that heart in the abstract form is the motherly love of God. That's why the Jagadambā, Mother of the Universe, resides there. And these, those twelve petals act according to the Mother of the heart and that's why we cannot allow them to this side or that side, because it is `She' who actually makes them pulsate.

So here `She' becomes a dominant person and not the heart.

There are the Spirit rules.

So Spirit rules by Itself and it is ruled with the help of the reflection of God Almighty Himself. It is on its own, it is arbitrary. It sees, it watches, it is the witness. It watches the play of these ten petals, twelve petals here, but if it finds that there's too much of strain on the center one, it just switches off and when it's switched off, the whole thing stops, you see.

So you must understand the difference between the other Chakras and this one, is that there is the Spirit on one side and the Mother, on the other side is a human, perfect personality [Śhrī Rāma], three things are altogether. Now, if you reduce them to our three powers, you'd understand.

On one side is the instrument or you can say the nucleus for the left hand side working. In the center it is, or you can say left hand side working you can say the Mahākālī's working. In the center you can say it is for the Mahālakṣhmī working. And the nucleus for the working of the right hand side is in the heart, on the right hand side, where Rāma resides. Because we can call it a nucleus, the reason is because He was active, He was active without feeling, without feeling the witness state. Now they combined here where Kṛiṣhṇa came and `He' felt the witnessed state and `He' called it as Leelā, is the whole play. Rāma never called it as play but He called it as play.

So that's why Kṛiṣhṇa here is completed and that's why we call Him as Sampūrna, is a complete incarnation, Ādi.

Do you know that Christ was here and I've told you about Christ in that book. I've read it out to you, the Devī Māhātmyam, what they have described about Him, how He was created and how is that he was brought here, He was Mahāviṣhṇu and how He was put there. But that is not, just now we are discussing, we are just now discussing about these three parts of the heart.

Now what is the connection of these three parts? Why should they be placed at that time? Because at this juncture, we have three nucleus working together in, on three different channels and they are to be connected somehow. They are to be connected, otherwise, you see, in a human being, there is not so much of connection established because there's no Kuṇḍalinī awakening. There is parasympathetic is halfway hanging, dangling and how are they to connect between the heart which is existence, between the heart which is evolution, between the heart which is activity? So at this juncture which is kept connected, once the heart stops, everything stops simultaneously. But when you are on this then your horoscope works out. Horoscope can work out only up to this point because if you predict a person is going to die according to a horoscope, now say, they say, `He's going to die,' say `tomorrow.' But he receives his Realisation today, he is not going to die tomorrow, he will die much later. Or he'll die whenever he feels like possibly, it has happened. Because he goes beyond this limit, where these three things are connected.

So you see, they say that you have got limited number of heart beats, you have got limited number of breathing. When the breathing becomes so slow after Realisation, the rate of breathing is so slow that, as it is realised, it is much elongated and the connection becomes very much different. Because the heart stops once you stop it, it cannot stop because other activities are stilled.

So first of all, when a realised Soul dies, the Kuṇḍalinī has to pass out from here and then the heart stops. It's a different phenomena. And that's why when a realised Soul dies, they find out that the Prāna, the life, has not passed through the mouth or from the nose, but it passes through here and you find a clot of blood over here. But that is the sign that a person was realised of a very high height. But those [realised] who die, even before such an achievement, they do not die with their eyes open, neither with nose bleeding or with their mouth open, but there is just no bleeding at all from the nose or from the mouth, no bleeding at all. And it could be they have to take pressure tests from them. Otherwise, in every other death, there is a bleeding. Eyes in some people may be opened, but if they are fully realised then they'll be closed.

So this is the difference is. But at this level everything works out your [UNCLEAR personality], because here you are still at a level where you have not reached the witness state and that is the reason your horoscopes are working out your, all material things are working out at this level. And that's how you become miraculously different.

I'll give another example of that, how you become miraculous. For example, a realised Soul is travelling by a train. We have got this example, a concrete example in India. There was a realised Soul travelling by a train and the train collided and not a single person was killed in that and there was, it has taken so many somersaults and nobody could explain.

There was one car accident where one realised Soul was going by that car. It was a very big car and many boys were there and some of them were caught up together and they were all drunk and they were singing and he didn't know what to do. But he was there somehow or other and not a single person died in that when this happened, which people were surprised how it had happened. Even if a realised person is walking and if there is an accident that is going to come up, he'll find suddenly something will happen that the accident will be averted. If you could put a bandhan at that time, you can immediately avert that accident.

So you see, such a person who is realised, who has gone beyond this state and has become in a witness state, such a person not only saves himself but saves others.

So all your horoscopes and all these things you see, go into in different categories for a realised Soul because the whole thing changes. The whole thing changes, absolutely changes and he becomes a different person. His hands changes, his lines changes and people start saying, `Oh you must have been this and you must have been that' and then you see, those people who are not realised, if they see your hand they might depict the spiritual change that has come into it. But still they stick onto certain things and they say some things, you see, that they cannot see. But if it is a realised Soul, he can tell you immediately that at what age you will get your full Realisation, what will happen, all sorts of things, if he's a fully realised person. But actually, people after realisation have no interest left in all these things, so seldom are. I've not know anyone who's a realised Soul and still busy telling hands and some things like that. He has no interest left.

But now this coming back to the heart again. On the right hand side we have got Rāma's place. Now Rāma was known for His obedience to Swaddha, if you know his story. His father was in Ayodhya. He was ruling there and he had three wives. The third wife had no, I mean he had two children, sons, but she could not see Rāma getting the throne. She [Kaikeyi] was a very nice mother but somebody you see, some lady went and told something to her and she listened to her and she told her husband that, “If you want to give me my boon, the promised boon, you have to make Rāma go into the jungle for fourteen years and give the throne to my son Bharata." And when the Dasharatha heard this, he fainted, he fainted with this request but Rāma was there. He heard it and He immediately told her that, “I am going to the forest and I've accepted it and your point your son has developed for Me. It's all right." And that's how He went, see.

Just to obey the order of His father, because father had not even ordered but because he was compelled.

He had given his wife two boons, that once you see in the war she saved his life, so he said that whenever you want you can ask for these two boons and they were. She never knew that she would use them in such a funny way. Later on she repented because Bharata came and he refused to accept the throne and he put only Rāma's slippers there and ruled there and everything was different. But Dasharatha died, because when Rāma went away, he just died.

So, you see, Rāma's life shows how He was obedient to His parents. He suffered so much. Anyone who has not been respectful to His parents. You see, if your parents have been unkind, you have every right to tell them that they should not be unkind to you and that you feel hurt, but you have no business to answer them back and you have to be respectful, you have to be respectful because they represent your primordial parents. You are not to shout at them and misbehave. You have to be respectful to them.

They may be bad people, but you have to respect them, because you have chosen them. When you were born, you chose them. You could not have been born to them, you have really chosen them and you said, “These are going to be my parents." So if they are your parents, they are there because of certain reasons, because you have been seeking them in your previous lives and that's how you are there. For example now, you see, you meet some parents and you think they are very good parents to their children. She said “Oh God, can I get them as my parents?" Oh asking, have it. Unless you have it, you know what it is to be their children.

Then you start misbehaving with them, that's not the way. Now only do not come with such mistakes of choosing wrong parents and be respectful to them and it comes as a blessing, it is always very blissful, your parents will be very hard, disciplining time, misunderstanding time, I know it's very hard and with the education that you have and with the understanding you have of the whole world you think they're absolutely foolish and babyish and immature and specially when you have vibrations, you feel even worse about them, addicted to things and they could be quite slaves, but you must understand that you see they have got these troubles, we could have been the same if you had not come to Sahaja Yoga, you could have been much worse, so let us understand them, try to help them out and if you are respectful I tell you, you can be very sure, if you are respectful you can change them.

Elders you can never change by telling them off, that's not the way to change your elders, start behaving in a manner that they should be respected, this is, I'm telling you the secret, how to handle your parents is to be extremely respectful to them so they realise “Oh God, when he respects me so much, how dare I misbehave in their presence." This is the secret of handling your parents and not by shouting at them, no that you have to do with your [UNCLEAR]. But not with your elders, with your elders you have to create a feeling in them that they are to be respected.

It happens, you see, you try, you try this thing with your elders. If you want anybody your elder to be nice to you, try to be extremely respectful and the person starts wondering “Now what should I do to keep yup my respect so I should not lose it?" And what they value most is the respect. Elders, they value the most is the respect. And if you give them the respect they will not give it up for anything. You can make them do whatever you like if you really show them the respect. And they will fight to keep it by giving up anything. You can make them do whatever you like if you really show them the respect.

And they will fight to keep it by giving up anything that you see, lures them away from you, to keep the respect.

But you see, it happens like that, you find your parents not doing what is right, you start suspecting them, then they think “There it is, we have lost the respect, what are we going to gain now?" Because you see, these things do not sort of create any, any recording in their brains.

We had a case, some boy he told Me about his father, that he's been like this and he's behaving in such a manner and it's very wrong of him. I said “I agree it's very wrong of him he should not do it” and so I said, “What are you doing?" He said, “We are hitting him and we are hitting, abusing him." And I said, “That's not the way. When he comes home you try to be very respectful. Try." It worked. He gave up the woman. Because he cares for the respect. And you know how much is respect? After all, most of the people if you see in this world, they want respect. If you respect someone, that person is willing to give up anything for that respect. And a father deserves it, because he's your father and once you accept, “Yes, father, yes, yes” and in a respectful way, you just try and you see it will work.

You see if you want something, all right, what will you have, just ask, but can we stop it at that point, let us talk about something, you can direct the attention of your father only by being respectful, you just try with your mother and father. You're not to boss over them, it's real, I'm telling you the secret. Is not for anything for you see, to make you change your ways or anything, but I'm just telling you the secret because you have lost the idea of the secretive methods of winning over people and understanding them and managing them and really you will have your way. Only thing is to respect them. I thought we might have some questions.

[Music.] But Bible is a book which is being compiled by various people at different places at different stages and all this was revealed to them by the unconscious. All the knowledge that you find in the bible was revealed to them by the unconscious and they could not actually understand the full text of it. Whatever they understood or gathered, they put it down. Part of it was lost because it was not immediately recorded and also because the original bible itself was lost, so all explanations, all the things were left behind and that's how people have a very good loophole to make whatever they feel like about all the great words that are in the bible.

For example `The word', what is the word? Is it logos or something? What is that? What is it comprising of, what does that mean, how it starts, from where it has come? It is Om - Om comes from three words uh, ooh, muh. Uh, ooh, muh. Uh stands for the first creation of the left-hand side, what we call the Mahākālī power. First only in the world manifestation of the superego took place, so we can say that uh stand for the beginning when only up to the stage when life was not created. Oooh stands for the other stage, where, now sound is the same.

Sound is the same, manifestation is different. The voice is the same, My sound is the same, for example whatever is My sound, you can make it out wherever I speak, this is Mātājī speaking.

Maybe the manifestation is different in uh, ooh, muh, so first uh starts, then comes to ooh, which is Mahāsaraswatī power. We can say the three notes which we have as, I don't know in English what you say to the notes but we say sah, uh sah [UNCLEAR], the basic three notes, so the second note is that of Mahāsaraswatī by which the life, sun life, started working. And the third one is the muh through which evolution started taking its place.

So that is the Mahālakṣhmī stage.

So you have got these three powers working together and that is, in a very short form, we say it is Om.

But it is not only that human beings have said it. When you meditate you have seen that Om I'm saying that these three powers have a third, these three sounds and that's how this word is created, of Om For a realised Soul, Om is a most powerful thing. For example, if you want to protect yourself, the word Om itself can protect and when these three powers combine as Om we say that this only the child or the Sun God represents in its purest form Om That's why in the life of Christ, or we can say in the life of a personality that represented the son of God, Om is very important because he embodies that Om within himself. All these three powers are in him and in the most innocent form. What I'm trying to say is this way, now yow take any other deity, any other deity except for this one. Take any other deity, you will find they have more of this power, of that power. For example, if you take say, Viṣhṇu, who stands for evolution, if you take, say, Brahmadeva, he stands for creation. If you take Maheśha, he stands for the what you call the superego side. Even if you take Kṛiṣhṇa, he stands for evolution. But when you rise here, then only you find that all these three powers combine here at the Āgñyā. Till Āgñyā they are separated. At the Āgñyā they combine. That's why it is very important that all these three powers are controlled by Christ and that's why Jesus Christ is the most important deity as far as Sahaja Yogis are concerned, because evolution is all right, but the complete coordination and protection of a human being is only possible if you have all these three powers in your hands.

She got her evolution quite all right, she got her realisation quite all right, but then she found that her left side is broken. But supposing even if she's evolved, what has she to do if the left side is overpowering her? Only Christ can save. Now supposing the right side is overactive, some people it is, you know that very well, that right side of many people is active when you find their ego is too much temper. For them also, supposing they get evolved, what will happen they'll shoot all. But if they're attacked by their ego, only Christ is the person who is going to give them a balance. And if you see Christ, Christ is nothing but a complete balance. It is a complete balance at a higher position. Have you seen a balance, how it is? Balance if you see which is kept at a higher position that the centre. And that's how it is, He balances and that's why He is the Omkāra Himself, the embodiment of a Omkāra because as we know that He is Gaṇeśha and Gaṇeśha is Omkāra personified.

In this sound of Omkāra, the complete sounds of the worlds are there. All the permutations and combinations, the complete melody of this universities within these three sounds uh, ooh, muh. It is based on Om.

When the Kuṇḍalinī moves also, it moves in three ways uh, ooh, muh, because in the lower portion it is the uh. In the centre portion it is the ooh and here it is the muh.

Meaning that at the lower portion of the human being we are what was created as dead matter. In the centre we are what is creation, means creativity and in the third is the evolutionary, so even we are divided in three ways, is, we are, our upper part is muh, central part is ooh and the lower part is uh. That is how we are and when you say Om in a proper way, you find the Kuṇḍalinī rises.

There is no difference at all as far as Bible is concerned and Sahaja Yoga is concerned, as far as Koran is concerned and Gītā is concerned. Only the people with very limited vision see the difference. The one who has seen the internal of it cannot see any difference, because it's just the same. Only thing is because of circumstances, because of different methods by which it was manifested, you find a little difference in them, but as far as the matter is concerned and the substance is concerned, it’s it's just the same. I do not find even a word which I cannot explain in the Bible, or in the Koran, or in the Gītā.

Everything can be explained very clearly, but the problem with people is they cannot think in a unified manner, human beings cannot. They must try to find out the shell or a kind of a pool to stagnate. That's human nature. They want to become worms, all the time, because they were once, they want to again become worms and amoeba, I think they'll end up with being, I don't know what to say. That's why.

They cannot see the one universal truth that is flowing into them and that is the reason which has killed religions, all over, because once you know that there is one sound that is passing through all of these beautiful religions, the flowers of universal creation, then there cannot be any problem or fight and by creating this kind of death for all the religions, they have allowed these horrible people to come up and occupy the stage now, so you have them very nice, to overcome all our physical, emotional and mental problems.

Om works like anything. Now you may say that where is the word Om in the Christian religion? It is in Amen. Amen is nothing but Om, because muh means a nasal sound and end of a nasal sound and nuh also means nasal sound, because in the Arabic language it's written like a nee, you see and nee with My name, you say, nooh, with My name starts nuh, also written with a dot, all of them have got a dot.

It's a dot which shows that it's a nuh. And in the Sanskrit language, dot means nuh. And that is why it is muh and nuh. Amen is the same as Om.

Now the problem is everything, as evolution goes up, changes and that's why Om was brought to the level of Amen. Uh became Ah and Ooh became Muh and Muh became Nuh. As I told you that Christ came as a human being, but He was Gaṇeśha. And the swastika became the cross. The same way, Om is Amen.

So after every prayer, you are supposed to say Amen. Why not Amen? What does that mean? From there the word Om ends in English language. If you see, even in the word, in the languages, the universality is ringing but we have no eyes to see the universality. We think `Oh! we are Christians. We believe in Christ. We don't believe in all this nonsense. Because others are all nonsensical.' But how are you related to Christ? How much do you know of Christ? That nobody knows, you see. And that is how all the problems of all the religions are now coming before you, that people just don't believe in anything.

They say that believing in religion is tomfoolery. All this tomfoolery going on. Why waste such a lot of money on churches? Why should we have any popes and why should we have any big organizations in the name of God? Why should we have temples, why should you? I mean, there are, as here, we have everywhere people who are revolting against all these so-called, they say so-called religions, but everything that has come into being in the name of God, in the purity of heart of people has come to them from God Himself. The only problem is, when it is communicated to a human being who is not yet realised, even realised, how far are they realised? You have seen now, how much Kevin knows and how much you know.

So even those are slightly realised, how much are they going to know what he wants to communicate? And that's why this kind of foolish separation started among human beings and once you disintegrate religion into religions, finished. That was the best way of finishing religion, because they did not give the substance, the importance to the substance. They just tried to give importance to something that is so superficial and that superficiality also was created by these horrid people, who just wanted to use Christ as their pocketbook, Kṛiṣhṇa as if He belongs to their household. This has been used all over the world in a very very subtle way and the muh's word means Ma and you know that all of us, for a Mother, say Ma. You go anywhere in the whole world, they understand the word Ma. Nobody has problem as far as the word Ma is concerned, because it ends up into that, that means the whole creation ends up at the feet of the Mother, even Christianity you can understand that it is the Mother, even is love. When they talk of Mohammad Sahib, they must know that He had to take the help of five women to be there. And they were alone better than the other, all of them were uh ooh muhs, with him, the powers. They were the powers that he had and that's how he had to marry so many. None understands what was it, for example his own first wife Khadija was nobody else but Mahāsaraswatī. His own daughter was nobody else but Mahālakṣhmī.

So it was all his powers expressed as his wife, or sister, or daughter who helped him in his lifetime, sustaining his powers.

Now the same word Om is used by negative forces also. How do they use it? They will give this name to some devil, normally they do not, because this is one of the purest words which cannot be Contaminated.

Normally they will not, normally they will not. I have Not met anyone so far who has got a devil on him with the name Om, And nobody so far has given this name to anyone, but I have seen.

People giving names like [UNCLEAR]. These are the names, different Imee stands for Mahākālī, bree for Mahāsaraswatī, glee for Mahālakṣhmī, I'm sorry, Imee for Mahākālī, bree for Mahālakṣhmī and glee for Mahāsaraswatī.

So they will give these names, separately I have seen, to the devils whom they want to put, for example I will take the name of the gentleman, you know him, who calls himself transcendental and all that, he uses these names. Of course, out of them the first one Imee is now tied up somewhere.

Now, this Imee bree glee, though they are the names of the Goddesses. He can use, but he cannot use the name of Om and he cannot use the name of Jesus. He cannot give the name of Śhrī Gaṇeśh. These names are beyond their [UNCLEAR]. You see because they are terrible, a Mother can forgive, but these people are, they just burn them out and that's why they dare not put these names. You will not find, though they will say it like this, that in the name of Jesus, you see, they might say. They might use the word Jesus, you see, in the name of Jesus I give you this, like that and they say the photograph of Jesus and all that and they might even use cross. Because you can see cross made by these people only. They can put them. But they cannot give the name of Jesus to these devils, they cannot ask you say Jesus, Jesus.

They will never say that. But they say [UNCLEAR]. They might say all kinds of ooms and everything.

But with all of these they can attack someone, like this, they say Om namo Shivāya, it's all right. Om namo Shiva, now, Om you have put it, in that it neutralises, they perhaps do not know it neutralises a little bit. Om namo Shivāya.

So somebody's name is namo Shivāya and he comes into it.

And it means so great, means you bow to Shiva. That aspect of God which is eternal. But they will say that you take the name Om namo Shivāya because with that the thing you see, it's overpowered by Shiva and that's how they will put Om with that, but they'll never give a single word as Om at [UNCLEAR] point, because no devil will own that name, it's too great. And these are the tricks these people play with the word Om and you should play with the same. Whenever you feel like that, you just say Om Don't say anything else, say Om For you, every sentence has an end. Even if you say Om namo Shivāya [UNCLEAR]. But even if you say Om Jesus, it's enough. Now in a circle, if you say the complete universe into a circle, then you make three portions of that, you get three arches. Say one is uh, another ooh, another muh. When you try to reconstruct them, then you get uh ooh and muh, there are three arches, you reconstruct them. First arch is bent like this uh, ooh, second one like that and the third one is muh. And the dot on that is the centre point Is the centre point of the circle, dot on that.

Now you have seen how Om is written down and that is how it is, the three arches are described like that, so the whole creation and the centre dot, which is the God Himself, all put together makes the Om and that is how it is being named. I think I have told you now first of all when the creation too, place, how first the Om was formed. Did I tell you with the parabola, with the drawing, so the first sound, the first sound that started because of the separation, the first separation when it too, place between the two identities, God and His Power, that was the time the sound started and that sound is nothing else but Om That sound will be there and will work out till these two identities become one, then there is no relativity left and so there is nothing, so people think the world has come out of nothing, because there is no relativity, when they become two then there is something, otherwise they are one and absolute and so there is nothing, when the sound merges or finishes or, as we say, disappears [UNCLEAR]. That is the time when the whole creation merges into one action.

So that is the point where one has to go.

Now, in your own being it happens. First you feel the Om, you feel it sometimes the sound coming, sometimes you feel some sort of tingling going on, because there are seven sounds, which are easily discernible out of this Om Easily. But there are many, but I am saying at least seven you can easily find out. If you sit down sometimes you might hear some sort of a bell ringing, sometimes you'll hear as if there is a waterfall and sometimes you'll hear as if in the night, the small crickets are singing. You see all kinds of sounds are coming, you see you feel that they are there, something is happening, in the night, you see, that sort of a feeling you'll get, all different types of sounds there are, but seven sounds you can easily find out and all of them put together make the Om So, if you play all of them in a proper manner, in a melodious manner, well we can say in a harmonious manner, then you'll hear the sound Om.

Now, when there is a suggestion coming to you from somewhere, you'll always feel there is a sound coming in your ears, so you'll be alerted. You are alerted and you just pay attention what ideas are coming and then suddenly you get an idea. Note it down. These are the ideas coming from the unconscious. Just wait, a sound will come. And the sound will suggest that there is a suggestion coming, you note it down.

But with the devil, such a thing will never happen, you will never get the sound, you also will get Ad... or something [UNCLEAR]. With maybe little fragments because they carry as fragments, just [UNCLEAR]. But mostly you get horrid smell of, as of burnt leather, or something like rotten egg, horrid smells you get from such people who are possessed.

So this Om is, is a sound that understands, that talks, hat organizes, that informs and that is the sound of the Divine love, This is the electrical feeling that you get on your hand. But this is the sound.

So we have got also five very subtle type of expression of five elements and those are this fine sound of Om, the vibrations are the electrical, there is a magnet in that sound, or in that powered, for a person who is, who is realised. The person who is blessed by God has a magnetic power. That person attracts.

That person might not even speak about, but people know about these things. They know that he's a man who's realised, there's something special about him. Immediately you can find it out, what he is.

It is because of this sound and the magnet. You must have heard that sound when we converted into matter. In the same way, all these things are converted, the sound becomes a magnet, the magnet becomes the vibrations, the vibrations can become the spirit.

So these are all convertible and part and parcel of the same thing, the same energy which is the Divine love, which is love. Love has a sound and love has electricity, it has got magnetism. And it has got the power. When all these subtle powers are poured on to any human being, it acts, it acts and people start improving in their health. You must have heard of experiments where people have tried music on some people who are hot well and they have been cured.

And what happens is that they, the subtler, subtler powers of the sound that we are manifesting, that behind it, the power that is manifesting it, comes into play. Which is a very small thing there, but with you people, when you put your hand this is the sound of Om which is vibrating, it is so micro, microwaved, vibrations, that you cannot see with a magnifying glass, you will not see My finger shaking at all, you'll say they are very steady, but they're very microwaves. And the microwaves, when they pass into the body of the human beings, or anything, there they awaken the microwaves that are sleeping in the body of the human beings, or whatever things you use and they start generating the second, what you call, phase as the [UNCLEAR] of the outside [UNCLEAR].

For example, I'll tell you how. Now, I put My hand to a person who is sick. Now here I put it and he is sick on this part, he has got some trouble, what happens? These waves, they're passing to there and whatever are sleeping inside you see, they are sort of regenerated. And they start getting awakened and they start getting strengthened. Now, they generate the other manifested ones, or we can say the apparent ones, by which the person feel cured. For example, we put like this, now the blood is clotted here, there's no blood flow. You put your vibrations there, what happens, that the blood clot starts dissolving, because the dissolution power of the blood is with the Vitamin K. And the Vitamin K is excited because these vibrations passing through that and the Vitamin K is excited there. Later on by the microwaves which are receding and that's how it works. But you cannot see that. They just work. They are [UNCLEAR abrusha]. They are invisible. But they are there. To record them is impossible. Because human beings do not have any such instruments. Now at least, thank God, the scientists have accepted that we haven't got ears to record everything that is in the sound.

So, in the same way, they haven't got records to record the vibrations of these microwaves.

Now, when you people say Om, realised people, when You say Om, the sound waves of Om, you just try on a person who is, Just now you are having some pain there. All right. Now just now You put your hand there and say Om Try it [music].

I want to first tell you about My meeting and why Gandhi is so important. Perhaps you have never realised what a tremendous instrument Gandhiji was. At the age of seven years he just picked Me up from My family and I stayed with him, very very close, extremely close and he used to call Me as Nepali. That was My name. And everybody knew Me by that name. After forty years, or say forty-five years or so, suddenly I met [UNCLEAR]. In the wedding of his own son. And I went to him, I saw immediately he recognized Me. He said “What, Nepali, how are you here?" and just tears started rolling down My eyes. That was Gandhiji. He was a tremendous hard master also and

I always used to say that you can be hard, but how can you be hard with all these people? He would make us get up at 4 o'clock. It was very easy for Me to get up at four because you see, My body had no habits, I can get up any time and sleep any time, but I speak for others [UNCLEAR] get up at four o'clock and they had to clean their temples, they had to even, they sometimes had to clean, clean the bathrooms and the lavatories and everything with their own hands. He was a tremendous hard master, but an extremely loving and compassionate person. He, as just now, as everyone has said, he definitely always used to talk to Me in a way as if I was a grandmother, you see and he used to discuss things with Me, most surprising to all others, in a way and I was big and wiser, to everyone and he would make Me say [UNCLEAR]. And he said that guidance can be had better from some children than from the older people. Even when I again went to Gamlasha [UNCLEAR]. This time, My husband told Me the same thing, do you remember he used to say so. I said I remember that. But somehow he had recognized Me and he knew about Me, you see by [UNCLEAR] who had recognized Me and somehow or other, by which we have not been able to know, by which there were some people [UNCLEAR] somewhere near there [UNCLEAR]. There were people who were absolutely standing an areas of [UNCLEAR]. They would not tolerate anything that was wrong for themselves. First thing they had was to keep themselves like that, in Dharma. And Gandhiji used to really [UNCLEAR]. And ask us [UNCLEAR].

He was a tremendous personality. And the thing that I have learnt from him, I should say was one of the things which I could never have understood otherwise, is a sense of public money. Actually I have no sense of money at all, I am so [UNCLEAR]. I do not know what is bank, I do not know how to cash a cheque. I still, you know, I mean, I must have cashed lots of cheques but I don't know how to do it, even today if you want to teach Me I just can't learn. I am no good for that. But I've seen Gandhiji's sense of public money, he was so keen, so keen and so sharp that anybody who has lived with him, I cannot understand, how can they take to this kind of cheap dealing with public money.

Once we had a meeting of all the big leaders and they came to Nandi ashram where we all girls were staying and some boys were there, looking after them, giving them pamphlets and things and suddenly Gandhiji realised that it is very late and they should have their lunch in the ashram itself.

So he said that why not have your lunch here. They said all right, if you think you will have, all right.

So he got up, he always had [UNCLEAR]. With him because [UNCLEAR] was not there so he came down and he told us, “Let us weigh food for them and take it out." So then we had to weigh according to the number of people who were there. He said I am a Bhakta pavya, you must properly weigh everything and take it out and then he took about fifteen minutes to do all that, then again he took the piece, put it back and went on with his work. I think it was Molanazad [UNCLEAR]. Or someone who was there who said, “Babu I never give, we never mean that you'll be put to so much trouble for our sakes. We could have gone back a little later and had [UNCLEAR]." He said, “Trouble, what trouble? No." The way you got up and had to take away [UNCLEAR], you are so cautious and careful about it.

You know the word he said, you know “This is the blood of my people. I cannot allow it to be wasted or in any way spilled." Just imagine, he said “Nibhani dani mira droga" I mean, I cannot forget his sense of understanding. And even I have seen Mr. Shastri do the same. I mean, there was nothing like a double standard. On the contrary, the closer you get to them, you respected them much more, because they are so clean and so clean and they thought with that they'd maintain that cleanliness and that standard.

We are really very lucky to have such great people born in this country of ours. Only the trouble is that we have forgotten what great contribution they have done, that Gandhiji was one who came on this earth to save us from this fallen domination, in such a unique manner he laid down the basis for Sahaja Yoga. Actually, in every way he laid down. For example if you see his ideas, economic ideas, are absolutely in tune with Sahaja.

Now after the Industrial Revolution and Industrial Revolution as they call it in the west, people have gone so far in creating aggressive economy that they are astounded the way now, things are working out in those countries. The aggression that started with the industry, the machinery, is now directed towards the human beings themselves. In England, you'll be amazed, which is the soberest country among all others.

In England, every week two children are killed by their parents is the statistics. Can you imagine? Good children.

They are not illegitimate children. No family is safe from this aggression. The aggression is now towards oneself, is absolutely self-destructive. The machinery, the child that started creating things also mad human beings machines and these machines had no feelings within them and the feelings started drying up and drying up to such an extent that human beings have become feelings-less. They have no emotions left.

I don't know if Gandhiji could have sensed it to that extent, because you know, it is difficult for a saint to see the forces of evil, how far they can harm, it's a very difficult thing. He did see something of it, so he was warning, that don't go in for heavy industries. Heavy industries are very dangerous and he threw out [UNCLEAR]. That tried to keep [UNCLEAR]. Place in industries.

With all this advancement in the west, you'll be surprised that the condition is such that you cannot get anything fresh. The food that you get is nothing but God knows what kind of a chemistry they have adopted, that all the time you feel you are eating chemicals. You do not feel you are eating any food. If you talk to people, you feel they are [UNCLEAR stumped/stunned], they are shocked and afraid of each other. There is no love, there is no trust, there is no give and take. It's such a ridiculously absurd society that has been created, that it is important for us so-called developing countries to look where have they fallen, to what ditches they have gone and stand by and see for yourself that though you are trying to use science and use these industrial achievements of other countries as a tool to our advancement, you should know that they can completely destroy us, as they have destroyed those people.

The destruction is not from outside so much. Of course it is in a way, the way we have created Hiroshima and all that, but the destruction is from within and that destruction is settling in such a big way, that it's impossible now to stop. Only way is to turn the whole thing into a new dimension by which you can control it and that is only possible through Sahaja Yoga. Thank God, My husband was elected and I went to London, that we have now a base.

Gandhiji is the man who has created base for Dharma in this country of modern times. If you see his Bajanawi [UNCLEAR]. You'll be amazed, it is all based on the different Chakras, one after another all that Bajanawi will start from one to another. Is just like how we do it for our Kuṇḍalinī awakening. It is based one after another, from one Chakra to another Chakra, to another Chakra, to another Chakra, though he has not mentioned anything else. Apart from that, we in Sahaja Yoga, we have to take account of all the incarnations, of all the prophets, of all the great primordial masters, who came on this earth and adjust accordingly the different movements of the Kuṇḍalinī. Because according to Sahaja Yoga all these incarnations are within us and they help us and we have to awaken them. Same thing Gandhiji has done, is to tell us that we have to look around, we have to know Bible, we have to know Gītā, we have to know all these great scriptures and great people and integrate.

Of course, that part is left to Me, is the actualisation of what he wanted to do. Though he definitely had prepared the base economically, then political base also. He never believed in aggression. Never. And he said that sharing should be brought. He always believed even capitalism should be conquered through enlightenment. Though he was so busy with this emergency job of saving the whole nation, that he could not pay much attention to the subtler side of Sahaja Yoga, which I call awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī of Self-realisation.

But he always talked of, he always said about it, most surprising, he's the only one I have seen so far who was not doing Self-realisation, but was so close to it and could see clearly that Self-realisation is the only way for emancipation of human beings. His values and his styles were so correct.

As a mother also, I was a child but I was a mother throughout and I would always feel that Gandhiji was little too strict and I used to say that, “You are too strict, I just can't bear it" and tears used to come into My eyes. I said “This is a bit too much." He said, “No. We are in emergency. We have to be disciplined. We have to be disciplined and we have to tell them." So once I told him, “Babu, if you want to discipline people, why not give them discipline from within?" He said “How to get to their place?" I said “It is very easy. You can do it." He said, “Not just now. Not just now. First of all, let us be free. If you are not free, what can we enjoy? We cannot talk about it. People will say that we are not even free.

How can we talk of freedom of spirit? We should be free from the foreign domination." I would say in emergency, supposing we use a boat to cross over. Then we do not carry the boat on our heads, but we do carry the experiences of our crossing and those experiences are very great. And the greatness about Gandhiji was that he created great only by his personal character and by his dynamic, absolutely dynamic leadership. And the area when this has happened, I have seen those people were absolutely regenerated. You cannot believe how sacrificing they were. I have seen My own father, that today I think he was a legendary man, if I tell you how great he was. I mean, every way, I cannot find a single fault in his life as a leader.

But today it's very different and very sad that those who were supposed to be Gandhiji's people, followers. The other day I talked to somebody that why not start with basic education, because we don't live in cities, why should we have this education? It doesn't go to the villages.

So he said, “That's very different, it's very different proposition" and all that. I was amazed, he was a Gandhian, how could he talk like that? It is not at all difficult to adopt Gandhiji’s ways in India. As Gregoire told you, I have been to China and Mao has definitely followed Gandhiji. He has copied everything that Gandhiji has done. I was amazed because when I was there I saw even [UNCLEAR]. Being practiced by him. All the things that Gandhiji thought of, he has done and he has improved China. And today, China is like a tiger. People are afraid. You see, this tiger has now awakened. Now what is it going to do? It has got its own power. And this is what Gandhiji had dreamt, imagine that Mao should use it and why not our people? I don't know.

I should blame the bureaucrats or the congressmen or the politicians who never understood that Gandhiji was the most practical man and now Sahaja Yoga I'm sure will re-establish his ways. Definitely it has to be established. Too much of asking, too much of elaborations, too much of materialism makes you a slave of material.

You'll be amazed. We are supposed to be poor people, we are supposed to, but we are not. In London, or in America, American people are such miserly people that I'm absolutely shocked. Absolutely shockingly miserly. To spend five rupees for us is nothing, for somebody who comes to our house or something, but Americans are such miserly people, even if they have to spend one rupee they'll think ten times. Same in England I find. And same in other places. Terribly miserly calculating people.

I have known some people, if you go to their house they'll count heads and give you sandwiches accordingly. Horrid! And they behave in such a ridiculous manner. All the time they are thinking about money, how to make this money, how to make that money, how to keep it. You cannot imagine, this affluence, so-called, has made them so poor. Absolutely absurd.

I always felt that through these material gains they might become sort of satisfied people and would take to less materialism. But it's not so. It's just the opposite. People have taken to materialism as a religion and it is so maddening, so maddening that you can't take it. You are just absolutely by the materialistic ideas you have, the values [UNCLEAR]. It is such a mad world that if you stay there, then only you realise how maddening they are.

So as a result, these people that are here, you can see them, they revolt. They could not bear it any more. They say, “We'll get out of it." But still the clutches of materialism are so great that they have to live with them and they find it very difficult, only through Sahaja Yoga they have been able to establish themselves and steady themselves. I would say these are the great pioneers who will change the whole of the west. They are the foundations of tomorrow's beautiful west, otherwise west is now a wasteland, nothing but a wasteland I can tell you. I hope these people will take to Sahaja Yoga in the right earnest [UNCLEAR]. And will spread the message of Sahaja Yoga and will create that atmosphere as just now Dr. [UNCLEAR]. Was saying, the beautifying, the transforming atmosphere. In all these Western countries, run about, work it out and bring the dawn of a new world in which we all live together as human beings and as real brothers and sisters.

Sahaja Yoga has done a great service to humanity and it has given you Antar Yoga within yourself, it has given you Antar Yoga between the Sahaja Yogis and it is so great that some of these people have been in India many a times, they have never been able to come close to Indians, because all the Indians, those whom they met, were all westernized without [UNCLEAR]. They had the same ideas, the same philosophy, the same everything and they were, they were enamoured by the west and they were just praising the Western culture and Western way. But the first time they say, when they have come now, they went to Indian religious and the way they have come and embraced all these villagers and the way they danced together and the way they enjoyed, this is the real Antar Yoga, the real love between all of them. The real enjoyment and the real oneness that one feels. It is not just talking or saying of ideal things, that we are brothers and sisters and you are listening, that you are all brothers and sisters and nothing which is, you just become, is the actualisation you cannot just help it, helping another person.

For example now. If I am sitting here and if I say that I have cured, I am doing no good, I am not doing it for any of you, I am doing it because you are part and parcel of My whole [UNCLEAR]. I have to jolly well cure you if I want to feel all. I can feel you within Myself. This is The actualisation of collective consciousness. And once that happens, You just start feeling the oneness and today I am going to talk about Collective consciousness to you, through Sahaja Yoga, how we get it, It's an actualisation, not brainwashing or lecturing. This is the Difference between the way people have been talking, we talk before It happens, but now the time has come, it is to happen.

Contents: 1977-02-15*, Public Program (Hindi+English), Day 2, Sat Chit Ānanda, New Delhi, India

[Shri Mataji talks in Hindi is MISSING.] [Shri Mataji talks in English:] Today I'm going to tell you, yesterday I told you what are the mental [UNCLEAR settas/stratas] or what is the totality of man. Whatever I have told you about it, about the totality of man, all his four sides, is: on top is the super-consciousness, on the right hand side is the supraconscious state and this side is the subconscious state and down below is the hell. You can see that after Realisation, not before.

Before it, if I tell you that this man is not correct, that man is correct; you are not going to like it; you will think I am criticising someone. Why should I criticise? One person I say he's good, another person is not good. Later on, once you are realised and you have gone deep into it, then you become so sensitive that even the name of such a person gives you a heat in the hand, you start burning, you don't like it.

So this strata, this strata of super-consciousness, I told you, I will be discussing today. Because yesterday we discussed it too, but now you might say that we must do even the collective subconscious and also this collective supra conscious, we should try to do everything. But you are sidetracked, not only, but you are affected, you are hurt. But the worst part of the whole thing is that after human state, if you go to any one of these states [UNCLEAR], you go to the Pishācha. On the left hand side you become a Pishācha and on the right hand side you become a Rākshasa.

Even after Realisation a person like Rāvaṇa became a Rākshasa. He was a realised Soul. He was a Brahmin, no doubt, he was; but even after that, you see, he had such a weakness for women. When he tried to do that, again he fell down, he became a Rākshasa. The trouble is, after this stage, you become either a superman, or a what you call the Devatā or, you can say, the realised Soul; or you become a Rākshasa.

So you have to choose. Now human state is such a state that either you go this way, that way, or you go to hell. And when you go to the extremes you come down to hell.

Supposing you have been to somebody who has been a Tāntrika [black magician] and he has been trying all these things and all that; unknowing also; he does not know he's a Tāntrika and you have been to him, you come to Me, immediately we find out that there has been a problem. If you go to a realised Soul, immediately I will know that he has been to...

Today one gentlemen came from India [to Me]. I asked him: “Who is your Guru?" And he told Me his name. He's a realised Soul, I know, in Kanchi, Śhrī Shañkarāchārya of Kanchi, the old one; he's a realised Soul; not the new one. The new one is not; none of them are, except for one, the Kanchi. When he told Me I said: “You will get your Realisation, no problem; because you see, if he's a realised Soul, they will have no complications." He got his Realisation, he was all right in no time.

So no question. But if you go to, say, somebody else who is Tāntrika, bend your head before that, you can't get your Realisation.

Now, there is nothing to criticise. Why should I? I'm not a politician. I don't want anything, I don't want any money, nothing. I don't have to know even about Kuṇḍalinī. I know each and every thing about it, absolutely complete. I don't have to have anything from you. Then why should I say that this man is not all right? Because I can, even a child can, say. If a child is realised he would say.

My granddaughter she went in Ladakh to see some lama. She went to Ladakh and saw some lamas.

These lamas are, none of them are realised; surprisingly none of them are realised; it's a fact, I'm telling you. If they were realised I would have said they are realised, but if they are not I will say: `They are not.' The pope is not a realised person. This is not politics, this is absolute truth.

So this little girl, she was hardly that time three or four years of age, so she looked at him and said: “Ekya sarumanai ki cho ga pinanke. Aise bandh ki baite. Garam [hot] kaige." Immediately she said it because she could feel it; she's a child.

We had once a program and another granddaughter of Mine she had come and a big Sādhu Baba in Bombay [Mumbai], I will not name him, because you all know him. He's not a Guruji but he's running a big mission there. He was sitting on the dais and this My granddaughter was sitting with someone in front, she's a small girl, very small; now she's hardly five-and-a-half; that time she might be about four-and-a-half. She saw from there this gentlemen sitting there. They had called Me as a chief guest and he was the Chairman or something like that, so I don't know, Chairman he was, something, I don't know.

She saw from there. She said: “Nanny nanny maxi pants garam garam" [... hot, hot] [Marathi]. It was so embarrassing [Marathi].

He's telling you the truth; why do you call him obstinate? He's a very brilliant boy, very brilliant.

[Marathi]. He's so particular and one day he was saying that a [Marathi] he can't bear it. One father came to see My brother and My brother was about to touch his feet and he said: “If you would have touched his feet otherwise I would have hit the father very nicely. Why should you touch his feet?" So, you see, the thing is, this is the absolute knowledge, it is the knowledge by which you know what is the truth, what is not the truth.

Question: [UNCLEAR].

I know, that is the reason why I am so sorry. You see, why My attitude is very different from these Guru is: I don't say that you spoil yourself: `Go to this one, go to this one; all right, die there.' I don't say like that. I'm looking after you because I know you are seekers and I feel sorry because the seekers have done it, I feel very sorry.

Now the hippies abroad, you see My center is just in the center of the hippie village. Why? Because I know they are the seekers, poor things, they are suffering because they are the seekers. You see all My sympathies; all My heart goes to them because they are the seekers. You know how much I'm working with you, you know that very well, because I realise that you are a seeker and, in your ignorance, you have gone to these people.

Now you can say that: `Why didn't God give us this sensitivity?' God has, God has given you. Human beings were very sensitive at the time of Sītājī. At the time of Rādhājī also they were very sensitive; but now, you see, the man, in his freedom, has become so materialistic. What impresses is a good dress, good features, big car, somebody coming in a big car. Oh big thing. We are becoming, day-by-day, very gross.

This is the reason. And this grossness has grown into us, you see. That's why you do not feel it. But there are many people, I tell you, who could not bear J. Kṛiṣhṇamūrti. They said: “Oh he's [UNCLEAR seeking]. What are we to get from him?" It's just simple, you see; use your brains. Either use your sensitivity of your heart or use your brain. God has given you brains. If you read J. Kṛiṣhṇamūrti you'll know he was seeking. It's very easy to find out, the one who is seeking and the one who is not seeking.

Yesterday that singer was singing all the Bhira songs. Then he got realised and I said: “Now don't sing Bhira; now you've got it." But still he goes on Bhira, so God will say: `All right, let him not have his vibrations.' So you lose his vibrations. In small things, you know, I've seen people lose their vibrations.

Such a precious thing has been brought down to that and for a small thing they lose it.

There was a man who got Realisation and he went somewhere, Kashi or someplace. From there he bought some black thread, he was wearing. Now see the human mind, you say that we are, but this is stupidity. He gave that black thread to him. Now what is a black thread, you tell Me? What is the worth of a black thread? He lost his vibrations. When he came to Me I said: “My son, throw away this black thread." He cannot throw. He said: “No, no, no, no; I cannot throw black thread." I said: “Oh, what to do?" I said: “Who has given you this black thread? Use your brain." I spent one hour discussing with him, then he threw the black thread. I said: “This man has taken, for this one small, little thing, five rupees from you; you must know this man is making money. His bad vibrations have gone; and why are you attached to it?" Now do you know why he's attached? Because he's possessed by that.

What is there in a black thread? You tell Me? And he's an educated man. He's not a foolish man. That thread he could not throw. [Hindi.] Now you know. [Hindi.] You see you are attached to these small, small things of life and not to the eternal things; that's why, that's why you lose it. I don't ask you to sacrifice anything, I don't even ask you to throw away anything.

I don't say that you give up anything there are people who smoke, drink, I don't even say that, because I know, even if I say that, they will run away. I know that human being are like that. You see, I please you, I please, I chastise, I chide you, I do everything. But you must know one thing, that I want that you should stick onto reality. I will not allow you to have falsehood within you. There are methods that a Mother employs.

There was a great smoker, you see, who came to Me and he told Me: “I cannot give up smoking; that's why I cannot come to Sahaja Yoga." I said: “No, no, you don't give up smoking, you can come to Me; there is no need for you to give up Sahaja Yoga." He came and you know what happened, a lot of smoke started coming from his nose and mouth, started getting the fragrance of Udhbathi [incense]. He said: “What's this happening?" I said: “All your smoke is coming back." Now whenever he smoked he used to get that fragrance of Udhbathi. He gave up. I played some tricks also to help him. But it's for your good only. If it is not for your Hita –‘benevolence’, for your Kalyāṇa –‘welfare’, you should not do it.

There was a question people said that: “It is said that: `Say the truth and also it should pleasing, Priyam'. How could you say `Satya' and `Priyam' together?" Because if you say some Satya people don't like it; it is not Priyaka. Because supposing I say: `You give up this habit of yours.' Then you don't like it. But that is a fact. If I say: `You don't do this job; it is not a good job; you should not do it.' So you don't like it.

So what to do? So Kṛiṣhṇa has found out; He says that: “You tell them the Hita." Hita means [UNCLEAR]. Whatever is Hita for your Ātmā must be told.

So though it may not be Priya, just now, after sometime, it becomes Priya; because he realises: `What I have got out of it.' Of course I don't want to lose any one of you, I do not want you to lose your vibrations in anyway, never. How could I want it? I want you to have it. But you must know what your mind is up to.

Yesterday one gentleman was here; his Kuṇḍalinī could not rise because he has had a some sort of an obsession. See the human mind how it works. Then he showed Me a photograph. I was telling: “I will not tell you." He was after My life. “You tell me what is this, what happened to me? I had become like this for three days; I went into trance, I had these things." I didn't want to tell him, because I know it would upset him.

So I gave it to one of these Sahaja Yogis; they started burning their hands; they gave him back. Still he was after My life: “You must tell me, You must tell me." I tell him, I told him: “You were possessed." He was so angry with Me. He was telling: “This is not Kuṇḍalinī this can..." You can see the Kuṇḍalinī rising, you can see this reading of it, you can see the rising of it, you can see the acting of it, you can see the people who know about it, who know about collective consciousness. But he got angry with Me for that; he went away. Now what am I to do? `You see yourself in this. This is the [UNCLEAR Tarpana] I'm showing.' There was another fellow who came; he was this Haṭha yogi, he was a police-walla [policeman].

So I told him: “You have read Patanjali?" He said: `Yes." I said: “In Patanjali it is said that it is not meant for householders; it is meant for Sannyāsīs who are sitting in the jungles with the Guru. It's Yama Niyama [UNCLEAR], Brahmacharia and everything." He said: “Yes, it's true, there are eight things to be done." I said: “Are you doing eight things?" He said: “No." [To a Sahaja Yogi:] What is your relationship with your wife?

Sahaja Yogi: She's run away.

Shri Mataji: Then?

Sahaja Yogi: I've become very hot-tempered; even my Guru is a big, hot-tempered man.

Shri Mataji: Now you are teaching this to police people? God save us! Oh God! They will have no heart left because if you do Haṭha Yoga the heart becomes just like this.

You have seen Durvasa, that horrible fellow Vishwāmitra; you want to become that? They had no love for anyone. I have seen all these... I must say, these Haṭha yogis. I wish they married, all of them. Those who are sitting in the jungle, who are realised Souls, see, they have no heart, they have no feeling. I've told you what is their feeling, [UNCLEAR opinion]. They have no Karunā [compassion] within themselves.

They just say: `You are a Mother, so You have the koruna.' But what about all the great saints? They had koruna; they were married people. All the Haṭha yogis, if you find anybody who's doing Haṭha Yoga, whether wife or a husband, they can never live with kids [UNCLEAR], because all the Chakras are spoiled; no Brahmacharia is there. [Hindi.] Sahaja Yogi asks a question [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Why don't you... you have some problem of Kuṇḍalinī or what? Doubts.

Sahaja Yogi: I have some doubts...

Shri Mataji: Doubts, first of all, did you get your Realisation?

Sahaja Yogi: I was doing something; I would like to talk to you about it.

Shri Mataji: You have been doing something? [Hindi.]

Sahaja Yogi: I have given it up.

Shri Mataji: Don't you worry; we'll see now supposing... You see what I'm saying. All right, so it's a good thing. You just sit down just now, we'll see. If you get your Realisation, well and good. No problem, forget it. If you do not get, supposing there is a problem in you, already existing, they will immediately know on your Chakras. [Hindi.] You see the Kuṇḍalinī comes up and falls down.

So what am I to do now? [Hindi.] Everybody can understand Hindi? Ah, can't follow?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: That would be too much. Does everybody follow My Hindi? If I say in English will you all follow? Yes. [Hindi.] [In Hindi:] I am not in opposition for English language, but the language of Ātmā is Sanskrit. [In English:] They have never bothered about the Spirit, you see; so we have to use some common language. We speak about Ātmā, English language is not sufficient enough. I must tell you, they do not have those experiences because this is so far they have not gone deep into it and we are very old people, ancient people. Our culture has been to know God and everything has come in Sanskrit because Sanskrit is really a Devavāṇi [language of the Gods]. Apart from that, when the Kuṇḍalinī moves, She makes sounds, She makes different sounds, which we, they are really Devanāgarī sounds, all of them are, on all different Chakras they are. If I have time I might tell you all those sounds that It makes.

So our Sanskrit is really a Devavāṇi and even when you say mantras then, through the Sanskrit language or Devanāgarī pronunciations only, you can excite them better. Try to learn if not Sanskrit at least Hindi, because it is more, sort of, a simpler language and, it's being a phonetic language, you see, it has a sound and that sound gives that vibratory effect. You try to learn it. Hindi is not My mother tongue; My mother tongue is Marathi. I speak Hindi because, after all, I know the importance of it. Also know a little bit of English and I speak in English also.

So it is better to know at least Hindi. It's not much when we can know a foreign language. We can know our own one national language; there's no harm in it. I mean this, I do not want to make it a political stuff but what I'm saying is that, for conveying our... Marathi is all right for Me, Bangala is all right; I don't know much of Tamil or Telugu but Telugu also, Tamil also, you can, because, you see, we are people in this Yoga Bhūmī. This is a Yoga Bhūmī. This is a great country of Yoga. You don't know, every particle of this Bhūmī, you will be surprised, is vibrated. You see, these scientists and all that, cannot understand.

When we start accepting all that the West is saying, we are going to lose all that we had, which is so great. Of course, that it is not going to be lost, But, the thing is, they are not going to utilize it for our purpose. We have to close all that on one side and we'll have to accept something, which is just a foreign, alien thing and nothing so much comprehensive. You can say: `It is not suma [UNCLEAR samath/samagra],' it doesn't envelope everything.

So English language is all right, I can speak and I can talk to you and explain, but I would request you that little bit of Hindi language if you learn, it's a good thing, because I find it very difficult. You know, there's one speech of Mine they have written in English and that was translated in Marathi and what a tremendous thing it was and in English I think it's a poor show, absolute poor show. Maybe My English is very poor, maybe that; I don't know, but maybe that.

So we were talking about Sat Chit Ānanda, again I have to use Sanskrit words; see now, what can I do? Sat Chit Ānanda is the super consciousness, the All-pervading power. Chit is attention, the consciousness, conscious; you are just now conscious listening to Me; every moment you are conscious, but every moment is becoming dead into the past, every moment coming from the future to the present. But you are conscious at this moment, listening to Me. A thought rises like this and falls; you can see the rising of the thought but not the falling of the thought. In between the thoughts, there is a space which, in Sanskrit, we call as Vilamba; of course in English there isn't, because they haven't found it out.

So there is a Vilamba and in that Vilamba if you can stop, then you get to the conscious mind and there exists this Sat Chit Ānanda.

Sat Chit Ānanda is the condition of mind, you can say, or is the state of mind where there is no thought, but you are aware. First: there is no thought, Nirvichar, but you are aware. That is the first state, where you jump into it, into the super-conscious.

So some people may think that, by Realisation, you must achieve something as Ādi Shañkarāchārya had; it's not possible. With some it may be; with very few, but not with everyone. First state is Nirvichar: you become thoughtlessly aware: that's just the first state. That happens when the Kuṇḍalinī rises above the Āgñyā Chakra; means enters into the limbic area. At that time your attention just touches the Sat point, the Sat [true, being present], the reality separate from Mithya [untruth thing]; you are separate.

You become two personalities.

At that stage, you start separating. Like in the milk, when you put yogurt, or, you can say, if you put lime; it starts separating into water and the curd. In the same way the beginning starts, the beginning.

This is the state where you can say the Kuṇḍalinī has been awakened only. You must understand the different stages as it happens. I'm giving you a very slow picture.

But normally the Kuṇḍalinī shoots off in most of the people. But in some people It does not, it takes time. It's lost in the Swādhiṣhṭhāna, It is lost into the Nābhī, It doesn't go much higher. It is arrested by the [UNCLEAR de] Chakra or maybe it may not even rise at all. But in case It crosses this door of Āgñyā Chakra, then you get into the state of thoughtless awareness. With thoughtless awareness, as like whatever state you get, supposing, you become a governor, so you get a certain power; with that you get certain powers. But, at this state, to leave the Kuṇḍalinī is not a good thing, because the Kuṇḍalinī can, at that state, start moving this side and that side, can, it's possible, can go to the Supra conscious, or can go to the Subconscious, Collective Subconscious. The Siddhis, people get mostly at this stage.

Some of the, not the Shudra Siddhis but the higher Siddhis like, you see, they can predict. They can say: `This is going to happen,' if the Kuṇḍalinī has moved to the Supra conscious. If the Kuṇḍalinī has moved to the Collective Subconscious, then they can start seeing things. You see, a person who is like that, he comes to Me, he can see who I was in My previous lives. I do not have to convince them. This is the same thing as anybody who is possessed get.

A person who takes drugs, supposing he is a real alcoholic of the last work and he's a good soul, he is still seeking God; such a person can see Me in a different form. He can see My past, he can be very much enamoured by Me, he would know that I was... Because, you see, people think the past is better than the present only, because the past has been much greater than today. Though I've never given Realisation to anyone previously, but it was a great past because human beings are like that.

So he gets enamoured when he sees things like that. This happens with people who are on the supraconscious level, if they move on. If they move out, I'm sorry, if this happens to people if they move out onto the left hand side, that is, into the past. Those who move out on the right hand side can see Me as light, they see light. They see all the five elements: they can see Me as a waterfall or as an iceberg. They start seeing the Tanmātra, again it's a Sanskrit word, means the casual, you can say, the `causal essence,' causal essence of the element. It may help them to get convinced. Because such a person gets convinced about Me, no doubt. Such a person is much more convinced than you are. Now, there are so many Tāntrikas who know who I was, they are afraid of Me, they talk about Me, they tell about Me. There was an ordinary maidservant, who came to My program and she got into this. She started speaking Sanskrit and she described Me completely, fifteen Shlokas itself. First time I never said anything about Myself; that's how it started.

So at that state I would not like to leave your Kuṇḍalinī. Because you can cure people, curative can be done with your Kuṇḍalinī, even in the limbic area. I'm very anxious always that it should come out of the Brahmarandhra. At that state you start getting the vibrations. But at this stage you are just a Chitta only and you just touch Sat point. Your attention is only charmed by the Spirit, only the attention part. Spirit, as I told you, is like a flicker of light, in a gas lamp and Kuṇḍalinī is like a gas which touches the Spirit.

And the light of the Spirit spreads in the central nervous system. But only the Chitta part; the outer core is the Chitta, means the attention part. At that stage when the Kuṇḍalinī opens the Brahmarandhra, at that time what you feel is the vibrations from your hand and you can feel another person also. Because you become collectively conscious. Collectively conscious only, again out of the Sat Chit Ānanda, you just touch the Chitta part.

So you start feeling the Chitta of your Chitta becoming the Chitta of the collective consciousness. Means you drop into the ocean of Sat Chit Ānanda in which you only feel the collective consciousness. That means you can feel another person's Kuṇḍalinī.

Yesterday there was another gentleman, as you have seen it, he was arguing with Me that we have `suspended intelligence' and all that. I said: “What is this `suspended'? I don't know about this thing." So I told him. He said: “I am in a Turīya Dasha." I said: “If you are in Turīya you can feel the Kuṇḍalinī of another person." [Laughter]. “You cannot certify yourself like that. Can you feel the Kuṇḍalinī of another person?" He said: “No." Then I said: “How can you be in the Turīya? If you go into Turīya that means, if you cross this stage, then you have to feel the Kuṇḍalinī of another person." Now you have seen there are many who can feel it and they all say the same thing, the same language, whether they are English, Indians or anything. They say the same thing, that this Chakra, this Chakra is catching, that Chakra is catching; it is not so. Because you start seeing your Kuṇḍalinī. You start seeing the Kuṇḍalinī of others.

Because on the fingers you can feel it. You can feel it on the fingers, what is happening.

So you just feel the Chitta, not the Ānanda part. First stage is only Chitta: that you feel the Kuṇḍalinī of another person, you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī of another person, you can give Realisation also, after a little while, to another person. Of course My photograph has to be used, but still you can. But the Ānanda stage is not yet touched.

So in the beginning you just feel the Cool Breeze in the hand, you feel the peace, tranquillity also; there's no thought, you feel the thoughtless awareness. But the Ānanda part is not felt at the first outset.

Because now I have studied thousands of human beings and I have seen their problems and this is a fact.

But there are some, as I've told you, who reach the last stage, very few; very, very few. But among us we have here one or two persons whom, you can say, who have reached that stage also. They are not aware of it, perhaps, but Ānanda they can feel it.

So the first stage when you come, it is the Chitta stage, the consciousness stage; you touch the Sat, means you start seeing the reality. Is one thing that you are flowing, there's something flowing; then you start saying: `It's going, it's coming.' Just now you said: `It's coming.' You didn't say: `I am receiving, I am giving.' That `I' goes out of your language. But still the ego and superego are not completely gone down, they are still there. But your attention has come up and you feel the Chitta. With this collective consciousness you can cure people, you can give them Realisation, as I told you. And also you can feel the Kuṇḍalinī of any person in the whole world. And also you can cure the Kuṇḍalinī of that person. I mean cure, not the Kuṇḍalinī, but I'm saying cure the Chakras or improve the Chakras of the other person; sitting down here, you can do it. You can tell about the condition of the Kuṇḍalinī of another person, sitting down here. If you take interest, wherever you attention goes it works, Chitta.

So your attention becomes universal. Your drop of your attention becomes one with the ocean of Sat Chit Ānanda. Out of that, the attention part only. Listen to Me for this very carefully because many people at this stage drop out. Only the attention becomes effective, wherever they put attention, sitting down here.

Now I'll tell you about a disciple of Mine who had come from England. One day he was sitting and was thinking about his father, suddenly he got a burning on his finger, this finger.

So he rang up his father.

He said: “How are you keeping?" So the mother said that: “He is very sick, he has got throat trouble." This boy did something to his finger and all that; the father got all right. You can do it. Now he might think, he is very powerful; he does not, he cannot think that way, he cannot think. Because, you see, because the hole has been made there.

So he just says: `Mother, I felt it and I did like this and he was all right.' He never says that: `I cured.' `I' goes out in the language, in the words that you use you don't say: `I did it.' He said: “It came, it went, it did, it's not coming out." He'll say, even then he'll also say this: `Mother, today my Āgñyā is catching. Mother, my heart is catching.' They come and say like this about themselves. Now I say: “This Āgñyā is catching means is a little maddening." But one doesn't feel bad about it. Because he's not attached to his Kuṇḍalinī. He's attached to his, I mean, to his Chakras but to his Ātmā.

So he says as an Ātmā. He says: `Oh my this Chakra is caught, that Chakra is caught.' A person now who is suffering, say, from cancer, doesn't know he is suffering from cancer. But a realised person who gets his Realisation, his attention will tell him that these Chakras are out of gear and so many Chakras out of gear means, cancer. He need not go to the doctor; he can diagnose himself. But he will not diagnose the way the doctors do, that: `You have got the cancer of the heart and cancer of this thing and cancer of that.' But he will say: `It is these Chakras are caught up, the left or the right.' Now from where it is coming, how far it is going, he can give the depth of the Chakras. Because the Chakras start from here to here and this is the void, so the depth of the Chakras he can tell you: `It is from here, she's catching from here, she's catching from there, she's catching from there.' But there are many abstract things that happen; this is a very important thing. Once you get your Realisation the Chiran-jīvas [immortals] surrender [to you]. They are watching you, you become their responsibility. All the deities are awakened within you; if you do anything against the deities, immediately they will give you a heat. A person who has got Realisation, if he goes in a place which is not to be seen or which is not to be felt, which is not a good place, or a Guru or somebody like that; immediately he will feel heated up. If he doesn't run away, if he still goes on and on and on, he'll lose his vibrations and he'll become just like the other person.

So it's a very transitory stage still, I would say, because still, at this point, the repulsion is not so great that the man does not accept it. Because if you accept it, you become just like that. If you do not accept it that maybe little bodily problem you might have: you might little bit burn your fingers, you might get little burning here or something like that. But if you are not afraid of these bodily things and if you do not want to accept it, then you start rising higher. But, as I told you, all the Chiran-jīvas start rising, looking after you.

If there is one realised person in a train, there cannot be an accident; and if there is an accident nobody will die in that train. If a realised Soul... Yogi: They can get wounded.

Shri Mataji: Ah?

Sahaja Yogi: They can get wounded.

Shri Mataji: Ah, wounded, can be, but see, we remember we have seen of one incident where it happened; they were so slightly wounded that they didn't take them to the hospital, anyway one of them.

I mean, a little frightened they might have been; but that's what they told Me. There was one realised Soul who was travelling by train which collided near Thane or someplace. Then the... If a realised Soul, a soul is walking on the road, now, realised Soul who is in Nirvichara state;

see, we have to grade them, walking on the road and if he sees a mishap, his attention goes there, immediately the mishap is avoided.

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Yes; if he sees a mishap, then it is averted, attention, you see, his attention is being blessed. Now see, this is what a scientist cannot understand.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: No, no, no; the internal Gods are his own part and parcel, as you can say: `I am guided by my brain so I can't do anything else.' You see, Gods are your internal parts yourself. What is self left there? What is your Self? When you are united with that, then you are finished now, you become a hollow personality. Then you do not have this feeling of self. Then all the time what you say: `It is happening, it is going, it is flowing, it is working', `it'. You can even say like this; this little girl says “Pragñyā"; she says: “This little Pragñyā won't go; she is very obstinate. Just now her Āgñyā is caught so she won't go." She stands outside from herself and she criticises herself. She says: “Her Āgñyā is caught; she won't go, she is very obstinate"; she's not Pragñyā. Even children say like that, many a times, if you notice, like a third person. You start looking at yourself as a third person. You do not identify yourself with yourself. It happens like that, you will see these people how they are working.

Then also there is a part of little enjoyment, which you must know, the joy, Ānanda. You see, normally you will find most of the Sahaja Yogis will gather around a person who is a realised Soul, who is realised, who is not a difficult person. Moreover if there is somebody who comes on My Foot, who is a very great soul.

I'll tell you, in Calcutta I went there and I was staying in a hotel and there was a very nice man who came to see Me. He was not realised but a very saintly person with a great Pūrva Sampada, you see. And he just touched My Feet and other Sahaja Yogis in other rooms they all rushed there! I said: “Why did you come?" He said: “Great joy started coming within us so we came." And they were standing, he was all the time on My Foot and they were standing. I said: “Neither is he going to leave Me nor you are going to leave Me"; for fifteen minutes he was just drinking the nectar of My feet.

So the `Joy' of enjoying another human beings joy also starts.

These are the feelings this is how you enjoy `Nirvichar' or `Samādhi'. Samādhi does not mean going into unconscious but the unconscious becomes conscious. Whatever is not yet conscious becomes conscious.

The unconscious, the Universal Unconscious becomes conscious.

So this is the first stage. There are many things like this and variety of things happen.

Supposing you have been doing lot of, see, light Pūjā, what you call the Jyoti Pūjā, in your previous life, then you can see the Chakras, My this thing, vibrations, There are two, three people who can see My vibrations coming and going; they see all the movement of it. Supposing you have been doing Devī Pūjā, so you are a Devī Pūjāri, you are a Sampada of the [UNCLEAR] Devī; then you see something of `Devī Praman', a little bit, you can see that also.

That is a better thing than to see before. Because if you see before Realisation, means you are a possessed person; somebody is giving you ideas. After realisation you start seeing certain things, then it has some meaning.

So the gradual growth of the flower starts.

Then the second stage, where you become Nirvikalpa, where there is no Vikalpa [doubt]. Just now in Delhi there are very few who are like that, very few. Because, first of all, by temperament they are Vikalpi [doubters]. The reason is, here is a complete atmosphere of Vikalpa. If you say something another one will pull you down by saying something else.

So, the thing is, the whole atmosphere is so Vikalpi that you are not yet subtle about it, about the Sahaja Yoga, still in Vikalpa. But we have some very great Sahaja Yogis also in Delhi, very great.

So the Vikalpa is there; now you will say: `How do you become Nirvikalpa?' Supposing you are in the water, you are afraid of getting drowned; you are picked up and put in the boat.

So you are not afraid of becoming drowned. But when are you settled? When you are settled. I mean, it is suggesting that: `When are you settled in a boat? When you are settled in a boat.' I mean, that's all I can answer you, you have to be settled. But, with that, you get certain powers: your Kuṇḍalinī starts showing, you see. We have, in Bombay [Mumbai], some people whose Kuṇḍalinī is at least one foot higher, one foot high, you can see. You can, or may not, but so many people can see that and they are a very deep people, very deep.

At the Nirvikalpa state the Collective Consciousness becomes very subtler, subtler, subtler. At that stage you can understand very deep significances of things and the reality starts becoming clearer. For example: you start understanding the working of the Kuṇḍalinī, you start understanding how it penetrates, you start understanding how it works out, you can use it for experimentation; with your own hand you can move it as you like it. You can cure people and you can show the Kuṇḍalinī is working in different ways. You can combine the permutations and combinations of Kuṇḍalinī, you can do. You can say, that in the first year of music, you just learn the seven notes and two others notes; just an ordinary raga.

But when you grow subtler and higher, then you know all the minute points, how to create.

So at the Nirvikalpa you need not put your hand towards a person, nothing; sitting down you know where it is.

What is happening? Who is catching? What is the problem? What is the collective problem? Then you have no doubts about Sahaja Yoga, nor about Kuṇḍalinī, nor about anything; no doubts at all. But at that time, you start experimenting with it, you start using it, mastery starts. At this stage the Chitta, the consciousness, becomes subtle.

Now, somebody was sitting with Me; outside they knew that this gentlemen is going to get Realisation, they knew that Mother was giving Realisation to someone. Such people are very satisfied; they do not grudge and grumble about small things. They do not enter into small things at all, they are not bothered, they live in a big way. They are not touched. Their attention is not in the gross, they have no time for outside grossness.

So their attention is very deep into the subtle forms; they are not bothered. Such people are satisfied souls. Such people are the ones who are going to create a pillar for Sahaja Yoga. Because when somebody sees such a person, a transformed person like that, shocked, they say: `Look at this man.

He's such a great person and he was such a horrid man and how has he become like this? How he's transformed.' At this stage, at the Nirvikalpa stage, the vibrations emit. Then you can sit with Me here, you start. Then there is no questioning at all. And such a man can get into a terrible temper if he sees someone misbehaving with Me; he can't bear misbehaving.

Christ said: “Forgive all those, because they do not know what they are doing." But supposing they had done anything against His Mother, He would not have forgiven even this much, I can tell you, even this much. And in the Bible it is written that: “Nothing will be tolerated against the Holy Ghost." And Holy Ghost is His own Mother, the Ādi Shakti.

So you cannot tolerate anything against your Mother or Sahaj Yoga and one can get into a tremendous temper or a “Sanhar -‘destructive‘ Shakti" which they develop. It is said that such a man if anybody tries to do some harm he will immediately bring him down through their devotion towards their Mother. We have a notion that a realised person should never lose his temper. It is a very wrong idea. Then you will say, “why Kṛiṣhṇa killed Jarasandha, why did he kill Kansa?" How do you explain the violence of Kṛiṣhṇa? How do you explain Devī who killed demons when She came and got into Her temper? She used to get into tremendous temper and then she used to kill. The temper of Shiva! How do you explain this? It is a foolish idea to say that they should not get into the temper even if someone tries to kill them.

Even Christ had to take the whip in his hand and drive them away. You have a right to get into a temper, if you are in a Nirvikalpa state since you are given that right of even raising one's own voice when need arises. I am using all the Ayudhas –‘weapons’, if you have noticed in My hand, the Chakra, the Parashu –‘axe’ etc. They are there and I have to use them and you cannot stop Me from using them. This is what I say that by reading people don't understand things. A man who is quietly sitting and is being pestered by everybody is called a realised person, what nonsense! How dare you spite at such a man? Is the spite of a Devī to be borne by a realised Soul? To say that a realised Soul should not get into a temper is a wrong thing.

Now all those Rishis I have talked about and all those people who have talked about Me and whose names I have given you, they are all above Nirvikalpa, but they are very hot tempered. These saints cannot tolerate hypocrisy but I can' and I have to. No `Rākshas' can go near them but if anybody goes they are put into a noose and are hanged on the tree. That's why I say never go near the `Babaji'. They are higher people, no doubt, better than you all are and they know Me very well and they fall at My feet.

They are very innocent and simple like children to Me. More important is Śhrī Gaṇeśha. If he gets angry it is not so easy to control him. It is easier to control Śhrī Shiva's but not Gaṇeśha’s anger. Beware of him.

That is why during Kuṇḍalinī Awakening, you get burning sensation and you start dancing or jumping, all this is Gaṇeśha's anger. If you have insulted him by any chance, or insulted his Mother, He gets into a tremendous fury.

It is true that after Nirvikalpa, the Gaṇeśha becomes really Jāgrut. Such a person is not tempted by any women. No temptation for another women will exist, except for his own wife, where he goes on living like a celebrated husband, because husband and wife are united in a bond of matrimony. Otherwise, he is a sanctified householder. He does not have temptation for any alcohol or anything like smoking and is beyond temptation. A Nirvikalpa man cannot have any temptation. One man came to Me and told Me that he was a realised Soul. I said, “How can it be? If you are a realised Soul, how are you taking to these things? You cannot." Now for Me, I will tell you it is an impossibility. I have never taken anything.

Once My doctor gave Me a little brandy as a medicine. I don't know why but he felt like giving it to Me without informing Me, due to which I vomited so much of blood since My stomach is religious or sacred If I see a woman who has dressed provocatively or something like that or sometimes I have to accompany My husband to parties and they start a cabaret or some such thing.

Immediately, I start getting vomiting, sensation like hell and more so when we are the chief guests. I make their lives miserable, since something happens in My stomach when I see these half-dressed women.

Now what can I do with My stomach is the point.

So the Dharma is born within our stomach.

So the stomach becomes the Dharma itself.

[MISSING.] At this stage the subtle style of things starts. Your Mūlādhār becomes chastity itself. It just cannot bear these things. You don't have to tell them. They have just no interest in such women. They do not flirt nor have they any interest in all these things. They do not bother too much to dress up in such a way that they would be very attractive to other women or men and at that time they believe like very simple people. They get to simplicity dignified, Then suddenly they become very creative also.

There is one gentleman in Bombay [Mumbai] who got into `Nirvikalpa' State. He came to Me when he was jobless.

So I told him “why don't you start interior decoration work?" He said that he did not know different types of wood nor could differentiate between one type and another so what could he do? I said, “Now, you are in Nirvikalpa so start it." Today he is a very rich man.

It just becomes dynamic, because you start seeing the beauty, the `Saundarya' of the nature. You see, aesthetics are born in a person who is a realised Soul. He starts seeing aesthetics in everything. The beauty of talking improves. The movements of the hands improve and your style also improves. You become a beautiful person, aesthetics come in. You can become suddenly a great poet. We have two people like that who have written beautiful poems and you can also be a great painter if you a already a painter. You get new ideas about painting, new aesthetics. In music, you start understanding absolutely. You may not know what classical music is but you will start understanding the subtle music. From the classical music you will know which is the best for your Ātmā. You see the Ātmā starts judging everything on that level.

If you appoint such a person to judge a drama or a painting, whether it is good or bad, he will correctly judge it good or bad. Then you put his selection to all the critics of the world and they will say it is the best judgment. Now, you will ask Me “how does he know?" Because he can feel by vibrations and complete harmony in everything.

You give him a Statue of a deity and ask him all about this statue whether it is alright or not. He might say that it is not alright.

You can feel the subtle vibrations, whether it is in Dharma or otherwise. Now can we say that Ashta-vinayakas are living Gods. How do you know? Jyotir-lingas are living. How will you know? Unless you know the integration of all the great souls together and how are you going to judge them? That is why you must get Realisation. This is what My father told Me. I should say he was My first Guru, as he was a realised Soul. He told Me it is of no use talking about realities etc., because you will create another Bible or Gītā. You do a practical thing. You find out `a mass-media' and I knew that was My mission So I worked on everybody's Kuṇḍalinī and tried to find out permutations, combinations, of their mistakes and why these people are like this. You will be surprised that so many people never knew that they were even in Nirvichara. They did not know that they were highly placed spirits. If they would have known, then they would not have told many things which have conditioned you. They have said, "Sach Bolo –'speak the truth'" Who is going to speak `truth'? They did not know what human beings are? They are `Incarnations', a great people. They did not know much about the human beings and how cunning they are or how they are all the time against each other. They could not come to the subtle human level. For that one has to have a human Self-realisation, as I now have. As such I know human beings but some things, of course, I do not understand.

When you get into the Nirvikalpa state, the Ānanda starts settling in you. When you see cities, any beautiful picture or scene, immediately what you find is a great flow of Ānanda Coming down. This is the Grace that you are just lost into it; like the Ganges flowing over you, you are completely drowned into it.

Your consciousness becomes Ānand.

In reality you come to know that till now we have never known there is a Sarvavyapi Shakti –'power which manifests everything' but now we are aware of the same. We can feel it coming in our fingers. This is the Reality. This is what is it. There is Chaitanya all around us, which thinks, which understands, organizes and loves us. All this you come to know the knowledge part of it. Then the Ānand which is the Hṛidaya starts emitting itself. And what you get is Valaya into Ānanda. At that stage complete Self-realisation takes place I would say. Then at that stage you can control the sun, you can control the moon, you can control everything [UNCLEAR].

Now beyond that is God's Realisation. There are three stages to that also, but just now I have told this: the `Sat-chit-ānand' state. The `God's Realisation' is the state in which Gautama Buddha and Mahāvīra only rose and they are settled down here in our brains, both of them are here, Christ is here. And these two were not Incarnations. They were born as human beings. They were born to Sītā, as Luv and Kush.

Then they were born as Buddha and Mahāvīra and Ādi Shakti was their Mother again. Then they were born to Fātima-bi as Hassan and Hussein. They are both placed here in your head and they are the two milestones you have got by which you can know what a human being can rise up to. Now today they are like incarnations. Incarnations are beyond but maybe the gap can be bridged.

There are other styles of personalities like Chiran-jīvas and we have got Hanumāna. These are all Incarnations. Bhairava, Gaṇeśha. Hanumāna is nobody else, but later on he appeared as `Gabriel the Angel'. And Bhairava-nāth came as Saint Michael. The names are different, but they are the same people.

These are the Chiran-jīvas Incarnations.

And the Devī has incarnated, no doubt about it! She has! But scientists cannot understand, only the Sahaja Yogis can understand it. Because they can feel in their vibrations they can ask questions. You ask a question: Did Devī Herself incarnated? Now, ask absolute questions about Me also. Come along and you get the vibrations. The answer comes to you. For that at least your Deities have to rise and say `yes'.

Maybe you might not get your `Realisation' but answer you'll get.

[Shri Mataji talks again in Hindi: MISSING.] [Hindi conversation.] Sahaja Yogi or Gentleman: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Everyone can go. Alright?

Sahaja Yogi: Tomorrow Pūjā is [UNCLEAR].

Sahaja Yogini or Lady: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Na. Na. Na. Ha? Gentleman: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Tomorrow in the morning. [Hindi.] Gentleman: Sure.

Shri Mataji: [Hindi.] Gentleman: [UNCLEAR] good night.

Shri Mataji: Good night. [Hindi.] Sahaja Yogi or Gentleman: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Talking, talking, talking, talking. Ha?

Sahaja Yogi: Tomorrow is Pūjā [UNCLEAR].

Na, na, na. Evening, night time. Pūjā only Sahaja Yogis, not everyone.

Sahaja Yogi: Pūjā is tomorrow evening?

Contents: 1977-02-19 Talk To New Sahaja Yogis, Problems From Fake Gurus, New Delhi, India

[Shri Mataji speaks in Hindi for almost ten minutes at the end of which She asks for a letter to be read.] Sahaja Yogi [reads]: Dear Mātājī, A few years ago, Swāmī Muktānanda initiated me in his Yoga. He calls it Siddha Yoga. It is supposed to be a form of Kuṇḍalinī Yoga. Since then, I have been suffering from a heavy pressure in the head and spine, inability to think clearly or concentrate, some sort of movement in the backbone which certainly isn't pleasant, nervousness, difficulty in facing people and situations, bad memory, obsession with the past and some sort of involuntary fixation with sex. Perhaps the Kuṇḍalinī has been activated. Whatever it is, there is nothing spiritual about it. There is no sign of peace or silence or impersonal love. I am sure I have not benefitted spiritually through my contact with him. For all I know I was a better person spiritually before I met him. Would You please help me at least to get normal.

Pranams.

Ibrahim Khan, a seeker.

Shri Mataji: Absolutely correct. And I must congratulate him for this bold action that he has taken; is a very bold action. Of course we have some others here who will share his thoughts, very much who have suffered. And those...

Sahaja Yogi: He's here.

Shri Mataji: He's here. And there are many who have suffered on account, they have taken him out and they are much better now. And they are very good and absolutely what you have said is correct. It has to be a spiritual experience of bliss and joy, first thing. It has to be, secondly, a thing that enriches you, makes you much wiser, makes you sharper and alert. It has to be a energy-giving thing. Apart from that you are made a much better person; there's a regular transformation in your being. Now there are, you will be surprised like this, at least sixteen big ones, sixteen of them, they are doing this kind of job.

And people are sending thousands of rupees to these people, thousands! He came from Lond, some place, America or somewhere, he has brought crores of foreign exchange. Crores of foreign exchange, how did he manage? You have been a religious man and that's why you have been opposing it. And by God's grace you are going to get the reality, no doubt.

The person who is initiated and is not a religious man will get into the mood. He'll start misbehaving, he'll take to ganja [marijuana], he'll take to all kinds of drugs, he will take to bad sexual habits, he'll be perverted man, he will start becoming a smuggler and a thief and he'll do all the things. But a man who is a really, a religious man by heart will resist it and because of resistance he will get all these symptoms.

But I'm happy you have resisted him and I promise that I will give you realisation here and here. And I'm very happy that you have done it. But so many like this. I've already told you that even with gross calculation three crores [30 million] already on a way to doom Of course some are going to be saved not out of those three crores are absolutely towards their doom Then they come and argue with Me. The thing is, they have done so much wrong to themselves by wrong things and then they come and argue with Me; this is something I can't understand. You cannot argue it out. If I can cure you I will give My life, every... every part of My being, I would say, every drop of My blood to save humankind. I will go out of the way for saving them, but you must understand that this is not spirituality. Spirituality is promised in all the scriptures whether it is Koran, it is Gītā, anywhere, that you are born again. You become a transformed personality and a higher personality.

[Hindi for almost 12 minutes MISSING.] [In English:] If there is a lady and her, you see her, the first wife has died. Supposing take a question and she has had no children or something like she died as an Atṛupta Ātmā –'Unsatisfied Soul' and the husband marries another woman. And the first lady died in a mess or in a Atṛupta way and she never had a child.

So she, her entity might enter into this woman's entity and she may come into that woman. You see this is a, this is a emotional side, so emotionally if she is disturbed about it, if she thinks about it that she had no child, `I may not have a child,' if she has a fear like that or something, it will act on the uterus and she will also not have children. That's the emotional side of it. And the right hand side if you have a uterus trouble and uterus problem or anything like that, then also you cannot have. But when these two meet together, a galloping sort of a movement starts of both the sympathetic nervous system and then you can say that it is a cancer has been set in. But cancer is set into us every moment and is destroyed every moment by parasympathetic. Because if the activity of the sympathetic nervous system is the cause of cancer means everybody has it. You see, is possible it is and the more, if you do it over-activity, more than what is needed, it sets in.

A man who is a great planner say, he's a very great planner and he's a very great this thing and he gets, sort of all his time devoted to work and work and work, he develops a deficiency in the spleen because this also supplies to the spleen. And that's how spleen and then your liver and kidney all put together give you the disease known as diabetes. Diabetes is only caused among people who think too much. Diabetes will not happen among the people who are poor because they don't sit down and think and bother about things.

So diabetes is caused among such people. Mostly it is caused among men, less among women.

Doctors do not know the cause of diabetes. Now if I tell them Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra and Brahmadeva's activities, they will say, `Mātājī, this is beyond us.' But if tell them imbalance, if there is imbalance in life, if there is imbalance in life, then it is caused.

It is due to the imbalance in life because such a man, you see when he starts planning too much, thinking too much, he has no time for emotional activities. Like, you see he has no time for his children, he has no time for his wife, he has no time for anybody to, you see express themself. If he can have the balance between the two, if he's a very loving man then the balance is maintained. But mostly what happens, a man who takes to hard work, he has no time for his children. Then if he gets a little time for his children, children think, `Oh it's a great thing.' And such a, such a personality has diabetes. And the diabetes has such a vicious circle that it goes on increasing and increasing and increasing. Then it increases up to the, you see it can go up to the eyes you may start getting very weak eyes with diabetes. And I mean anything can happen because you start, let's say the sugar in the... sugar in the blood is not consumed, so for such a person who suffers from diabetes there's a very simple method, if he's a realised Soul. You see, if he's a realised Soul, that's one `if' is there. If he's not, then nothing can work out; all these things are for realised people.

You have to put your, now as you say that your right side is weak, your right is being used too much, your left side is weak.

So what you have to do is to put the left hand towards the photograph raise your left hand and put it to the right hand, like this. Now what happens when the left side is weak, you see there is... on the top of the head there are two balloon-like structures, one of them goes on to the front and another goes at the back. But one comes from the right, another comes from the left. Now the one which comes on the left because it crosses over, so the left one is responsible for the right hand and the right one is responsible for the left hand.

So by doing like this what you do is to press your ego backward and that's how you get a complete balance there and the Kuṇḍalinī rises in between. Because one side is too much pressed and the another side is suppressed. Raise your left hand side like this, all right, raising it like this. Left hand side, left hand, left hand yes teek hai. Left with the right hand you will have to raise.

[Hindi for 12 minutes MISSING.] Now what are you pushing back here? By pushing this thing on this side you are pushing it this way. Now left side you are raising the super ego and right side you are pushing the ego, because such a man develops ego also, because he works through his ego. We plan through our ego. Ego doesn't mean egoistical. Ego everyone has, if you do not have ego you are a realised Soul. But you have, ego and superego both are there, they are there, they exist.

So what happens, too much of ego develops because of planning because we do all this planning and everything through ego.

So the ego is pushed back and you get the balance. And this what the doctors do not think of: balancing a person, because we are not only physical being, we are emotional being, we are also a intellectual being, we are also a spiritual being.

So there should be a balance between all these beings and they should be all integrated. But doctors do not think like that, so the imbalance works like that and that's how you get into problem.

[Hindi speaker asks a question indistinctly.]

Shri Mataji: You see ego or superego both in imbalance is not a good state for Kuṇḍalinī rising. If the ego is too much developed, for example, it is pressing your superego. Now the superego is suppressed, for example all the developing countries. All the developed countries have a big ego.

So too much ego they press the superego. Because of pressing of the superego, what happened that their ego developed too much; the superego gave them a bump, because if you press too much it has a reaction.

So in their society, people just became sort of what you call the hippies, they gave up. They said, “This planning when...

finish it off. We are going to lead another kind of life." So they took to superego and superego is all these drugs and these serious things to get towards the suppression of your self. You see, first these people were violent outside but then they became violent to themselves.

So both things are wrong whether you are violent to yourself or violent to others.

Man [indistinctly]: Sorry, Mother, isn't it about one's body, it's only about one's mind.

Shri Mataji: Yes, yes, you see, the ego and superego are both things, are two forces within us which is balanced, is balanced, then only the Kuṇḍalinī can rise otherwise this [UNCLEAR] there should be a gap between the two, actually it creates a gap. But if one side is over-developed any one of them, a person who is possessed has a superego mostly, but a person can be also possessed by a egoistical bhoot.

For example this Transcendental people all of them have their ego side developed too much. You cannot push them back. Because there is, you see, anything can bloat.

Somebody, egoistical man can enter into you, you see and you can have a superego on you.

Sort of you can start thinking that you are a very great dynamic man, you think no end of yourself. And actually it is somebody else who is putting ideas into your head and you are a bloated person.

[Hindi for 15 minutes MISSING.] You spoil your head because you get into that over-ego, double ego if somebody else is acting in you.

Sometimes you yourself can develop your ego too much, but sometimes somebody else comes into you and tells you. And he talks as if you won't believe, he talks like a, like a Hitler. You think that "What is this come up?" Gentleman: That means that he can possess your ego?

Shri Mataji: He possesses your ego, enters into your ego and supplies information through your ego.

It can, Mostly it enters through your superego, mostly because most of them are depraved people.

So these depraved people also can enter into your left hand side and they can also give you ideas and you can become, you see they do not really give you ideas, but they make your life miserable. Such people when they enter into you, you become giddy. You feel terrible, you will get a headache, or sometimes if you start acting according to them, then you can become a very depraved man also.

Actually the ego people cannot see. You see a man can never see his ego, it's rather difficult and they think, `Oh, I'm correct after all I'm such and such so I, whatever I'm doing is correct.' You see? It's very difficult to see your ego. Because human beings can see their superego very easily as it harms them, physically also. If you have got a possession on you, you are harmed but if there is a ego you are not harmed. By ego you harm others so you are not harmed. But by superego you are harmed, so you can see that. But ego it harms others and you go on harming others; you don't know what you are doing and you think, `Oh I'm very correct, whatever I'm doing is correct.' So these are the two types of balloons which covers your head. In between them is the space which we call the Vilamba. That space is created through the Kuṇḍalinī rising. But actually when the Kuṇḍalinī rises, first what She does, She comes up to the Āgñyā, below the Āgñyā, on this on this plate which we call as Mūrdha [head] plate, the lower plate of the brain, it touches it, you see. And then it comes down again on these two channels of Ida and Piñgalā which cools it down. And by cooling it down it fills it up and the cooling brings down both the ego and superego a little bit and a space is created. And then when the Kuṇḍalinī really rises upward, then it passes through that space. Actually you can see here with some people who get realisation, a big depression.

Sometimes people have depression here. If they have a badha in their Nābhī then they get a depression here, or sometimes they get a depression here. A regular depression you can get here, if you feel it, even those who are realised can feel it, is a soft thing if you can press it, you know it can work out, you must feel it. You put your right hand towards Me you can feel it.

There's a little depression you can press it down, you feel better. You feel better with that. Pressing a little bit makes you better, feeling much better.

Now the situation in all the developing countries is that their ego is over-developed now. Now, when they are trying to develop themselves, because they are developing; all the developing countries are doing it through their ego, so naturally their ego is very much developed, that's why I'm saying that, “Put your right hand." But in the countries which are really over developed now, who are fed up of their ego and fed up, they call themselves as “colossal egoistical people" and they condemn themselves for that. All the time what they are doing is to condemn themselves, this is the superego acting.

To condemn themselves they'll go out of the way to do all kinds of hazardous thing. If you tell them, `You stand on your heads,' they will stand on their heads.

They will do everything that you tell them and they will try to, sort of, give trouble to their body, they'll say, `What's the use of having a nice house, let us sleep on the ground.' And they'll do all these things just to torture themselves because their superego starts acting on the ego. And by which you see they again go to the other extreme. What you have to do is to be in balance.

[Shri Mataji talks to someone in front:] Now let Me down, ha. You keep your question till the end, you should say. Are you sitting in the front for that? Now you don't disturb everyone please, for heaven’s sake.

No, no, it is a disturbance because My thoughts are going and you just now keep quiet because I'm reading everybody's mind and answering. All right, just keep quiet because everybody's disturbed.

So, now what happens, that the thought, you see of thoughts of a superego is just to make the ego look down.

So it pushes down and it suggests such ideas like, “We should sacrifice everything, why should we have a household, why should we have children, why should we have all these junky, affluent things? Let us lead a life of a ascetic." But in the asceticism in their asceticism they take to drugs because it is a superego style. Drug is a superego style. If you take to drinks, if you take to these things too much then you are going to the superego style. Ego style would be, would be not to take to drinks. Asceticism is to kill yourself, comes from the left hand side, in the sense that the superego tells you that you just give up things. But actually it is not, because the main thing is that they do it, they do all these things, but actually in the heart of hearts or what you can say, the mind of minds, what they want to do is to indulge into a very superego activity and the superego activity is drinks, drugs and sex, these three.

Actually this is the main thing but they think they have given up, you see, they believe in it, they believe in it. Not that they are in any way… they are genuine, they are genuinely believing in it. They believe that by doing sex, over-activity of the sex, by doing, taking drugs and by being a sort of very licentious and very permissive, they have been trying to go to God. Actually they believe in it, I tell you, you don't condemn them because it is their faith. They think that these people have been keeping to these rules and regulation, it has come as a reaction, you see. See, in England they had those straight coats and you could have five types of glasses on the table and you have to use this for the whiskey, that for the thing and this for that and so much of regimentation that when they wanted to give it up they said, “Now let us give it up completely." So when they gave it up, as a reaction, it worked so well that they have given up, they think they have given up everything, but they have given up all that was good, all that was nice and whatever was bad they have taken it up, even in a worse way, means licentiousness, permissiveness, drinks, drinking, drugs and sex.

So this how the sup, this thing works out.

Now the right hand side: the egoistical man. He may be a man who might be a absolutely a, absolutely a puritanical, he can be puritanical also. You might find many like this. For example we can see in our scriptures, we have people like Harishchandra... the one who was torturing Harishchandra, [asks for the name in Hindi:] kya nām ka Ha? Gentleman: Vishwāmitra.

Shri Mataji: Vishwāmitra. Then we have got many others, you know, so many of them like hot-tempered people, very hot-tempered, you cannot touch them. But you see, because they had no wife, no children, nothing, no balancing, they lived a, you see, with eating what you call these grass or some leaves and things and celibacy, forced celibacy, all sorts of you know, frantic things they did. Naturally such people had to be hot tempered. You know they were heated up by their, this forced thing. I mean going through another extreme of things, you see, to, I mean whatever was natural. God has given you all these natural things, live in a sanctified, natural way. But either you will have ten women or you will have no woman some sort of a, you see an extreme behaviour from one to another, going to one extreme to another.

And when they went to another extreme, the ego, you see they were so egoistical, you have read about these people but you must have met many people, even in the government office you might see that, you see you cannot just look at them, if you even if you look at them they'll just punch at you thinking that, you see, you have insulted them by raising your eyes to them, sort of people, you will find some of them around.

So this type of temperament develops because of extreme activity of the ego that you cannot talk to them. If you say anything they'll say, “Oh... I will see him, I will put him right, I will do this." If you say anything, they will give you two slaps on the face and finished, so is better not to talk to such people.

Now we'll take an example of Hitler. Now see Hitler's personal life you see he was an ascetic. He married one woman, lived with one woman and that too a secret [UNCLEAR]. He thought that sex life was a bad thing and, I mean, there's no question of Himmler or anybody having any sex life whatsoever.

But they were very good at killing people the way they hated.

So I mean that is so bad as this is so bad.

Both things are equally bad.

Some people say that, “You see, we are seeing some people who say that `We do not drink, we don't do all these things and they are very bad people.' " So I said,

“But that is bad is bad, whether they drink or not." But drinking is also bad, that doesn't mean that drinking is good. They are not good because they are drinking, they are not drinking. It is because drinking on one side and the another is the, you see the whole thing is: “I'll give up this, I'll give up that and I'll become this." You see, for example government servants say, “No, I am sacrificing my life for this country." All these nonsensical ideas fill up your ego only. What are you sacrificing, what are you doing? You are getting a pay for what you are doing.

You see these kind of ideas, `You see we are doing this for the government, this for people and....' Some social workers are like that. They think that `We are doing this social activity, we are trying to help the blind, we are trying to help this organization.' See all these things crop up to make you a very egoistical man.

So whom are you helping? Who is the other? There is nobody else. That should be a part and parcel of your being. All these ideas come to you from a very false conception of yourself. You see if I am doing anyth... just now he said that “You cure people, You don't take any money." I jolly well have to because I feel sick if you are sick, what can I do? I'm not taking money because it helps Me.

It's no question of My trying to be very good or anything, nothing can. I cannot help it! If you are sick I have to cure you; if I do not cure you, I'll feel sick. It is so much so. It is so much of Lena-dena [give and take] that I cannot do, live without giving it to you; if I do not give it to you I will fall sick, it is like that. Who is the other when we think of helping others, doing others? So these two things come up: is one with the ego another with the superego. It can come in anything. You know ego is such a subtle thing that people don't see it works, you cannot see it. It just works just like that. People accept it because it helps them, people say, “Oh, what a dynamic man! He's done this, he's done that." If you see that man, is assuming one should see him like that, he has not enjoyed life at all, if you go and meet that person. But you think, `What a successful man, he's done this, he's...' and the ego is bloated again. Then again his ego is bloated. And ultimately he finds when nobody stands near him, `nobody's [UNCLEAR].' They'll say that “He's such a big bore, who'll go near him? You cannot stand him for five minutes. All the time he's talking about himself or he's talking about his business about his work; it's all right in the office but in the house..." Nobody would like to go near him. They all run away as if they are facing a tiger.

So this is what it is. A man has to be a sweet person; he has to be a very balanced person, very interesting person and very, very harmonious in temperament. On the contrary such a man is, maybe, I don't know if such people help anyone but they are quite awkward to be with, you see? There's something wrong with them and people, children don't like them, dogs don't like them, there are many human beings who don't like them. Only those who can use them may like them but otherwise it's rather difficult to agree with such temperaments.

So you see these two things are there. [Shri Mataji makes a comment in Hindi.] So you see these two types of people are to be avoided; I mean both the extremes must to be avoided.

So how we should be, people ask Me, “How should, we should be?" Because human beings cannot be but extremes. If you tell them one thing, they'll go on doing it and doing it.

If somebody says, `Bhagawan ka nām lo' [`take the name of God'], so the whole night they'll be singing God's praise, the whole day they will be singing God's praise and the God will be tired. He'll say, `Now let Me sleep, what are you doing to Me?' There should be some time for it, you see. The other day I was with My grandchild, she's a born-realised child and she's, you know, because they have a innate understanding and intelligence of the whole thing. And in their neighbourhood there's a temple and some people were singing `Sītā Rām, Sītā Rām', so she was saying, “Nani, ye log pura rāt pura din Bhagwan ka nām Sītā Rām Sītā Rām, wo dono Sītā Rām to udhar se bhāg hi gaye honge. Aur main bhi yahān se bhāg hi jaoongi. Aur, itna satate kahe ko hain Bhagwan ko? Unka sirf gala kharab ho jata hai" [“Grandmother! These people are taking the name of God, Sītā Rām, Sītā Rām, whole day and night, the two Sītā Rām must have run away from there. And I'll also run away from here. Why do they torture God like this? They only spoil their throats"].

And is very true you know all such people develop a Viśhuddhi Chakra, you know these Hare Rāma Hare Kṛiṣhṇa people, so many come to Me, they all suffer from the cancer in the throat. When you are not connected with God, all the time if you go on like that like mechanical thing, you see this Viśhuddhi Chakra is used mechanically like that, you are going to catch on your Viśhuddhi Chakra. And once you catch on Viśhuddhi Chakra, you develop a cancer of the throat. You see, like mad people, I mean one should understand by saying these things if you are going to go to God then I mean God has no play in the matter. It's only you, what you do, what madness you take to, that is how God is going to come to you. I mean people are really crazy as far as the religion is also concerned. They are very...

Contents: 1977-02-20*, Public Program, The Creation, New Delhi, India

Tonight we had decided to talk about Creation but our management has not been able to provide Me with a chalk and with a blackboard so, I don't know, I'll try to explain it without drawing. It's a very difficult subject. And I'll try to make it intelligible. But I would request you to pay full attention for such a difficult subject like Creation.

The greatest blessing today is that many of you can feel the vibrations. And not only that but you also know and realise that they can think and they can love. It's a very big blessing. Of course, some of you haven't got it, but those who have got it know that these vibrations organize, because they raise the Kuṇḍalinī, they go to the place where it is needed, out of compassion, to that portion where there is deficiency. They understand, they organize they are universal in nature and they love. They answer to your questions, when you ask them some questions, you receive answer from them. They are living vibrations. These vibrations are from the Divine. This Divine is called as Brahma, Brahma Tattwa, Principle of Divine.

We can say that the process of Creation is an eternal process. Means a seed becomes a tree and the tree becomes a seed and the seed becomes a tree and it goes on and on, it's eternal.

So, it cannot have a starting point and it cannot have an ending point. It goes on and on and on. That's why it can have different states of existence, you can say, state of being.

So, the first, just the being, is Brahma, where nothing exists. We say `nothing'. When we say nothing, it is a relative word: because we do not exist, so we say `nothing exists', it's a relative word. When we are not existing, for us everything is `nothing'. There is something, but that is not ourselves. And that's why, relatively, we say it is `nothing'. It's only the word Brahma, we can say. You can think of an energy, if you want to, an energy form that exists. But the energy accumulates at a point and forms a nucleus.

The energy that thinks, energy that is distributed, accumulates at a point, concentrates on a point, you can say and this point is the point we call as Sadāśhiva.

This happens because that energy desires, thinks, organizes, loves. When it wants to create, when the desire is felt in that energy to create, at that time a nucleus is created. This nucleus we call as Sadāśhiva.

This nucleus does not disappear. You can think of a nebula. I mean, it is something which is all relative you can think, you cannot think something in absolute form.

So, with thinking you cannot conceptualise the whole thing, but if you can think of a state, where it's just an energy and no creation. But not the energy of electricity, magnetism, all these things. Is the combination, the synthesis of all the things which goes into Laya –'dissolution' which becomes that, dissolves into that. It coagulates on a point, that may be a [suitable] word, coagulates at a point which we can call as a nucleus. This point we call as Sadāśhiva. This Sadāśhiva is the Īshwara, is the God Almighty.

We call it now `God' because now it has a limitation. In the sense that we can call it something. But if it is just an energy we just call it a Brahma. You can say like this: when the water becomes ice, a follicle of ice is formed, you can differentiate between the water and the ice, but still, it's a relative, relative understanding.

At this state God Almighty, Parameshwara, takes its form as an identity. That's why we can say that it is not Brahma, but an identity. Identity has its aura, has its aura, we can say, its light. This light is the Divine Love.

It goes into various forms but Sadāśhiva remains as He is.

Now, the desire to create is transferred to the aura. The aura is the Power of God, Shakti. Īshwara has certain things beyond Him also and before Him. God Almighty has something beyond Him that He cannot control: one, He cannot control His eternal nature. It is His nature to be eternal, He cannot stop it. He will go on changing His form, it is His nature, it just... it is His swabhava. He cannot change it, His eternal nature. He will be eternally.

Eternity is His temperament, His nature, He cannot overcome that.

For example, God cannot take away your freedom to choose the Truth. He cannot. Once He has granted, He's not going to take it away. You have to choose it in all your freedom. He will not force you to take it. Many people have hopes like that, they are sadly mistaken. At this juncture only lies the problem of complete destruction or complete resurrection. It is left into the hands of human beings to decide whether they want to accept the Truth or if they want to follow the falsehood.

So, you have [been] given complete freedom to choose.

I won't go into the details about God Almighty, because it's a very subtler subject and requires much more attention. I have talked about it before to many people and all His nature, they know that. But He is the Witness, He is the Sākshī [witness] in the form of a Sākshī. What is He witnessing? He is witnessing the Creation. And the power that creates the Creation is the Shakti, is His power, is His consort. Now, for us, human beings, we don't understand that a wife and a husband could be that one [unified]. For example, you can understand like a Sun and a sunlight, Moon and the Moonlight, as these two things are one and the same. Or the meaning and the word. In the same way, Shiva and Shakti are one together.

For example, you can be a father, you can be a mother. You can be a father, you can be a brother, you can be a son, three things you are doing together. In the same way, you can be your Self and your power.

You know: you and your Self and your power are different, but you are one. You have a power to write, but you are not your power. Neither your power is your Self. In the same way, Shiva and Shakti are two persons to be identified, but they are part and parcel of one uniform thing known as `Brahma'.

But these horrible Tāntrikas, again they come round here, have spoiled the relationship between Shiva and Shakti. Not that they were human beings, that's why they established all these funny ideas and talked about these nonsensical things. Because they are the people who are nothing but their sex points.

They are nothing nobler than that. They are very depraved and diseased and debased people. They suffer from such a terrible disease that no way they can see anything else but this. Ashvamedha has also described as something to do with sex. Everything they look, they see sex there. It's like a person, as we call it in Hindi, [Hindi], who is wearing the glass of sex and watching through that life, everything becomes sex, sex, sex, they are such debased and horrible depraved people, even God, they are bringing to that level.

Unless and until they are bringing to that level, they cannot exist. How will they justify themselves, the way they are? Sex has nothing to do with Shiva and Shakti. What is Sun and sunlight? Is there any sex involved there? Is there nothing existing without sex for these horrible Tāntrikas? Is there no relationship that exists without sex? So, Shiva is the God Almighty, we should call him as Sadāśhiva.

I'll try to draw a little bit, let us see how it works out.

Now forming into a nucleus like this.

Now, this is the remains of the nucleus, you can say, which forms its power here into a Valaya. How does it form? He moves supposing backwards, you can say. Then what happens when he moves backwards... kara noko [don't do that]... this, whole thing like this, remains here and all of this passes, forms a shell around it and the waves cross over and settle onto the shell, here. Now, this is the situation: when all inside forms another nucleus here by concentration, this is the Shakti. And this is the Sadāśhiva. This is the MahāShakti, you can say `Ādi Shakti' and this is the Sadāśhiva.

Now here, Shiva, once the Shakti forms Her personality, or we can say, Her ego is established, She is a different identity from Shiva. Because the whole process is to create the play for the witness to see. He is the One who is going to watch the play. She is the One who is going to create it.

So, She accumulates Her ego onto a point here and becomes Shakti, assumes a position there. And the first thing She does as a Shakti is to go round in a parabolic... in a parabola around Her Lord.

This point one must understand. She is a Shakti, is the Power of God. And the whole Creation is only meant for God Almighty to be seen. He's the only spectator of the play of Shakti. And if He doesn't like the play, for example, He doesn't like the way it is or the way people are that are created, He can immediately stop the play by closing His eyes, by denying the play, by showing His annoyance or by His stopper, He can just stop it. That's why He is also called as a destroyer. But the whole thing is meant for His amusement. And if it doesn't give Him pleasure, He can stop it. That's why the first one who must be pleased is the One who is the spectator. Because of this, Shiva is garlanded by Her, is a parabola and that's why parabola is the symbol of Ādi Shakti. This is sort of a certificate to Her, a sort of a granting Her the Varadān –'granting boons', as we call it in Sanskrit language, is the Varadān that `go ahead with your work.' This is a sanction given to Him. When She completes this parabola, the sanction has been granted and that's why She is a parabola.

Here the question of men dominating the women and women dominating the men does not come in, because this is predominantly in our heads, you see. When we think of it, we think of men and women, it is nothing of the kind. It's just complete Oneness. Can we think of one couple which is absolutely united with each other? We cannot. Because we are all incomplete people. But if you could stretch your imagination to such a point that both of them are meant for each other only and the One who is active, is the Ādi Shakti, is only active to please the God Almighty Who is the only spectator of Her play and He's to be pleased first.

So, She surrenders Herself before Him, takes the sanction through the parabola.

Now, parabola is a very important thing. You know that everything travels through parabola, never in a straight line. For example, if you love someone, our love goes round that person and comes back to us as love. But if you hate that person, then our hatred goes round that person and comes back to us as a terrible hatred.

So, the parabola is taken, but you might say `why a parabola?' The question can be: `Why should there be a parabola and not a circle?' The reason is: parabola is the shortest distance to go round another point, is the shortest. And that's why it's a parabola.

It is even in our ordinary life, you will find this happening: that whatever you do to others, it comes back to you in some form, whether you do good or bad. And that's why our karmic ideas and that of our doing Puṇyas are all there. Because whatever we emit through us, will come back to us. In the same way, if you bless the whole world, the blessings of the whole world will come to us.

As I told you, the process is not that simple as it can be drawn, because it's a living process of a big dimension but I'm just trying to make it simpler for you to understand.

Now, this parabola, when, here now, when She is, She goes into the motion of a parabola and Shiva sanctioned Her, sanctions Her, it's a living process, again you must understand, it's a living process, it's as human as we are. Both of them are as human as we are, we should say, they are thousand times more human than we are.

So, here the Wife, His Consort, says that: “I am very happy just like this. I won't go any further with it." Because Creation is not an easy thing for Her, She doesn't want to depart from Her Creation. Creation is the child and She says, “I would not like to have children now, because I will lose you." So, She pushes Herself towards Him and He pushes Her back and disappears, opening out from here. Now She is in this form.

So, the beginning of the Om starts. Parabola, first of all, gets converted into Om Then She pushes Herself down and settles down for a while to meditate and to find out how She is going to work it out, we can say like this.

You see, it is Her desire which must be aroused. If Her desire is not aroused, She will not conceive the Creation.

So, a Kalpa is spent in that. Quite a lot of time is spent in Her own thinking, which way She should do it. She has created many universes. It is not one universe She has created. She has created universes after universes and I will show you how She has created so many universes. And some of them are still lingering on, some of them are destroyed. But today before us: this Universe, this Earth, on this Earth, India and in India, Delhi, you are sitting attending this place. It's like that.

So, at this moment, whatever is the thing, is not the past, nor the future, but I'm telling you about the present moment we are here. But many universes have been created by Ādi Shakti; even before us.

And She has tried many other things also. Ultimately She has tried this. She has created Earth and then created us. Now, how She has done that we'll see later on. Just now let us see how She assumes her powers.

When She decides to create, She is endowed with three powers: She has three powers of God which are granted to Her. By one power, first of all, is the existence, the desire to exist, She desires to exist with God. The second power is to create and the third power is to sustain. First power is existence, second is to create and the third is the evolving power or sustenance power by which gradually you sustain something and you become something. These are the three powers She assumes. In short, we can say that She forms three powers of Mahākālī, Mahāsaraswatī and Mahālakṣhmī. These are the three powers She assumes within Herself.

Now, She uses again Her parabolic systems. You know, supposing, I have come to this house by this way, I know this way. Then I take that way, I know that way. I know the middle way, everything. Now, I know these three ways and I know all about it: with that knowledge, I can do something else.

So, She again uses Her parabolic movements. Actually, Her three movements, of Mahākālī, Mahālakṣhmī and Mahāsaraswatī, are all the time with Her, with the Ādi Shakti. She can separate them and put them into three different channels. She can combine them and synthesize them and use it as a parabola, you understand this? That's why when we put a bandhan to you, we say `put a parabola', is a parabola, because the vibrations are all in... all the three powers are flowing this way.

So, we have got, you know that, three powers, the Mahākālī power you can say, I need not write, Mahākālī power. By Mahākālī power She desires, as I've told you, is the emotional side of God, you can say. She represents the emotional side of God, She desires. Is the desire is that of God. God Almighty, Who is the spectator, He is the Sākshī. And She puts that Sākshī into your heart, She reflects that into your heart which is kept all the time burning to watch what you are doing. To see your play after your creation.

Her Mahāsaraswatī power, now, moves in a parabola. She can move in any angle, 360 angles She can move, from one point.

Sometimes, She goes round and round at a point. When She goes round and round at a point, Her Mahāsaraswatī power can get consolidated; you can say, it becomes dense. You see, that's the trouble with English language! It becomes dense, it becomes so very dense that it cracks out.

These cracks occur due to the momentum of the movement of the Mahākālī power, Mahāsaraswatī power.

Because it is moving in a round and round fashion, they also get into the momentum of that movement, they start moving. For example, this part starts moving, this part starts moving, this part starts moving.

And when they start moving, they become rounds, they lose their angularities and then they become round. Now I'm telling you, very much in short because it's a... they become round. These rounds again are put into friction with each other. And that is how, we can say, now forget about other universes, where other styles were also created, but about this one we can say, was created.

Now, you must all the time remember that this Power thinks, understands, organizes, loves and is an identity.

So, She creates the Earth. Earth is not created so easily. Part of the Sun is removed just like this, with the hand, you can say. We must understand why the Sun became so cold. Sun is, from the Sun it is removed very much far away first, to the farthest point so that it freezes completely. Also like Moon, it was taken very far away. It just freezes completely and is then brought near the Sun again, like a pendulum. It is moved again towards the cold side, again it is brought to the hot side. It is brought to a point, to the medium point where Earth is made, is made, again I'm saying, it's not a chance of nature, is made deliberately, habitable for human beings, the temperature was brought in. It has been done by Ādi Shakti, the Mother. She has done it deliberately, it's not easy to conceive of such a Mother. But She has done it. And She brings this Earth to a point where life can begin.

So the combination of Moon and the combination of Sun gives you hydrogen from the Moon, oxygen from the sun, gives you water, the freezing and heating. The freezing and heating gives you the water. In the water, when the Earth is made, spirally, to move upward, again the heating and cooling starts. By heating and cooling, life comes into being as amino acids.

Is done deliberately! What I am saying: it is not done by something, by chance. On this also one has to think once: `How is it?' It is not chance! If you read Dunois, is a very big biologist, I mean, I think he's one of the greatest biologists who has really gone into the calculations of how much time should it take for a simple amoeba to be created out of the matter and he has calculated that it should take much more time than even what we have had so far, billions of billions of years are needed just by chance. Law of chance is there, which I don't know if I should tell you elaborately, but law of chance is that, if you have in one tube fifty red pebbles and fifty white pebbles and if you start shaking them and make them absolutely in a chaotic order, it takes so much, so much times shaking to make it again the same as it is, or to bring it into order.

So, even to create an orderly living protoplasm, a cell, would have taken much more time than it has taken so far: much more, many times more, billions of billions. And it has taken only five billion years for Earth to secede from the Moon. And only two billion years for it to cool down.

So, he says, it is beyond any understanding, only thing that can explain it, what we can say, is that there is a `Juggler' behind it. And there is a Juggler, about which our great Rishis and munis know that, that Juggler is nobody else but Ādi Shakti, the Primordial Mother. The Primordial Father is Sadāśhiva and the Primordial Mother is Ādi Shakti. And are we going to discuss about their sex? Are we going to do that way with the Tāntrikas? Is that the way to pay homage to your parents? We have to understand that it's a very, very solemn subject, we are discussing here the sanctum sanctorium of the love of our Primordial Parents. It's a very, very holy thing. We are not holy people, we are yet full of lots of greed and lust, but they are above everything.

So, when we are discussing them, we have to know, we have to do it with great Shraddhā and with our head bowed before them that it is our luck and we are very fortunate that we have been able to learn something about these two Primordial Parents who have brought forth this Creation, their child.

So, one of these then again cracks and becomes a Sūrya Maṇḍala and a Sūrya Maṇḍala has got, as you know, Earth and Moon and all these things and I have told you how Earth is created. After the Creation of Earth, first, you know that amino acids were formed, the vegetation started and then the human being started.

Now, the matter, also, is a very systematic thing. Matter is not unsystematic, it is systematic, but it is not organized, there is difference between the two. The systematic things are dead, can be dead. You can put five stones here in a systematic manner, but they are not organized, because they are not living things. There's a difference between the two.

So, first, the systematic things were laid down. Perhaps, if you know about the... Eight different types of elements were created. These were created and were put into proper places through Śhrī Gaṇeśha. You know that the carbon... carbon is in the center of these periodical elements that appear. That means a element which has got one valency, two valency, three valency and four valency, the three are the plus ones, then you've got one C, carbon, which has got four valences. Then you have got, again, minus one, two, three and four, is a complete eight.

Like that, the whole matter has been organized. To organize the matter, some deity was to be created for that and first deity that was created was that of Śhrī Gaṇeśh.

Let us see now how She created here. You have seen that one part of Her, which is the Mahāsaraswatī, has created the matter. Mahāsaraswatī has created the matter. Now, Mahākālī has to give them existence.

How do you get an existence? Is through your sustenance or, you can say, through your quality, whatever you are.

So, Mahākālī gives that existence to those material things, not human beings or living things but matter, through a deity known as Śhrī Gaṇeśh. Mahākālī...

In the heart of the Virāta, as you see, you'll see Virāta also He comes in, because that I will tell you later on, but in the heart of Virāta, is the Primordial Being, the complete Primordial Being, the Mahākālī is settled down. What She does, She goes three and a half from the heart: one up, one down like that, three and a half times and comes to the end of the three and a half, down-way. Three and a half. Now, She comes at the end of it. And if you put three and a half like that and if you cut it straight, you get seven centers cut in.

Is there a drawing person who knows how to draw? You should start from like that, you can put it like this. She comes down here. She comes down here and from here She penetrates. You see, She cuts at seven points here. At this point, She creates the first deity, little below, of Śhrī Gaṇeśh. I mean, this is not done in one day, is not done in one year, not done in one Yuga, it is done in many Kalpas.

The first step is to create Śhrī Gaṇeśh, this is Her abode and She puts Śhrī Gaṇeśh. Now, he is emitting his vibrations through all this. He passes through all this whatever She has created. On this picture is settled the work of the Mahāsaraswatī, you can say. She comes down with all Her programs like this and She makes it. And She gets joined here again.

So, Śhrī Gaṇeśh emits His vibrations through her. First, Śhrī Mahākālī creates Śhrī Gaṇeśh and then Mahāsaraswatī comes down, She creates all these things and gets connected to Śhrī Gaṇeśh.

So, the vibrations of Śhrī Gaṇeśh start flowing through all the creation of Mahāsaraswatī.

Before creating all this, the complete thought of what is going to happen in future comes in a clear-cut vision of the Ādi Shakti. And She puts Her plans through. First of all, the Mahālakṣhmī power comes down and creates the Śhrī Gaṇeśh. You can understand now how important it is that we have to be holy people. First, She created the holiness on this Earth. First thing, Her relationship with the child was established, because the Creation is going to be created in the image of Her child. That's why Śhrī Gaṇeśh was created first. And then from here, say, is the Ādi Shakti, the other power, Mahāsaraswatī, on Her way, She comes down and gets connected with Śhrī Gaṇeśh. And that's how the Śhrī Gaṇeśh establishes the relationship and emits His vibrations through this. Because of His vibrations passing through the matter that She has created. For example, our Mother Earth: through this passes the, you know that through it passes the axis. Nobody has seen the axis, but they say, there is an axis, from the way it moves. There is a kind of an axis.

Now, this is the power of Mahākālī passing through the [axis]. We can say, it's the power of Śhrī Gaṇeśh passing through the axis of the Mother Earth, which has got magnetic power in it. And that's how, through that, it controls its speed, its movement and also it looks after us. Why don't we think that when we put a little seed in the soil it sprouts, automatically? You have seen now, many of you who have been suffering from certain troubles and diseases, that the Mother Earth herself took down your problems, She sucked them out. It is a fact, you can see it in Sahaja Yoga, that after realisation if you have any problem, if your head is heavy, if you are a realised Soul, otherwise She doesn't listen, because you should be activated or you should be granted a certificate from the Ādi Shakti that you're a realised person, otherwise why should She accept you? You just put your head on the soil, put your both the hands on the Mother Earth and you'll find the whole thing will be sucked out from your forehead. It has been done with many, even from the legs it can take out.

Mother Earth is actually, is the Mother of Ādi Shakti, you can say. She is the Mother, they say, because She is made in such a way that She takes all the weights of the world in Herself. She controls all the weights of the world and She can consume all your weight. She's the Dharā.

Now, weight means everything that... your weight is what we weigh in: that's not the thing. Weight means also your sins, also your Puṇyas. It means everything. If you have too many sins in you, then Mother Earth feels hurt. Wherever there is too much of sin, then Mother Earth has to ask help. And then some other deity has to, like Viṣhṇu himself, has to come on this Earth to save Her from this too much of overloading of sins upon this Earth. Is a fact! It is not I'm telling you a mythical story, is a fact.

Which you have to verify after getting vibrations. Before getting vibrations, you cannot find out from the Mother Earth. If you want to find out some time, if you are realised, you just stand on the Mother Earth and ask her “Will you take away my sins, oh Mother Earth? Will you take away my Karmas? I have been realised." Immediately, She'll start drawing you. You'll be surprised. You'll feel so much lighter. You have to use Her. That is how Mother Earth has been created.

But also Ādi Shakti through Her Mahāsaraswatī power has created the five elements. Before everything else, She created Tanmātra [subtle elements] as you call it, I mean, if I go into details, it's going to be too much for you! But first of all, the causal essences were created by Her. But if I say like this, there won't be anything false. If I say that just by seeing by Her sight, by her Dṛushti [sight], She has created this light. Just by Her breathing, She has created air, because Her desire is the last point. Because She desired there should be air, She created air. Like that, She has, Her smell has created the causal, Gandha, which has created this mother Earth. And it has started from Her only, from Her desires, by Her desiring it, it was created for Her and that's how it was created in the whole Universe, which was later on made into Earth, Moon, Sun and all these things.

Actually, it was Her mere desire which brought forth these.

For us it is impossible to understand someone like that, who, just by mere desire can create. But when we think of somebody who is above all the powers of the world, the One the, who is the highest of all: She can do anything She feels like. Can't we think like that? We cannot think of someone like that. We think of God, who is Almighty, we call Him, but when we talk of His mights we start laughing. How can it be? But She can do anything She wants to. It is only Her mere desire that has brought forth all these creations and all this things that you see in this world are created only by Her desire. She created Ākāsha.

She created all these five elements, which you know and then She started Her another form which we call as the Mahālakṣhmī form.

Before that, I think, I should tell you about Śhrī Gaṇeśha's existence in the matter. He acts in the matter as vibrations, as Mahāsaraswatī vibrations.

They are electromagnetic vibrations, Mahāsaraswatī vibrations are electromagnetic vibrations, we can say, that electromagnetic and also there is sound and all these five elements are expressed in that. You can record them, because if you take a sulphur dioxide, for example, a sulphur dioxide and two oxygen and one sulphur and if you watch them properly under a very highly micro, you can try, I don't know if people have tried, but you can try to find out and put it under, let's say, a very highly developed micro, microwave, microscope, you can say, you can see that the oxygen things and sulphur, sulphur is stationary, but these two are vibrating. They are vibrating, there's a vibration going between these bonds. They can be isometric also, they can be symmetric, they can be even, uneven and they can be expanding and closing like that.

So, there are three types of vibrations, we find. And the fourth side is nothing but Śhrī Gaṇeśha himself who is controlling.

So, this we can see with our naked eyes, if you want to see, even if you are realised or not. From where do these vibrations come in the minutest Paramāṇu, as you call, the molecules? In a molecule, how do you get these vibrations, can you explain this? It is so much, Sūkshma, Parasūkshma. The powers of Gaṇeśha are very, very subtle and they enter into the matter and create this kind of vibrations, which you can even see and record, electromagnetic vibrations, in, even, a one small, little molecule.

So, we have in these, as I told you, into the periodic level, periodic laws of elements, you can find out that all the elements are divided into eight types. Just see! How can all the elements be divided into eight parts without somebody being there? Can you do something without organizing a proper chart of these elements? Just think about it! You see, when we challenge God, we have to understand that in this world everything is so well organized, there are eight elements spread out so well, placed so well. And it has a particular style of behaviour and every element is different in numbers and protons and these numbers are very well calculated in such a manner that the end of it, that the last circle, that the last circle of all the protons should be eight. If it is not eight, if it is less than eight then it creates a valency problem.

It is so well organized, then, even if you study this, if there is anybody who knows little bit of chemistry, you know, so if you know chemistry, it's such a wonderful thing. We take it for granted! We think it is our right to have the matter so well organized for us! But the valencies are all depending on such a nice organization of this eight protons at the outer thing.

This is all done through the Mahāsaraswatī power. But the vibrating force... Now see, there is a vibrating force: this is all done through the, as I told you, through the Mahāsaraswatī power. She creates.

Now the vibrating force: He exists, matter also exists. It must exist. If it does not exist, nothing can exist.

So, the existence force is given through the Mahākālī force, which is acting through Śhrī Gaṇeśh, who is sitting at the nucleus. He is sitting at the nucleus of every [atom]. Can you imagine how much it must be? Every molecule and every atom. You cannot understand the finiteness of it.

Now, see, say, take one element like gold, how many molecules it has? Can you calculate? [It's] beyond us! How many, you can say, atoms it has? We just cannot calculate it. And then how many Gaṇeśha's pictures must be there? How is it achieved? Is another thing which I will tell you if I come in the way. How infinite reflections are caught into and why there are two things like Shiva and Ādi Shakti? The reason is it has to create an infinite reflection.

How do you create an infinite reflection? Do you know that? Anybody who knows physics? If you place in the center of two mirrors something, then the reflections are infinite.

So, the first mirror is the Ādi Shakti and the second mirror is this Creation and that's how you can get infinite reflections on this Earth.

This is the reason why you can get infinite reflections. And that's why you had to create another one who reflects it. And that's why there have to be three identities, one, the God Almighty, then Ādi Shakti and then the whole Universe.

It had to be that way, otherwise you cannot create infinite reflections.

Now, somebody who has done this job must be a very clever man, no doubt. When human beings think that they can know God through their buddhi, they must know, how can you reach this Buddhi, it's supreme.

How much labour He has taken to create us! After creating the matter, then He, or I should say, His power as Mahālakṣhmī descends on this Earth. Mahālakṣhmī helps in sustenance. Sustenance means all the scanning of all these elements.

When they create the matter, the matter is differently created, created for different purposes. Now, what is the ultimate? The Creation has its ultimate aim is to create human beings, this creation, just imagine! You people are so great that for you all these troubles have been taken. Such an important thing is a human being that all these troubles are taken, all matter, all, everything, is used just to create you.

This is the ultimate aim.

Sort of a stage has to be laid down and you come, the Sahaja Yogis come on the scene, you can say.

Just the instrument of man is to be created. Now, why God wanted to create an instrument of man? Because He wanted to create an instrument which could feel Him, which could understand Him, which could emit, like Kṛiṣhṇa creating his Mur.lī [flute]. He just wanted to play through our instruments His power.

But He didn't want to do it through the dead instruments like these but through the living instruments.

Supposing, if this [microphone] can understand, can love, has a human mind and if My voice is passing through it like a hollow personality then we can say that this is a realised personality. But this is not a living being, you are a living being. You are made specially with all these difficulties for millions of years, have been worked out so carefully, so delicately, one after another. We have to now jump to the evolution part, because you see, it's a very long thing.

Shri Mataji: Kiti wasle [What time is it]?

Sahaja Yogi: Saha wasle [six o'clock].

So, now we have to come to the most important part which is evolution, which we should understand, because we know evolution through science.

When these three forces came into being, before creating any earth or before creating this universe or anything, first they had to draw out a proper picture about it and a proper understanding of it, you see.

As before doing anything, say, we have to plan out things, we have a planning commission, first of all, we sit down with a planning commission. In the same way, first, they had to form a stage where they just plan out the things. This stage we can call it as the Vaikuṇṭha state. Because this [current state] is not the earliest state, this is created later on.

First, the planning state is known as the Vaikuṇṭha state. At this stage they created all the incarnations.

Incarnations were not created after the Earth has been created, which is a very wrong idea. They created all the incarnations at the Vaikuṇṭha state. Where you or I never existed at that time, this Earth never existed and nothing existed that you see with your naked eyes now. But a state of existence, the first one, known as the Vaikuṇṭha state, existed. In that Vaikuṇṭha state the planning of the whole Universe and the whole cosmos and all that was decided.

So, the first person who had to come on this was Shiva, because without him nothing can exist, but where to settle Him down, because He is to be reflected onto something. If Shiva has to be reflected onto someone, you have to create a reflector.

So, they had to, first, think of the one Primordial Being or a, one Huge Identity you can call it, known as Virāt. They created Virāta. This will be the Virāta, this will be the complete form of the Primordial Being. This is the one I'm telling you about, this Reflector, The First One. The God Almighty has to be reflected, so, first, let us create, first of all, the Primordial Being, the Virāt.

In the Virāt they created different incarnations. Incarnations are not created from human beings.

I don't know why people think like that. They cannot be created by human beings. But they were first created. You see, evolution is alright from amoeba to human beings, but there is no evolution for incarnations. They are made like that from the very beginning.

As you have seen in the Virāta, I have shown you the picture of the Virāt, the three powers of Mahākālī, Mahālakṣhmī and Mahāsaraswatī met at the Āgñyā Chakra and there they produced two children each, it's not a story, is a fact, again, as brothers and sisters. And these brothers and sister means the relationship is of a temporary nature but of a subtler temperament. And then they were married, intercommunication took place. Mahālakṣhmī, Mahāsaraswatī and Mahākālī created all together six children, who were married. Inter-marriage took place. By that inter-marriage they got an entity which was a kinetic personality and a potential energy within it, such a combination. And they placed those incarnations on different Chakras. They brought from these, from the top, all of them were brought from the Āgñyā downward and placed onto all the Chakras. These incarnations, as you know, are placed on different Chakras of the Virāta.

Many people won't understand this and won't like to hear this also, because human beings are so egoistical that they cannot understand that there is a God, Who is Almighty, Who is going to do everything, He has His own ways of doing it. Now, whether I'm telling the Truth or not, you can verify it on vibrations.

You can see for yourself how Incarnations were created. And all these Incarnations were placed in the Virāta state. Here, to create the reflection on the other side, Shiva was removed from the Shakti, as it was removed in the beginning and it was placed on top of the Virāta's head as the Sadāśhiva's Pīṭha. In the same way, we, too, have a Sadāśhiva's Pīṭha on our head. You see, we are the reflection of the reflector.

So, we, too, have the same style, we, too, have a Sadāśhiva's Pīṭha on our head. He's also placed here only. But when the Kuṇḍalinī enters into the being, when he is in the womb of the mother, that time this Sadāśhiva Pīṭha, or we can say, Sadāśhiva from this Pīṭha descends into the heart. And that's how you hear the first throb in the heart. It is just the same as it happened in the Virāta. But at the Vaikuṇṭha stage this was not created, the second reflector here was not created, only the first one.

So, only the Virāta was created and in His Being, in the planning stage, first of all, these officers, you can say, in charge of these Chakras were created by Ādi Shakti.

God is the witness and She is doing the play and She creates those Chakras. In the Chakras She places all these deities to govern.

Now, there is the existence, there is the creation, creative force and there is the evolutionary force, all inside the Virāta state.

Now, this is at the Vaikuṇṭha state, we say, because this state is on this first reflection. It is not in us, or we cannot feel it, the Vaikuṇṭha state, because it is in the first thing.

Then another state was created, then third was created. But the fourth one is the Bhava-sāgara, is the state at which all of us were born. First, in the fourth state… now, can you think of a four strata personality which is facing a mirror? Now, which is the first one [that] shows? Is the topmost. And that's why the topmost shows is the Bhava-sāgara. But if you can go deep down into your state, you can feel all the other three. But first of all, the one which you can see and feel it, is the Bhava-sāgara.

So, you are born in the Bhava-sāgara. At this state you are at the Bhava-sāgara state. At this Bhava-sāgara state, now, you are created and you have to evolve. At this time the Mahālakṣhmī power acts to evolve you. You already know how evolutionary things have taken place but I will tell you how evolution has taken place according to our Purānas [ancient scriptures] and which is a fact.

The Evolution of Man started, first from the amoeba, you can say; because the life came into being into water, as I told you [that] first the water was created. In the water the amino acids were formed, amoeba were formed, fishes were formed and fishes, when they were formed, they found, the smaller fishes found it difficult to exist because of the bigger fishes were trying to eat it. It comes as a reciprocal thing, they were absolutely fed up of this destruction that was going on. At this time, Śhrī Viṣhṇu Himself, the One who is the evolutionary force, descended on this Earth as the Matsya Avatāra. He helped some of the fishes to cross across the shores. By crossing across they had that courage, She was the leader. And then others started crossing across. This was the first evolutionary stage which we know.

These fishes became reptiles later on; as you know, in the evolutionary stages that they became reptiles.

But how did they become reptiles? There must be someone who must have given them the lead. It was again Śhrī Viṣhṇu, who came on this Earth as a Kurma and lots of things were done at this time in the Vaikuṇṭha stage, before He came on this Earth as a Kurma Avatāra. At the Vaikuṇṭha stage, when they created this Earth, when they created, they planned this whole Virāta and wanted to create, on this side of the reflector the whole planning and the whole thinking and all that process brought forth some sort of a waste matter. It brought forth the waste matter. This waste matter got contaminated or, we can say, got stagnated on to one side which was neglected somehow and through it started coming out some Satanic forces and there was a big fight between the Satanic forces and the good forces. It actually happened in the third stage, not at the Vaikuṇṭha stage, but at the third stage, because when the planning started, the working out started, these Satanic forces started working out.

Now, people may say, `Why God created Satanic forces?' He did not, but eventually they turned out to be because at the second stage, when some of the Devas, who were created. Again, they were not evolved people, they were created, Devas, in charge of all these elements and all the working, you see, you have to create also officers or people who have to go in the field and work out. All these Devas and Devatās: out of their working, what happened [is] that they got lost, some of them and became Satanic forces.

Sort of a waste product came in and with that waste product, Satanic forces started and they acted in such a way that there was a war during the Kurma Avatāra between Rākshasas and the Suras –'Gods', as they call it.

So, the good people who were in charge of the elements, all the working in the office of God started fighting with the Satanic forces. At that time, He Himself worked out this and you know what happened in the Amṛut Manthān –'churning' which took place and this is, people don't understand how can the Amṛut Manthān take place in the Bhava-sāgara, it did not. It took place at a stage which is not Bhava-sāgara. At the Bhava-sāgara it did not take place. Now, we are at the Bhava-sāgara state. At the Bhava-sāgara state the same Kurma, the same one took birth and came on this Earth and gave us a understanding how to become a proper reptile. Like that we grew up.

So, the whole thing will take too much time, I need not go into that. But, ultimately, a human being was created. All this is done by Mahālakṣhmī power, which has acted through Viṣhṇu, which I have told you how evolution has taken place, how you are made. Now, what is going to happen? You reach this point, up to this point, till Christ came in. Christ was also an incarnation and his Mother was nobody else but Rādhājī Herself, the Mahālakṣhmī. And they brought forth up to this stage the human beings.

After this, now, what man has to become?, is to enter into a state where he becomes Nirvichar, means there is no more the consciousness of the Bhava-sāgara, but you go little beyond it. From this stage you dive into a state of Universal Unconscious, as they call it, it's nothing but the same power which exists here, which is a synthesis of all the three powers, is the synthesis of all the three powers. That is the Ādi Shakti's power.

Ādi Shakti's power is all-pervading, exists everywhere, but we never feel it otherwise. Why? Because we are very grossly placed. We can say, that a tube, which has got, say four layers, out of which it can only use the outer tube, because the inner tubes are all closed. When the innermost tube is opened out, you become absolutely Self-realised, but when even the second tube is opened out, you can feel the All-pervading Force of God Almighty, which is, we call it as Sampovapi Achetan. But it is no more Achetan [unconscious] for you because you are conscious of it.

That is how you start your dialogue with God. What happens is that here, the reflection here, the reflector, that is reflecting work, from here you ascend into this part. You ascend onto this part. You do not become this but you ascend into this area. From here you ascend into this area. And this area is filled with the All-pervading Power of Ādi Shakti.

Till you reach to this stage, you have to go up to this stage of an incarnation, which, of course, is a big gap. But I can say that Mahāvīra and Buddha, both of them rose to that height. But look at their disciples! For example, Buddha's disciples, they have decried Shiva, they have decried all the Gods and Goddesses, I mean as if they did not know much about it. And the way they have shown in certain statues, that a Goddess is standing on top of a Shiva and a Pārvatī and is trying to kill; She is hitting Śhrī Gaṇeśha and this is something so nonsensical. I mean, they completely killed the image of One United Force, acting the whole thing, in One united idea, with One united mind. Only whenever they had not united, they became Rākshasas and formed the Satanic force.

As I told you it's a very, very difficult subject and I've tried to handle it in English, is even worse.

So, I've tried My level best to do it, but still if you have any questions, anything, you can ask Me, some time, you can write to Me, we can find it out.

For tomorrow... Now, this is the only thing is, I wanted to tell you about this, that now you have got thoughtless awareness, no doubt. Most of you have got thoughtless awareness, you have got vibrations, but you have to jump into Nirvikalpa. Nirvikalpa. And [to] that you have to jump through deep meditation and through deep exposure. Otherwise, you see, it is no use only having this little state of Nirvichara, you have to jump into Nirvikalpa. That is a stage, little, as I've told you here, that a little ahead of this reflector, you have moved. But still you are going up and down, so many of you. This is a state known as Satori in the Zen system of religion, they call it as Satori: where, you see, if a person is going up and down, is catching, doing this, that. This stage has to be overcome. Then you go to the Nirvikalpa state.

At the end of the Nirvikalpa state you just don't catch much. You are not bothered.

So far, I haven't met any human being like that. You see, I have seen very great saints and realised people and I can say that they are definitely Self-realised, they are even controlling nature, some of them do, but still they catch on their Chakras, is something surprising. But, you see, human beings are like that, they'll go on catching and again, perhaps, they jump into the third state of Self-realisation completely, but they are again in a Satori state and they come back and go back and, like that, may be. But I have seen that, so far, I have not met one human being whom I will say he is fully Self-realised, who doesn't catch. Except for Me, I find, everybody is catching. It's most surprising.

But when you don't catch, what happens, when you don't catch? Actually, this is a state rather difficult to achieve. But if you don't catch, if you think you don't catch, how you should do it?, is to see this way: that if, supposing, you are catching Āgñyā, maybe. You must know that when you are catching your Āgñyā, you should not think you are catching your Āgñyā, but you should think that you are gathering a force here to combat the another person. If you can do like that. Supposing you are catching on the Viśhuddhi Chakra, instead of thinking that you are catching on Viśhuddhi Chakra and getting upset about it, if you start thinking that this is a force you are accumulating just to counterbalance his Viśhuddhi Chakra. Then, I think, it will work out better. That's why I always say that: extend your hands to others and see for yourself. This has helped many people because if they catch on Āgñyā and if they give vibrations to somebody who is Āgñyā caught, they find they are released. Such things are happening to very few but it's happening.

So, this is what you can try: that don't think you are catching but you should think: a force has been accumulated to expel the Āgñyā of another person who is facing you. In the beginning, of course, it's a very, very slow process, but gradually you can do it and only people who start giving others. This is a collective thinking, is a collective thinking: that, supposing, now you can say like that, that if, supposing, there is a malaria attack on Me, then My own blood, My own blood cells are trying to combat it. And they are combating it. You see, if I give in, if I give in, then I become malarious. But if I do not give in, I become victorious.

In the same way, if you could think this way while giving vibrations: that if you catch it is actually a force being accumulated into you and then you have to give it, then you are going to be much faster than all the munis put together, I can tell you. But that thinking is rather difficult for human beings, because once they catch, they get little worried, `I'm catching,' they start taking out their own. If you don't take out your own and go all out to give it to others, it will work out better. And this I've been, I've experimented with one or two people, I'm saying and it has worked. Everybody does not have that capacity.

So, gradually you rise, because you are just now newly born children, you have still to grow, you have to grow more. You might be learned, you might be knowing a lot, that doesn't mean, as far as your spirituality is concerned, you have just have come out of your Satori state, some of you and some of you are still in the Satori state.

So, be careful about it. I would like to meet you again, perhaps, after two years, I don't know when.

Tomorrow we are having a meditation here, then I won't speak much. Tomorrow we have a meditation.

We have a meditation center here, where you should go and meet, when you meet in a group then it is a Samūhik, is a group activity, I will be there. You'll be surprised that My vibrations cannot be felt anywhere so much as they can be felt in a group, about which I know that such and such group is working here.

So, we have already three groups which are working in Delhi. And they are made quite closer to the places. After all, we must know that we don't have to go to Himālayas, as people went down, we don't have to do all these things. Only thing we have to go is to a place which is very much closer to us, it has been brought to our doors. The whole thing has been brought to your doors: the knowledge, the vibrations, the realisation and everything is made so easy. It's made easy... But it should not mean that we should take it for granted. It has been made easy through a very, very great Tapasya on My part, I should say.

In many ages I've been living now for thousands of years and I've been working it out on so many human beings and so many things and, at long last, I've been able to find out most of the permutations and combinations of most of the human beings and that's how it has been worked out in such a large mass scale. It would not have been possible if I had not worked it out in that way. And that's how if it has worked out it has to click with most of the people except for one type is very, very difficult, I must say, those who are bound to people who are Rākshasas. If they are born Rākshasas and if your head has touched their feet, it's a very difficult thing.

So, I would warn you, that before you touch feet of anybody, you'd be careful about it.

May God bless you all! It's already very late for all of you and such a difficult subject to be brought to such a short time, it's very difficult. I hope to write some book on Sahaja Yoga: `I hope,' I am saying, because, so far, I've never written any book. [I'm] trying to write some book, but before that some other people are writing. I hope, I may be able to write something. In any case, you try not to bother too much about these things. This is not so important as your own realisation and your own ascent [because] the whole knowledge will be dawned upon you. You don't have to bother! Every word now you read, you will have a meaning about it and you will understand.

The first thing is that you must get your realisation, second thing is you must ascend. You must ascend much more and give more time to this. Do not take it for granted. It is a very important thing which you should do. After all there are other things, they are important. But this is the most important thing which has to be done.

By God's grace, if it works out I'll be very happy. As it is, I'm extremely happy because in none of My lives I've been able to give realisations to so many people.

So as it is, I am over satisfied with Myself. But as far as you are concerned, you should not be satisfied, you should ask for more and more and more and it will be granted.

Because you are the people who are on the stage, you are created for this purpose. One has to do it.

God has to do it. If He does not do it, He cannot fulfil His own desires. And His Creation, He is not going to destroy.

May God bless you!

.. that the source of joy is within your Self. Unless and until you seek your Self you cannot seek God.

They have all talked about the second birth. What we call the baptism is also the same where you have to be born again. Is not just a formal one that is done by unauthorized people. Even the word `Mussulman', Mohammed Sahib has again and again talked of a rebirth.

You have to find your Self. How do we find our Selves is the problem. Is there something like `Self'? Is there really something like `God' or it's all a myth? Is there any fact in following the religious holy life that you get your salvation? So far we have had no proof of it. Naturally, in this scientific world today you have to give the proof of everything to convince people so that they seek them Selves. But the science tells us that we were evolved from a little amoeba to a human being. Why? Why God took so much trouble? If you don't believe in God you can say nature. Why nature worked so hard to create a human being out of a small little amoeba? Supposing we assemble some screws and we try to work out something, a passerby would ask, `Why? What are you going to make out of this instrument? What are you doing?' There must be some reason why we have become human beings after so much of evolution. But science doesn't think of `why'. It just tells you, `This is.' And whatever is not there, it says, `We can't explain.' The instrument, whatever it is, supposing has to work on electrical energy or on any energy whatsoever will come into force or will start working out when it is connected to the mains. Otherwise it is still in the making process or you can say it is in transition.

Human being as such is in transition. It has not found its own meaning. He does not know why he exists, what is the purpose of his life. It's a meaningless life.

So, you have to be connected to the mains.

That's what everybody has been saying that you have to be reborn, you have to become that.

Now, those who talked of this were born on the tenth story. The rest of them are on this earth. When they talked it all went over their heads. You have to at least reach the first or second story to understand that there is something beyond this human consciousness, this human awareness. There's something more to this awareness. There's a more opening. There's a greater dimension which one has to achieve to understand your own meaning.

About Kuṇḍalinī all the scriptures, I must say, have described, all the scriptures without exception.

Of course, in India there has been a very deep meditation tendency thousands of years back and some of the seers long time back found out about Kuṇḍalinī and even in [UNCLEAR Dhirenja Sangita/Samhita] Kuṇḍalinī is described. That's as old, I should say, about Vedas. We cannot say the origin of these books.

Kuṇḍalinī has been described in them.

Kuṇḍalinī has been again and again described and also abused and misused and misrepresented. All sorts of things have been done about Kuṇḍalinī. In the Bible Kuṇḍalinī has been described in such a manner that it is not called as Kuṇḍalinī, but they call it as “Tree of Fire” “Tongues of Flames." Many such adjectives, descriptions are used, but they have not used the word Kuṇḍalinī itself because it is not written in Sanskrit language.

So, there must be some mechanism within us by which we are reborn, no doubt. There has to be some mechanism.

If I'm speaking through this mike to you, there must be some mechanism which is doing the job. In every seed there is a primule, the mechanism which germinates and creates a big tree out of it. In the same way we have a mechanism placed within us. But this is a very subtle thing while human beings are absolutely gross. In this Kali Yuga, modern times, they are even worse, extremely gross and they cannot think of something subtle.

If I tell you there is an energy which thinks, organizes, loves, you cannot think of such an energy. But how do we organize? How do we think? How do we love? From where do we get that energy? Why shouldn't we think about it? But as I said that modern man doesn't think of `how', he takes it for granted.

So, today I want to tell you about this mechanism that exists within you. It should not be just a mental feat with you. No! It should not be the so-called knowledge of Kuṇḍalinī from outside but it's a happening where the Kuṇḍalinī rises and you get that whatever is promised in all the scriptures.

Today the time has come to prove the existence of the Divine Power of God all around us.

We have been going and praying to God. Does He listen to us? Are we connected to Him? We do Namaz, we spread our hands towards God Almighty, are we connected with Him or we are just doing a mechanical thing? Even so many people are doing Haṭha Yoga. They think they are doing it in the name of God. Is it a correct method? Can we do anything about it? If it is a living process, if it is an evolutionary process, we must think we have done nothing for our own evolution so far. From amoeba to this stage we have come without doing anything about it. We have taken our human life for granted.

So what can we do about it? If it is a living process, it has to be spontaneous, it has to work by itself, like a seed which is planted germinates by itself. At the most a gardener can pour little water.

I can pour the water of My love on your seed, at the most but the seed has to germinate by itself spontaneously. It is a living process and not the mechanical process. Perhaps we never realise what is a living process because we take it for granted. You see so many flowers turning into fruits but we never think how it happens. We have no idea of spontaneity. We think by doing something we are being spontaneous.

So one has to be effortless because Kuṇḍalinī is born with you. `Sahaja': `born with you'. `Saha' means `with'. Born with you. `Ja' means `born'.

So awakening is a happening which happens to you when somebody who is awakened, like an enlightened light or a candle, comes near other lights which are not yet enlightened and enlightens it spontaneously.

Now you cannot argue it out, you cannot. You cannot rationalise it because rationality is a limited thing. You have to go to something that is unlimited. How can you do it with a limited mind? This is beyond mind you have to rise. If you argue it out, you are going to be away from it.

But in science we have found out many things which indicate, which actually prepares the stage for Sahaja Yoga, which prepares us to know that there's something beyond.

We have accepted in the medical science that we have autonomous nervous system which works by itself. We call it `auto': [UNCLEAR swayam] chyme. Who is this `auto'? Who is this `one'? The one who beats your heart, the one who digests your food? When we said that it is done by a system, you just give it a name. But how do you explain? You cannot do it. You may be able to increase the rate of your heart beat but you cannot decrease it. It happens spontaneously, automatically.

How does it happen? By giving it a name you do not explain.

In psychology people have found out that there is something like a universal unconscious. There is that Sarva-vyapi Achetan [all-pervasive action] which gives symbolic suggestions in the dreams which are universally the same. They've accepted this. They have proved it by experiments that there is a universal unconscious, so many of them. I shouldn't say all of them because, you see, after all there will be always a controversy till you reach the truth. Human mind must have something to eat. But they have, they talk of it.

Scientists cannot explain many things. There is another thing which science cannot explain is why certain things act differently in a human body. For example there are two chemicals known as adrenaline and acetylcholine. They have certain chemical reaction. But in the body they react differently. They cannot explain, they just say the mood of action of these chemicals in the human body cannot be explained.

Finished.

In the human body or in any body as such whichever is living, any foreign matter is thrown out.

But when a mother conceives a child in the womb it is not thrown out, but it is nurtured and looked after. Who does that? Who understands that this is not a foreign matter, but is a future child? Is there somebody thinking inside your uterus or something that is controlling, who takes the decision? There must be someone or for [you], at least minimum of a human level who thinks for you? So already there are questions for scientists to ask and they all can be answered. Because the knowledge of science is analytical, is in different corners, it gives you part knowledge.

Now Kuṇḍalinī can be seen, you can see it. The pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī you can see at least. Many doctors have seen it now. In Delhi of course we don't have any doctors so far. I don't know if among you there are any doctors. But you can see with your own eyes the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī very clearly. If you have a stethoscope you can even feel it, the rising of the Anāhata, means the throbbing. It can be done.

But how long are we going to sit asking for proof of a Kuṇḍalinī? Let us now see.

As I told you this morning you must accept this as the hypothesis. Modern times are the worst times for one reason that you have to explain everything which is a very simple thing as far as religion is concerned.

As far as other things are concerned you don't have to explain, people just accept.

For example, if you have to put on this light I have to just tell you that you go and switch on. That's all, nobody argues. But today in the morning I told somebody to put his hands towards Me like this, he started arguing on this point only, “Why should I do it?" Now I said, “I have to tell you the whole thing, why it is to be done?" Is a simple gesture he could not do. And he has come here for the Kuṇḍalinī rising, you know, with all the rights on Me.

You can't even put your hands towards Me? Arguments have brought you nowhere. You must understand.

This talking `bla, bla' has led you nowhere. What have you achieved in that? You think you have done this job, built this building you've done. It's all dead, all dead things, dead converted into another dead. What living work have you done so far? What have you done so far that you can call as living? You cannot do even a seed sprout! The One who does millions and millions of such things, billions and billions of these seeds sprouted, when we have to know Him, at least let us have the humility to know that through your rationality and so-called intellect you are not going to know Him.

A little drop wants to know the whole of the ocean! How can you explain to an ant the human civilization and the human problems and how can you explain to a human being the working of the subtle, Divine forces. God has been challenged by man. See the greatness! That's why in all the scriptures it is written, “Humble down yourself in your heart." That doesn't mean that you give up your intellect, doesn't mean at all, but you must have the balance of your heart also.

So, with all these apologetic words and introduction, I am now telling you about the Kuṇḍalinī, where It exists, because now don't start from the very beginning doubting. Please keep your mind open. Later on when you get your realisation through Sahaja Yoga, when you practice it? Now we have many here who have got it. And they have seen the working of the Kuṇḍalinī and have confirmed what I've been saying about it. But to you it will be quite shocking. I know it will be because you cannot believe that such a thing can be inside us.

Of course the mechanism has been simplified because this is just a, I should say, a primary class, the first standard.

So, it has not been that complicated as it is. I'll try to make it simpler and simpler. But you must know that it is a subtle thing which you have not seen yourself, you've not felt it, you've not known it so far. It's something out of the blue for you and in this so-called scientifically enlightened world it may sound quite foolish to you that I'm saying these things. But it is like this. Do not be fanatic about things. Even there are scientists who are real fanatics.

Science is another obsession which has really killed their foresight.

Can you see from here now, this is the picture.

As they say man is made in the image of God. We can say now, let us see, `Liver's Tone' means `the Object of which you are the reflection.' So we'll start from the top.

When the child is in the womb of the mother, the energy which you do not know, the energy that is all pervading called as Chaitanya, is the Divine power of love of God which is all around us. This sounds quite poetic only to people; [for] many people is just a poetry. But it is not, it's a fact.

Because we have never tried this power before, we only know the power of hatred.

So this power of Divine love of God which is all pervading, which is all around us, descends within us.

Yes, it does in the human beings also, when the child is in the womb of the mother.

The brain of the man is evolved in such a manner that it gets a shape of a prism, of a prism which has got three sides and a base. When this energy enters into the brain, then it passes into all the surfaces of the brain and some passes through the center on top here. You can say not the center but the apex as shown here.

At the back it passes through the brain straight into the medulla oblongata that is in the spinal cord and forms your central nervous system, as you call it as C.N.S.

On the other side of the brain, left side of the brain, it comes down this way but when it has to pass through the brain it goes into the fraction because of different densities and then passes into the medulla oblongata losing some of its resultant on the side into the spinal cord through the medulla oblongata.

Another one which falls on the right hand side goes to the left hand side through the refraction. Again it loses some of its outside as a resultant, is divided into two, one going down and one this way and goes down in the medulla oblongata.

The one which falls on the apex of the brain passes through the center and part of it, quite a part of it, escapes into the triangular bone as Kuṇḍalinī.

This is the arrangement made when you are born by God. I call it God because it is so. Of course, if there is God or not that we'll see later on. That proof I have to give you but not just now.

This happens in a very subtle manner because as I told you, is a subtle energy but is expressed in the gross way in our being as three autonomous nervous systems. The central one is known as the parasympathetic nervous system, is expressed as the parasympathetic nervous system. There are two sympathetic nervous systems, left and right.

But in the subtle form, which Kabīra has described, Kabīra has described very clearly, in the subtle form the channels that are carrying those subtle energies are: in the center the channel is called as Suṣhumnā Nāḍī, on the right hand side one channel it is called as the Piñgalā Nāḍī and the left hand side one is called as the Iḍā Nāḍī. These are the subtle things which are existing inside the medulla oblongata, not outside.

So, you see, when the doctor opens the medulla oblongata the person dies.

How can you see? How can you see a subtle form of energy through your eyes? You cannot see even your electricity through your eyes unless and until there is a lamp which is enlightened.

So you cannot see those energies which are at work inside in a subtle form but you can see the expression of it in the gross form outside.

Now these three energies are like the breath which flows through a flute.

The breath that flows through a flute passes through seven holes. In the same way there are seven Chakras, basically, main. When we say seven holes, actually there are more. Basically I am saying. I will tell you about the other ones later on.

Just now I am telling you the, absolutely, as I told you in the primary, first standard class. I am telling you the basic things.

So these Chakras, the centers that are placed within our being which are there, existing there and acting there and which are in a subtle form are expressed outside as plexuses which doctors know. Is there any doctor in this room? All right. They are expressed as plexus and doctors know about the plexuses because they can see the plexuses outside.

But what are the centers that are controlled them? I do not know if the medical science has gone that far to accept that there are centers inside the medulla oblongata which is controlling these centers. I don't know. I have done medicine for the same reason because I had to talk to these doctors and scientists later on.

So, I've done it. But at that time it was not so. Even in My nomenclature, you see, I'll be using those old terminologies which I learned in My young age and if there's any difference you shouldn't mind because it, you people are changing your nomenclature every now and then.

So, these subtle centers that are placed inside the medulla oblongata act on the gross plexuses that are outside. Doctors will accept that much, I know. They won't have an objection to that but little further they will not go. They cannot. They should not as doctors but as Sahaja Yogis they will. Once you have the experience and once you have found out, then why will you say, `No.' But one thing we must know that if there is no microscope how can you see something that is in a cell? With these eyes you may not be able to see something. But supposing you get those eyes which are microscopic and if you tell others, they are not going to believe because they must also get the microscopic eyes. This is a little problem of Sahaja Yoga that it has to happen to you, that you could see all these things what I'm talking about.

Now, let us see what are these centers.

Now when I describe them you need not get a fright. You need not accept. Again and again I'm trying to describe that.

You see with children it is very difficult. You have to take them this way, that way. God knows where their mind will just slip out. You see they will find out some loophole somewhere and just disappear.

So, I have to take your attention properly, so that you get the sap that you are here for, that you get what you have within yourself, you get your own powers so that you know your Self.

So, I have to, you see, `child' to you and look after you and manage you very well, so that there is no problem.

Don't allow your attention to just capture you, your mind to take you away, you see, because your mind will be playing tricks with you.

So be careful. Of course, you should not also get brainwashed by what I'm saying. You can judge Me very well whether whatever I'm saying is correct or not.

Now, the lowest Chakra. This Chakra, this center which is a subtle, again I'm saying, it is a subtle center, is not a gross center, is a subtle center placed outside the human body and the subtle is not localised at a point.

You see, it's an energy outside the spinal cord in the prostate gland and is known. And now somebody might say that if the prostate gland is removed then it exists still but it has...

Supposing there's a chair I'm sitting on it, I say, `She's sitting on the chair.' Now the chair is removed, I'm not removed. Or if the, they say that men have prostrate glands, so what about the women. You see, like that the questions can come up.

So I'm saying it's a living subtle center.

So you don't worry about their chairs. I'm just giving you a little location which may not be the same for everyone.

And it acts on the pelvic plexus which we call as Mūlādhāra Chakra in the Sanskrit language, because that time there was no English language.

That doesn't mean that I'm preaching anything Hinduism or anything like that. All the saints, I will tell you. I will also tell you about Christ where He exists. I'll also tell you about Mohammed Sahib where He exists, about all of them.

So it is no question of one religion or anything. But these are different things which came in the evolutionary process of man and all the evolution that took place in every human being is within himself, is recorded and he's standing on that.

For example as you come up to first story you should know that the whole first story is there, second story, it exists, third story, it exists.

In the same way all these stories that you have climbed in your own evolutionary process are on these seven steps which I'm telling you.

So the first step is that of Mūlādhāra Chakra which is controlled by a deity, is a symbol. Same from the universal unconscious I'm telling is a symbol and this symbol is that of Śhrī Gaṇeśha.

This is going to shock everyone. They are very few, they will have a photograph of Śhrī Gaṇeśha, no doubt, but we'll believe that this is a living symbol that exists within us on this point. It does. What is the proof and everything I will tell you. But first now, just now you see for yourself. Is Śhrī Gaṇeśha.

And then if I tell you the same Śhrī Gaṇeśha which is a symbol here has incarnated on this earth as Jesus Christ. He is the symbol of eternal childhood, of holiness. And as you know that this center controls the sex also, this symbol suggests that in religion you must have innocence of Śhrī Gaṇeśh.

Those who say that sex can be sublimated, Tāntrikas who use sex for sublimation are the greatest sinners on this earth.

Sex has to be sanctified and holy. If you do not have a sanctified and holy sex you cannot get your realisation, I'm sorry.

Those who talk of liberation at sex must realise this: they are ruining their Kuṇḍalinī completely because Kuṇḍalinī is like a mother, Gaurī who is sitting inside them. And for Indians it is very easy to understand that you cannot have sex with your mother. Those who talk of exciting sex for realisation are the greatest sinners because this is the greatest sin. And those who excite their own ideas about sex by accepting all these licentious and permissive things about their sex which is the holiest of holy are killing their tabernacle. They are completely finishing off themselves. There is no saving for such people. Is going to be very, very hard for them.

One has to work very hard for these people. And if you come to My London center they will tell you what happens, how difficult it is. One shudders to see how we have played foolishly with ourselves by experimentations. Will you experiment yourself with these electrical appliances? Let Me see anybody who puts their hands into the oven to experiment! Without holiness you cannot talk of God. Take it from Me.

You may not like it. No. Many won't like it. Because their Guru must sit down here and say, `Yes, yes, you must do.' You need a Guru also for such a thing, imagine. Human beings as they are they keep a Guru who says, `This is the greatest Dharmic thing you must do.'

Imagine. Tomorrow you have to face God remember, even if you do not get your realisation.

Those who try these tricks are punished in this life time. They don't have to take course to any other life or after death. In this life time, you have to have a sanctified holy married life.

Marriage institutions according to human beings it is made by human beings. It is not. It is made by God. I'm not here to please you. I have to tell you the fact and the truth of life. One has to lead a very holy life. That is the essential part.

And I'm very sorry for one thing that Christ who was the incarnation of that holiness, who is worshipped in those countries is being insulted completely by those people. He was a celibate person throughout and today they are making a picture on the sex life of Christ.

In India is not possible. Thank God, here it is not possible. They dare not talk like this, shamelessly and vulgarly. There is no shame about it in those people. They have forgotten God.

And that's why when I talk of Śhrī Gaṇeśh you must know that you have to be like a child when you want to have the blessings of Kuṇḍalinī because She's your mother and She's all the time following you.

She's born again and again within you and She's watching you and She's recording all that you have been doing.

And who is doing the recording? In the heart you find there is the flicker of Spirit, of Ātmā which is the reflection of God Almighty. That is the Spirit which records because it witnesses. It's a Sākshī. It's a witness whatever you are doing in life. And is all recorded in the Kuṇḍalinī and at the time of Kuṇḍalinī awakening She shows. Many people ask Me, “Mother, how do you know?" Because the Kuṇḍalinī is My part, She tells Me all that. And I know about their problems because She tells Me. It's all recorded like a tape recorder you have got the cassette, the spindle, it is there.

And the Kuṇḍalinī is in the form of Gaurī who is a virgin just married to Shiva. It's a symbolic expression, is a poetic expression that She's sitting and having Her bath before meeting Her Lord. And Shiva is in the heart the Ātmā. And Gaṇeśha She creates out of Her vibrations. On Her own being She takes out the mala as they call it, the dirt and makes a Gaṇeśha. Gaṇeśha is created by Mother, as Christ was created by Mother Herself. And She places Him behind the bathroom, you can say, to safeguard Her Lajjā, you can say `Her chastity'.

So, He looks after Her protocol. Nobody can enter through that side, it is prohibited.

Who can rise to the status of Śhrī Gaṇeśha who is beyond all contamination, who is holiness personified? He's like a lotus born out of the mud.

We worship Gaṇeśha in the house and we do all kinds of things with ourselves. We are not bothered about holiness, about keeping our dignity. How can He be pleased here? But Gaṇeśha doesn't come in the Kuṇḍalinī rising because Kuṇḍalinī is placed higher. Already She is placed higher in all of us. We are already sublimated.

So He's the only one who sanctions. He's in charge.

Then you find a very white round center which is called as the Nābhī Chakra. Those who understand Hindi or Marathi or Sanskrit know what is Nābhī. Is the navel, you can call it the Navel Chakra. Then the Nābhī Chakra is also called as Maṇipūr Chakra in the Sanskrit language.

But for our practical purposes name does not matter. Is the Nābhī Chakra we can say, everybody understand what is a Nābhī. But it is not here in the Nābhī, it is at the back, in the medulla oblongata it is placed.

Now, this Nābhī Chakra or the Maṇipūr Chakra is the center which controls the solar plexus in the human beings. This is the center, is the center of Dharma, of religion. When I talk of religion, everybody will say, “Oh, Mātājī believes in religion." Now, you must understand what is the word `dharma' means.

`Dharma' means `Dharayati sa Dharma', `your sustenance'.

Carbon has four valances. Every element has got a different property that is the Dharma of every element. Every animal has got a certain quality, that is the Dharma of an animal. Human beings also have some sustaining qualities. They are human beings. Otherwise they are Piśhāchas or Rākshasas or devils or Satanic or they are sub-human.

To be a human being minimum of minimum you must have those ten qualities, ten Dharmas within yourself. If you do not have, you are not a human being. You become Satanic. You become sub-human.

Your awareness goes down, it's lowered. These are above the ten commandments I should say, above because there are certain things which are not mentioned in them clearly, in the Bible. These are the ten basic qualities in a human being one should have and if you do not have then there are problems.

For example, we should not shock people, means drinking. People say, “What's wrong in drinking, Mātājī?" Simple thing, it goes against your awareness. See these drinks and all these alcohols they are not created for drinking at all. They were created by God no doubt, but for polishing. You see if you want to polish a diamond, you have to use gin. Gin is not meant for drinking, for human consumption. It is not meant. This is human brain, you know, is such a wonderful thing that it is using gin for their stomach which spoils their liver, gives them cancer. And you blame God for all these calamities of the world.

Smoking, now of course, many are saying smoking causes cancer. Thank God. What is tobacco meant for? Is for insecticide, it's an insecticide. I'm telling the truth. But `you' use it for intoxication or what you call, I don't know.

Now when all the Gurus, even Moses, they told about this. All the Gurus have told. Incarnations have not but Gurus have. I mean the real ones. I'm not saying these fake ones that are these days, modern days are just making a business proposition of everything. I'm not talking about them but the real ones, who are all born in this void, the void described by the Zen system of religion, all the ten Gurus. We can say the same there again the ten Gurus are incarnated, they tell us about the Dharma.

The center Nābhī Chakra is governed by the deity called as Viṣhṇu and His power is Lakṣhmī. Now, if your Nābhī Chakra is caught whatever you may try you cannot get the blessings of Lakṣhmī. You cannot get. And even if you have Lakṣhmī it will disappear. It's a fact which can be proved.

This Nābhī Chakra is controlled by a deity, Viṣhṇu, which is the sustaining aspect of God. Viṣhṇu gives the different Dharmas to us. That's how He has evolved us from amoeba to human beings. He Himself has incarnated as a leader many a times. We call it Dasha Avatāra and He has led us through these incarnations.

And His power is Lakṣhmī, is the Goddess of welfare they say, or you can call it is wealth. It is not.

It's a very subtle thing, very subtle. That's a symbol one should understand because is concerned with us.

Lakṣhmī has got a womanly figure, a mother's figure. She doesn't have an actresses figure, you see.

They show of actresses and this beauty what you call `beauty contests', are not good vibrations at all.

They do not emit any vibrations. On the contrary they emit very dirty vibrations, I must say, very vulgar, very filthy.

Lakṣhmī is a mother. She doesn't use Her body for provocating expressions. No. She's a mother.

So, a Lakṣhmī-pati, a man who is supposed to be adorned by a Lakṣhmī, a rich man, should have the personality of a mother, a one who is Lajja-sheela as we call it, who is chaste, who respects the chastity, who is loving, generous, affectionate like a mother. Mother tolerates all the nonsense of the people, of the children.

Then in Her two hands She has two beautiful pink coloured lotuses, two flowers of lotuses. The lotus expresses the Shrī. `Shrī' means `the grace'.

If I say `beauty', immediately your eyes will go to those beauty contests. I do not mean they are not beautiful. `Beautiful' is not a word which these days means `provocating'. No. Beauty means the complete personality that emits vibrations, which is a form or is the same as joy and Ānanda, that we call Ānanda, joy and also consciousness. That is a very complicated thing.

So, I would just say that is the form that emits the vibrations of joy.

In Her hands are two lotus flowers which are pink. Means such a person has to be a warm person, has to be a cosy personality and his house should be as cosy. It should not be all polished and varnished. And if somebody comes in the house, he drops anything, flowers there, the woman starts getting angry or the man says, “Oh, you have dirtied my house. Will you please clean it." Such a house is not a home.

It has to be a home for all the people. Such a man is Lakṣhmī-pati. Otherwise morning till evening the fighting going on between husband and wife, “You didn't keep the house clean. You must clean this and you must sweep that." As if the cleanliness has become the main part of human life. I can understand a basic cleanliness should be there.

For Indians we should not tell this because they lack that completely. They are the other extreme, “Raste me chalet chalet jaha deko thook dhena ka." Of course.

But another extreme also is not good that all the time the divorces are taking place because of cleanliness so fussy that you can't live together. You develop a sort of a mania or sort of... You become abnormal people. You suffer from the sickness of cleanliness morning till evening. Afraid, “This is to be done, otherwise it will be dirty." You think ten steps forward march that the place should not be dirty. Of course it should not be dirty, is a simple thing. But it should not be that much worked out that the home becomes a hospital. Home is a home. Children must feel it's a home. Let them play, let them spoil.

In London you'll be surprised My husband's secretary told Me that, “My children were coming, that aren't You worried?" I said, “Why?" She said, “Your house will be all spoiled." I said, “What? My children are coming, My grandchildren are coming, I'm looking forward for everything that I can do for them. How did it come into your head that My house will be spoiled?" It can be cleaned. You have so many ways of cleaning the house.

So the house should be cosy and comfortable.

And such a person who is rich is not a Lakṣhmī-pati. But a Lakṣhmī-pati is a rich person, he receives people with a big heart.

So the cosiness of the lotus should be in that Lakṣhmī.

In another hand, in the two other hands, one hand has this symbol like this, another is like this. This suggests that such a man must do Dhan.

Now, in English I don't know what is the word for `Dhana' because nothing is that dignified. `Dhan' means `giving alms'. But it is not dignified word. Gavin, what word will you say for `Dhan', tell Me in English? `Charity' is also little bit, you see, `to be charitable' means you see, you are higher than the person whom you charity. `Offering' if you say then it's a different meaning in. But, I would say `Dhan' means `by which sharing is expressed', `sharing'. `Generosity', you think it's nearest. All right. `Generosity'. But `generosity', you can say at the most `generosity'. But `giving your generosity' you can say. And by this is Ashraya, means there should be people depending on such a person.

So, you have to be an enlightened person, so that people should depend on you.

A rich man has to be a dignified person. But normally it is not. A rich man first of all he will start dressing up like a teenager. He might be the age of sixty years. You find many like that. Immediately all his dignity is fallen off, as soon as [he becomes]. Then he must go to races, he must take to drinks, he must be found on the street, some policeman must? and it must appear in the paper.

Now, I've seen some also horrid things about women who are rich. I must say that this happened in England. But it's funny, for you people it will be funny, but it's common there. A ninety year old woman, rich woman, ninety year old rich woman having a love affair with a nineteen year old boy. She's a rich woman, you see. I mean, I do not know what to call this stupidity.

They aren't rich in India, God save. No enlightenment of any kind they have. If they had there would have been no problems at all.

So, this is a symbol of Lakṣhmī at this stage. The sustaining power is the Lakṣhmī. The sustenance.

What should be the Dharma and all that? Now I find if I discuss it will be too much. But I told you for example drinking goes against the Dharma of life. It goes against the Dharma of man because it goes against the awareness of man. If you lose your awareness how are you going to rise to a higher awareness? Now, people know by drinking these things happen but they will say, “What does it matter, Mātājī, if we drink a little bit for our society?" And what does it matter if I take a little poison? You'll get used to it. Gradually you'll start taking poison.

There are so many people, in this country specially, if they take a little of tobacco they feel giddy and fall on the ground, this tobacco. There must be some in you also. They cannot even look at tobacco.

There must be some. But there are some who can take tons, tons inside their being. How is it? Both are human beings.

So, by little and little, those countries who have accepted this as a social thing have done the greatest harm to themselves. Because in the beginning they were taking only little, little.

That was I should say about a hundred years back, you can say about 200 years back. But today if you go and see them, they are alcoholic. They can't live without.

So the pioneers were the little ones and the sufferers are those now who are fed up with alcohols. Because they think it doesn't mean intoxicate, so they have taken to drugs also. And they think it is another experiment.

So you have more police force, you do all kinds of things to control it. It's not possible.

Mohamed Sahib has clearly said, “No intoxications. Nothing, nothing at all." Nanak has said the same. They are both the same people you'll be surprised. Same people born at different times, same people teaching the same thing. Nanak said the same thing, “No smoking, nothing." But today there are no Sikhs. In the morning they were, Sikhs are fighting in London that, “We should not wear the helmet." Imagine. Where is it written? In which book Nanak Sahib has written this, “I would like to see, that helmet." On the contrary He said, “Vesh ka kya payda ka” “What is the use of changing your dress?" And they are fighting on this point.

But the way the Sikhs drink in London, I mean the British are ashamed. I mean they think they are no good compared to Sikhs, the way they can consume. And they are fighting in the name of religion. Is a fact I'm telling you that the helmet they cannot wear because they must have a right and freedom to crack their heads on a scooter. What is this? And there is a big procession every, I think every Sunday they take it out `against protecting'. My head off to all these people. That is what they have done out of Nanak Sahib.

And the Muslims, think of them, they have written poetry on drinking.

Now, if I say you don't have to drink, they will think this lady is talking some of... about ten thousand years back. But is a fact I'm telling you, it is not meant for human consumption at all, none of these.

Now they might say that Christ was drinking wine. Now, `wine' never means `alcohol'. I mean grape juice which is fresh, which is unfermented is different. But the fermented, even molasses, anything you can ferment, it becomes an alcohol, which is Satanic. Is a process only to be used for polishing things. You are drinking the polish and all your intestines all are polished off nicely. And your liver is ruined. And then you come to Mātājī, `Mātājī, our liver is ruined. Now what to do? How to cure it?' Now, if I tell you, `Don't drink. It's very bad.' But these days there are Gurus like that you know, they say, “You drink. Do whatever you like. Only thing, give your purse please behind me. You can do whatever thing, can even smuggle” you see.

There was a Guru who was teaching smuggling, actually smuggling to people. And all the Sehasas [Sikhs] were caught in Jakarta when they were smuggling. They lost billions and billions of dollars there.

And when I went to Singapore they came to Me, “This has happened." I said, “Now where is your Guru?" “She has gone to Switzerland." I said, “Very nice." He said, “You do whatever you like. Bring the purse here, that's all. If you cannot look after your wife and children leave them here also. You sacrifice everything in the name of God and give everything to me, very nicely. You sacrifice." They are many who will support it. They are not Gurus. If I tell you they are Rākshasas, they are demons. Otherwise nobody can do like this. These are demonic things. They are not afraid of anything.

They have no conscience. Those who have no conscience are devils, are devils. They are not afraid of God and they are doing everything in the name of God. Tomorrow they have to face God. No doubt.

But you will have to also face. And when God will ask you, “What have you been doing?", then you'll find that you have no answer. You'll say, “I have kept a Guru there. I was paying money to him.

I was looking after him. He did this much." He says, “What about your Kuṇḍalinī? What about your awakening? What about your realisation?" You say, “That I don't know. I have kept one Guru, you see and I was paying him." He said, “All right, where the Guru has gone, you also go there." And you'll find the Guru settled down very nicely among the worms in the hell, in the deepest forest of hell. Take it from Me.

There is no need even for these people to die. They will face it in this life time. All such people have faced. You have seen what has been the condition of Gurus.

So this is the center part of void which has to look after.

And another center that you find there is the center known as Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra which creates, which is a creative power within us. By this center we think, we plan and also our bodies cater to.

Now, other day only I discovered that doctors do not know what is the reason for diabetes. I'm surprised. I'll tell them. You can verify. It's very easy.

This is the center which does two things: it thinks, plans.

You know in Delhi everybody's Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra is caught. Why? Because too much of planning is going on here. Everybody's planning like mad. But there has to be certain balance between your thinking and between your emotions. You must have also a little balance. I don't know whether doctors think of the balance of the emotions with this. They do not.

So the diabetes is caused because of this imbalance.

You are all the time using this center for too much thinking, too much planning. But the same center looks after the upper part of the liver, spleen, kidneys and also the uterus and also the thinking.

So if you are thinking too much you are using the energy on one side and there is no way of filling the petrol back.

Then what happens that your spleen suffers. It doesn't get the energy and you get the disease known as diabetes which is only known to the people who think too much. Is not known to the poor people. They eat such a lot of sugar. They don't have to stop sugar. They eat such a lot of carbohydrates and such a lot of sugar, especially sugar but they do not get diabetes because they do not think too much.

Now thinking has become like a disease with people. They cannot stop it also. It goes like a horn in their head I tell you. All the time thinking, thinking, thinking, they go mad and they say, “How to stop it?" It can only be stopped when the Kuṇḍalinī rises above this: you go beyond thought.

And the thinking creates within us on the left hand side of the brain through the Piñgalā Nāḍī, through the right side channel, it creates the ego. Is the ego. All thinking is done through ego. Those which are developed countries have worked out their developing through their ego.

So the ego developed so much in that country that they got fed up of it.

So what has happened? As a reflection the other side of it started growing. The younger people there started taking to drugs, taking to sedatives, which created in them the superego. The ego gave... Douglas is laughing. Is a fact. He knows.

He's done it and he has crossed it and he has overcome it and he has won it.

So he's laughing.

And the superego has risen now to push back the ego. For a Westerner always they say, “Oh. I'm so bad. I'm no good. I'm good for nothing." Is not humility, is the superego. Is the superego that is acting.

While in India the ego is rising.

Be careful. You have to be in balance with ego and superego. If it is in the center then only I can raise the Kuṇḍalinī. If there is an imbalance, I have to remove the imbalance. And it is removed.

The center known as the Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra, which also controls the aortic plexus outside, is governed by a deity which we know very well, is Brahmadeva and His power is Saraswatī.

He has incarnated only once on this earth and you'll be surprised if I tell you who was that, is Hazrat Ali. He was the son-in-law of Mohammed Sahib. Mohammed Sahib is the incarnation of the primordial master or the Ādi Guru who incarnated in the Void, in the Bhava-sāgara. And He's the same as Nanak.

But if I tell this to Muslims, they'll kill Me, or the Sikhs will kill Me. One of the two. I don't know who will come first. I don't think this time they are going to crucify but they are not going to like it.

They are the same people. There are ten of them born like that. They are the same people born again and again. And they are the people, if you accept them, in only one incarnation. They are not going to accept it. You have to accept them in all their incarnations.

I'll give an example. There was a doctor who was suffering from the cancer of stomach, Muslim. He met Me in London and when I told him that, “You have to worship Dattātreya” he got a shock of his life.

He said, “You mean to say I must give up my religion?" I said, “Your religion is in imbalance. He was the same as Mohammed Sahib. Actually Dattātreya incarnated as Mohammed Sahib." He said, “I cannot do that. I only believe in Mohammed Sahib." I said, “All right, I cannot cure your cancer because cancer is because of imbalance. It's too much activity on one side." Over-activity of the sympathetic nervous system causes cancer. You write it down today and you can verify it. And that's why when people say I've cured cancer, I have. No doubt. Not only Me but even this doctor who is here he has cured cancer.

Cancer is only curable through the balance of Sahaja Yoga. Otherwise it's not possible. Take it from Me.

So the imbalance of this man, he would not listen but cancer is a great thing that way. He had to come back, “All right Mother, I accept." I said, “All right. Now will you pray to Dattātreya?" A Muslim has to become a Hindu and a Hindu has to become a Muslim. A Sikh has to become a Muslim and a Muslim has to become a Sikh.

How can you divide God into so many ways? This division is like the atom being split. You are splitting. You are finding all ways and methods of splitting each other. And what you are gathering is the volcanic force of destruction within yourself.

So, the so-called drunkards who call themselves Muslims and the so-called drunkards the Sikhs must know that they are very far away from the Gurus whom they worship as their leader. And as Christ said, “You'll be calling Me `Christ, Christ' and I won't recognize who you are” it's going to be that.

For cancer you have to have balance of understanding the complete integrated form of God which has come on this earth, incarnated as different flowers on the same one tree of life, which has been at different levels. Like in a tree you have sometimes, first you have leaves, then you have the flowers, then you have the fruits.

But these are the flowers of the same tree, have been taken away by different people, just to create problem of dead flowers. They are living on the same living tree of life.

So, I have told you already about one Chakra that is Mūlādhāra Chakra, the Mūlādhāra where the Kuṇḍalinī resides.

Then about the Nābhī Chakra from where it rises to Swādhiṣhṭhāna Chakra which moves round and round and creates the Bhavasāgara.

I've also told you about the Spirit, the flicker of light that exists in the Heart, which is looked after by Shiva.

The flicker of light which is the Sākshī, which is the Witness, it is like a flicker that you find in a gas light. Now the gas itself is not enlightened. The gas itself is the energy but is not enlightened. The flicker is enlightened. When the gas passes over to the flicker it also gets enlightened.

That is what is Sahaja Yoga is. That is what is the Kuṇḍalinī awakening when it touches that flicker.

But the flicker has got the seat on top of the head here, which is known as the seat of the Sadāśhiva.

And this is the form or aspect of God which is existence is. God Shiva is existence and this is the first form which emerges into all these forms. Like the seed emerges into the whole tree and becomes the seed and ultimately at the dissolution point also it becomes Shiva. That's why it is known as Shiva, means `the permanent form'. It doesn't go into any formations. It doesn't incarnate. It is a witness which watches.

That's the aspect of God.

So you have got three aspects of God. The first one which is the Shiva, which is the existence. The second one which is the creator, which is Brahmadeva. And the third one which is Viṣhṇu, which is the sustenance, which evolves, which gives evolutionary movement, which incarnates, which has incarnated ten times.

Now the Chakra above that, you see, in the center, which we call as Sacred Heart, is in the center, is known as the cardiac center, you can say Hṛidaya Chakra. You all know what is Hṛidaya, Hṛidaya Chakra, is placed here behind in the medulla oblongata. But outside also is the cardiac plexus. Now this center, the cardiac center, is governed by the deity Jagadambā, the Mother of the Universe. Pārvatī, wife of Shiva, the power of Shiva takes Her place here to help these struggling evolutionary human beings who are trying to evolve themselves, to protect them from the Satanic, from the demonic forces. She is known as Lalitā.

She's known by many names. They say She has been incarnated 108 times. She has been incarnated many a times. She has incarnated as a Hamsha also, as a part of Her has also being incarnated. She is the essence of Raksha, is the protection. A person who suffers from insecurity gets this throbbing here, he gets disturbed. People who suffer from fear have this problem here. She gives us the protection. She's the Protector. And She's the Mother of this world, Jagadambā.

On the right hand side of the heart exists, left hand side I've already told you, right hand side exist the symbol of Śhrī Rām and His power is Sītā. Śhrī Rām at an evolutionary stage, came as a leader on this earth, as an incarnation of Viṣhṇu, 8th incarnation. And He tried to show the political leadership of a Divine nature. He incarnated on this earth twelve thousand years back and at that time in the whole awareness of human beings the idea of a leader, as a political leader, was born. He's responsible for creating the political awakening within us, twelve thousand years back in the human awareness. His power was Sītā, His wife, who was a very simple woman. But She was the form of Ādi Shakti. We know She was because at that time the people were very sensitive, they could see that. These days people are not. They cannot make out a Rāvaṇa from Sītā. See that is what is the condition of our sensitivity.

This is the central force, is known as the force of Mahālakṣhmī.

So the Lakṣhmī is born as Sītā for the first time as a human being.

On the left hand side force is known as the force of Mahākālī.

[Aside]: [Personal talk.] So the left hand side power is known as Mahākālī's power and the right hand side known as the Mahāsaraswatī's power.

Now, the central power is for evolution. The central power or you can say the central ascending column is meant for the evolution of man.

So you are born all of us in the Bhava-sāgara state.

So you have to ascend from one to another, to another, to another.

The higher one than that is as I told you, on the right hand side is that of Śhrī Rāma and His power is Sītā.

The complete form of Viṣhṇu came to human beings six thousand years back as Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. That is at this Chakra known as Viśhuddhi Chakra.

Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa is the complete form. Why we say the complete? Because for Him the whole play, the whole leelā was to be just seen, this whole creation was nothing but just a play created.

He had reached that state and He talked of it. He said, “Nainam Chianti shastrani, nainam dahati pavaka” “You cannot be killed by any instrument or by anything." And

He did Samhara –'destruction'. His greatest quality was that He killed many demons on this earth.

Now those who talk of non-violence will say, “Oh, He was a violent man." There is a Divine method which has to be employed to kill those demons. That was needed and He did kill.

He was the incarnation of a diplomat. What is a diplomat? Diplomat is a person who is a Sākshī, who is a witness who plays the Divine diplomacy. He played the Divine diplomacy and you are still in that diplomacy when you read Gītā, very much.

I'll tell you in two sentences how to understand His diplomacy in Gītā, very necessary.

He said in the very beginning, at the very outset that you seek in within yourself. He told Arjuna, “You seek in within yourself. You have to become a Sākshī." Arjuna being a mediocre, asked Him a question that, “You are saying that, `You must seek in within yourself, you should become a Sākshī, a witness' and here you are telling me to go on the war, to kill people, kill my own brothers, kill my own relation!" What He wanted to say that it's all a play. But it only becomes a play when you become that witness, when you are realised.

That's what He told him. But Arjuna was a mediocre in this respect.

So He being a Father, He understood.

Like a father who comes out of his hut and see his son beating the cart, so he tells him, “You bring the horse in front of the cart then only the cart will going to move on." But the child, the son, doesn't want to listen to his father.

He says, “No, I am going to beat the cart." So He plays the diplomacy, the Father. The Mother does not. Mother tells you the fact.

So He played the diplomacy there, Divine diplomacy. He says, “All right you go on beating but keep your attention on the horse and you will go forward." That's an absurd, absurd thing. It cannot happen, you know. He told something absurd.

So He says, “All right, do your Karmas but put it at the feet of the Lord." You cannot do it. It cannot be done. This is something an impossibility because there is the ego in you. If you do any work and if you think, `Oh, I'm putting everything at the feet of the Lord,' you are just deceiving yourself. This is His diplomacy He played it here. You cannot. Those who believe in such a thing should know that it's a deception. It can only happen when you become a hollow personality.

For these people now, those who are realised, you will see them saying, “It's going, it's coming." They do not say that, `I'm giving, I'm doing.' You have to become a hollow thing like this which just stands and sees and passes through it. The Divine has to flow through you.

And about Bhakti , about the devotion, dedication, is another diplomacy. You see, His words, you see, nobody sees I'm surprised. They have written five hundred books on Gītā. Nobody has seen this simple point that He has played a diplomacy with you because you do not know that you are not beyond ego yet.

You have to go beyond it to be there.

So He says about Bhakti also, “Pushpam, palam toyam” “Whatever you give Me, flower, this, I will accept but while giving”, you know, see the diplomacy, one word He plays, “in devotion you must do Ananya Bhakti ." See the word `Ananya'. `Ananya' means `when you are not the other, when you are united, when you are one with it.' When you become one? When you are realised! Everybody will say, “Oh, yes, yes you must do Bhakti , take Kṛiṣhṇa's name, `Hare Rāma, Hare Kṛiṣhṇa,' develop a cancer of the throat." Yes, they do, all of them, I tell you.

So many have come to Me for treatment and I said, “Now what am I to tell them?" Because “Hare Rāma, Hare Kṛiṣhṇa” you'll get to God? Very easy method, you know. You go on jumping on the Oxford Street, you dance, wear a dhoti which is falling off, you get to God? [Laughing.] What a stupid idea. But there are many.

They are now begging in [UNCLEAR Gantura]. I went there. They've settled down nicely, “Hare Rāma, Hare Kṛiṣhṇa." Everybody, they came to Me, “Are You an Indian?" “Yes” I said, “by chance I am." “Will you buy this book? Only give me five annas." It's all right. I will not mind five annas. I said, “Thank you very much." And they are near God? Begging like poor people, they have no shame, in the name of God. Taking His name and begging! `You have to do Ananya Bhakti ' means you have to be a realised Soul.

Now how do you know a person is a realised Bhakti or not? Very easy. A person who speaks of separation, like Surdas, he was not a realised Soul. Those who talk of their tortures, `Oh, God, when are You going to meet me?' they are not realised Souls. But those like Kabīr and Nanak, like Christ. Christ was an incarnation. But those who talk and sing the praise of meeting are the people who are realised. I mean a person who has met God why should he talk of separation? Very simple thing.

But we like the songs of the people who talk of their, you see, I don't know what you call that, who killed himself, who started calling himself, “Oh Lord, Oh Lord when are you going to meet me?", broke his neck there, he broke his head there. What is the need to do all this? They are fasting. Why are you fasting? I don't understand. Why do you want to make your body weak? In this body the Lord is going to come and this body is fasting? If fasting people have to get God, at least thirty percent people of this country should get it automatically. They are made to fast.

[Aside.] Any harm. You know they've gone to such an absurd limit. And these Brahmins I will put them responsible. They have given all wrong ideas, absolutely juxtaposition. How? On a Sankashti, the day when Śhrī Gaṇeśh is born in the family, see, imagine, that day you must fast. Imagine the argument behind it. That day! You see, supposing somebody is born in your family. I mean you celebrate it, you are so happy, Us din kush raho, shok rehana chayiye? [Aren't you happy that day?] Supposing I come to your house and you are fasting, I run away the next moment. [Shri Mataji is laughing.] You see, if you write, `Today we are fasting,' nobody's going to come to your house.

If you have to share in fasting, you can do, like [UNCLEAR Karma Chout] they share in fasting.

You should fast on only one day, definitely you must, that is Naraka Chaturdeshi. That day they will eat. Because that day Narakasura was killed and he was put in the Naraka, means the hell. He was put down there. And the gates of the hell were opened for him and all such people are put on that day into the hell.

So, that day you should not get up early in the morning, sleep in your bed.

[Aside.] See, with the calendar I don't know who has made, you see, but we must use our brains. What is Naraka Chaturdashi meant? Actually these must be some Rākshasas, must be some devils who must have created these calendars for us, some of them, that you must fast. I don't know who has written such a nonsensical thing. The day when the gates of the Narakas are opened that day they will get up at four o' clock, take their baths and nicely eat. All the Rākshasas will be going with the food inside the stomach, in the Nābhī Chakra.

The picture has come of... the picture has appeared of some Santoshi Mā, everybody fasting on Friday.

Then the absurd ideas about eating food. That makes the difference. Also this has been introduced.

In Gītā also I'm sure there are so many things which have been brought which are wrong. To say that you are born a Brahmin and that it's postnatal or prenatal as they call it, prenatal. And how can that be? You just think it over. Use your brains. I would say use your brains.

Vyāsa, the author of Gītā, author of Gītā, Vyāsa, whose son was he, do you know? He was a son of a fisher woman, illegitimate son.

You know all of you, of Parasharmuni. And he's going to write that you have to be born as a Brahmin? Those who think that by being born as Brahmins you become Brahmins, I must say are sadly mistaken.

`Brahmin' means `a person who is reborn, who is a realised Soul, who has known the Brahma.' It describes a tendency of a person who is seeking God, is the Brahmin of God, is a tendency.

How can Vyāsa write like this, you just tell Me? How can Vyāsa write like this? Now, this is being put on to his head, just pinned on to him.

Like the Tāntrikas. Oh, God, they are the worst of all. They have spoiled all our scriptures, they've spoiled all our Shilpa Shāstras. They have spoiled everything there is in it. The greatest demons that could be born in this country were the Tāntrikas. They have ruined all the beauties of our scriptures.

Even our Asvameda Yagñya they connected with sex. I mean just the limit of things.

And that's why when the people go to KoNarak they think, “Oh, KoNarak! Most enchanting place in the whole country. Nothing more better than that." They think, “This Khajuraho!" Actually that's the only aspect which has spoiled all the beauty of that place. If they didn't have that it would have been much better.

KoNarak, of course, the architect himself was a Tāntrika.

So, I cannot say anything about such a horrid fellow he was. But here the poor architects were given prizes by these licentious and permissive kings to produce the new styles and new types of these horrible erotic pictures. There was a competition held and it entered into our Shilpa Shāstras, into our sculptures.

It has gone up to the South [India]. And you'll be amazed in the South [India] there's a temple where they have shown a bad relationship between Gaurī and Gaṇeśha. Can you believe it? And are we to accept it because it was done by some foolish ancestors of ours? And everybody says, “Why? It's all right. In your country also, you see, you have these things. We have seen it, very nice." And they have written books on Kāma Shāstra, Koka Shāstra, this, that. What is the Shāstra needed for this thing? I don't understand. Do the animals read any Shāstras for creating children? For a simple thing like that why do you have to read and make so much deliberations? Are you gone mad? All these artificial things I don't understand. For a natural thing, which everyone knows, why should they go into such things? And the result, I'm sorry to say, is seventy per cent impotency today in America. Because all artificiality, the spontaneity is lost, the sanctity is lost. All kinds of diseases, every third person is diseased, every third person. You also are following them.

After all the Sāhabs have gone, but now we are all becoming all Sāhabs. The Sāhabs have come from England wearing our kurta pyjamas and our Sāhabs are wearing ties. [Shri Mataji is laughing.] Because, you see, somebody told Me that we used to think” Where are our lords lost." They are in India, “Unse kuch sikne ka nahin hai. Aap jān lejeye. Unse kuch jan-ne ka nahin hai." Of course dress doesn't matter. Whatever you wear it makes no difference. But main thing is that to know yourself, to be yourself. Is a very, very subtle happening for this God has placed all these Chakras within us.

So the outside does not matter so much, no doubt. But in a way it does, in the sense that when there is a deeper light, you have to have the earthen pot all right, you have to have the proper amount of oil in it, you have to have a wick properly put up and then only you can enlighten. If these three things are not all right, then I cannot enlighten you.

So these three things are also important.

So your Dharma has to be all right. Of course, I'm not saying that if you are drinking you cannot get realisation. You can. And you can also get the power to get over your habits in no time, because once you get realised, you get intoxicated by your Self only, by your own powers. You can feel in your hand the power flowing like vibrations, cool vibrations. If you use them then you will know that you can cure people with these. After some time you can give awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī. When you will raise your hand the Kuṇḍalinī will move in another person.

There are many now. You have got Subramanyam here. He has cured. Gavin, he's a government servant just like you, he has given awakening to so many people, he has given realisation to so many people. You can also do it. The power exists within you which becomes intelligible or conscious in your central nervous system also and you can feel it flowing. You can work it out.

Now, you will know why people have described in the Kuṇḍalinī awakening this thing happens, that thing happens. If you go from the wrong side, it is going to happen.

You have to be an authorized person. Tomorrow you put your hand in an electrical appliance and you said, “There is so many problem." You should not do it. Only the engineer can do it, the authorized person can do it. This is all unauthorized. The first and foremost thing is that such a person has to be a realised person and not only realised, but has to be a holy person.

Three, four air hostesses are friends of such and such person and he is giving Kuṇḍalinī awakening.

He's eloped with his wife, he is smuggling that side, he is smuggling gold from London, he's bringing down by air and he is giving Kuṇḍalinī rising.

There should be some sense in what people talk. This is a very holy happening, has to happen in the holiest way.

Now, there is another Chakra here, where is My, this red spot is. We all put it here but we do not know why we put it there.

This is the center which is placed where the crossing of the optic nerves takes place. You can call it the optic thalamus at that point, at that point it is placed. And this center controls the pituitary and pineal glands, which control, pituitary controls the ego and the pineal controls the superego.

For a doctor he knows about the pineal and the pituitary but he does not go further than that to know that it controls your ego and superego. Even if he knows, he does not know how to control.

Now with Sahaja Yoga you can see that they are two balloons in your head. You can see them.

It starts from the Viśhuddhi Chakra here, petal, where Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa reigns, whose power is Rādhā. And they rise in our head and move like this.

There are two balloons which cover up our head completely about the age of twelve years or so, completely.

Calcification is complete at that time though to feeling it is earlier. And that's how you develop a separate personality. You are Mr.

So and so, he's Mr.

So and so. Is the articulation. It is like a shell of a egg you are made. You are made like that because you have to grow inside, inside the shell of your own being. You are a separate...

[Aside.] You are a shell. You are a shell, he is a shell. And you are given the warmth kept there developed. In the end the egg is broken here and through it comes out a new personality, a new person within which is a very different person from the one which was before.

This is Sahaja Yoga.

So that center which is here placed at the crossing point of the optic nerves is known as the Āgñyā Chakra and the deity placed there is Mahāviṣhṇu.

I don't know how far people have read about Devī or Devī Māhātmyam or Mārkandeya or even Ādi Shañkarāchārya. Now, Mahāviṣhṇu is a creation of Rādhājī, is the son of Rādhā. She had created Him out of Śhrī Gaṇeśha's essence and in a special way. And this child was created in the Vaikuṇṭha stage, in the heaven we can say and He incarnated on this earth as Jesus Christ.

Lord Jesus Christ was not a human being. He took a form but His body was completely Chaitanya.

He's a complete, His body also was completely Divine, specially created by His Mother who was Mary. But actually She was Rādhā Herself. Sītā became Rādhā and then She became Christ's Mother. She is Ādi Shakti. Mary is not an ordinary woman, She is Rādhā Herself. And if you read about Mahāviṣhṇu's birth you will know that exactly the same is Christ. The name is Mahāviṣhṇu and here it is Christ.

Now, Jesus Christ see.

Jesus, Jesu or Yeshu, this is the name of Yeshodā, was given by Rādhā to Her son. We say Jesu or Yeshu. And `Christ' is His surname.

Kṛiṣhṇa's name came from the word `Kṛishi'. `Kṛishi' means `agriculture', is the man who has sown the seed. Kṛiṣhṇa came and He has sown the seed of that awareness by which you can become the Sākshī of this play, the witness of this play.

And Christ's name is `Krist', is the same as Kṛiṣhṇa's name. When He talks of His father, He talks of Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa was His father. Then He describes Him, all the time of His father, it is Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa. And in the Vaikuṇṭha state it is described very clearly how Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa Himself came to bless Him and told Him that, “You will be placed even higher than Me because Your body will be made out of Chaitanya." What is the English word for `Chaitanya'? Of consciousness? But consciousness cannot be Chaitanya.

Divine awareness. Of the Divine awareness, you can say. The Divine awareness itself, the Divine vibrations are shown in us.

In the same way, He's made out of that like Śhrī Gaṇeśha is.

Now if He's so or not, because most of you are Indians here, you might challenge it. You may. I can prove it to you because is the same swastika. The Āyudhas or the weapons of Śhrī Gaṇeśha have become Avyakt, are not expressed, because He used one weapon for all of them, is of forgiveness.

And that is the greatest weapon of all and that's why at this stage when the Kuṇḍalinī goes, you have to take His name or you have to forgive people.

Forgiveness is the greatest weapon that God has given us.

Now, it is for you to verify whether I say is correct or not.

But crucifixion is not the message.

Crucifixion is the explanation of what Kṛiṣhṇa preached that the Chaitanya, the Divine awareness does not vanish, does not. It is Akshaya –'indestructible', it does not get killed. You cannot control it. And this was to be proved in His life through His resurrection.

The resurrection is the message of Christ.

But as in India you have done all the mess of all these incarnations, they have done the mess of Christ in two ways. One, by not respecting the celibacy of life. He was a celibate person. He was a holy person.

Of course He respected the marriage institution because He attended the marriage. You have crucified Him again. And secondly which is His power of forgiveness, complete power of forgiveness.

But they had empires. They now want to have the economic controlling power and all kinds of these things they are doing under the name of political, I don't know what they call it.

They have to be Christians, all that was against Him is now done today.

As we Indians have done all that what was against Hinduism.

When Shañkarāchārya himself has told, “Na Yogena Sankena” still we are having Haṭha Yoga. Now we are going to have Haṭha Yoga in the college. Patanjali Shāstra, himself Patanjali has said not to have Haṭha Yoga for the married people, for the householders. It is meant for very few who go to the jungles, stay with their Gurus. Every Tikalpa, every person is having here Haṭha Yoga.

Now, this boy today he was suffering because of Haṭha Yoga. Of course, I've stopped it. But still.

You'll have heart troubles, you'll have everything. Now you teach your students here in the... And let them to have sex also. In the West very nice, Haṭha Yoga is very good because everybody wants to become an actress.

Haṭha Yoga is not meant for us, for the householders. It is meant for these standing on the heads type.

Let them go and break their necks there. One will get after thousands of years. It has been said by many, those who are realised. Now, I know them. They are sitting on the hills. They have told My disciples also that, “We have taken thousands of years to get this and Mātājī is just giving you like that." It is! In the same way so-called Christians have done all that was necessary to kill the image of Christ.

It's rather surprising but I think the opposites are attracted. The drunkards will become the disciples of Mohamed Sahib, all the licentious will become the disciples of Christ and all the, that we call in Sanskrit `Dravidic Pranay Pranayn,' will become the Hindus. That's how it is. Just the opposite.

The last is the center of Sahasrāra with one thousand petals. Is the limbic area which is surrounded by one thousand petals of Chaitanya.

In the Bible it is said, “I will appear before you like tongues of flames." It is like tongues of flames, living tongues of blue flames and white flames and crystal flames and they are very silent flames. You can see that.

Some of you have seen it. And they are like the? They act on our nerves.

Now the doctors will argue that there are 982. Yes, there was argument on that also, 982 nerves and eight motor nerves and this nerves and all of them do not become one thousand. I mean that's not the thing. I've not counted them. One thousand they are, no doubt.

So these one thousand petals are the one thousand hands, imagine, in your brain. And this is the Kingdom of God inside which is the limbic area.

When `you' cross this door of Āgñyā, you enter into that and this is ruled by the Ādi Shakti, by the Primordial Mother and She opens it out. She does it, it is Her job.

At the end of it is the gate or the hole known as the Brahmarandhra on top here which presses the ego and the superego on both the sides and takes your attention into that all pervading power which is all pervading.

When the Kuṇḍalinī crosses the Āgñyā, you become thoughtlessly aware. Thoughtlessly aware means you are aware but there is no thought. You become silent. When It crosses the Brahmarandhra then the vibrations start flowing through you and you get cool vibrations.

This morning about five, six people got it. Of course we have many here who are realised people. All these people who have come from the West are realised people. And they have experimented and they know all about it. And there are many others who have come from Bombay [Mumbai] and those from Delhi also.

So we have many who are realised, who have those vibrations flowing through them. It happens. It has to happen to you all. You all should get it.

Then what happens? By that you become collectively conscious. I said, “You become." I did not say that, “You have to become." You become. You get that awareness. Immediately you start feeling the vibrations of other people.

That little girl Pragñyā, who came here, she's a born realised. There are many children who are born realised. My two grand children in Bombay [Mumbai], they are granddaughters and they are both Self-realised.

The younger one is hardly ten months and she knows all about Kuṇḍalinī. You ask her, “What is caught?" You can see, you can feel it on the fingers.

Now, there's a book which one of My disciples has written, I should say My son or My child has written, it's in Marathi.

So far Hindi? [UNCLEAR Mai nahin huya āj tak] [I have not done until today]. No, nothing has been done in Hindi. English also they have published one of My lectures. But, in this Marathi book we have given the indications on what things you can feel the Chakras. You can feel the centers which are caught in your fingers here and you can see. And that's how as a by-product you cure people, that's how the diagnosis comes through and you can feel it.

It's tomorrow morning we are going to have meditation starting exactly at 8:30. I would request you tonight to go sleep off. Early in the morning clean yourself and come here at 8:30 so that we finish the session for you to go to your work. 8:30 early in the morning you have to come here and then the Kuṇḍalinī rising and everything can be done. Because people are more interested in the lecture, what am I to do? So, I'm not doing any awakening today because it's already very late for you. Now if some of you want to have it, I can work it out.

[Short dialogue with Sahaja Yogis.] Word `realisation' means `when you separate your Self from your gross awareness and become the subtle being,' is the realisation. That's the beginning. In that first stage, I'm going to tell you tomorrow evening all about it, how in different three stages it works out.

The first stage is of Nirvichar where you become thoughtlessly aware and collectively conscious through your vibrations.

Then in the second stage you become Nirvikalpa in which you start giving realisation to others.

And the third stage is a complete Self-realisation where you become completely the master of Kuṇḍalinī of others and your own and you can work it out and also sitting down here you can feel the Kuṇḍalinī of all the people all over the world and also you can control many elements and events.

“What is the purpose of life” asked a press correspondent to Mātājī Nirmalā Devī, votary of Kuṇḍalinī Yoga also known as Sahaja Yoga. “To realise the Divine and be his instrument" was the prompt reply.

In the present turmoil filled world this question seemed natural. For the lives of most people are affected by dissatisfaction, frustration and bitterness leading to violent action on their part; others accept the situation and jog along with resignation, indifference marking their existence. Why was it so, we asked Mātājī. “Human beings are filled with so many urges. They want love, wealth, power. Having savoured the fleeting joys springing from the physical material side of life, they get restless and bored since their existence is confined to the physical, mental and emotional planes. They seek a remedy for their boredom.

They turn to `Gurus' in the hope of finding some solace. If the Guru is truly enlightened, he may show them the correct path, but if it is otherwise, the individual or individuals fall a victim to the myths of the `Guru' who may lead them astray, plunging them into the very depth of darkness." Question: What is the remedy for this?

Shri Mataji: The remedy is within you and the Divine has provided an instrument in the form of the Kuṇḍalinī, which is like a Germinating power that works out your sprouting. Sahaja Yoga means awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī. One can see its pulsation at the base of the spine where it lies dormant in a triangular bone in three and ha if coils. When awakened by a `realised person', it ascends and in a normal person it goes through the Chakras and breaks the apex of the brain without giving the slightest trouble to the aspirant. Once the Kuṇḍalinī is awakened, the aspirant enters the fourth dimension, the spiritual one.

Here, he is aware of himself and receives inner solace; the individual before realisation is like a computer not connected to the mains; after the awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī the computer gets connected to the mains where he experiences the joy of the All-pervading Bliss of God. One gets into collective consciousness and can feel the Kuṇḍalinī of others. In the case of those afflicted, the awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī cures the sufferer. Curatives are, therefore, a valuable by-product of the Kuṇḍalinī Yoga.

Question: Have many attained Self-realisation and practice Sahaja Yoga?

Shri Mataji: Several thousand Sahaja Yogis are practicing Sahaj Yoga or Kuṇḍalinī Yoga and quite a few of them do curatives. Dreaded diseases like cancer, hypertension, heart ailments have been cured.

Sahaj Yoga is not confined to India but has gone to UK, U.S.A., Europe, Nepal and Malaysia.

Question: Who can practice Sahaja Yoga or Kuṇḍalinī Yoga?

Shri Mataji: Ordinary people living normal lives, age and sex are no bar. Holiness is ones existence and sanctity in married life are essential. Smoking and consuming intoxicants are forbidden as they go against the Divine.

Contents: 1977-02-23*, Public Program, Day 2, The Normal Human Awareness, Beyond Human Consciousness, Gandhi Bhavan, University, New Delhi, India

And I already spoke on Kuṇḍalinī yesterday for two hours. Those who want to hear My speech can arrange it with Mr. Rai and can come sometime and listen to it.

But today, after telling you about the three powers which govern our autonomous nervous system and the seven centers which look after all our autonomous behaviour, which are the milestones of our evolutionary different stages...

The centers carry the symbols of Deities who are responsible for our evolution, who have helped us to evolve by leading us, by giving us a leadership. The whole action has been Sahaj.

As I have told you yesterday, `Sahaja': `saha' means `with', `ja' means `born', born with you. In a seed, the complete map of the tree and all the trees that are coming in future is microscopically placed. In the same way, in our being, the complete map was placed. We have crossed quite a long distance to be human beings from the state of amoeba or even earlier.

Today I'm going to tell you about what lies around the normal human consciousness.

We have to understand man in his complete totality. It is very necessary to know all that is unknown, because whatever that is unknown is not Divine. We should not mistake everything that is unknown as a Divine force.

And to understand the complete totality of man you have to open your mind, listen to Me like a scientist would listen or understand a hypothesis and later on if you are realised, if you are; that is a very big `if' with some people, with some people it is not, you all can testify, you can find out, but as a scientist you must have an open mind. If you are a fanatic, even if you are science-obsessed person, you cannot understand.

Science does not know anything of love, it does not know anything of religion, it does not know anything of Incarnations. But it can be proved today that there exists a Force which is the synthesis of all the forces that are working. And there exists the All-pervading Power of Divine Love. But for that, you have to be a subtler personality. With this gross human attention, you cannot realise it. You have to be a subtler being and to be that subtle being you are already blessed with a mechanism that works out this happening spontaneously. It is Sahaja, spontaneous, effortless.

Somebody has to trigger it.

Yesterday I have told, quite elaborately, all the Chakras and their names and their Deities and all the three forces, but today I'm going to tell you what lies beyond these lines, beyond the human awareness.

Is a subject of psychology, you can say, though psychology is such a child's science and the knowledge is so limited because they are probing from outside. It's an objective knowledge in the sense that you come from outside and see things. You grope at something and say, “This is this." Then you grope at another thing and say, “This is this." You have heard the story of six blind men trying to understand an elephant.

As I told you yesterday that there can be a method by which you can put the light on and one can see clearly the complete, the total picture of man.

In this picture I've not been able to show that part but in the human mind, as you all know, there are different stratas of consciousness.

Now you are listening to Me, paying attention to Me, your Chitta is towards Me. This attention is the conscious mind. You know that you are conscious of what I'm speaking. Moment to moment you are listening to Me. This present moment now, at this moment, this moment as it is, it's slipping, is becoming the past and the future is coming in you. Every moment is disappearing and a new moment is coming.

You cannot stop the present, you cannot stop your attention at present. Now, to be at this moment, you cannot be, that's the difficulty. You either think of the past or of the future, but you cannot think of the present, of this moment.

So, we have our past and our future, in a simple work.

The past, they call it as subconscious mind.

Subconscious mind, they call it as psyche sometimes. I don't know what do they mean by psyche, they are so confused, but we have a subconscious strata, in which we store all that we collect, experiences, conditionings, everything. This work is done by the left hand side channel, known as Iḍā Nāḍī, which is worked by the power of Mahākālī.

Now this word should not shock all the English knowing scientists. This Mahākālī power works with storing of all the experiences, all the thoughts that are coming to you from the present into the past, is done by Mahākālī power.

Thinking of the future, planning of the future, organizing the future is done by the right hand side power of Mahāsaraswatī which acts through the Piñgalā channel.

In the gross form they are expressed left and right sympathetic nervous systems. But for a doctor, both the systems act simultaneously. They are so interconnected that it is very difficult for them to verify two different functions which are allotted to them because the ways and methods are so gross.

The left side attends to our emotional being, the lower left side to our physical. We can say psychosomatic side. The right side, the lower to our physical being and the upper right side to our thinking.

The center channel of Suṣhumnā is a completely independent system which works out our sustenance.

In the beginning, when a person wants to drink, he wants, all the parasympathetic activities are performed through the subtle action of this channel known as Suṣhumnā and the power that acts is known as Mahālakṣhmī. This power evolves us, it gives us Dharma, is a sustenance.

The complete periodic table, if you have studied chemistry, is amazingly organized. The carbon is placed as a tetravalent element, with four hands just like a Gaṇeśha. I do not want to go into the details of the periodic table but it is so well organized that every atom of every element has to have the last circle with eight protons. If there are less or if there are more than four, they either become the negative or the positive element. What a tremendous planning it is.

And when we say there is no God, we must understand such a tremendous planning could not have been achieved by just chance. It doesn't work out by that law of chance.

All right forget about God, because suddenly if you talk of God the scientists get a shock. But He exists and these are His three powers which perform these three actions in our being. By the first we build up our past, by the second we build up our future and by the center, the Suṣhumnā Nāḍī we exist in the conscious mind.

The problem of future and past is created for human beings by a special method, as I told you yesterday, that this brain assumes a shape of a prism and that when these powers enter into the brain on both the sides they lose part of it.

The one that enters from the right hand side passes to the left hand, losing something on the left hand side. This one is the Mahākālī power which loses outside, this one is the reaction to the past.

You see someone, I see this gentleman, suddenly I remember of My past experiences with him. The whole past of him comes to Me through that part. And as a reaction I develop a superego, a conditioning in My brain, which I have shown on the other side like a balloon.

I'll give you a simple example to understand the superego and the ego, how it develops in a little child.

A child is nursed by the mother and he's in complete joy, one with the mother, enjoying fully. Suddenly the mother removes the child from one side to another side, he doesn't like it. The child doesn't like and he puts down his foot there. That is the development of ego. He asserts himself. Ego develops gradually on the left side in the brain but comes forward.

When the child is then corrected by mother, she says, “Don't do, don't do like this” he is conditioned.

By that, he accepts it and the superego as a reaction develops on the right hand side of the brain from this side and covers it gradually, at the age of about twelve years because language is another way by which they are strengthened.

And here, when they meet completely, a man is made into an egg, an articulation takes place, everyone develops a separate personality.

He is Mr.

So-and-so, he is Mr.

So-and-so, he is Mr.

So-and-so and the misidentification starts. There are many misidentifications we suffer from, we call them `Mithya', we know they are myth, our name.

I've known people, somebody's name was Dharamdhar and he was the greatest Adharmi ever born.

There are so many misidentifications. We are attached to our name. If somebody says that, “You Mr.

So-and-so, you are a very bad man” one feels very hurt and bad, you see, your anger comes up, “What do you say? This was `my' name." We are attached to so many misidentifications all our lives. The myths starts collecting and we become covered with so much of that misidentification.

Our ego and superego completely overlap all our wisdom.

So the ego is created as a by-product I can say, or you can say by the over-activity of the right hand side channel. The fumes of that activity, like in a factory you see, are collected in the ego. And the activity of the left hand side collects the superego. And that's how you have ego and superego developed in your brain.

So that is how the human being is. He has got his Mahākālī power which is looking after his subconscious activity, his Mahāsaraswatī power which is looking after the supraconscious activity and his Mahālakṣhmī power which is looking after the conscious activity.

Now, there are regions which lie beyond this, about which we are not aware.

On the left hand side, beyond the Mahākālī region, lies the collective subconscious mind. The collective subconscious mind where all that is dead is collected, that is the collective subconscious.

Beyond the Mahāsaraswatī channel, beyond this region, lies the collective supraconscious mind. We are part of that also though we are not conscious of it. We are not conscious of it so we can call it as still unconscious to us.

Now, beyond the central path of Suṣhumnā, beyond the conscious mind, lies the collective consciousness.

That is the All-pervading Consciousness which we know as Sat Chit Ānand. It is all-pervading.

Below the Mūlādhāra Chakra, which I have shown you there down below, lies the most fearful area of hell. It exists. It is there. We maybe not believe in it but it is there and it can be proved.

In the collective subconscious, as I have told you, when we die we get into it. Normally, not abnormally but normally.

Those people who have been extremely unhappy in life, who have been tortured and suppressed, who are being made very miserable and have a malice burning in their hearts, when they die they still have the vindictiveness and they want to make everyone else a miserable personality. They can't see happiness around. Such people, even if when they die they linger along in this area, which is not gone into the collective subconscious.

The collective subconscious receives a normal personality who has just accepted death as a transition.

Actually, when we die we really do not die. Only part of us, the earth element drops down and part of the water element also. But the rest of the elements that form this body: the different Koṣhas [sheaths] plus the Kuṇḍalinī that goes out and the Ātmā that rises, all that put together as soul you can call it, all that goes into the collective subconscious and starts going smaller and smaller, into the area of that collective subconscious, where it is to be placed for getting smaller and smaller.

But the people who die, as I told you, as the great sufferers with great desires and lust, very depraved and debased people, who indulge in alcoholism and drugs and sex, who make their life miserable, who are violent to themselves and not to others, who are not aggressive but are aggressed, who commit suicide, they do not go to the appointed place, they stick on around and some of them are really busybodies. They try to torture other souls. All the mental cases that you find in this world, suffer from the obsession or the possession by these entities. We call them as bhoot and Pishācha.

You may not believe it because people don't believe in bhoots. You believe it or not but they exist.

These people are not ambitious people but they are sly, they are mysterious but they are afraid.

So they try to find out this type of people, they enter into the psyche of such people and they make them even worse. They make their lives miserable and they make such a person absolutely abnormal.

When the psychology starts treating such abnormal people they perhaps do not know what they are up to. The psychologists, when they get in contact with such abnormal people, they themselves are influenced or contaminated. They catch from these depraved and debased, lusty, sexy people and they themselves become so abnormal. Because they seldom have any relationship with normal people then they start putting up theories absolutely abnormal: an abnormal personality is made as a normal personality and is made to be accepted by everyone.

So they start with the theory that you should not suppress your desires, you should become very expressive and absolutely liberated as far as these desires are concerned. All right, go ahead. But they are not aware of the other side of the human beings that those who do like this can get into the other trap and can become egoistical. It starts as a trip of their ego, then they become so egoistical that they forget what is saint, what is God, what is holiness.

That is what has happened in the Western countries. Perhaps maybe the war. In the war so many people were killed like that, they must have possessed these people. And such patients must have gone to these psychologists and these psychologists must have come out with these unique ideas of psyche being conditioned if you tell them about religion.

Psyche is conditioned, no doubt. If you all the time tell the child, `Don't do this, don't do that,' the child gets conditioned, no doubt. If you discipline a person too much, he might get conditioned, no doubt.

But if you are a model yourself, if the father and mother both are the models of goodness then the child accepts it without being conditioned.

This is the central path of evolution.

That's why I say that the family is the most important unit of every nation. All efforts must be done to retain the holiness, the respect and the greatness of marriage institution. That's why all the Incarnations have been married people. And even the Gurus, like Guru Nanak and all these people, have been married and have been leading a normal married life.

You go to the West and you are surprised at the tomfoolery and the stupidity to which they are taking.

You cannot believe how foolish they have become. We don't have to learn anything from them in this respect. They have broken their families; they have divorced their wives. All right. Now women have divorced their husbands. Ten men divorcing ten women, marrying each other all the time, ending up in a Enatala [endlessness] and the children have taken to drugs. What a nice society.

The husband comes home the wife has disappeared, taking a divorce saying, “I didn't like my husband, there was no compatibility." And the psychologists are very nicely helping them to build up a society of chaos and the religion has been thrown to waste because they think it conditions people.

It will if it is a false religion, if it is a suppression.

For example Christianity never preached such things that these people are following. Christ never talked of Sannyāsa of any kind. He Himself was a great celibate born personality. He was an Incarnation.

But his Mother was married and He attended marriages. But the Roman Catholics started a suppressed type of institution where they preached complete celibacy. Martin Luther came in, he said, “No, this is wrong, it should be spontaneous." He was correct. At that point he was correct but he went wrong that he did not recognize Mother of Christ. That was the greatest mistake because from where do you get the sense of celibacy, from where do you get the sense of holiness, in what relationship? In the Mother and the Son.

That's how Christianity has gone to the dogs, in that country. As I told you yesterday, they are making a picture of sex of Jesus Christ. Can you imagine such a picture? Can you tolerate in this country? So we have people who are teaching us who are actually possessed. Most of the psychologists are possessed and they deal only with abnormal people and they cannot normalise these ideas for the normal people. But by doing that they have created abnormal personalities and you can find all kinds of absurd things in that country.

That a ninety year old woman having a love affair with a nineteen year old boy. Can you think of such a thing in this country? Is a common thing there. There is a law in England, imagine and England is such a traditional place that a father cannot have bad relations with the daughter and that the mother cannot have with the son. A law. We don't need a law like that. I mean we cannot have a law that you cannot eat the filth. You do not make law like that. I mean, human beings know that. But they have a law.

Now, the trouble is they are asking, imagine, thanks to the psychologists, they are asking that this law should be taken away so that they should be made free to do what they like in this respect. What do you say to this? You can't believe it but it is so.

There was a minister here, Mr. Vidyā Rao, he went to America and he gave Me a terrible experience when I was going to America. He said, “Don't go there, they will never understand you, Mother. Please don't go." I said, “What happened?" He said, “I went down to see my daughter. She was away, living away from the main city, so I said, `I'll stay over here with her.' So the landlady said, `No you can't do that with your father.' She said, `What'?' `No no, he can't stay. Any other man can stay but not your father.' She said, `You can't sleep with her.' She gave her a big slap. But this man said such filth. Where they think doing so wee." He cannot understand these things just now. They also never understood this thanks to these psychologists who never accepted...

Thank God we do not know so much of English to read that psychology of theirs. The way they are ruining these innocent people by their preachings! They are worse than all the horrible preachers ever known. With a very little knowledge of this Kuṇḍalinī on the left hand side, they have ruined such a great place, such great people.

So many saints are born in that America and England. Oh I weep to see all that. They are all ruined by these people, by telling them these stories which they call as freedom and disciplining their thoughts was conditioning. But disciplining through a model they could not understand.

Now, I will tell you how in our country also people have used these entities. We had the greatest Saints and the greatest Incarnations in this country, no doubt, I agree, but we have the greatest thugs also. The two extremes.

On the other side also we have the supraconscious people die. I'll put them together and tell you all the various types of things they do.

The people who are great planners and great sort of thinking all the time, `What am I going to do this, what am I going to do that' and they cannot fulfil their desires and they are sort of absolutely identified with their desires and very egoistical. They are power drunk about women also. They want to have many women around, women want to have many men around. All kinds of things you see, all these complicated types. They are not satisfied with one wife or one husband these sort of people, all abnormal. And also those who think that, like Napoleon you see, these kind of egoistical people who think no end of themselves and try to identify themselves with their false ambitions, like Hitler.

When they die, they go to the other side, on the right hand side, the supraconscious. They are very dynamic people and they are the people who are very aggressive. They can also possess you.

And you do not know how you get possessed by them for there are two types of people: one the depraved and another the aggressive.

So the thugs, who are always waiting for an opportunity to learn, use these entities for their own purpose. You want Me to tell how they do it, that would be bit too much.

They have a way, they work in the Shmashāna [cremation ground] known as a Bhoot Vidyā, Shmashāna Vidyā, Preta Vidyā, I know everything, but you need not know. They capture those entities and control them by controlling some of their parts of their bodies, especially the skull and all that.

We had one Ananda Mardini you know that and more will be coming forward. You'll see them one after, they'll be exposed gradually.

So these people capture the entities in their power, some the supraconscious and some the subconscious and they try to capture the people through them.

We have had, say, Rāvaṇa. Rāvaṇa had a capacity to hypnotize. All hypnosis, all what you call this ESP, all these extra things are done by these entities who can be bhoots, can be depraved, can be very bad.

In London there is an organization known as Late Doctor Lang's International Curative Center. `Late', he is dead.

So the Curative Center is what? This Doctor Lang, when he died, he had discovered something which he wanted that he should implement immediately. I mean, this is written in their pamphlet, imagine. It is open, they are not making a sort of a `thuggee'. They do not call it `God' and all that, thank God. Others call it “God” but they openly say, “No it is not, it is a spirit." So the spirit of Doctor Lang entered into the body of one soldier fighting in Vietnam. This they have written already on their pamphlet, it's not My own. And that spirit told this man that, “You go and tell my son that I am so-and-so and that you open the clinic, the surgery." So the man possessed with this spirit went down and told the son and he was taken aback but he gave him such secret information that the son had to accept this information and they opened the Late Doctor Lang's Curative International Center.

So the thing started working. Many doctors who died with this kind of delirium also started working through that organization.

So now they would say that, “If you are suffering from some disease you let us know, we'll give you the time; that time will work it out." Exactly on that date, that time the man would start shivering, “Ho, ho, ho, that's a bhoot I am." Something entering into their body and the person would get rid of his troubles.

But after five, six years that man would rattle like a junkie car. And now he is completely finished.

I have had many patients from so-called Doctor Lang's horrible institution and it's very difficult to cure them because they are such horrible depraved souls that they do not want to leave the body of these people.

You can use these spirits for many tricks. It's a very common thing.

In our group there was a lady who was a disciple of some sort of a man like this, who used to carry a snake around and all that. She came to Me, I gave her the realisation quite all right, but she was like this, not all right.

So I told her, “You have to give up this horrible Guru of yours and your ambition to be one of those so-called people with power. If you accept it, then only this realisation will stay, otherwise it will disappear." She would not listen to Me. By going to America I told her, “Madam, be careful. You'll get those powers but you should not accept them." She said, “No, I will never accept, I do not want these dead powers, I do not want this, I want the Supreme, I want the Parama." I said, “All right, we'll see." But she started getting some kumkum out of her hand and some rice out of her hand that made her think it's a good idea. She's started her center now, giving away things. She starting showing all sorts of magical things. It ended up by giving the number of the horse that is going to come. She used to have a big stick in her hand, she used to beat people when they came to her. She became a Satanic personality, horrible face. Such horrible face she had, I mean, I could not recognize her when I came back.

When they told Me that this lady is doing all these miracles I was most embarrassed, I didn't know what to do. And she had put up My photograph just there and I had disappeared from the photograph long time back.

When I came back you know, she called Me in her house, she brought thousands of people. For such a people there are thousands because you can tell horses number naturally, you see. Here I have less but that lady had thousands. And she washed My feet and did all that. I was so embarrassed, I could see in her house all those entities moving very nicely, jeering at Me how they have captured the woman.

So I told her, when she came to Me, that these are not your powers. And she got the shock of her life. I said, “Now you say what you know before Me, Mātājī." So she started telling another person, “You have a house like this, you have like that." He said, “No, no, nothing of the kind, it's all wrong." So she told it to somebody else who was sitting there that, “In your office there is a man of this name." He said, “Nothing of the kind, it's all wrong." So she just fell at My feet, said “Mother, have you taken away all my powers?" I told her, “Oh, My child, these were never your powers. I would have put you on My head, I would have loved you, kissed you, but these are not your powers, these are the powers of somebody else and they have disappeared like that." She got even worse and she said, “Mother, please get rid of them." But then, when she went back home, all her thousands of disciples waiting there to know all these things. Now what a temptation. She went on and on and now she is in the lunatic asylum. And all her disciples will be filling up that Thana I see. Thana hospital is very bad.

Some of the ones who were affected by her came to Me, I didn't know what to do with them. Such a headache for Me.

You can work them out in so many ways. Not only by this, but there are so many ways by which you can use these entities.

But for a normal person who is sitting down there, suddenly I get a snake in My hand, “Oh, Mātājī is the most powerful person here." With My own eyes I have seen.

I met an ambassador somewhere outside, he was wearing a nickel thing in his neck and he was singing the praise of the man who has given them. I said, “What for a nickel? At least you should have had a diamond. After all you are an ambassador." He got a little, you know, hurting there. I said, “You are the cream of the nation, like a fool you are running after these nickel things? Did you go to asking for these things?" He said, “No, I went for Supreme." Then I said, “Then why don't you throw it on his face?" There's another one who came to Me. They had got a diamond ring. Rich man, very, very rich and I said, “How many diamond rings you have got?" Only the rich; “Huh." “Otherwise why don't they solve our economic problems? Easy thing, bring diamonds, solve the problems." Now the scientists, if they want to know how I can tell them there are bhoots, they are not going to believe Me.

So they bring out.

This gentleman came to Me with a diamond ring, “Oh this is a diamond ring I have got." I said, “Very nice, now what do you want from Me? I haven't got diamonds." He said, “No Mother, I just ask You for the Supreme." “But why did you take the ring? You can purchase the ring in the market. How many do you have?" He says, “I have many." “Can you purchase God in the market?" He's a smuggler, he's everything and the Guruji has no objections, Guruji himself brings drinks whisky.

And the gentleman, he's a great worshipper of the Guruji, he also drinks whisky. Guruji does not mind, as long as he passes on two or three bottles of foreign whiskey to him. And then he comes to Mātājī.

So Mātājī asks, “Now why Me sir? What am I to do about it?" He said, “Mātājī I have a problem." I said, “What's the problem?" “I am losing lots of diamonds." “Oh. What about your wife?" “Oh she's completely dedicated to him and she goes and stays there for months together." She's not bothered about the husband, about the children, about anything. Oh, she has dedicated herself to the Guruji.

So the wife was brought to Me. The lady is completely possessed. “Oh God” I said, “Now what am I to do with this woman? What question am I to ask her?" Then I took out her bhoot, did lots of things, took out. She's a lady doctor. I asked her, “You are a lady doctor, what have you been up to?" She said, “I don't know.

Somebody inside me tells me these are all stones, give these to Guruji." “These are stones for you!" I said, “Mad woman, if these things are stones for you, for a married woman diamonds are stones, so they should be dust for that Guruji of yours who declares he's a Sannyāsī! Why are you giving him these stones? And did you tell your husband?" She said, “No, I never told him. He was about to report it to the police and the Guruji would have been in difficulty." But despite all that and the husband getting heart attack thrice, they came to Me again for the curing of the husband. Diamonds disappearing but the wife cannot get rid of the gentleman at all. They are so possessed. Very difficult.

And thousands of them will run after such a man because it's very easy to hypnotize. Even they can look at you and hypnotize you. Hypnosis is a simple mass hypnosis which they have mastered, which they are using on people and working it out this way and people are running after them. And whenever you ask anyone of them they will say, “No, we didn't ask for diamonds." Why are you impressed by him? Did he give anybody realisation? Anybody has got Chaitanya? Does he talk of Kuṇḍalinī, does he know anything about parasympathetic nervous system? No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no. He just says that, “I'm God” fair enough. And we all should accept it, anybody saying that, “I am God"? There should be some pramāṇa –‘proof’.

This is one style. There are many like this.

Surprisingly, Christ was a man who... Of course Nanaka has written, I must say Nanaka has written such a lot against them, thank God. I hope the Sikh people are not running after such people, I hope so.

But Kabīr has written, Tukārām has written. Kabīr has lashed these people with threatening and this and that, lashed them completely. But who reads Kabīr? These Piśhāchas [demons], these Rākshasas [evils], have been lashed by so many poets of this country. They have told not to go near these people who divert your attention from the subtle to the grossest things. But nobody reads them.

So they go to other styles of people.

Now Christ was one Incarnation who has clearly told that you have nothing to do with spirits, with the dead. But all the Christian nations are `religiously' spirit worshippers. Religiously. In London, you go four steps and you find one spiritualist sitting there. I'm not telling you falsehood, we have some English people, they'll tell you, you can ask them, all kinds of spiritualists. Even among Christians there are Pentecostalists who get possessed and they say that the holy spirit has descended upon them.

Tāntrikas started this in India about sixth century. It has gone to such a foolish nonsense that in the temples of Mahālakṣhmī in Bombay [Mumbai] they are having this kind of a nonsense going on there. And when I told the trustees that, “You stop all this otherwise I will not come to your temple to address” they would not. They said, “How can we? That's how we gather crowds. People, these cretin women, these working women, they get possessed, they start doing `ho, ho, ho, ho,' people come and ask them some questions." That Mahālakṣhmī has some sense or not that is she going to come to these cretin women who are doing all kinds of things there? Some of them are prostitutes. Is She going to enter into the body of these people to tell you the questions, “What your father is going to get tomorrow?" Is that the interest of God? Use your brains. Why God should be interested in such useless, worthless, momentarily existing things? How can you connect it with God? I cannot understand by what intellect you connect it. And very great scientists, you see, are trying to discover and investigate that is dead.

So, we have types and types. I've told you in London we have many types.

Scientology, another thing they started in America. Oh God. But what is the ulterior motive of this is? One is power, one is money. It's all a money making proposition.

When I say that you cannot pay anything for your salvation, people get a shock of their lives. They cannot understand a Mother's love, they cannot, that a Mother can work like this, morning till evening, just to give us salvation. They cannot think of a personality like that, impossible, that she doesn't ask for any. It's impossible for them to believe it.

In America I went there, people said that, “Such and such person is charging 275 dollars for introducing one bhoot into people. What about you? Why don't you charge when you are giving people the Reality?" I said “How much can you give Me? How much have you got? What is the value? You put Me in the balance, can you sell your Mother?" I said, “You have asked Me once, never raise such a question to insult Me. All right, you have to build a place. Supposing we want to have a place for meeting place, all right, you have to pay for this Pandal. All right collect money, have a Pandal. But you cannot have realisation with money." We have to understand one small thing, that supposing I say, “All right come My son, live in My house without paying any money, nothing, you just live like a parasite” will you accept? Anyone one of you, will you accept? And these parasites are living on your money, other people's money. Every cloth that they have, every morsel that they eat, every house they have, every Mercedes they ride, belongs to others. The society which permits such parasites will get parasites. It is what we have deserved.

Why should we pay for God? I cannot understand. Already we have had many of these pundits and these thugs sitting in like pundas [pundits]. And then the archbishops of the thugs have come as Bhagwans and Gods with all the special knowledge of how to befool and we the simple householders and these the parasites who call themselves as the Sādhus and the Sannyāsīs, living on our earnings, why should we pay them? Why do you pay to these Sādhus and Sannyāsīs? Sītājī has very clearly told that, “Have nothing to do with Kaṣhāyas –‘ochre robes’, nothing to do with the Bhagwans and no Sādhu should stay in a village for more than two days and one night." She has said, “No woman should have a man as a Guru” because Ādi Shakti, Sītā Herself, was deceived by this horrible Rāvaṇa, who is born today, who is a Bhagwan.

You see, you don't know him. You will know him by his tricks, by the methods, the way he threatened Sītājī that, “If you do not accept my proposals I'm going to make your Indian women naked" and he's doing it. And we are seeing with our open eyes that photos are blown up and sold in America and the fellow is a multi-millionaire. And I don't know what the income tax he is giving. It's a fact.

We are very passive people, I must say, in this respect. Why can't we find it out? Is it our culture? This can be done also, nice cabaret show arranged free of cost and people enjoy, you see. They talk very much because, after all, you see, in the name of religion and God you want to bring prostitution? You want to kill the Dharma? You want to make everybody a Satan? No use killing these horrid people, they have been killed many a times and are again back here. I can only appeal to your senses and to your divinity that try to understand and rise.

Then, we see the other side. You see there are many styles which I cannot go into details and nothing so important. Better to talk of God than to talk of these horrid people.

On the other side of the human beings lies the supraconscious, what they call `supramental' and all these names are given. On the right hand side there the people who are extra dynamic exist. They are also used by some people.

For example, it's better to give them, these entities, some names of God. For example they'll give a name, say, of Rāma. We say, “Oh, we must take the name of Rāma." They are taking name, “Rāma, Rāma, Rāma, Rāma, Rāma." Now we must understand. What is our right to call Rāma? Is He our servant? That we go, “Oh Rāma, come here! Look after my father's health, give me food, supply these, do this." Is He your servant? Is Śhrī Rāma the incarnation of God? You want to call Him just like this? What is your right calling, “Rāma, Rāma, Rāma"? Because the great saints have said, “Sumi Rana Karo” so we are doing Sumi Rana. Is it Sumi Rana? Do you have that heart to do Sumi Rana?

Contents: 1977-03-21 Birthday Pūjā, Grand Hall, Mumbai, India

All the Sahaja Yogis who have come here, all the other people who have joined us here, who are celebrating this earthly birthday of Mine... I am very thankful, very grateful and I am filled with great joy and happiness. And My vibrations are flowing from My eyes as tears to see that, in this Kali Yuga also, there are people who are grateful to a Mother who just gives a abstract thing known as vibration.

Actually I do not give you... I cannot give or take you'll be surprised. It is just emitted through Me.

It is My Swabhava [innate nature], it has to be that way, I can't help it. It is a `being' that is being. You cannot make it something else. It acts on its own, it goes on working.

It is beyond Me to control Myself from loving all of you. I do not know how people learn to hate.

I haven't got sufficient time even to love people. I find 24 hours much less! I do not know how people sit down and manipulate and think in a ice-cold manner how to be hateful. Hatred has no power but of destruction, of yourself and others.

On this day I would request you to think of love all the time. Love is all knowledge. Knowledge is all love. There is nothing beyond. If you have knowledge, it has to pass the test of love. If you know a person, it makes no record on you because you know him from outside. But if you love a person then you know the person out and out. You know him so well, you know him... everything, the way it is. It is this knowledge that is what we call is the Para [beyond] knowledge. That is the knowledge we have to seek.

All these books are only signalling towards that. They are the milestones, which are telling us, `Go ahead, go ahead.' They do not solve the problem of entering into the kingdom of God. I request you that you all should come to the stage of understanding the Divine within you, the love of God that is within you, which is trying to overflow from you and enjoy the sense of emitting and giving. Giving has the greatest joy and pleasure. There is no pleasure in taking. And when you receive it, you start giving.

You have heard... [UNCLEAR] talking about how he has done work in Rahuri. In Rahuri, when I was going to Rahuri University, the people in the nearby village knew that our car will be going there.

They are ordinary villagers. They have never read any Yoga; they don't understand anything more about vibrations than these feelings that you get.

It is a subjective knowledge. It has no work. It is a subjective experience, which you feel on your fingers, in your being, the bliss of God.

And as I was going, I just felt a jerk in the car, because so many people were just lying on the road and some were standing on the road stopping the car and they started shouting My jay [victory]. I was wonderstruck! I said, “How did you know that I was in this car?" They said, “Mātājī, you have given us vibrations. We knew this was the car, which was bringing us vibrations.

So, now you have to get down here." I just got down; I embraced all of them and our Sahaja Yogis were waiting at the other end. I said, “Doesn't matter." This is what is Sahaja... such loving people! And at that time, I just thought of how once with Rāma... how you felt those things with people, with very simple people, of very simple heart and Shraddhā [faith], how they had those feelings of receiving your love and feeling it.

Everyone needs love in this world; you cannot exist without love. Your whole being is based on love.

And I wish all of you in this country to understand that unless and until there is love in your heart, don't try to do anything outside because, if you do it you will be found out in no time. Every human being understands what is love.

There are lots of things that are happening within you. There are cosmic changes that are taking place today within you. I know that it is happening. The Śhrī Chakra itself has descended on this Earth and already the Satya Yuga has started. This is the reason, why you are feeling these vibrations on your fingers and none of these Gurus and Rishis and all those people have mentioned these things. Because this is only possible when the Śhrī Chakra is brought down. It is here. You have to feel it and understand. It is for all of you to accept, each with an open heart. I do not want anything from you. What can you give Me? I do not want anything, but I want My children to be happy. I pray for their happiness. I live for them and all the time, whether I am asleep or awakened or in the middle state, when they call the `sabhranta' [UNCLEAR], I am just with you. Every moment you are in My thoughts.

I wish all of you a very, very happy New Year today because it is Navroz and Navroz is the day when Zartosht [Zoroaster] [UNCLEAR] started His work on this Earth. He was a great Sahaja Yogi. He was an incarnation of Dattātreya Himself.

Rāja Janaka [UNCLEAR] has told you about Mohammad Sahib. I have to tell you that He was My father and He was the incarnation of Dattātreya Himself. He was not an ordinary person though the people tortured His life, every moment that He lived, they tortured Him.

And Hazrat Ali is a very, very great incarnation where only once, only once, Brahmadeva has incarnated and He has incarnated as Hazrat Ali.

So, these people are so great! You cannot criticise them. They are so great, every word they have spoken is a Mantra, everything they have told you about these Namaz which is nothing but Kuṇḍalinī Jāgruti [awakening]. Mohammad Sahib has done the greatest job in Sahaja Yoga and has done the greatest advancement as far as the Kuṇḍalinī Jāgruti is concerned.

How can you criticise Him? I can't bear to hear even a word about, against Him. I know how much He has been tortured. And the same people, today, are born in this country who are talking against Him.

When you cannot reach even at His feet, why should you take such a big step? Understand, what have you done in life? What have you got with yourself that you are criticising these great personalities? Khwaja Nizamuddin Sahib was a great Auliya [Arabic word for saint Chishti; Chishti Order of Sufism created by Nizamuddin], no doubt about it. And a horrible king like Khilji Sahib to trouble Him and he was himself was murdered! And his name has gone to the dying dust. Today, Khwaja Nizamuddin Saheb, you go and see the vibrations there. You go and see at Chishti, Chishti Maqbara [Arabic word for mausoleum] at Ajmer Sharif, you will see the same. At Patna, you go and see, Patna Sahib [a temple where Guru Nanak stayed, also birth place of Guru Gobind Singh], where you got, our Mahāvīra Sahib, also, vibrations are there. All these people are speaking of the same truth I am telling you. But today you can make them out. You will know who they are.

Please try to humble down yourself. First of all, get eternal truth within yourself. Let your being be that subjective instrument, to understand what is God. Don't be driven away by few readings here and few readings there. Don't be driven away by the small hearted ideas and the egoistical tomfoolery that is going on, is to make fun of everyone.

Oh Man! Please awaken yourself to this great occasion of understanding: this dynamic force is dying to bubble out of you. We have to change this world and transform it into a beautiful creation, because the Creator will not allow His creation to be destroyed. If you do not accept the truth, you will be destroyed.

So please, please, again as a Mother, I ask you to accept the Divine Truth, the Divine Love and to be One [with it].

I wish all of you, all the Sahaja Yogis and all the people who are seeking the greatest of greatest, highest of highest achievement in the awareness of God and with love. That is what it is. Otherwise, the rest of it is all useless. Those who have sought other kind of Sattvik or tamasik things in life have gone to waste, they have gone to hell and they are completely destroyed.

You do not want to do that. You are simple people, ordinary people and that is why you are the best people, because you do not suffer from any extremes. You have a very simple heart. You are leading a very religious life and a sanctified married life. This place is for the people who are in the middle path of Lord Buddha. Sahaja Yoga is the integration of all the truths of life and I can prove it to you, on the Kuṇḍalinī, that what I say is the fact, is the fact. Unless and until you take Hazrat Ali's name your Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra cannot be cured and all the Sahaja Yogis know about it. And in the Sahaja Yogi Pūjā we have to take the name of Mohammed Sahib again and again and that of Hazrat Ali.

And also we have to take the name of Jesus the Lord, who is the Ashraya [Refuge] of all this world, described by Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa in the Bhagavad Gītā, He was the Mahāviṣhṇu. You can read it for yourself and you'll be surprised that all the things described about Mahāviṣhṇu are absolutely the same as Jesus Christ was.

So, I request you not to be so small-minded. You have not known the truth so far.

So, try to understand it, to be subjective, to feel it, to understand it. All the books are saying the same thing as I am saying.

Only thing, I can do it. I am not doing it. It is just happening. I have come on this Earth just for this ignition. This is the last point of ignition. This has to happen and this will happen. Let us see, in this country, in this beautiful Yoga Bhūmi, how many people accept it.

May God bless you all. Again and again I bless you.

I am going to now London on the 25th and hope all of you who have got realisation in the last two days will again come to our program in Bhāratīya Vidyā Bhavan on Tuesday we have at 6:30.

We have also a very nice center in Altamonte road.

I hope all of you will take deeper interest into Sahaja Yog, learn all the methods and master the Kuṇḍalinī. There are so many people among us who know about it and you can talk to them; even in the programs... you can listen to My lectures by which you will understand. But it is not the understanding through your hearing, but it is the understanding through your heart and through your feeling of vibrations only, you can judge the Kuṇḍalinī.

Yesterday I have very much requested you and again I am requesting you that to understand Sahaja Yoga, you don't need too much of brains. What you need is a heart, is a Shraddhāvan [with faith] heart.

And if you have that, it will work out. The time has come for many flowers to be fruits. The time is there.

I thank you again and again for showing this great love to Me. It's like a... when I feel the ocean of My love, when it flows to the shores of all your hearts, the shore gives it back as a reaction. It's a parabolic movement. When My love passes through you and comes back to Me as love, I enjoy it. It is such a beautiful experience. I mean, it is a different experience, perhaps, that cannot be coined or put into these mortal words.

Thank you very much again and again. I thank all the trustees and all of you again and again.

May God bless you with all His prosperity, with all His goodness, kindness and the Eternal. The Param-Chaitanya should descend on you and on your awareness.

Contents: 1977-03-22 Advice at Bharatiya Vidyā Bhavan, Questions and Answers, Mumbai, India

Yeh light isliye di hai ki āp doosron ko prakash den. Agar āp iska prakash doosron ko nahi doge to dhire dhire ye prakash khatam ho jāta hai. Is prakash ko āpko aise marg pe rakhna chahiye jahan log andhere mein bhatak rahe hain na ki is prakash ko table ke neeche le ja ke rakhna chahiye jahan woh bujh jāye khud. Aap log wahan āyiye āpko koi taqleef hoyegi, āpke yahan koi beemar hoyega, koi pareshāni hoyegi uske liye bhi batāyenge aur waise hi Sahaj Yog ke bāre mein bhi ye log batāyeinge. [Marathi.] They have mastered the Kuṇḍalinī completely. There are some, you know that, but there are some who have got realisation last five years and they don't know a word. On the contrary, they'll just come and ask us, “My mother is ill.

So please treat her." “My father is ill." “You treat me." “My this thing is ill." That's all. They are good for nothing.

So now you have to also give to others and you have to realise yourself and to be the light of Sahaja Yoga. It's a great pleasure. It's a greatest joy to give it to others and you all don't have to spend any money for that and you don't have to earn any money for that. It is just a free flow. But you must give. Otherwise, if you do not give then you stagnate; absolutely, it stagnates.

Today we have so many people over here, I'm very happy to see. I hope you'll keep up the number. At least on a Monday keep it.

[Marathi:] Aap sab ko chāhiye ki Sahaj Yog mein gahre utrein yeh nahin ke uthlepan se.

Sahaja Yoga is not a thing to be taken that frivolously. It works. It works in you in no time effortlessly, but after realisation for all human beings, it is necessary to understand the complete working of the Kuṇḍalinī and of the vibrations. You must know the complete science. Otherwise, what is the use of getting money which you do not know how to spend or use? So best thing is to get to it and by you will find that even if you are sick and cured by Sahaja Yoga, you'll find you'll become so much healthier and better. You'll be enriched much more. If you do not take to Sahaja Yoga, gradually you'll find your vibrations will be lost after some time, because God doesn't want to waste His vibrations on people who do not want to give it to others. There are some people who give explanations, “We have a family. How are we to give up?" Now I have also family. You know I have grandchildren also.

This is the only good thing you can do without paying a single pie. You have got it without paying a single pie and you have to distribute also without paying a single pie and you have to enjoy yourself.

Only you can enjoy if you can give. You have to learn all these things. By God's grace you have so many people here. Here now at least fifty percent people, I would say, are such that they can tell you about Kuṇḍalinī [UNCLEAR quite/quite well] and you they are going to work out with you. They are going to tell you about this; nothing to feel bad, because once you master the Kuṇḍalinī you will become just the same.

So there is nothing to feel superior or inferior or anything. Only thing is that you today you have jumped into the sea and you have learnt how to swim and they have learnt it long time back and gradually you'll pick up very fast.

Some people pick up so fast that it's sometimes astonishingly speedy and even the people who have been with Me for years cannot beat them.

So it is only your simplicity and earnestness to be that. You work it out very well.

Atah, I would like you to ask Me questions because when I go away I don't want the half-hearted people to ask questions because then the, if the questions start, then the murmuring souls will start and they will try to bring out people who are not yet half-baked and then they will puzzle out.

So you have to completely mature into Sahaja Yoga. Do not listen to anybody because he says so. You ask him, `What is your authority? Do you know anything about Kuṇḍalinī? Have you, how many how many people you have given realisation to? How many people you have given Jāgruti to? None. Then you keep quiet.' That's all. You have seen Kuṇḍalinī moving. You have seen its pulsation. You have felt the vibrations.

Now, anybody who talks about against Sahaja Yoga is very easy, anybody can, any Dick, Tom and Harry can say, very easy to criticise anything, very easy because how much does it take? You don't need any capital for that. You need not be knowing a word about Kuṇḍalinī.

Some might say it's a myth, it's a psychological thing; all kinds of nonsense they will say. But if you are a serious people, then you must understand that you have felt the vibrations, they are there and that you are going to proceed further.

It is for your own good and for your own asking you should get it. If there are certain problems on your Chakras they must be corrected.

So what is the question now?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Ego and superego; these are the two institutions. They grow within us as we grow older and older because when we start growing. I'll give you an example how the ego and superego grow. A mother is nursing the child and the child is in complete peace and bliss. The mother is in complete bliss when the child is being nursed. Now, what happens, when the mother moves the child to another side, then the child doesn't like it.

So he puts in a reaction. This reaction comes in [Marathi] for your information hān... [Marathi.] Our eyes are ruined by because of the turning our eyes all the time here and here. Our Āgñyā Chakra gets spoilt. You completely lose control over your eyes. Eyes are the most important things. They carry the light of your heart of your Ātmā and Spirit. At every small spot must you see? [Marathi.] This is the problem with us, that we don't understand our own values and we don't understand what should be our priority for what are we here. We must have that seriousness about ourselves. Anybody comes in or goes in or anything happening, your attention should be on to yourself. It's very necessary at this time when you are in meditation. This is the first time we are trying to see ourselves.

So why should anybody interest us? It is only a very short time when we are, so now I'm telling you a very important thing.

[Marathi.] Question: Why God has created this ego and superego within us?

Shri Mataji: From our stomach the Medha, what you call the fat globules, you can say med, in the stomach rises into our brain, passing through all these centers, evolving to be the cells of the brain. Did you follow this point? Because med even the brain is made of fat cells, what you call the Mendu.

So for the Medha to become the Mendu it has to evolve to achieve a certain amount of charges of awareness of human awareness and the brain, human brain, is the most precious one because it has a dimension, which animals do not have, a mental dimension, you can say, an emotional dimension. Its physical dimension also has another dimension. We can say that on every dimension we have four sides. Emotionally we understand love. We understand how to receive, how to reciprocate. We understand beauty, we understand poetry, we understand sweet gestures. We, we can create these things also. On the mental level our dimension has a fourth dimension, I should say, by which we create things. Animals cannot create; we can create. On the physical also we have a special advantage that we have lifted our heads up, our hands act in a different way than our feet, we have a better capacity to hold things. Not only that but we can use this body to lift much higher things that are here; for example, we can create a crane and lifted it.

So we have also got a power by which we can have mastery over the matter. This is not among the animals.

So we have already a higher dimension which is reached in our brain.

Now, such a beautiful human brain is created.

So at this stage of human evolution when man has reached this stage we should say it is still in a transition. A little more he has to jump and he becomes that for which he has created.

So in this transition it is necessary to protect that brain very carefully, one purpose; secondly, to make this brain independent of the will of God and to make it use by itself so it develops another dimension of wisdom. By faltering, by making mistakes, by correcting, by falling, by going into extremes, man starts coming in the center and understands that this is the position. Now see in our country the political news how from the British we came to, British had to give us up, then we, now the new this thing we started that didn't fail; that failed.

So we started another style.

So we started another style like that. You see, you go on changing from this to another, experimenting and you reach a position where you see this is the position by which you really progress. All this is done by a human brain.

So a human brain is the most coveted thing, most evolved thing and with the brain heart also, human heart also, has to be correlated to the brain and so the both the things evolve very well. Our stomachs are evolved very well. Actually, our stomachs are much more subtle and they cannot take gross things.

They require very fine and sophisticated things for digestion and so many things as you know that we are different from animals.

Now at this stage to protect this brain also you need a kind of a hard covering.

So God has created this system by which you just get completely covered up, by creating an ego and superego which is just a sort of, you can say, a by-product of your activities. Any activity a human being does, has a reaction. For example, if he tries to say `no' to something it has a reaction: he creates his ego. If he accepts something he creates his superego. This is also done because it is done with the help that the brain of the man is made triangular and prismatic in nature, prismatic. It's prism-like plane and in the prism of the brain when the rays of God's Divine Power flows in, it goes into refraction, into different angles and by the principle of parallelogram of forces, part of it escapes outside, this side and this side. That's why a man can think of the future and of the past, but the animal does not think of these things.

So that's how our brain is a specially made one. It is protected by creating a ego and a superego completely by which our Tālu, where the fontanelle bone is covered, you are separated from the All-pervading Power, by which you get your independence and freedom, to act as you like, to use your brain as you like, to learn, because the evolution if it has to go any further this is the transition period when you have to try. We can say like this for a simile, because simile should not be drawn too far.

But supposing this instrument I prepare. After preparing it, I first try it on a small cell separately and then I put to the mains. In the same way, first it is tried separately, individually with an articulation. The other day I gave a simile of a, of an egg, which might have sounded little funny to Marathi people, I don't know why, that an egg is created by articulating it completely. It's protected till it reaches a complete stage of its rebirth, is Dvija -'twice-born'. Then only, you see, the mother bird pierces the egg and the, there is a rebirth of the little chick. In the same way, you are made protected so that you are made ready. Ultimately, you reach a stage where you are just ready to jump into another state and it happens. In the incubator also, if you put these eggs with the warmth, you see they feel the warmth, warmth is the love and with that they grow and at a point all of them hatch out, I mean not simultaneously, but we can say little difference, but most of them hatch out within two three days' time.

It is in the same manner today's Sahaja Yoga is working out, that you are just ready to have it. You've had a very great past, you've been seeking, you have been going round, you have no ideas to what you have been doing. And today you are wearing ordinary dresses like ordinary people and today you are here for a lecture with Me and at this time this happens. This is the greatest miracle for some people, but for Me it is just a happening. It has to happen at this time. For us if we see lots of flowers turning into fruits we never call it a miracle because we have taken it for granted.

So many miracles of life we have taken it for granted, but it has to happen to human beings and when it happens it happens like that.

Naturally for you, you see, it's My child's play. It is for Me, it is My child's play because that is My job is to give you Moksha. I am Moksha Dāyanī; no doubt about it. If that is My nature, if that is My nature then I will do it. If the nature of the sun is to give you the rays of the sun, it will give. It is not difficult because that is the nature. You see, if it is your nature as a human being to see things and colours you will see. What is so great about it? What is to be proud about it? I mean, I don't understand; if you are that, you are that. What is there to be higher or lower? I can't just understand. This is all because of a human ego that a man has evaluations. He thinks this is higher; that is lower. In a way human beings are higher than men and human beings are much higher than Gods and much higher than God Almighty sometimes, because He has to beg of you to come to Sahaja Yoga, because unless and until you are absolutely freely accepting Sahaja Yoga it doesn't work out. You have to be absolutely free. I cannot entice you. I cannot hypnotize you. I cannot do anything. It has to be there. And that's why if it works just like that, why should you feel that there is something wrong in it? It has worked with so many people.

So many people have felt it. You will also feel it. It is your due.

So you are feeling it and supposing there is something wrong with the seed or something wrong with the flower, then we'll correct it also. May take two days more; doesn't matter. It is not something extraordinary for Me. Yes, it is in a way, because in all My previous lives I have not done it.

So I feel very happy.

For example, when you are a leaf you can't do the things of a flower, when you are a root you are not doing that at all, but when you are a flower then a bee can come and do it. What is so much surprising about it? Because it is been promised. Many a time it has been said. Even Vivekananda has said that, “Mother will come and She will do the job." He has also said that, “Buddha is just a part, a little drop." He has said all these things. When you quote Vivekananda, read him properly. He also says, “I can't do anything. It's Mother is going to do. Everybody is putting on that Mother." Shañkarāchārya said, “Mother will come." In the Bible if you read John's Revelation, written that, “A Woman will come and She will be giving rebirth and She'll be afraid of giving rebirth. She'll be protecting Her child." All these things are there and now when the Mother comes in you say, `Why are you there, Mother?' Now who the Mother must come with a horn or what should She do? But if I'm the Mother Who has to do the job, I have to do the job. Now you start finding faults with Me.

So what to do with you people? I mean, after all, what should I have? Whatever I thought proper, I have. What else do you want Me to have? See if the, if Gaṇeśha has a trunk of a elephant it has a meaning and if somebody has something else it has a meaning. We say that Surabhi the cow, the first cow which appeared in the Brindabana, in the, in the Vaikuṇṭha stage she appeared, all the Gods were inside her. We accept a cow but we can't accept a human being who has got these powers. It's all right.

Don't accept. I'm saying not that you should flatly accept Me because once I say that there are many Mātājīs all over now. What I'm saying, you should feel the vibrations yourself. You should take them. If you feel them, if you see the Kuṇḍalinī rising, that is the first sign. If you see the Kuṇḍalinī rising, you should.

When I went to Amarnath there was one Janārdan Mahārāj. He had come, you see, because he had heard about Me. He came just to take My Parīkshā –‘test, examination’, whatever it is.

So he was sitting on near the stage and people told Me that, “He may not accept You, Mātājī." I said, “Let Me see. If he is a realised Soul he may” and when I went inside on the stage he just fell at on My feet. Then he told Me, “I saw everybody's Kuṇḍalinī rising as soon as You stepped inside, I could see." They can see also. He saw everybody's Kuṇḍalinī rising as soon as I came in. They would not rise but the Kuṇḍalinī rose. “We wish You welcome." So if they know, many people know.

Gagan Garh Mahārāj knows. He's told many people. I have not met him. He has told many people about Me. I never met him before. Then I went to see him and he talked to Me as if he would talk to an incarnation, he would. He never talked to Me as if he would talk to Mrs. C.P. Srivastava. He didn't know.

He asked Me [Marathi], “Why has She given you? What have you done? How many of you are going to give your life for Her? She has given you this precious thing. You cannot part with one farthing. What are you going to do for Her?" He scolded all of them. He said all these things; it is on the tape.

There's another person Mister, his name is Mister Prahalad Brahmachāri. He's from Calicut. He went to America. He told people about Me. They know about Me. He told that, “She has come now.

There's nothing to worry." But for you people, you see, you people are so egoistical that you cannot bear to hear such a thing about anyone. That is the trouble: you are too egoistical. Adhajal gagri chalkat jāye. Empty vessel makes too much sounds. It's a sign of emptiness. You see, they, those people are telling Me even that...

[Aside:] What was his name from Amarnath?... Nāgnath Baba, he said, “Mātājī, they can never accept. They never accepted any incarnation and they are not going to accept You, try Your level best." And Mahārāj says, “For twelve years You try.

If they are all right, then I'll come down." Otherwise they are all hiding themselves. They are afraid of human beings. Really, it is true. There are so many like that.

Three very old people came to see Me in Haridwar. They said the same thing. Now are you going to behave yourself or are you going to behave in a manner that is going to be detrimental to your progress in spiritual life? What are you going to do, it is for you to decide. If you are, if you have read few books you cannot sit, settle Me into those books.

You see, there is Yoga Shāstra. Now take Yoga Shāstra. Now yesterday he told you there is Sattvik Yoga Shāstra this. What should by Yoga Shāstra for Me what is it? Did Rāma read any books or Kṛiṣhṇa read any book and I am going to read any book? Am I going to use this Yoga Shāstra? You see, this is for people, for human beings who have to climb up. I know everything.

So why should I worry about these things? I have to just pull you out; that's all. I know all the job. The person who knows the job doesn't have to do this. And it comes to this that I have to tell you these things, you yourselves should realise that if Mātājī is doing like that just by Chitta.

Now see today there was, I'll tell you a thing. Today there yesterday they told Me about somebody who, who is a brother [Marathi] who drinks too much and he is in Goa. I said, “What to do? How can he come?" He, he came today [appo āp]. He came just like that. Just it is My attention, you see. If you put anything to My attention it just works. I don't have to bother. It is something like a human being can lift this. Now an ant will say, `How did you lift it?' I mean, it is possible for a human being to lift it and for Me it is easy to lift your Kuṇḍalinīs and to do all these miscellaneous things like that because it is My attention, My attention, Chitta. My attention itself is Ānanda. It is itself, is bliss and it is itself, is the knowledge. I don't need any intelligence to know anything because I know everything in My head there is all the libraries there.

Now you have read one book that fellow has found out something from somewhere. Now how am I to tell you how this mad man has found out something where from somewhere and how did he find in darkness he what did he find? He might have found somebody's leg and was thinking it is somebody's hand. Now for a person like Me it is so difficult to go to every person. Anybody who has read a book there, a sentence here, will come down. I said, “Now leave it. Now you want your realisation. Come along have it." And then the greatest problem is all this is love. I mean, I'm just a form of love; that's all. It's nothing but love. It's just love, you see, which expands, gives you vibrations, again recedes back, expands, it comes back. It goes in a parabolic like that, what you call the Pradakshinā of a Shakti you are seeing. What is Shakti is, Shakti's this thing is a parabolic and now Einstein is talking about parabolic.

We had a parabolic long time back here. We knew it was Shakti. See, you can explain all your science and everything. In this life I learnt English language and little bit of science and psychology and all that, but these psychologists are so one-sided people. Yoga Shāstras are so one-sided people. Now they do not match each other. I'm telling you the basic principle between the two. Both are human efforts. I'm a different person. Now what should I do if I'm like that? How can I become like you? I mean, if I know how to come up, how should I become like a little baby and say, `Oh, no, I must crawl up now gradually.' I'm an old woman of thousands of years.

So I know everything. You are still little babies.

So how can I become like you? See, the simple thing and today is the day I thought I better tell you about it that you just don't worry about things how I do things. I really do it. I cure people. Now here is a gentleman. He's a heart patient, ask. Even before I met him he got quite cured and I cured him. There are so many here who will say that. [Marathi.] Why? The question, the person who asked Me the question, you ask him.

He has a friend who is in, who's a Frenchman and the Frenchman asked Me a question about the Western life.

So I didn't answer it. I started saying something else. He's a very intelligent boy, this Rajesh.

So Rajesh said, “Now, you see, Mātājī has not answered your question. That means She has recorded it and it will act” because in his case it has acted.

So God, whatever He has done it is for your good. He has given you ego and superego not to be exploit and finished. Now you cannot blame God for that. Supposing God has given you light to go that way. He has told you, “Now take an independent light to find out that." And if you start burning yourself with that light, what can God do? It is not God's mistake.

Many people think that this ego is horrid. Ego you must have. Ego you must have. You are not to fight this ego. Only thing is that your ego should become one with that of God. That's all. It's a very simple thing. If you just become one with that God, now supposing this has a ego, how can I talk on this? I'll say something; it will say some. But if it has no ego, its ego has become one with My saying, then it carries My voice. It carries My sayings, everything. It is so simple.

What is so much complicated when people start telling Me about big, big things I really get a fright.

I think, what is so complicated? It is like, you see, somebody wanted to know how do we make Puris, you see.

So a foreigner had come, a lady.

So, she learnt, you know, how you make Puris this thing and one lady just tried to make fun of the whole thing. She said, “We make one Roti here, one Roti there. Then we put it one on top of another and then, all sorts of things. And inside we put something just to make it big and then we blow it out with a Phunkni” and all those things.

So this poor lady, she said that, “How are you making it just like this, coming up like that. You are putting in the kadhai, it's coming up?" They said, “It is working out because it's the simplest thing to do” but for her she said, “No, I was using a blower, blowing in because I thought that that's the only way you can do it." It is, it is a simple thing for any housewife to create this thing.

So you see for, when I hear all these big, big things about Yoga, this, that, then I said, “Baba, what are you doing?"

Now it is very simple. It is a very simple thing, but you can't do it, is the point.

So I'm here. Once you are awakened, once your light has come, you can do it also. Why not? And I've told Gagan Garh Mahārāj, when he started telling Me, “Why I cannot give realisation to people like this the way these. I've gone so much and I've done so much of this thing [Marathi] and useless and how are You, how are these people doing it? They will become very egoistical." I said, “They will not." He said, “How do you know?" I said, “They are made after the pattern of Śhrī Gaṇeśh; same powers they will have. Even with the finger moving My sons can give realisation. They can. Who are you to challenge and ask Me?" He kept quiet. He said, “You are a Mother. Do what you please, but aediya gabade te kām nave." I said [Marathi] I'm not giving to them. It is a fantastic thing, that's why. You see, it is rather difficult for people to understand, but anything like this has to be fantastic.

And we have to prove the existence of God. We have to prove that He exists and He works and all those people, Chaitanya Laharis and all that talks about Kabīra and Nanaka and Hiranya Sanhita and all your Yoga, I'm going to prove it to you before. Have you ever seen any Kuṇḍalinī pulsating before? I will show you the pulsation of a Kuṇḍalinī. You have never heard that there are on the fingers anywhere the vibrations are coming, nothing, but you have felt it not only but you can diagnose a person. You can tell a person what he's suffering from. You can cure a person. Now you will say, `How is it possible?' and somebody says, “Ten thousand years before we never heard of these things." Everything must happen ten thousand years ago. Then why are we proceeding further? Better go back. What kind of a argument is this? After all, we have discovered going to the moon. Then we never say, `Why did we go to moon?' You see, that's a simple question there. We do not.

But we have to know that somebody is searching inside for you and I've found it out. I've visited all these Rākshasas also. I've visited all these Gurus, all of them, very nicely befooling them and I tried to find out what are they up to. Now I also know their tricks. I know what they have done to you and that's how I can correct.

So I've studied all the permutations and combinations and everything, everything of Kuṇḍalinī, whatever is possible because, you know, it's not so simple with human beings. They are very, very easily, they are very easily can be persuaded. They can be enticed. They can be hypnotized, I cannot be hypnotized, but you can be very easily hypnotized. Anybody can hypnotize you like that. I've seen thousands of people getting hypnotized, taking out their clothes, dancing, jumping. I've seen some people just making all kinds of faces, like this, like that, all sorts of things. It can be done and the hypnosis is so much that when they come before Me also they start doing that. They just get into the hypnosis because they are used to it. It's like Doctor Jekyll and Mister Hyde. They just become Mister Hyde and Doctor Jekyll is lost. You become that; it's very common.

So for you it is wise to understand that I know all these things and I will tell you everything. I've got it for you specially and I know all the permutations and combinations. You don't have to do any research about it. No money is needed to be spent. Still, you see, there are people who have been with Me for seven years. Still they are saying, “Mother, every time You say something we have to learn." This is this, this is that, this is combination, that is combination, everything. Even five lives will not be sufficient for you to know a little bit about this knowledge.

So why worry about these research and things? Just listen to Me and use your hands and learn and discover also for yourself that this is the truth and don't listen to everyone, third person coming round the corner, somebody selling the Pān there will tell you [Marathi] done. As if we have no brains at all, you see.

So, you should not listen to everyone. You must, you are special people. By God's grace you have got vibrations. This is a very big thing. Those who haven't got will also get it. I would request you every day you have to sit on the water for seven days to see that you are cleared out now after realisation and also later on whenever you are tired. It's better; that's a bath for you. Every day do that treatment yourself. It's a bath. You cleanse yourself because you gather. I do not gather. I, nothing happens to Me, but it happens to you.

So you must have a bath in the night, take out all the problems on that water, throw it away. Water with salt is a sea which takes away all your problems.

So try to do that and there are so many ways. We can use Ākāsha –ether’. We can use Pṛithvī –‘earth’. There are people; they can tell you; they know. I've told them that five-six people should come here. We have a brain trust. They will be all sitting down here and talking to you.

So next time when you come, if you have any problem you can ask them. Now maybe you are learned but you can learn from them. Even person like Justice Vaidya told Me that, “I must know more about Sahaja Yoga." So I said it is more practical than theoretical and if he comes to the program or if somebody can go to him or if he can work it out with his hand, gradually he will be become a master of this because as it is he has knowledge. It will fit into it as if, as if the Ganges will flow into the, all the, all the ditches or all the things that are made and to receive the water and it will just go and settle into it, perfectly.

Your reading is not going to be wasted, but you will know what is right what is wrong. Now if there is another question for one question I've taken so much time because it was a very important question.

[Marathi.] The photo has the vibrations; is a fact. Also, there are many things that have vibrations. For example, even this statue has got vibrations. Even these two statues have, but not so much as they are from Me. First of all, I am a living being. Another is that their proportions may be wrong because they are created by human beings, by their imagination, but the Swayambhū Lingās, all of them have got.

For example, now supposing you have a prostate gland problem, if you go to the, say, to any of these [Marathi] Rānjangāon, Rānjangāon Gaṇapati. You see, I went there. It has complete vibrations.

[UNCLEAR Chichwāra] because it is, you see, too much visited by people.

So it gets crowded sometimes, but Rānjangāon I found still all right; but as soon I say Rānjangāon everybody will go to Rānjangāon and the Rānjangāon also will be [UNCLEAR] because after all these are the, these are the special statues which have come out by Mother Earth. She's thrown them. Mother Earth thinks, She creates these things and She throws these things and they give vibrations.

So you take vibrations from them all. But My photograph is a photograph as a reality. [Marathi.] Another thing is, you see, whatever I speak, because I'm that, it is Praṇava flowing. It is actual Praṇava.

My every talk, everything, is a mantra going into and when I just put My finger also into it I found that My vibrations can be turned around. Even when I [Shri Mataji blows air from her mouth] do like this, those who are realised can feel it. On their Sahasrāra they can feel; is a fact.

So why should it look so funny to people? [Marathi.] Question: What is `bath' [foot-soaking]? How to take it?

Shri Mataji: It is a simple method. You put My photograph in a proper place, put a little light before it. Candle will do, or you can put a Nirānjan, whatever you like. Put both the hands towards the photograph. Now you put both the hands towards the photograph and feet in the water with a little salt.

You can have little hot water, cold water or warm water according, according to the need. Supposing you are sick, suffering from cold, so better to take the warm water. Put a little salt in it. Put your hands towards the photograph. You'll be amazed that the whole trouble will go away into the water and you can throw away the water in the W.C. and you'll be very much clear. Now this gentleman you ask. He did that. He had a heart attack. He was very serious. Everybody can do it.

Now for Viśhuddhi Chakra, especially this Chakra, another simple thing you can try is to put your right hand towards the photograph first and take out the left hand. Supposing you find the vibrations are flowing into it, then you put left hand towards the photograph and right hand outside and you will be surprised that the whole thing will clear out this Chakra very well. And if you keep your eyes open towards the photograph and put your hands like this or sometimes like this on the Ākāsha, you'll be surprised that your eyes can be very much improved, very much with this. Mother Earth also; if you put your head on the Mother Earth, just touch Her with your forehead and say, `Mother forgive me for touching you with my feet,' and She's your grandmother. You ask for anything and you will get. They are all waiting to give you whatever you want. You can ask the help of Hanumāna. You can ask the help of Gaṇeśha.

The other day the newspaper people told Me, they are two disciples of Mine who are correspondents and they were going somewhere and they had there My photograph with them. They said, “It was so amazing that we were coming and while coming driving our driver just bumped into a truck and we said, `We are all finished,' and we closed our eyes. When we opened our eyes the truck was ahead and we were here. We didn't know how we were saved, all of us. And the driver had also closed his eyes. We didn't know how the truck went that side and how we were here." So accidents are avoided. Things can happen and people have seen. They live long and you have good health. Everything is there. After all, we have to, we have jumped into the kingdom of God. Only thing is keep your seeds all right for the time being.

Then the whole thing will be lifted like this into Sat Yuga. Already the Sat Yuga has started.

[Marathi.]

Seeker: If we see all the six Chakras nearly each one there is the some or the other endocrine gland.

What relation this Chakra has with this gland?

Shri Mataji: Endocrine, huun. Now endocrine glands are controlled by the Chakras also. For example, now we can say Mūlādhāra Chakra controls this prostate like that. Even the Āgñyā Chakra controls the pituitary and pineal, both of them and that's how it controls the ego and superego.

So it has a controlling effect on that very much. They are the growth agents of that. You see, for example, to control all the nature God has fixed up the stars. Certain stars are there, nine, nine stars mostly; the seven stars, as you know and two more are placed there to control the Universe and the everything. It is controlled through those points and you know so it affects our physical, material life, the whole planet.

Seeker: Respected Mātājī, please give me the knowledge and show me more clearly the way. First, what are the vibrations: physiologically, scientifically and spiritually? Where do they, these vibrations come from, from You, cosmos or atmosphere? What way do the vibrations benefit us? What are the dos and don'ts for Sahaja Yoga?

Shri Mataji: Very good question, very good. Who has asked the question, very good. First question is about what are these vibrations. I told you yesterday that in our heart there is a flicker of light which is burning all the time, which is the Ātmā which is the reflection of Param'ātmā in our heart. In short I'll tell you; the details I will not. Now what happens, the Kuṇḍalinī rises, she opens the Brahmarandhra and there is the seat of the Sadāśhiva, the Pīṭha. You see, the Pīṭha is here, but Shiva is in the heart reflected as the Ātmā. You see the Pīṭha and the Pīṭha is created because, you see, the Pīṭha receives the subtle, you see. It receives the subtle energy which is all-pervading, the gross. Inside all the pervading, for example, this collects My voice. Voice is a subtle energy which is collected through this. Here now we have all kinds of pictures and all kinds of music going on, but if you have a radio it can capture. In the same way the Pīṭhas are in the brain and the Pīṭha of the Sadāśhiva is higher up here which is opened out so that the subtle, the Sūkshma in the gross passes into our heart through a very subtle channel and just like a gas light it has a flicker and when the gas opens out the Prakāsha comes in. Now the vibrations are, are the, that Prakāsha going through us.

These vibrations start flowing through us. Now what do I do? You will say, `Mātājī what do You do?' I do nothing but I just try to give you that force which is the, we can say, the gas power. That is the gas power because the Kuṇḍalinī knows that when I am before you, she rises, she opens out and it starts flowing. It is flowing through Me throughout, but unless and until you are subtle you cannot feel it and you have it. It is, you can say that I am like a, you can say that I am the finite in the infinite, or you can say the infinite in the finite; infinite into the finite and also the finite into the infinite. I'm both.

So the energy that is emitted into all the subtle energy is passing through Me, is the Virāt. From the Virāt, say, the whole thing passes. It is going into the all-pervading. It is all-pervading everybody. Everywhere it is going. Even it is in a cell in everything. In a carbon atom it is there. Into all atoms, into all arrangements it is working. It is the subtle energy that is emitted through Me. When you become subtle you become like a radio; you start receiving it. Now how will you know what is correct, what is incorrect? You ask the subtle and the subtle answers you and you get the answers on your hands. It is like that.

So these are the vibrations which you receive from the All-pervading Power and the All-pervading Power is emitted out and you receive it from Me or from the All-pervading. It's just the same from everywhere these are the vibrations.

But the Self-realisation means, which is a very subtle point, which you try to understand now that it is so far is an unconscious for you. Your Ātman is in the unconscious. It is not in your awareness; it is in the Achetanā. It is in your unconscious, means it is in the Achetanā. You are not yet Chetit about it - you are not aware of it, all right?

But once you are realised it starts flowing into your awareness, means you start feeling it in your central nervous system, because your central nervous system is your Chetana, is your awareness. The human awareness is nothing but is central nervous system, but his central nervous system starts feeling now the vibrations, the light of the Ātman through it.

So that, that is why it is known as Samādhi. Samādhi means the unconscious. When the unconscious becomes the conscious, it is called as Samādhi.

So people think beshudha hone, beshudha nahin. It means you become aware of the unconscious. Not only that, but first you become Nirvichār, then Nirvikalpa and then a complete Self-realisation.

So the Samādhi is a word, a great confusion. Samādhi just means an universal unconscious.

It means the universal unconscious and unconscious [Marathi]. If you are unconscious in the sense, now supposing somebody gives you an injection or you take a drug you become unconscious, means what? You go into subconscious or into supraconscious, but this is a super-consciousness and super-consciousness, is all-pervading Sarva-vyāpi, Sūkshma. Yesterday what he told you about three types of Sādhanās: Sattvik and Rājasik and Tāmasik. Tāmasik goes to the left side, means into the subconscious and collective subconscious connected with the libido on the left hand side and right side is the supraconscious connected with the Piñgalā Nāḍī which is the willpower, as you call it and connected to the supraconscious side, goes to the collective supraconscious. Dev and all these people are sitting that side, dev, Devatās and these are officers, you see. Gaṇas are on this side on the top and all those who fail into that, they go into hell.

But the center is the super-conscious. For the Suṣhumnā the people rise above the super-consciousness.

They gradually start becoming more and more aware. They have the same body. For example, if you look at a cell of the brain, is the same as the cell of a, of a fat globule, but there is a difference.

So the difference starts taking and by the time you open out from here, then there is given a greater dimension to that cell, your brain, that it starts receiving the vibrations and can understand it. And then even is a greater, in Nirvikalpa you get another dimension where you have no doubts; you are knowledge. And the last is the Self-realisation where you are just in joy, complete in joy, no problems. You do not catch; nothing happens. I would say our Vaidya Saheb is very much near Self-realisation, very much near. The way he got his Self-realisation itself is remarkable because he felt two ice cubes coming into him and melting out, but he doesn't catch, you know. I told him about somebody. He said, “I know he is no good. He is a tamasik fellow. Let him go according to his Karmas, Mātājī. What to do?" You see, he doesn't catch, but you people will catch.

[Marathi.] Physiological, physiological, you can feel it on the hand. You can feel on the fingers. [Marathi.] Sociological. [Marathi.] You see, scientifically you can say the parasympathetic gets activated. You get the control of the parasympathetic. You jump into the unconscious, the universal unconscious. These are the two points you can say. Now what is the...

[Marathi.]

Seeker: Where do the vibrations come from?

Shri Mataji: From everywhere. I am the emitting force, all right. Accept it.

Seeker: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Hān. Now this is the vital force of life. You see it; it gives you a complete balance. It corrects your physical being, it corrects your mental being, it corrects your emotional being, it gives you a complete spiritual oneness with God and it integrates you completely. I mean, as far as I am concerned, I have no Pashchatāp. I don't understand what is Pashchatāp. I don't understand what is temptation.

I don't understand these things because I am complete one with Myself. Every, every finger I move, every hand I move, everything I do, it means something. I have to do, I mean, it is done without thinking, but there is a big thought behind it. It is done because I say hān, I say hān, I say hān. Hān means there is a noose, you know it. There is a formation of a circle which works. Now it's difficult you know My mechanism is different from yours.

So I can't explain what I do because you don't have those mechanics within you, but it is like that. Even saying huun, hān, hein, all these are tremendous words. They create a kind of a force and a kind of a whirlwind, we can say. A kind of a formation takes in which it engulfs all the bad things that are there or all the Rākshasas and all those things and can pull them out. Now I gave it in the matka; just I put My breath in that. It's Praṇava itself, complete and that Praṇava, you see in the night when they will be sleeping, will come out and take out all these things gradually and bind them and put them inside. You have seen many mad people are cured like this, but to look at it looks like matka and people say, `What is this Mātājī is telling matka matka?' and this and that.

And I have told you about the Civil Surgeon of Ahmedabad, what happened to him. He told Me, “I can't do all these nonsensical things." He was so angry. “You want me to befool me. I can't listen to all this." I said, “All right, you go ahead. I don't say” and he had become little bit loony. I said, “All right, I don't say. All right, don't bring matka” and third day when I was giving a lecture he was coming there with such a big matka on his head.

So I said, “Doctor” after the lecture. I couldn't help laughing. After the lecture I said, “Why did you bring such a big matka? I had not asked you to bring such a big matka.

I had asked you to bring such a small matka." He said, “Mātājī, you are Māyā. That's how you have killed my ego completely because in the market there was no small matka available. Only this big one was available.

So I had to bring such a big matka." And he was walking through the whole thing and I was looking at him and I didn't know where to look. I said, “Look at the Civil Surgeon” and that convinced people.

[Marathi.] Poor Civil Surgeon, but he is a very good man and he's cured, thank God.

So it is like this. Then he retired also after that and he is a very good Sahaja Yogi, still.

So it doesn't matter. You know these things are not important. Mother says, “All right, matka to matkā." [Marathi.] You will not find it in any book. You will not know it anymore but Mātājī knows. She knows all the tricks of Kṛiṣhṇa. After all, She's told you all His tricks also.

[Marathi.]

Seeker: What are the dos and don'ts of Sahaja Yoga?

Shri Mataji: Don'ts and dos; first and foremost things that a Sahaja Yogi cannot smoke or drink.

One absolutely one hundred percent sure, because if you drink or smoke you will find after some time you either you'll lose your vibrations or you'll start vomiting. You cannot smoke. If you smoke your Viśhuddhi will be caught. If you drink your Nābhī Chakra will be caught and whenever you'll place your hand towards the photograph all the Nābhī Chakra will be burning absolutely.

So you'll say, `What is this happening?' And you'll give up. You sort of, many people have done it without any difficulty. They do not have any difficulty; they just give up.

So this is one of the most important things that you have to gradually give up. Just take My name; you can work it out. We have people here, they will tell you they were alcoholic, they were taking drugs and they were doing all kinds of things. They've given up all that and now they are absolutely normal people. First thing is that: don't drink and don't smoke. Secondly, don't fast. When Mother is there you are not to fast. Only fast on Naraka Chaturdashi; that's all. One day you should not have Phalāhār [Marathi]. If you don't feel like eating, eat something else but don't leave your stomach empty. You can have some fruit juice or milk or whatever you like. These are certain things about the food and the stomach, Nābhī Chakra.

Secondly, the eyes are very important things where you have to be careful not to move your eyes very fast anywhere. Try to keep your eyes steady and mostly on the Mother Earth. You see, you have heard about Lakshmana. He never saw the feet of Sītājī, never, never saw Her face. He only saw Her feet. How can that be? He was always living with Her. He had never seen Her face; he had just seen His feet.

So you can imagine what should be the position and for fourteen years he had to lead a complete Brahmachārya's life. He just, She was like his mother. He knew She was Ādi Shakti, but he just saw Her feet.

That should be our case, this thing, that we should lead a sanctified married life. Now supposing somebody is married; then he should not run away with other women and the other women should not run away with other men. And lead a sanctified life, create a nest of family, a proper family house, try to adopt, compromise, adjust, make your wife realise or make your husband realise and bring peace in the family because there are many great souls who want to take birth, many of them.

As soon as you'll find that such marriages will take place they've seen now in our case, you can ask some people from we have here. Ask these girls. There I told them that you must marry.

So one girl married and she has a daughter absolutely realised.

So many people have got realised children. [UNCLEAR].

So many those who got married like this, they have all realised people.

So you must try to get a family life, a proper family, proper relationship.

Do service to your parents, to your mothers. Don't find faults with your parents and try to be kind to them, also to the kind to the wife's mother parents also and try to be good in the family. Try to bring more peace if they are difficult. I mean, it's all right. Don't spoil the children also. Correct them, make them loving. Make a nice society. Every one of you should be the carrier of love of your Mother, everywhere.

If you are Sahaja Yogis and if you change and transform in your behaviour, naturally Sahaja Yoga will have its own reputation and everybody will start taking to Sahaja Yoga [Marathi]; impossible. If you do anything like that, immediately your vibrations will go away.

There was a gentleman in America, who got realisation and he started a ashram of Sahaja Yoga, started taking money. When he came here people told Me, “Mātājī, we get a chakker with this man.

What's wrong with him, You tell me." Immediately in meditation I knew what was it is. I said, “Give Me the pamphlet." He gave Me the pamphlet. I said, “You can't earn money. If you earn money you'll have a bad time” and he had a very bad time after that and he had earlier also. Now he's all right. He says, “I will do some other work." You cannot earn any money from Sahaja Yoga. Do not have Sahaja Yogis for business partnership. No, they are Sahaja Yogis. Do not use Sahaja Yoga for making money [Marathi].

You see, this kind of this limit, this type of people can never be Sahaja Yogis. You have to be generous people. You have to be absolutely honest.

[Marathi.] They are thieves. They just come here for thieving. They are not Sahaja Yogis.

So such people are also there.

[Marathi.] This should not be done. There are Ten Commandments, as you say and you should not take anybody's things and be satisfied in your heart. This is a very simple way of doing things, but you have to lead a chaste life and you have to also see chaste things. For example, [Marathi] you will not like it also. Your priorities will change. Your friends will change gradually. You will not like dirty jokes, nothing. You'll just change and you'll run away from them. I've seen these foreigners; now they are telling Me that they just cannot stand all these things now. Once upon a time whatever they could tolerate and enjoy also sometimes, they just cannot stand it and bear it because now you have become saintly. You have to be decent people.

[Marathi.] So don't dabble into all these rumours and frivolous things. Don't waste your precious life. You are Sahaja Yogis. Not a single moment to be wasted on nonsensical things. Every moment should be spent in having dignity for yourself, for others, for loving others.

[Marathi.] Don't be misers at all. Miserly people are against Sahaja Yoga and if miserly people come I give them trouble. If you are miserly you get lots of trouble.

So you don't get miserly, hān, I'm telling you and don't be too talkative also. If you become too talkative and troublesome, I can stop your talking and if you don't talk at all that's also not good. Means don't go to extremes of anything.

These are certain things which you have to know. And don't, women should not dress up like men and men should not behave like women. All these nonsenses you should not do. You should be yourself.

Supposing you are something in something you are doing you should wear the dresses as you are; now no need to wear funny dresses and go round and have your hair up to this much or try to show off. You see, all these are mythical things. Be normal, natural people and lead a normal, natural, decent life and it's not so important. Food is not so important. Whatever you get you get you eat and don't talk too much of comfort and don't also sleep on the thorns, no, no, no, but don't be absolutely a waster. Be in the center; is a very simple thing for Sahaja Yogis.

And you see with your vibrations if you have to take a decision, `Should I take this house or not?' Take the vibrations. Anything you see, `What should I do? Should I have, who should I have as a Prime Minister?' Now, see for yourself whom do you want to have a Prime Minister. See four people you put in; see the vibrations. Who has the best? Now, you think of the person. He will not be the one the Prime Minister. You cannot say that he will be because maybe that there are so many horrible people. In a democracy anybody can be brought in but the one, who is a good one, is a Sahaja Yogi. He should be the Prime Minister and you should ask. If the more people ask for it, he may be.

So decide everything with vibrations, for yourself, for collectiveness or anything and the most important is you give it to others.

And Sahaja Yoga doesn't work in your houses, families, or in small little groups but it works here in Bharatiya Vidyā Bhavan when all of you are here because I'm here. It is a collective work. All of you are cells of one body and the more cells are awakened, the more the body is active.

So you have to come together, to be together. Love each other. Mix up with others. Do not form groups, no. You should talk to each other very freely, whatever is your language, nationality or whatever it is. And you should mix up with others; is not proper, is a sense of insecurity is expressed if you have a group [Marathi]. This kind of a small thing is not there [Marathi]. Foreigners are sitting together in a group like that. You see what I'm saying: there should be no grouping done; no need. Be open. All of us, all of us are born of one Mother, we should not feel insecure, we should be not together. It is not that you should avoid also, if you are together all right, now together is all right we are all brothers and sisters.

Be very friendly and kind and do not analyze others and criticise others. Better to criticise yourself than to analyze others. Will sit down, `He's like this because like that.' [Marathi.] We should watch ourselves and not others. Why somebody is behaving like that, you just don't worry.

How are you behaving yourself? Are you all right? Are your vibrations all right? And that's how with love, patience, understanding, I'm sure one day we all will feel the oneness, all of us and we should help each other. If somebody is sick we should help.

Somebody tells you [Marathi] somebody.

So there is nothing to get angry. Actually, it's a great thing he has told you that he can cure you and you cannot see [Marathi].

So it is a story told by a person who is not connected.

So you should not sort of identify with yourself. You should identify yourself with the eternal life that is within you and you are going to enjoy it very much.

So don't feel insecure, don't have too many desires for something and you'll be surprised that suddenly you'll find [Marathi]. If it works out, well and good; doesn't work out well and good, because we are there after all. And if the car gets punctured, all right, we are there after all. Even if the car is not there we are there. We are not lost.

So don't think of the future, don't think of the past but think of the present and enjoy. That is the message of Sahaja Yoga and perhaps I've covered most of the points for you people and never try to criticise anyone, never, never, never. And be firm and know that you have just now crossed, so many of you just crossed.

So be steady, steadily [Marathi] what is going to happen, let us see. Let us see. Be with that. Suddenly, don't be bumptious about it and otherwise you'll be rippled back again, you see.

So gradually grope the whole thing. When you have got the mastery over it then grip it. But if you are bumptious, anybody can push you down saying that [Marathi]. There are many like that.

So be careful.

You see, everybody is trying to push you down. In this world there are Satanic forces and you are very special chosen people. That's why you have got vibrations. There are so many people in Bombay [Mumbai] but how many have felt it? You are the very few who have felt it.

So be careful about it and meet together in this same number. All of you can be realised fully if you come together and sit together.

They say when Mātājī is here, they are here. Then Mātājī is only busy all of the time.

[Marathi.] Those eight or ten people who have been attending it regularly are the best and they are also busy cleaning you [Marathi].

Today is the last day because I'm going on the 25th evening. I'll be back again in December, I hope so, for one or two days. We'll have a program, not a long program because we are going on a holiday, first time in My husband's life.

So I hope you won't mind. Then again I'll come back next summer perhaps I don't know maybe or maybe next year I may not come. By that time I hope you people will keep to the pro...

As sometimes, we, in our memory, relive some beautiful moments of our past and feel the same joy, in the same manner, every idea of a realised Soul can be materialised (Sākār –'having form'). We do it unconsciously many a times when we paint an unknown picture. We imagine and enjoy our imagination and then recreate and enjoy more. But a Sahaja Yogi can weave a beautiful pattern of joy by suggesting joyful, beautiful ideas to oneself.

The power of God actually just goes to the back of Me. I am like the source and it's just flowing behind Me.

You can cure human beings but cannot force them to accept me which it seems is the only condition that deities are not asking to compromise with. If it is not done by human beings Sahaja Yoga has to fail and we have to accept the verdict of the "Pralayankāra", the destroying aspect of God (Sadāśhiva).

Jimmy Carter is talking about human right but does he know that human beings have certain duties towards themselves? Does he realise that they have no right to spoil their Mooladhara and the Sushumnā by their egoistical freedom? Does he understand that Americans are under another kind of captivity? It is your task to write in your book very clearly that they cannot proclaim anything about right and wrong when their own instruments are rotten.

My dearest Sahaja Yogis: My Blessings to you all, News has been conveyed to Me that a new Center is functioning in Muskwadi Village [near Rahuri], where thousands of people are getting Realisation. The achievement has been made only because the `workers' over there have knit themselves in bond of wonderful Love. They never try to complain to anyone about anything but instead overlook and ignore in case someone commits what may be described as an error. This broad-mindedness is capable of generating feelings of happiness in one's self and acts like a magnet where others are concerned.

This broad-mindedness is the quality of a human body and gets multiplied with the awakening of the Kuṇḍalinī. This is she manifestation of divinity. But, those people who remain in `artificial' environments only, they cannot enjoy this Bliss. Your Kuṇḍalinī has been awakened; and it has pierced the apex of the brain (Brahmarandhra); but still the heart also has to feel `awakened'. In case one's heart is like a stone and he is unable to shower Love on any one; he uses unpleasant language in conversation with others and is very particular to stress that he himself is really someone special; then he is not fit for becoming a Sahaja Yogi. Of course, such is the nature of certain people. Many a time, I have observed that before Myself, some of you try to push others or frown upon them with anger, etc. When someone speaks harshly to little children, then I feel a stab on My heart. Tell Me, in Sahaja Yogi, should not there be exhibition of loving feelings? People who are the offsprings of the same Mother very often fail to realise that they are the children of their Mother in reality. This fact is well-known to you. Then, why should you have the feeling that someone else is superior or inferior to you. Are you without blemish and capable of being such a judge? People talk of universal brotherhood of man but is this feasible if we don't love each other as we should? At the moment, all I have to say is that you must use Introspection and Discrimination and rid yourself of such `poison' as it is only then that you will make a real Sahaja Yogi.

In case a Sahaja Yogi comes to your place, invite him as if he is one of our own brothers. Look after him nicely. This will purify your household. I cannot understand how and why Sahaja Yogis form `groups' as with every passing moment your position improves or deteriorates. Such formations can lead to total annihilation of the Self. You should try to own whatever is good in others and ignore what is not so as this can be looked into by Me. In meditation, you will realise that this is the Door to ETERNAL BLISS.

One who remembers you always MOTHER NIRMALA

India has now won back its democracy and the leaders are talking of Gandhiji. That is a very big step forwards towards the new style of government. Gandhiji believed in LOVE of God. He believed in Dharma.

He believed in integration.

Contents: 1977-06-00 Letter on Guru Pūrnimā (likely Hindi or Marathi), London, UK

My dear Children Sahaj Yogis, I am happy to learn you are celebrating Guru Pūrnimā on 1st July.

It is very hard to be a Mother and a Guru. Mother is the Guru of Gurus. Mother has to be a Guru to her children but She does not perform this duty the way the Guru does. She reduces the distance between Her disciples and Herself by treating them as Her children her own part and parcel. But, Oh! My children, you are really born out of My Sahasrāra. I conceived you in My heart and gave you the new birth through the Brahmarandhra. The Ganges of My love has carried you into the realm of collective consciousness.

This love of Mine is too great for My human body. It nourishes you, soothes you and gives you security.

Gradually it opens your awareness to bliss and joy. But this love also corrects you and prunes you. It guides you and directs you. It reveals itself in the form of True Knowledge. It absorbs your shocks and settles you like a gliding leaf on the hard surface of truth. It strengthens you to fulfil your aspirations of reaching spiritual heights.

After all what is the Guru principle? It is that aspect of this Divine Love that guides and warns, which gives you the dos and don'ts. Because if human beings fail, they become Rākshasa and Dānavas, which is a fact.

All your ancient scriptures are singing praise of the incarnations as Gurus. Dattātreya, the three fold innocence that guides the path of Dharma. There are ten basic Dharmas of human beings. They must be guarded, respected and are to be identified with Tadātmya.

There is no compromise but human intelligence gives ideas by which human societies have gone into horrible conditions. They play of mind takes us to sin and we become insensitive to sin.

Today I want you to resolve that you all will become absolutely Dharmic. It is hard to be a Dharmic.

The society and the environment forces you to be Adharmic. You are born in innocence and later you go on compromising and accepting Adharmic patterns as normal.

For a Sahaj Yogi, it is difficult to be Adharmic. If he tries to do a wrong thing, he is corrected by the vibrations. But if you go on killing your awakened conscience you are free to do so and kill all your chances of ascent.

One aspect I would emphasizes this time. “Do not commit Adultery" (“pardareshu...") Christ went further to say that, “You should not have a adulterous heart or mind" because you are Self-realised. Your behaviour pattern moves from inward to outside. Introspect yourself. Do not confuse your lust with `Love'.

I have heard prostitutes singing the love song of separation.

They are the ones who create the agony of separation for a Gṛuhalakṣhmī and act as the oppressed. Be careful you are not acting and playing the games of Adultery. The sin becomes subtler and subtler with sophistication.

Respect your marriage institution. Women have to be Gṛuha-lakṣhmīs. Firstly she has to be dedicated and completely fidel. Secondly she is to be worshipped like a Gṛuhalakṣhmī. This is the double meaning of yatr naryestu pujete. The word pujete means the one who is worshipable and is also worshipped.

In Sahaj Yoga you have to forget the past as you have been bathed with Divine Love, like a newly born baby. Purity of heart expressed as fidelity in marriage for both husband & wife is the most enjoyable virtue and is the most powerful. When you understand the purity of relationship, you enjoy them the most. You do not confuse your sensitivity to joy. Your mother is a mother and wife is a wife. Here in the West, it is all becoming a confusion. Very young girl are marrying old men and vice versa. It is all the game of money. If you have too much then stupidity becomes the pattern of the society. They become so blind that they call it Love.

This stupidity is very very dangerous. Beware of it. Steady your attention by keeping your eyes on the Mother Earth. Thus you get the loving bandhan of your Nani and you become free of enslavement to your lust.

May be some of the marriages are not alright but exceptions should not create a mass disturbance.

They should suffer it for the masses. Once the citadel of virtue starts tumbling down, the whole building of Sahaj Yogis will tipple down and who can suffer, but this mind which does not touch you who is a witness. Enjoy the tragedy of your life as a witness and think of what image you create for others to follow.

Realise what is the role of a Sahaja Yogi in this disturbed self-destroying world? Thus arise into new role.

There are other `Dharmas', all very important, meditate on them. I find My love reflected in your shining Dharmic eyes.

With all My blessings to you all, Yours as ever always remembering your all Your Mother, NIRMALA

Contents: 1977-06-30 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Guru Pūrnimā Day, (unlikely) Caxton Hall, London, UK

So when you get your Realisation, first and foremost thing you must know about your physical Self, which is not known to you so far. As soon as you jump into the unconscious you have witnessed that you come to know about your physical being, first about yourself. You come to know what is your physical problem, where are you suffering. Automatically you know that this is what you are suffering from. You don't have to go to a doctor to ask him what are you suffering from. Supposing your Nābhī Chakra is catching, you know that there is trouble in the stomach. If you progress a little more with the frequencies of that immediately you will know that it is in this part. Even on the finger, on the right hand side if you get burning more on the left hand side of the finger then you must know that the trouble is more on the left hand side than on the right hand side. By practice you understand exactly what kind of a trouble it is.

But after some time you just say that it is the trouble and that [UNCLEAR it] is what it is. It is like a computer you become.

So the Self-knowledge, which is first experienced, becomes the actualisation. This we can say is the second stage. But definitely in the first stage you get the experience of your physical being. Now see the beauty of it, how it is beautifully done. When you put your hands towards Me you understand your position, first of all. You do not realise Me, but you realise your Self. Immediately you feel the burning or you feel the cooling, or you feel the smarting, or tingling, or whatever it is. All that it is not indicative of Me but is all [UNCLEAR indicative/indicating] of you. Then by the vibrations that are flowing through My [UNCLEAR being] they are corrected. All these problems are corrected. Then when your machine is corrected, then the same [UNCLEAR wash] machine that Myself emits the vibrations or you receive the vibrations which are really Me. But that to an extent... to that extent, which you have achieved the clarity and the sensitivity.

On the other hand, when you want to know about the health of other people, then your machine does not feel your problems but feels more the problems of another person. And once you have corrected the problems of the another person then you start feeling your own problems. How beautifully it is arranged, you see, so that you [UNCLEAR are to/have to] you are compelled to cure another person. If you do not cure the other person you cannot feel yourself. That is how the unconscious is trying to guide you, how to be universally aware. This is the beauty.

Now, to know about our autonomous nervous system, about sympathetic nervous system, even the doctors have to use at least hundred days to take your cardiogram, to take your blood pressures and to pass you through all pathological tests and this test and that test and you have to do all kinds of things and lots of money is to be spent, still one [UNCLEAR does not] knows if they can really say this is this.

But the Self-knowledge is so correct, that even a child can say this is the thing. Now it's not only the knowledge... For example now if you have eyes, if we can see something, is not that we can see it, but by seeing it, we can correct our movement, we can correct our vision. Supposing something is lying there and we have got the light in our eyes, we can see it.

So we will not topple down over that. In the same way, in Sahaja Yoga, when you come to know about your physical elements and physical troubles you also have a power to correct it. You can correct it only by paying attention to that part, because your attention is now enlightened by God's love. You just pay your attention to that and you can do it. This maybe at a later stage, you can say. But in the earlier stages, even if you move your fingers in clockwise manner in that part, if you try to take out that trouble you can, by various methods of putting that trouble into the matter, which is created out of five elements. And the trouble also your obstruction is also out of that.

When all these elements are in balance there is no problem. But when the balance is lost in them you get into trouble.

So when in your body that the balances is lost whatever it is a trouble is thrown out into that element and that's how the balance is established and you feel quite all right.

So you have the knowledge of your physical being, for which you do not need a doctor or you do not need to go to a laboratory to be a guinea pig.

Secondly you know about your mental being. Mentally you understand that you like someone or you hate someone. But you do not know why. But after Realisation you can say by vibrations that you somehow [UNCLEAR rather] cannot stand that another person. Why? Because he's giving you heat vibrations. In the beginning the dislike was in such an abstract form that you could not understand why you just can't stand that person, though he is a nice person. But you don't like that person because that person is emitting such and such vibrations, which are against the Divine vibrations, if you had any. Or if you were of the same type you would like.

So mentally also you understand [UNCLEAR emotionally] that why you somehow from inside, intuitively you call it, you don't like a person. Or you go to some house... You don't like that house at all. You feel terrible in that house, but you don't know why you feel outside like that when the house is so beautiful. Then through vibrations you can immediately find out what is the reason and you'll find out on your hands that [UNCLEAR there is/theirs] Āgñyā is burning.

So you know what's the problem there. Now... now you can correct that. If the person is cooperative, you can tell that person that such and such thing is there let's just get rid of it. And if you become an expert, even without telling him you can get rid of the trouble.

So the knowledge of your behaviour outside emotional behaviour or emotional outburst for anything is understood through Self-realisation, that you understand why yourself, you are behaving in a particular manner. Moreover, supposing you are a possessed person, you get a possessed feeling. You go outside, you get headache, you feel funny, you get [UNCLEAR fainting], you start fighting, you become horrid, people don't understand, you don't understand, you get confused. But with Self-realisation you know that you have been invaded by some sort of spirit and you know how to take it out. And once you take it out you feel completely relieved and that's how you know your emotional Self if it is being attacked.

In the hand, for example, after Realisation, you get more vibrations on the right hand side and less on the left hand side. Immediately you understand that Mister Ego is trying to press the Superego.

So you can balance it by putting your Ego hand on your head and putting the left hand towards the Divine force that you give more force into this and you can balance it.

So you understand your Ego and Superego more. That's how you understand your inner being. This is still in the gross form, still in the gross form you are understanding yourself physically and mentally.

Now [UNCLEAR intellect] also is charmed or we shall say enlightened by Self-realisation. Whatever you read before Self-realisation you get a very superficial idea of the whole thing. But once you are Self-realised you think `oh, this is the thing that they were saying about' and that you must have noticed yourself that whatever you read you know which is to be accepted and which is to be discarded as false.

You laugh at foolish statements and you accept those things, which are regarded [UNCLEAR as naive and foolish] as the absolute truths. Your priorities change, your [UNCLEAR proprieties] change and you become a person absolutely one with the absolute reality. Because if you try to accept anything falsehood you immediately start getting burning in your hand. [UNCLEAR to what extent/to an extent] It helps you to an extent, because it has to maintain your freedom.

So Self-realisation helps you to a very great extent. Unless and until, deliberately, you [UNCLEAR want] refusing all the messages from the reality, it goes on helping you. But still you go on, sort of defying it, then naturally it disappears, you lose the power of getting the messages. But this is why it is Self-realisation because not only the Self-knowledge you get, but you know how to correct yourself.

Now, people create. They create things, they think they are great artists... They cannot explain how it happens. And there are people who appreciate also, they don't understand why they appreciate a particular art or why they do not, a particular type of thing. But when you see [UNCLEAR universally] when the greatest [UNCLEAR cognizers] sit down and appreciate an art, then an ordinary Sahaja Yogi can go and see and tell exactly if the art is aesthetically rich or not, because the vibrations will immediately tell you. If there was even the slightest thing from that part [UNCLEAR you'll/we'll] find terrible vibrations coming. If it is completely harmonious, absolutely in tune with reality, which is joy, complete joy giving quality if it has got in its perfection, then you get the vibrations that are congenial to you, not only congenial, but are overpoweringly joy-giving.

Sometimes you feel the flood of joy coming over you, dropping throughout and flowing over your being, completely cooling and soothing. And that's how we decide about an art, artist or an art piece that whether it is real creativity or not.

So you understand the art created by others. But supposing you want to create... If you already have the technique, well and good... Then the artist will find that he starts creating some fantastic things which he could never have dreamt of and continuously he will go on creating.

So he taps or we can say reaches that source. Because if you find even the greatest of greatest artists, they will create about, say, ten pieces nicely, but at his thirty will be useless. But if he becomes a Sahaja Yogi not even one he will be creating that will be useless. All of them would be first class, the reason being that he is one with the source, so no question of making any mistakes. But the people who just get a glimpse, once, twice, trice, might be misguided and so they can make mistakes.

But an artist who is a Sahaja Yogi is there at the source and full with the technique. In doing any work outside, say in your business, through Self-realisation you get that confidence of your being. You feel confident because you are part of that life, light and you feel so relaxed because you are just a drop on the ocean.

So you are not thinking of cheating others. You are not thinking of bluffing. You are not thinking of all these useless activities into which people indulge and ruin their health and ruin the health of other people who come in contact with them. They have never a very healthy relationship between such people.

You may cheat a person for one day, you may cheat him for three days, but later on the relationship becomes very unhealthy.

So even in your business relationship you find that you understand the power of Self. You experience the power of Self and because of that experience you rise in your Dharma, in your sustenance. And when a person stands on his sustenance, you see, such a man has a very powerful personality. And he, when he tries to do business, then people depend on him, rely on him and he is the best businessman because he is not only helped by his own powers, but at the time all the powers of the unconscious are at his disposal.

So by knowing yourself, you develop your confidence and you know others and dealing with them. Even if you are cheated, say, once and twice, you will know that you are never cheated. On the other hand, the other person who tries to cheat you gets cheated. It works out like that, that's the magic of unconscious! Now, what is the knowledge in a business? That you get the knowledge of creating wealth out of nothing. This is the beauty of Self-realisation, that you can create wealth out of nothing, like an artist does. By little [UNCLEAR tilting], here and there, suddenly you find the same thing, which could not have materialised into wealth, is working wonders. In India there was one gentleman who got his Realisation and he found out somehow that we make small little baskets, in India they worth nothing and he thought that in America they will be selling like hot cakes. [UNCLEAR Somehow/Other], you see, it came into his head and when he started exporting them, today he is one of the richest men in India and he started with very ordinary things. Because of Self-realisation, you see, you can penetrate into your own being and see at a thing as others would appreciate. For example, by Self-realisation now I, though I am an Indian born, I can become an Englishman through collective consciousness. I can know what an Englishman wants, but normally an Indian can't. Now the [UNCLEAR plight/pride] of Indian export is that they are exporting things to England, thinking you are all Indians. [UNCLEAR Even] they could be English by any chance, they [UNCLEAR can/can't] export the things that you really need here.

So they will send you [UNCLEAR six yard] sarīs [UNCLEAR are useless] with such horrid colours, which you think horrid, which Indians think are great.

So you can identify yourself with another person, with his ideologies, with his ideas and can handle the needs of other nations, other people much better.

You see, we sell something, when others need something. Normally people sell it because they think this is to be sold. But by Sahaja Yoga only you can do this kind of a thing even to the material side of it. How Sahaja Yoga helps is an example [UNCLEAR that you] how you understand your surroundings, which formerly you were not able to understand, but now with Self-realisation you understand, because you can identify yourself with another personality. And that's once you start understanding others outside, then you start understanding the outside life, so-called outside, that is not yourself, but it is actually part and parcel of your being. And that is how the whole thing becomes a homogenous thing.

Now, the greatest advantage of Sahaja Yoga is, the greatest of all, is that you know the techniques of correction. People are realised in this world, many are born realised but they do not know the technique.

How to correct themselves, how to use their vibrations... They don't even know that they have vibrations, so many of them.

So, the Sahaja Yoga gives you all the technique how to use those vibrations, how to correct yourself. Because of this a person who is a Sahaja Yogi can become Dharmic. I do not mean any particular religion, [UNCLEAR which you now] understand very well, but your sustenance power by which you sustain yourself to be... yourself. Because unless and until [UNCLEAR you know] what is wrong and what is good, what is absurd and what is congenial for Divine, how will you be able to decide? And that deciding power is dawned upon you, You see, these people don't understand what I mean by “dawned upon you” but you people understand that, that you can feel it, that this is not proper, is not to be done. If you do it, you know you have done wrong, because immediately you know through your vibrations that you have lost it. Or something has happened to your vibrations, or you are a little confused and you find it out.

So this is the greatest thing that can happen, that you know what is good and what is not. Is not question of matter of opinion [UNCLEAR with you anymore] but it is a fact. That is why it is Self-realisation. Because [UNCLEAR itself/it's sense] is a part of the Absolute you must get the values of absoluteness in you. And if you can really evaluate everything in relation to Absolute you have no problems, that is what is Self-realisation. What a technique! What an advancement! That so far everything is a confusion. You don't know whether this is right, that is right, this part of the culture is all right, or that part of the culture all right, [UNCLEAR whether] this what they say is all right, or what these people say all right, all kinds of ideas, confused ideas have come up... Everybody has written books, anybody who felt like writing, anybody who have five [UNCLEAR pounds] can write a book. Now what to believe, what not to believe, where to go, what to do? All the confusion gets sorted out, because you are now on a pedestal to see the confusion very clearly and your own pedestal, too. That is why it is Self-knowledge because you know what is your sustaining power.

So you know the beginning of your spiritual life. Then also you know what others are doing to harm their Dharmic life.

Sometimes they are really troublesome to you. But gradually you start sympathizing with them, that they do not know what is Dharma, they're angry with you because they are suffering from an unconscious inferiority complex. They think: `Look at this people, they are saving their money, they are not wasting their money into these things,' so they are angry with you.

Sometimes they think `They have got their family life quite intact,' so they are angry with you.

Sometimes they find you're very happy people, so they are angry with you. What Christ have done? Did He do any wrong to anyone. He only cured people, what else did He do that He was crucified so badly and so brutally along with the thieves? Only thing that He did was [UNCLEAR] all their ego was hurt. He just said: “Because I am the Light, I am the Path." Only for saying that much, He was crucified, because they couldn't bear anybody saying that to them. When such a great incarnation comes in also so far in the history of this world and universe nobody recognized them and they were just a waste and all were misused by all the people. When they died, of course, they were so-called, you see, sort of worshipped, without any connection being established when they lived. But only through Sahaja Yoga and your Self-realisation through Sahaja Yoga now you can make out who is the person who is really an incarnation and who is really a realised Soul. This is the first time you can recognize Christ. Anybody who says `I'm Christ' you are not going to believe him, because you can recognize. Because the instrument that is your Self, that light is now burning within you and you can see through that. Because you are really enlightened. That's why it is Self-realisation.

Otherwise so far, you see, anywhere great men were born; Socrates, just what happened to him? And what did he do? I mean, just think of it! He did not do anything wrong! Galileo, anybody... because never truth was accepted by people who were not realised. They cannot, because they do not have the power to bear the truth. And that's why always, who propounded the truth was killed by people who really did not want to commit a sin, but out of ignorance they did it.

So now you are enlightened, you are wiser and your ignorance is removed. Now you have the light. That's why it is Self-realisation.

Now through your Self-realisation you can feel the pain of others. Supposing now you are born an Englishman.

The average Englishman will feel unhappy because some Englishman is punished [UNCLEAR somewhere]. But a Sahaja Yogi Englishman will not, if he knows that he was a brute and he should have been... Because he detaches himself from that misidentification, as far as a particular nationality is concerned, because somebody [if] is an Englishman or an Indian he should be excused... It is a very limited view of the whole thing. Why? Because after all we are all human beings. Anywhere in the whole world, wherever anybody tries to dominate and destroy the innocent human beings that are created by God is to be punished, whether he is an Indian, Englishman or anyone... Such a generous light enlightens your [UNCLEAR path/heart] and you become a different person. For example we can say [of] Abraham Lincoln, a man we call him very great. What was the thing about him? He was very big. Why? Because he could see that when I do not want to be enslaved, why should I have a slave? So you [UNCLEAR have reached/are placed] higher only because you have stepped into the realm of Self. Otherwise you cannot, otherwise you are misidentified all the time: I am this, I am that, but you are not Self. If you become Self then universally you accept whatever is the truth, then you do not misidentify, your Self with things.

..... [UNCLEAR actually] you are not satisfied. On the contrary, when you try to do something you feel all these three forces [are] very beautifully balanced are helping you. And you're doing the whole thing, as you say, with all your heart, with all your mind and with all your body. All integrated so beautifully and balanced, that there is no problem for you doing that. You do not feel hesitant about it if once you are established in your Self power.

So by Self-realisation you feel the power of Self.

Now power doesn't mean domination by any chance, but it means the balancing power. Gradually you start discovering around you how you help others by your balanced personality. Then you also discover that you [UNCLEAR heal] help the atmosphere, help the nature, after the light of Self has come into you.

You find that you become a vehicle for the unconscious, which flows into the matter. This [UNCLEAR was/has] never done by human beings before, that they could flow the unconscious into matter. Now you do, because you can see that by your giving vibrations you can make some flowers so very fragrant, so very beautiful, some trees giving so much of fruits, some cows giving more milk, that you're surprised how you have given this power of Divine Love from the unconscious to the nature.

So far man has been only [UNCLEAR abstracting/obstructing] power, or getting, gaining something from that. But no one has ever been able to give it any power to the nature that surrounds them. By giving power you mean that you give the vibrations to those which are other things, not human beings, like all other living things, like plants and animals. And you find that they also change in their productivity, in their beauty, in their taste, in their colour, in their glow... That is how you enrich this Mother Earth from whom you have got [UNCLEAR so much].

When there are Sahaja Yogis together, if they live together, when they recite mantras and when they sing the praise of God, when they say prayer to God, the atmosphere itself changes. There is a change in the metabolism of the whole atmosphere that you can feel by the working of it. If you try that, supposing some Sahaja Yogis go and visit a country where there is a lot of strife is going on, problems are going on, immediately you'll find there will be a balance established, there will be peace established only by the presence of the Sahaja Yogis. That is how you realise how in so many ways the Self manifests itself when we become identified [UNCLEAR with it]. Why is it that so far the Self has not identified? Because it had no vehicle. You provide the vehicle and that's how the Self becomes knowledgeable to you, you get the knowledge of the Self and you give that knowledge as vibrations to others.

There are so many things one can say about Self-realisation, which you can tell from your own experience, how you have been able to know and verify [UNCLEAR various things]. Now take the case of [UNCLEAR Bart] he didn't know much of Indian music, he had never studied them, had never heard it, but now he's understanding the beauty of that music and he knows what is going on in that music. In the same way, an Indian who has never heard English music, say your symphonies, he doesn't understand what is the beauty in it, because that has come from the unconscious and now once he becomes Self-realised he immediately recognizes the unconscious, the joy giving unconscious which is hidden in those beautiful notes, which are beautifully [UNCLEAR powered] and integrated through the instrument of that artist [UNCLEAR who has created it]. Now whether he's an Indian, whether he's an German or an English makes no difference. But the unconscious has used that [UNCLEAR creator] but that has been used partially. Sahaja Yogi can immediately make out which note is not good, which is striking, which is too much heavy, which is not in balance, which is creating a disharmony, because he is now an instrument which records, judges and also emits that what is reality, which is joy giving.

I have to again stress one more very important aspect of Self-realisation. Self exists in the heart of human beings. I mean, it is reflected in the heart.

So a Sahaja Yogi who is realised and is depending on his heart or is trying to enrich his heart is definitely a more sensitive person. By rationality, by intellectual pursuits, of course you can accept Sahaja Yoga better. But a person who can feel it through the heart, the feeling of oneness with your heart, surrendering yourself to your heart, humbling down your intellect before your heart, that's the temple of the Self, where the Self when it enlightens the heart, the heart is reflected in the brain. When the integration between [the] heart and the brain is completely established, then a complete integration between your intellect and the Self takes place. That is when you start getting the knowledge from the Self. This is at a latter stage, when you start receiving knowledge from [the] Self.

Not only the discriminatory knowledge, but knowledge of all the things. Whatever you want to know will be there. You just become a sort of a panoramic screen and you are surprised how the unconscious is throwing everything on your brain and you are surprised what knowledge... "Oh Lord, such a lot I haven't [UNCLEAR known] just through this" and when you start seeing it you are not afraid of ignorance or of ignorant people, because you see that so clearly thrown before your vision of awareness that you start recording it and seeing it, telling it, verifying it and using it with all the confidence. And that is a time I feel that Sahaja Yogi understands much more.

Today is the day when [UNCLEAR the/a] Mother is being worshipped as a Guru and is a very unique thing.

So far mostly the Gurus have been men. [I] too has a Guru and his name is Dattātreya. And this Guru is also created by Ādi Shakti Herself. It's a very funny relationship that exists because He is the father, He is the son, He is the brother, all the sublime relationships that can exist between a Guru and a disciple who is a lady, who is a woman.

Now, this Guru was created when the world was created itself. Because [UNCLEAR we one] had to create a Guru before the world was created in Vaikuntha stage only. But then He did incarnated many a times. At the time of Rāma, very early, even before Rāma came into this world, much earlier than that, He was created by Satī –'good wife' Anasūyā. She was Herself a part of the Ādi Shakti, who created Him out of the essences, the innocence of Brahmā, Viṣhṇu and Maheśh. There's a [UNCLEAR legend] about it which I will tell you some time. And She created Him, actually She created Him so She is the Mother.

But then, She becomes the Guru. When She is born as Sītā, He becomes the Father.

So Father is her Guru. Then, when Rāja Janaka is born as Mohammed Sahib, then She becomes again the daughter. But when He is born as Nanaka, then She becomes his sister.

So the relationship exists and whenever He is born, She is born in a way that, you see, that relationship is kept as a blind relationship. I [UNCLEAR need/mean] to say that they are never born as husband and wife.

But this is the first time I would say that I become a Guru. I've never been a Guru in My previous lives. Guru means a person who tries to help the evolving souls to evolve. Helps the people who are trying to swim ashore the shore of Kingdom of God by their guidance. This is a Guru. This time only a Mother had to become a Guru. Because they being men, they were a bit too harsh and when it has to be an en masse movement, it was necessary that a Mother had to represent the Guru.

So, I had to come as a Guru to human beings and talk to you and tell you in a motherly way. But a Mother's position is the worst when She becomes the Guru. Because children take Mother for granted.

And they take always a great advantage of the Mother. They can talk quite rudely to a Mother but not to a teacher. They can be quite arrogant and can be quite quarrelling with the Mother, because that is the relationship of the Mother. But before a Guru you don't even raise your eyes.

So, this is a more difficult Gurudom than a normal one, to be a Mother and to give you birth and to guide you, because [is] the most hateful thing for Mother is to hurt the child. Even when he's doing wrong, She feels hurt. But a Guru does not. He won't mind slashing you out in case you are doing wrong. He [UNCLEAR won't mind/he even don't mind] throwing you down from a hill if you have done wrong. He don't mind slapping you if you have done wrong. But for a Mother it is a very difficult task. But a Mother [UNCLEAR does it] to understand the children whom She has given Realisation.

So I am the Guru and also a Mother.

Today is the day peoples, this is created by human beings and not by God, as Guru Pūrnimā. Because as God has created days of [UNCLEAR their advent], human beings have created days of their surrendering.

So this is the day when you have to give something to the Guru. And Guru does not have to give anything to you. This is the time you have to say what you are going to give, what you are going to do for your Guru. Because so far the Guru has been giving. If you are in meditation supposing you say we'll meditate because Guru Pūrnimā is there. That's not the way the Guru Pūrnimā is to be celebrated, because if you meditate you are taking from Me. If you try to correct yourself you are taking from Me. If you are going to get cured you are taking from Me.

So now what can you do for Me? Is the point you have to think about. What can you do? Now I have sent the same question to India, [UNCLEAR] I asked them to find out what can you do for Me. You will say: Mother, what can we do? After all, what are we? That's a way of evading the issue. But if you really want to see, you can do a lot and that is what it is that you are My witness. You are My publicity.

So today you have to take some vows. And you have to say that we are going to do these things. We are going to talk about Sahaja Yoga, we are going to propagate it, we are going to spread it and what may come we are going to surrender ourselves to Mother even if She's, supposing, scolds us, or says anything it is for our own good and we are not going to get confused. And that's how you have to absolutely vow that you are going to dedicate yourself to Sahaja Yoga to help others, to emancipate and to create atmosphere for the completion of this universe, of this creation for that [UNCLEAR full, full] day when you will say that the Kingdom of God has been brought on this earth.

So today is not the day for Me to give, but for you. You have to announce. For example if [UNCLEAR you see] there is somebody who is in India, I do not know his position here, but supposing there is someone you want to celebrate or you want to reciprocate, then what they do: they write in the newspaper that such and such man has done so much for us, so, we thank him very much for this. In the paper you see, you get a complete [UNCLEAR threefold] newspapers put together. You will find all the such advertisement appear all like that. You see, so this is how you do it that you tell people, talk to them and do it in this way, so that the publicity for Sahaja Yoga spreads, that you surrender yourself as a vehicle of this machine, of this great work. This is what God wants you to do.

So today is the day of certain determinations that by such and such deed, or such and such time we will have these things and we will do these things. This is what you have today [to] decide and think about and this is what you have to manage and this is what you have to give. This is the only thing that you can give to God, is to become the instruments of God, complete surrendering yourselves to Him, so that this world of yours, this universe of yours, because I do not belong to any universe or any creation whatsoever.

It doesn't matter with Me if this creation is gone or lives. It is for you people. It is only for you that you have to have this creation and so only thing that you can do is to give Me the assurance that I should feel that by creating this universe and by this world God has not gone wrong and by giving you Realisation I have not gone wrong, because you are going to help in the complete emancipation of humanity.

This is what Guru Pūrnimā is. When you think on those lines, immediately you will know what you should do for next Guru Pūrnimā you have to plan it now.

So maybe I don't know what in India they will do. They may have a big lecture, arranging [UNCLEAR My absence], may arrange some big people to come and speak about Me and talk about Me. I do not know what they will be doing. Of course I do not like you to take out the procession as these people are taking out. But there may be some methods, which you can think of, by which you can announce the advent of a Guru as a Mother, who is trying to help the people to find what they are seeking.

Shri Mataji: I have to take the thorns, too. Can you tape record, this, My talk?

The Kundalini is like a rope with many threads. She rises by unfolding her coils piercing every Chakra.

The width of the Kundalini or the number of threads start diminishing as She ascends if the higher Chakras are not open or if the piercing points in the Chakras are constricted. If the lower Chakras are open the Kundalini rises as a whole, but if the higher Chakras are not open then the constriction does allow few threads to pass.

So it is very necessary to have at least the lower Chakras cleansed. In the western mind the higher Chakras are better but as their Mooladhara Chakra is in jeopardy, the force is very weak and their own sensitivity very poor.

When the Kundalini rises without any hurdles, it reaches the Āgñyā and spreads on the lower brain plate like a cloud, so a heaviness or sleepy feeling crawls. I say that first the mother puts you to sleep. The second feeling is when the vital force of Kundalini melts down over the Ida and Piñgalā. As if the cloud of the vital force starts pouring bliss. Gradually the head feels as if the lead is being taken off. One feels relaxed. Now again these two channels carry it down up to Nabhi and now a new force from Kundalini joins it.... Then the triple force rises which opens the Āgñyā. At this time eyes get closed. The pupils start dilating.

Now the head gets clearer but some feel a mild pressure or throbbing at Sahasrāra. The Āgñyā crossing creates the thoughtless awareness. You feel the silence of Sahasrāra. At Sahasrāra the Kundalini accumulates.

A kind of release starts as the Brahmarandhra (fontanelle bone) opens. It works slowly with some, but with most of them it is with a gush. At that moment, the Sādhaka (disciple) feels the Cool Breeze of the vibrations. This is “realisation". There are many who have got Jāgruti (awakening) and have got the curing power but they cannot remain in thoughtless awareness. They touch it for a minute or so. But the process of Kundalini oozing out works out with time and ultimately they reach a stage of doubtless awareness.

With some like X it was a quick permanent ascent, he felt as if two bath of ice fell on his hands and started melting. The cooling crawled into his Being. If the Viśhuddhi is doubtful or stretched and constricted, then, one does not feel the vibrations despite realisation, meaning the piercing of the Brahmarandhra.

The collective consciousness is felt even before the Kundalini pierces the Brahmarandhra fully. You start feeling the burning on the fingers and also the discriminating styles of collective consciousness are manifested.

My dear son Anil, I got your letter and was overjoyed to read that you have taken Sahaja Yoga to Abu Dhabi.

Yes, the answer to the question that you asked is that the real name of Sahaja Yoga is “Antar Yoga" [Inner Yoga which transforms you from within]. In this Yoga instant transformation of human beings takes place and only with the transformation this [Yoga] starts benefiting. And only then the Yogi can progress.

The life of a human being is based on the foundation of Dharma. If someone tells us to build a strong/solid house on a muddy foundation then what can we call such a person. As you can understand, this is common sense. The advantage of Sahaja Yoga is, howsoever is the foundation even after the house is built, the foundation can be rectified.

The only thing required is the will to do it. Sahaja Yoga is very powerful and at the same time equally loving.

That is why by using or practicing it we only will get benefitted and not it [Sahaja Yoga].

I had sent a letter for Nikkoo but possibly he wouldn't have got it since Pramila had left her house (shifted from her house). I had sent it on her address.

I hope that the amount your Mother loves you and respects you, you will also estimate (value) yourself accordingly.

I keep busy that is why the reply to your letter is delayed.

Yours always, Mā Nirmalā 1977-09-09 Letter (Hindi) (Original Writing)

I laugh aloud at the idea of writing a book! God saves the reader! Great news for all the Sahaja Yogis. The first public lecture is on the 24th of this month at Caxton Hall. We have advertised and have invited many people. Let us see how it fares.

The way you plunged into dangers, you have really hurt yourself too much. The other Sahaja Yogis in London are also of the same type. I have to work very hard I know.

My dear seekers, I'm thankful to Gavin Brown that he has been able to sum up some of the things I've said before and I don't have to go into all the details of what I told you last time.

Some of you have come for the first time here. [GAP] As he said Tantra is the technique. It's a technique and Yantra in Sanskrit language means the mechanism.

So the technique of the mechanism.

Now what is this mechanism we are talking about? Is there any mechanism outside or inside us? Or is it worked through some subtle method? All these questions should come to our mind if you are thinking and if you are true.

But I see that in the West people though are very much developed materially, they have sorted out very material questions and problems, they are very well equipped, but as far as spiritual life is concerned, they, they are very naive. Though they have such a great personality like Christ to follow about a model form but maybe because of an organized religion perhaps it was not possible for people who were seeking truly to penetrate into it through meditative methods.

So this Tantra or the technique which works out our Self-realisation is to be known, to be understood fully and the Yantra that works out you have already got and thanks go to Patrick who has made a beautiful sketch of that Yantra which is within you, is the instrument which is within you. But when we think of an instrument with our human mind we cannot think of an instrument which is a living instrument. It is beyond our conception to understand a living machine. This one is a living instrument within you.

When you see a tree sprouting out of a small little seed, working out its blossoming one has to know that there must be some technique of some mechanism that works out this beautiful tree to grow. And when we evolved from amoeba to this stage we have to think there must be some mechanism which thinks, understands, organizes, loves, which has brought about this human stage from that amoeba stage.

In the ancient India, long time, people had lots of time they went into themselves, into their being through meditative understanding. `They' had a glimpse of this mechanism and they talked about it and wrote about it and that's how this Yantra, the mechanism and the Tantra, the manoeuvring of it, the technique of it, came into being. But it was a secret science. It was a very secret science and it was kept hidden from general public.

It was used by very few great masters who lived in the jungle, had one or two disciples, worked on them for years together and taught them about the technique of Divine. They had to leave everything, their family, everyone, live with the Guru, lead a complete separate life and go into a complete transformation under the guidance of their loving Gurus.

This was in ancient times. And what did they achieve and what did they have, is all written in our scriptures. What do you expect out of Self-realisation is written in the Bible, in the Koran, in the Torah and also in all the Indian philosophy. Only people say it that in some of these scriptures it is written in a very secretive manner, under some words that, “I will appear before you as tongues of flames." Now nobody knows what's `tongues of flames' is. There are so many sentences which you can find out now that you go and read which nobody can explain unless and until they have had an experience of Kuṇḍalinī.

This is the Yantra, the mechanism, is the Kuṇḍalinī, is a living force within you, It exists, it is there, is placed for your Realisation, for your jumping into another awareness which is promised to you through various scriptures, through various incarnations. It is within you. Nobody told you lies. There is nothing but truth written in these books but it was to be guarded. It was to be made into secret because people would have used it for their purposes. And they have despite all that.

First, I would like to speak about Self-realisation because that is blissful and then answer you about the so-called Tāntrikas. I have to talk about it though I have told about these things in the previous lecture because there are many here that were not here.

I have now shown here all the centers and all the mechanism that is within us. We have also given you a picture of that, I have told you which are the deities sitting on all these different Chakras as we call the centers which have incarnated on this earth, have built up our being one by one gradually in different evolutionary processes and how we have become human beings, this I have told you last time.

This is the Yantra and the mechanism that is this Yantra, Kuṇḍalinī, is a holy mechanism. And this mechanism is specially created within the being of the One Main, of the One means the Macrocosm and we are the cells, all of us, in that. We were made aware as fishes of the soil, we became reptiles. We were made aware of the food available at the heights, we raised our head. Gradually we became human beings.

After this state we started thinking of God. We started thinking on something beyond. Man is the only animal who thinks of God and of searching. Is the man aware that he has to become something? Why is he so confused? Why is he under so tension? What is he searching? He is searching something of which he has a glimpse, a glimpse of that Joy he kept with him and that Joy comes from his Self, Ātmā, in his heart, he has not felt. He has not been able to manifest the power of his Self but there is a mechanism placed within him, properly built up inside, all the time present in all the human beings just like this as it is placed in the One Being. In His image it is also placed within you.

As I said last time that you are all built to be just like computers. Now the job is to put you to the Main's. That's why you are seeking. That's the only urge you have in life. All other urges are actually the side issues. You think you are searching in money, in position is a myth. Those who have money are dissatisfied, those who have positions are dissatisfied, everybody is dissatisfied. The satisfaction time only comes to you when you will reach the real thing which you are searching and the real thing is your Self and nothing else. All other things are useless because you are not searching anything else, you are only searching your Self and that Self is the reflection of God almighty, that is within your heart.

Now the mechanism that is placed within you is this beautiful thing inside which is placed inside your spinal cord and not outside except for the last Chakra which is in the red colour that is outside in the prostate [the pelvic plexus]. And this is a very, very important Chakra which controls the survival within us, I'm sorry the Pelvic plexus within us. It is very important because it is very sensitive and also it is very delicate because it is placed outside the spinal cord.

This mechanism that is placed outside the spinal cord, down below there, is the most important Chakra and was created first. When the creation started this was the first thing that was created and what does it emit holiness, innocence. It emits innocence. And the deity sitting on this, is the embodiment of innocence. This deity was created in another dimension and He is, you have seen there, is Śhrī Gaṇeśha.

This is the image of Śhrī Gaṇeśha that was created at that stage and what does it represent is the stage between the animal and the man and the head is that of the animal showing that an animal does not have any Ego, that the man is different from an animal, that the animal is innocent. He doesn't know what is sin, that's why he is innocent. Because you know what is sin that's why `you' are innocent but you can become the fire of damnation. He is innocence but [UNCLEAR only fire He's seldom]. [Slightly laughs.] And He incarnates too on this earth. He incarnated as Jesus Christ, Lord Jesus Christ. He took His form as Lord Jesus Christ and because He is innocent, He's made of that essence of Divine nature of God that we call as Param-tattwa, the highest essence of God. And that's why His body is also made out of that and that is the reason He could resurrect.

By reading Bible which was written by disciples of Christ how far can you go to understand Him? Because He was created beyond your thoughts, beyond your mind, in an unlimited Unconscious. And how can you with your limited mind understand Him or copy Him. It is said that even Brahmā, Viṣhṇu, Maheśh cannot reach Him. He is so pure. He is purity. He is innocence and He exists at that point and it is He at every point, every Chakra He bestows upon you the blessings of His innocence. Innocence was the first thing created on this Earth.

Before creating anything else it was innocence already there and He bestows that innocence by which you get your Self-realisation.

On the left hand side of this mechanism there are seven stratas. On the right hand side there are seven stratas, down below there are seven stratas and on top there are seven stratas. What are these stratas and what do they build? The left hand side Chakras, the left hand side channel which is called as Iḍā channel represents the subconscious, the subconscious mind within you. You listen to Me through your conscious mind and put it back into the subconscious mind. All your experiences go into the subconscious. That is the limit of your subconscious of present here. Beyond that gouge is your subconscious of previous lives and beyond that gouge is the collective subconscious.

When you listen to Me you have got a conscious mind which receives it at this moment and there is a preconscious mind which takes it to the subconscious. This preconscious mind is on the right hand side.

This also has got seven stratas on this side. Just now the preconscious mind is the future that you are thinking about. Beyond that is the supraconscious mind means all the ideas about future you have had before, many lives before. Those ideas are there. And beyond that is the collective supraconscious.

So, on the left hand side you have subconscious and the collective subconscious; on the right hand side: supraconscious and the collective supraconscious. Down below are the seven stratas of Hell. H-e-l-l.

Sometimes the words are so small that it doesn't register. If I say `supraconscious', then people say, “Ah! Mātājī has said `subconscious'." But `Hell' ! And Hell is a truth. It exists within us. It is there. And there are seven stratas of that also.

Conscious mind [on Suṣhumnā Nāḍī, central channel] also has got seven stratas which are built in within us through our different evolutionary processes. And these are the seven stratas which are placed here of the conscious mind and then you go on top of the head into super-conscious mind which is the subtle mind, is the eternal mind, the unconscious in which you have to move in seven stratas. You may say, “Shri Mataji it's too much!" But it's not. You are already built-in for that.

For example if I tell this light, `You have to get enlightened and cover the whole hall,' it will say, `Oh! It's too much.' No, it is built like that. You have to just press the button. It opens and works because it is built that way, has been organized that way, is placed that way that it works.

When we face things that seem difficult we think we have to do it and that's why we are worried. You don't have to worry: it's already done and it will be done also by the One who is organizing it. Only thing what we have to do is to witness. The One who has created this universe very well, the One who has created all the greenery then human being very well, He is the One who is going to do this for you and the time has come as Gavin has said it beautifully that the blossom time has come and it will work out.

But it's surprising you know, human beings sometimes I cannot understand. When I told that it is going to work out they said, “How can it be? It has to be difficult." Before even starting about it must you sit down with this idea on your head: `Oh! It's going to be very difficult.' I say it is the easiest and the simplest thing. Being so important it cannot be difficult. Anything important like your breathing if it becomes difficult and if you have to read about breathing, `How am I to breathe?' Now you go in books and see, `Now, you have to do like this.' By the time you take the book, you are out.

If you have to read about your Self-realisation then God saves the Self-realisation and God saves you.

It's your right that you are going to get your Self-realisation. I'm not pampering your ego. But that's how you have been made.

Even your ego which you are condemning every morning and evening was an essential part of this being.

Only `you' the human beings have evolved the ego to know something on their own.

So this mechanism was made specially in such a manner that through your ego and your superego you have become an `I' personality. Like people say, “This is Mister Kumar. This is X, this is Y." You become a separate identity from that big One personality of which you are just separate. And the consciousness of that comes to you that you are a separate identity and you have to see the oneness with that. And that is what is Self-realisation. Nothing else! That you become that. Not what you do but is the becoming of it. Like you say a seed becomes a flower. It becomes a flower. You don't, the seed doesn't go and read a book, `Oh! I know what it is.' Or it doesn't listen to any lecture of Mātājī or anything, it just becomes a flower. In the same way you have to become that and not just to be brain washed or to be done something else which I will tell you later how per misuse you can do in the name of Self-realisation. [Laughs.] So many of them are aware, it happened so. They know that.

But what happens you can know. What is the mechanism? How it works out? Let us see the positive side of it and then I will tell you the negative side.

There is a Kuṇḍalinī placed in that triangular bone that you can see pulsate. We have a doctor here he will say that, yes, he has seen it. You can see the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī very clearly. You can see the rising of the Kuṇḍalinī very clearly with your naked eyes. You can also feel it coming up. It comes.

How it comes? How it works out is another detailed program which I may be able to tell you later on or I have already told quite a lot about it.

This comes up, the Kuṇḍalinī and pierces your fontanelle bone. Pierces! What is this Kuṇḍalinī? It is a residual force within you. Is awareness which understands, thinks, loves and organizes, is an energy.

Now we cannot think, human beings cannot think of an energy that can think, love, organize. We cannot. This is the energy that comes up you can see the pulsation. You can see the bringing of it with your naked eye. That's what you can bring here. It comes up and pierces your fontanelle bone and you can feel the baptism that you become like a child because your fontanelle bone becomes very soft. I mean, but that doesn't mean that if you have a soft bone here, that doesn't mean that you are a Self-realised person. No.

When you enter not on left side or right hand side but when you enter onto the top, onto the first strata of the super-consciousness, then what happens? First thing that should happen to you is that you become one with the collective being. “You become” again I say. It is not lecturing, `We are all brothers and sisters. There should be no racism.' All this is lecturing. I'm not saying lecturing. It's `become'. How? When this thing enters through this into that subtle form you start feeling from your hands a Cool Breeze flowing. This is described in our scriptures. If you read even Christ has said, “Something passed out of My body when somebody touched Me." [Luke 8.46.] But in our scriptures it's given very, very clearly. Here, in some of them, for example I would say Shañkarā, Shañkarāchārya described that as Saundarya Lahari. He called it as Saundarya Lahari this force somewhere. He called as vibrations.

So many people are talking of vibrations but they don't know what they're talking.

These vibrations that flow from your hand are cool vibrations and also they understand, they think and heal other people. When you put your hand towards another person you start suddenly getting a burning here. Left hand side burning on this finger is the Viśhuddhi Chakra, is this one.

Now, if you know the deity who is there and if you take the name of that particular deity who is sitting here... If you know and if you are a realised Soul then only. If you are not realised you have no authority.

You have no authority to take to any mantra unless and until you are a realised Soul.

Supposing I give you some mantra. You must know it is a misleading because whatever is said, whatever is the center in danger or in trouble, you must get that one. The one who is not a realised Soul cannot make out what is the problem, where is the problem. And the one who is not realised if he is given the mantra, his mantra has no authority. Like if I want to go and see the Queen I must take a permission.

I must have some connection with her. I should be able to go and meet her. But if I go and meet her straight and say, `Oh! Queen, come along.' The way we call God sometimes is most surprising. You wouldn't even call any servant like that the way we call Him, `God, come along! Do this. This is my problem. What are you doing for me?' `I have faith in God' as if we have sort of we are getting obligations. As if He is obliged to us, `Oh! I have faith in God, Mother, then why did He miss it?' Who has faith? I mean, He exists. He's an eternal being. If you have faith in that, `you' are very false fine, not `He'. You cannot add to His Dom.

Any mantra is given to you just by any Dick, Tom and Harry. Anyone coming, “I'll give you a mantra." I'm going to tell you about them later on. All those mantras that are said are for the deities, were done by these Gurus as I told you in ancient times for very few people. They used to raise the Kuṇḍalinī very gradually. They used to take it from that seat which is the Mūlādhāra, not the Mūlādhāra Chakra, from that triangular bone and they used to raise it one by one.

For seven years it used to hang into one center then they would give one mantra, “All right, now, go and get it! Work it out! Cleanse it! Do it!" Then again another one. Then again another Chakra. All right. It has been done like that: very slow process.

As in India, you see, they said that they have to go to Kashi or Benares. They used to sell out their houses, everything and they knew that they may never return. Or even if they go they might take so many years to reach Benares that by that time they will be absolutely old people and they would not have energy to return. Now, if you have to go to Benares only thing what you can do is to go from here to Delhi and take a plane and go direct.

So `that' time is over and Kuṇḍalinī `now' can be worked out just like that because the time has come for you to become. There were never so many seekers in the world before I can tell you.

Only people who existed in the name of religion were orthodox, rabid, horrible people who crucified Christ, who killed Mohammad Sahib, who tortured Gnyāneshwara, who tortured Kabīra, who tortured of all the things Shañkarāchārya, Buddha, Mahāvīra, Yuri [UNCLEAR], everyone of them. All these horrid people in the name of religion tortured.

And today we have got this Satanic thing coming out of that hell. They have suffered there, you see, they were punished and after their punishment they are coming out. It's a double force. It's a new subtler method of befooling you people.

In Self-realisation you get complete tranquillity, the collective consciousness and you can manoeuvre this power yourself. It is `your' power that is manifested and nobody else. But as you have been to all these Satanic people, most of you have been, last time I saw it and when I told them [UNCLEAR that I tried], means I'm working very hard, you know it. I'm working very hard but some of them have really spoiled their path of Suṣhumnā, the central path.

So that is they have spoiled it that unless and until they give up all that it's not going to work out.

If you are truly seeking I'm there to work for you. You don't have to pay any money for it. No, never think of that because this is Divine and Divine cannot be sold in the market.

First thing that should come into your head as Christians specially that Christ has taken a hunter in his hand and hand it, beating those people. That's the only time He really lost his temper on them when they were selling the religion. And today all of them are selling it and you very, very humbly go and bow.

All kinds of these beggars and parasites have come in this country and all over the western countries.

They are nothing but beggars take it from Me. Worse than beggars they are the worst culprits.

So, this is what Self-realisation is and in Self-realisation you get all the blessings of God, gradually you go into thoughtless awareness and then into doubtless awareness which we call Nirvikalpa and then into Self-realisation completely. In that we have some people in India, they have met them, who are completely Self-realised and who, sitting down there, can work out the Kuṇḍalinī of other people. They are living in the family. They have got their children. They have got their grandchildren. And they are working it out.

You don't have to run away from it. No extremes are needed, nothing. It is `within you' and `within you' it is going to work out. These outside things and these extreme things are not needed. Just be normal people. God has created this world for you to enjoy. It is for your enjoyment, you see, these blessings that you have to feel through Self-realisation. When the light of the Self flows in you see the joy pouring. You see it pouring from your head downwards and you are just drenched.

All your tensions go. All your problems go away. The ego and superego which he has shown here [on the Chakra Chart] as the black and the yellow, both of them open up and you see they're going down. It happens. There is an imbalance, there is a, some sort of a, hurt in you.

Sometimes I can say there could a very great wound into you, could be there are some spies sitting in you, could be that you are possessed without knowing that you are possessed.

You don't know how these people have manoeuvred and I hope I will be able to tell you now how they have manoeuvred and what sort of horrid people they are.

I should take off Sūrya shoes perhaps.

So, about these horrid people now.

In India since long, if you say the origin of so-called Tantrism which is juxtaposition of real Tantra which is Sahaja Yoga, of the genuine Tantra. If Tantrism is to be considered as a genuine stuff then it is Sahaja Yoga.

But these Tantrisms, these so-called, came into being in our country since long. Ancient times when these Gurus were having those few disciples with them, three, four disciples were taken with great difficulties. But they were, after all, human beings.

They used to be competition with them and Guru would accept only one out of them or two out of them, would take them a little ahead and would then leave them out saying that, “No. We cannot treat you anymore. You cannot be helped. You'd better go away." Such a useless, half-baked person would come down to the public and would start a method by which `he' would put up a show against [UNCLEAR these fools]. This is the beginning I would say.

So he would now sit down and meditate.

Still, you know, as a Mother, I don't want to condemn all of them. I will give them a benefit of doubt and the benefit of doubt is this that when they were concentrating they tried to lift you into their Mūlādhāra Chakra which you cannot enter in, which is below the Kuṇḍalinī. This Mūlādhāra Chakra controls the sex. Why? Because it is innocent. It's a child and the child as he doesn't have sex that's why it is not contaminated by it. It is like a lotus coming out of the mud of sex.

In that lotus sits Śhrī Gaṇeśha. These people tried to peep into that thinking that through sex you might be able to see things and they might have seen, it is My own way of putting it, not seen completely but the trunk as you see. And they might have confused it, still I say, that trunk to be the Kuṇḍalinī.

When I tried to understand human beings I thought it may have been because how could man be just entering into hell directly with all that sex. It's too much to Me.

So by mistake maybe, that they saw this. All right? So first the Tāntrikas came in. Tāntrikas were the first. Then we have Tāntrikas, basically I'm telling you, these evil geniuses are. In the fact, you see, you cannot divide them into all geniuses but you can give a basic broad outline about these Tāntrikas.

Tāntrikas are the people who use sex for so-called Self-realisation. Māntrikas are the people who use mantras for so-called Self-realisation. Then there are [UNCLEAR Jakanikas] who use evil geniuses to be introduced as evil spirits into human beings, called as [UNCLEAR Janganikas]. Then Paiśhāchikas are the people who used supraconscious devils into human beings. They are over dynamic, overambitious sort of people. We have got Aghoris who taught them to put, say they can put a, put a diamond into their hands. Aghoris. Then we have got [UNCLEAR behunt]. [UNCLEAR Behunt] are the people who can do horrible horrible gestures, you see, they can pull their stomach in, push it here, push it there, all sorts of things they do. And we have also sexo-yogi. Minimum.

I have categorized them as that but I don't know how many sides of things there are because when it comes to evil they come and prosper like viruses. Viruses they are. And they know how to hit you off.

They themselves are destroying, they cannot see you constructing. They cannot see you evolve. That is one of the basic reasons where they are out and oldies.

So these Tāntrikas were started their jobs. In the Rāma's time, say about twelve hundred years back there was a Yagñya, a kind of a ceremony known as Ashvamedha. It's written in the books about that.

Even that, the books, the scriptures they ruined by saying that Ashvamedha was nothing else but was a sex act. The Shakti and Shiva, which is God who is innocent and His power the Shakti like light and the lamp or the sun and the sunlight. There also they introduced the symbol of sex.

This happened in the sixth century. It was at its heights Tantrism in our country, a complete bend.

was taken. Say Satjakuna [UNCLEAR]. It was to Khajuraho.

So much so they were influence people that all other scriptures were thrown into the rivers and Tantrism became the scripture of the Hindus.

Thank God, by organized religion at least you would not allow people to tamper too much with Bible.

Thought it was but not so much. It could have been. There is so much freedom, that licentiousness to do whatever you please with that scripture. To get...

Can you imagine? From this scripture they started spoiling in the sixth century. Now what was the historical background for that? That was the best time, best breeding time of these horrible people. Because at that time, as you too have very extreme type of orthodox people, Jainism, now we have a sect of people called as Jainism. Now, horrid. I mean, all of them are. But one of them, horrid things I can tell you, that they believe in vegetarianism to such an extent! It's horrid thing to tell you because, I've already told Gavin that for the first time I'll be shameless to tell you people, that they do not want to destroy even the insects that are in the filth. To them an insect [GAP].....

So that lots of bugs can bite him and take out his blood and they pay him lot of money. Is a fact. Even today they do sometimes in the villages. They think it's the greatest Puṇya, is the greatest.

What you say `Tapoyajña', means? Puṇya is a good deed, you see, religious deed, Is to make a man get inside a hut and bugs must come and they take the blood.

So these Jains, so-called vegetarians, horrid, they were the ministers you know.

Some way or other they became ministers.

So. And the Mahārājas, you know the word `raja' is for the King, were the Hindus. And Hindus as usual are very indifferent to religion.

Whatever one may say about it, I agree it is a very great country and all that but Hindus these days are even worse because now, they have all become English, you see. With English education all of them have become English. Westernized. They don't think we have anything in our country.

So these, that time, great Rājas who are so indifferent to religion, to their sustaining power, to understand what is in their scriptures, licentious and permissive like your Roman kings, horribly Rājas, once they used to put their money to some sort of an arrangement for all the licentious people around, so they thought of a very genius method, you see: build the temple of God and make all kinds of erotic pictures in the temple. Can you believe that thing? In the name of art. If art is pure as people say, why do you need this vulgarity? Horrible erotic things were created through big competitions.

Now you are having competitions in this country but that time, of course now you are also becoming Tāntrikas as far as erotic things are concerned, one better than the other. And they were given special prices, even Jagirs, as they call the lands, were given to those people, it's written in the history, for creating those pictures. Despite that, you see, despite all that provocations and despite all that temptations, you'll be amazed, the Konark, that art is departed.

There has been another thing, a simple thing is, “Not. We're `not' going to do it. On a temple we are `not' doing it." So these clever intelligent people, you see, they told them that, “If you do this, it will be good because all the dirt that is here should be placed there” you see, “and inside should be clean.

Outside we must accept to God that we are like this." This is a concession. See the brain, `This is a concession you must make what all dirty things you are doing you put them out there.' This was the, this was the historical side here. And that time these Tāntrikas were, you see, absolutely horrid they came. You have only one Soho. We have Sohos and Sohos and Sohos in that great country.

You won't believe when you see those things, you know, foreigners are surprised that in India such erotic things are there. Wherever there is religion, wherever there is a saint, these Satanic have to reach there to destroy all that is pure. That is their style, their `happiness'. This is a crucifixion of the purity.

And such temples were created and those Tāntrikas then came forward. They brought about all their women there for Konark. If you go there is the Chausath Bhavani Mandir, they call it “the sixty-four goddesses". Imagine Goddesses' temple! Now what do they do? Now what is the principle behind all that, you must know. It is a very secretive principle that they use. They establish the picture of a Goddess or create a statue of a Goddess in a chapel and before the Goddess they do Nirvicara, means sex act of sixteen varieties of different types. Horrible! In the beginning Śhrī Gaṇeśha gets angry. They get all kinds of blisters all around. They, they say that Kuṇḍalinī is angry. Kuṇḍalinī, why will She be angry? It is Śhrī Gaṇeśha who is angry, but in such a temper from the right and the left and they get all blisters. They start dancing, jumping, they behave like frogs, they have horrid things. They get blasted in the head, they get headaches, everything they get. But still they are adamant because it is said that, “You have to go further. It's a terrible task, it's a difficult task. These are your Karmas that are coming to torture you. You have to take out your Karmas. Through your sex you do better Karmas or bad Karmas." So they go on poor people.

Then, by that, beyond that what happens is deities slip off. They go away from there. The area is built-in. The realm of God from there disappears as light disappears in the darkness. They work in the night. They'll never work in the daytime. In the night they work and then they call the spirits. You can call them. Last time I told you what happens to you when you die and how the spirits are there and what are the horrible spirits that are hanging around us to enter into you.

So I will not go into the details of that but later on I'll tell you all about it. I'll tell you each and everything. You note it down.

So they start, they call the spirits. When they call the spirits, spirits have the lust in them, greed, they're greedy, you see, really dissatisfied and they manoeuvre them. They can give them the name of say `Rāma', then `Aim', `Hrīm', `Klīm', all sorts of names they can give to these spirits, these evil geniuses manage them. And then they put these spirits on the king, onto his big ministers. And these people are captured and possessed. And they say, “We are very erotic. We are running after, we used to run after only two women, now we are running after hundred women." Mad! They lose all their sense of Self. They have no understanding of what they are doing. Like mad they do. Even some saints can be affected but they get reactions physically. Saints if they indulge into it immediately they get reactions. They get reactions in the head, in the body. And the reactions could be very strong on them.

Sometimes they vomit too much.

So `these' people start putting those horrible sexes on you, capturing you, taking out your being.

In India there was a Tāntrika like that who amassed lot of money but his wife [UNCLEAR has pushed] him throughout and he built that horrible temple of that Konark [Temple near Puri]. If he had not put any erotic's there it would have been a beautiful temple but with that erotic you feel like vomiting all the time when you go. I mean, if you are healthy, you just can't bear to see those kinds of bathroom, the way it is done. Tomorrow they will ask us to watch these people sitting down there for the morning ablutions! Filth and filth and filth! The whole place is nothing but filth.

And then his own son defied him, this horrible Tāntrika. This Tāntrika was killed in a very funny manner which is worth reading how he was killed. And the son came down and he completed that temple [in legends the architect's son committed suicide jumping from the top of the temple] but he told the King that, “Your kingdom will disappear." All these, all these kings disappeared once for all. They had no children, they had nothing and they became just shamble and all of their temples were covered with stones, earth and they were just mounts.

Later on the English came there and some of them excavated and found out. They found it artistic, I don't know how they found it but it was there. But in Konark you will find the whole thing is so vulgar, so horrid, where the artists, poor things, had nothing to say. And I met the artists of that place who are living around. They said, “We are paying through our drones all these days for what our forefathers have done and we don't want to see that." Even today in India an unmarried man and an unmarried woman will never go to see a Konark. Now the only explanation they have is this, you'll be amazed, that after marriage Indian women are so innocent as that they're married quite young, they don't understand what is sex, so teach them how what is sex.

It is made for the marriage and only the husband and wife should go there. This is the only explanation our Indian artists could find out to give for that.

But we have to accept. You see, in every country there could be a Satanic force working. Why should we identify ourselves with those horrible Tāntrikas and why should we be ashamed of that? In Khajuraho the other Tantric place you will find there are some places where you find eroticas. But if you are alert and if you watch, these are kept in corners somewhere while the gods and goddesses have big form, back, very great attachment, such a thing.

So it never comes to your notice unless and until you are taken to it and shown out that this is an erotica.

But surprisingly most of the foreigners are specially Japanese bringing their camera from this angle, from this angle. Why don't they take their own photographs like that? What is there to go all the way to Konark to take those photographs? Shows your search! Shows what you are asking for! The way from here people take all the way those big, big, cameras and go round. They take photographs like various angles they look. What is there to take photographs? In that what is there to gain? Sex, animals know, everybody knows, dog knows. What is there to teach about sex? You have done so much of mentally that now there will be impotency. And in there, you know that, in America, the highest number impotent are there because of this kind of perversion and ruining your innocence within yourself.

Beware of it! This so-called freedom is nothing but abandonment of your sustenance of your Dharma that is within you. Is built-in. It is there. It exists. You cannot from, “Thou shall not commit adultery." Christ has said, “Not only adultery but I will say, `Thou shall not have adulterous eyes.' " And you see people, all the time they... And they say, “We are intelligent." What did happen? Where are you looking? Where are you seeing? Where is your attention? This human attention built up ages.

So much has been worked out. You have been brought from that level to this level today. Where are you getting? Into gutters, into filth, into dirt.

Rise! And see your glory. Have your self-respect. As a Mother, I tell you that. And these horrible Tāntrikas and Māntrikas who are teaching you all kinds of things like putting a Maṇḍala, the other day somebody told Me and putting your sex there. What is a Maṇḍala? Do you know is the aura of God? You are showing your sex to God! Have some brains at least if nothing else. It's the greatest shameful thing you are doing if you show your sex part to God. Are you all lunatics? Can't you understand? It's a ceremony! I get upset with those because you don't know. You will lose all your chances of Realisation. Your seeking is going to be lost completely, believe Me.

Stand in your own glory. Why should you run after women? Why should you run after men? If you are a glorious person, stand in your own image. That's the best way you are going to be a human being.

This kind of licentiousness and permissiveness is going to completely finish that Chakra in the Nābhī.

If you see that one has got ten petals which are built so carefully, delicately, beautifully, with love. Do not confuse love with licentious behaviour. It is `not'. It's sanctified love. I don't say you become Sannyāsin, not at all, I'm against that also, another extreme.

Then I'm going to tell you about sexo-yogis, the third time. The sexo-yogis start as a people who are suppressing their sex. They do not marry. [GAP] They use, they use the skull of a lady. They need skulls for that. To be in the subconscious you have to have a skull.

So they kill people, take out their skulls and keep it with them.

Some people are coming, please open door.

So the, they keep those skulls with them and those skulls they use it for drinking water, for eating food, all the time these skulls are there.

Now there is a very good story written by a great writer in India, Bankim Chandra [Chattopadhyay], is known as Kapal Kundala. This girl, there was a girl whom a Kapali [UNCLEAR Mahadji], he used to make her nude, he used to make her dance, he used to make her go in the sea and used to control his sex sitting before her. And there are several also, very sexual acts he would control also. He went on like that and ultimately he wants to kill that girl. That is the height of complete abstinence because you kill the person whom you were supposed to have. Just imagine, what perversion! What brain! What habits! I mean there's no limit to this. God has not given you freedom to break your head and to say that, `Oh, bull come and hit me!' And this girl was preserved and then someway or other she ran away and she got married to a man.

He visited her, brought her back and killed her.

These are the Kapali. If you don't listen to them, they will take you to the Shmashāna that is the burial ground, cut your head, take out your skull and keep it. They will see to it that you go to the subconscious strata and they handle you better there. They would like to die through their stamina. They do it.

So many of them are doing like that. Even today, you have no idea. And people are so much enamoured, so much under the obsession of these things are, that even if you tell them that your Gurus are doing like this and they have found out, still they will be there to kill you. Absolutely rabid people. They are possessed, brain-washed completely. And if some people should be saved, to say... I always say that if a sari keeps flying out, even if you could hold a little bit of it, we can save this sari.

The sanity must come to you to understand that these horrible methods are not going to give you Self-realisation. You must know what is Self-realisation.

Now some people think that flying in the air, jumping somewhere is something great. Which incarnation did? Did you hear any incarnation who walked... who sat like this and was floating in the air? Which incarnation did that and what are you going to do with floating in the air? You are going to create a problem on the traffic. These nonsensical things why should you do? There is in Pūna [Shivapur], they say there is one saint who died, you see and there is a stone, if there ten people take the name of the saint, it can come up. And you can put a finger, it can come up. I said, “With that what God should do?" Think of it! And when I went there I found out that there was a big spirit sitting there and he said, “I'm going to sit down here Mother. I'm not going to do [UNCLEAR other thing]." And the spirit of that horrible fellow is all the time sitting there. He doesn't want anything.

He just want to meet good people and sit down there and listen everybody's taking his name, calling him a saint. When he is not a saint why should we accept that he is a saint and be happy with it? Because human beings can do anything. They have given that power.

And moreover God is powerless before you because He cannot take away your freedom to be idiots or to be foolish or to be self-destroying. He cannot do it. He can only weep and cry, beg on you, `Please don't do it, please don't do it,' but He cannot stop it. That's the only problem. And that's why all of them have taken you. They have all come from somewhere like spiders. At least I know fifteen of them.

And three horrible women. They're all there making money, making money, befooling you.

Why do you need a Guru for telling you a mantra? Any Dick, Tom, Harry can tell you. You must see the result, the proof. What's happening out of it. You must think. You are intelligent people. You understand everything, why don't you understand this, `I'm possessed.' Are you under the complete obsession of such people? Or perhaps you have paid them so much money that you think, `Oh how we have paid so much now what, we should see through the whole thing.' Like in the drama you go and you don't like the drama, still when you have paid the money, then stand.

It's not that casual. It's a very serious thing. You are going into the den of devils, finishing your Kuṇḍalinī completely.

Now there are at least twenty-five people among you who will say that. It has happened to them.

I've been correcting them. I'm doing it. They get it back. I only feel sorry for one thing, that you have been genuine about your seeking. You have been genuinely seeking and I can assure you that I went to America in 1970 to warn on you but that time they were, all of them had become something special type of possessed. They would not listen to Me. I told Ravi Shankar. He said, “Mother you just don't go near them. They will eat you out." That out to have experiences of torn fulsome drugs.

In India how many people have seen the drugs, ask them, anyone of them? Ha! Do they even know what is the difference between bhang and this and that? These drugs and all these things were used by Tāntrikas. And they are out here. They have brought out that.

Things that go against your awareness whether drugs, alcohol, anything is `not' going to give you that higher awareness about which I'm saying. Don't waste your life. It's very precious. The most precious and the greatest time has come. Please respect yourself. And please understand your value. What you have learned before, find it out and do not waste it. You have already wasted lot of your time.

Means all these, I told you the seven stratas, on the left and right have names which I think that time I have no time to tell you but there are names and names and names for everything. Hākinī, Rākinī, Lākinī, Shākinī, like that on the left hand side they have got. This side is Gāyatrī and Savitrī and all that sorts of things. It goes on both the sides. All these are nothing but like resonances. They throw you from one to another strata. You are sort of tested in every strata and when they found you are a gone case you go `direct' into hell. These are all achieved! So I have to make a very simple statement that keep your Self, respect your Self. Try. If it works with you, well and good. I'm here to work out the raising of the Kuṇḍalinī, the bringing it out of it.

You yourself would be able to do after some time but cleansing is needed and it should never be given up because there is no way out.

Nanak, Guru Nanak, he has written at least three-four chapters against these Tāntrikas and Māntrikas and these Paiśhāchikas –'demonical' and these Jains. In India it's an abuse to say, I mean I have first time used these words for that on My tongue, is an abuse to call somebody like this. If you say that to someone they will take you to the court. They are kept outside like lepers. Kabīra has written books after books. These Kecharīs and this and that he lashed them left and right, He was a great poet. Everybody fought with him, tortured him.

Christ was the same. He is the one who said not to go towards spirits at all. This is all spirit's job.

But you go in London every fifth house is a spiritualist sitting there, “Free hypnotics!" Why do you want to get hypnotized? Why do you want to get ESP, what they call, Extra Sensory Perception? All these so-called geniuses also, these prodigies are also possessed. I've seen many prodigies. One of them came to Me. I told, “All right, in My presence you calculate." She could not calculate even in one because I put a bandhan to her possession. I said, “You get out!" I've had many such experiences which I can tell you. Last time I've told you how people who are possessed came to Me and how they leave.

Now there is still time and we can move into Self-realisation experience. It will, it might take to some people in five minutes but to some more. In any case you must have patience. And don't be angry with you. Because when Gavin said ego, I was fired when he said, because if it is not ego then the superego comes, `We are the worst people, we are the horrible people. We...' you see, from one extreme to another.

You have to stand in-between. You are glorious. You are not an aggressor neither you are taking aggression from anyone. You stand within your Self and through that you have your own powers.

You don't have to depend on anyone, nothing. You just are. But you have to depend on the deities that are within you, which I'm going to see. There has been a problem. They have to be corrected and you have to know where are the deities, where are they.

In the Sahaja Yoga, modern Sahaja Yoga I may call it, there is no mantra given. No. Because every second the Kuṇḍalinī is going like that. Now there are people who'll say, “This I can tell you, this I can tell you." It is here they saw that. You must have seen she came to Me, She tells Me that, “Mother I've caught that." All right, finished. Āgñyā catching.

So nobody is given a mantra but you know where is the catch. You yourself say. She herself came and told Me, “I've got it caught on Āgñyā." And you know what's the extreme Āgñyā catching means, you know: paranoia. But she doesn't mind telling Me because she sees herself away from herself and she told Me, “I've got an Āgñyā clearly." All of them say, “The Āgñyā is there. I can see those coming inside me." He told Me that, “I can see these entities now coming into me." And I throw them away and they have a nice, a nice program. If you all talk to them, they will tell you their experiences.

Some of them went into trance; I had to take them out.

So many things happen now. People just like you came to Me and gained. And you'll also gain but be sensible about it, be wise. Be wise. You have to expect gains and nothing else. Nothing else you can found.

So, may God bless you.

You can go into a little meditation just by putting your hands towards Me and if you could take out your shoes it will be better. It works better because the Mother Earth's there and she helps no doubt. All the elements help you. They're all around. You see, it was very cold in the street. At this time it's not so much. All the elements are there to help you. It was extremely cold and now so nice. You can take out your coats and you'll be all right. There is this, your coats you hold out and you can feel comfortable, then you'll feel very nice.

Contents: 1977-11-24 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Mind and its Relationship to Kuṇḍalinī, 2nd Floor, Gavin Brown's House, 160 North Gower Street, Euston, London, UK

[Aside:] You get sit back? You have to just in any way be positive about it.

[Aside:] You people to come forward.

The problem is much deeper than you understand. Very serious problem it is. They all were just waiting for you people to come after them and to attack you. That was their whole strategy and they caught you into their webs.

[Aside:]... He's asking Me how to make it [UNCLEAR].

Today I'm going to tell you about the mind and its relation to our Kuṇḍalinī.

[Aside:] Don't do that, disregarded. You just put your left hand towards Me, right hand outside. It will work out. You can sit that side, here, that side. But not, you need not open it much. Just...

[Hindi.]... Kingsley asked Me that we expect, all of you expect to get suddenly God's Realisation. I wish I could give you that.

You should but actually, you know, you have had problems and very serious problems. And they have seen to it that the path of Kuṇḍalinī is completely destroyed so that you lose your chance of Realisation permanently. Absolutely that's what they have done. And each one of them I find is working on different Chakras. And so, if you go to two-three of them, then God alone can save you. And even if He can, I don't know, because it's very dangerous and they know their job very well. Moreover you are so much under their obsession you can't get out easily.

When you go to them you don't even, cannot even ask them one question, cannot even talk to them.

But with Me you'll be arguing as if they have given you a job of a pleader for them. And you don't realise also that you are arguing only because they are in you.

Despite the fact you are realizing that this is the truth still you go on with it and waste your time.

I would say first keep yourself open completely. This cannot be argued out. It cannot be with your mind. It is something of the beyond. Keep yourself open. Receive as much as you can. Get yourself all right. Understand. Don't waste your time.

So many of you touched, you see, just that's what I have to do with all the force, you see, that you touch the Sahasrāra. It works out. You all get Realisation so that you get the glimpse of what is Realisation and you feel it, the vibrations, to convince you that this is the truth.

But I can't retain it on My own power. You have to retain it yourself, on your own power Without Realisation nothing is possible. That is a fact. But to retain it you have to work it hard. But some people it does not require at all. They just get it and they are there, you see.

[Phone conversation in background: What's it there? Oh, forget it. Forget it. Forget it. It's just...] Now today I will tell you the position of our mind.

Now, the idea of mind that we have in our mind about mind is very confused.

So let us first see what is mind, how are we placed as far as the mind part is concerned.

[Aside:]... If there's a board or something.

[To Sahaja Yogis entering:] How are you Andy? How are you? You are all right, uh? And what about you? Better? Yes? Put your right hand on your heart. Right hand on your heart. Discussion with them.

He's come for the first time? You? Did he get Realisation? Did you get the Cool Breeze? Answer of new one. What he says? Yeah. Re the board: Is it a good paper? Bigger one if you can.

Sahaja Yogi: Djamel phoned from Algeria.

Shri Mataji: How is he?

Sahaja Yogi: Very French. He will be here the 24th...

Shri Mataji: Very French! [Laughter.] What does that mean?

Sahaja Yogi:... He will be coming for two weeks....

Shri Mataji:... Did you get some good paper?... Please place it somewhere...

Now this is the mind by which you are listening to Me. Whatever I'm telling you at this moment you are listening to Me. Your attention is on Me, you are listening to Me. All right? This moment you are absolutely conscious of what I'm saying. You are receiving it within yourself. This is the conscious mind, conscious mind.

Every moment we are conscious. But when you listen to Me then you take it through another mind which we call as the preconscious mind into the subconscious mind. Through the preconscious mind you put it into the subconscious mind. Did you follow this? We receive it through our conscious mind put it in [GAP] the preconscious mind receives it. This is a monkey. The symbol of this is Hanumān. He receives it and puts it into your subconscious mind. All right? This is happening throughout since when you were an amoeba this has been happening and now it's happening much more when you are absolutely in the full stage of mind development.

So...

[Aside about the positioning of the paper board:] It's better now.

Now actually the scientists they believe that the conscious mind is on the top, then there is preconscious mind and there is the subconscious mind. That what they believe into but that is not the fact. The fact is that all this is placed like this within us.

This is the conscious mind, this is the preconscious mind and this is the subconscious mind.

In the subtle form when they are placed in our spinal cord there are three channels that work it out.

The one that is the subconscious mind is worked out through the Iḍā Nāḍī which is called also as Mahākālī channel, Mahākālī channel. And this one on this side is worked out by Piñgalā Nāḍī which is on the right hand side. In the center this one preconscious mind comes only up to a point, or we can say they go down much more.

Now what they do is to have a loop here and a loop here and they come around here and this is what forms the Chakra. Do you understand now? So they, once it moves like this it passes over its information.

This preconscious mind passes over its information to this.

In the Chakras it is decided what is to be stored, where, what is to be done. All the decisions take place in the Chakras.

Now who takes the decisions? Is the deity there. Now, how can we know there's a deity? Say, for example, in a human body anything that goes inside it has to be thrown away. But the foetus of a child is preserved, conserved and looked after. That's done by Gaṇeśha at the Mūlādhāra Chakra here.

He organizes it, he arranges it.

There are many other things which the scientists cannot, cannot explain. One of them is this that they cannot explain why the two chemicals `adrenalin' and `acetylcholine' react in different manners in a human being. They cannot explain.

For example if one has to augment, that is to contract, sometimes relaxes. It's a chemical after all it's a chemical. How is it that by the same chemical sometimes it augments and sometimes it relaxes? They cannot explain and they have very frankly confessed it that the mode of action of these chemicals in a human being cannot be explained. All right? But they cannot go further: why it is so arbitrary, what guides it, how they guide it. They do not know.

Of course now somewhere or other in the awareness it's also coming up that there is another nervous system that is guiding this. Now they are coming to this point also. They are saying this that, “There is another nervous system which guides all these things." Now you see here is the conscious mind, is half way and the preconscious mind and the subconscious mind meet at a point here. At these Chakras, there are many Chakras, this comes only up to a point much above the heart. And this we call as the Suṣhumnā Nāḍī. Suṣhumnā means this Suṣhumnā channel, you see, central one is the Suṣhumnā channel. Now, this, these represent outside.

Now this I'm telling about the subtle things that are inside the spinal cord. All these channels are inside, out of which these two are expressed outside and they are called, gross form, they are called as left and right sympathetic nervous system. You can see with naked eyes the left and right sympathetic nervous system. But the channels that guide or the powers that guide them are inside the spinal cord.

When you are seeing the Kuṇḍalinī rising and pulsating these channels work out in the spinal cord.

Outside the spinal cord you can see the chain of nerves and you can see the parasymp..., the sympathetic nervous system. Parasympathetic nervous system you cannot see because it is from brain, little lower, up to the end of the brain. You can say it comes up to [UNCLEAR enhancing there]. But its effects are up to the heart Chakra, we can say up to the heart Chakra are very much there. After that all the Chakras lie in the void as we have shown here in the..., in the diagram.

So these channels... Now you see mind is not only here. Mind is also in the spinal cord.

You think that thinking is done by mind. All right. But all organs do not act according to the mind.

They act according to the Chakras and these Chakras control the gross plexuses which I have told you. The Chakras are subtle things inside the spinal cord. They are not the plexuses but they are the subtle things that control these gross things which we can see with our naked eyes.

None of these Kuṇḍalinī books have described this. `Not one' has described this. Imagine the basic things they do not know! Basic things that there are two forms of things, one is the subtle form which is inside the spinal cord and the gross that is outside. Can you imagine? They have written such big-big books and they have not described the basic things about Kuṇḍalinī.

Now you can see with your naked eyes. I will show you how the Kuṇḍalinī moves. All right Now, as you see there is a gap here. The gap is much more.

[Aside:] You draw it out? You can see it's a very big, much more, gap. But here also this is a big way because I want to show the upper part of it.

Now when these two channels start working, all right?, then what happens? If you start a machinery there are certain by-products like the fumes.

So these fumes are to be accumulated somewhere.

So they bloat in the brain like this, like a balloon and one from here like a balloon. They bloat and then they join together.

At that time this bone which is a soft bone in the childhood becomes hard and you develop your identity as `I'. `I, Mister [UNCLEAR God at the latest]'. You become `I' and that `I'-ness comes to you deliberately. God has put this thing in you.

It's a very important way, important thing that He has done in a human being. I'll show you that which is placed here. A little complicated, you don't get upset about it [turning the paper board] [UNCLEAR] because, as I said, to put on the switch is all right. You just press it, it works out the way it has worked in you and you think: `How can that be so easy?' It's not easy! It's all built in you. It's all there and it works because I know the job.

Now this is the brain of a man. What is the speciality of a brain of a man and an animal is that man reaches this apex not the, uh, animals. Animals always have a flat. This apex is reached. Why? Because this is the apex which one has to break through there, so the Ego and Superego when they make a balloon.

Now I must tell you the difference between Ego and Superego maybe some of you may not be knowing.

Ego is when the mother is, say, nursing the child. The child is in complete joy. Then the mother removes the child from one side and puts him to the other side. He doesn't like it.

So he comes up with his Ego, “Why is it?" He gets very angry.

So the mother says, “Don't!" [Shri Mataji cries while saying this] like that.

So his Superego receives it [UNCLEAR going poisoned].

Ego is that by which we try to do something, by which we are aggressors, we plan for future, that's the same thing.

Is the Ego that comes out of the preconscious mind by which we plan for future, “I must do this. `I' am doing this” and the another is the Superego in which I receive it, `Oh, I should not have done it. It's wrong.' The conditioning. Or some Guru comes and says, “All right, come and bow to me.

All right." Superego! So the bowing of that is Superego, asserting of that it is Ego.

So where should man go? You might say, `Either, Mātājī, you become egoistical or you become a dormant personality, absolutely a dwarf, Nabot! Now why have we got that Ego and why God has made us like that?' He has made you like this that with this mechanism you start using your freedom and balance them so nicely in between that there is a space left and you come up.

Without using all these instruments properly your human awareness is not reached that state where `you' can understand His working.

For example at the time of Christ, imagine to those fishermen how could you talk about Kuṇḍalinī? Was that possible? Even talking about Kuṇḍalinī in these days to such learned people is a difficult task.

So in those days, to talk to the fishermen was an impossible thing. And those days we had only fishermen who could come to Christ. None of these [UNCLEAR colleged] would go to Christ at all, you see, so that was a problem. But now the awareness has come to this stage that Ego and Superego is balanced and when it is balanced there is a space in between and then the Kuṇḍalinī which is the residual force here...

That I will tell you later how it comes a residual force.

Now, here is the brain. [Long silence... perhaps drawing.] All right. This thing flows into this one.

This one flows into this one. The drawing is the same as God has made His creation. Same as My own work. Alright.

So this, you see, this is the Mūlādhāra Chakra here. Cha-kra (cha –'move', kra -'do, make'). And this is the Mūlādhāra the triangular bone in which the Kuṇḍalinī is placed. Now, this part of it, you see, comes inside and settles down. When the child is in the foetus stage then only the Kuṇḍalinī or you can say this force comes in.

Now what is this force? Is known as Mahālakṣhmī force which comes through the Suṣhumnā.

Now, this is the force of evolution. This is the force of existence. And this is the force of creation.

This is the one which we call as the Mana in Sanskrit language. This is the one... Not mind! There's a confusion between English style and English, uh, Sanskrit. This is the Mana and this one is the Prāṇa, you see and Yoga means when Mana and Prāṇa meet in the center they say Yoga can be achieved.

This is Ha and this is Tha. Ha and this is Tha. This is Haṭha Yoga. Or, Ha means Sūrya, means Sun.

Tha means moon. This is the Sunlight and this is the moonlight.

Ha-tha Yoga. When they tell you big stories about Haṭha Yoga you'd better get a book of Patanjali itself and read it and don't listen to them.

Now Haṭha Yoga is a way of climbing up in Āgñyā. Hanging there, there are two walls here. Put one foot here and one foot there and go on crossing. Again you come down. Again you come down. Then you go up like that, up to this point. From here you get into your Ego sometimes, Superego sometimes. Then sometimes by chance, with great luck if you could go into this way your attention, I means this is a very hazardous thing, then you penetrate through this, all right? This is the Āgñyā Chakra.

And then you get in here and hang over here for some time. [Laughs.] Then sometimes the grace of the Mother comes in and then you may get your Realisation.

But by doing this exercise you are a strong person and moreover you have done your [UNCLEAR sheerty] so you are a great person too.

But this state sometimes, the one he was telling Me that he has taken twenty one thousand years since when he was a frog, you see, like he's staying in the water, it's the same as John the Baptist. Twenty one thousand years! So when he met Christ he must have been nineteen thousand years. You see that is what he did.

Now ours is a simple method, all right? That's Shri Mataji's method, all right.

You see this Kuṇḍalinī is here and She's My part, She's My own. As soon as you face Me with your hands like this, through this, you see, these are the hands, you see, hands are coming out, say about this point here, your hands, hands are small here, through the hands, the invitation of Divine vibrations flow in. They go inside. First of all they inform Gaṇeśha. First of all they inform Gaṇeśha that, `It's the Mother sitting here.' You'll be amazed if you are facing Me, you cannot have any sex feelings. Try it. You cannot. It's closed. This door is closed because it's your Mother sitting here. You have some shame about it. This door is closed and Gaṇeśha is `fully' established.

If you try and do any such thing then it's a very much punishing style. It punishes you very badly.

And that's why you be careful about this gentleman Śhrī Gaṇeśh. He is one of the most dynamic as well as a very sensitive deity.

Those now who teach you to pay attention to Mūlādhāra Chakra and raise it towards some deity or Maṇḍala or anything are committing sin themselves but they are then putting you into terrible sin.

Spirituality has nothing to do with your sex. Nothing whatsoever. Whether you are impotent or potent or a girl or a woman or a man or anything you can get Realisation. But if you are using your sex for such purposes, very difficult. Because that is the basic point and then, you see, Gaṇeśha first is to be satisfied.

That's why in the Indian mythology or in Indian life or in Indian form, first of all they praise Gaṇeśha because we must first of all create the holiness.

He is the embodiment of holiness. He is the one who came to us as Christ [UNCLEAR]. He is celibacy.

And you who have known Christianity, why should you accept these horrible, dirty, lusty, I don't know.

I don't have, you know, such words. What to use? But they are monsters and they've advised that you should do sex in the name of God.

This is what, this point to begin with, first thing you have to do is to establish here because this is the main person who guaranties, `All right, he is the best. He's alright.' This is the first certificate you must have to enter into the Kingdom of God, is Gaṇeśha. Throughout He is there to that but main basically there.

People don't like it when I tell them but I have to tell you the truth whether you like it or not. You must have sane ideas about sex. Because of ruination of this Chakra in the Western countries it is very difficult for Western seekers.

Apart from that, these Gurus have done-they themselves have jumped into it. Why do you need a Guru for that? After all you have reached to the end of everything. And that's why all kinds of diseases are coming up. It is so unnatural that your body reacts against it. Impotency develops, bad relationship with everyone. And human beings become extremely sensitive. I mean, even the slight thing you do, people feel bad. You go on this way you feel bad, you go that way, you feel bad.

On the other hand a person becomes so shaky he doesn't know which way to walk: `If he wears this kind of a dress will they like it? If I take it like this will they like it?' I mean all the time a person is trying to please the another person. Never trying to think, `Where am I pleasing my Self? Or not?' Because my Self is first of all sweeting you. A very major part of your Self is here because you must look nice for other men to look at you or other women to look at you. That is the first criteria. In this shape, if you're handsome you are handsome, if you are not you are not. What does it matter? You are saints and you are seeking God. He has created you. First thing is holiness and holiness and holiness. Even hundred times, hundred and eight times is holiness that is needed in us to begin with.

So establish your Self there at the holiness.

And you have had. Most of you have had [UNCLEAR mean] about this Christ. And even then the way you have denied Him, this is the sign is of the too much of activity of this side.

Too much of activity of the right hand side, of the Sūrya Nāḍī is that, `I'm doing this. I'm doing that.

We must be competent. We must do this work. We must do that work. And we must show on, want and earn so much money. And if the wife is not earning, she's a useless thing, everybody laughs at her, but if she's a carrier girl, she's great because she's earning money.' All this is due to the activity of the right hand side. This is all activity of the right hand side going beyond all limits. And you suppress this part.

All imperialism, all despotic, everything comes to this point. This is the Rajas point.

`Rajas' means there are three moods. This the Tamo Guṇa, this is the Rajo Guṇa, this is the Sattva Guṇa.

So by doing this what happens? You press the Superego so much there is no balance and you start asserting your Ego without knowing about it.

The part about Ego is that if you suffer from Ego you will never know you are suffering. People even say like that, “I'm never egoistical, you see!" All they say like that, “I'm never egoistical." They'll hit you hard, “Oh, I never boast about myself." They're like that. They say, “We never want to praise him." They go on praising him. They start like this, “I'm not going to speak much." They speak [UNCLEAR honestly].

So this is what it is. There is no balance. We go on and go on creating things. And in this we go so mad, we forget every kind of balance that has to be.

For example now we start judging ourselves by the things we produce. Out of proportion through the Mother Earth productions we start producing such a lot and you must have machines to produce.

Thousands of things we produce.

If you go in a house you feel, `Oh, God! Where have we come? To a junk house or what?' Something drubbing from your head and you don't know where to put them, where to put them. Now all this built up a lot.

So people like you came in and you said that, “This is all junk. Throw it away and let us become hippies." So you get all away.

From this end to this. From this extreme to this extreme.

Now here, for the Superego side, all indulgences, all this drinking, going to the subconscious, seeing hallucinations. And then also what else? Drugs, drugs. And then also living just like pigs, even worse than that. This is self-destroying. This is destroying others and this is self-destroying. Is another style started, self-destroying.

You live in such conditions that the whole body becomes absolutely dead and you talk of death all the time and then you start using spirits also. Death, death, death everything.

This is death and this is life. But not the consciousness, is in the center.

Then the Haṭha Yoga means this one, `Tha' in the normal way that people think of. This is not, this is the balance of both, is Ha-Tha Yoga. But normally, people what do they do, these people who are on this side? They will go to the runaway extreme of these people, you see, they don't want all this.

So what they do? They will go on to the other extreme of this. And what is the other extreme of this is: “Give up materialism. Give up this." And then you become a horrid personality. They're so hot tempered. These people try to control, you see, their sex, they will not marry, they will not have faith, they will drink urine. They will do all kind of nonsensical things.

Why should they drink urine? I can't understand. You see, they drink urine, they don't understand this simple thing: whatever is thrown away by body why should we drink? Our body knows better than `we' do. And then do, then they do all kind of nonsensical things also like hanging themselves, you see, upside down and some of them running for miles together. And some of them doing exercises of extreme type. And they are very hot tempered dried people absolutely because the sunrise they get up.

The Prāṇa here, you'll be surprised, acts on the heart because heart has to balance this.

So what happens all these people suffer from a stone heart. They have a heart of a stone. They don't believe in any love business, nothing. Wife, they will not see. They'll have nothing to do.

Only one person who has gone this way was Buddha but he was born long time back as I told you to Rāma and Sītā so He could do that way. And the one who is the Divine personality who moves on this is the Hanumāna.

So Buddha came this way and settled down here. Mahāvīra came this way and settled down here. But they forgot that they did not come this way at all. They came this way and they were absolutely tired, they were sleeping and suddenly they came by the same route as you all have come.

Because the Kuṇḍalinī is here so how can She come this way or that way? Kuṇḍalinī being here She cannot go to the left or the right at all.

When they said `Haṭha Yoga' what they did was to use the Kuṇḍalinī. Gradually they pulled Her from this side to this side. Again from this side to this side. Again in the center only. It has to come by Suṣhumnā. There is no other way. Kuṇḍalinī does not rise by any other way but Suṣhumnā itself.

But the reactions can be felt on these. Supposing you upset Gaṇeśha. When he gets upset he gets heated. Both centers completely heated and their heat is communicated on both the sides.

Sometimes even you will find blisters coming. People get blisters.

This Rajneesh, his one disciple who came to us. He is in the book, Gijere, Gijere? He had all over the blisters. All over the blisters. And then he told Me, “Mātājī, cure me, do anything." And he gave it in writing, everything he published in the paper. Then Rajneesh people gave him ten thousand rupees and took him back again and put him the dress. This is what it is. Is it money? I don't know what is it that makes people so much mad after money! They go to him to seek God and then they become so materialistic that they don't mind having any trouble in the body just to advertise for him. First he gave money to some women that, “You become naked when I'm giving lecture." So they all started. Just like your manipulation of these, what you call what you had these, singers, four of them who started singing first of all? Beatles! They started the same way, you see. They paid and made some women to get drunk and then they started singing.

So these women started reacting to that and then they gave drugs and all that. I mean it was all a bargain. The Beatles' own uncle, you see, one of them, the one... the manager's brother, I would say, not uncle but the manager's brother was on My ship when I was travelling and he told Me the story. That's how they managed and now everybody's like mad, you know. It goes into everybody's head that when somebody's singing you must go mad like that. What is the need? If there's something inside then there is no need to go outside like that. Inside whatever is happening should happen, not outside. They think unless and until you do it in the full [UNCLEAR gusto] it will have no effect on this.

So this is what it is that is due to the over-activity of this and then the extreme movement this side.

So now there are seven channels on this side and seven channels on this side. By these seven channels you are made to pass like resonance, you see. You move from here to here, to here to here to seven channels.

Once you go to the seventh channel, you are on the last one, then you are thrown into the hell here.

Same here are seven channels where you are given chances and chances and chances. But if you don't listen then to the seventh channel you go to the hell again.

So all of them are settled down here by the lower in the hell.

There are seven hells also. All right, I need not tell you but Mahāvīra has described them very well because he went through Superego. He went into hell. Even Buddha has described it. Worst is Mahāvīra's description because if you read that for three days you won't eat any food. It's horrid. But he is a fact.

What He's told you is a fact.

Now this is, this is the Kuṇḍalinī that is going to rise from here to here. This is the gap. These are like three ladders. But this can only go this way, so this ladder is useless for this and this ladder is useless.

But because of these ladders they have a loop on this one and a loop from here and these Chakras can be completely destroyed if their activity on these are more. Do you understand now? Like this as I told you, like this is the central part and from here one comes as a loop, another comes from here. Now if they go on moving too much they may come out like that and they become on their own and that is how cancer settles in, malignancy.

The people who are very egoistical can also become malignant by temperament, because they forget that they are a part and parcel of the vast Being. They are just a cell in the body of that vast Personality and they cannot on their own start working. They have to relate themselves to Him.

But this is only possible if this Kuṇḍalinī rises and comes out and enters into the subtle Being which is around you. And this has to happen, there is no way out. Any religion, any thing, any saint has to happen because this is the primule which sprouts in the seed and which has to come up, go up and become here.

Is a very simple thing because as soon as I, they see Me they know and they become. This is awareness which understands, thinks, cooperates. There's a telecommunication between your Kuṇḍalinī and Mine.

I put My force into your Kuṇḍalinī. I take it on My Kuṇḍalinī and take it up. This is the first Kuṇḍalinī, as the Ādi Kuṇḍalinī you call it. And you have the secondly Kuṇḍalinī inside. And when They see Me then They can assure that They can come up. And that's how the Kuṇḍalinī comes up.

But this could not be done earlier because this was not completed. But when it was just to be completed what human beings did was to press this very hard and before I could start off this, the pressing became so hard [GAP]... this way.

So now we have two extremes. We have very egoistical people on this side or we have the other type who are destroying themselves every moment by every chance. And to help them we have very egoistical monsters who have come from the supraconscious.

Beyond this is the supraconscious and beyond this is the collective subconscious. From that and from this, collective supraconscious and collective subconscious they are. From there you are getting spirits who are entering into your psyche through your Ego and Superego and they are working out for you. Through your eyes, through your nose, through your mouth, through your ears, they can enter through anything, through your Āgñyā. They enter inside and go into these and they start giving you ideas.

Now as you had asked Me the question that with these things like chanting the mantras and that I told you before also, you say some funny name given to somebody.

All right. You give that name to someone who is a devil, genius, absolutely genius evil and that evil genius is given a name, say of Rām, all right? You can do if you have no conscious, if you have no fear of God, if you are just a Rākshasa as they call it a monster of the worst type you can give this name to anyone.

So you give this name to someone like that and then they tell you in your ears: “Call the name of `Rām'." Alright? You start calling the name of `Rāma'. Immediately what happens the actual place of Rāma which is the right side of the Heart Chakra, Rāma slips off there. He's so angry with you for this nonsense that, `Why did you go to such a horrid fellow? Why did you not use your brains fully? Why did you go to him? Why did you deny God and why did you accept it?' So Rāma slips off. Once He slips off somebody else comes in and that is this evil genius who is called as `Rām'. He comes in and once he comes in he starts working in your right side heart.

Now what is it? It's juxtaposition of Rām. What was Rāma? Rāma was a very obedient son. First of all you become extremely disobedient to your parents or else maybe that you have no feelings for your children as a father. You may go into abortions without any difficulties.

Some girl you will sleep with, “She has conceived? It's alright, go into abortion." [UNCLEAR That's so?] No feelings as a father. No value for the life of your children. That develops with this kind of a chanting.

Then He was a man known for his Maryādās, means for his boundaries: how far to go, how far to rule, how to look after a wife, how to look after the country, how to... He was a person who is known as Maryādā Purushottama, means, `Highest among all the human beings.' This is the ideal for its boundaries.

Now if you say, “A boundary" then they say, “What about liberation?" Naturally you think liberation is nothing but abandonment.

Now, if there is a pilot sitting here, alright? Supposing you have to build an aeroplane, if you do not put it into certain boundaries then when it goes high up in the air everything will go helter-skelter. All liberated nicely! And nothing will be left out of that liberated soul.

So there are certain boundaries which we have to put ourselves as human beings with our wisdom and understanding.

That was done by Rāma and that's why those who catch on the right hand side must know that this is the, something lacking in your character has come to them. Perhaps it might be lacking beforehand and might be it has been added up by this fellow because he must have read your mind and seen: `Oh, there's little bit in him, little revolt against the father and the mother. All right, put into him.' Then he starts thinking: `Oh, my father, you see, he's a horrid. he's this, he's that.' And there was a boy, as I told you, [UNCLEAR Gene] who came to Me and he told Me: “I now was wanting to kill my father and mother, both" when he was chanting the Mantra. And when he could not kill the father and the mother then he started killing himself. And when I asked the monster sitting on him, `he' told Me that they want more people in the subconscious or the supraconscious area so that they can bring them come into the souls.

So they want them to die.

See this. Death I don't mind. Even if somebody dies they can be born again. There's no problem because you don't die.

But this is not death, this is enslavement by these people. When you die you go into `their' realm and they use `you' for this purpose. And then you cannot get out because when you are living then it's possible but if you are dead you are absolutely under their hands.

So many of them that are into your mind they ask Me for Moksha. They say that, “You promised us that you will liberate us from these horrible people" or “You'll give us Realisation." And that's why some of the very horrid ones also get Realisation for a second. That's all. Because I have promised that. But then they don't come further, they just give up. Because they are, because I have promised them so I just give.

But if you have to continue, then you have to respect yourself and to understand that you are saints.

You have been seeking and you cannot be frivolous about it. You cannot be vain about it but you have to come to Me with great humility and receiving power. The more you try to receive Me, the better it is for you. Then you will go further and further with Me because you must know you have already been attacked, you have already been possessed, you are already under somebody's enslavement. You must know all of you are.

Sooner you see the better. There I'm happy Bohdan suffers but he sees at least. If you start seeing them attacking you it will be better than to be attacked and just numbed. You don't know, you feel very happy, you are numbed like drunken people. Better to be aware of the pain than to be deadened so that you do not know if something is coming onto you. Because you are a special fibre and special people.

So be careful about this because your subconscious and your preconscious, both have suffered quite a lot [UNCLEAR of that autism] not so much in previous lives as in this short life that you have had with the help of these horrid people. You have to come very positively to this and to understand that you have to cure. But if you are still identified with them it's better that you spare Me at least and the Sahaja Yogis.

You have to understand that it's going to be tremendous task for all of us to work it out. You know how difficult it is. Then, say, you have seen how we were doing it.

Tomorrow when `you' will be realised you will know that you will have to do the same thing as these people have been breaking their heads, beating here, beating here and the needles and pain, the needles and all kinds of screwing up that was going on in their heads and things. The way they were trying to push your Kuṇḍalinī, it was so difficult you have seen it yourself. And which you will have to do yourself and you will be giving it to others.

So you must understand you must cooperate and be wise about it.

Don't come into the charm of these people. They have given you nothing so far except for emptying your purses and making them light. They have nothing to give. I have to warn you because most of you have been to such places.

In India when I started My work I never talked about it for three years. But then we got some groups which were going outside and we had a terrible time. And those who were realised did not know why it was happening like this and I had to tell them about this that exists. I never told them. You'll be surprised if you read, if you hear My first lecture in America I never mentioned about these people. Nor did I mention about the spirits that are within us but they are. And that's how they have brought such a confusion, such a confusion.

It was never that bad, you see. In the Gītā Krishna has said: “Paritrānay Sādhuna vināshāy cha dushkṛitam" [Bhagavad Gītā 4.8]. Meaning: “I have, I come again and again on this earth to destroy the monsters or the Duṣhṭas or the cruel forces, Satanic forces and to give protection to the saints." But here the saints are confused with, I mean this Kali Yuga is terrible. Where are the saints? I find the saint has got something sitting on his head. And it's so delicately woven it's very difficult to take it out. Unless and until you all cooperate with Me it's going to be very difficult to solve.

But once some number of yours is nicely done and coming up then you will see it will work much faster.

Much faster, I'm sure.

The same thing happened in India. For two years, imagine, twelve people I was working on. And twelve people got Realisation out of twenty-five. After two years! So it's much better now. And `you' get it because you are saints. You get it `that' fast. But you are shifty people. It doesn't stay. With Indians they take time but it stays because their Chakras are [UNCLEAR formal...]. But they are little, not yet seeking. You were seeking but you went into the cut in your seeking. All these broken bones have to be put right, all this broken hearts to be brought right. And you have to just cooperate and understand that it is all for your good.

Denying is the easiest thing.

So don't deny. You all have experienced, most of you has the experience of vibrations and you can see there are some people who are here who can feel your vibrations and can tell about it. `You' can also get it and `you' can be also of the same type and of a much higher type if you little bit cooperate with Me and work it out. And don't get disgusted with yourself. One day indeed it will be like this, next day it will be like that. Doesn't matter. In any case you are progressing.

So don't get upset. I know why you are upset but that we'll look after. All right? So just be patient with yourself.

You have to be patient because you have had a problem.

[GAP] How did they accept this horrible Maheśh yogi? How? Why did you accept him? Bending your head before him, why did you do it? Before all these Gurus? There's another one [UNCLEAR Pia] who came from Sweden, uh?

Sahaja Yogi: Denmark.

Shri Mataji:, Denmark. She tells Me, “I can't accept you, our Mother." I said, “Why? What did you do with the Lama?" With that Lama everyday she had to go to him and bow before him one thousand and one time. And she did it for one month. And she couldn't accept Me, you see, very nicely. Because it's difficult to accept the truth. One thousand and one time she had to do. Every day she did. And she couldn't accept Me so she went away because there was another lama sitting there I think in her head.

And she's a gone case. Now she's having a very bad time and she's gone.

But thank God, sometimes, you see, we have to thank because such horrible people if they enter into us they trouble us a lot also. They divert your attention, they take away so much of your time discussing, arguing, arguing, taking out our time.

How can you argue it out? This is a happening. You cannot argue it out.

Still I'm quite good at arguments and answering your questions. I'm quite good. I've learned how to defeat you. And I've too much patience but why do you want to waste your time? Better have it. Better have it. Best thing is to get the blessing soon, as soon as possible. I'm anxious to give you, anxious to do it. What's the use of talking about food? Better have it. Enjoy it! The whole world is created for your enjoyment, for your blessings. I know you have spoiled yourself, doesn't matter. I'll wash you. Completely.

Everything I will do for you but cooperate. Don't waste your time. Four years we took to create these seven people. Seven. Four years because you must know you are the first in this Western world to be that steady. Many things can be done but only one thing I can't do, is to force you, [UNCLEAR doesn't].

How many people have had Nimbus [lemons] with them? So, any questions? Of course. Any questions? Then we can have food and then I'll see their Kuṇḍalinī. That is the last.

How many of you had Nimbu’s, no lemons? Hold your hands. Have you thrown? Are you better now? Getting ?

Sahaja Yogi: I feel a space out...

Shri Mataji: Spaced out? That's it. Spacing out is the point. You never felt that before. That's it.

Are you feeling any cool in the hand? How is it? David?

Sahaja Yogi: He just gave up smoking in a day.

Another Sahaja Yogi:... very strong experience of nausea...

Shri Mataji: These are My feats, you know. I'll stop your smoking. Yes, I will. Because once you start doing that then I have to do something, isn't it, to stop it. The smoking has to be stopped because it's very bad and Krishna doesn't like it at all. It's very bad for Viśhuddhi Chakra and for the stomach.

It's very easy to stop. Very easy. You will be surprised within on year's time, you'll be surprised how much you'll do and how you'll give up these things. Except for few things you won't give up which I'm going to tell to very few people [laughs].

Ha! Better now, better? How are you David? Mister David?

Sahaja Yogi: He says he's pleased to be here tonight.

Shri Mataji: Is it? But uh, that's not sufficient. That's very diplomatic. What about your Āgñyā Chakra?

Sahaja Yogi: Well it doesn't do what it's used to do when I first came in to you. I think it is still...

Shri Mataji: Pain? Pain is there? No pain at all? Pain is gone completely?

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: All right. Are you putting your eyes on the ground while walking on the roads or you're looking at the girls?

Sahaja Yogi: I haven't really put my eyes on the ground.

Shri Mataji: You should put your eyes because ground, you know, the Mother Earth she takes away all the heat from the eyes, all right? Very necessary. Gaṇeśha is made out of Mother Earth and if you put your eyes to the ground she gives you that soothing feeling. It's very good.

Say, for example, in the morning time, of course winter staying here is very cold but otherwise, if you, during summertime without wearing any shoes or anything if you walk on the grass it's very good for the eyes. Very good. And taking, you see, cool bath in this part is very good during summertime. Not winter here because winter is very severe cold is also bad but a day when there is quite hot it's so hot you can bear it. Then you should do it. It's very good for the eyes.

There are many things which are good for eyes. But the best thing is to pay no attention to anybody's eyes because you catch from everybody's eyes. Here every man like a, you see, watch tower is going on.

What are you looking at? Where are you looking? Where are you going? Watching whom? With two attitudes: one is how many are looking at me and how many I have to look at. It's a mad world. It's such a loss of energy.

Eyes have nothing to do with sex. It's perversion. Absolutely perversion. That's why Christ has very clearly said that, “I'm not talking of adultery but I'm talking about eyes that are adulterous." [Matthew 5.28: “But I say unto you that whosoever looks on a woman to lust after her, has committed adultery with her already in his heart."] We should not have adulterous eyes.

Eyes are very important you see. They are on the Āgñyā Chakra. They are the windows. See, from the eyes it should be only going, nothing coming. It should be so, such a clear eye that from the eyes it's only going to others. Absolutely it should be clear. Nothing taking in. Then it's all right, you can look at people. Even I don't look at people because sometimes I think that they might faint or they might get a Kuṇḍalinī suddenly up and all. That's why I'm little bit worried about that might happen with Me, because so much love also very few people can take in, you see.

Eyes should be absolutely clear, going outward, not receiving anything into the eyes from others because what you receive is dirt and filth.

This is how you receive all the spirits from the eyes and they go into yourself. Most of these Gurus touch your Āgñyā and put the spirits into it through this. That's why, you see, Mohammad Sahib said: “Never bend this before anybody else." If you have bent this before anybody else but a person who is really an authority then all your, this is the sign of your human, of you being a human being. And when you bend this before anybody else then they hit you hard and they come into you and they work it out.

[Aside:] That's enough for everyone I think). Be silent. How are you now [UNCLEAR]? Better? Alex is much better now. See how he was poor thing. That Lama [UNCLEAR of...] he has tortured him completely. He is supposed to be a Lama and the things he did to his wife is terrible. It's all horrible people. Beat them with shoes and throw them away in the sea. They want your women, they want your money, they want everything. They are looters.

[Aside:] Uh! Better? How are you? Now don't start condemning yourself too much. You have not to condemn yourself. You love yourself.

Respect yourself. You must respect. Not to condemn but love and respect because you are the, the chosen ones. You are chosen. Not to condemn. Forget the past, finished. Forget it. Now, don't think about all the things, “I did this in nineteen hundred and nine." [UNCLEAR That's...] I do My duty isn't it? [Laughs.] And that's why you don't have any questions. [Laughter.] Ah! Don't do all that. It's good for nothing. Useless things. Finished is finished. Past is past. Is lost. And future doesn't exist.

So enjoy the present. The present you must enjoy. It's most beautiful.

Hum! Good? Myriam, what do you say? Better? Myriam is a born realised person. See, so she has advantages over you that she doesn't catch much. And if she catches she throws away in no time. We have another one you have seen is Kevin. They're many people. In this world there are many people who have, who are born realised. Now and many children are born realised. Many children. I mean, so many of them that you'll be surprised. Now, most of the children we see now are born realised. They are all coming down then but you are the foundation. They are all going to come down to Sahaja Yoga. All of them are going to help us within ten years. You'll see they'll be all standing there. They all know about Kuṇḍalinī.

For example now, Kevin, you don't have to tell him. He knows everything about Kuṇḍalinī. Kuṇḍalinī everything he will tell you about. First time he came to see Me he knew everything about Me. And I went up and he said, “How did She go up?" She said, “Why? She went by staircase." He said, “But where is the red carpet? You must spread some nice carpet for God. What do you think you are? And what She is? You've done nothing?" Like that, you see. He knows all about Me, he knows all about Kuṇḍalinī. He is born like that.

My own grandchildren are like that, realised. And when they were very young about six month age, two granddaughters, they used to sleep with Me in the night. They would get up in the morning and start sucking My feet. Just [UNCLEAR follow that] for half an hour. And their mother would come and say, “What? What are they doing, Mommy? I can't understand. What are they doing to you?" Because they could feel it.

They talk like that. They have seen Me. My grand-daughters have seen Me. They talk like that.

They'll understand everything. They know about Kuṇḍalinī. Even a little one which is newly born one, she was hardly, I think, four months or five months something, she had just started crawling.

So one of the Sahaja Yogi had come you see.

So she saw him, she was at My Feet. She came down and starting hitting him on his Āgñyā and his Āgñyā opened out.

They understand Me because it happened to them inside and they know where is the obstruction and they work it out.

Only thing you people, all of you, should decide about yourself, to make yourself strong [UNCLEAR as I said]. Each one of you. Don't depend on others. Yourself. On no one. And then it will work out.

It's good now. And what about food? They can have? Then we'll have a little session of this. Humm...

[Aside to a Sahaja Yogi:] Put a bandhan on the liver. Right hand, right hand, all right? She's come for the first time? You told Me...

Sahaja Yogi: She was here before, Mother, but she's always kept in the background.

Shri Mataji: I had never seen her before that's what I was thinking... Come here, come here. She's very good. Sit down, sit down, sit down facing that side, you see. Facing that side. Look that side. Uh? Sit down, sit down properly. Can you sit on your [UNCLEAR foot]? Ha, like that. All the machinery starts. All right? [Laughs.] Workshop.

Now tell Me. All of you here are realised. Now let's see, even Karunā, when you will give, then only it will flow. It's not going to be given to you free. You have to work it. Come along now. Tell Me.

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Tell them. That's it. How about, where is My hand? On the Viśhuddhi Chakra. Just My hand is there and you are feeling that. She has a problem there. Everybody is getting it on these fingers? Burning? See. What's wrong with you? You are all right, you can feel it. Come along now. Is a... ? How are you? Feeling it?

Sahaja Yogi: [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Which one? This one you are feeling? Put a bandhan to yourself and see now. Making on your own. You can. I think so.

[To a Sahaja Yogini:] Just. Just to... Nothing at all to happen to you.

Sahaja Yogini: Āgñyā... bandhan [Hindi].

Shri Mataji: It doesn't have. You see, I have done it to them. All right, coming. Hum? It starts working better, all right. Let her be... She has fears, you see.

[To a Sahaja Yogi:] What is? Āgñyā? You put your right hand on the heart only, uh? [GAP] There is God and also we know that He is reflected in us, in our heart as Spirit, as Atma, as Self.

Now when we know about the three channels that are working within us of Mahākālī, Mahālakṣhmī and Mahāsaraswatī, the three powers of Iḍā, Piñgalā and Suṣhumnā which create the subconscious, preconscious and the conscious mind are working in our consciousness. That means we are conscious of them. We are conscious of our left and right that is Iḍā and Piñgalā, sympathetic nervous system. We are not conscious of the parasympathetic.

That means that we can increase the rate of our heart, we can increase the rate of our breathing, but we cannot decrease. The decrease or what you call the lowering down of the rate is done by parasympathetic.

So the parasympathetic is active but we are not conscious of it in the sense that we have no control over it.

The Spirit that is God which is reflected in us resides in the heart. The manifestation of the Spirit in our heart controls the parasympathetic. But this Spirit is the reflection of God Almighty in our heart as if in a mirror. And Divine love which is the light of God is reflected in us through the reflection of the Spirit as the unconscious mind.

So within us there is an area about which we are not conscious. That is why it is called as unconscious.

That area lies so far away from our conscious mind that we cannot control it. We are not conscious of it but it acts through parasympathetic activity. How it acts? I will give you a simile.

Supposing there is a power works somewhere and it is acting through this light over here. You don't see the power work or the factory or wherever the power is created but what you see is the manifestation here and you see the light. But supposing you do not see the light nor the lamp nor the factory but you are affected by it. That is the situation of a human being.

A normal human being who is not a realised Soul is not aware of that factory which is God or the light it has got, is not aware of the lamp that he has got in his heart and is also not aware of the light that the lamp is emitting. But it is acting.

So the unconscious mind is nothing else but the projection of God's will through the light of Divine love.

I'm giving this simile again and again which is very good and act, that these two powers that are within us, one on the left, another on the right hand side are there and we are conscious of them and we use them. Out of them, the right we use it in absolute awareness. Left one we know is used as subconscious mind and, sometimes, if you take drugs or if you do something like that then you go to your subconscious also.

So you can become aware of the subconscious area also.

So you become, you are aware of the right hand side already and you are aware of the subconscious sometimes when you try to get aware of it.

So these two powers that are within us are all the time vibrating in a wave and the points at which they meet they create the throb or you can say the center. Center is created, a Deity is placed but there is no light for us to see or to feel or to be conscious of the Deities.

Deities are fast asleep. When the Kuṇḍalinī rises... Now Kuṇḍalinī is the subconscious. You'll be surprised that Kuṇḍalinī is the Mahākālī power. She's absolutely pure, in the purest form because she's not used. You can say part of it is used in us, our subconscious.

Sort of you have kept some water separately which you have not used so far.

So first of all we use the subconscious water and the preconscious water and, but we dirty it, we exhaust it. Then the stored up power rises and does the last cleansing. But when She rises, She creates a third current. Still that third current when She is rising doesn't have the light. But when it reaches the Sahasrāra and pierces it then it becomes one with the universal consciousness. Because what is God is the One who controls the universal consciousness. He is the controller of the universal consciousness. He emits the light and when this Kuṇḍalinī rises it gets that frame on it.

So now all the deities get awakened.

Now you may say that, `It is in the heart, Mātājī, you are saying. You are saying it is here.' There's a confusion people think but actually it is all-pervading. Say God is a nucleus you can say or a factory which has a light all over and is reflected in the heart.

So, when your Kuṇḍalinī, a particular individual Kuṇḍalinī touches that, then this light takes place. Then the heart, in the heart the Spirit is ignited or sort of it emits his, it manifests, projects and His projections are these vibrations.

So through this you know the will of God. Through this you have a dialogue with God and you understand what He wants. And what does He want you to know? There are three qualities of God which you can feel through this.

One, what is the Truth. You ask any questions. If you are asking for something and if it is in `Yes' then you'll get too many vibrations. If it is in `No', vibrations will low down. That's how you can verify what is right, what is wrong. What is the truth, what is not the truth now you can know. Nobody has to tell you. You don't need any clergyman or anybody to certify. It is there. Through your vibrations you can feel it: this is the truth or not. Is it a correct place you have come to or to the wrong person.

Then also the various combinations and permutations of these, you see. It is true but still there is a little point which is wrong in you.

For example if you say that Christ was resurrected in person: `Yes, that's true.' You get more vibrations.

But if you see now that if you say, `Is it Mātājī the Mother of Christ?', if you do not accept it, you will not get it on the Sahasrāra. It should be on the Sahasrāra...

As Gavin has already explained to you that today's subject is really a vast subject and one has to pay a concentrated attention to understand the subject. As Gavin has already told you that it is Mine subjective knowledge which can be yours also and you have to verify it only through your vibratory awareness. Because that's the only awareness that can be the Absolute.....

[Shri Mataji informs that She will be leaving for India. Patricia Proenza, just 1 month in Sahaja Yoga, feels and looks aghast by this news.] Shri Mataji [taking the hand of Patricia]: Do not cry. I am always with you.

Contents: 1977-12-18 Talk to Sahaja Yogis (Hindi), Nirvichar Mein Raho (Be in Thoughtlessness), Mumbai, India

I am saying, whatever questions you have leave it to the unconscious (Divine), that is flowing in My Feet.

Any questions you have, let's say about your daughter, you don't need to put your brains into it. Any question, just leave it, you will get the answer. Now you should not think that you will get some profit (benefit) by doing so [leaving it to unconscious], it's not like that. Whatever Divine wants, whatever is for benevolence will happen, that even you cannot do.

So leave it to unconscious (Divine). Why are you hindering in-between? Why are you getting worried? There's no need to be worried. You just leave it.

There's a big committee [referring to Deities] sitting to solve all your questions, you just need to leave them to Them. In Sahaja Yoga this is the miracle that all the burden on your head is removed and they [big committee] take it on their heads. Leave it to the Divine, you will see great miracles. But man has a tendency to take it upon himself. Till the end he thinks `I have to do it, I have to do it.' He stays entangled in this. How much ever you do, in the end you will find that you reached nowhere, just ended up in a mental institution.

There's a big committee sitting to solve your questions (problems). In that, the sustainer of five Elements, Śhrī Brahmadeva, is there, the creator of all Dharmas, Śhrī Viṣhṇu, is there and Śhrī Shiva is sitting there witnessing the world and giving the rhythm to the Universe. At least give Them a chance sometimes to solve your questions (problems). Or do you want to solve them on your own? The moment you start getting into thoughtlessness, these three powers will develop within you and will get better with the establishment of Dharma, Artha and Kāma. These powers will establish properly. By staying in thoughtlessness there will be a cosmic change within you. An internal happening in the core.

For example, if one man has a habit of drinking alcohol and someone comes to Me and asks, “Mother please help him rid of this habit." Now as soon as his Kuṇḍalinī is raised, his internal cosmic state becomes such that whenever he drinks alcohol, he vomits. It can also remove the intoxicating effects of alcohol as well. When the power is awakened, whatever is negative can be destroyed. But all the problem starts happening when you try to solve them with your small brain. Just stay absolutely thoughtless.

Even at My Feet, people keep thinking. I am surprised, at least leave thoughts (questions) when you are at My Feet. But the thoughts are still there. I am trying, moving My hands, legs, trying to improve your state, Tāṇḍava Nṛitya [dance of destruction, to destroy negativity] is happening but people are still with thoughts. At least you should learn to leave thoughts at My Feet and then slowly you will get this habit of getting into thoughtlessness. No matter what questions you have, just stay in thoughtlessness.

Generally, I advise you on why some Chakras get caught up and you should understand these little things like keeping your body clean and healthy, keeping your mind healthy. There are many diseases [problems] of the mind. Like women have a problem to always take care of man [husband] specially which spoils the attention. Men have other problems. There are many problems like that. Keep your attention clean and try to be thoughtless. Just by doing this, the Light of the Self, which is sitting in your heart will start spreading. And it is the same Light which flows as vibrations. This Light of your Spirit [reflection of the Divine] within you spreads in the world and comes back to you. In a parabolic movement, many of these waves flow out and come back to your heart.

Take care of your `wick' [of lamp], your body, take care of your power, fuel and don't spend it in mental activities. Keep the flame [attention] straight and stick the top part of your flame to Mother, connect it to Her Feet, the flame will stay strong in thoughtlessness. And when such a man stands then people will be impressed by his grace and will ask `Who is your Guru? From whom did you get it?' This is what you have to do for Sahaja Yoga. Be in thoughtlessness as much as possible. I am helping you by raising your Kuṇḍalinī to get you into thoughtlessness. You should also try and thoughts will stop.

And you should not put your head down [bow down] in front of anyone. Remember this, whoever it is, don't do it. I have seen Sahaja Yogis put their head down [bow down] in front of other Sahaja Yogis.

These are just useless things. Even in front of statues only if their vibrations are good then it's fine. You yourself are a great statue. You are a complete temple in yourself. Does that statue understand your vibration? It is just giving vibrations but you can raise Kuṇḍalinī by your hand, give realisation to others, you can correct others Chakras. Statue can only give vibrations.

A lot of work has been done in the Bombay [Mumbai] center for Sahaja Yoga, no doubt about that.

And people [in Mumbai] have risen to great heights. A lot of work has been done in Maharashtra in a small village, Rahuri. The deeper you go in meditation, the deeper work gets done. We don't need a lot of people; we can do with small numbers but whoever is there should be strong.

As soon as they see Me [UNCLEAR they'll see that] I become black like that, dilated. That is how.

Now here I have very few [children] but in India I've so many children, thousands of them in villages.

How do I know they are My children? By their [UNCLEAR], immediately. And you will know them as your brothers and sisters, only by feeling. Is a real happening where you really feel what is in other Kuṇḍalinī. You can feel it on your fingers. You put ten children, there was a scientist we had and he tried these things [UNCLEAR], ten children he put them together and asked one man to sit there. Who were realised Souls. And he closed the eyes of the children with a little cloth. Now, the person who had come to see this was surprised that all of them raised the same finger: now this, now this, now this, now this. He couldn't understand.....

Here too much time is spent on writing books, still work in London is going well. Nearly twenty peoples are good and ready but not yet well-conversed with worshiping. Unless you do Pūjā, the jaḍa [heavy or strong] attachments cannot get removed. Pujya Mahārāj [Gagangiri Mahārāj] used to say to Me that “You are [the] Goddess and [the] Goddess likes the praise [Stuti-priyā].

So without praising [the] Goddess one cannot achieve anything." But, I see that without properly inviting deities Chakras never work. And these Brahmā, Viṣhṇu and Maheśh they never listen to [if not properly invited]. Even until you all human beings accept Me [as Śhrī Ādi Shakti], Śhrī Gaṇeśha, Christ, Hanumāna or Bhairava-nāth, no-one gets awakened too. Then every time I have to request Them all [to get awakened]. And here [in oversees countries] these big People [all Deities and Gaṇas] they take their attention back. [In] addition to that, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa [is] playing his diplomacy all the time.

So unnecessarily you all call Me Mahāmāyā. In reality all credit goes to you [Raulbai] and all these Kings [all Deities]. I am just witnessing. Now I do not know how to explain all these to these English people.

..... Jagadambā resides here in your heart. It is in the centre of this Heart Chakra. And the heart is in your left hand side. Śhrī Shiva's place is in the heart, which is called as the Spirit. That Shiva resides in the heart..... If a person says that he has a heart attack and if we tell him that “you should ask for forgiveness from God. You should just affirm before Him by saying that, `Oh, Karunā-nidhi [the bestower of compassion], if I have committed any mistake, or by any chance, have ever committed anything wrong, then please forgive me' [`Kar Charan Kritam, Vāk Kāyajam Karma Jam va, Shravan Arayan Jam va, Mānasam Va Paradham Vihitam-avihitam Va Sarva Me Tat Kshamatsva Jaya Jaya Karunabdhe He Mahādev Shambhu']." This is the mantra for that. If his heart doesn't get alright with this mantra then you can tell Me anything and I am ready to lose everything whatever you say. But it is not going to work out just by your casual chanting. It needs an affirmation by a realised Soul only to work out.....

Contents: 1978-02-03*, Public Program (Hindi), Triguṇa (The Three Guṇas), New Delhi, India

..... But the specialty of Sanskrit language is that every letter of alphabet is a mantra. Like in Devanāgarī script each alphabet (akshara) we have like `a', `ksh'; like what we pronounce as a, ā, i, ī, etc. etc. they are all the letters of alphabets [Sanskrit] that move within the Kuṇḍalinī, that which emanate out from there.

We have learnt these alphabets, letters and syllables in our meditative contemplations and then inscribed them in scripts.....

We have learnt language from the flow of sound notation emanating from Kuṇḍalinī within the human beings. When Kuṇḍalinī moves like this it emit sound notes like Śha, Ṣha, Sa, here in the middle [Shri Mataji points to Mūlādhāra Chakra]. At every place (Chakra) it emits different notes, different sounds.

Like, here at this place [Āgñyā Chakra] two syllabic letters have emerged as `Ham' and `Ksham' [Notes are `H' and `Ksh']. It happens. The syllabic word that we pronounce as `Om' [in Sanskrit]..., that which we inscribe as `Om', like we write as `A' what you inscribe in script as `Om' [in Sanskrit], you can visualise the word `Aura' [in Sanskrit] here, when the Kuṇḍalinī is awakened then its light falls on this particular Chakra exactly the word `Om' is inscribed here as a script, as you write it..... is also reflected on this Chakra.

And whatever the letters of alphabet a, ā, i, ī etc. is written..... as you write them in Devanāgarī script in Sanskrit language..., that too, when the Kuṇḍalinī strikes there [Chakra], within us and when its Ninād [sound note in form of reverberation] is produced, it is at that moment of time that simultaneous happening of that Ninād [vibrations] along with its inscription [of that alphabet] takes place.

It is so subtle..... You should understand what is your heritage and from where they have come.

They have all come up and originated through meditative contemplations. It is nothing artificial that we learnt from outside but, in fact here, the Sanskrit language has become like the language of the pundits [erudite], fools and donkeys, who even do not know its proper pronunciations and also do not understand the essence of it, because we have all become English people as we study Shelly and Keats.

This language is generated and also gets inscribed within us. Each and every individual alphabet and in its inscription holds its own meaning. How was the word `Om' created? How was its creation done? What is the mechanism of creation of this word `Om'? Inscription of the letter is expressed exactly as the word `Om' only. Look, I am moving My finger and your Āgñyā is also moving. It is so scientific because, it has relation with the reality. What could be more scientific than this? My Chakras do not respond until you recite the couplets (Shlokas) in Sanskrit. It is indeed surprising! If you recite in English it does work but only in the Āgñyā, where Isa Masih [Jesus Christ] had Himself written it. Because, here in this Chakra, it is His place and on that whatever He wrote is in Hebrew script as Lord's Prayer. However, recital of the same in English also works out, yet, it is Kṣhamā Swarūpinī [forgiving personality]. Here, one has to pronounce the syllabic word `Kṣhamā' only, because this place has the note `Ksh' here. For that reason one has to forgive, pronounce the word Kshema. In spite of pronouncing or reciting all these one has to say Kshema [forgive]. Just see our Sanskrit language and its foundation, how deep and subtle it is.

Now regarding these three that I told you, Mahākālī, Mahālakṣhmī and Mahāsaraswatī, which are there within us. These three likewise have three powers within us, which we call as Aim, Hrīm and Klīm.

Because, their corresponding sound notes (Ninād) are Aim, Hrīm and Klīm.

`Ree'... R... R is the word of energy. `R' like Rādhā, `Ra' means Energy and `Dha' means `Dharan' [`that holds' or `that sustains'], `Rādhā', `Rām'. Kṛiṣhṇa. The word `Kṛiṣhṇa' as I told you comes from word `Kṛishi' [reaping or farming]. Just, with the initiation of pronouncing the word `Kṛi' of `Kṛiṣhṇa', at once it starts working on the Viśhuddhi Chakra.

So Kṛiṣhṇa is the word one has to say as Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa has His connection exactly at this place. It has a connection with the Viśhuddhi Chakra only.

So `Kṛiṣhṇa' can only be His name. Just imagine how scientific it is and how subtle is the subject. But Sahaja Yoga is basically our path of love. And in love there is no need to fathom [interpret] or go into that much of depth.

Just by mustering of a single letter of word love (Prem), one can become a Pundit [knowledgeable]. [Shri Mataji quotes a phrase from Śhrī Kabīr:] `Ek hi akshar prem ka pade so pandit hoye'; this is our Sahaja Yoga. There is no need for you to become a great Pundit [intellectual].

`Padi padi pandit murakh bhaye'; with too much of reading, an intellectual (pundit) becomes a fool (murakh). Therefore, may God save from the Pundits, may God rescue us from those Pundits [intellectuals] who have come here after a lot of reading and studies."……

Contents: 1978-02-20 Talk to Sahaja Yogis, Spirit, Attention, Mind (Will and Surrender, Nābhī), Ashram, East End Road, Finchley, London, UK

As I've said. Now Christine had asked Me ah... of this surrendering. And he [she] has asked Me if we have a free will or not. Alright? You have a free will of your own. Especially human beings have it, not the animals. You have the free will to choose we can say good and bad, righteousness and again [UNCLEAR this/unrighteous/unrighteousness].

Now you can choose to surrender, or not to surrender to the Spirit, to be dominated by your own will.

Now she asked Me, “What is the surrender?" Surrendering as I am saying, that is to be done in three stages.

Especially here in this country where people think, rationalise, analyze. Because is not easy. If you can do it otherwise, you can do [it] automatically. Supposing God, Himself, was made according to your certain conceptions. I don't know what sort of conceptions you have towards God, but supposing your certain conceptions, individual ones. Everyone has individual conceptions for God. And maybe that you see that He is so Almighty and He's Great so great; you just bow to Him without thinking. But that cannot be.

So the first point is to surrender by understanding rationally. Nobody is unconscious, nobody is in the subconscious. You are all very conscious as to what you are doing and what's happening to you.

So when you see that `the Divine Force is flowing through me, it is coming out as vibrations, it is working out,' [that] you can also manoeuvre it, then rationally you must know the Will of that Divine Power which is flowing. Because your will is still not up to that Will of vibrations.

Still, when you rationalise things, you may not be doing the same thing as the vibrations will be wanting. To begin with, I am saying. Now you want to go to the right, but supposing you have to go to the left, for what? For a gain, for your evolution, for your more understanding of the Divine [Power], for the dissolution of your ego.

Now ego and your will are two different things. This is the point I think, perhaps, that is bothering you.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes.

Shri Mataji: You have reached that point now.

Ego and your will is to be found out. How? By finding out your Self.

Now, what is your Self? Is the Spirit within you. Alright? How do you know your Self? Because, after realisation, It vibrates and It tells you.

So your will becomes the will of your Spirit, not of your ego; because you are also superego. And with ego you have done mistakes, you have achieved no evolution. You have achieved nothing through your ego. But you don't trust your ego, don't challenge it, you don't over power it. But you replace it by the will of your Self. That's a part within you.

The more you start learning about vibrations, learning what they are saying to you, how they teach you, you will learn about your Self. For example, a child uses his hands first of all, he puts the hand on the hot plate and sees it's hot, then on the cold plate and sees it's cold: trial and error. He learns what is correct, what is incorrect, what is what. Actually [he learns] what is the reality. Actually in hot and cold there's nothing like `bad' and `wrong', but it's the reality: this is hot, that burns your hand; cold that freezes you.

In the same way, when you start using vibrations, you start learning about your Self. That's the first time you are using your Self, because that Self is so far not known.

So the free will to know your Self is there. If you don't want to know, nobody is going to force you.

This free will has to be achieved yourself.

Within your Self this free will is active through your egoless Self, but not as ego but [as] the completely conscious mind. Now there is a difference between the completely conscious mind and the ego. This differentiation must be brought in, then you will know what is free will and what is the ego.

Your preconscious mind is on the right hand side and the complete right hand side channel, starting from your ego, up to the Mūlādhāra, the complete channel, is the preconscious mind, that you call as the Mana, in the Sanskrit language. This preconscious mind is the horse. Now you also guide that horse.

Now the part that guides that horse is which part? Is that which guides even that horse. Is it the ego or the whole thing? So we should say that, ego is known as Ahaṁkāra, is the complete thing. And the `Aham' part, the `I'-ness, that is... I don't know in English what do you call it? The one, that `I' that does it. It operates this ego. We can say that it's the shadow of Self within you. Or we can [say] there is someone who is all the time seeing you. You are not connected with the Self but you know the dictums of the Self. There's somebody who's watching all the time. We can say the shadow of that, which is spread in our being, of the Self, is that. We know what that wants. When we are committing mistakes, we know we are committing mistakes. If we are thieving, we know we are thieving. That Light is all the time there, that is the Self Itself. We know that it is there but there is no other side of what is touched. That is, you see the projection of that in you, but you cannot reach from where the projection is coming.

That's [the] One who known as Kshetra-gnya, is the one who knows the field, the Knower of the field.

Actually it is the Self Itself. But His vision in us, the vision of that, you can call, that's what I call is the shadow, the vision of that Self, we are all the time conscious about it. It is watching us even when we are alone, when we are in company and everywhere, It is watching us. This One in the [Bhagavad] Gītā is called as Kshetra-gnya, `Kshetra' is the field and the One is the Knower of the field [is Kshetra-gnya].

Actually the Knower is the Self, but through its vision, through its power of knowledge it is knowing everything and we know that It is there. `We' that means the ego part. The ego knows that somebody is watching it.

In Sahaja Yoga, everything, what happens [is] that that vision that you have throughout, becomes the vibrations: in the sense that you can have a rapport with that point from where it has manifested. Did you follow Me? If you have not you tell Me.

Like this is the [electric] light, alright? This light has an aura or it has a light spread out of itself.

What do you say to that light which is spreading out? Apart from the light that is there. I'll just call it the shadow, alright? Alright? So the light that is spreading out from there is knowing about what you are doing and you know that shadow force. It's like a shadow within you. You know in your Self what you are doing. And that is the shadow that carries all your deeds onto, also your Kuṇḍalinī and it sits down there. That is what sometimes you call as `human awareness'. That light is the human awareness as you call it. But ego is not the same because It can see the ego, It can see the superego. But, what you say is the `I': the light that is closed in this room, by this candle or by this [electric] light is what you call the `I', the closed one. And this knows about everything and you know that this Light knows that [about] what you are doing.

This [electric] light does not know. It's just the opposite the other way. This light that is inside this room does not know what you are doing but through this light you know what is in this room. Do you follow this point? The light that is spread in the room, that light has no awareness. Alright? But because of this light we can know what is in this room. Just the opposite is the Light of Selfs. The Light of Self knows what we are doing and because of that Light we also know what we are doing. If we were unconscious we would not know we are doing.

So that Light or that aura of Light, sparks at the conscious moment, at the conscious moment. Like this, you can say: supposing this is the past and this is the future, in the center is the mind, is the... is the conscious mind and in this conscious mind you see the Light of the knowledge, what you know.

Sahaja Yogi: The conscious [mind] is the Self?

Shri Mataji: No, no. Conscious [mind] is the area in which the Light of the Self makes you aware of what you are. Like the gleam of the light passing through, you can say. From the side the light's come alright? And it enlightens the conscious mind and the conscious mind knows, in the conscious area, in the conscious area, that Light knows what you are doing. And you are also aware of that Light.

Gregoire: What difference [is there] between the preconscious mind and conscious mind in the location?

Shri Mataji: The location is conscious in the center and preconscious on the right. Alright? Preconscious is on the right and conscious is in the center.

Now the preconscious mind, whatever the preconscious mind is doing, we know in the area of the conscious mind. This Light gives us the awareness of it.

Gregoire: Of the light.

Shri Mataji: Of what? Gregoire: Of the light.

Shri Mataji: The Light is the aura of the Self.

Sahaja Yogi: It's like a mirror.

Shri Mataji: Hmm?

Sahaja Yogi: It's a mirror. The conscious mind is a mirror for the preconscious mind.

Shri Mataji: You see when you say `mirror' it becomes one-sided, that's the point, that's why I'm saying. It is not one-sided, It is all-sided. If you just use as a mirror, then it has to be one side, you see.

But it's not like that. It is on all side[s]. The aura is on all side[s], or you can say it falls onto the edges of the conscious mind, of the preconscious mind and the subconscious mind, in the center, in the conscious area. But that's the Light part. The conscious mind itself, the conscious itself, mind, has no meaning if we are not aware. The conscious mind can sleep off if you are not aware of the Light.

So that Light which is coming to you, the Self becomes Light.

Now human beings have that Light much brighter than the animals have. That's why I call it a Light, it's not only the conscious mind, because the animals also have the conscious mind. But your Light is different from their light. Your awareness is much higher and is built up. How? By developing your Chakras.

Say, for example, we can say, or if you can say yes even reflection you can say that the, in the center is the Light. Alright? And [if] all the sides are reflecting, then you can use the same waves. Or supposing this is the conscious mind, this is also the conscious mind, so the light is in the center and the light is reflected on these... these walls. Now the conscious mind of the human beings, supposing, are these walls and they are evolved and developed to such a point that they see what wrong they are doing and they can see for themselves.

If they keep these walls clear and clean, the conscious mind I am saying, that means you are alert about what you are doing with your conscious mind. Then you keep these walls absolutely clean, then the reflection is very clear. But still there is no rapport established between the walls and the light, vice versa I mean. This way it is, for light knows the walls, walls also know there is a Light which knows about it, everything. But the rapport, in the sense that the light cannot do anything about the Self and the Self cannot do about the light. Did you follow that?

Sahaja Yogi: Of the wall?

Shri Mataji: Of the wall.

But that Light exists. It exists. It tells you the reality. It tells you `This is what you are. Here you are. This is your position,' this Light is telling you. This is the Kshetra-gnya, the one who knows the field, the one who is... He just tells you. It makes a clear-cut idea to you that, `You are here. This, you have got spots on your wall, you have got spoilt your walls, there is no reflection properly coming' or `there is reflection coming,' if you are alright. Now the better you are... the better you are, the better is the Light and there is no conflict coming, nicely going on. That's why I said to be in the center.

Now, you can say that the attention, say, is in the walls, your attention is spread on the walls. Alright? From there it acts. It acts inside and outside. The attention acts outside, as you know, it's very easy to act outside. But inside it acts only as far as knowing that, `I know everything what I talk.' Did you follow that point? Attention is on the walls. Human attention is on the walls. This attention knows that there is a light inside it and it puts that light, I mean, as far as possible, outside also it can extend its light outside. In the sense that, supposing a person, he is not realised but he's a Dharmic fellow, so his light is quite alright, no problem, he doesn't have any conflicts [as] he's Dharmic. He's a nice religious man and he knows there is light, he knows and there is no conflict between the light and himself.

So the aura is absolutely nicely put. Or supposing there's a conflict between this and this: the aura will be disturbed. But actually there is no disturbance in the light itself. But because of these walls, it may be looking disturbed. You see, because, you see, when the light is falling on something, like you see the water and if the water is not steady, you see, it's moving like that. Alright? So, like that, the attention is here [on the walls]. Attention if it is unsteady, then the image you get is blurred, of the light. And the light that you throw out, outside, becomes the blurred image of that light. Alright? So, now we are coming to the conscious mind.

Conscious mind is the one, in that area which is a very shortened time, very short time, between the future and the past is just a little time, very little time. Is called as Vilamba, in the Sanskrit language. Is a very-very, very small, little time. And we cannot stop there.

So [in] that area suddenly you touch the aura, you can say, the light and there you see.

So then you know what it is.

Then again you are thinking about the past, or you think about the future. That time, you know what you are thinking. But then you come to the conscious area and [UNCLEAR you think, `Oh I have been thinking like that I should not] do it.' Because you are moving all the time on waves, in between these two waves is the conscious mind. A little bit, a very little bit is there, in the beginning. Alright? Now below that is the unconscious mind, you can say. Actually it is above but we can say, below, just now to explain. Like, the waves rising this way, that way, in between there is little gap and there where, in the conscious mind, you are touching that light of the unconscious mind.

So that unconscious mind, what we call as unconscious mind, is that aura or the Light of the Self.

So every moment you are conscious, you are conscious of your unconscious mind. Conscious in the sense that you know that the unconscious mind knows, that's why.

It's really remarkable how it's made. For example you can say like that, you come up on one wave, you find it's here, `Oh yes, I know all that what I'm thinking.' Then again you go on thinking, thinking.

Again you come to the conscious mind, `Oh yes, I know what I'm thinking.' Like that the conscious mind [knows]. This is the Light of the unconscious mind. You can think like a... waves. Alright? Do you follow Bohdan? Dr. Bohdan: Yah.

Shri Mataji: Try to follow it you see, then it will be nice.

Now questioning you don't ask. Just now you try to follow, because it's a subtle subject and if you have to understand the subtle, you see, I have to use analogies which are not subtle.

So, in analogies, don't get lost. I'm just trying to tell you how to understand what is the unconscious mind within us and where do we stand as far as the conscious mind is concerned.

The edge of the unconscious mind is the unconscious; edge of it. And there is the attention also.

[UNCLEAR]. Now what happened, you are moving, say, your attention. Now attention, let's see, the attention is moving, say, you can take it, to the future or the past. Now the attention goes like that. And at the conscious mind, suddenly you know you'll become aware of it. Your attention becomes aware, `Oh!' Otherwise you are just thinking, thinking, thinking like that. But when again you touch at the conscious mind, again you become aware. Again you move like this, then you are lost, again you become conscious.

Now this Light is coming from where? Is from the Self.

Where is the ego and where is the superego in this? Now this wave is the past and this is the future.

So, all the time you are moving from past to the future, past to the future, like that, you see. But in this jumping there's a little time in between where you are conscious of it. And whenever you are moving from one to another, before realisation I am saying, all this I am telling you about before realisation, you are conscious that there is something under flow, which is knowing where, how we are `jumping', whether this or that. You are going this way, that way, this way, that way, all the time, you see, forwards, backwards, whatever it is. But you are moving [in] this way.

Now, the movement of the conscious mind you can see, but it's a split of a second, just a split of a second, before realisation. Did you follow this point or not Doctor Bohdan? Make it very clear or not? So we move on to another point.

Attention is moving which is on the edge. You see, attention is, you can say that attention is another light or you can say another sort of a, which is the human side of it, you see, which is moving from there, energy, then the attention is another energy, which is moving like this, on the edge. It is generated from your liver. This energy is generated from your liver. And it comes out and it is just like a very thin edge, you can say, the attention.

So the attention is recording where are we. But when it touches the conscious mind, it becomes conscious of what you are, “This is me." Maybe when you are stealing you are not conscious, but when you have stolen, suddenly you come back, “Oh God, I did that!" You become conscious of it.

So the attention is moving like this, which makes you aware of that.

Now, the human attention has been evolved at the edge of the preconscious and the subconscious mind.

Do you follow this point or not? On the edges.

Sahaja Yogi: Shri Mataji

Shri Mataji: The human attention... Yes. [Shri Mataji stops the talk to enquire with a lady in Hindi about the health of someone who has just arrived. She then seems to recap what She has already explained for the benefit of that person.] Aaye, baitho. Aa jao [come here, sit down]. Just to explain to you...

This is the unconscious mind here. Alright? And this is the right hand side, is what you call the preconscious mind and this is the subconscious mind. The attention is in between, you see, connected with the unconscious mind as you can call it. But this unconscious mind in the angle I have shown like that.

Just to show you [that] it's the unconscious mind I will show you. But actually you know, the unconscious mind is a part of it in the Kuṇḍalinī and part up there.

So it is, just to show you, I have shown [it], saying you can call it the aura of Kuṇḍalinī you can call it. But now here it is easier to understand, it [UNCLEAR is very easier to understand from this diagram] is like this. Alright? It is like this, the attention is spread out, throughout. And this area I've enlarged it's not such a big area, I've just enlarged it [on the diagram]. This is the area of the conscious mind, which is a very small area. And this part is the ego and the superego is here. And this lining is the conscious mind.

Sahaja Yogi: This is in the head?

Shri Mataji: No, no, no! This is in the human being, column, the complete column, the complete thing, I'm telling you. The Iḍā and Piñgalā. This is the Piñgalā and this is the Iḍā. At the [UNCLEAR edge/deck] of that you see is the [UNCLEAR unconscious mind] and inside it is the conscious mind is put. This is a very small area.

Now what happens, that, here is the Kuṇḍalinī. Alright? That is also the unconscious mind, part of the unconscious mind. And here is the unconscious mind you can say. I have shown you [that] here is the Self. And the Self, the Sadāśhiva's seat is here. This sees, from here it sees all over. It comes out, your Spirit comes out, goes round and sees you. It is on your head, resides on your head, mostly in your... up in your heart and it is watching you around. It knows, it is all the time knowing about you. And this light that is here, we are also aware that it's there. We know that this light is recording us, we are aware of it. All the time we are aware that this light is trickling down and there's a little glimmer of that light coming in that little gleam of Light, you can say, into the conscious mind.

So we are aware that this light is knowing about us. What we do is to, by raising the Kuṇḍalinī is here... [GAP]... that the attention gets enlightened... [GAP]... pushes this out and take this attention into this.

So a rapport is established between the Spirit and your Self. If you can think, if you can make it a small one, you see, the Kuṇḍalinī a small one, but supposing I had made a big one; so the Kuṇḍalinī rises, touching the attention like this, all over, goes up here, focuses, becomes one.

Gregoire: Because the attention is on the whole Nāḍī from the Mūlādhāra up to the bottom it's not in the mind.

Shri Mataji: What?

Sahaja Yogi: The attention.

Shri Mataji: No, no. Attention is not in the mind alone, attention is all along and is generated through your, is generated, I mean it is not generated we should say, but we can say it is, sort of, looked after or maintained or attended to, through your liver. But, you see, the evolution of mind, as the mind grows up, this attention becomes improved. In an animal, attention is not like this. He is just a straight line, from here to here, you see.

In this the attention becomes wider, bigger and intelligent. It has both the things fully developed. In the animals it's just a few layers developed there and they are in a straight line. You see, this doesn't come up in an animal, this is ego and superego when they meet they stick over itself. Because of this, you see, closing down, it develops its own awareness. By closing down it develops itself, as Gregoire has said it, as an egg, you see, sometimes.

So this is the crust that is formed and it develops within itself, so it is self-contained.

Now for developing this you use your ego or superego. But if you do it in equal way, keeping to the center, so there is no increase on this side or that side. Now, what is the ego? Is a bulge out here. And what is the superego? Is a bulge out here. It goes up like a bulge here like a mound, comes out bulging [laughing].

Do you understand? Now no use pushing it down or doing anything about it. What you should do is to put attention in the center here, center.

So because of Dharma, Dharma is the one which keeps the bulge there, you see, attached to you.

So the proper, proper road comes in, up to the Nābhī is the bulge, then the waste and all those things drop out and you keep like this. This is a proper sensible person. But normally it is not. Normally it is the question will be like this and this one just hanging out. Normally the person is not like this, you see. This comes up like this, I mean, in the West I am saying and it's attached like to a peg like that. This one is rudimentary. Now where do you take out? Here? This hand? It's like that.

So now you understand what I mean. Now is it clear now? Attention, supraconscious? It's a difficult subject. It's a difficult subject.

You understand mentally.

Then above, the God's attention is not like yours. You see, your attention is much more than an animal's attention is, that you can realise. But God's attention is manifold dynamic than yours is.

So when you become [one] with That, you see, That attention, becomes your attention, It starts flowing through you.

So it forms in another way, that is the God's attention and you start getting the vibrations in the hands.

First time you start, in the conscious mind it starts flowing and you develop that sort of a sheath here, you can say and you start feeling the vibrations. But again when you go this way a little bit more, it stops; or this way more, it stops. Again you bring it in the center and gradually allow the space to be more. Now this is what is the surrender, is the space more there. Because you don't allow this to work out [ego], or this to work out [superego] but just allow a space so it starts opening out and the Light starts working.

Sahaj Yogi: It's like in Indian music, when they go like that and they come back to the note. That you just did this now.

Shri Mataji: `Sum' that is what it is called as, sum. Sum means actually `equal', sum. Like when they come to that point, you see, to the first point, in the Indian music you see, they go on playing, notes, this is like say, sixteen beats. They go sixteen into 10 but again they'll come back to the same point you see. This same, must meet in the same and that's it you see.

So `sum' is equal. That point, everything has to meet.

And when all this is opened out, actually, here I've shown it like that, but if you put the Chakras, connected to the point, in between. This attention goes and is actually connected to the Chakras here, you see, so the Kuṇḍalinī passes through the Chakras. We can see there is a Chakra here and a Chakra here and a Chakra here and a Chakra here.

When you allow this space to increase more, you see, then what happens [is] these Chakras also open out. In these Chakras your own Deities are there. They have their own thing and they are one with it, you see.

So it works in unison and that's why [UNCLEAR].

But this space, leaving this space itself, means surrender, in the normal understanding. Because the dynamic is there. Dynamic is all-pervading, it is working out. Alright? It is all good. It is working out It's job. It is there. But the problem is your attention has not grown that subtle, is to enter into it. When it becomes that subtle, only human beings can become that, it opens out. Actually the Kuṇḍalinī adds that subtleness to it, the subtle system and She brings it up. And then that subtleness gets [UNCLEAR triggered] gives you a lining of subtleness and that becomes one, subtle with this, you see and it starts pumping through that subtleness areas, vibrations start.

The more you open out this part, you become one with this.

So what? You become the Self.

Now, this Self, here, this Self is the nucleus in the body and that body is a cell in the bigger body.

Alright? So, you become one with the All-pervading Force, that is the Will of God, which is known to this Self, the nucleus you can say. Every Self knows what God knows, fully, completely.

So as soon as you allow your `knowledge', so-called, to drop out a little bit, the Real Knowledge starts pouring [in you] and then, oh, you can order about. Then you can say whatever you feel like [and] it just works [out]. But because of this, an ancient stuff with you, the lining being the new one, you see, it's difficult to identify that lining fully with yourself. If you could, then, you would be just there, no problem of clearing anything and it's all cleared.

This light, when it flows, this passes through all the Chakras and comes out. First the Kuṇḍalinī comes up. She opens the Chakras, makes the place, opens it out. Also, by Her coming up, you see, there's a little light that comes up. But when this starts pouring down, you see, It covers this much more. But It doesn't cover directly like that but through the Chakras It passes through. That's why your Chakras are to be cleansed out. Because the passage is through the Chakras, there is Chakras here all opened out Chakras here. Alright? Did you follow this? Michael, how are you feeling? Put it straight. It's cold?

Very cold that hand? You can take it up, you take it up. It's alright. Close the door. Yes. Now, put your hands together.

Today, as we know that, this is the day of Mohammed Sahib's birthday. And we have to understand that all these incarnations came at different times. They all came at different times. And They came as a continuous process of evolution of man. No question of conflict or anything with them. No question. You see, human beings can't understand, because they create conflict, they are built for conflicts with this thing closing down, you see.

So They just came on this earth, nobody's property. They came as incarnations on this Earth, all of Them. He [Mohammed Sahib] came after Christ. You see His position. Because Christ came as an Incarnation which was the Son of God, the Son aspect of God. And He talked [of] forgiveness.

And the Christian doctrine... doctrine has call it the suffering and the Christians must suffer.

So, all those Christians must suffer, you see, there's sort of a thing just branded on you. Then anybody kills, you should accept killing. Anybody wants to hurt you, you must accept. `You must suffer'. Even if you don't suffer you must inflict suffering on yourself.

This funny doctrine, you see, everybody is surprised, “From where did they get it?" Christ did not suffer. He cannot suffer. How can They suffer? If He could suffer then how was He the Son of God? He could not. It was just a drama. Actually His message was resurrection. But the Christians started using it as a suffering: so They [the Deities] said, “Oh God, now what to do?" So we said now we have to send Somebody else, “Now whom do We send?" Someone Who will be able to teach them there's no suffering.

You have to defend, you have to fight! How they have been made to suffer.

Like I'll tell you somebody from Muktananda had come to My program, horrible fellow he was, sick.

He came and he started saying all kinds of things there.

So the Sahaja Yogis got angry, you know, Modi and all that. He said, “We'll beat you if you don't shut up!" He started saying “Oh, you are like this, you are like that." He [Modi] said, “You don't say anything to our Mother otherwise we'll beat you." He said, “You are Sahaja Yogis and you should bear it." He said, “Jolly well we'll bear you out." “Throw him out" I said “just now and give him two kicks! Just now you throw him out, immediately." If he had said anything to Christ's Mother, He would have taken the same cross and hit all of them nicely. That's why it was arranged that nothing should be said about Christ's Mother because that would have been the sensitive point. On that point He would never have compromised.

So this foolish idea that all these religious people should suffer. And then why the religion? Why should you have the religion? I mean if you have to have suffering on account of religion [it's] better not have such a horrible religion! You see, it is like purchasing fruit, sufferings. No! Where did it say? I don't know. Where in the Bible it is said that “All the Christians must suffer"? I don't know what point you get from where! Gregoire: Je... Je... It is reported in the Bible that Jesus said to a young man that, “if you want to follow me take your cross” or something like that.

Shri Mataji: Alright. That doesn't mean that you suffer! “If you want to follow me take your cross." Now, what is cross? You know [that it] is the symbol of innocence. I say take your cross, because you see, if you are coming here, as you are, you have to be moulded, you have to be brought to the proper balance, so you a little bit suffer. When you try to test other's vibrations, you do get a little bit of that burning and all that. That's not the way, you see, to have understood, “Carry your crosses." Now what is your cross? I mean [it's] absurd, I tell you, the whole understanding of Christ. You see, you make such a Great Personality into nothing, absolutely! You see, He came here to teach you to suffer? I mean can you think of such a thing! What brains and what intelligence all your, these `great' priests are using to say that, “He came here to teach you to suffer."

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR The problem, they'd trouble with their liver...]

Shri Mataji: Ha? They are what?

Sahaja Yogini: [UNCLEAR The problem, they'd trouble with their liver,] they feel naturally miserable so they think others also should.

Shri Mataji: [Laughing.] No, no, but the preaching is that, “You must suffer."

Sahaja Yogini: Oh, ye. [UNCLEAR].

Shri Mataji: Now even if you take like this a position. You can say that it was that, that if anybody says [something bad] to you, you just don't bother about it, don't bother about it. But why suffer? Suffering means that you bother about it! Otherwise you just don't bother.

Sahaja Yogi: I think it's just a rationalisation of impotency. I think it is that way. Because they were unable to do anything, the priests were unable, they were seeing people suffering around and they were not able to help them, then they said that, “Accept your suffering and enjoy it." I think...

Shri Mataji: And enjoy your suffering? No it's an absurd doctrine of nonsense.

Sahaja Yogini: The original doctrine was that you offer whichever sufferings to God and then it got twisted there that you have to feel miserable. But the original idea was...

Sahaja Yogi: Suffering was like tapas or something like that.

Sahaja Yogini: The... what...

Shri Mataji: Tapas.

Sahaja Yogini: What suffering comes to you, you have to accept it and offer it to God. I mean, some people do still teach the... the... the right thing but most people just think that you are to feel miserable.

Shri Mataji: You see, it is, I wish, you couldn't say, it's an offering or anything. God's name or God Itself is a balm [UNCLEAR to you]. You see, you have pain in the stomach, when you put hands towards Me, supposing, you get alright. Finished! Now what are you offering to Me? I'm not going to get anything.

It's such a different thing altogether, you see. Suffering and God are two different things. God is the One who balms [cures] your suffering. What is that 23rd Psalm is? Does it say you suffer? Where, which one is such a great thing that such big doctrine has come up? From where I don't know: that we all should suffer. It is all the time promised [that] even those who are suffering will be helped, “blessed are those."

Sahaja Yogi: It was always an actualisation of the promise. [UNCLEAR Gavin Brown].

Shri Mataji: Gregoire...

Gregoire: If it... Mātājī if you wouldn't have come.

Shri Mataji: Hm.

Gregoire: OK and we are suffering.

Shri Mataji: [UNCLEAR].

Gregoire: OK, let's say one life earlier.

Gavin Brown: Say, supposing that you had not come? Gregoire: Now, let's say one life earlier.

Gavin Brown:... we would not have understood what Christ was about.

Gregoire: We are suffering because there is a mess around.

Shri Mataji: Alright.

Gregoire: And the only way we can bear it, we don't see any issue, the only way we can bear it is in thinking that our suffering has a meaning. And the only way we can think of our suffering has a meaning is in... [UNCLEAR]...

Shri Mataji: The simple meaning is, because of your mistakes you are suffering! Gregoire: That does not help!

Shri Mataji: It's a very simple thing, you know. It's very, very simple. You human beings, put them on one side, God on another side, alright? You cut each other's throats, God has told you to cut each other's throats? If there is war, Then who? God has created war? Physically also, if you neglect yourself, you do all kinds of things, then you suffer! Who has asked you to read so many books? Who has asked you first of all to create so many books? What do you know to create so many books? That's it! So, you see, you are doing it, so you face it also here! Did God ask you to write so many books and read them and condition yourself? Who has asked you to listen to Freud? But inside you, He's all the time talking and telling you. It's not that He's given you up. He's all the time guiding you. Only thing you should have done is to accept His advice. All the time He's telling you, “It's wrong, it's too much you are doing it." You can even see your ego, what more do you want to see? When you know your horse is being a fast one, so why not make it a slow [moving one]? You know you are missing your targets, why not straight on? Did God tell you all these things the way you doing to yourself miserably [UNCLEAR]? Now this girl has [UNCLEAR] husband has met there. The one who has committed that sin, did God go tell him, `You go and commit that sin?' He must be going somewhere in a hurry, he must go?... [GAP]... there is God and also we know that He is reflected in us, in our heart as Spirit, as Ātmā, as Self....

Now, when we know about the three channels that are working within us, of Mahākālī, Mahālakṣhmī and Mahāsaraswatī; the three powers of Iḍā, Piñgalā and Suṣhumnā, which create the subconscious, preconscious and the conscious mind, are working in our consciousness. That means we are conscious of them.

We are conscious of our left and right, that is Iḍā and Piñgalā sympathetic nervous system. We are not conscious of the parasympathetic. That means that we can increase the rate of our heart, we can increase the rate of our breathing but we cannot decrease it. The decrease, or what you call the lowering down of the rate, is done by parasympathetic.

So the parasympathetic is active, but we are not conscious of it, in the sense that we have no control over it.

The Spirit, that is God, which is reflected in us, resides in the heart.

The manifestation of Spirit in our heart controls the parasympathetic. But this Spirit is the reflection of God Almighty in our heart as if in a mirror. And Divine Love, which is the Light of God, is reflected in us through the reflection of the Spirit as the unconscious mind.

So within us there is an area about which we are not conscious. That is why it is called as unconscious.

That area lies so far away from our conscious mind that we cannot control it. We are not conscious of it.

But it acts through parasympathetic activity. How it acts, I will give you a simile: Supposing there is a power [that] works, somewhere and it is acting through this [electric] light over here. You don't see the power work or the factory or wherever the power is created, but what you see is the manifestation here and you see the light.

But supposing you do not see the light nor the lamp nor the factory but you are affected by it, that is the situation of a human being. A normal human being who is not a realised Soul, is not aware of that factory, which is God, or the light it has got, is not aware of the lamp that he has got in his heart and is also not aware of the light that the lamp is emitting. But it is acting.

So the unconscious mind is nothing else but the projection of God's Will through the Light of Divine Love.

I have given this simile again and again, which is very good and apt: that, these two powers that are within us, one on the left, another on the right hand side, are there and we are conscious of them and we use them. Out of them, the right we use it in absolute awareness. Left one, we know is used as subconscious mind and sometimes, if you take drugs or you do something like that, then you go to your subconscious also.

So you can become aware of the subconscious area also.

So you become, you are aware of, the right hand side already and you are aware of the subconscious sometimes when you try to get aware of it.

So these two powers that are within us are all the time vibrating in a wave and the points at which they meet, they create the throb, or you can say the center. Center is created, a Deity is placed [there], but there is no light for us to see or to feel or to be conscious of the Deities. Deities are fast asleep.

When the Kuṇḍalinī rises... now Kuṇḍalinī is the subconscious. You'll be surprised that Kuṇḍalinī is a Mahākālī power. She is absolutely pure, in the purest form, because She is not used. We can say [that] part of it is used in us, our subconscious.

Sort of, we have kept some water separately which we have not used so far.

So first of all we use the subconscious water and the preconscious water and we dirty it, we exhaust it. Then this stored up power rises and does the last cleansing. But when She rises She creates a third current. Still that third current, when She is rising, doesn't have the light. But when It reaches the Sahasrāra and pierces it, then it becomes one with the Universal Consciousness. Because what is God? Is the One who controls the Universal Consciousness. She [He] is The Controller of the Universal Consciousness.

She emits the Light and when this Kuṇḍalinī rises it gets that flame on it.

So now all the Deities get awakened. Now, you may say that, `It is in the heart, Mātājī you are saying, you are saying it is here.' It's a confusion people think. But actually it is All-pervading. Say, God is a nucleus you can say or a factory, which has the light all over and is reflected in the heart.

So when your Kuṇḍalinī, a particular individual Kuṇḍalinī, touches that, then this Light takes place, then in the heart the Spirit is ignited, or sort of it emits, it's manifest, it projects. And it's projections are these vibrations.

So, through this, you know the Will of God. Through this you have a dialogue with God and you understand Him, what He wants. And what does He want [is for] you to know there are three qualities of God which you can feel through this.

One: what is the Truth. You ask any questions, if you are asking for something and if it is in `yes' then you will get too many vibrations. If it is in `no' vibrations will lower down. That's how you can verify what is right and what is wrong. What is the Truth, what is not the Truth, now you can know.

Nobody has to tell you, you don't need any clergyman or anybody to certify it, it is there. Through your vibrations you can feel it, this is the Truth or not? Is it a correct place you have come to or to the wrong place? Then also the various combinations and permutations of these, you see, it is true, but still there's a little point that is wrong in you. For example, if you say that, `Christ was resurrected in person?' Yes, that's true, you'll get more vibrations. But if you see now, that, if you say, “Is it Mātājī the Mother of Christ?" If you do not accept it, you will not get it on the Sahasrāra.

(date not OK) The Kuṇḍalinī is flowing just like the river Ganges and as you allow yourself to flow with it, you enjoy all the nature around you and you become thoughtless. You mature in meditation by Nirvicharitā. Sahaja Yoga only works in thoughtless awareness and the present is thoughtless awareness.

[Sahaja Yogis flow with it. The flow continues during cooking, eating and walking. But their attention always remains alert on her.] Shri Mataji [smiling]: You have entered the river of Tao. Its thoughtless awareness will give you peace and a witness state to enjoy the drama of life.

[Little by little, she stepped in the Ganges at Har Ki Pauri and allowed her children to wash Her Lotus feet. Suddenly the Ganges rose and circumambulated her Lotus Feet.]

[Gregoire de Kalbermatten introduces Her Holiness Shri Mataji Nirmalā Devī:]... and we are very much blessed, because Mātājī herself has accepted to grace this function.

So with your permission I would like to welcome Her with a mantra, a mantra being a kind of auspicious ritual prayer that they say in India.

Om sākṣhāt Śhrī Parameśhwarī Paraśhakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Ādi Shakti sākṣhāt Śhrī Bhagavatī sākṣhāt Shri Mataji Śhrī Nirmalā Devī namo namaḥ Sahaja Yoga is a very big thing and those of you who have seen `Time Out' [a magazine] know that we have gone on records to say that Mātājī will grant Self-realisation. Now this is very big thing and the process of Self-realisation itself, what happened, how it happened, Mātājī who is the master of that art will explain to you herself. What I should probably tell you is what My own experience has been.

My experience is identical to the experience of many many people. Before meeting Mātājī two years ago, two years and a half, you see I was looking for something. I didn't call it always God but... I was looking for God. I was looking for beauty, for justice, I was looking for truth and I had enough sense to realise that our society wasn't exactly offering that. We have been many like that. I have friends like that in the United States, in this country, in other countries where we have been seeking in all possible directions.

Well, all those directions haven't been very successful. We have gone through various things such as Guru shopping, such as drug, too much attention in external things, too much involvement. When I was in the States two years ago I was in a pretty bad shape, I could not stop my thought process anymore.

I mean I was thinking at terrific speed which was rather annoying, I mean I was thinking while sleeping also, which isn't the best way to have a good night. I had gone into the American drug culture, it is called, `cause' I wanted to see what they found there, but they didn't really find anything. They were very much more confused the more they sought.

Yet, in all the scriptures it is said that fulfilment of human life is found by finding oneself, by going inside and that inside is the source of joy, peace and happiness. Now the only snag is how to do it. Fine, when I was in America I met a boy in Berkeley and he was, well he's actually one of... probably one of the wealthier chap in India. He's a very sweet boy, also very bright, he was doing an M.B.A. in economics in Berkeley and he saw that I was completely frantic.

He saw that, I mean... I was running left and right and he told me I know someone who can answer all your questions and who can give you what you are looking for and, I know that she is that and that she can give you Self-realisation. Now I have had heard many things of that kind, you see, I mean today there are very many Gurus around.

I mean plastic Gurus, rubber Gurus, all kind of Gurus.

So, I mean I wasn't impressed until he showed me a picture of Mātājī and until he told me that she is a mother and a Guru and she has come many time in the past as Rādhā, as Sītā, as the Virgin Mary. Now this was very very big statement and I knew that you can't grasp the truth or the untruth of such a statement by the mind, these things go beyond the mind.

So maybe it was right, maybe it was wrong. But it was big enough to catch my curiosity, certainly and my attention.

So I decided to go to London and see Mātājī.

Now, when I met Mātājī for the first time, I mean I was really in a bad shape, I mean, externally I was pretty normal, but I knew that I had a lot of nervous stresses although I had managed my studies and my job alright. I knew I couldn't carry on very long time without getting quite mad, in a way.

So what happened was absolutely stupefying, because I felt absolutely at home. Mātājī was, I mean, very very... just loving and simple and just like you'd like feeling being with your mother after a long long time and even my mother wouldn't give me this feeling because my mother is pretty spaced out also. And it was something very great. And what happened is that after some time, you see I began feeling things, I mean Mātājī said you are in a bad shape and it will take time for you, but things can be taken care of if you really want the real thing you will get it.

So, I began feeling something in my hands and the more I was feeling it, I realised that this kind of breeze, well it is like a breeze and you know, I mean it can be just a creeping at the tips of the fingers, then I realised that it was slowly changing my state of awareness. I mean, the activity of the mind was dropping down.

I was very much more quiet inside which was for me a big achievement. I realised also that, I mean in this silence, you see something was kind of downing and this thing was like a silent joy. I mean, I felt incredibly happy to exist which was not a very familiar feeling before, although you see I had read that all this takes place, that God is Sat-chit-ānanda, which means truth, consciousness and bliss, although I knew that realisation is the point where you begin enjoying these things. To read it doesn't make you feel it and to understand it with you mind doesn't make you experience it.

So, I went through this absolutely bewildering experience that I was just, you know, getting what I had been looking for. And that was...

[GAP]... I couldn't take it. You see, if you look for something for very long time somewhat you take to like the habit of looking for it, you know? Then it is a very big reality and probably I was too small a stomach to digest it right away.

So it took me sometime to really understand the importance of the whole thing.

I would say that, well probably, I was certainly one of the slowest to grow in Sahaja Yoga, because in India where I have been working with the United Nation in Nepal for some time, I took the opportunity of visiting Mātājī's disciple in India.

Over there in India, see they have a blessing that we don't have, is they are very simple. I mean, they haven't over-developed in their own brain and so they are less inclined to go into one less... speculations.

That makes them much more perceptive than we are and I realised that they were much higher in a way, but with the possibility of meditating, I improved Myself gradually.

Now what happened about couple of days ago was rather impressive. You see I brought my mother here to see Mātājī because, I mean my sister, my brother felt the vibrations, went into this state I mean things began happening to them in a very positive way. Problems they had were solved. They confronted all the surroundings of their life much better.

So, I brought my mother to see Mātājī, because she had health problems and I wanted her to be cured. And also I wanted her if possible to get realisation.

Then what happened is that my mother wouldn't get her realisation until some specific mantra would be said and before telling you what that is, I should like to go back a little bit to the past and to tell you that we have to realise one thing is that Self-realisation is something absolutely fantastic. I mean it is something that it takes thousands and thousands of years of people to achieve.

There is a great saint in India who know who Mātājī is, his name is Gagangiri Mahārāj and he said, “Why are you giving Self-realisation to people in a matter of seconds or minutes when it took me twenty thousand years to get it?" And, not only with Mātājī Self-realisation can be given in a couple of minutes, but it is given at that mass level and we feel each other in collective consciousness, that means if I put my attention on someone I can know what is the condition of the Chakra in this person.

Even ourselves, I think, hopeless as we are, I mean we have the power to raise the... I mean to grant realisation of somebody in given circumstances. I mean this is something, which is unprecedented, it just didn't happen before. What you read in the scriptures is that great saints, you know, had to go to the jungle, on the Himālayas and meditate, you know and do penance and do all these kind of things. Now we are here, I mean we have jobs, we have eventually wives and childrens and still we get our realisation within the world.

This is something absolutely incredible.

So, this lead me to what should be, I mean, I take too much time, I'm sorry, this lead me to what should be really the main point of this introduction and... See, try just to imagine if we would have been, you know about nineteen-eighty years ago in Jerusalem and a man is coming in the city sitting on a donkey, would we recognize that man to be the Christ of God. Would we? This is not an easy question and the answer is not obvious. You see what we have been doing usually is to crucify an incarnation and then to worship Him, that's human smartness I suppose. This time by the grace of God things are very very different. We have been given informations to understand the crucial happening of the modern time. It has been said, that Christ said I have to leave you, because if I don't leave you, the Holy Spirit will not come.

Now people say, OK the Holy Spirit came on the head of the apostles, but Jesus said also the Holy Spirit will come and convince the world about righteousness and sin and judgment. And obviously if we use our intelligence we can acknowledge that this has not been done yet, because if the world would be convinced about righteousness, sin and judgment the world wouldn't be sinful as it is now.

So. That means that the Holy Spirit was to come after Jesus. Now, in India they have a word for Holy Spirit and this word is Ādi Shakti. Ādi, means primordial and Shakti means power. Ādi Shakti means primordial power or the very power of God. The Ādi Shakti is also said to be the Mother of the universe.

Now, in our Christian tradition we have a Divine Family where you have a father who is God the Almighty and we have a son who is Jesus Christ.

But do you know of a family where there is a father and a son without a mother? So the third is what we call the Holy Spirit. Now, you see, since two years we know these things. Since, I mean two years we can check by vibrations. We can ask questions to the unconscious.

You see, very briefly, those of you who are familiar with Jung and Fromm, Erich Fromm and the latest theory of the psychology on the universal unconscious you know that there is something which is called the universal unconscious and this is from there that all the great intuition and creative thoughts which start arts, science, philosophy, religions, the greatest monuments of mankind, come from the universal unconscious. OK? Now. This universal unconscious is within us, but we cannot reach it. We can reach it once we have gone through the experience of Self-realisation and we can by vibrations ask questions.

So we have asked questions. We have asked, `is Mātājī that?' And the answer has always been `yes'.

So, I knew I was going to talk at this meeting and I didn't know really what to say, because I am a coward. I was coward and actually we all were. You see? We didn't dare telling you what things are, because it's too big. We are all, I mean, rather small... and to be the conveyor of a big truth you have to feel that bigness also. But what happened when my mother got her realisation is, you see she had to go, I mean, she's a very well educated lady and, you know this kind of European background.

And for her it wasn't obvious to prostenate [prostrate] herself at the feet of Mātājī. Yet, she did it.

And when she did it she got her realisation only when I said to Mātājī a specific mantra, you see? So experimentally, we can say that we have had plenty of informations to tell you. What I'm intending to tell you now and...

In the name... of all the prophets and of all the saints, in the name of Lord Rāma, in the name of Lord Kṛiṣhṇa, in the name of Lord Jesus, in the name of Allah, the merciful, the compassionate, all the Sahaja Yogi of the five continents bare witness to the truth, to the fact... that Mātājī Nirmalā Devī is the incarnation of the Holy Spirit. You can't, maybe, believe it, but we don't ask your belief, we don't ask neither belief nor disbelief, this you just can't digest right away. But what we can propose you is to have the honesty, to trust your own experience.

You see? If some of you are going indeed to feel this breeze, then refer to the gospels, it has been said that at the day of Pentecost a mighty wind rushed into the room where the apostles were. You see? The Gnostic fathers said that the spirit is associate with Pneuma or [UNCLEAR noos], which means the breath.

Ādi Shañkarāchārya speaks of Chaitanya, which means Divine vibrations.

So we are equipped to understand this time what is going on. The Ādi Shakti is coming in the Kali Yuga, Kali Yuga is the age of darkness in which we are still, I don't know maybe the golden age has already begun, in fact, it has.

The Holy Mother has come as Mahāmāyā, which means the great illusion.

This means that she cannot be recognized offhand. I mean, it's a great blessing and a great grace to be able to recognize who she is. But, you see the experience of Self-realisation is something which is scientific, in the sense that... OK. What is a scientific proposition? A scientific proposition is a proposition which can be experience and communicated, these are the two criteria. Now, we can experience Self-realisation.

We have all experienced it.

We know it is something which gives you peace and joy and which are soothe your whole being which keeps you in a state of happiness, daily, minutes after minutes, we know that. And we can communicate this experience also, in other words, the conditions for a proposition to be scientific, is fulfilled. And this is what spirituality and science meet at the opening of a new age, because the experience of spiritual awakening can be communicated.

This is by the grace of the Divine Mother and... I shouldn't feel any shyness to tell it that this is the truth, because you have a right to know it. While I was meditating, before, two or three days ago trying to think what should tell, you know, I realised that when I was within myself saying, I prostenate [prostrate] myself before the One who verily is the Almighty Sacred Mother.

While I was saying this the vibration, I mean the wind was so tremendous and I would just go in state of, I mean contemplation which I never knew before and it fits with every single word of all the scriptures, not only the Christian scriptures, but the Indian scriptures. And what more do we want? I mean we all know that this world is not the best place. I mean we all know that there is boredom and ugliness and vulgarity and injustice and oppression and that this world deserve to be changed. We know that we cannot change the world before a change in man. And we know that we cannot change man without man becoming himself. How to do it? This is the time, if we can't find this, that will be total destruction. And it is at that juncture that Mātājī has come.

You see, we are not getting votes. We are not even seeking followers. You will be surprised how many people who come to us and we say sorry we can't help you please leave us alone. We are hoping that by the grace of God all the genuine seekers of reality realise this goodness in themselves, realise that there is a spot in themselves which is innocence, which is sweetness, which is beauty, which is love, but that this spot is really hurt so badly, is really oppressed so badly by daily life.

There's those genuine seekers of reality who want to live in that state and to know what they have been looking for during lives and lives of quest; those are the people that we are calling, because everybody will... not everybody but many many people will get this experience, but you must realise that it's an experience which leaves you absolutely free. You see, you get your realisation, then you walk out, nothing has changed, apparently.

I mean something has changed, but the freedom to go further and do the right thing and not do the wrong thing is left to you. You see? It's not that just overnight you see you are completely pushed in something where you just haven't the facility of making choice anymore. After realisation we have to settle down. We have to do some things like meditating, it's necessary.

We have to avoiding doing some things, some other things which have been described as not being the moral behaviour, I mean, you cannot go on hurting people around, you cannot go on smoking or drinking too much, because it's hurtful to your psychosomatic instruments.

So there are various things we are meant to but after all, if this prize is so big we should be able to, you know, adjust a little bit and this we found out... I mean myself, I found out before realisation I had absolutely, I mean I was into... well, I mean you know, the whole story, girls, alcohol, drugs, I mean whatever. And, I mean I was amazed, after realisation, I mean just dropped like that. And it dropped because I didn't feel any need for anything. I mean I was just perfectly happy being myself. And that was, you see, I mean my sister was very much impressed, because she thought I was useless at, you know, running around and she just found myself completely changed.

So. This is an experience that many people have gone through. This experience can be yours and maybe we can all humbly ask in our heart. You see, I mean, “God we are searching thee, please forgive us our weaknesses. Let us know you for you are the source of all bliss." I mean, let us try to feel that in our heart, because, I know in the west we feel we are quite smart, we have big brains, but what have we achieved, what have we achieved? Look at the world around. I mean, walk around. You see I have been in Nepal for two years and here every single child on the street is smiling. People are smiling and laughing all the times. They are just simply happy. I mean, walk out of this place and look in the street how many people are smiling. I mean, we aren't very happy. Our society hasn't brought the greatest happiness or the greatest number, that's for sure.

So, if we want to be able to change something about it we should begin by changing ourselves.

I think... OK, may God all bless you. That's the only thing that I have to tell you and that's the only thing which is going to happen this evening.

[Shri Mataji speaks:] Gregoire has said so many things that I really don't know what to say after that. Really dumbfounded.

I know it's a fact and you have to face it, though I'm bashful about it.

You were all seeking and I think from the time I remember I haven't met anyone who was not seeking.

They may be seeking in money, in power. But so many of them were really seeking something beyond. In the West, I always felt all the great sages of the old and the ancient times who were seeking God, are born.

I could see, the way you have abhorred materialism; the way you have achieved a kind of a understanding about life... is new thing.

At the time of Christ it was not possible to see such people except for some lepers and some sickly people. There was nobody else who was willing to look at Him. Times have changed no doubt. But, in this seeking, many people have committed lots of mistakes. Mistakes can be forgiven always. They should be rectified.

I've been born with this. I knew I had to do this and I knew I had to be in London one day. All the people who are of a very high, evolved status, I can say, who do not live in the humdrum of life, who do not roam about as Gurus and earn money, who do not claim to be pundits and the temples' and the priest people, those who live away from all of you, hiding themselves in the jungles, they knew it was to happen.

They knew about it. But when the seeking started in the West, like a demand the supply came in. We have so many Sahaja Yogis here sitting down. I would say they are real seekers because they [UNCLEAR denied/renite], defied.

There few things, you can make it out very easily when we have, before us, the life of Christ, by which you can make out who is the true person and who is not. It's not difficult. For example, a person who takes money from you, cannot be, cannot be a person who belongs to God. Person who belongs to God doesn't think much of money or anything. If he's rich, he lives like a rich person. If he's poor, he lives like a poor person; but at heart he's a king. Christ was a son of a carpenter. I see His pictures and I see His Mother's pictures adorned with jewelry. She had only two robes to change. Perhaps it was never realised that money cannot purchase God. In the name of God and religion things have gone so far, so far that I do not blame human beings for taking to science, instead of God.

The misinterpretation has been so much, one can understand. But when there are so many false things in the world, copies, then one must know that there must be something... absolute. Has to be. London is regarded by all those I have been describing about, the people who are great sages, all over the world, as the heart. It saddens Me to see sometimes how people of England have not realised the value of this great country. In this country, long time, much before, much before even Christ came in, people have worked with Kuṇḍalinī. Your Stonehenge is nothing but the Kuṇḍalinī. Vibrations have worked in this country for ages now.

Only I am here to introduce you to them. There is some gentleman I saw copying this Kuṇḍalinī that we have already made for you, all the drawings and everything, for you to see and to understand where are, what are the Chakras and what are the deities ruling them. You should not accept Me even when Gregoire has told you all about these things. Could be wrong. No blind faith is going to lead you to reality, not at all.

By saying “Just believe me” is a wrong style. You should not. But you should not also deny Me. Keep it open. For you are seeking and if I have to just enlighten you because you should enlighten other people, one should not feel hurt about it.

Somebody has to do it. You may be in this place or I may be in your place. Makes no difference. If there's a candle, which is enlightened, it can enlighten other lights if they are ready.

Perhaps, maybe, that I may be knowing all the tricks of the trade. I may be having all the knowledge about it. I may be [UNCLEAR worth/work] it, to know all about that. Let us not be very serious about it, just because Gregoire has struck such a serious note. It's just a play. It's just a play. It's not that serious as we think it to be. It has to be a play because it is so important.

All those things that are important are easiest for us, example: our breathing. Supposing for learning how to breathe, if you have to go to Caxton Hall in the rain, walk all the way, listen to a big lecture and then learn about it, you'd be finished. In the same way if we have to get our realisation by standing on our heads or by renouncing the whole world or, I don't know, dancing on the Oxford Street and all sorts of things, then God save the people who are seeking.

It has to be extremely simple, has to work out that way, because if evolution is complete, we would not have been in confusion. It is not complete, that's why we are confused. Till the animal stage, there is no question of thinking about it. Only when you become human beings you start thinking about it. Only at the human stage you are given freedom to think about it. Animals are in collective consciousness all the time, in the sense they are not conscious of it, but they are driven by it.

[GAP] [Perhaps referring to a book:]... that the whole nature works in such a manner as if there are some organizer which are arranging their coordination, their harmony, their working. Not only that but the death of one thing helps to give life to another. For example, in the nature the leaves have to fall down to the ground to give nitrogen to the ground. Again, to be again renovated, say... you can say, regenerated into the body of the tree to come again into its new foliage and to its bloom.

All kinds of... we can say, real experiments he [the author] has given; but if you now go and read it you will know he's just talking about the collective being, the mass being that is there, the one in which we all exist ourselves and that He is looking after us in every way; and how everything in nature is interdependent; how animals understand; and how every amoeba and paramecium, is a unicellular cell, also understands: what its group is doing and what are the signals and how he receives it; how bees understand where is the honey and how they go and come back the same way, there are no road maps, nothing.

Miles together how do they travel? It's very interesting. And there are many books like this, which you can find from any biologist [UNCLEAR or what is Hedoin `n why] he's a great biologist, I must say. Biologists, because they deal with life, I think they are very much nearer the point.

Another one is Jung who had experimented with collective consciousness. He says that there are dreams we get which are universally the same as far as the symbol is concerned. The symbols that they see whether here or in India or in Australia or in Timbuktu. They're all... when decoded... express the same thing.

For example if it has to express a fear, harmony, anything, it expresses that.

It's surprising. After all there is somebody who is throwing these symbols in the atmosphere where we live. From our unconscious, he says, these are coming. But all these things are like the finding of people who are probing in the dark: they find something here and find something there, you find something there and you put it together. All these things can be put together. All these things can be bridged together, integrated together and can be shown, very easily, if you get your Self-realisation.

Self within you, is in your heart. Your Self. You know there is somebody who knows everything about you. There is someone. If you murder someone, That one knows. If you do anything, That one knows.

And That one that knows is the Self. Now when we talk of God, people have already negated God: they say, “Where is God? Let us see." Without Self-realisation, you cannot know Him.

You cannot know Him through all these so-called conditionings that we have. Like we go to churches and pray, go to the temples and pray, sing songs and mantras and this and that. No. You cannot know Him through these things because still you are outside. You have to come inside. During all these steps, everything, you have to come inside, inside the door, sit down and receive it. Self-knowledge is not the knowledge that: you are a sinner, you are good for nothing or you are a king or you are such and such. This is all outside. Self-knowledge is that, that you are an instrument. You are an instrument and you have to act for the dynamic forces of that Dynamic One, the vast personality whom we call as God Almighty. You are that.

Only thing is the instrument is not yet connected with That. I said till the animal stage we are one with it. We have no problems. Only when we become human beings then [UNCLEAR above shown] there you see on the left the black, right the black and another side is the yellow-coloured in the head.

These are the two balloons, which grow with our activity, ego and superego. And they cover our head completely, by which this fontanelle bone, which is a soft bone in the childhood, you have seen children they're so much one with the collective consciousness, when it becomes hardened up there it is because these two meet and overlap. Man is made like that. He has been given the freedom. He has been given the `I'-ness. He develops this special thing. He has been given freedom because this is the last stage of evolution now. Man has to jump by himself, understanding it.

You do not know how you became human beings from amoeba to this stage. But human beings will have to know how they become one with themselves and how they enter into the kingdom of God. That is their right and to have this right they must have freedom and they must develop their wisdom and discretion, their temperance, how to use that freedom. For this purpose, in our being there is already placed a residual power, which is called as Kuṇḍalinī, at the base of the spine. It is there.

Now. Many Sahaja Yogis, I would say thousands, in America and in India and also other places, have seen it with their own eyes the pulsation of the Kuṇḍalinī at that spine. If there is obstruction in the stomach by some disease or may be some other trouble then this pulsation is much heavier and you can see the Kuṇḍalinī pulsating. Very clearly. The pulsation travels upward when the Kuṇḍalinī rises. You can see that also. You can also feel the different Chakras, is the centers, which are placed inside the spinal cord, not outside as some books have written.

All kinds of funny things they have written about Kuṇḍalinī. Anybody who felt like writing has written.

From the books they have taken something, they have written such big, big books. It's shocking because this is a very subtle thing and a holy thing. Most auspicious. The way they have handled Kuṇḍalinī is something one cannot imagine.

The most highest and the holiest of all has been insulted, has been ruined by this kind of half-baked people just for earning some money. How long do you carry your money with you? Are you going to carry it with you all your lives? Also cheating people or for overpowering some people, all kinds of things have been done in this world in the name of God, in the name of Kuṇḍalinī. It really sometimes amazes Me, how people are really seriously giving sermons and talking big in the name of God, wearing diamonds all over... bought by somebody else's money.

And how can we the thinkers, the ones who have got brains, accept such a situation where we find, where we find that those who are so much interested in all these things and trying to impress others by getting it from others. We have been really misled. It's a sad thing. It's the saddest story. It wrenches My heart, but I feel the innocent, the simple, the seekers... the seekers have been the greatest victims.

They have been, for money, for vindictiveness and also there are Satanic forces that have come up. They are trying also to exploit. They have come in their complete force, in their full regiment they are up here.

It's hard to understand for you people how you are gradually dragged into their clutches and into their jaws and they're about to just clutch you. But you must know that God did not create this creation to be destroyed. He did not create you to be destroyed. There's nothing more powerful than God Himself and it is going to work out and you all are going to get it. I have no doubts about it. I have no doubts.

Maybe some of you may not get it today. Possibly. But you can't say that you will not get it tomorrow.

You will and you all should have it because you are seekers.....

So the Swādhiṣhṭhān Chakra which is placed second now is the one which has got six petals. And this is the one which controls the Aortic Plexus within us. That also has got six sub-plexuses.....

Contents: 1978-05-00 Letter (Hindi) to Delhi Sahaja Yogis, London, UK

Dear Sahaj Yogis of Delhi Your loving letters put Me in the same plight as after worship, every pore of the body oozes out the Chaitanya. It gives Me great pleasure to learn that you all are engrossed in your Sādhana. A mother only wishes dear children should stand on their own and that her acquire their own wealth.

So long as this does not happen, our life will have no fulfilment in spite of (in the midst) all achievements. No Sādhana becomes possible without turning within (inward) we should speak of only that in which lies our ultimate well being and piety. What else is there to achieve in the human life except God? Sahaj Yoga is an unparalleled discovery. The entire humanity will have to be acquainted with Sahaj Yoga in the same manner as a scientific invention is made known to all, only an individual makes an invention but he extends its benefits to the entire mankind. This is the way of man. Another thing is that an inventor can work only on the basis of the knowledge accumulated in the past. Similarly the day has now come when, after several past revelation man has been brought within the horizons of his goal. But when we enter this beautiful shrine we should not forgot those steps which have led us to it. The builder of those steps which have led us to it. The builder of those steps and the maker of this shrine are one and the same.

When we say God is one it does not mean that he is an inanimate monolith like the Govardhana mountain. The one who is the source of life cannot be lifeless. When a human being assumes various roles for different function such as mother, sister, brother and father, what innumerable manifestation the God must be living.

God has revealed to us all the things so that we take to worship and meditation. In the west the people have ample free time. It is on account of this excessive free time that people get completely bored with their empty life and commit suicide. These days so many people are taking recourse to self annihilation.

But through Sahaj Yoga they can find the meaning of life. Man can get contentment only in the perfection of life. Because no one really dies. Only the earthing sheath of the human being is cast away as we cut out our nails. All the rest remains. The unsatisfied should go to the world of the dead and wander as spirits making the lives of themselves and others miserable. One should, therefore, obtain the satiety of Sahaj Yoga and should commend it so that it grows.

What is unconscious, you know well and you are benefited by it. But you do not yet full trust it. It feels offended by this lack of faith and its attention is diverted from you. Therefore rejoice in excellent revelation and sing into praise. There lies your good. Who waxes ignorant even after knowing and who becomes blind even after seeing will remain deprived of God's grace from birth to birth. God is pleased with the innocence of his children not with their cleverness. He knows there all.

Therefore again and again, I say “grow in your inwardlyness." Ever remembering you MOTHER NIRMALA

You have to come with [UNCLEAR]. Alright? I will see you.....

Contents: 1978-06-05*, Public Program, Doing the Divine Work, Caxton Hall, London, UK

They've advertised that Mātājī is going to grant you Self-realisation. It's too much to bear, I mean.

Think that somebody can grant you. And I told them you should not have written this granting. Because after all...

Contents: 1978-06-12*, Public Program, Rationalism, Emotionalism and Wisdom, Caxton Hall, London, UK

... Then what can rationality do? There must be some reason for having rationality in us. Why God has given us rationality? He doesn't waste his diamonds like that! Rationality gives us the sense to understand that we cannot reach there through rationality.

Because, unless and until this thing happens to you, you are not going to believe in it. You are not going to believe in it that, this rationality, on which we depend, which is our support, which is we; we all the time think that our identification is complete with rationality. And we are very rational, we are proud of our rationality also.

So then, you reach a point when, through rationality, where you understand that this is not the horse which will be useful any further. This is the use of rationality! One way it takes you to that culminating point where you think it is to be discarded or cannot be depended upon. On the other side rationality gives you a view, a view which can be related later on, when you get the experience. You start understanding why rationality was failing you.

So it's a teacher on a negative way. It's a teacher on a negative way.

But it is essential because man was given freedom and he started using his freedom, he started using his rationality.

When he reaches that point then he starts depending on his wisdom and wisdom is the balance between his emotionality and rationality, in the center of it, between his heart and his mind. It is a center somewhere there, in the central, or you say in the fulcrum.

So if you are too much on the emotionality or too much on the rationality you have to move further into the center and balance it at a point; then only you are in wisdom and that's how you rise within yourself. Any extreme behaviour, on the left or the right, or dependence, is not going to help you.

This you can understand through even emotionality. A person who's very emotional, he sort of `loves' someone, `loves', you see; and he goes ahead with sincerity after that love and he gets into infatuation.

And then he realises, `Oh! This is not joy. How could I have failed?' So he says, “I have a broken heart." It's better that he realises that.

So he turns to his head. But he turns to his head to such an extreme that he gives up his broken heart completely. It is in the center, in the center of your heart and your brain, lies this fulcrum point. Rationality and emotionality are two extremes, but in the center of it.

So wisdom is an abstract word, what is wisdom? You ask somebody, “Is it wisdom? This is wisdom? That is wisdom?" Then how do you understand the wisdom? By discarding, by saying, “No, this is not wisdom, this is not wisdom, this cannot be wisdom." Here you use both your emotionality and your rationality when you start deciding, “This is not." That is why I said these are negative teachers: in the sense that they drive you towards positivity, in the sense that they drive you towards the Reality. They teach you that this is not the correct. Take any one of your, say, political enterprises I have to call; I mean, they are political institutions. Take communism, take capitalism, take all these sorts of isms that you have all around: all experiments, all your political experiments which you have found through your rational approaches, they cannot give you a solution. Democracy fails, communism also fails. Any other monarchy fails. In the same way the demon-ocracy also fails, everything fails! Then you realise that, “Is there any Truth in going through these things? Is this the way are we going to reach anywhere?" Then you start understanding that, “No, no. We all have made some mistakes now there." But this is not possible for people who are running the race: who are running the race, it is not possible. For example, I cannot talk to bureaucrats, impossible! Because they are holding, they are carrying, the bags, you see.

So, some are democratic some are communistic, I don't know what sort of ways they have.

So these Big Johnnies are not going to listen to us! They cannot, because for them that is identified.

To them that, what they call, is a perfect political institution, is the whole of life and everybody must come to it! That's why when these different ideologies and different isms start flowering you find that they have not yet reached any flowering and they just shrivel up. They lose their existence, because rationality doesn't give you that complete picture. It doesn't give you the complete idea as to how far man can progress with rationality and how far he's going to achieve the result. What is the result? What do we expect? Is to have joy. But [in] any democracies or any communistic countries or any despotic countries, anywhere you go, you'll find the people have no joy; they have forgotten how to even smile! You have to give them an injection to make them laugh! So, this rationality gives us an understanding that all our endeavours or all our enterprises which have been brought forth through rationality are not fulfilling. They show us something but finish off, wither away.

Same with our emotionality: Like we have faith in God. You have faith in God, so anybody who says, “I am God" people run after such a person. There are many who are crazied [crazed] like that! The other day only, I was watching a TV show where they showed a man who said, “I am Christ" and he was the follower of Hitler and he was killing people and he was doing all kinds of things and he had a big following! And the people were crying and weeping for him when he was facing his trial. One cannot explain these things, how these things happen. How can God be that poorly? And how could people who are talking about God could be like this? Because they play on the emotionality of the people. They think, `Oh I feel very fine.' `I could [get] many people to come in,' `Oh I feel very fine in his company, that Guru met me,' `Oh I feel very happy here!' What did you feel? How do you feel fine? What does it appeal to you? It is such a subtle type of diversion from the reality. It's such a subtle type, that you cannot even make [it] out, specially rational people cannot, they are befooled the first! The so-called ego-oriented people are befooled the first with emotionality. To them, anybody who comes with emotions, you know, stands up with very big emotions and tears in the eyes and shouts at the loud speaker, and, as if he is just going to die with the pang, or something like that [laughing] appeals so much [to them]. Because that's the balance for their rational mind that they fall a trap.

So this kind of a emotionality, also, can go to another extreme of madness! Like you've seen people singing songs of separation from each other. It sickens Me sometimes, you know. Sickening! I don't know how people like it. The other day we had that musician who came to Me, so I said, “you sing Me a song” he said “What type of song, Mother, You want to hear?" I said, “Sing us some song of Joy." “Song of joy?" He was lost! He said, “We have produced no song of joy for the last twenty years in this country anywhere. None of them in the English society or the Western people." I said, “No song of joy?" He picked up something somewhere and which also had a sense of crying and weeping in it. I said, “Now there is no absolute joy anywhere!" Just think of it! The emotionality has reached to such an extent that you have lost all praise of joy, completely.

So, you cannot depend on that kind of an emotionality, that in the church, you go and somebody stands in the pulpit and says, “Oh, I am like that you see!" with all the vibrating sounds and all that drama of emotionality. And you say “Oh! What a great..." If such a thing is accepted in life, I can tell you, be rest assured that when such a thing appeals to you, you must know that you are not facing the reality at all. You are not prepared to face the reality. You do not want to face it! You might give any excuse about it. You might identify yourself as, “Oh, no, I am too much of a rational person, I am too rational, I cannot, I cannot accept this. This is beyond me, I just cannot” or you may even say, “I am English, bit too English I cannot!" Or somebody may say that, “I am too much of an Indian, I cannot accept this kind of life." But when you say you are an Indian, first of all, you are misidentified and secondly you are misidentifying with one extreme or the other extreme.

So before starting about your seeking, you have to understand yourself [on] which extreme you're standing. Very important it is. Very important it is to understand this part, “Where do I stand before I ask for Self-realisation?" The another thing about Self-realisation is very important, specially in the Western mind, which I must tell you, I say `Western' because the Eastern have not gone to that end of rationality, that's why, that, one has to understand that we are asking for Truth and Truth is not going to fall at your feet. It is not a clinic opened out here where you have paid the money and you go to the doctor and tell him, “Do I have fever?" Despite the fact [that] you gave him medicine! And you report to him that, “What is this? I paid you ten pounds and nothing has happened to me so far, what about my Eczema?" You cannot demand from the Truth anything like that. Now, this is difficult for a Western mind to understand! To Me also they treat in the same manner, while I'm just good at receiving something.

So I must warn you, nobody is going to fall at your feet or run after you that you get your Self-realisation. No. That absolutely must be understood by all of you. You cannot purchase it. You cannot pay for it. You cannot control it. You cannot ask “How?" It is a great [UNCLEAR]. It is with human beings cannot understand. We have never done like that, we have never seen like that. Everything is a shopping with us.

So our shopping style of mind has to be changed a little. We are not shopping God. There is no shopping involved.

Whenever I meet people I find this attitude in them. As if you have gone to the river Ganges to fill up your bucket and the bucket instead of putting from the side where there is the place for the water to enter it, you are putting from the other side and then you say, “How is it Mother I didn't get it? There must be some trick about it." Yes and there is, so please give Me up! It is difficult because we are used to pampering. Even doctors pamper us, they tell us lies. Even if there is nothing wrong, they'll give medicinal water injection to `save' us, because they have to do their business! Everybody pampers, tells lies. But here there's no question [of that]. There's no need to be pampered. You must know that those who come for you will never leave you. They are doing it because they want to make money out of you. They want to befool you. They want to take advantage of you. They will never tell you the truth. Why should they? If they tell you the truth you will never give them money because Truth cannot be purchased through money. They will never say this. They'll pay attention to your purse, to your position. They are not bothered as to say that the human race has reached a stage where it has to jump, it has to breakthrough, it has to get into that collective consciousness. It has to become that. It's an important thing. That is most important thing.

They are very low people, but they appeal to you because they appeal to your baser sense. Even rationality is a baser sense in man, take it from Me. Through rationality you can do all kind of baser things. Too much rationality can give you ideas how to plan, how to rob a bank. What success that is? How to rob a bank, how to kill a President, how to disturb somebody who is doing something good. It's a fact. Very well through rationality. And people wade through all that without feeling any compunction of their consciences. “So what?" So even rationality, if somebody appeals to you, for God, you should know you are misled. Because it's very nice to pamper your ego, “Oh, what an intelligent man, you are, you are very intelligent” done forever! “Oh, you are very well read” done forever. Never believe. You cannot read the Truth in the books. You cannot understand God through your brain. If you have such ideas, you cannot get to Him. How much was the reading of our Lord Jesus Christ? How many professorships He had? What school He went to? And all the saints of the world with him, any one of them, did they study? So keep away your rationality outside there, just like your shoes. Be humble.

This of course doesn't appeal because rationality pampers the ego and the ego is a big balloon, you see. You press it from one side from the other side it comes and attacks. But I am quite clever and I am a Mother. I am a Mother, so I know how get it down slowly. You are not your ego by any chance. You are neither your superego. You are joy. You are eternal. You have lost it so please find it. And don't dwell upon these out of date ideas. I counsel you, but on Reality, on Reality and not on something that is falsehood. You must have seen in the history that whenever a great sage came a great incarnation came on this earth, they could not talk to intellectuals. Kabīrdas, again I wouldn't say, who was a very outspoken fellow and very outspoken, he said, “Padhi padhi pandita moorakha bhayo" meaning that, by reading the learned became damn fools! And the and the Hindi poets you see, even today, criticise him that his language was very vulgar, was very rude, was very a crude person, they call him `satukari'. Whatever you may say but he said the Truth.

And this is the big Himalayan task for you, I can tell you this much. With all the rational people you are trying to solve the problem: everybody very capable. They will talk like this “I believe". Now what do you believe? What do you know? Big things, you know. “I believe that this should be done!" Big things! Lectures! What do you know? Do you know that not even a leaf can move by your beams and faiths and by your talking and jabbering and breathing. Nothing! It is He. It is He who moves everything in this world. It is He who manages, organizes. It is He who looks after each and everything and it is He who has created you and He who has created this great Universe it is not you or your, this stupid rationality.

Please try. Please try to understand. Because I want you to find that which is joy, which is very beautiful.

Which is great. And the time has come, the time will come, you will find it. Time has come. But in your freedom you have developed such a big balloon in your heads! Rather difficult sometimes to take it down.

And the Divine plays tricks with such people, lots of tricks. And such people do not get what they want.

You cannot ask God to get crystallized in your own moulds! You have to accept Him as He is. Just as He is. You have to just say, `Lord, we can't [do it]. Now, let us just enter into Your Kingdom. Let us see for ourselves what is it like.' Come with an open mind. But you cannot just command that, `We know this is not the kingdom of God!' and, `That is not the kingdom of God!' and, `This is not the Truth!' You see for yourself. Humble down! Have you found Him so far? The other day somebody came to Me, he said that, “I want to meet God. I don't want Self-realisation!" As if they have voted for Him and elected Him as their God! You want to meet God. Who are you? Very simple question I am asking. How do you demand? What have you done? Do you deserve it? Why should God meet you? First of all your Self must be clear, in that mirror only you can see God.

What I want is not the point, because we have seen in the BBC people go round on the streets and ask them questions, “Now, what do you say? What do you say? What do you have to say? What do you have to say?" It is alright for political elections you see, or if you have to sell some material, but for God your opinion does not matter. It is the opinion of God.

It is His way, it is His kindness, it is His compassion. It is His understanding about you which matters.

And that is why, everywhere, whether in religion, or in politics or anywhere, we are nowhere near Truth, nowhere near. You go to a church: Oh God! It's a headache. You go to a temple: another headache. In Indian temples these days they are selling hashish! And here in the church, that day I went, I found that all the girls and boys were dressed up to attract each other, that's what they were doing! And nobody interested in God or anything! As if they have gone to some discotheque fete or some sort of a club there.

So, this kind of attitude doesn't help. It's a very great thing to achieve your Self-realisation. It has been made easy because of modern times. It had to be, as you could never go to the sun or the moon, you could never think of moon, you could never, even see what was on the sun. Now you know what is happening to sun, you can reach the moon, you can land there. This has happened only last fifty years.

Everything has happened so quickly, dramatically! Fifty years back nobody could even think of going to moon.

And hence, Self-realisation has become now an en masse phenomenon. But it is not cheap. It is not vulgar. It is not sellable. It has its own dignity and its own protocol.

The person who is proud of his rationality, or of his intellect, or of his wealth, let him stay where he is.

He cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. The one who is proud of his Father, the one who is proud of his God and the one who knows that He looks after us, every moment, every time, will be saved.

My Grandmother used to tell Me a story, that there is different talk of religion and to be in religion.

And as she told Me a story of a man. She said that he believed in God and that was the Truth for him.

That was the Truth.

So, one day, he found a man, of course it's a story, going to meet God.

So he asked, “You are going to see God. Will you do me a favour?" He said, “Yes, what can I do?" He was lying just on the side of the road, one side and he was saying, “You see, you go and tell God that, you see, I am little hungry these days. You better arrange for my food." He said, “What?" He said, “You just go and tell him." He said, “Look at this man! He is just ordering God that he should give him food!" Then he went further on and through the forest he was passing. He saw one yogi, you see, standing on his head with all his stomach inside, all bones showing off and as if now going to collapse into a very frantic state of devotion.

So he asked...

[MISSING.] That's why you must have Realisation. Because then you start feeling the vibrations, you start feeling the different centers, you start practicing them. Then you settle down with the Truth and you know it is the Truth. Then you forget you are a Westerner, Easterner, you forget you are rational, you are emotional, nothing! You become a citizen of God and a citizen of His Kingdom. Because you start enjoying the powers. And the power doesn't mean oppression, it means love, the enjoyment of love of God. It doesn't mean sex and the nonsense of that. It means love of God, which is a pure, joy-giving and blissful thing, which makes you one with the Collective Being.

But a person has to get out of his limited sphere and limited ideas and limited things. That, ideas he has formed about others and about the surroundings and all that. Just that is all Māyā, is illusion.

Reality is only God Almighty, the rest is all illusion. And you must know this illusion when it ends, you are amazed that, this from, how can it be? How it works? It's dynamic. Then you start enjoying the beauty of His grace and you start seeing it. And you are amazed at yourself that, you were this, so great and you are this.

Now that you have seen. I wish to all the people good luck, let's see how it works out.

So don't you get desperate, it may [work out].

So, please take out your shoes if you don't mind. You have to put your feet, little bit to the Mother Earth also. She helps us. We are made of Mother Earth, that element is within us. And I told one lady to take out her shoes; she wouldn't even take out her shoes! The another fellow says, “I don't believe in any rituals." Now what is a ritual? I mean if you need an operation, I need to move my hands or not? Isn't it? I mean such demanding people I tell you! One day somebody might come with a hunter in his hand I think here, demanding for Self-realisation! “Are you going to give me or not?" [Laughing.] It's so funny sometimes! So, How are you Anna? How are you Ah? You must get Kabīr some time here, I am dying to see him.

Sahaja Yogini: I've brought a friend Mother.

Shri Mataji: This lady? She's good, she's very good. You have such sweet nice friends I must say. I mean, they say, “Birds of a feather flock together” in the same way.

Anna is another beautiful person, she's born-realised Soul. And such people are really very good. She was misled by someone but when I told her, she was little bit shocked and then she was alright, because she's a born-realised, she has a much more power to understand the Truth. But even if you are not doesn't make any difference. You can make [UNCLEAR]. You need to know your own child. She has a son who is very much dynamic, Kabīr, he's very wonderful and very wise.

Now, should we... have your hands like this.

Contents: 1978-06-19*, Public Program, The Difference Between East and West, Caxton Hall, London, UK

The problem of our Western society is this... You see, the Eastern society has its own problems and Western society has its own problems. Basically they are two different problems, absolutely two different problems and to discuss about the problems of the East will be of no use to you.

For example, in the [Bhagavad] Gītā, Śhrī Kṛiṣhṇa has said that, “Yoga-kshemam vahāmy’aham." “I look after your Yoga” means the union with God. `Vahāmy’aham' means: I carry that, carry that process or I'm the person who has to do that process. And `Kshema', Kshema means the well-being, “I look after the well-being." But in India, people absolutely believe that God looks after our salvation. I mean they do believe, I mean that's the faith they have. Which is a very big advantage, they don't believe that they can do anything about it. Most of them, I mean except for a very few westernized, otherwise normally they think that is only God who is going to do it for them. In whatever way possible. He might send an Avatār, or an incarnation, or somebody who will redeem us. They don't believe that they can do anything about it and they are right, they are very right, absolutely that's the correct attitude about things that, Yoga cannot be managed by, `Yoga' means the union, by anyone but for the grace of God. That is no doubt. Like Ādi Shañkarāchārya has said clearly that, “Na yogye, na sankhye [Neither by Yoga nor Sankhya you can achieve it]." By anything, by doing this, you see, acrobatic things or taking postures or doing anything, you cannot achieve your salvation. By doing any, sort of a Sannyāsa it is called, asceticism, you cannot achieve it. He's very clearly said it: by doing all these tricks you cannot achieve anything, but by the grace of the Mother. He believed in the Divine Mother, so he said by the grace of the Divine Mother only it will work out.

Those who try to do it by themselves, will be landed themselves in the hell and will be very hard. He has very clearly said it, but nobody reads Shañkarāchārya, they don't understand Him, you see. He's too high for them, they think. They don't read him. Because he is at such a plane, from where he talks, people don't understand, at all. Like that everywhere, in every religion, all great religions, all the great scriptures, this much is all, everywhere said, that, it is God who gives you the salvation. You cannot achieve it. You can be in the Dharma, means you can be in the central path, you can be there, you can keep yourself clean, you can keep yourself ready, but the salvation is given by the grace of God.

But Western mind is different, is differently made and has come out in a different style. The second part of Kshema means `well-being'. Well-being means He looks after your well-being: this part Indians don't believe into, at all. The first part, the Westerners do not believe into, the second part Indians do not believe in. The second part is that He looks after your well-being, He is your father.

So they do all kinds of thieving, they do all kinds of... I mean, material problems they create for themselves. And even rich people in India are quite capable of taking out black money and smuggling things and all those things. I mean they are all interested in money, absolutely in that, they have no other interest! And if you go to India, people are told that you must keep everything locked, otherwise they will be stealing your things.

But it is not to that extent, but, still I would say, that people have their interest in money, all the time they are thinking, even if they come to Me they'll say, “Mother, will I get my daughter married? Will I get my house? Will I have food to eat?" All these things they ask.

So their question is different from yours.

Now, your first question is of your salvation and salvation, you think you can do it! I don't know from where, which bird has come and told in your ears this thing! That we can do our evolution. It is something like a seed thinking that it can become a flower by its own effort. It becomes, but not by its own effort, but because it is built in that way. And a gardener is needed to pour water and put it right and to bring it to that stage.

So this misunderstanding, I find, is responsible for people not to take to Sahaja Yoga much.

A kind of a terrible obstinacy about it is there. Why? Why this thing works out, let us see now. The thing is, the whole society, as in the Eastern society and the Western society, they have a two absolutely different problems. They are based on two different sides of life. The first one perhaps because you were worshippers of Sūrya, worshippers of the sun and you wanted to show something to the world. You wanted to show that you are nothing [UNCLEAR] and you had to work it out, so you started working out your problems. Your material problems you worked through science and you worked out many problems that are called, say economic problems and the worldly problems. But the one side of your life is completely neglected. In the same way, in India, we can say that, one side they worked out well, is their society, their family life, their emotional life, but the other side they neglected completely.

Now, because of this loss of family, from very childhood you are being taught to be on your own. I mean, it would be something like a little leaf saying, “I will be on my own." How can you be? You are a part of a big tree! To think you are on your own, to be on your own, is wrong. You have to depend on the big tree, which is going to sustain you. Now, `on your own' is being taught from your childhood. That may be helping your ego to be satisfied, maybe your parents have helped, maybe something happened. We have to be on our own.

I have seen children of twelve years, early in the morning when we were in Oxted, in a very terrible cold, you see, our neighbour's children, quite well-to-do people, very well-to-do I should say, some of them were lords and ladies and things. Their children would come up driving on a bicycle, distributing newspapers.

I was amazed! And I asked their parents, “What are you doing to your children? Such small children, young girls of sixteen years, early in the morning, going about distributing the things." So the mother says, “What's wrong?" I mean, I couldn't answer the question, you see. But to an Indian mind it cannot come, because, “Oh God, a twelve year old child, early in the morning to get up and go?" It's too much to bear, to understand, to feel that your own child, which is twelve years old, has to earn for his own living, at this small age when he has to play about. That's the time for play. To be on your own, at that time, is not, that is to be on your own to play. That's the age to play, to enjoy, to see the nature. But from twelve years of age you put the child to be on his own.

So he's on the bicycle, already his heart is catching. Such a strain on the heart. And then the child, what does he want? He wants to feel that somebody wants him and somebody loves him and also pampers him a little bit. It doesn't go wrong. Nothing is going to go wrong with a child if you pamper him. It's a wrong idea, absolutely wrong idea. If you do not pamper your children, whom are you going to pamper? If you don't love and kiss your children and hug them and take them to your heart, [to] whom are you going to do it? Are you going to get a dog? And they do it! I mean, they really do it! They will have dogs and cats in their bedrooms and the husband, wife will be sleeping separately from children! It's wrong.

They must be given love. They must feel they are very much wanted. They must be important, very important. While husband and wife are fighting among themselves, you see! Or the wife is a bride and the husband is a bridegroom. Even [if] he's 80 years old, he's a bridegroom! Still ready for marriage! I mean, what sort of a thing! Absurd it is! The attention is not on the children at all.

The children have to get complete love from their parents, complete assurance and a picture and a model that marriage itself is a boon. The integrity and fidelity between husband and wife, in love and harmony, gives them that feeling. But, it is not so. I don't know how it works out, that, people do not want to show their love to their children, they are afraid. Perhaps maybe somebody has brainwashed you? Our children in India, that way, take too much liberties with us. They have our keys, they can take away whatever they like. They can use any one of My sarīs. There's no problem. I mean, they have to do it, but then they feel responsible. They don't waste so much money as the children here do. If you keep them fulfilled, I mean they never ask for anything. But this is the basic problem: from the very childhood, to be on your own.

So even in Yoga you become on your own! First, the first cutting point comes here, first of all, that you really do not know how to depend on love. Only through your parents do you know what is love.

So I hear many cases like this, that, the father ran away, the mother ran away, this thing happened. Now what should the poor children do? I mean, it's a very sad affair, it's a very sad thing that could happen to children, that, the parents are separated: no love. Then, you fight with your parents, you fight with your parents, get out of your families. I mean, this is another great Satanic thing, I can tell you, because in the family, only, the auspiciousness and the blessings of God exist.

So, you'll find faults with your mother. But on the contrary, if you tell anything to My daughter against Me, she will be your greatest enemy, she can't tolerate, she says, “Whatever it is between me and my Mother." But even her father cannot tell her that, “This is this." So, we say our mother is bad, our father is bad and also your psychologists teach you that, morning till evening, that, “Something wrong, Blame the mother, blame the father” so another sensation starts.

Now, those people who do not have that assurance from their parents are just like orphans, believe Me! It's an orphans feeling of terrible desolation, complete desolate to feel, you feel so lost in life. I mean, mother and father are part in yourself, within you. You know that, we have seen now, in Sahaja Yoga, how we have to correct your mother and father Chakras. They are within you, you cannot get rid of them! So this is one big problem is facing us is this, that, you have lacked love. Without love, the seed of human being is dwarfed, in a way. You may be, because of ego orientation, you see, this gives rise to ego. You are on your own, so, you are on your own. Big ego starts working out. `Oh, I'm going to do this, I am going to do this, I am going to be like this.' The ego orientation starts, then, even when you come to spirituality, the ego orientation is there, to such a great extent, you'll be amazed. Such a great extent! The other day we had one boy, Andy [UNCLEAR Kerr], his friend had come and we had another American gentleman with, his legs were sort of absolutely paralyzed and he was in, what do you call them? Crutches, you can say, crutches. But they were attached to his knees. He came to Me and then I treated him, he was alright, he threw away his crutches, he started walking and I was talking to this boy.

So, still he was on, “No I would like to do my own meditation, I can do my own!" I said, “Now look at this one.

Now he's seeing that I've cured this fellow! There are so many people who are realised. Still he doesn't want to see this is the Truth, one has to accept the Truth." He was not willing, he was arguing with Me.

Because he's on his own! So, you have to realise you are not on your own at all. You are a part and parcel of a Primordial Being, one Primordial Being, you are part and parcel of that. The moment you think that you are on your own, you become arbitrary. Like a cell in the body, how the malignancy sets in. If you are a doctor, you'll understand, that one cell starts feeling on its own and starts growing, growing big and big and big. By this growth, what happens, that's what we call as malignancy, by this growth, it oppresses the other cells that are around it and becomes out of proportion. For example, the nose, if it doesn't meet the base with the whole body, it will become a big nose like this, you see. Or one ear, imagine, coming out like that! Or one hand going like this! No proportion, no harmony, no relationship to the whole body.

So how will you look like? Apart from that, what's the use of such a big hand which goes up to that? You can't even scratch your head.

So, that kind of an arbitrariness, when it sets in, in the mind, that “I can be on my own in everything!" a very subtle type, very subtle type I should say, of blindness sets in, very subtle type of blindness. You just cannot see the Reality. The other day I had a boy from, British wife, now he is not an English, his mother is English his father is a British [UNCLEAR]. And he came to My house, he's only fifteen years of age and he came and sat down. He said, “Do you have any good music?" Very rude, you know, he came there just to see My husband for something. I said, “Yes we have, what do you want to hear?", “I don't like very much Indian music, but if you have something in sitar I would like to hear." I mean, this is extremely rude. “I don't like this! I don't this thing!" I said, “A fifteen year old boy!" Even My husband, who is 60 years now, he wouldn't raise his eyes before his own brother. But I mean his brother doesn't cut his throat: what I'm saying, nothing, on the contrary, they are friends. I mean, they are funny, it's something like respect. This subtleness comes in.

Because the main point of your respect is finished. The sense of respect is finished. You think you are everything, you are very correct and the rest of the world is all imperfect, you are the only perfect person you know. It is a very subtle understanding. Though you'll be saying, “Mātājī, my ego is very troublesome” you will say that. You say that to Me, quite alright! You have said it many a times, but again I find the Mr. Ego coming from somewhere and sitting down there in front of you and you are behind. What do you say Patricia, is correct or not? So many of them. Now why is it that you do not feel the ego but you can feel the superego? Means if somebody possesses you, there's a possession on you. Immediately your neck will go like this. You see, if there's a possession from the left side, your neck will go like this, or you'll get a pain, you won't be able to sleep, you'll be scratching your head, you'll go mad. Or you'll be jumping, or something will be happening to you. But if you are egoistical, nothing can happen to you but to others. You'll be dominating others.

You wouldn't even care for your own wife, for your own husband, for your own children. You wouldn't. And you wouldn't know that you are not caring. You see, sort of a narcissism. You can say it a narcissism, like a love, self-love. You are on top of everything. Self-love! You will see in the mirror ten times, you'll groom yourself very well or you may not groom. The other side is, can be, that you'll become so extraordinarily funny also. You may put a round, here, red thing and you'll put a red thing here and put something in the ears and, you see, I don't know what sort of a thing you will do: just to show that part. It is all self-love, try to face it. We wouldn't care even for the nearest and dearest. It is self-love and self-love is such a subtle, such a subtle kind of, that we do not see it. But it starts like this, “I don't like it!" Now who are you? Some people talk to Me as if they are Duke of Norfolk. I have not met him so far! I've not met him, but even he would be humbler than those people I can assure you! So, the ego-oriented societies lose their faith, that's the way it happen. Think of it. That's a very important thing, is faith. They have no faith in their own parents. Now on whom will you have faith? You don't have faith on your own children, then on whom will you have your faith? That's a vicious circle we have. First the parents had no faith in their children, so the children have no faith in the parents. Where to cut it? Let us cut it at this point and see, wherever we are, let us have faith in ourselves. Faith in ourselves. And when we have faith in ourselves, faith is not the same thing as ego.

Faith in yourself is a thing which is born out of wisdom. It is not born out of rationality. Faith is born out of wisdom. Wisdom comes out of balance of the heart and the head. Ego orientation is only cerebral, is only brain. You see a horn coming out like this, malignant. What do you think Bohdan? [Laughing.] Yes, there are horns! We become unicorns sometimes you know. We do not know we are. In a crowd we go and we really hurt others very badly. Like in the way we say curt things to people, I mean we cannot believe that we can say such things but we do and we should not. There is no care, there is no concern within us about others, because it is self-love, the whole circle is our own.

“My own domain, my own room, my own house, my car, my, my, my, my, my!" But it is not, it is Thy, it is Thy. Kabīr says that when the goat is living she says, “Mei, mei, mei" means “I, I, I” but when she dies and when her intestines are taken out and made into a part of the... you don't have that kind of thing... we use it for spinning the cotton, then she says “Tu hi, tu hi, tu hi" [meaning] “you are the one, you are the one, you are the one." So we have to face ourselves. Now why should we face ourselves? Because we have to be our Selves.

Because if you go too much with this also, there will be a relapse and the relapse will be so sad, we will start thinking “Oh God, what a horrible world I have created of my own!" So you throw it on one side and you go to the other side of superego! Then the drugs and this and that and escape. You see? You want to escape from yourself. I'll give you an example of an international, or you can say a universal, or you can say an international example. People created atomic bombs, alright? They created. God did not create atomic bombs, human beings created them. They created a big monster of an atomic bomb, they put it there. Now they are afraid of the same bomb!

Ego also acts like that, it also acts like that and then the second phase of thing starts.

It is in the center, it is in the center that you find your Self. It is neither on this extreme or that extreme, but in the center, in faith. But faith doesn't mean church going, by any chance. There is no rationality about it. Church going has no rationality, it's mad! You see a priest, who is just selling God! Why should you go to church? It's correct. How can you listen to a priest? It's correct. But then you cannot go to a pub [either]! This is another extreme. Either you go to the church or to the pub. Is there something in between or not? This is the point. That we have to be in the center, we have to come to a point where we find our Selves. In the center, where we started wondering. Where the faith works. Start wondering about faith.

See anything, it's so wondrous stuff, you see! See this Universe: we take it for granted, we take it for granted. See this Universe, see these stars, millions and millions and millions and billions and of billions of years they have been there. And look at this Earth, Mother Earth, how She's creating things, how She's producing things, how She's so beautiful. Even if you see your eye, which you have taken for granted, this eye that is here you'll be amazed [that] it is one of the greatest cameras you could think! Nobody has been able to make a camera like this with all your ego orientation! Just watch this body of yours, just see this being yourself. It's so great, to marvel at how have we become like this. And there must be some purpose of God, that he has made us from amoeba to this. But what are we doing about it? We have to have that faith within us, that, no, there must be some reason why Nature, if you don't like to call it God, has created us, why we are here. And that is only possible when you really respect your Self and love your Self, in the real sense. When you love your Self immediately you will love everybody else.

Immediately. If you really love yourself. I'm saying really. Because you'll find, everybody is connected. It is such a joyous thing to enjoy: being with others, feeling your Self in others, is the most joyous thing. See them laugh and you laugh. See them enjoy, you enjoy. It's such a beautiful thing to see, that others are shining through you.

But no, we don't go there. If something good happens, nobody turns up. People are jealous. You see, everybody becomes very unhappy.

Somebody gets a promotion in the office, for example, that person who gets the promotion also doesn't smile out of fear. The rest of them are very serious, but if somebody dies, there will be hundreds of them going down there to cry and weep.

So try to enjoy others within you, by not arbitrary behaviour, never! But by feeling that they are all within yourself. They are part and parcel of your being. If you are doing good to others, you are actually doing good to yourself, to nobody else you are doing good. Please remember that. You will find this very true in Sahaja Yoga that, in Sahaja Yoga, this doesn't become a lecture, this is not brainwashing: then you become that. You'll jolly well, you'll have to do it with others, otherwise you'll be unhappy. You'll become collectively conscious. You actualise it. It's a reality which you feel.

So lecturing is not going to help. It's the feeling, the actualisation of this thing. But the what thing [which] comes in between, is the ego in the beginning. It's very difficult to push people who are egoistical.

So, what happens? The Gurus come here. They pamper your ego, very much, they pamper. First the ego is pampered by saying, “Alright, five pounds, if you pay me, I will do it." So your ego is a little bit satisfied. “Alright, I can purchase this Guru!" Purchase! Secondly... you see, then they cheat you, you see, this is one of the ways of pampering your ego, I really tell you. I went to America: there, one gentleman was charging $275, for what? For initiating one spirit into that person. They asked Me also, they said, “Mother, they will not understand unless and until You charge them." I said, “This is too much." I mean, this is an insult! So this is how, first of all, they pamper your ego. Then there are so many other ways by which they pamper your ego. Or they try to completely neutralise you, make you so weak that you just surrender to them. Both are wrong things. Enticement, hypnosis, all these things are absolutely wrong. If you have to be your Self, you have to be in complete awareness, in complete freedom, in complete choice. It cannot be forced on you. Even if there is one person, I can't help it. Even if there are three persons I can't help it. Even if there are thousands it's alright. But it cannot be forced onto anyone. It has to be asked for! Then, only... It should be your choice then only, you can do it.

Now, one more point I would like to press and then we'll have session for checking up on you.

Let us see now, how do you really do it and how we want to get it into ourselves this... because of this problem, what happens to us and how we deny it. And it continues for some time, people will say that, “It continues for some time." That's why it is difficult to retain it, because it is a very subtle thing and the point that I want to make is that God has His own protocol. You cannot treat Him shabbily, you cannot treat Him cheaply, you cannot treat Him with indifference. Then, only, it stays, otherwise it can pass out, it can go away.

It is a very subtle thing. And that's why I would request, because the whole society is charmed like that! In India I have to tell them another thing, is that, you don't worry about your money problems, you don't ask Me for money. You see, that's a different thing, forget about that part. But this part, this is the point [that], though materially you are affluent, you are alright, you don't have to seek food now. But still for spiritual food you have to ask for it, otherwise you do not get it. It's a very, very subtle thing, and, as a Mother, you can say, or as a mediator between Divine and yourself, I would like to tell you, very frankly: it is a very subtle thing.

And that's what happens with our Sahaja Yogis: they come here, they get Realisation and then they disappear. Then after three, four months they come back. “Mother, I got caught, caught up again." So I just tell them that, “How many times did you come to the program?" They said, “Mother, we had no time, we couldn't come, we couldn't do this and all that. This happened, that happened." But I said, “Then, you do not expose yourself to Sahaja Yoga, you do not keep yourself, then you do not retain it. It goes down." And that is very important! Getting Realisation is not that important as I would say, because it will work. At the first shot it works very fast, because your Kuṇḍalinī is waiting, just waiting for a chance. As soon as She sees Me, it goes.

Kuṇḍalinī awakening takes place, I see that, very clearly the Kuṇḍalinī suddenly rises up like, you see, like the rivers flowing towards the Ganges, with a fast movement. But it goes back. You get your Realisation alright, but the Kuṇḍalinī again goes back and corrects at different places.

So you have to follow Sahaja Yoga in total and understand that. Still, if you are going arguing about it, it doesn't work. It's not going to help.

So you have to know what you are seeking, what you are trying to find out and I would like to know before we start anything else: what are you seeking? What are your problems? You should tell Me and then I will tell you how Sahaja Yoga can answer all your questions.

All your problems can be answered only through Sahaja Yoga. Of that, I'm sure. Hundred percent sure! But only problem is that we do not take guidance from our unconscious, we take guidance from our ego. As long as we are having our guidance from our ego, it is going to mislead us, because the mind, if it is ridden by ego, it won't work for us. We have to ride the mind and not the ego. When the ego rides the mind, the mind goes hither and thither. But when we are on the mind, mind is also happy and it is the mind which takes you there and which leaves you there at that point. Because, you see, when you have reached your destination you have to leave your mind also.

So, one must know that we have to ride our mind and not the ego or the superego. Superego is the one when people get possessed. That's the one, that's the point.

So I would say that, for retaining the vibrations, you have to do certain things. And some of those things could be that we have now got some tapes here. You should bring your tapes and get them taped for yourself, that's a good idea. And you must learn how to give vibrations and give Realisation to others.

At a point wherever you can. And work it out! All of you can get the tapes from here. You yourself can start it in your own friendship in your own circle. Like that, you see, it will work out fast. In India it works out that way. But here you know, it's such a slow movement and, I mean, as soon as a Sahaja Yogi starts talking, any Western Sahaja Yogi talking about Sahaja Yoga, people say, “Oh shut up, you are no good." Immediately! “Mātājī must talk to them, otherwise they are not convinced." Because the ego clashes with them, such a clashing goes on. But in India it is not so because the ego part is less. That's why it is not so.

Supposing there is one man, whom I gave Realisation say, in Pune, he goes to his village and he tells them, “I have found it! I have found it! I have found it!" They say, “Really? You have found it?" “Yes!" So all of them gather near him. Then he tells, “This is the thing I have found, this is the thing, you just verify and you see for yourself" and goes [away] and, finished, that village is finished and that village, I don't have to bother. When I go there, all the villagers will come to a big village somewhere where I live.

It's so simple. But here, you see, nobody is easily convinced. You have to break your heads and I have to break My head, morning till evening. Today I broke My head, for how many hours? Tell Me. Hours together! Convincing that please try to retain your vibrations! But for small, small things they give in.

Even things like, if I say, “Take out your shoes." Even that hurts them. I mean, this is bit too much, isn't it? I mean, they think that God should come with a garland and with a candle light and garland them and put candles around them. Is it possible? Do you expect God to do that? It is too much to expect! Isn't it.

I do pamper you, as My children, I do. I know, I pamper you, as My children. But I would not like to pamper you to that extent that you lose your vibrations. That would be wrong, you see, because My motive is just that you keep your vibrations alright and you be there, which is a subtle thing and you rise gradually. If you start losing your vibrations then gradually your position will come down.

Today I said that I will be little informal because very, very few new people are here and I could talk about it to you.

So, I would also like to know if there are any questions or anything. Before that we would like to see these three people getting their Realisation. Now, put your hands like this, alright? Let's see.

Like this. Now Pauline, are you feeling any Cool Breeze in your hands? She's very much in the center, because she came walking with Me, I could see. She's a person very much in the center, very much, no extremes she has. Now, what about you? Are you feeling anything? What do you say? Left Heart.

Shri Mataji: Now, what work? You are a very hard-working person are you?

Seeker: Sometimes, not always, sometimes.

Shri Mataji: Sometimes. These days? What are you doing?

Seeker: Cleaning.

Shri Mataji: Cleaning. Cleaning what?

Seeker: Cleaning a factory.

Shri Mataji: Oh God! That's it. Too much of imbalance. Don't you have machines to clean the factories?

Seeker: No.

Shri Mataji: You see, if you use too much of your activity on the right hand side, physical labour and things like that, then the left side, you see, is completely neglected. And that's why your left side is weak.

But it will work out.

So you put your right hand on your heart, alright. On your heart, on this side. Yes, little lower, yes that's all. Now, what about him? David, can you tell? Today I don't find Philip here. He didn't come? Liver, heart?

Sahaja Yogi: Center Heart.

Shri Mataji: What's it, what's the problem? Are you feeling secured in life?

Seeker: That's a difficult one.

Shri Mataji: Why? Come here. Come here. Is she alright? She's alright. Just sit down, turn round.

Sit comfortably, absolutely comfortably. Are you comfortable? Sure? Alright, now hold your breath.

There's one compulsion in Sahaja Yoga. You have to wear a singlet inside the shirts, you cannot wear shirts without singlets. You see, this gives you catching of the cold. I'm mean, it's a simple thing, you know, M mother has told Me, I feel so funny but it is true. You shouldn't wear only shirts. I know it is very hot, but in India you wouldn't find one person, even children. They will wear always a singlet, because when it is warm it is more necessary. Because what happens, that you perspire and you catch terrible cold. It can lead you to pneumonia. I hope you are not feeling hurt, if I say that?

Seeker: No. I came in a jumper.

Shri Mataji: Alright. Even with a jumper you must wear a singlet inside, alright? Now, how about this one. He's alright. Now, hold your breath, can you? Alright. Please. What do you say? Hmmm. Your shoulder has some problems?

Seeker: No, I've broken my neck.

Shri Mataji: When? When did you break?

Seeker: Six a years ago.

Shri Mataji: Oh God! She's alright, I think she's got it. She's alright. She is also very hard working.

They are all feeling you. Pauline, you are also very hard working?

Sahaja Yogi: She's been a teacher of Yoga.

Shri Mataji: Oh! Teacher of Yoga? How long?

Seeker: years, years.

Shri Mataji: Oh! That's the thing... heart. Just put her into balance. I'll tell you about Yoga, alright Pauline? I'll tell you, it's no good, no good. It's meant for an actress or for wrestlers, not for yogis, it is not. It's good now. It's better. Ha! Still on the Sahasrāra. Let's put it out. But you see, if you have been a Yoga teacher, I can tell you, it will go back to your heart again.

So be careful. I mean, where is the Yoga teacher gone? He has not come today? Oh God. When will he be coming? Tomorrow?

Sahaja Yogi: He's working for two weeks continuously, early in the morning until late in the evening.

Shri Mataji: Is it? Very bad neck he has there. How did you break your neck?

Seeker: I was in the parachute regiment, in the army.

Shri Mataji: Parachute? Human beings have developed all kinds of funny things in this world I tell you! I just can't understand, what is the need to do parachute? Why do you do it? What is necessary? Even our prince is going there to do the parachute. I mean, you better tell him! It's no good. I mean, it's all absurd you know. Why do absurd things, morning till evening?

Seeker: Yes I know

Shri Mataji: Oh God, you'd better write to the prince that, “I broke my neck” I don't want to have a king who will have a broken neck. Why do all these horrible things? I can't understand what. There's no need to parachute. It's better now. But you promise you'll never do that again.

Seeker: Oh I won't.

Shri Mataji: Then I will cure you, otherwise I will not. Because here I cure you, again you go back and break your neck and come back, you see! Because it's a mania also with people. You see once they parachute they cannot stop it, I'm told. [Laughter.]

Sahaja Yogi: It's probably the first case, Mātājī.

Shri Mataji: No, I mean, I'm told like that. That once you start doing something... [GAP]... who are having parents and all, they don't join you. You see, they just don't do it, because the parents put a restriction on them, you see. When I asked My daughter what sort of husband she would like to have, she said, “One thing, we'll not have someone from the military, from the navy." So, that's what it is. That's all, that's it. What to do? It's a horrible thing, this Haṭha Yoga. You know, I'll tell you about Haṭha Yoga now Pauline. You know these, Haṭha Yoga has come here through one gentleman, who was in India, Śhivāṇī. And he started it, I think, about twenty years back or so, maybe little earlier. Because he went to Himālayas to get his salvation and he couldn't get it.

So, you see, there are six things that are to be done, with a Guru. First of all, you have to be absolutely celibate, Brahmachāri. Then there is yama-niyama –‘self-restraint’, but they are hard. Īshwara Prāna-nidhān, Mana. All these six things you have to go through together, under a realised Soul. That is the compulsion. If you read Patanjali, who has introduced Haṭha Yoga. You go and read him! Now [in Haṭha Yoga] all that is left out.

This fellow came out from there, most frustrated.

So he knew certain Āsanas that are to be done. Now these Āsanas are related to your Chakras within you. We have got certain Chakras in our body, they will tell you, seven Chakras and these are for those Chakras at a particular time. To be done when the Chakra is in danger. For example, you have a headache and I start pressing your hand, what will happen, your hand will also pain! There is a big science about it. Now, this fellow brought it down and because of these so-called exercises, you see, you will definitely lose weight, quite a lot. But there are other problems that develop and you go into such imbalance, that the left hand side the heart, is caught up.

We do not have here Alex. You should ask him, he has a friend who is a Haṭha yogi and he just can't bear it. Because such a people, you know, too much of left side neglect become so much dragging that they become absolutely dry. And most of them will have divorces with their wives, because they become dried out. They go so much to the right that they become absolutely dry.

Now, this is nowhere in the medical science described, that you must be emotionally also strong, you should be physically also strong and you should be mentally also strong. There should be a balance and integration. Nobody thinks of that. A doctor is a doctor and he'll just look after your body. Psychologist is a psychologist he'll look after your left side. That's why the balance, he's not bothered about. Then what happens? These problems come.

But we have to get the ultimate isn't it? Why you do not want to do it, for any other reason but to get to God. Spiritual Yoga should be asked for and for that, this Haṭha Yoga, you have to be with a Guru for years together. From very childhood you are taken down there and they do the cleansing. Now there are two ways out. One method is that there is darkness in the room, you come in the room and I'll tell you, “You put this right, you put this right, you put this right and you do it like this." Another could be that I put on the light and then tell you, “Now put it right." So Sahaja Yoga is that system by which, first of all, the light has to come on and then you can put yourself right. Alright? So these Haṭha Yoga and this has a basic difference. And that was a very difficult Yoga because only very few people could do that, very few people achieved it and it was to be done before the age of twenty-five years.

Despite that, very few people got Realisation. But, with Sahaja Yoga, you get your Realisation first and cleansing later. This is the difference. Alright? Now, this difference is there. You are asking for what? You are asking for bliss, joy, happiness in life. You are asking for the Divine life to come into you, to be able to emit that life to others, to help others to get that life. If that is [what] your seeking is, then Sahaja Yoga is for you.

But if only seeking is that you reduce weight of people, say for example, you see, you have to create actresses now, they are all anxious now they haven't got some measurement, this should be the measurement, that should be the measurement. And even the old women of My age are working hard to be that! I mean, I don't know, we lose our purpose completely. I mean, what is the purpose of life? Is it to actresses somewhere? I don't know what is the need of such a thing. Even the doctors are, I'm surprised at them.

Everybody will, they will say, “Don't eat sugar!" I mean, this is absurd. Sugar is very much needed for liver and in this country especially where it is ego-oriented, your liver gets spoiled and if you don't eat sugar, what are you going to do then? Your attention is going to be all mad. No wonder people land up in the lunatic asylum. They start thinking they are suffering from paranoid troubles. I mean, sugar is very important for liver.

So, general prescriptions are there for everyone. For a housewife, for a woman who is going to lead a normal life, there is no need to go into such drastic stuffs. Only for women who want to make money out of their body, which is a dirty stuff. Why to make your body that attractive to every man? Spoiling his attention and your attention. What's the need? The whole ideology is wrong. Nobody feels attractive actually. Now that it has become such a mundane stuff. And even that attraction, it's so temporary and so useless. It spoils your attention, it spoils others attention, all your life you become nothing but a nail painter all the time morning till evening. I mean, we must value our lives much more than this. You are very precious people.

But perhaps people don't realise in this country, or in the Western countries, that they are mostly saintly people born. Really saints, they are seeking God. They are not seeking anything else, even when they are doing Haṭha Yoga they are seeking God only, you see. But they do not know. They're all seeking God. They are not seeking all these cheapish things at all in life, they hate it. But somehow the society is such that they fall a trap into it. But you get out of it and see for yourself.

You have to seek God, you have to meet Him and you have to be that. That is the main thing and main thing and main thing. That's the only thing to be asked for.

“Twamevam sharanyam, Twamevam varyenyam" It is only You who is to be sought after, It is You only to be surrendered to.

Nothing else we want in this world. Then everything comes, you get it. Alright? Pauline, do you understand? This is the role of Sahaja Yoga is. We have to make it very clear to you. To all of you. This is the role. Better now?

Seeker: Yes.

Seeker [who's not paying much attention]: Can you do Haṭha Yoga for balance?

Shri Mataji: No, no, no, no. You see, I don't mind, sometimes you see somebody who is suffering too much from possessiveness, you see, possessions say.

Somebody is possessed. Then if he takes you little sort of exercise, walking about and all that, he puts the right side. May be little balancing. But the trouble is, you see, we are extremists. You see, like a pendulum we are, we are real extremists. We are like a, what you can say, a spring. We go this end and try to go to the other end we never stop in between. We just go to the other end. And that has started, that phase has started in this country already. This hippyism and all this is the second phase. From first to the second has already started.

So you see, if you start using Haṭha Yoga. I mean, once in a while, of course I tell you, how to, for example Viśhuddhi Chakra can be cured by Bhastrikā [a breathing exercise]. But Viśhuddhi Chakra is only needed and at that time you should do Bhastrikā which is a very simple exercise, which can cure him. But that should not be an addiction. That is only till he gets cured, once he's cured he need not do it. But if you over-dose yourself, what will happen is a simple thing! Are you better now?

Seeker: Yes, but you started the shoulder now, I've dislocated that too.

Shri Mataji: Now I'm massaging you well. Alright, now let Me see, put your hands under feet nicely.

Now close your eyes. Now very good, Still? Now how is Pauline? Is she better? Yes, see, they are showing two Chakras! [Laughing.]

Sahaja Yogi: It's very cool on the right hand side.

Shri Mataji: Good, she's good, you know she's a seeker. She's a real seeker.

So you keep to your being, don't take to fashions, that somebody says, “This is this, this is this." No! You are a seeker. You are a seeker of the Truth and keep to the Truth. Alright? This is what it is. Not to listen to anyone. You see because we must have our own personality about it. What I feel, when we have ego, at least we should have our own personality. We must decide for ourselves. Hā! It's better. Because you are a seeker and don't now try to allow others overpower you. No. You should be there to know that you are a seeker and you are a saint.

So you must become a saint. You must assume your own powers. Alright? Close your eyes, let's see. Just close your eyes. Now what about him also? Just sit down.

Sahaja Yogi: He read Aurobindo.

Shri Mataji: Oh, Aurobindo you have read. We have also read Aurobindo.

Sahaja Yogi: Yes, that's why.

Shri Mataji: Alright, we'll manage him. Now give her a bandhan, she's alright, she's very good. He'll be alright, no problem. This Aurobindo! His ladyship [wife] is building a big, has built, a very big place in France. She was going to become young, you know, old woman. At eighty she was trying to become young! Is she better now? She is much better. Give her a balance and bandhan. Now, how are you sir?

Seeker: I'm OK.

Shri Mataji: Not OK as yet. I have to press your neck you see. Another parachuting. This parachute should be internationally banned. You see, really, I just can't understand! I mean, I can understand small children jumping from something and you have to tell them [off]. But grown-up people do this like children.

I can't understand that. If they take to horse-riding, God save them. Anything, football, like mad. How are you now? Better? Just see her, Mandy, can you see her vibrations. Abdul, how are you? Did you meet our Djamel who is holding his neck because I think he's feeling it, you see, everybody is feeling the neck there. You see, because I am holding your neck everybody is feeling their necks. It will be alright, I'm sure. Now, just keep it like this, loose.

Seeker: Oh, that's it.

Shri Mataji: Alright? Better now?

Seeker: Yeah.

Shri Mataji: Good! See? Alright. Good? Normal?

Seeker: Yes, much better.

Shri Mataji: I had to first loosen it, it's very badly stiff, absolutely stiff, all the bones had jammed together. Better now? What do you think about her? Abdul, can you see vibrations? Come along Djamel now, come along. Don't you worry about your neck, I'll put them right. See him, come here, both of you.

No, this lady, this one, just see her vibrations. Your feet should be straight. Ha!, that's right. Is it better here now? Are you feeling any burning or anything? No. In the hand, nothing? Where is it?

Sahaja Yogi: Swādhiṣhṭhān.

Sahaja Yogi: She also has a problem with left Nābhī.

Shri Mataji: Nābhī, what else? You mean right. Right? and Nābhī? Left Nābhī. Better now? Now where is the Kuṇḍalinī? 59

Sahaja Yogi: Nābhī area.

Shri Mataji: Swādhiṣhṭhān?

Sahaja Yogi: Nābhī area.

Shri Mataji: Still Nābhī? Why are you so serious? Seriousness doesn't give you health, be light, likable, it works out. I'm trying to make you laugh all of you, all the time. Joking. Why you look so serious? Pauline, you don't have to be serious. Ha! It's good now, she's alright. Raise her Kuṇḍalinī she'll be alright, I'm sure, she's good. How is this gentleman? Now, how are you?

Seeker: Good thank you.

Shri Mataji: Good, now are you feeling any throbbing in your hands? Hold My feet, just see. Both the hands? He's got it. Now close your eyes and see is there any thought in your mind.

Sahaja Yogi: She feels fine.

Shri Mataji: She, fine? I think she's alright, she's great. What's your surname Pauline? Pauline: O'Donovan.

Shri Mataji: Odon? But you have to be little careful or it will go back. I'm not saying, maybe, because all the Haṭha yogis had a problem, you see, so I must tell you. But they come back, they are do it well. Who else we had, a Haṭha yogi here? Among you I don't think but... How are you now? That's his pain you are getting, put yourself into bandhan. How are you Dominic now? Everybody is feeling. That is his pain, he has a pain. You see, collective consciousness, that's why, in collective consciousness you feel it.

Better now. Are you feeling the throbbing alright? It's good, now sit down. Is there someone to tell him how to do? Be careful, he's sleeping. Alright? Take your time, sit down on the table, sit down there, ya! That's good. Better now? Now you are not feeling the pain. You see, because you were feeling Me, because I was touching him. But I'm not feeling any. You were feeling it. Now you know. If there is pain in the body, here, all the nerves feel it but the brain doesn't. In the same way. Now you're not feeling it at all. You are feeling happy. Finished! Still a bit there. You had that, so that is your own. That is your own, but his pain is over. Is he alright? Oh, it is to be seen how Sahaja Yoga works. It's a wonderful thing.

How is she? Now you can go and sit there and let Pauline come I'll see her. Pauline come here, come. Sit down. Anyway you can take now, because you are a Haṭha Yoga teacher, you can take a Padm’āsana or something that's it! Siddh’āsana you know? How to? Or Sahaj’āsana like this, straight. Like that, straight.

And Sahaj’āsana is absolutely spread out. Very good. And you put your left hand on your liver, Debbie, on this side, little higher, yes, little higher. Left side. Raise it, put it to the balance.

Contents: 1978-06-26*, Public Program, What happens after Self-realisation, Caxton Hall, London, UK

The question is “what happens actually after Self-realisation to us?" Of course, I mean, you feel thoughtlessly aware; you feel collective consciousness; you can feel the Kuṇḍalinī of others; you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī; you can feel the Chakras. This is all you know. But actually what happens in a deeper way to a human being has to be seen.

So first of all, let us know what are we as human beings before realisation; so we will know what happens to us after realisation. Now this subject is very subtle and I would like you to listen to it very, in a very, very great concentration.

Today I am not going to talk about abstract things but absolutely about something that is very much matter of fact.

A human being is created out of evolution, you know that very well that he is created out of evolution.

Now there is a big controversy going on. They don't understand this; that's why there is a controversy.

But he is developed in seven stages. And that is why it is said that seven days it took to create this world. We can say the whole universe took about seven stages. But as you understand a seed has got all microscopic things in it to manifest all the parts of the seed. In the same way human beings were created.

And as the seed is again recreated in the flower, or in the fruit and then again manifests itself, in the same manner as the basic tree had done; in the same way you can say that every human being also has all these seeds in him.

So let us go to the very beginning of the creation, absolutely to the very beginning. Of course, I have told you about how, firstly, the separation between the power of God and God Himself took place. But then, after that when the power which was basically one power giving rise to three powers. One power can give rise to three powers. For example, electricity is one power but it can become heat, it can become magnetical, it can become anything. In the same way, one power of God, of Divine Love, can give rise to three powers and these three powers moved in an elliptical way. This much I had told you in My creation lecture. But today because we are so close and very few, I think we can tackle this subject better.

Now these three powers we can say like this, three powers, this one first, second and third. Or we can say, this one on the left hand side, this one in the middle and this one on the right hand side. These three powers started moving in an ellipse like this. Now the central point, say is the God and these are His three powers. But there is no one line only, you can say, but three of them together moving like that, like an ellipse. And back to that point. And again move like this. They can move in 360 degrees and to them also different directions. But by this movement only, they created the space and also the time that took them to start from one point and to reach another point. And the space was in between these ellipses.

So individual movement, every individual movement, created a space and time. This movement, when it came down like this, it went round and round at a point, one on top of another like a spiral coming up you can say. And then it again moved back. When this movement had only taken place, this round thing that is formed, or circular thing, now has three powers around it. One in the center, one on the crust and third one around it you can say. These three powers in the Sanskrit language are called as Mahākālī, Mahālakṣhmī and Mahāsaraswatī. There is no word for these in English language. That doesn't mean we discard all scientific words, but there are no words like that.

These three powers, out of which the one that was Mahāsaraswatī, is the one that had five elements in it, one power had five elements. The second one is the Mahālakṣhmī, was the one that was carrying the genie in it of evolutionary power; so this was the evolutionary power. The third one was the desire power, is the Mahākālī.

Now these when they move in a circular way, like that, the outer crust as you have seen, is formed by Mahāsaraswatī power. These are the five elements. When this circular movement became very dense, then the whole thing sort of solidified. I mean in English language only you can say `solidified'. There's no words for sort of expressions otherwise. But we can say `solidified'. And when it solidified, it cracked, but it had all these three powers.

You can imagine. We cannot understand. We can understand the five elements because we are scientists, but we cannot understand the power of evolution. But it is there; we see its operating. From where does it come? And we cannot understand the power of desire. It is there. But we don't believe in it; we can't believe in a power which has got these three aspects. But it is there; it exists. But we do not want to accept it. Because, you see, it is a gross eye we cannot see it. You cannot see the desire of a person.

So will you say that person has no desire? These three powers existed. And with the cracking of that round, big thing, it's called as the `Big Bang', I recently learnt it that it is already written in the science books that it's called as the `Big Bang'.

Actually I did not know that they have already discovered this part.

So and that is how the Big Bang was created. And these again started, you see, these fragments started going round and round. And by their movement, you see, their angularities were cut out and they became round bodies. But still they had these three powers in them. With the first power, which had the five elements in it, that those five elements have worked out in a human being, or we can say, manifested in the human being as the body of your centers, Chakras, the material body of your centers comes from these five elements that have come from the Mahāsaraswatī power. Now these elements, in the same proportions have created certain stars.

That's why because these stars have the same kind of proportions and we too have the same elements within us in that proportion, we say that stars act on human beings. We need not go into that; that's not important. For evolution that is not important. Our main interest is evolution. Our main interest is to evolve into a superhuman being.

So the second power is the evolutionary power and it works throughout. It works when the matter is freed. First, the matter is just, you can say, the lava you can call it, or the heated gases which are formed, which have these three powers in them. And then they consolidate. Then these three powers coordinate, cooperate and work it out.

So the desire power is inside them, which desires, which controls the desire of God. It is God who desires that these things should happen and then it works out.

Now for a scientist to believe is impossible. But scientists must know, even if they desire, they cannot change the quality of matter. If carbon has got four valences, it will have four valences. If you put hydrochloric acid into, say, sodium solution, sodium hydroxide, you will get a particular type of reaction you cannot change.

But for God, it is His desire that created this universe. And through His desire, He created all these elements that you know of. The carbon was created; it is all evolutionary power. From desire it leads to evolutionary power and the evolutionary power then works it out on the elements and then the elements get divided and get into their different manifestation of these elements.

Now, when this happens, gradually the same desire power works through the evolutionary power by giving different religions, [UNCLEAR to] different powers.

Now there is no word for Dharma as we were trying to find out, you see, trying to find out a word, could say decorum. But what is a decorum to matter? It's nothing.

I was just thinking about it. I mean, the matter doesn't have any worry about decorum. But we say the original word decorum means the inner understanding.

So the inner understanding is the desire of God, to understand the desire of God and to manifest it through your own being.

But up to the human stage it is just done the other way round. That the human beings can desire for things, they can ask for things. In the same way animals can ask for things but their desires are fulfilled by God's will, till a certain stage of human beings. I'll tell you how.

Because God created, say carbon, carbon never desired, all right? God wanted to create a carbon; so He created it. He never desired, actually He never thought of it, never. But from carbon He made other things and elements, other elements came. It was not desired by matter at all.

So, at the time of matter, the desire power was dormant. God's desire power acted. But carbon was not conscious of it, neither the carbon asked for it. It's a simple thing.

Second point we come to the animal stage, which was also organized by God only. I mean, from matter to human beings we have not come by our desire or by our doing at all, at this, is it? It was God who desired; so He created animals out of elements. When animals were created, I mean the life, as we can say, when life was created and when life came into being, the desire started manifesting itself.

For example, an amoeba desires to eat. But the desire comes to Me and he fulfils it in the sense that he sees something, he goes and eats. He desires and he asks for it. Still the evolutionary power is not evident anywhere, only the desire power.

So first, only the matter is there, evident, then the desire power comes in, `till they come to the human stage.' Till the human stage, the monkeys never wanted to be human beings. I don't know; if you consult them, then they'll say: “Oh God, please save us from that nonsense; we are happy people." Because to be human beings was not asked by them. Neither they had any idea as to what it was like.

So up to this point, this evolutionary power never played any role. But when you came to the human stage only. And also at the very evolved stage of these modern times of Kali Yuga, at this time, we can say...

Of course, this desire existed since human beings were on this earth, to know the beyond, this desire was not existing before the human stage. They never cared for the beyond.

But it's only the human beings. You know how the ego and superego developed and how they become separated, seceded from the main force and how they want to be. Now to make somebody think about the beyond; how do you do it? First, you create an atmosphere by making him feel that he is imprisoned. A bird who has got all the sky to fly out, doesn't bother about the sky. But put him in the cage, then he starts thinking of the beyond. In the same way a human being... I mean imprison it is all very ugly and very cruel. But it is not that way. What I am trying to say, the shelling of man is played because his ego and superego developed because he raised his head in his evolutionary process.

And when these two meet then this `I'-ness, this separateness, this bondage, human bondage started.

Now the desire came to go beyond. Now for the first time, the evolutionary process has started working itself through us. This desire to go beyond, the evolutionary process, started working in human beings.

It started moving this side, that side working out that, doing this. In this search so many sorts of ideologies, so many sorts of `isms', so many types of Yogas developed. They [UNCLEAR saw] anything.

To go beyond.

But it is to be understood that everything has been done by this desire. If you could just know that `Thy will be done' is the theme of evolution; if you could feel that from your heart you are Sahaja; that's what it is.

This is a very difficult thing for human beings, especially in places where people have done, `Oh, I have done this.' You see their statues are erected with their swords in their hands. What have you done? Killed many people. Created problems. What did you achieve? Have you achieved joy for anybody? Have you achieved the evolutionary ascent for anyone? What have you created with all this beauty around this whole place? They all are absolutely stupid together, everything, all human effort. Have you been able to break that bondage? Simple question. No.

But to accept `Thy will be done' is the most difficult thing for human beings and that is why to be Sahaja is a difficult thing.

If I tell you, `You stand on your heads' you will do it. Isn't it? If I tell you even, `Take out your intestines,' you will try, if you are to meet God.

If I tell you that, `You come and see Me,' they will say, `No, better to go to India and see Mātājī there than to see here.' Because, you see, some effort should be there, something should be done.

What you mean in Caxton Hall freely, you just go there, Mātājī will give realisation? It's beyond human conception. Beyond his own powers, because he thinks, `Oh, that's the part where I'm missing myself.

So far I've done everything by myself. How is it possible?' That's the first doubt that comes into the mind. But this evolutionary power has to be sought, has to be asked for. And this is why human beings are living on this earth. If not today, tomorrow all of them will have to come to this. Otherwise all kinds of problems, physical problems. Say cancer. Cancer cannot be cured unless and until you get it, cannot.

You try. You go on removing the nose, the eyes, the ears. It will spread. It cannot be cured. You have to jump into that beyond stage, otherwise it cannot be cured.

Even in religion. People keep in the bondage and follow the religion. You cannot. If you are under the bondage, you are not following any religion but your own ideas, your own concepts. You are not following the will of God.

Once you become that, then your will becomes the will of God.

So what happens that through your being the vibrations start flowing.

The parasympathetic nervous system, which is within a human being, is the desire of God carried out through [UNCLEAR it]. Then this desire of God starts flowing through. Integration takes place; a complete [integration] and the manifestation of the evolutionary power takes place, in the sense that desire is put on the elements.

For example, we had a lady here and her husband was a drunk, a great drunk. And she couldn't come and see Me because her husband was a drunk. And she said, “Mother, what should I do? Must do something with my husband." I said, “All right. You bring some limes." Because limes are very good receptors of vibrations. It's a fact. It sounds funny but they are. What can I do about it? If the limes are like that, I have to use the limes. If any other thing is like that, I have to use that. But limes are the best.

So I said, “All right. Bring some limes." So I vibrated the limes. I gave it to her. I said, “You put them under his pillow for seven days." And next week, the gentleman was here.

Now what did I do there? Nothing, I didn't even think about it, to be very frank. I just put these vibrations, which are the desire of God, into those limes. When the limes were put there, the desire power of My desire power, which is the will of God, started acting.

And they convinced the people who were inside him, the entities might have been inside him, maybe. Or they might have convinced his mind also, or his desire power they might have somehow or other managed.

That his desire power was brought to such a level, that he didn't feel like drinking anymore and he was all right.

Today you'll find one boy will be coming here, an Indian boy. You have seen that little boy who comes to Me. And from his childhood, you see, they didn't know what had happened to him. When he grew up a little, they found he was extremely restless and he would not sit at one place. And he could not even speak, either. He used to run about and cry and weep. And all the time they had to, I mean, really chain him just like a dog. And no doctors could help. They went to all kinds of things, to make it worse they went to spiritualist, the horridest thing that you can do to a child. I mean this is absolutely anti-God business, you see. Anti-God.

So nothing could happen. Then somebody told them about Me, they came to Me. And I just did the thing. And with the limes, the child is now sitting all right.

And today she says, told Me on the phone that, “His understanding has improved a lot. He understands that it is decent to sit properly and he now doesn't misbehave. When he goes to other places, he sits all right and he's all right. He's started speaking a few words." Now, I didn't do anything, you see. Or perhaps I touched that boy only once.

The vibrations that you know of, these Divine vibrations, are the desire of your Spirit. But the existence, itself, is a desire. Existence, itself, is on the desire. That moment the desire finishes, the existence finishes. That's why it is such an important thing to human beings to exist. They'll try anything to exist. Because that is the last. Once the desire finishes off to exist, then that's the finish of a human being, means that as long as, as we call it, that the desire is in the heart. As soon as the heart stops, we are dead.

Now this desire we have. We have desire to have a house. Everybody wants, you see, to live in Buckingham Palace, all right? We want this matter; we want that matter; we become that. But this is not the desire of God. This is our own desire and there's a bondage. Then we are under the bondage, `This is our desire, we ask for...' Even Sahaja Yoga, sometimes people ask Me, “Mother, what about my marriage, will it come through?" Leave it to God. Now, if it has to come through, if it has to be, all right, then God will work it out, not you.

Which is very subtle and difficult for people to understand. Then, what Kṛiṣhṇa had said one can understand that: “Karmany’ev’ādhikarsate ma phalesu kadachan." We have to do what we want to do.

Karma we can do. But the fruit of that, leave it to God. Because He knows. The desire of God has to work. The desire of God is to be accepted and He has to work.

But that is not possible by giving a lecture to you, by giving you a brainwash, `All right. Leave it to God!' This God can be pope, God can be some cardinal, or God can be somebody in India, some sort of a priest who's selling lies.

I mean anybody can that way be a God. That's not the point. The God in you, if He is desiring, then He does whatever is best for you.

So, after realisation, what happens that your desires get vibrated.

Your desires, the priorities, start changing. The importance starts changing. Because through you, the desire of God starts working.

It is really interesting: today only, once somebody told Me that he used to go to Germany and would always go and have some wine. Because wine was his favourite and he liked German wine and this time was wine festival or something. But after realisation, very expensive wine he thought, `Let's try it,' so he bought it. He took two, three sips and he just couldn't take it; he didn't like it; he threw it away.

But I didn't say there that, `You just don't drink.' But it's the God in you creates this feeling. And you feel his desire. Your desire becomes one with Him. And that's how you start discarding. And this is the greatest thing that happens and that's why your priorities change.

There was a lady who was a very efficient housewife. And she knew how many clothes she had and how many her husband had and how many children she had and what was the phone number of XYZ and of the police, of this and that and everything she knew by heart. Absolutely efficient. Extremely meticulous. And everything polished and everything in her house.

But if you went to her house, despite all her efficiency, you'd feel like running away by the back door.

Straight off, see. No warmth. No love. And you would feel, `Where to sit?' I mean, to do that it's so meticulous, you wouldn't feel relaxed anywhere to sit down. Because the lady was so particular about everything.

So, she gets realisation. And then what happens? Her priorities change. She came and complained to Me, “Mother I am forgetting most of my numbers; I am forgetting how to cook; I don't know where are my things." I said, “Really? It's very sad." She said: “But one thing nice is happening to me." I said, “What is nice happening?" She said, “I get it done better. I am cooking much better. People don't run away from me. Things worked out, You see." I said, “How?" She said, “I don't know.

Somehow or other I have got the idea of now of timing and not of time." How do you get timing? Difference between time and timing, you have to see the time. And the timing is that you know what time.

Today only, we were coming down. And I said, “Let's get the taxi." So he went to get the taxi. We were upstairs. After I don't know how many minutes, because I never see My watch; is always out of order, I told them, “Let's go down. The taxi's there." When I was there, the taxi was waiting. He didn't even press the bell, we were there in the taxi.

You see, you get the timing. It's so fantastic that people can't believe it, how is it possible. Then what happens, that's the God's time. He organizes things in such a way which we call the unconscious.

The unconscious becomes conscious within us. What is unconscious is the desire of God. The desire of God becomes, in us, conscious and it starts guiding us all the time. And the guiding, if we leave it to its guiding, it guides us through and through and through. I mean a simple thing like a taxi, I mean doesn't matter, even if I have to walk it makes no difference. But I'm saying even that part is looked after.

So why worry? You sit down nicely. Just do what you feel like. And it's there. It happens. You see this point? We say, `We leave it at Your feet, oh Lord.' What does that mean? With a single movement, He can create this universe. Really, He can. Believe Me, He can. He has done it. You have not done it.

You cannot even create a little atom.

So when we surrender ourselves, after realisation, before realisation, nothing has meaning. No, after realisation when we say, `We surrender ourselves to You, oh Lord.' Oh, He has telecommunication of His own. He has a dynamic force.

So you'll be surprised that it is a power which has the desire of God in it, every particle of it.

Now, can you think of a matter which has got evolutionary power, the vibrations and which has got the desire power? Every part, every particle has that.

But when that light is lighted in you, whenever you touch anything, you get it. That thing, whether it is matter, whether it's an animal or whether it's a human being, gets touched by it and changes. Only thing is that the human beings are aware of it and the others are not.

So today somebody came in and he had a bandage. I said, “All right, take my shawl, rub it on it." Finished, he's cured. You see it happens. If you call it a miracle. But so many other miracles we take it for granted. Look at our eyes.

So the basic thing that happens to you is that your desire power becomes one with God and that everywhere, wherever is the desire power of God, which is no place, because that's the last thing and the first thing. It was the first which started manifesting and it is the last where we are going to end up.

So it is the first and the last. All those spots; and there is no place where these spots are not there. That's why you say you are everywhere. There is no place where you do not exist. It's like that and works. Only in the case of our dear brethren, the humankind that they can deny it, the great freedom of humans to be stupid exists, to be foolish, to be arrogant, to be egoistical, to be blind is respected. Under the name of `scientific', under the name of `rationality', all kinds of things people do and reach nowhere.

But as you say that human beings have freedom to be stupid, foolish, to be superficial, to be peripheral and somehow they have accepted that kind. That's why to get people on the Sahaja is a difficult thing.

Moreover the desire of God thinks, understands, organizes and loves you, but it doesn't pamper you.

It loves you but it doesn't pamper you. If you are really seeking, then only it dawns upon you. Otherwise it does not. It is very subtle; it is a very subtle happening. It happens to those who really desire it, that their desire should become one with God. Only such people get realisation.

So, in the democratic way, you cannot judge Sahaja Yoga. No, you cannot. Because democratic ways you can say that, `How many people there are coming to Sahaja Yoga?' No, not at all. The less they come, the better it is. That shows, because most of them you see are foolish and stupid people in this world, what to do? Then the more they come, it only means that there are more people who have become wise, they want to become wise, they want to improve themselves; they want to change their lives. They are truly seeking.

Because this is not a superficial stuff, which normally people take sixty percent. And at least thirty percent more are the people who want to take something in, which they can play some role.

So ninety are correct.

Because “they must play some role." I don't know. Even if I tell you, “You pull your hair like that"...

You see there is a community in India, in which, I mean, we have all kinds of people, you see, but this one is special. They are called as Digambara –‘sky-clad’ of the Jainism. They don't wear any dress, see, nothing.

They are absolutely, they don't even wear bikinis. You see, absolutely they live without any dress. Very embarrassing, you know? Actually it so happened to us that My husband worked, when I was very young, he was the collector of a district. And we were invited to a function by these Digambara Jains. Till then I didn't know that they lived like this all through. I thought that at least in the presence of others they dress up.

But no, they made the collector and his wife sit in the front, with all the honours and all the people were there, at least thousand people. And these Digambaras were sitting on a platform which was about four feet high. Imagine the embarrassment. And I didn't know where to look, you know. And they would go on scratching their body and all that. It was most embarrassing.

So ugly, everything. But even that they are willing to do because they thought by that they become Digambaras, means they become great saints, you know.

So they are willing to do that ugliness and that horrible shamelessness.

But apart from that, the worst part was that they were all pulling their hair.

So we didn't know why all the time they are pulling their hair and this thing.

So the another thing is that they are not supposed to go to any barber. And they are not supposed to have any hair on the body, so they are all the time pulling their hair you see with their...

Sort of it has become an autism.

It's a fact, I tell you. And there must be, I think, five, six thousands like that in India who are doing this nonsense, you know. They walk on the street and when they walk, nobody charges them for nudity.

Otherwise, in India it is not allowed to be nude on the road, you see, you are charged for that.

But these people we have too, you see. Because in the laws, they will say: “This is our religion, you see, you cannot stop us from being idiotic religion." Just, so they have to agree to such a thing.

So imagine, there are thousands of people who are doing this kind of a nonsense just in the name of religion. And they are very superior; they don't look at anyone: `No, we are great. We have sacrificed our shame, our rationality, but greatest of all our wisdom we have sacrificed in the name of God. And that we are going to sit on the right hand side of God when we enter into the kingdom of Heaven.' This is one extreme case I am telling you. Because, when I describe extremes, people understand absolutely the extremes to which we go into our conceptualisation of reality and of realisation of that reality.

So to be there one has to know that the greatest mantra is `Thy will be done.' Little bit of relaxation of your mister capital letter E, capital letter G and capital letter O. If it could be little bit given room for a while, then it works out like that [snaps Her fingers]. Rather difficult. Because that is the instrument that was used so far to express yourself. But to express God, you'd better give up that one.

But then once it happens, then after realisation you overpower all the elements. What are these elements after all? They are nothing but the dust of His feet. Only the human beings have put them on His head and given them the freedom to choose. And that's why I have to beg of you to take to your wisdom, to surrender to your wisdom and give up your e-g-o for a little while. Then I'll manage. Let it touch the Kuṇḍalinī and touch it again. It is all built in; it is all in you; it is going to work out and it works out; it has worked with many and it will work with you.

But it is an individual question. It is a question of an individual as far as ego is concerned. But it is also a collective force. Like many channels, you see? For example, it works much more in India because there are much more channels to work it out. You see these are the hands. God uses Sahaja Yogis as His hands to work it out. You must have heard of the Goddess who has got one thousand hands. She has these powers behind Her and they are the hands. And She uses different powers, because she has to do a complicated work, somebody has to pluck your hair; somebody has to pluck your nose; somebody has to pluck your eyes. The trouble is, you see, we are so much stuck up with everything, this is somebody's proud of, even I have seen people are proud of their ties which you can purchase in the market.

So, these things are to be taken away. Once you relieve your ego and all these powers will work it out, you see and things will be alright.

Naturally the instrument changed; the ego instrument is changed.

So the priorities change. But what do you get, as a result? The bliss, the joy. All the promises of all the scriptures. The time has come and you should have it, you should have it. Master it and use it. That's the way it has to be.

But I have seen people come from Sahaja Yoga, they get realised, they telephone to Me: “We are very nice, Mother. We are feeling very nice." They sit at home also meditate. But you have to come here.

Because it is a very deeper way of cleansing. And who is going to cleanse you? I am the washer woman.

I have to do the job.

So better come to the laundry, that's the point. And work it out. And once you are established, you'll be amazed at yourself. Even with the movement of your hands, you can raise the Kuṇḍalinī. You can. Just see. You can give realisation. Just try; because your desire merges into the desire of God.

With the ego orientation, with the ego working, the worst thing that has happened to human beings is that his attention is disturbed, is spread out. His attention is not concentrated. The ego orientation has brought about such a disturbed attention, we cannot keep our eyes at one point. Either we look at others, or we want others to look at us. All our attention goes about like this. We cannot look at ourselves, where the attention has to move.

And this is the worst thing that ego has done is to spread your attention around. That is the reason, you see, if you go to the antique shops you can find in this very country there were people who were creating beautiful things... [GAP] You know, just see how the unconscious has worked. I tell you. Have you not seen a [UNCLEAR], you see. Have you not seen it going out? Have you not seen it before? Everybody's attention goes, this is unconscious working. Again. You see, at this time, why should it go out? Attention will let it go down.

I am telling something important and very important. Your attention immediately looses. This is God's will. He said it.

I'm saying the attention can be concentrated now, after realisation only. But even realised Souls have to work it out. This is the biggest problem that I think I see. That our attention is so distributed, we cannot do anything in a concentrated manner. That's why there is Guru shopping also going on. We also cannot do our Sahaja Yoga in a concentrated manner. Because once we do Sahaja Yoga, we're all right, `Oh we felt very nice, happy, Mother.' Finished. Because attention doesn't stay at a point, it becomes mobile, spread all over. Doesn't reach any depth or height either. If you put them together, then it will work out.

And to make it worse, to make it worse ego orientation which has led us to sex orientation.

The attention has become filthy and that's why you can say that it is stagnating by ego orientation, but it is getting fermented because of filth to which we pay attention.

So to clear the attention, clear this garbage into that clear-cut, beautiful lake, you have to go within.

You have to allow it to sediment. You have to take pride. By its own nature it will come, the beauty.

And then you will see a ripple in that lake within you, a peaceful space in which you will see the bliss of God flowing into you, through you, you observing it and seeing it manifesting into other. That is what needs to be asked for.

No mental activity can do that. It is only the desire to be that works it. Only the desire to be one with God works it. Mental activity, rationality saps it. Through rationality, you cannot reach to God.

So humble down in your heart. That's why it is said, “Those who will be blessed have to humble down in their heart." It is very true. It is very, very true that we have to humble down in our hearts, so that it will work.

And keep your attention steady. Is it too much that I'm asking? You started with a very humble heart as a child. Only in this life all this has been accumulated bit too much. In past life you were not like that, much better off.

Only in this lifetime only you have crossed the limit a little bit. It's not difficult to recede.

So just try to humble down in your heart and it will work out. Every time you get your touching of the Kuṇḍalinī, or you can say the breakthrough, every time you get that experience, keep it in your memory and desire that and it will work out. Do not keep in memory the faults that you have had, where you have been.

When you climb up on top of a hill or a mountain, you don't remember all the ditches you have fallen into in your childhood. You enjoy the atmosphere on the hill top.

Make it a strong memory within you and try to keep it there. I know for some people it's difficult, they come down, again go up. Because of the problems they've had before, the Kuṇḍalinī comes down.

But in Sahaja Yoga there is all arrangement. But if the desire is strong, not the mental activity, but the desire, it will work out. And that's why I told you why it is to be, “Thy will be done." Accept it from the very beginning. This is the basis of what you're going to rise. But the whole details I'll give you later on. But this is the basis which you'll have details of.

Now can we close our eyes and put your hands towards Me.

Just say, “Thy will be done." Put your hands towards Me like this and just say in the heart, `Thy will be done.' Suddenly you will find that the thoughts have gone beyond thoughts.

Those who have come for the first time, please come forward, it will be better. Those who have come for the first time, please. Just, no, you can sit on the first and second row so we'll know that. Because those who have come, are here. Please come. There's nothing to be afraid of. Makes no difference. Come along.

... goes to other people. And we have to realise one thing: that a human being is born in a different [UNCLEAR style/time] than an animal. A human being has a sense of ego. A human being knows what is repulsive, what is not, a fragrance that we call as beautiful. Maybe that if a buffalo is passing that way, may not notice it and he would not mind any kind of filth around. God has made human beings a very special one. Now with our intellect, with our growth, in our understanding of things, the awareness that is developed, of course through our ego, our effort. But still, when human beings reach a certain stage of development they realise that the joy of life is not in matter. They realise it, rationally, not through any experience, but rationally they see [for] themselves. They see around and they find those who are materially equipped are not happy; rationally. But there is something innately built in a human being, that he tries to think beyond. He wants to know beyond. He doesn't feel satisfied with himself. You may have everything that is asked for, like Gautam Buddha; he was given all the comfort, everything, all the indulgences, all the pleasures of life, but still He wanted to know something beyond. And that beyond is within us.

You'll go to various places to satisfy this spiritual urge within us. We listen to it. In different ways, we run about. Even in the pleasures that we find, there's nothing but is the hidden spiritual ascent. Because we do not find any joy in these things that's why we turn ourselves to God, to spirituality, to Christ. But we do not know how to find Him. You try the same [UNCLEAR cruel/tool/old] method which you have used so far. Supposing you have to find something for yourself, you will use your effort; you think you have to put in an effort. That's the way we have lived all our lives. By putting effort only you have been able to exist. Even from the stage when we were amoeba, the amoeba had to put in some efforts to get to [UNCLEAR his food/this state].

So this style of our life has been through effort. But then, even when we think of the beyond, naturally we think of putting in some effort about it. What will you do? So we read books! They will read bibles, we go to church, we go to temples, we go to mosques. Then we start going on seeing people, the holy people and still you do not find it, because it is within us. You are trying to find it outside. It is said everywhere: it is within us. It is [UNCLEAR within that all the source]. It is in our heart that the source of joy exists. But we go outside; we try to find out from others.

Human beings have developed really surprisingly. Many seers have been seeing this, like science; we can say, like psychologists, other sciences like medical sciences and things like that. And they have also reached the Moon. But still outside.

There is no way of going inside. You do not know how to take your attention inside; that's the [UNCLEAR way it is/that's] the main thing. That's how you feel frustrated. You reach a point when you say, “No, this has not [UNCLEAR achieved/worked for me]." You try to do every sort of thing whatever somebody says, “Alright, by standing on your heads you will get it” you'll stand on your head.

I mean, not that you have failed yourself. You've not [UNCLEAR failed/felt], you've done whatever was asked for, but still you did not find it. Or they may also say, some of them are really talking like this that, “You have to find it within yourself." But you don't know how to find it. You don't know which is the way to find it, how to take your attention inside. You are listening to Me, you are paying full attention to Me, but if I say, “Please pay attention to yourself, within” you cannot. But supposing you are paying attention to Me and this glass falls down, something happens, immediately your attention will be attracted towards that.

So to attract your attention inside, some happening has to happen within you.

There has to be a happening.

Something has to happen within you by which your attention is attracted inside. Now this is not brainwashing. If somebody brainwashes you, “Alright, you do this, you do that and you do that", very simple way. A happening must take place within you so that your attention goes inside to know yourself. And if that is the step ahead of you, if after this human stage, you have to jump into that, then there must be something built in us. After all, God could not have created us from amoeba to this stage for nothing at all.

Now people, there are some people here having a big controversy about evolution and God. There is nothing like that. You see, it is so integrated. God has evolved us; scientists won't accept, but He has, whether they accept it or not. He has helped us to come to this stage and so many scientists have accepted this, that it would not have been possible to become a human being in this short time, till the time as [UNCLEAR preceded/receded] from the Sun. It was such a very, very little short time that even a living, one unicellular animal like amoeba could not have been created by the law of chance. But they do not want to explain it. You see, whatever they do not want to explain, they cannot explain, they [UNCLEAR stamp]. Another man says, “This is God” but still, why should you accept that? Why should an intelligent man accept God? Because Mātājī says so? Why should he? Why would any scientist accept God? “Science is alright set him out." So the time has to come where you have to prove Him, you have to convince; not mentally, but by experiencing Him, by understanding Him.

Like there are many psychologists who believe in the Universal Unconscious and they have proved it, that there is a Universal Unconscious which this gives us in our dreams a lot of balance, courage, harmony.

And they have tried to prove how people who depend on their unconscious are always helped in life and are happy. But they too being human beings could not grow at the complete synthesis, synthesis of this Truth, but only part of it. Like they can come into dark rooms say, “This is this. This is this." Another comes from the other side. He says, “This is this. This is this." But the complete Truth, they could not put forward.

So they are also denied.

Now the style of human mind becomes a denial style. It goes on denying. He says, “No, not this, this is not true. That is not true. Even science is temporary. It doesn't exist, so it's not true. God is not true, no Guru is true, nothing is true." Then he's [UNCLEAR slept on it]. But there is an urge. If there is an urge for drinking water, that means there must be some water provided for. If you believe that there is God who is compassionate, who is kind, then you cannot think Him to be that cruel as not to give you the water of life. And who, so many of them, the great people like Christ, Kṛiṣhṇa; they were written about all these things, they cannot be all wrong.

But there has been always a gap between the people who are born at that level and people born at this level. And they could never explain; only those who are sensitive accepted them.

So now we are at a juncture, at a time, where something has to be done to prove it. This has to happen. The happening must take place, that too, en masse. This must happen to many people otherwise if it happens to one person, he's crucified, he's given poison, he's treated as mad, insane, till he lives. When he dies they'll make temples, churches, wear diamonds, move about seriously, preach about Him. When He lives, murder Him.

So the time has come for us to have a new awareness, a new dimension by which we can make out who is good, who is not; by which you will reach that universal unconscious, by which you get connected with that Collective Being about which everybody has been talking. Even Lyall Watson [author of `Super nature and Life tide: A Biology of the Unconscious'], the recent biologists, talks about a being which is a collective being and he thinks that it can embody himself and come round to tell us and decode about the universal unconscious. Everybody has their hoping for this so it must happen. It has to happen. And it happens because you have got within yourself a complete mechanism built-in through your evolutionary process, which is now shown here. This is a very subtle thing. It's an energy and you cannot see it; the doctors can't see it. We have here about two, three doctors sitting down and they find that medical science is irrelevant now after getting to subtlety. Because whatever is available through the senses, that's all we can grasp. But whatever is beyond the senses, you cannot. Either we should develop an awareness which is beyond the senses, like a person should have a microscope to see things on the microscope, or you should say, “It doesn't exist." You cannot force people to say something which they do not feel.

But I am just telling you about this instrument that is within us; but you need not believe Me. But you need not deny Me also. It is both ways. This instrument is within us placed like this. Now I'll tell you, there are seven centers placed. The first is the red one that you see. Down below is the red center which is called, I mean, only in the Sanskrit language we have names. It doesn't mean that it is Indian, but it is only in Sanskrit language we have the name. It is not the property of Indians or anybody, it is the property of the whole world and everybody has it. But as in the medical sciences, the names are only in English. And there are so many things where the words are only in English, like `economics' and all that. One doesn't deny it. In the same way, if some things are in Sanskrit language, you shouldn't be angry about it and you shouldn't feel that, `How can that be?' Some things can be known by others also who do not know English language.

So it is like that. Because India is a country where people are more leisurely and there were some people who sat down into meditation and who really worked to find out what is beyond. And they have seen and they have felt and they have understood these things that exist within us. But you also, once you are realised you will also know that it exists and you will see the pulsation, you will see the rising, you will see every Chakra and you can feel it. All this will happen to you after little maturity, after your Self-realisation. But you have to little bit work.

As I said that, this is our evolutionary process, so it is a living process. You can understand a seed growing that way. In the same way we grow up into our own manifestation, into our new awareness. Now, a seed becoming a tree: do we ever think that this seed is going to become the tree? But it does. We take it for granted because we see it every day. It happens every day, so for us it's not a surprise. But, for people who have never seen it happen, would be quite a big surprise. In the same way, this Kuṇḍalinī when you will start seeing it, you'll be surprised that it exists. It exists at that round pink place which is at the base of your spine, the triangular bone. You can see it pulsating. It is to be awakened. It is a residual force kept there waiting for your evolution. That is like a primule, or what we call in Sanskrit an `Aṅkūra': is the part of the seed that anchors itself in [UNCLEAR there]. That is placed within you, it is there, it is existing. But you know, I have to tell you one thing very frankly, because I've read so many books on Kuṇḍalinī, I am aghast at that, aghast. I don't understand. Specially the foreigners. I can understand Tāntrikas doing that nonsense because they were definitely Satanic. They wrote it because they were Satanic; they were horrible people, sinful people. But I can't understand Westerners who have known Christ, to confuse sex with Kuṇḍalinī. How can sex give you Realisation? How can sex be part of your evolutionary process? It cannot. But it helps us to believe [this], because that is one thing we can do! Awakening of Kuṇḍalinī you cannot do, it is beyond. You cannot achieve it, it is beyond you. It is like a light which is not yet enlightened and it cannot enlighten itself by itself.

Some enlightened light has to enlighten it. You cannot do it.

So here clearly you can see the red spot is the spot where the deity for the, all these reproductive functions of human being is placed and is known as Śhrī Gaṇeśha. He is Śhrī Gaṇeśha. Śhrī Gaṇeśha is the Deity embodiment of innocence. He is the One who was created long time [back] and He came on this earth as Lord Jesus Christ. He's the source. He doesn't belong to you or to any Christian, He belongs to the whole world. He came for the emancipation of the whole world. If you think that Christ belongs to churches, He does not. You take it from Me. Neither Kṛiṣhṇa belongs to temples, neither Christ. You just open your eyes towards your churches, towards your temple. You see, you have put up some clergymen, appointed upon and you say, “They are the people in charge of Christ." How can they be? How are they related to Christ? What do they know about Christ? You can read Bible, you can interpret Him. What is their model before you? You are also people paid by you, they are your parasites. How can the parasites criticise you and say, “We are that"? But you do not want to think about it. Because we are members of a church, we club together; we want to deceive ourselves on this point. You have clubbed together, but you are a seeker. Church is not going to give you what you want, it is your own temple in your heart where Christ has [UNCLEAR described]. [UNCLEAR You didn't know it till now] and that is what you should ask for. That's the thing, that you are the master of everything. And nobody can give you religion but your own.
